

Index

A

Abent, R., 50, 189
Adams, J. A., 314, 323, 324, 325
Administrators: crisis roles and responsibilities of, 6, 80, 111, 115–116, 191; early presence requirement of, 106; emergency agencies' relationships with, 128–129; and group outreach services, 165; and intervention services, 175–176; and lines of authority, 80–81; media training for, 188–189; and responder burnout, 175–176
African-American universities, Hurricane Katrina's impacts on, 20–21
Aguilera, D., 158, 172, 175
Allen, C., 231
Alpaslan, C. M., 200
Amateur Radio Emergency Services (ARES), 104
American Council on Education (ACE), CampusRelief.org of, 21–22
American Psychological Association, 318
Andreski, P., 150
Andrews, D. W., 293, 294, 297
Archer, J., 146, 174
Aronson, E., 175

Association of American Universities (AAU), Hurricane Katrina victim arrangements of, 225
Auerbach, S. M., 30

B

Bailey, K., 207
Balk, D. E., 164
Ball State University, crisis management team at, 58, 66, 67–68, 69
Ballew, A. C., 189
Barrios, L. C., 147
Bartlett, T., 147
Barton, L., 23, 25, 55
Beckley, S. L., 148, 171
Benton, S. A., 146
Benton, S. L., 146
Bickel, R. D., 4, 148, 153, 260
Billings, R. S., 25
Birch, J., 46
Bird, L. E., 255
Bisson, J. I., 161, 167
Blom, S. D., 148, 171
Blythe, B. T., 69
Bonanno, G. A., 150, 151, 161, 174
Borodzicz, E., 185
Bouchard, M., 303
Bowen, G., 159
Boyd, V., 148, 171
Brandel, I. W., 148, 171

- Brener, N. D., 147
 Breslau, N., 150
 Brodsky, S., 175
 Bromet, E., 150
 Brooking, A., 59, 63, 64
 Brown, P., 8
 Brown, T., 231
 Brunner, B., 20
 Buckles N., 148, 171
 Buettner, C. K., 293, 294, 297
 Bundy, Ted, 12–13
 Business continuity plan: description of, 299; hands-on testing of, 302; maintenance of, 301–302; and needs assessment, 300; rationale for, 299–300
 Business Roundtable, 105
- C
- California State University—
 Northridge earthquake, emotional and financial impact of, 14–15
 Campus phone books, and information dissemination, 104
 Campus Security Inc., 10
 Campus security operations, 122, 129; crisis management authority of, 88–89; and crisis plan development, 91; maintaining contact information on, 92; organizational structure and jurisdiction of, 131; outside agencies' relations with, 89; services provided by, 130
 Campus tragedies: accidental death and injuries in, 231–245, 255–263, 263–268; and campus crime disclosure requirements, 9–10; caused by natural disasters, 14–15, 20–21, 140–141, 207–211, 216–222, 224–229, 236–245; and communication problems, 16, 17; lessons learned from, 6–22; terrorism and, 268–274; and trust between students and institutions, 9. See also Criminal acts; Student suicide
 CampusRelief.org, 21–22
 Canter, D., 286
 Caregivers, healing process for, 49
 Carr, J. L., 291
 Case management team, for crisis interventions, 173–174
 CEIO COM LINK (telecommunications bridge), 105
 Celebratory violence, 291–297: common elements in, 294–295; injuries and property damage resulting from, 291; legislation and reports on, 293–295; Ohio State University's Task Force on, 293–294; and preventative strategies for, 292–293. See also Sport spectator behavior
 Cell phone communication, 104–105, 258
 Central crisis planning office, establishment of, 92
 Ceremonial events, as healing process, 49
 Chancellor, and crisis communications plan approval, 111
 Chickering, A., 160
 Chilcoat, H., 150
 Clement, L. M., 40
 Clery, C., 9–10
 Clery, H., 9–10
 Coakley, J., 289
 College deans, and crisis management planning, 77, 92
 Colorado State University, effective crisis management at, 62
 Community colleges, crisis management teams in, 57
 Community Emergency Response Team (CERT): FEMA's development of, 141; training for, 135. See also specific university
 Compassion stress (CS), phenomenon of, 175–176
 Concordia University, crisis definition of, 29
 Conlon, A., 150
 Conneely, J., 231
 Coombs, W. T., 23, 25, 46, 195, 197
 Coordinator of crisis planning, 80, 94

