

---

CONTENTS

---

Exhibits ix

Foreword xi

By Naomi Levine

Preface xiii

The Author xxi

---

PART ONE: GETTING STARTED 1

1 Identifying Target Markets 3

2 Setting Goals, Clarifying the Message, and Creating the PR Plan 21

---

PART TWO: THE PR TOOLKIT 47

3 Choosing the Right Spokesperson 49

4 Writing and Placing the News Release 57

5 Maximizing Alternative Press Tools 88

6	Crafting Press Kits	107
7	Creating Brochures	116
8	Communicating Through Newsletters	131
9	Producing Annual Reports	145
10	Making Direct Mail Work	156
11	Understanding Advertising	171
12	Pitching and Placing: Radio	191
13	Pitching and Placing: Television	206
14	Producing Videos and DVDs	229
15	Using the Internet	244
16	Planning Dinners and Special Events	252

---

PART THREE: MONITORING THE PR CAMPAIGN 283

17	Reviewing and Revising the PR Plan	285
18	Reporting to Stakeholders	294
	Conclusion: Bringing It All Together	299
	Index	303

---

EXHIBITS

---

4.1	Press Release from St. Hubert’s Animal Shelter	62
4.2	Press Release from the American Red Cross	63
4.3	Sample E-Mail Release	72
5.1	Sample Media Advisory (YAI)	92
5.2	Letter to the Editor of The Washington Post from City Harvest	96
7.1	Gilda’s Club Logo and Brochure	118
8.1	MTA’s Metro-North Newsletters: Mileposts and Outposts	134
10.1	New York City Rescue Mission’s Direct-Mail Appeal	160
11.1	Ad from Teach For America	189
12.1	Three Versions of a Radio PSA for the Adoptive Parents Committee	197
12.2	Radio PSA for Guiding Eyes for the Blind	199
13.1	Sample Media Advisory (Congresswoman Velázquez)	211
13.2	Media Guidelines	217
13.3	TV Script for a PSA: Thirty-Second and Fifteen-Second Versions	223
14.1	Sample Page from a Video Script	236
16.1	Plan for “The Best of Brooklyn” Event	266
16.2	Canine Cotillion Sample Invitation Cover	276

