

Index

A

Absolutely American: Four Years at West Point (Lipsky), 96

Academic advising, 98–99, 135, 169

Academic majors, 135, 137–138, 155

Administrators Promoting Parental Involvement, 216

Admissions process, 4, 86

Adolescents: egocentrism of, 16–17; idealism of, 15; identity issues and, 17–20; risky behaviors of, 16; thought process in, 13–17

Adult attachment theory, 23–24

Adult competencies, 158, 159–160

Adult students, 179, 226–227

Advanced degrees, 144–150; expectations related to, 144–146; experiences related to, 146–150; racial minorities and, 182–184. See also Graduate school

Affective components, 22–24

Affordability in Higher Education Act (2003), 213

African American students: HBCUs and, 195–199; racial diversity and, 182–184

Age differences, 179–180

Alumni advocates, 220

Alumni Outcomes Survey, 144, 145, 147, 159, 163, 168

American Association for Higher Education (AAHE), 233

American Association of Community Colleges (AACC), 191, 226

American College Personnel Association (ACPA), 6, 80, 141

American College Testing Service (ACT), 144

American Council on Education (ACE), 136, 225

American Freshman: National Norms for Fall 2002 survey, 190, 193, 197

Animal House (film), 204, 233

Ardaiole, F. P., 6, 84

Asian/Pacific Islander students, 183, 184

Assessment: of college outcomes, 140, 168; of student expectations, 89–90, 98–99

Associated Press, 85

Association of American Colleges and Universities (AAC&U), 140, 234, 235, 236, 251, 252

Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities (ACCU), 230

Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges (AGB), 231

Athletes, 123, 213–214, 247

Atlantic Monthly, 69

Attendance costs, 104–106

Attrition, 4; common reasons for, 132–133; students at risk for, 136–138

B

Baccalaureate and Beyond Longitudinal Study (B&B), 143–144, 145

Background characteristics: age differences, 179–180; employment status, 177–179; financial aid and, 115–117; first-generation

Background characteristics, continued
 students, 180–182; gender differences, 176–177; racial/ethnic differences, 182–186; student expectations and, 50–51, 52–53, 175–176

Bandura, A., 22

Barron's Profiles of American Colleges, 41

Beginning Postsecondary Students Longitudinal Study (BPS), 126, 191, 192

Benchmarking practices, 99

Bender, B. E., 6, 8, 84, 204, 225

Berzonsky, M. D., 19

Black students. See African American students

Boggs, G. R., 226

Boredom, 30–31

Breach of contract, 27–28

Brooks, D., 68, 76

Bureau of Labor Statistics, 156

C

Campus Compact chapters, 78

Campus environments, 65–81; components of, 66–67; demographics of, 68; diversity of, 75–76, 80, 235; expansion of, 77–79, 80; living spaces in, 74, 92–93; management of, 71, 74–81; subsystems of, 67

Campus residences, 74

Campus services, 84–100; action strategies for, 95–100; assessment of, 89–90, 98–99; breadth and quality of, 87–89; career services and, 94; communication channels and, 100; financial aid and, 93–94; institutional mission and, 96–98, 99, 100; learning experience and, 90–92; residence halls and, 92–93; student expectations and, 86–87, 95–98

Capacity issues, 251–252

Career services, 94, 137–138

Careers: college as preparation for, 236; expectations related to,

150–151; experiences related to, 151–156; help in planning for, 137–138, 169; race/gender inequities and, 156–157. See also

Employment

Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, 190

Catholic colleges/universities, 230–231

Cell phones, 75, 79

Charity work, 160, 167

Chronicle of Higher Education, 86, 102, 107, 170, 210, 217

Chronicle Survey of Public Opinion About Higher Education, 205

CIRP. See Cooperative Institutional Research Program

Citizenship. See Democratic citizenship

Civil Rights Act (1964), 75

Class participation, 177

Clements, E., 227

Clery, H. and C., 216

Clinton, B., 220

Cocome, R., 218

Cognitive appraisal process, 29, 30

College Board, 104, 105, 106, 114

College Parents of America, 85, 215

College Student Expectations Questionnaire (CSXQ), 2–3, 6, 39–49, 64, 127, 143, 176, 249–250; academic success data, 127; community college data, 227; first-generation student data, 181; gender data, 176–177; initial conclusions from, 38; measurement models, 44–47; student work data, 69, 177–179; technology items, 60