- Corazini, J., 146
- Coulter, L. P., 148, 171, 174
- County emergency coordination, 135–136
- Cress, D., 291
- Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act of 1990, 10
- Criminal acts: multiple responses to, 43; resources for addressing, 44; student and staff deaths from, 7–10, 12–13, 15–16, 274–281. See also Sport spectator behavior; Terrorist attacks
- Crisis communication plan: approval of, 111; assessment of, 118–119; four-step development process for, 109–119; and long-term corrective action, 116–117; and media engagement, 106–107; practice/testing of, 114; research for, 109–110; response process in, 114–116
- Crisis communication: budget and resource availability for, 110; channels for, 99, 100; “community” intranet site for, 99; consistent and factual information in, 100, 101; demographic issues in, 100; and disenfranchised constituents, 101; with external audiences, 99; goals of, 107; in initial response period, 114–115; to internal audiences, 99; and media relations, 87–88; methods, 101–106; partner and stakeholder support for, 113; in recovery period, 116–118; release of information responsibility in, 111; target audiences of, 97–101, 107; team, creation of, 110–111; and university image, 109. See also News media; Telephone-related communication tools
- Crisis debriefing: for crisis teams, 176; and legal standard of care, 338; need for, 49–50, 337; protocols for, 166–168, 176, 261; in psychoeducational group interventions, 166–168; for stress reduction, 166–167, 261; timing of, 338. See also Psychological debriefing
- Crisis intervention: assessment in, 158–159; clinical intervention/chronic illness support approaches in, 147–148; and collaboration across disciplines, 156–157; continuum of precipitating events and, 150–151; and developmental transitions, 147; disposition process in, 160; early, core concept behind, 151; goals of, 152–153; and institutional ethic of care, 148–149, 156; models of practice for, 158; multidisciplinary teams in, 156–157; multiphase process of, 157–161; and normalization of reactions, 156; preplanning for, 157; rationale for psychological first aid in, 146–149; referral and follow-up, 160–162; and restoration of physical and emotional security, 152, 153, 154–155, 158; rising need for, 146–149; safety plans in, 160; and situational crises, 147; six-step model for, 158–161; standards for, 148; triage around safety and security in, 158–159; and victim’s natural support system, 155. See also Psychological first aid
- Crisis management plan, 73–90; action steps in, 81–82; activation responsibility and coordination in, 79; administrators’ personal style and, 73; and built-in redundancy, 87; and business resumption, 89–90; campus culture and, 73–74; campus security and outside agency roles in, 88–89; campuswide, 77–78; and command center creation, 86–87; and communication methods 86; and coordination among units, 77–78; defining crisis in, 78–79; distribution of, 93; electronic formats for distribution of, 83–84; establishing responsibility

- for, 90–91; and existing plans/protocols, 77; facilities issues in, 89–90; formal versus informal, 73–75; general outline for, 78–82, 94–95; and human resource needs, 76; identifying key response modes in, 85–86; key stakeholders involvement in, 75; lines of authority established in, 80–81; maintenance of, 91–93; and media responsibility, 87–88; and recovery phase operations, 89–90; and resource assessment, 76; scope of, 85; starting point for, 330; and threat assessment, 315–315; unit-specific, 77–78, 80
- Crisis management team (CMT), 55–71; and action plan responsibility of, 68–69; activities and roles of, 56–57, 65; adverse demands on, 63; assessment and, 60; barriers to good teamwork in, 61–62; and campus education efforts, 69–70; and crisis plan implementation, 77; communication flows in, 69; community resources for, 57; and current job responsibilities, 60; and crisis plan development, 75; diversity-communication skills in, 59–60; divisional, 77; external constituencies and, 191–192; first response activities of, 66–68; formation of, 156–157; foundational and qualitative skills needed by, 184–185; and incident debriefing, 176, 201–202; and individual motivation, 60; and institutional size and setting, 57–58; interpersonal dynamics in, 333; jurisdiction and authority of, 65–66; knowledge objectives for, 186; leadership, 62–64; and membership criteria, 57–61; and membership flexibility, 61; order of succession in, 65; orientation and training, 59, 70, 187; personnel, 58; and personality type suitability, 61; and positive outcomes, 64; protocol for activating, 66; skills assessment for, 197; skills and competences needed by, 57, 58–60; as support team, 65–66; team player mindset in, 59; territorial issues in, 61; typical areas of concern for, 58
- Crisis management training, 183–203; active training design in, 189–191; case studies in, 200–203; crisis management cycle and, 196–197; for crisis prevention, 187, 201–202; feedback in, 190–191; for handling media, 187–189; for incidents with significant risk, 200; learning from and relying on others' expertise in, 335; objectives of, 185–187; personal attitudes addressed in, 187; planning for, 184–191; preparing staff to become trainers in, 187; and principles of effective training, 189; resource needs of, 185; sample activities for, 196–198; simulations and tabletop exercises in, 192–196; skill development in, 186; task assessment tool for, 197–198; and team members' attitudes and characteristics, 187
- Crisis management: and critical thinking, 185; defined, 55; families' expectations of, 5; FEMA's approach to, 46; five-phase cycle of, 46–50; human element as focus in, 37; identifying constituencies and special skills needed in, 332–334; injuries and illnesses as point of contact in, 42; and institutional mission, 56; and institutional size, 5–6; of intentional crises, 43, 44; learning from successes and failures in, 49; and level of crisis, 37–40; and limited response time, 25–26; and organizational disruption, 26; and preventative actions, 48; safety and well-being objectives of, 27, 38, 41; management versus

