

Contents

Preface xiii

 Chapter 1

Introduction to Off-Premise Catering Management 1

Comparing Off-Premise and On-Premise Catering	3
Advantages and Disadvantages of Off-Premise Catering	4
Elements of Successful Off-Premise Catering	6
Managing an Off-Premise Catering Operation	9
Personal Management	16
Looking Ahead—Catering in the Future	19
The Seven Habits of Highly Successful Caterers	21
How Does an Off-Premise Caterer Gauge Success?	24
The Off-Premise Catering Model	24
Conclusion	26

 Chapter 2

Getting Started—Laws, Locations, and Contracts 27

Local and State Requirements	28
Federal Requirements	29
Legal Forms of Operation	30
The Family-Owned Business	31
Finding a Facility	32
Selecting a Catering Commissary	35
Funding Alternatives	35
Catering Contracts	36
Deposits, Cancellations, and Refunds	44

Deposit Policy	44
How to Survive a Lawsuit	48
Conclusion	48

Chapter 3

Menu Planning 50

Planning Principles	50
Basic Menu Categories	52
Catering Menus	55
Dietary and Nutritional Claims	58
Types of Menus	59
Basic Menu Planning Guidelines	60
Food Presentation	63
Culinary Trends	65
Computing Food Quantities	67
Calculating Food Cost	71
Leftovers	72
Conclusion	75

Chapter 4

Beverage Service 76

State and Local Liquor Laws	76
Liquor Laws and Legal Liability	77
Responsible Alcohol Service	80
An Introduction to Beverages	82
Appellation Systems	90
Wines of the World—A (Very) Short Course	94
Beer	106
Water	107
Soft Drinks	108
Figuring Beverage Quantities	109
Basic Drink Recipes for Off-Premise Caterers	110
Beverage Stations (Bars)	113
Conclusion	116

Chapter 5

Catering Equipment 117

Determining Equipment Needs	117
Equipping a Catering Commissary	118
Basic Commissary Equipment	122
Transporting Food and Equipment	130
Back-of-the-House Equipment	131
Front-of-the-House Equipment	133

Miscellaneous Other Equipment and Supplies	139
Equipment Decisions: To Buy or to Rent?	142
Dealing with Rental Companies	144
Effective Purchasing	146
Equipment Trends	147
Conclusion	148

✕ Chapter 6

Logistics of Off-Premise Catering 149

Scouting Unique Party Locations	150
Site Inspections	151
Planning and Designing the Catered Event	157
Layout and Design Criteria	158
Rental Order Forms and Party Packing Lists	164
Food Production Sheets	175
Getting the Goods to the Party	175
Conclusion	180

✕ Chapter 7

Human Resources 183

Federal Laws	184
Department of Labor–Enforced Laws	185
EEOC–Enforced Laws	192
State–Enforced Laws	196
Determining Staff Levels	196
Recruiting Workers	198
Interviewing and Hiring Staff	200
Paying Catering Staff	210
Employee Benefits	214
Orientation and Training	216
Motivating Workers	218
Employee Turnover	220
Performance Reviews	221
Discipline and Termination	221
The Employee Handbook	224
Conclusion	226

✕ Chapter 8

The Show 228

Supervising and Managing	230
Setting Up for Meal Service	232
Serving Procedures	238
Buffets and Food Stations	244

Handling Complaints	247
Conclusion	248

✕ Chapter 9

Marketing 249

Catering Markets	249
Developing a Marketing Plan	252
The Marketing Budget	253
Marketing Tools	254
The Marketing Plan	272
Selling to Shoppers and Buyers	273
Closing the Sale	282
Conclusion	284

✕ Chapter 10

Pricing Off-Prmise Catered Events 285

Pricing for Profit	286
Pre-Costing Catered Events	287
Pricing Food	291
Pricing Labor	292
Pricing a Party	295
Service Charges, Gratuities, and Sales Taxes	295
Conclusion	298

✕ Chapter 11

Purchasing, Receiving, and Storing Foods 299

Purchasing	299
Receiving	311
Storage	314
Payment Policies	315
Conclusion	316

✕ Chapter 12

Sanitation and Safety 317

Food Storage	324
Preparing and Serving Food	325
Handling Customer Complaints	332
On-the-Job Safety	334
Government Agencies and Regulations	338
Security Procedures	339
Insurance Coverage	341
Conclusion	343

✕ Chapter 13Accessory Services and Special Requirements* 344

Accessory Services	344
Themes and Theme Parties	356
Kosher Catering and Bar/Bat Mitzvahs	358
Weddings and Receptions	360
Conclusion	373

✕ Chapter 14Budgeting, Accounting, and Financial Management* 375

Preparing a Budget	376
Start-Up Expenses	380
Cash Budgets	380
Break-Even Points	383
Accounting for Revenue and Expenses	384
Chart of Accounts	391
Income Statement Summary	394
The Income Statement	397
The Balance Sheet	399
Analyzing Financial Statements	401
Controlling Costs	404
Computers in Catering	410
Managing Money	412
Credit Card Processing Services	414
Federal Taxes	415
Conclusion	417

Index	419
--------------	-----

