

Contents at a Glance

Foreword .....	xxiii
Introduction .....	1
Part I: Filmmaking and Storytelling .....	7
Chapter 1: So You Want to Be a Filmmaker.....	9
Chapter 2: Genres in General .....	19
Chapter 3: Penning and Pitching a Great Story.....	33
Part II: Gearing Up to Make Your Film .....	47
Chapter 4: Scheduling and Budgeting Your Film .....	49
Chapter 5: Financing Your Film.....	69
Chapter 6: Location, Location, Location.....	83
Chapter 7: Crewing Up: Hiring Your Crew.....	97
Chapter 8: Assembling Your Cast of Characters .....	115
Chapter 9: Storyboarding Your Film .....	129
Part III: Ready to Roll: Starting Production on Your Film .....	145
Chapter 10: Shooting through the Looking Glass .....	147
Chapter 11: Let There Be Lighting!.....	167
Chapter 12: Sound Advice: Production Sound.....	183
Chapter 13: Directing Your Actors: ... And Action!.....	197
Chapter 14: A Sense of Direction: Directing Your Film .....	211
Part IV: Finishing Your Film in Post .....	231
Chapter 15: Cut to: Editing Your Film Frame by Frame .....	233
Chapter 16: Posting Your Film's Soundtrack: Adding Music & Effects to the Mix.....	251
Chapter 17: Conjuring Up Special Effects .....	265
Chapter 18: Giving Credit and Titles .....	285
Part V: Finding a Distributor for Your Film .....	293
Chapter 19: Distributing Your Film.....	297
Chapter 20: Exploring and Entering Film Festivals.....	317

Part VI: The Part of Tens .....	325
Chapter 21: Ten Tips for Discovering New Talent.....	329
Chapter 22: Ten Ways to Get Publicity for Your Film.....	333
Chapter 23: Ten Ways to Avoid Murphy's Law .....	337
Chapter 24: Ten Best Filmmaking Periodicals.....	341
Index .....	343

Table of Contents

Foreword.....xxiii

Introduction..... 1

About This Book..... 1
Conventions Used in This Book..... 2
What You're Not to Read..... 3
Foolish Assumptions..... 3
How This Book Is Organized ..... 4
    Part I: Filmmaking and Storytelling..... 4
    Part II: Gearing Up to Make Your Film..... 4
    Part III: Ready to Roll: Starting Production on Your Film ..... 4
    Part IV: Finishing Your Film in Post..... 5
    Part V: Finding a Distributor for Your Film ..... 5
    Part VI: The Part of Tens..... 5
Icons Used in This Book ..... 6
Where to Go from Here..... 6

Part I: Filmmaking and Storytelling ..... 7

Chapter 1: So You Want to Be a Filmmaker. . . . . . 9

Independents Day versus the Hollywood Way ..... 9
Filmmaking: Traditional or Digital? ..... 10
    Traditional: Super-8, 16mm, or 35mm ..... 11
    Going digital: Standard or high-def..... 11
Developing Your Sense of Story ..... 12
Financing Your Film: Where's the Money?..... 12
On a Budget: Scheduling Your Shoot ..... 13
Planning Your Shoot, Shooting Your Plan..... 13
Hiring Your Cast and Crewing Up..... 15
Shooting in the Right Direction ..... 15
    Seeing the light..... 15
    Being heard and scene ..... 16
    Actors taking your direction ..... 16
    Directing through the camera ..... 16
Cut It Out! Editing Your Film ..... 17
    Listening to your film ..... 17
    Simulating film with software..... 17
Distributing Your Film and Finding an Audience ..... 18