- response in, 45; mitigation in, 46; of unintentional crises, 42–43. See also specific institution
- Crisis matrix, 36 (Fig2.1); and audit process, 75–76; dimensions of, 36–43; and crisis management training, 198–200; and protocol development, 45; purpose and uses of, 36–37, 330; vectors of response in, 44–45
- Crisis protocols: crisis matrix and, 45; for debriefing, 166–168, 176, 261; development and format of, 45, 82–84; for voluntary/involuntary transport, 163–164
- Crisis recovery: closure events and memorials to aid in, 49; operations, 89–90; time frame for, 48–49. See also Healing process; Psychological first aid
- Crisis responders: conflicts between, 48; death notification training for, 164–165; debriefing and support for, 49–50; job description for, 185–186; joint training of, 280; transport protocols for, 163–164
- Crisis response, 37–40; to human crises, 41–42; and infrastructure needs, 38; initial activities in, 66–67; and institutional bureaucracy, 5; institution-wide, 38; lessons learned from, 118; and perception of event, 28; planning for, 48; at smaller/nonresidential institutions, 38; target audiences' opinions of, 115; timeliness of, 25–26; using smaller events as practice for, 36. See also specific incident
- Crisis: audit, 315–316; definition and common characteristics of, 22–29, 149–150; inevitability and unpredictability of, 24–25; perceived as negative event or outcome, 24; as threat to safety and well-being, 26–27
- Critical Incident Stress Debriefing (CISD), 166–167
- Critical incident: and agency roles, 88–89; defined, 37; evolution of, 43–45; intentional, resources for addressing, 44; and stress debriefing process, 261; as test for large-scale events, 37–38
- ## D
- Dannells, M., 200
- Davidshofer, C., 148, 171
- Davis, G., 150
- Daykin, A., 255
- Deaking, S., 148, 171
- Death notification, training for, 161–165
- DeGirolamo, G., 150
- Department heads, and crisis plan management, 77, 92
- Department of Homeland Security, 126, 226–227; agencies housed in, 139–140; and bioterrorism, 14; campus contact with, 140; Crisis Action Team of, 105; establishment of, 139
- Department of Justice, and terrorist threats, 315
- Departmental crisis management plans, 77
- Dewane, S., 159
- Diamond, M. A., 200
- Dillard University, Hurricane Katrina's impact on, 20–21
- “Disaster Readiness University” classification, 214
- Disasters: and command structure models, 89; lack of preventive controls for, 201–202; Red Cross response to, 137. See also Hurricane Katrina disaster; specific crisis
- Disease-related crises, 13–14, 102
- Divisional crisis management plan, roles and functions of, 77
- Donnelly, P., 289
- Duncan, M. A., 184, 189
- Dunkel, N. W., 35, 121, 156, 186, 200, 205, 329
- Dyregrov, A., 167

E

Eastern Kentucky University's power failure response, 245–253; challenges in, 246–247; communication and public relations issues in, 248–250; food issues in, 247, 251; lessons learned from, 250–251; media's crucial role in, 250; reimbursement policy in, 248, 251; student relocations in, 247–248

Edelwich, J., 175

Educational institution, as legal guardian versus caring educator, 3–4

802.11G communication system, 104

Eitington, J. E., 195

Ellen, E. F., 147

Ellet, T., 255

Elsinga, L., 308, 309, 311, 312

Emergency Alert System (EAS), 103

Emergency contact information: circulation of, 92–93; dual purposes of, 92; review and updating of, 92; sources of, 99, 104