College Student Experiences Questionnaire (CSEQ), 6, 39–49, 64, 127–128, 143, 176, 250; ethnic/racial data, 183, 184; gains factors, 48–49; measurement models, 44–47, 48; student-faculty contact data, 76–77

College Student Experiences Questionnaire: Norms for the Fourth Edition (Gonyea et al.), 143

Colleges and universities: Catholic, 230–231; costs of attending, 102–120, 209; financial aid for students at, 113–119; historically black, 195–199, 200; outcomes of attending, 140–171; public vs. private, 193–195, 199–200; published rankings of, 249; small and independent, 229–230; special-nature, 200, 201; student selection of, 86–87; two-year vs. four-year, 191–193, 199; types of, 190–201. See also Higher education; Institutions of higher education

Communication channels, 100

Community colleges: challenges for, 228; costs of attending, 104, 105–106; expectations related to, 226–227, 228; four-year colleges vs., 191–193, 199; student experiences of, 228–229

Community service activities, 78, 135, 160

Commuter services/programs, 135

Comparative Fit Index (CFI), 64

Confirmatory factor analysis (CFA), 44, 64

Consumerism, 68–69, 71, 72–73, 90

Contracts, psychological, 24–28

Conversations, topics of, 46–47

Cooperative Institutional Research Program (CIRP), 3, 69, 125–126, 158, 190, 214, 250

Coping, 28–29

Costs of college, 102–120; contemporary data on, 104–106; debt management and, 117–119; estimation of, 110–112, 120; financial aid and, 88, 93–94, 112–117; geographic regions and, 106; information obtained on, 109–112; institution type and, 103–104; low-income students and, 113; middle-income students and, 113–114; news media report on, 209; private loans and, 116–117; public opinion about, 107; role of parents in financing, 108–109; student expectations and, 90, 107; subsidized loans and, 113–116

Council for the Advancement of Standards in Higher Education, 140

Council of Independent Colleges, 229

Course learning, 44–45

Cross-cultural interaction, 184–186

CSEQ. See College Student Experiences Questionnaire

CSXQ. See College Student Expectations Questionnaire

D

Davis, J. S., 106

Debt management, 117–119

Degree attainment, 122–139; advanced degrees and, 144–150, 170; African American students and, 195; community colleges and, 192, 199; dissonance related to, 132–133; external factors related to, 124–125; intervention strategies and, 135–138; program strategies and, 134–135; public vs. private colleges and, 194; recruitment processes and, 133–134; research studies on, 128–131; societal expectations and, 122–124; statistical data on, 239; student expectations and, 125–128, 144–146

Democratic citizenship, 142, 164–167; expectations related to, 165–166; experiences related to, 166–167

Demographics: campus environment and, 68; expectations/experiences and, 42; financial aid programs and, 115–117; multiculturalism and, 185

Dependent students, 103
Descriptive Summary of 1995–96 Beginning Postsecondary Students, Six Years Later (Berkner et al.), 130
 Diffuse/avoidant style, 20
 Discretionary time, 239–240
 Diversity: campus environment and, 75–76, 80, 235; emphasizing importance of, 168; expectations/experiences with, 46, 184–186; interpersonal sensitivity and, 163–164; multicultural, 184–186. See also Gender diversity; Racial/ethnic diversity
 Divorce rate, 124
 Doctoral students, 146, 148, 150
 Dungy, G. J., 3, 7, 175

E

Earnings, 154–155, 158, 159
 Ecological perspective, 67
 Educated persons, 142, 144–150
 Educational attainment, 144–150; expectations related to, 144–146; experiences related to, 146–150. See also Higher education
 Educational enrichment, 77–79
 Egocentrism, 16–17
 Ekman, R., 229
 Electronic mailing lists, 219
 Emotional components, 22–24
 Employment, 150–157; expectations of, 150–151; experiences of, 151–155; inequities in, 156–157; occupation types and, 154; preparation for, 236; reasons for choice of, 153; salary issues and, 154–155, 159; satisfaction with, 155; unemployment and, 155. See also Careers; Working students
 Employment Policy Foundation, 154
 Enrollment management, 4, 237, 238, 246
 Environmental factors. See Campus environments
 Erikson, E. H., 17, 19