Chapter 2: Genres in General .....	19
Exploring Film Genres .....	19
Making 'em laugh with comedy .....	20
Getting dramatic about it .....	21
Horrrifying horror films .....	22
Romancing the romantic .....	23
Getting physical: No talk and all action .....	23
Separating fact from (science) fiction .....	24
Indulging your fantasy .....	24
Go West, young man: Westerns .....	25
Going to war .....	25
Thrilling audiences with suspense .....	26
Stealing the audience's attention: Crime pays .....	26
Making music with musicals .....	27
Kidding around: Family friendly films .....	27
Categorizing Your Genres .....	28
Featuring films .....	28
Made-for-TV movie .....	30
Documenting documentaries .....	30
Shooting short films: Keep it brief! .....	31
Directing television programs .....	31
Directing commercials .....	32
Minding your PSAs: Public service announcements .....	32
Feel like dancing? Music videos .....	32
Industrials: Industrial strength .....	32
Chapter 3: Penning and Pitching a Great Story .....	33
Screening for the Perfect Screenplay .....	33
The "write" way to find a writer .....	34
Adapting: A novel idea .....	34
Writing Your Own Original Screenplay .....	36
Structuring your screenplay .....	36
Creating conflict .....	38
Developing characters .....	39
Drafting your screenplay: Scene by scene .....	39
Collaborating with writer's software .....	42
Formatting your screenplay .....	43
Selling Your Screenplay to a Production Studio, Distributor, or Investor .....	44
Getting your foot (and screenplay) in the door .....	44
Pitching a home run .....	45

---

Part II: Gearing Up to Make Your Film..... 47
Chapter 4: Scheduling and Budgeting Your Film . . . . . 49

The Art of Scheduling a Film .....	50
Lining your script.....	51
Breaking into breakdown sheets .....	52
Creating production strips .....	54
Stripping down your schedule.....	56
Scheduling software to make your life easier .....	57
Balancing Your Film Budget.....	59
Tightrope walking above the line .....	59
Hanging below the line.....	61
Topping your budget.....	63
Budgeting for budget software.....	63
Factoring in a contingency amount.....	65
Insurance Is Your Best Policy .....	65
Finding an insurance broker.....	67
Bond, completion bond.....	68

Chapter 5: Financing Your Film . . . . . 69

Creating an Enticing Prospectus .....	69
Synopsis of your film.....	70
Information about you .....	70
Info about your cast and crew .....	71
Your budget and profit projections.....	71
Investigating Investors.....	71
Locating potential investors: Show me the money! .....	72
Approaching a potential investor .....	73
Keeping the Securities and Exchange Commission in mind .....	74
Starting a Film Company.....	75
Being in the right company .....	75
Other things to do to set up your company.....	78
Going Escrow .....	78
Contracting Your Investor.....	79
Tapping into Alternative Sources.....	80
Pre-selling your film.....	80
Getting a grant.....	81
Getting a loan .....	81
Bartering: Trade you this for that.....	81

Chapter 6: Location, Location, Location . . . . . 83

Locating Locations .....	83
Managing location scouts and managers.....	84
Evaluating potential locations.....	85
Taking a picture: Say “cheese” and “thank you” .....	86

Sounding Off about Soundstages.....	86
Finding — or creating — a sound stage.....	87
Putting up walls: Using flats .....	87
Shooting in the United States or Crossing the Border?.....	89
Researching U.S. government incentives.....	90
Traveling to Canada.....	90
Locating Stock Footage.....	91
Virtual Locations: Creating New Worlds on a Computer .....	92
Securing Your Locations .....	93
Acquiring permits .....	94
Ensuring you're insured.....	94
Mapping out your locations .....	94
Policing your locations .....	95
Fire!.....	95
Shooting Second-Unit Locations.....	95

Chapter 7: Crewing Up: Hiring Your Crew . . . . . 97

Something to Crew About.....	97
Producing the producer.....	98
Directing the direction .....	99
Stepping over the line producer .....	100
Uniting with a production manager.....	101
Supervising the script .....	101
Directing photography with a cinematographer .....	102
Going with your gaffer.....	104
Getting a grip.....	105
Sounding like your sound mixer .....	105
Booming the sound.....	105
Propping up the prop master.....	106
Dressing up the wardrobe department.....	106
Making up is hard to do .....	107
Gopher this, gopher that .....	107
Keeping your composer.....	107
Editing: Cut that out!.....	108
And the rest . . . ..	109
Finding and Interviewing Your Crew.....	110
Creative Ways to Pay Your Crew.....	111
Paying later: Deferments or points.....	111
Giving 'em credit.....	111
Hiring student bodies.....	112
Paying a kit fee .....	112
Hiring crew as independent contractors .....	112
Union or non-union — that's the question .....	113
Putting a Contract Out on Your Crew.....	113