Emergency Operations Center (EOC), establishment of, 81, 86–87

Emergency personnel and agencies, 121–143; and advanced preparedness measures, 125; and city police operations and jurisdiction, 131; and county sheriff's services, 132; first responder functions of, 122; and joint information systems, 125–126; and mitigation activities, 125; and mutual aid agreements, 129–135; and pre-event outreach and cooperation, 128–129; staff's work with, 130; and state police services, 132–133. See also Incident Command System/Unified Command (ICS/UC); specific agency

Emergency, defined, 38. See also Crisis; Critical incident

Employee Assistance Program (EAP), 86

Environmental audit, 25

Environmental crises: personal accounts of, 207–211, 216–222,

224–229; types and localized aspects of, 40–41

Epstein, B., 159, 167

Epstein, J., 297

Ercolano, M., 159

ERMS (Emergency Response Management System), 102

Ershine, C., 148, 171

Ethic of care, as basis of institutional actions, 4–5

Everett, S. W., 147

Everly, G. S., 151, 157, 158, 162, 171

Experiential learning: as adult learning approach, 196; cycle, training process and, 189–190

External consultant, for crisis management training, 185

F

Facility crises: and business continuity plan, 41, 299–302; and debriefing sessions, 250–251; defined, 41; and infrastructure protection and repairs, 41; need for contingency plans in, 41; personal accounts of, 231–253; student safety concerns in, 38, 41, 250; unpredictable nature of, 250; updated information as critical need in, 249, 250

Family Education Right to Privacy Act (FERPA), 310, 322

Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), 322; agency and staff overview, 137–138; campus involvement with, 138–139; priorities of, 138

Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA): and campus natural disaster plans, 140–141; crisis management approach of, 46; history of, 140; response capabilities of, 39

Felice, J., 207

Figley, C., 175

Fink, S., 23, 24

Fire and rescue services: access issues in, 134; emergency medical services of, 134–135. See also Emergency personnel and agencies

- First responders: and individuals' personal needs, 5; and post-traumatic symptoms, 167; safety and security as primary focus of, 152; training opportunities for, 331–332
- Flace, S. E., 14
- Foa, E. B., 155, 159, 167
- Franz, L., 299
- Frazier, P., 150
- Fukuyama, M. A., 156, 204
- G
- Gaines, N., 159
- Gallagher, R., 146
- Garden, A. M., 175
- Gehring, D., 322, 323
- Georgia State University, crisis management team at, 56
- Geraghty, J., 286, 288
- Gewertz, K., 192
- Gill, A., 146
- Gilliland, B. E., 149, 152, 158, 163, 171, 172
- Glaser, T., 150
- Good, C., 231
- Gorton, K., 159
- Gray, J. J., 151, 156, 159, 161, 166, 167
- Greenstone, J. L., 158, 160, 172
- Griffin, W., 145, 156, 186, 200
- Guillery, J. M., 40, 46
- Guth, D. W., 46
- H
- Harper, K. S., 28
- Harrington, L. K., 75, 82, 195
- Hattauer, E., 148, 171
- Healing process, 39, 118, 261–262; bereavement and, 164–165; for caregivers, 49; for victims of terrorism, 323–324. See also Crisis intervention; Services of remembrance
- Health crises: communication methods for, 102; institution's ability to respond to, 14; student deaths from 13
- Health Information Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), need for staff knowledge of, 310
- Hellwig-Olson, B., 285
- Hensley, T. R., 9
- Heppner, P., 146, 171
- Hermann, C. F., 23, 25
- Hoff, L. A., 150, 163
- Holsti, O. R., 25
- Homicide, assessing lethality for, 159, 163–164
- Hong, L., 296
- Hughes, M., 150
- Human crises: defined, 41; healing process in, 151, 152, 154, 261–262; personal accounts of, 255–282, 305–313; responses to, 41–42; sources and support systems for, 41–42
- Hurley, G., 148, 171
- Hurricane Andrew, higher education institutions impacted by, 19. See also University of Miami's hurricane disaster
- Hurricane Katrina disaster, 19–22; and constituent disenfranchisement, 101; fiscal and human resource losses from, 19–21; institutional recovery clearinghouse for, 22; and interinstitutional collaboration, 21–22; legacy of, 40; overwhelming impact of, 39; and residence hall protocols, 214; response and recovery tasks in, 39. See also Tulane University's hurricane disaster response
- Hurst, J. C., 16
- I
- "In Harm's Way: Suicide in America," 147, 149, 164
- In loco parentis, 3–4
- Incident action plan, overview of, 126–128
- Incident Command System/Unified Command (ICS/UC): elements and features of, 125–126; and emer-

