

Index

A

Accounting systems: assessing need to change, 5–7; traditional, 5–6
ASB (annualized summary budget): comparing cash flow budget and, 9–11, 12; sample, 10
Assets: accumulated capital, 77–91; used as collateral, 52, 53; hypothecation of, 53; liquid, 7, 109. See also Capital; Liabilities; Ownership
Association for Healthcare Philanthropy, 84

B

Balance sheet, 6
Bank meetings: details discussed during second, 65–66; initial first, 63–64; preparations for, 62–63
Bankruptcy, 73
Banks: making date with the, 63; nonprofit loans from, 61–62; securing line of credit from, 61–66; sharing deficit information with, 75–76
Baumol, W. J., 85
Baumol's cost disease, 120n.10
Bernstein, P. L., 34
Board members: avoiding management-by-crisis, 52; cash flow concepts understanding by,

6–7; collateral offered by, 70–71; footnote application to, 24–25; implications of Cash Flow Forecaster for, 32; internal creditholder group established by, 70–71; taking loans from, 73–74; understanding how to monitor financial reports, 35–37
Borrowing: from banks, 61–76; businesses versus nonprofit, 8; issues to consider when, 42–43; role of inflation in, 43–44. See also Creditholder programs; Loans
Bottom lines: financial decisions and role of, 46–47; nonprofit and two types of, 45–46
Bowen, W., 85
Budgets: cash flow, 6, 9–19, 64, 116; comparing ASB and cash flow, 9–11; overview of, 9
Buildings: accepting gifts of, 102; selling gifts of, 103
Businesses: cash flow in nonprofits versus, 7–8; nonprofit use of secondary, 109. See also Nonprofits

C

CAP (certified public accountant), 5
Capital: accumulation of, 77–80; cash reserves or rainy-day funds, 58, 88, 89–90; from earned revenues, 23,

- Capital, continued
 109–112, 117; as liquid assets, 7, 109; summary of recommendations on use of, 116; working, 108–113.
See also Assets
- Capital accumulation: competition for resources related to, 79–80; popularity among nonprofits, 77–78; Statistics on Income Division report (1998) on, 78–79.
See also Endowments
- Capital campaign: costs of, 97–98; options other than, 101–102
- Cash flow: failing to spot problems with, 69; incentives for/benefits of, 3–5; in nonprofits versus business, 7–8; as tool for understanding operations, 7
- Cash flow analysis: evaluating operational use of money through, 41–42; three key factors understood through, 4, 41, 88
- Cash flow budget footnotes: applied to board members, 24–25; consulting fees, 23; donations, 22; earned revenue, 23; expanding usefulness of, 21–24; fringe benefits, 23; gifts, 22–23; grants, 22; legal and accounting services, 24; part-time wages, 23; printing expenses, 24; rent, 24; salaries, 23; supplies, 24; utilities, 24
- Cash flow budgets: comparing ASB (annualized summary budget) and, 9–11, 12; described, 6; example of summary, 16; financial information revealed through, 15–19; including in bank meeting, 64; sample, 12–13; streamlining, 14–15; summary of recommendations for, 116
- Cash flow concepts, 6
- Cash Flow Forecaster: cash flow comparison using, 39; described, 4; “fuzzy forecast” created by, 34; implications for board members, 32; inflation estimates by, 44; monitoring fiscal affairs using, 38–40; practical applications of using, 32–34; predicting risk using, 55–56; seven-year forecast using, 33; unique benefits of using, 29–32
- Cash flow forecasting: classical approach to, 30; described, 6; included in bank meeting, 64; information provided through, 28–29; as strategic tool, 27; summary of recommendations for, 116
- Cash flow graphs: accumulated cash or debt, 18; comparison of income and expenses, 39; income and expenses, 17; monthly income and expenses, 17
- Cash flow reports: described, 6; monitoring fiscal affairs using, 38–40
- Cash reserves (or retained earnings): comparing line of credit and, 89–90; described, 58; pros and cons of keeping, 88
- Certificate of deposit, 55
- Chronicle of Philanthropy*, 83
- Collateral: definition of, 52, 53; legality of cash/cash equivalents pledge for, 57; loans without, 54; offered by board members, 70–71; types of, 54–55
- Concessionary lease, 104–105
- Consulting fees, 23
- Control issues, 95–96
- Conventional lease, 104–105
- Conventional mortgage, 98–99
- Council for Advancement and Support of Education, 83
- Creditholder programs: advantages of using, 57–58; definition of, 52–53; establishing internal, 70–71; legality of cash/cash equivalents offered by, 57; nonprofit organization, 55; problems with, 58–59. See also Borrowing; Loans
- Crisis-driven fundraising, 71