Chapter 8: Assembling Your Cast of Characters . . . . . 115

- Hooking Your Cast and Reeling Them In..... 115
  - Calling all agents ..... 116
  - Casting through casting directors ..... 116
  - Placing casting ads ..... 117
  - Calling casting services..... 118
  - Accessing actor directories ..... 118
- Screening an Actor’s Information..... 119
  - Headshots and résumés..... 119
  - Taping their act..... 121
  - Spinning an actor’s Web site ..... 121
- Auditioning Your Potential Cast ..... 122
  - Creating a friendly environment ..... 122
  - Inspecting an actor’s etiquette ..... 122
  - Slating on video..... 123
  - Avoiding bitter-cold readings..... 123
  - Monologues leave you all by yourself..... 124
- Making the Cut: Picking Your Cast ..... 124
  - Calling back ..... 124
  - Screen testing..... 125
  - And the winners are . . . ..... 125
- Agreeing with Actors’ Agreements..... 126
  - Contracting union players ..... 126
  - Contracting non-union players ..... 126
  - Securing releases from extras ..... 128

Chapter 9: Storyboarding Your Film . . . . . 129

- Understanding the Basics and Benefits of Storyboarding..... 129
- Setting Up to Storyboard ..... 131
  - Breaking down your script ..... 131
  - Evaluating each shot ..... 132
  - Organizing a shot list..... 132
  - Framing storyboard panels ..... 133
- Deciding What to Include in Each Panel: Putting Pencil to Paper..... 134
  - Choosing the right angles ..... 134
  - Imagining camera and actor movement ..... 135
  - Boarding your special effects ..... 136
  - Sketching out the actors, props, and vehicles ..... 137
  - Looking at lighting and location ..... 137
- I Can’t Draw, Even If My Life Depended on It..... 138
  - Designing with storyboard software ..... 138
  - Drawing the help of a professional artist..... 140

Part III: Ready to Roll: Starting Production on Your Film* ..... 145

Chapter 10: Shooting through the Looking Glass ..... 147

Choosing the Right Camera.....	147
Rolling with film cameras.....	148
Recording with digital camcorders .....	150
Do You Need Glasses? Types of Lenses and What They Do .....	155
The normal lens .....	156

Chapter 11: Let There Be Lighting! ..... 167

Lighting Up Your Life .....	167
Shedding Some Light on Lighting Jargon .....	168
Big Foot-candles: Lighting for film cameras .....	168
Lux (and cream cheese): Lighting for digital (SD and HD).....	168
Taking your color temperature.....	169
Illuminating with soft light versus hard light .....	170

Chapter 12: Sound Advice: Production Sound ..... 183

Testing, Testing, 1, 2, 3 .....	183
Assembling a Sound Team .....	184
Mixing it up with your mixer .....	184
Making room for the boom operator.....	185
Choosing Analog or Digital Sound.....	186
Analog: The sound of Nagra Falls .....	186
DAT recorders and dat's not all .....	187
In the field with digital recorders .....	187
Recording with Microphones.....	188
Shooting with shotgun microphones .....	189
Omni-directional mics .....	191
Lapel microphones.....	191
Wireless microphones.....	191
Using Your Headphones .....	192
Walking and Talking: Walkie-Talkies on Set .....	192
Listening for Quiet.....	193
Shushing the camera: Barney hears you .....	193
Silencing footsteps with sound blankets and foot foam .....	193
Getting Up to Speed Safe and Sound.....	194
Slating with the clapper board.....	194
Syncing picture and sound with timecode .....	195
Capturing On-Set Ambience .....	195
Reporting Your Sound .....	196