- agency response functions, 124; establishment of, 275, 276,
277–278; and NIMS integration center, 126; purpose of, 123; responsibilities and structure of, 124–125
- Indiana University, crisis definition of, 28–29
- Indiana University—Purdue University, crisis definition of, 29
- International Association of Counseling Services standards, 148
- International students: legislation related to, 322; security, 226–227;
and terrorist acts on United States, 325
- International terrorism, and 1988 Pan
Am Flight 103 bombing, 10–11.
See also New York University's 9/11 response; Terrorist response
- Internet. See also Technological crisis;
Web and e-mail services
- Irvine, R. B., 25
- J
- Jackson, S. E., 175
- Jacobsen, M., 285
- James, R. K., 149, 152, 158, 163, 171, 172
- Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus
Security Policy and Campus Statistics Act, 10
- Johnson, C., 20, 21
- K
- Kadison, K. D., 148
- Kanel, K., 158, 172
- Kent State University shootings, 8–9
- Kessler, R. C., 150
- Kilmann, P. R., 23
- Kitzrow, M. A., 147, 148, 172
- Konigsmark, A. R., 21
- Koovor-Misra, S., 25, 40, 46
- Kruckeberg, D., 42
- L
- LaGrand, L. E., 164
- Lake, P. F., 4, 148, 153, 173, 175, 260
- Lapan, R., 146, 171
- Lawson, C. J., 97
- Legislation: concerning international students, 322; for disclosure of campus crime statistics, 9–10; and mandatory sprinkler systems, 241;
and student privacy rights, 307–308;
resulting from terrorist acts,
302–303
- Lehigh University rape and murder case, 9–10
- Lerner, M. D., 149, 158
- Leviton, S. C., 158, 160, 172
- Lewis, J. M., 9
- Lewis, L., 156
- Lindell, B., 149, 158
- Littleton, R. F., 75, 315
- Litz, B. T., 151, 156, 159, 161, 166, 167
- Locher, L. L., 148, 171
- Loewendick, B. A., 192, 194
- Lowery, J. W., 322, 323
- Lyll, D., 305, 307
- Lyll, M., 305, 307
- M
- Macleod, M., 7, 8
- Martin, A. W., 291
- Mascher, J., 148, 171, 174
- Maslach, C., 175
- Maslow, A. H., 152, 334, 336
- May, T., 146
- McCarthy, J. D., 291
- McFarlane, A., 150, 161, 157
- McKelfresh, D., 55
- McNeil, F., 159
- McPhail, C., 291
- Meadows, E. A., 155, 159, 167
- Medical plan, as component of incident action plan, 128
- Memorial services. See specific institution
- Meyers, G. C., 40, 46
- Mian, A., 285
- Milburn, T. W., 25
- Millar, D. P., 25
- Miser, K. M., 184, 189

- Missing College Student Cases: An Investigative Guide*, 307–308
- Missing student crisis response: and anniversary events, 313; crisis ownership question in, 308–309; defining institutional role in, 309; external agencies' cooperation in, 312; federal actions in, 308; hindrances to, 306–307; historical waiting period for, 307; legislation on, 307–308; and public scrutiny of campus safety, 313; staff stress and burnout in, 312; and student privacy rights/laws, 309–311; volunteer operations oversight in, 311–312
- Mitchell, J. T., 167
- Mitchell, T. H., 46
- Mitroff, I. I., 23, 26, 40, 46, 75, 82, 185, 195, 201
- Moore, S., 25, 26, 192
- Murks, S. M., 255
- Murphey, J., 146
- Murphy, S. K., 68
- Mutual aid agreements: with external law enforcement agencies, 130–133; with fire and rescue services, 133–135; legalities of, 129; with nonconcurrent jurisdiction, 129
- N
- National Association of College and University Business Officers (NACUBO), 21–22
- National Center for Health Statistics, 147
- National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA): and good sportsmanship, 290, 296; and Katrina hurricane victims' arrangements, 225
- National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH), 154; early intervention program recommendations of, 154–155
- National Interagency Incident Management System (NIMS), 123
- National Organization of Victim Assistance: crisis intervention focus of, 151; and death notification training, 164
- Natural disasters, response and recovery assistance for, 140–141. See also Environmental crises
- Nelson, C. B., 150
- New Orleans educational system: in Hurricane Katrina's aftermath, 20–22. See also Tulane University's hurricane disaster response
- New York State Campus Safety Act, 307
- New York University's 9/11 response, 268–274; air quality concerns in, 271; convening of stakeholders in, 269; communication challenges in, 269–271, 272; lessons learned from, 272; public relations issues in, 271; safety and housing concerns in, 270; and staff stress and burnout, 272; Web technology function in, 269–270
- Newman, M., 294
- News media: and crisis aftermath, 118; cultivation of good relations with, 112; and disruptive fan behavior, 287; electronic intercepts used by, 17; institutional communication with, 106–109, 114–115; management of, 112–113, 187–189; methods for communicating with, 108; and onsite coverage impacts, 7–8, 9, 11, 12, 16, 17; providing access to, 107; and services of remembrance, 169; and speed and accuracy of coverage, 108–109, 114–115; and twenty-four-hour coverage, 12–13
- Newsom, D., 42
- Newton, F. B., 146
- O
- O'Connell, J., 146
- Office of crisis planning, 91, 94
- Office of Domestic Preparedness, 315