Ethical standards, 163
 Ethnic diversity. See Racial/ethnic diversity
 Evaluation processes, 221
 Expectancies, 22
 Expectations: cognitive appraisal and, 29, 30; dissonance related to, 95; emergence of, 210–211; meaning of, 12–13; psychology of, 21–28; public, 204–221; sources of, 248–249; stakeholder, 207–208. See also Student expectations
 Expected family contribution (EFC), 113, 114
 Experiences: college outcomes and, 144–167; multicultural, 184–186; student expectations and, 37–61. See also College Student Experiences Questionnaire

F

Factor analysis, 42, 44
 Faculty: academic advising by, 98–99, 135, 169; expectations/experiences with, 45; HBCU students and, 197–198; personal contacts made by, 220; schemas related to, 25; student contact with, 76–77, 197–198
 Fallows, J., 68–69
 Families: HBCU attendance and, 196; institutional involvement of, 75, 214–216; orientation programs for, 135. See also Parents
 Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), 75, 215
 Federal regulations, 214
 Fields of study, 149
 Films, 204, 209, 219, 233
 Financial aid: contemporary data on, 113, 114–115; debt management and, 117–119; graduate school attendance and, 118; low-income students and, 113; middle-income students and,

113–114; persistence decisions and, 137; private loans as, 116–117; student expectations and, 93–94; subsidized loans as, 113–116. See also Costs of college

Financial aid offices, 88

Financial security, 157–158

First-generation college students, 180–182, 198, 238

First-year seminars, 135

Fish, S., 212

Focus groups, 89

Foreclosure status, 19

Foundation for Individual Rights in Education (FIRE), 216

Foundations of Student Affairs Practice (Hamrick, Evans, & Schuh), 141

Four-year colleges: costs of attending, 103–106; two-year colleges vs., 191–193, 199. See also Colleges and universities

Freshman myth, 37

Friendships, 161

Fund for the Improvement of Post-secondary Education (FIPSE), 39

G

Gains in General Education (GENED), 44, 54

Gains in Intellectual Skill Development (INTSKILL), 44, 49, 55

Garibaldi, A., 197

Gay students, 168

Gehring, D. D., 212

Gender diversity: campus demographics and, 68; class participation and, 177; degree attainment and, 129, 145; employment and, 152; expectations/experiences and, 52, 176–177, 232; graduate programs and, 148, 149, 176; income gap and, 156–157; interpersonal sensitivity and, 163, 164

General education, gains in, 48, 54

General Model of Reactions to Stressors, 29, 30

Geographic regions, 106

George Washington University, 217–218

Getting Ready to Pay for College report, 109

Golden Fleece Awards, 217

Gonyea, R. M., 5, 10, 34

Government involvement, 211–214

Graduate preparation programs, 80–81

Graduate Record Exam (GRE), 147

Graduate school: application to, 147–148; degree completion rates in, 149–150; enrollments in, 148–149; expectations related to, 144–146; experiences related to, 146–150; fields of study chosen in, 149; racial minorities and, 182–184; student debt loads and, 118

Graduation. See Degree attainment

Grants, 113

Greater Expectations panel, 140–141, 251, 252

Greek-letter organizations, 196

H

Hartle, T. W., 107

Health issues, 79

Health services, 89

Hellwig, M., 230

Henry, W. J., 7, 190

Higher education: commercialization of, 69, 71; contract theory and, 25–27; costs of, 102–120, 209; government and, 211–214; outcomes of, 140–171; public perceptions of, 204–205, 210–211, 216–218; stakeholders of, 205–208. See also Colleges and universities; Institutions of higher education

Higher Education Research Institute (HERI), 128–129, 136

Hispanic/Latino students, 68, 182–184

Historically black colleges and universities (HBCUs), 195–199, 200

Horse Feathers (film), 204
 Housing issues, 74, 137
 Howard, J. A., 5, 10, 24
 Hypothetical reasoning, 14–15