Chapter 13: Directing Your Actors: ... And Action! . . . . . 197

Getting Your Actors Familiar with the Material — and Each Other .....	197
Remembering that familiarity breeds content.....	198
Reading through the script: The table read .....	199
Adjusting dialogue to make it read naturally .....	199
Being a Parent and Mentor to Your Actors — with No Allowance .....	199
Preparing Your Actors before the Shoot.....	200
Rehearsals, yea or nay? .....	201
Rehearsing the characters, not just the lines .....	202
Discovering the characters' backstories .....	203
Reading between the lines: Subtext.....	204
Exercising and warming up your actors .....	204
Acting is reacting .....	205
Speaking with body language.....	206
Directing Actors during the Shoot .....	206
Encouraging your actors to ask questions —
but not too many.....	206
Reminding your actors that less is more — more or less .....	207
Feeling the words, not just memorizing.....	208
Blocking, walking, and talking .....	208
Taking care of business.....	209
Matching actors' actions.....	209
Commending the actors.....	210

Chapter 14: A Sense of Direction: Directing Your Film . . . . . 211

Focusing on Directing .....	211
Directing traits .....	212
Training yourself as a director.....	213
Translating Script to Screen.....	214
Understanding the screenplay.....	215
Rewriting or adjusting the script .....	216
Visualizing your screenplay .....	216
Mapping Out Your Plans for the Camera.....	216
Designing storyboards .....	217
Creating a shot list.....	217
Sketching schematics .....	217
Making notes on the script .....	218
Planning with models (not the high-fashion kind) .....	219
Continuing Continuity with Your Script Supervisor .....	219
Got a match?.....	219
Inserting coverage and cutaways .....	220
Screen direction: Your other left .....	221
Taking Your Best Shot .....	222
Where the heck are we? Establishing a wide shot.....	223
You don't have to be a psychic to get a medium shot.....	224
Two shot: Three's a crowd .....	224
I'm ready for my close-up .....	226

Picture This: Deciding When to Move the Camera and Why .....	228
Playing with dollies.....	228
Craning to get a high shot.....	229
Steadying the camera .....	229

Part IV: Finishing Your Film in Post..... 231

Chapter 15: Cut to: Editing Your Film Frame by Frame . . . . . 233

Editing Your Film: Putting One Frame in Front of the Other .....	233
Choosing an editor: Who cut this? .....	234
Shooting enough coverage .....	235
Assembling a first cut.....	236
Building a director's cut.....	236
Photo finish: Finalizing a final cut.....	237
Listening to the sound editor .....	237
Linear versus Non-Linear Editing .....	238
Editing in linear .....	238
Editing in non-linear .....	239
Editing on Your Computer .....	240
Hard driving.....	240
Cutting it with editing software.....	241
Posting your production in your computer .....	244
Outputting formats .....	244
Developing a Relationship with Your Film Lab.....	245
Developing negatives, producing prints, and more .....	246
Being positive about a negative cutter .....	246
Color-correcting your film: As plain as black and white.....	247
Answering your first film print.....	248
Cloning, Not Copying; Cloning, Not Copying .....	248

Chapter 16: Posting Your Film's Soundtrack: Adding Music & Effects to the Mix . . . . . 251

Finishing Sound in Postproduction.....	251
Stirring up the mixer's toolbox .....	252
Mixing the right balance .....	253
Looping the loop .....	254
Creating Sound Effects with a Bang .....	255
Listening to sound-effects libraries .....	255
Creating and recording your own sound effects .....	256
Getting to know Jack Foley .....	257
Adding room tone: Ambience or background sounds .....	258
Scoring Big with Music .....	258
Conducting a composer to set the mood .....	258
Composing your own music .....	259
The sound of music libraries.....	260

Playing with original songs.....	261
Orchestrating the rights to popular music.....	262
Cueing up cue sheets.....	262
Singing songs in the public domain.....	263
Outputting Your Final Mix.....	263
Surrounding sound.....	264
Separating music and effects tracks for foreign release.....	264

Chapter 17: Conjuring Up Special Effects . . . . . 265

Creating Effects: In or Out of Camera? .....	265
Dropping in Backgrounds.....	267
Turning blue and green.....	267
Dishing out special-effects plates .....	268
Painting scenery into your shots: Matte paintings.....	269
Have you seen scenic backdrops?.....	269
Clipping your magazines.....	270
Weathering the storm .....	271
Downsizing Miniatures.....	272
Looking down on miniatures.....	272
Forcing the perspective, forcefully.....	273
Climbing the walls.....	273
Creating Effects Right in the Camera .....	275
Backward about reverse photography .....	275
Double exposure, double exposure.....	276
Speeding slowly.....	276
Creating effects with lenses and filters .....	277
Exploding Effects on Fire.....	278
Making Up Your Mind about Make-Up Effects .....	279
Applying prosthetics .....	279
Here's looking at scleral lenses.....	280
Take a bite out of this.....	281