Offutt, C. A., 148, 171, 174
 Ogrizek, M., 40, 46
 Ohio State University, celebration riot response of, 293–294
 Oklahoma State University's off-campus tragedy response, 263–268; agencies and individuals involved in, 263–265; communication success and failures in, 265; counseling provision in, 266–267; media and public relations issues in, 265–266;
 memorial service and healing process in, 264–265, 267; travel policy and emergency plan revisions in, 266
 O'Malley, K., 146

P

Pan Am Flight 103 bombing, 10–11
 Park, S., 174
 Patterson, B. G., 28, 255
 Pauchant, T. C., 23, 26, 40, 46
 Paul, G., 159
 Pearson, C. M., 75, 82, 185, 195, 201
 Personal crises. See Human crises;
 Student suicide
 Pfeiffer, J. W., 189
 Phelps, N. L., 25
 Pickrell, J., 20
 PIER (Public Information and Emergency Response), 103
 Pines, A. M., 175
 Piorkowski, G., 148, 171
 Pledge, D., 146, 171
 Portable transmission towers, 104
 Power, P., 59, 62–63
 Preece, F., 7–8
 President/CEO: and crisis communications plan approval, 111–112; crisis declaration responsibility of,
 79; crisis team relationship with,
 62, 69
 Pritchard, R. S., 193
Protecting Schools and Universities from Terrorism: A Guide for Administrators and Teachers, 314

Psychoeducational group interventions: administrative concerns in,
 165–166; and formalized psychological debriefing protocols/guidelines, 166–168, 176; identifying affected parties for, 165; leadership requirements for, 166

Psychological first aid, 149–156; basic types of interventions in, 162–170;
 best practice strategies for, 154–156;
 and cathartic self-disclosure, 163;
 competences and credentialing for, 171; defining basis of need for,
 150–151; and early interventions,
 166; and effective intervention characteristics, 153; focus of, 152; formal programs in, 171; and group interventions, 165–168; immediate phase of, 163; initial response to, 154; and interagency communication, 173–174; and interventionist attributes, 171; language issues in, 172; legal and ethical concerns in, 172–176; mandatory reporting and confidentiality in,
 172; post-trauma, 154; professional standards and codes for,
 174; for secondary victims, 162;
 and services of remembrance,
 168–170; and staff burnout,
 174–176; and student bereavement, 164–165; and transport protocols, 163. See also Crisis intervention

Public e-mail response service (PRS), 102

Public relations officers/staff: and crisis communication plan, 112, 113, 114, 115; crisis role of, 15; and missing student cases, 310–311; and new media handling, 188' risk management role of, 10

