

Contents

CHAPTER 1	Security Site Design	1
	HISTORY	1
	CONTEXT IN TODAY'S SECURITY-CONSCIOUS ENVIRONMENT	3
	ISSUES	4
	DAWN OF A NEW SITE ERA	9
	General Services Administration Zone Classifications	14
	THE GOAL OF GOOD SECURITY DESIGN	16
CHAPTER 2	A Framework for Understanding Site Security	19
	THE BASICS: PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES	20
	UNDERSTANDING THE RANGE OF THREATS	21
	UNDERSTANDING VIOLENT CRIME FROM EXTERNAL SOURCES	25
	Individual Violent Crime	25
	Violent Crime by Organized Groups	26
	Defining Terrorism	26
	Organization of Terrorist Groups	27
	Funding and Weapons of Choice	27
	PATTERNS OF PLANNED TERRORIST ATTACKS	30
	Target Selection	30
	Detailed Plans	30

CHAPTER 3 Site Security Design Concepts 33

SITE SURVEY 34

THREAT ANALYSIS 34

SITE SECURITY COUNTERMEASURES 44

 Setbacks 44

 Physical Barriers and Perforations 48

 Visual Surveillance 69

 Access Control 70

 Layered Perimeter 72

RISK MANAGEMENT 74

 Designing to the Threat Level 75

DESIGNING WITH PERFORMANCE STANDARDS 75

SUMMARY: TOWARD EFFECTIVE AND FLEXIBLE SECURITY STANDARDS 76

CHAPTER 4 Case Studies 77

URBAN STREETSCAPES: SOUTHWEST FEDERAL CENTER, WASHINGTON, D.C. 77

 (Text and all images courtesy of the National Capitol Planning Commission)

 Historic Character 77

 Existing Context 79

 Design Framework 83

 Universal Application 84

 Sample Applications 87

MONUMENTS AND MEMORIALS: WASHINGTON MONUMENT, LINCOLN MEMORIAL, AND JEFFERSON MEMORIAL 106

 (Text and all images courtesy of the National Capitol Planning Commission)

 Historic Character 106

 Design Context 108

 Design Framework 109

SYMBOLICALLY IMPORTANT VIEWS, BUILDINGS, AND GATHERING AREAS: PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE AT THE WHITE HOUSE 115

 (Text and all images courtesy of the National Capitol Planning Commission)

 Historic Character 115

Existing Context 116

Concept Designs for Contextual Areas and Special Streets:
 Pennsylvania Avenue in Front of the White House 117

Design Framework 118

Additional Design Considerations 124

SYMBOLICALLY IMPORTANT VIEWS, BUILDINGS,
 AND GATHERING AREAS: CITY HALL PARK,
 NEW YORK CITY 126

History 126

Condition and Context Before Restoration 127

Security Design Elements of the New Design 131

LOCAL GOVERNMENT: CALIFORNIA STATE HOUSE,
 SACRAMENTO 148

OFFICE BUILDINGS AND PUBLIC SPACE: SITE SECURITY
 DESIGN AND COLLABORATIVE MANAGEMENT,
 RONALD REAGAN/INTERNATIONAL TRADE CENTER
 BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D.C. 161

(USED WITH PERMISSION OF THE AUTHOR, TODD BRESSI, AND THE PERMISSION OF THE U.S. GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION)

PROGRAMMING AND PUBLIC-PRIVATE COLLABORATION
 IN SITE SECURITY: THE HANLEY FEDERAL BUILDING
 AND U.S. COURTHOUSE, SYRACUSE, NEW YORK 165

(Used with permission of the author, Todd Bressi, and the permission of the U.S. General Services Administration)

CHAPTER 5 Conclusion 169

TRADITIONAL BARRIERS 170

IMPROVED SITE AMENITIES 171

NEED FOR IMPACT STANDARDS 173

COHESIVENESS OF SECURITY MEASURES 174

THE FUTURE OF SECURITY AND SITE DESIGN 176

EPILOGUE..... 181

INDEX 191