First and foremost to my wife, Kathy, and also to my children, Joshua, Jessica, Heidi, and Molly. Each in their own way has patiently witnessed and endured my faltering, stumbling, and often pathetic crawl toward understanding and embodying what it means to become fully alive and fully human. They are my teachers and friends for the journey and though

I am a slow learner, they have consistently offered their kindness, forgiveness, and grace. Our family has learned that when it is all said and done, it all comes down to love, just as Jesus said.