R

Radio communication plan, 128
 Raphael, B., 152, 167

- Red Cross: crisis intervention focus of, 151; death notification training by, 164; services provided by, 136–137; and terrorism preparedness, 317, 320
- Residence hall staff, maintaining contact information on, 92
- Rhatigan, J. J., 4
- Rickard, S. T., 40
- Rivier College, crisis definition of, 28
- Robbins, S., 146
- Roberts, A. R., 158
- Robertson, J. M., 146
- Rodolfa, E., 174
- Rodrigue, C. M., 14
- Roehlke, H., 146, 171
- Rollo, J. M., 3, 35, 73, 329
- Romano, L., 20
- Rose, S. R., 161, 167
- Rovsi, E., 14
- Rudolph, J. M., 159
- S
- Safety concerns, as focus of crisis management, 38, 41. See also Student safety
- Schaalman, M. L., 25
- Schoenherr, S., 18
- Schultz, L., 150
- Scott, J. E., 74, 186, 200
- Scott, J., 156
- Secondary stress disorder, prevention of, 175–176
- Secret Service, campus involvement of, 141
- Self-inflicted injury, facilitative model of support for, 148
- Senior administrators. See Administrators
- September 11 terrorist attacks, impacts on students and campuses, 18. See also New York University's 9/11 response; Terrorism response
- Services of remembrance: and anniversary rituals, 170; inclusiveness in, 169; general purpose of, 168; news media collaboration in, 169
- Seton Hall University's fire disaster response, 236–245; communication methods in, 239–240, 243; crisis management plan implemented in, 237–238; and fire safety improvements, 241–242; legislation resulting from, 241; media relations in, 240–241, 243; responders to, 237; student affairs' roles in, 238–241; student deaths and injuries in, 236–237; and students' basic and emotional needs, 238; volunteers' roles in, 237, 238–239
- Seymour, M., 25, 26, 192
- Shalev, A. Y., 167
- Shepard, Matthew, 15–16
- Sherwood, G. P., 55
- Shrivastava, P., 40
- Sidel, M., 325
- Silberman, M., 186, 189, 190, 196
- Simon, T. R., 147
- Simono, R. B., 148, 171
- Simulations, 195–196; and crisis communication plan, 114; and group-level crisis response, 197
- Siren systems, 103
- Smaller institutions: crisis management teams in, 57; family expectations of, 5–6; Hurricane Katrina response of, 38; and terrorism preparedness, 317
- Snider, R., 288, 297
- Snow, R. L., 8
- Sodders, L. M., 14
- Sonnega, A., 150
- Special Weapons and Tactical Teams (SWAT), creation of, 8
- Speck, Richard, 8
- Spillan, J. E., 55
- Spivack, J., 148, 171
- Spokespersons and experts, training requirements for, 112
- Sport spectator behaviors, 285–298; alcohol as factor in, 287–288, 289;

- and bans on games, 286; and bystander policy, 297; of disruptive fans, 285–291; documentation of, 296; European research on, 289; glorification of violence in, 286; history of violence in, 286; law enforcement approach to, 296, 297; legislation relating to, 293; local media coverage of, 287; offensive clothing and signs in, 290; and poor sportsmanship, 288–291; preventative and crowd management strategies in, 287–293, 296–296, 297; and school-sponsored commercials, 289–290; and student governing group input, 289; and suspension policies, 293; using crisis matrix to analyze, 295. See also Celebratory violence
- Sportsmanship and Fan Behavior Summit, 296
- Staff: and business continuity plan, 302; CERT training for, 135; crisis impacts on, 89–90; and FBI investigations, 138; and Homeland Security Department contacts, 139–140; with special needs expertise, 332–334; stress and burnout, 174–175, 212, 312; workshops and training programs for, 331
- Stage, F. K., 200
- Stamm, B. H., 159
- Steel, C., 148, 171
- Stone, G., 146, 174
- Stressful Life Experiences Screening Short Form, 159
- Stubbart, C. I., 75
- Student affairs: and crisis plan development, 91; facility crisis roles of, 238–241; and incident debriefing, 201–202; risk management role of, 10
- Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS), 322
- Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP), 322
- Student safety: families' expectations of, 5; in facility crisis, 38, 41, 250; and missing student cases, 313; and terrorism response, 270, 319–320
- Student suicide: assessing lethality for, 159, 163–164; facilitative model of support for, 148; prevalence of, 147
- Stump, L. J., 121
- Suzanne's Law, 308
- Syracuse University, and 1988 Pan Am Flight 103 bombing, 11
- Sysko, H., 146
- ### T
- Tabletop exercises, 192–195; design and development of, 194–195; for crisis plan assessment, 192; sample of, 193 (Ex8.1); for technological crises, 301–302
- Technological crises, 298–304; and backup recovery testing, 301–302; and business continuity, 299–302; costs and consequences of, 300; data restoration and storage strategy concerns in, 302; data security and disaster recovery in, 298–300, 301; and downtime evaluation, 300–301; internal security concerns in, 302–304; and IT continuity, 301; and updated system data availability, 301; virtual security threats and vulnerabilities in, 303
- Tedeschi, R. G., 150
- Telephone-related communication tools: campus phone books banks, 259; cell phones, 104–105, 258; 800 numbers, 102; hot lines, 99; reverse 911 call system, 102; securing and dedicated lines, 104, 249; telephone banks, 259
- Terrorism response: bioterrorism concerns in, 14, 316; and campus vulnerability, 315; command center created for, 321; crisis response team (CRT) training for, 314–316; evacuation procedures in, 319;