D

Debt: crisis-driven fundraising and, 71; graph on cash flow and accumulated cash or, 18. See also Loans

Deficiency guarantee, 100–101

Deficits: analyzing and gauging situation, 70–71; crisis-driven fundraising to manage, 71; described, 67; financial losses versus, 74; how to manage, 4–5; informing the bank about, 75–76; initial actions after learning about, 68–69; investigating cause of, 69; leading to bankruptcy, 73; Linzer's Law of Littles on, 68; loans from board members to cover, 73–74; public revelations regarding, 75; three possible solutions to, 72

Depreciation, 100, 102, 105

Discount sales, 110–112

Donations, cash flow budgets showing, 22

E

Earned revenues: cash flow budgets showing, 23; discount sales/subscription campaigns used for, 110–112; secondary businesses used for, 109–110; summary of recommendations on, 117

“Edifice complex” rationalization, 104

Endowments: assessment of having, 82–83; continued need to fundraise in spite of, 87; costs of raising money for, 85; costs versus benefits of, 83–85, 86–87; definition of, 80–81; disadvantages of, 81–82; fundraising for three-to-one matching, 85–86. See also Capital accumulation

Equity: business, 7; nonprofit prohibition from selling, 8

Expenses: capital campaign, 97–98; cash flow comparison of income and, 39; fundraising, 42–43, 85;

graph on cash flow of, 17; graph on monthly, 17; leasing or rent, 24, 99–101; printing, 24; supply, 24; utilities, 24. See also Liabilities

F

Federal Reserve, 56, 81

Financial decisions: avoiding management-by-crisis in, 52; bottom line role in, 45–47; cash flow forecasting role in, 27; costs of fundraising as part of, 42–43, 85, 109–110; how cost of money influences, 42–43; organizational plan for, 64; regarding ownership issues, 105–106; time problem role in, 44–45

Financial reports: continued importance of conventional, 40; monitoring, 35–40, 116

Financial statements: balance sheet, 6; cash flow budgets, 6, 9–19; cash flow forecast, 6, 28–30, 64; gathered for bank meeting, 64

Fiscal cycle, nonprofit versus businesses, 8

Fixed expenses, described, 11

Fixed income, described, 11

Forecasting. See Cash flow forecasting

Fringe benefits, cash flow budgets showing, 23

Fundraising: crisis-driven, 71; discount sales/subscription campaigns for, 110–112; endowments and continued need for, 87; financial decisions and costs of, 42–43, 85, 109–110; secondary businesses used in, 109; for three-to-one matching an endowment, 85–86

G

Gifts: accepting buildings as, 102; accepting land as, 102–103; cash flow budgets showing, 22–23; selling buildings given as, 103

Goethe, 5
 Grants, cash flow budgets showing, 22
 Graphs: accumulated cash or debt, 18;
 cash flow, 17; cash flow comparison of income and expenses, 39;
 monthly income and expenses, 17

H

Hansmann, H., 82–83
 Harvard Endowment Fund, 82
 Hypothecation, 53

I

Income: cash flow comparison of expenses and, 39; earned revenues as, 23, 109–112, 117; graph on cash flow of, 17; graph on monthly, 17
 Inflation: Cash Flow Forecaster estimates on, 44; financial consequences of, 43–44; impact on nonprofits, 44; value of cash reserve
 eroded by nonprofit, 90
 Interest rates: borrowing at below prime rate, 57; described, 56–57
 Internal Revenue Service, 78
 IRS (Internal Revenue Service): tax form 990 of, 64; “unrelated business income” regulations of, 112