I

Identity achievement, 19
 Identity crisis, 17–18
 Identity diffusion, 19
 Identity status, 18–19
 Identity styles, 19–20
 Imaginary audience, 15
 Income expectations, 157–158
 Indiana University, 6
 Informational style, 19–20
 Ingram, R. T., 231
 Institute for Higher Education Policy, 159, 165, 166
 Institutional culture, 67
 Institutions of higher education (IHEs): characteristics of, 50, 52–53, 57; government and, 211–214; integrity of, 100; mission of, 88, 97–98, 99, 100; parental involvement in, 75, 214–216, 231; perceptions of, 204–205, 210–211, 216–218; psychological contracts and, 25–27; public vs. private, 193–195, 199–200; published rankings of, 249; responses to constituencies by, 218–221; special interest groups and, 216; special-nature, 200, 201; stakeholders of, 205–208; student standards expected by, 1, 4–5, 244–245; trustees of, 232; types of, 190–201. See also Colleges and universities; Higher education
 Integrative learning, 40
 Integrity, institutional, 100
 Intellectual environment, 47, 57
 Intellectual skill development, 48, 49, 55
 Intercollegiate athletes, 123, 213–214, 247
 Internships, 78

Interpersonal sensitivity, 142, 161–164; expectations related to, 161–162; experiences related to, 162–164
 Intervention strategies, 135–138
Involvement in Learning report, 76
It's All Relative (Stringer et al.), 108

J

Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, 216
 Job opportunities. See Careers; Employment

K

Kalikow, T. J., 232
 Keating, D., 14
 Kelly, G., 21
 Komives, S. R., 7, 140, 247
 Kors, A. C., 216
 Kuh, G. D., 3, 5, 6, 34, 49, 65, 240

L

Latino/Hispanic students, 68, 182–184
 Lazarus, R. S., 29
 Learning: campus services and, 90–94; expectations/experiences of, 44–45, 236; importance of, 238–239; integrative, 40; lifelong, 170–171; off-campus, 78, 81
 Learning communities, 228
Learning Reconsidered: A Campus-Wide Focus on the Student Experience (Keeling), 141, 187
 Leisure activities, 160, 177
 Lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgendered (LGBT) students, 168
 Life planning, 169
 Life skills management, 142, 157–161; adult competencies and, 158, 159–160; expectations related to, 157–158; experiences related to, 159–160
 Life transitions, 78

Lifelong learning, 170–171
 Lipsky, D., 96, 248
 Living environment, 74, 92–93
 Loans, 113–117; contemporary data on, 114–115; debt management for, 117–119; defaults on, 117, 118–119; graduate school attendance and, 118; private, 116–117; subsidized, 113–116. See also Financial aid
 Lovett, C., 233
 Lowery, J. W., 8, 204
 Low-income students, 113

M

Marcia, J. E., 18, 19, 20
 Mass mailings, 219
 Mass markets, 209–210
 Master's degrees, 146, 148
 MBA programs, 148
 McAdams, D. P., 22
 McClenny, K., 227
 Media: mass market, 209–210; news, 208–209
 Middle-income students, 113–114
 Miller, T. E., 1, 7, 8, 9, 122, 225, 244
 Minority students, 68, 158
 Mischel, W., 22
 Mission, institutional, 88, 96–98, 99, 100
 Mission statements, 88, 97
 Moneta, L., 6, 65
 Moratorium status, 19
 Multicultural experiences, 184–186

N

National Association of College Admission Counseling (NACAC), 237
 National Association of Student Personnel Administrators (NASPA), 7, 80, 141, 252
 National associations, 220–221
 National Center for Education Statistics (NCES), 126–127, 129–131, 144, 179, 184, 194

National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), 123
 National Council on Student Development (NCSD), 227
 National Education Longitudinal Study (NELS), 191, 192
 National Household Education Survey (1999), 109
 National Institute of Education (NIE), 76
 National Postsecondary Student Aid Study, 129
 National Science Foundation (NSF), 219
 National Survey of Student Engagement (2003), 69–70, 78
 New millennials, 4
 News media, 208–209
 Nixon, H. L., 7, 190
 Normative style, 20
 Nuss, E. M., 7, 140, 247