- Homeland Security's role in, 139, 317–318; housing options in, 317; international students and, 325; legislation resulting from, 318, 322; modified academic schedules/requirements in, 323; planning strategies in, 318–319; power of symbolic leadership in, 324; predetermined university policies in, 323; psychological recovery process in, 323–324; safety briefings and safe location options in, 319–320; and terrorism preparedness, 315–325; and understanding of terrorist motives, 324–325; utilization of outside resources in, 316–318. See also New York University's 9/11 response
- Texas A&M's Bonfire tragedy response, 16–17, 255–263; agencies and individuals involved in, 256–257; coordination and communication in, 257–260; Critical Incident Response Team's role in, 256, 257, 260, 261, 262; debriefing in, 201–202, 261; healing process and services in, 261–262; independent commission's investigation of, 259; media coverage of, 258; protocols for, 256, 258, 260–261; risk management program instituted in, 260
- Traffic plan, 128
- Trauma: and early crisis intervention, 151; and individual coping and healing, 151, 152, 154; and mental health problems, 150; and post-trauma complications, 150–151; and psychological first aid steps, 156
- Tribbensee, N., 173, 175
- Tseng, W. C., 146
- Tuchman, G., 9
- Tulane University's hurricane disaster response, 20, 21, 224–229; agencies and individuals involved in, 225; call center established for, 225; and communication systems failure, 225–226; and continuing education provisions, 226; coordinated evacuation in, 225; corporate partners' collaboration with, 225; and international students' needs, 226–227; lessons learned from, 227–228; media spokespersons for, 227; university's personal evacuation plan in, 224, 227–228; university's Web site utilization in, 226; and visiting arrangements at other universities, 226
- Turk, J. V., 42
- ## U
- University of Arizona College of Nursing's crisis response: CERT's role in, 278–279; communication difficulties in, 276–277; critical incident stress debriefing in, 278; and first responders deployment, 274–276, 279–280; healing and counseling assistance in, 279; importance of collaboration in, 279; Incident Command System (ICS) in, 278–279, 280; media staging area established for, 277; outside agencies involved in, 276; protocol observation and revision in, 278–279; unified command center established in, 275, 276, 277–278; university president's efforts in, 277
- University of Florida, Gainesville, student murders at, 12
- University of Illinois at Urbana–Champaign, meningitis health crisis at, 13–14
- University of Maryland—College Park's tornado disaster, 216–222; agencies involved in, 217; communication in, 217–218, 221–222; counseling and mental help support in, 219; incident response team's

- role in, 218–219; and lessons learned, 222; and protocol revisions, 221–222; public-private partnerships in, 219–220, 221; public relations staff's preparations in, 220; residence life officials' planning in, 221; university Web site utilization in, 220
- University of Memphis, crisis management teams at, 58
- University of Miami's hurricane disaster, 207–211; campus closing decision in, 209; communications issues and system improvement in, 209–211, 213; counseling provision in, 209; and crisis management team reorganization, 211; Emergency Operations Center activated for, 210–211, 213; FEMA's role in, 214; and payroll/business operations, 214–215; and protocol revisions, 212–215; public relations strategies in, 211–212; roles of resident assistants and resident coordinators in, 209, 212; rumor control hot line in, 213; senior leadership team meetings on, 208, 209–210; and staff contact information, 213; and university's community volunteer efforts, 212
- University of Texas at Austin, Texas Tower shootings at, 7–8
- University of Wyoming, and Matthew Shepard's murder, 15–16, 17
- V
- van Haperen, K., 185
- Vesta, L. C., 164
- Virginia Tech's balcony collapse response: academic relief requests in, 232–233; agencies and individuals involved in, 232; and crisis definition, 29; family notification in, 233; and liability issues, 234; media presence and rumor control efforts in, 233; and protocol effectiveness, 235; Student Affairs' Care Team involvement in, 234
- Volpe, J. S., 149, 158
- W
- Washington, C. K., 255
- Web and e-mail services, 102; as crisis information management and source, 16–17, 239, 249; overloading of, 83–84, 86; public, 102; and terrorism preparedness and relief, 317
- Wheeler, I., 146
- Whitely, P., 207
- Whitman, Charles, 7
- Wilson, M. E., 183
- Wireless Internet communication system, 104
- X
- Xavier University, and Hurricane Katrina recovery efforts, 21, 22
- Y
- Young, M., 152, 153, 158, 167, 171
- Z
- Zdziarski, E. L., 3, 28, 35, 73, 74, 315, 329
- Zhang, B., 146