J

Jackson, T., 83

L

Land gifts, 102–103
 Leases: concessionary versus conventional, 104–105; nonconventional, 100–101; summary of recommendations on, 117
 Leasing expenses: cash flow budgets showing, 24; ownership versus leasing or, 99–100
 Legal/accounting services, cash flow budgets showing, 24
 Liabilities: debt, 18, 71; line of credit, 52, 61–66, 89–91, 116. See also
 Assets; Expenses; Loans

Line of credit: advantages to having,
 90–91; comparing cash reserves and, 89; described, 52; securing bank, 61–66; summary of
 recommendations for, 116
 Linzer’s Law of Littles, 68
 Lipman, H., 83
 Liquid assets, 7, 109
 Loans: from board members, 73–74;
 collateral for, 52, 53, 54–55;
 conventional mortgage, 98–99;
 interest rates of, 56–57; line of credit, 52, 61–66, 89–91, 116; PRIs (program-related investment funds)
 source of, 61; risk and, 55–56, 119n.8; secured from banks, 61–76;
 tax-exempt financing, 99; term,
 53–54. See also Borrowing;
 Creditor programs; Debt;
 Liabilities
 “The Looking-Glass World of Nonprofit Money: Managing in
 For-Profit’s Shadow Universe”
 (Miller), 107

M

Management-by-crisis, 52
 Miller, C., 107, 108
 Mission, 108, 109
 Monitoring financial reports: using cash flow report/Cash Flow
 Forecaster, 38–40; critical aspects for board members, 35–37; critical aspects for staff, 36; summary of
 recommendations for, 116
 Mortgage, 98–99

N

New York Times, 95
 New York University, 83
 990 tax form, 64
 Nonconventional lease, 100–101
 Nonprofits: bankruptcy and, 73; cash flow in businesses versus, 7–8; cost of raising money consideration for,
 42–43; impact of inflation on, 44;

lack of profitability issue for, 107–108; mission-driven component of, 108, 109; pros and cons of ownership by, 93–106; time problem for, 44–45; two bottom lines for, 45–47. See also Businesses

O

Ownership: accepting gifts of buildings, 102; accepting gifts of land, 102–103; capital campaign for, 97–98, 101–102; comparing cost/benefits of real estate, 94; considering cost-effectiveness of, 96–97; control issue of, 95–96; conventional mortgage for, 98–99; “edifice complex” rationalization for, 104; emotional appeal of, 94–95; financial decision making on, 105–106; leasing versus, 99–101; selling buildings given as gifts, 103; social purposes as primary purpose of, 103–104; tax-exempt financing for, 99. See also Assets; Real Estate Calculator

P

Part-time wages, 23
Plant funds, 95
Practical Philanthropist (publication), 53
Price inelasticity issue, 107–108
Printing expenses, 24
PRIs (program-related investment funds), 61
Profitability issue, 107–108

R

Rainy-day funds (cash reserves), 58, 88
Real Estate Calculator, 4, 93. See also Ownership
Rent expenses: cash flow budgets showing, 24; nonconventional

lease, 100–101; ownership versus leasing or, 99–100
Restricted cash, described, 7–8
Risk: Cash Flow Forecaster to predict, 55–56; resources for understanding, 119n.8

S

Salaries, 23
Secondary businesses, 109
Shortfalls. See Deficits
Staff: monitoring financial reports by, 36; salaries/wages of, 23; understanding how to monitor financial reports, 36
Stanford University, 30, 31, 32
Statistics on Income Division report (1998, IRS), 78, 79
Subscription campaigns, 110–112
Summary cash flow budget (2004–2005), 16
Supply expenses, 24
Sutton, W., 61

T

Tax form 990, 64
Tax-exempt financing, 99
Term loans, 53–54
Time problem, 44–45

U

Utilities expenses, 24

V

Vendors, 116–117

W

Walter and Elise Haas Fund, 86, 97
Windfall management, 5
Working capital: additional methods for raising, 113; described, 108–109; earned revenues to raise, 23, 109–112, 117