Chapter 18: Giving Credit and Titles . . . . . 285

Titling Your Film .....	285
Writing a Running List of Names and Positions.....	286
Spelling it write .....	286
Entitled to a credit.....	287
Designing Your Titles and Credits.....	287
Designing the style with fonts .....	288
Animating your main title and credits .....	288
Digital or optical credits .....	289
Crediting without a computer .....	289
Rolling Your Title and Credits .....	290
Timing the opening and ending credits .....	290
Ordering your title and credits .....	291
Ensuring the safety of your credits .....	292
Covering Your Eyes: Stripping Titles for Foreign Textless .....	293

Part V: Finding a Distributor for Your Film* ..... 293*Chapter 19: Distributing Your Film .....297

Understanding How Distribution Works .....	297
Presenting Your Film to Distributors.....	299
Posting a poster of your film .....	299
Picturing the set photographer.....	300
Pulling your audience in with a trailer .....	300
Premiering your film.....	301
Distributing Your Film Domestically.....	302
Minding media rights.....	303
Anticipating ancillary rights .....	304
Meeting domestic buyers at the Home Media Expo .....	305
Distributing Your Film around the World .....	305
Selling your film at the super markets .....	306
Negotiating: How much for your film?.....	307
Speaking their language .....	308

Chapter 20: Exploring and Entering Film Festivals. .... 317

Demystifying Film Festivals.....	317
Judging the difference between a film festival and a film market .....	318
Screening the benefits of entering film festivals .....	319
Entering and Winning Secrets .....	320
Submitting a work-in-progress — Don't!.....	320
Entering the right festivals for your film.....	320
Choosing the appropriate genre and category .....	323
Writing a great synopsis of your film .....	324
Picture perfect: Selecting the best photos from your film .....	324
Sending the best format.....	325
Entering without a box.....	325
Getting an entry-fee discount .....	326

Part VI: The Part of Tens*..... 325*Chapter 21: Ten Tips for Discovering New Talent ..... 329

Viewing Independent Films .....	329
Watching Local Theater.....	330
Attending Actors' Showcases .....	330
Visiting Acting Schools .....	330
Talking to Agents and Managers .....	331
Searching the Academy Players Directory.....	331
Schmoozing at Film Festivals and Markets .....	331

Walking Down the Street .....	332
Holding Talent Contests .....	332
Starring Your Family .....	332
Chapter 22: Ten Ways to Get Publicity for Your Film .....	333
Submitting a Press Release .....	333
Doing a TV or Radio Interview .....	334
Getting a Review from Movie Critics.....	334
Mailing Out DVD Screeners .....	334
Attending Film Festivals .....	334
Emailing and Setting Up a Web Site .....	335
Designing T-Shirts and Other Premiums .....	335
Planning a Publicity Stunt .....	335
Organizing a Screening Party or Charity Event .....	336
Placing an Ad.....	336
Chapter 23: Ten Ways to Avoid Murphy's Law .....	337
Testing the Camera .....	337
Scouting Locations for Noise .....	338
Watching the Weather Channel .....	338
Backing Up Locations and Actors .....	338
Using a Stunt Double.....	339
Standing by with First-Aid Kit or Medic on Set.....	339
Anticipating that Cellphones and Internet Don't Work Everywhere ....	339
Mapping Out Directions.....	339
Providing Plenty of Parking.....	340
Securing Security Overnight .....	340
Powering Up Ahead of Time.....	340
Chapter 24: Ten Best Filmmaking Periodicals .....	341
The Hollywood Reporter .....	341
Daily Variety .....	342
Backstage.....	342
Videomaker .....	342
Entertainment Weekly.....	342
People Magazine.....	343
American Cinematographer .....	343
DV Magazine.....	343
MovieMaker Magazine .....	344
StudentFilmmakers Magazine .....	344
Index .....	343