O

Oblinger, D., 34
 Occupation types, 154
 Off-campus learning, 78
 Opportunity subsystem, 67
 Orientation programs, 134, 135, 233, 238
 Outcomes of college, 140–171; assessment of, 140, 168; clusters related to, 141–142; data sources on, 143–144; democratic citizenship, 142, 164–167; educational attainment, 142, 144–150; employment opportunities, 142, 150–157; interpersonal sensitivity, 142, 161–164; life skills management, 142, 157–161; recommendations related to, 168–171; self-awareness, 142, 161–164; student expectations of, 142–143

P

Parents: college graduates as, 160; financing for college from, 108–109; institutional involvement of,

Parents: college graduates as, continued
75, 214–216, 231; orientation programs for, 135, 182. See also Families

Partnerships, 81, 218–219

PCT. See Psychological contract theory

Pell Grants, 113

Persistence rates, 123, 129–131, 132,
192. See also Degree attainment

Personal constructs, 21–22

Personal contacts, 220

Personal fable, 15

Physical environment, 66

Piaget, J., 13

Planning process, 221

Prayer, 199

*Principal Indicators of Student Academic Histories in Postsecondary Education
1972–2000* (NCES), 131

Private institutions: costs of attending, 104–106; public institutions vs., 193–195, 199–200; student satisfaction and, 229. See also Colleges and universities

Private loans, 116–117

Probationary students, 135

Professional institutions, 201

Professors. See Faculty

Program strategies, 134–135

Proxmire, W., 217

Psychological contract theory (PCT),
24–28; breach of contract and, 27–
28; higher education and, 25–27;
student expectations and, 36

Psychological services, 89

Psychological theories, 21–28

Psychoneuroimmunology, 28

Public expectations, 204–221; formation of, 210; institutional responses to, 218–221; mass markets and, 209–210; news media and,
208–209; opinion polls on, 210–
211; parents/families and, 214–
216; public perceptions and,
204–205, 210–211, 216–218; special interest groups and, 216;

stakeholders and, 207–208

Public institutions: costs of attending, 104–106; private institutions vs., 193–195, 199–200. See also
Colleges and universities

Public opinion polls, 210–211

Public relations, 219

R

Racial/ethnic diversity: campus environment and, 80; degree attainment and, 129, 146; employment inequities and, 156; multicultural experiences and, 184–186; student expectations and, 52, 182–184

Reading, expectations/experiences,
47

Reasoning, hypothetical, 14–15

Recruitment, 4, 133–134, 236, 242, 246

Registration services, 88

Regression analysis, 49

Religious beliefs, 199

Reputation of institutions, 90

Research on expectations/experiences, 35–61, 249–250; analysis of, 49–57; data sources for, 41–
49; degree completion and, 128–
131; general overview of, 35–39;
instruments used for, 39–41; significance of results from, 57–61;
student demographics in, 42

Research universities, 248

Residence halls, 92–93

Residential colleges, 74

Revenge of the Nerds films, 204

Reward subsystem, 67

Risk factors, 136–138

Risky behaviors, 16

Rissmeyer, P. A., 3, 7, 175

Roberts, G., 3, 6, 7, 84, 175

Room and board costs, 104, 106

Root Mean Square Error of Approximation (RMSEA), 64

- Ross, L. E., 6, 102
 Rousseau, D. M., 24, 25, 27
 Rutgers University, 219
- S
- Salaries, 154–155, 159
Saved by the Bell: The College Years (TV show), 209–210
 Savings rate, 159
 Schemas, 25
 Schneider, C., 234
 Schuh, J. H., 6, 8, 102, 204
 Schunk, D. H., 22
 Security on Campus, 216
 Self-awareness, 142, 161–164; expectations related to, 161–162; experiences related to, 162–164
 Self-efficacy, 22
 Self-fulfilling prophecy, 37
 Self-segregation, 76
 Selye, H., 28
 Service learning, 169–170, 220
 Silverglate, H. A., 216
 Skilled workers, 142, 150–157.
 See also Employment
 Skills: employment, 142, 150–157; intellectual, 48, 49, 55; life, 142, 157–161
 Small colleges, 229–230
 Smith, J., 237
 Smith, P., 238, 246
 Social environment, 66
 Social integration, 198
 Socioeconomic status (SES): first-generation students and, 181; student expectations and, 53, 181
 Special interest groups, 216
 Special-nature institutions, 200, 201
 Stafford loans, 115–116, 118
 Stakeholders, 205–208
 State University of New York (SUNY), 209
 Strassburger, J., 239
 Stress, 28–30; cognitive appraisal and, 29, 30; immune system and, 28
 Stringer, W. L., 108
 Structural equation modeling (SEM), 44, 49, 64
 Student Adaptation to College Questionnaire, 24
 Student advocacy programs, 135
 Student affairs staff, 79–81
 Student expectations, 1–4, 244–246; age issues and, 179–180; assessment of, 89–90, 98–99; background characteristics and, 50–51, 52–53, 175–186; campus environments and, 66–68, 79; campus services and, 86–87, 95–98; college selection and, 86–87; community colleges and, 226–227, 228; costs of college and, 102–120; degree attainment and, 125–128, 144–146; employment opportunities and, 150–151; ensuring accuracy of, 96–98; first-generation students and, 180–182; gathering information on, 245–246; gender differences and, 176–177, 232; incongruence of reality and, 28–31; institutional mission and, 96–98, 99; institutional type and, 190–201; instruments for measuring, 39–57; outcomes of college and, 142–143; psychological contracts and, 25–27, 36; published research on, 35–39; racial differences and, 182–184; results of measuring, 57–61; sources of, 248–249; student experiences and, 37–61; working students and, 177–179.
 See also College Student Expectations Questionnaire
 Student Right to Know Act (1992), 123
 Students: college selection process by, 86–87; faculty contact with, 76–77, 197–198; first-generation, 180–182; health issues for, 79;

Students: college selection process by, cont.
 off-campus learning by, 78;
 parental involvement with, 75;
 primacy of learning by, 238–239;
 probationary, 135; spending patterns of, 71; stress experienced by, 28–30; time allocation by, 69–
 70; tips on marketing to, 72–73
 Students of color, 168–169, 185.

See also Racial/ethnic diversity

Subsidized loans, 113–116
 Summer orientation program, 233
 Support subsystem, 67

T

Technology, 60, 170
 Television: college experience portrayed on, 209–210; HBCU students and, 198–199
 Thomforde, Reverend Christopher,
 241
 Thought, late-adolescent, 13–17
 Time allocation, 69–70, 239–240
 Time management, 15
 Trustees, 232
 Tuition and fees: contemporary data on, 104–105; estimating costs of,
 111–112
 Two-year colleges: costs of attending,
 104, 105–106; four-year colleges vs., 191–193, 199. See also Community colleges

U

Unemployment, 155, 156
 Universities. See Colleges and universities
 U.S. Census Bureau, 124, 159, 160, 165
 U.S. Department of Education, 109,
 110, 111, 112, 113, 117, 118, 209

U.S. Military Academy (USMA), 96, 248

V

Values, 22, 163
Volcanoes of the Deep Sea (film), 219
 Volunteering, 160, 220, 233
 Voting, 167

W

Waterman, H., 204
 West Point, 96, 248
 White students, multicultural experiences of, 184–186. See also Racial/ethnic diversity
 Williams, J. M., 5, 34
 Wills, P. H., 7, 190
 Winston, G. C., 213
 Women: campus demographics and,
 68; degree attainment by, 129,
 145; employment experience of,
 152, 153; expectations/experiences of, 52, 176–177; wage inequities and, 156–157. See also
 Gender diversity
 Working students: attrition risk of,
 136–137; community colleges and, 228; CSXQ data on, 69,
 177–179; expectations/experiences of, 177–179; HBCUs and,
 198; on-campus vs. off-campus,
 178–179. See also Employment
 Writing, expectations/experiences,
 45, 56

Y

Young adults: identity issues and,
 17–20; thought process in, 13–17.
See also Adolescents