

Index

- Aaron condition, 108, 125, 128
 accrued benefits method, 63 accumulation phase, in behavioural pension economics investment decisions anchoring effects, inertia and procrastination, 231 excessive investment decisions, 232 framing effects, 230–231
 lack of firm preferences, 229 loss aversion and disposition effects, 236 narrow framing effects, 236–237 overconfidence, 235–236
 prospect theory, 233–235
 reliance on past performance, 232–233 saving decisions choice overload and herding, 226 complexity problems, 222 framing and decision choices, 224–225 inertia and procrastination, 226
 save more tomorrow plans, 226–227 self control problems, 222–224 active member, See pension schemes, members of actuarial fairness, 140 adverse selection, 82–83, 173 ageing, economics of effects of, 162
 generational accounting, 164–167 macroeconomic effects, 157–161 pensions in Diamond-Samuelson OLG model with varying population growth, 161–164 agency hypothesis, 73 age-savings profile, 19
 anchoring effects, 231 annuity factor, 4
 Arrow-Debreu securities, 178 asset-liability matching and management, 177 automatic enrolment, 224 availability heuristics, 233 backloaded benefits, 7, 65 basic state pension, 193–195 bird flu, See influenza pandemics
 Bismarck, 3
 Blanchard-Yaari OLG model
 PAYG pensions in, with endogenous labour supply and retirement, 152–154 with uncertain lifetimes aggregate consumption, 144–147
 Blanchard contributions, 142
 firms, 147–148

- Blanchard–Yaari OLG model
(Continued)
 government and market equilibrium, 148–149 individuals in, 142–144 phase diagram, 149–152
 Yaari contributions, 137–142
- bonding cost, 71, 77
- bounded rationality, 221
- bounded self-control, 221–22
- bounded self-interest, 221
- breakeven effect, 235
- BSP, See basic state pension
- budget constraint, 24, 106–107, 117–118
 Blanchard’s version of Yaari’s lifetime, 143 intertemporal, 20 lifetime for individual, 123, 165
 post-retirement, 27
- call option, 60
- capital constraint hypothesis, 74
- capital–labour ratio, 99, 113, 115, 125–127, 129, 161–162
- capital market equilibrium, 101
- capital markets, 19
 imperfections, 52–53
- career average revalued earnings schemes, 7–8
- CARE schemes, See career average revalued earnings schemes
- cash balance scheme, 9
- choice overload, 225
- Cobb–Douglas production function, 102, 109–110, 116
- combination hybrid scheme, 9
- commitment device, 75, 224
- compensating wage principle, 51
- compensation package, 57–58
- consumption equation, for old individual, 118
- consumption Euler equation, 93, 139, 141, 144, 146–147 for young individual, 118
- consumption function, 18 long-run elasticities, 35–36 possibilities involved with, 33–35
- consumption smoothing, 18, See pension, essential purposes
- contract curve, 55
- control variable, 89
- corporate bonds, 63
- corporate governance, 81–82
 Cadbury Committee on, 82
 Hempel Committee on, 82
- corporate pension schemes agency costs in insider-trustees, 72–75 moral hazard, adverse selection and disability pensions, 82–83 performance-related fund management fees, 80–81 shareholder activism and corporate governance, 81–82
 underfunding, 75–80
- employment contracts, role of pensions as altruism, 48–49 pensions as contingent claims, 60–61 pensions as deferred payments, 49–60 and mandatory retirement, 66–68 nature of liabilities, 61–64 provision for, 47–48 and quitting, 64–65
 tax and pension fund policy, 68–71
- co-state variable, 139
- deadweight loss, 130, 132
- decision framing, 224
- decumulation phase, in behavioural pension economics inflation and capital market risk, 239
 longevity risk, 238–239
- default option, 225
- deferred member, See pension schemes, members of
- deferred pay view, 49
- deficit, 8

- defined benefit schemes
 - fixed benefit plans, 6
 - salary related scheme, 7
- degree of impatience, See rate of
 - time preference
- demographic timebomb, 192, 207
- dependency ratio, 157
- Diamond-Samuelson OLG model
 - and ageing effects, 161–164
 - PAYG schemes with endogenous
 - labour supply and retirement
 - individuals, 122–125
 - market equilibrium, 125–126
 - steady states, 126–129
 - transformation to funded
 - schemes, 132
 - welfare effects, 129–132
 - pension schemes with exogenous
 - labour supply and retirement
 - PAYG equivalence and
 - government debt, 117–120
 - PAYG to funded schemes,
 - 121–122
 - state schemes, 106–117
 - transitional and welfare effects,
 - 120–121
 - two-period
 - dynamic, stable and steady
 - state, 101–103
 - firms, 98–99
 - individuals, 91–97
 - market equilibrium, 100–101
 - optimality and efficiency,
 - 103–105
 - unit-elastic, 102–103
- direct utility function, 91,
 - 112–113
- discretionary non-pension savings,
 - 29
- disposable income, 20
- disposition effect, 235
- distributional objective, 1
- dread risk, 224
- drug abuse, 160
- DWL, See deadweight loss
- dynamic efficiency, 105
- dynamic models, 89–90
- economic pension liabilities, 51
- economics, parts of, 2
- economy-wide steady state budget
 - constraint, 104
- EET system, of tax breaks, 68–69, 71
- efficiency wages, 61
- ELSA, See English Longitudinal
 - Study of Ageing
- Employee Retirement Income
 - Security Act, 79
- employee's objective function, 181
- employee's wage contract, 185
- employer insolvency risk, 174
- endorsement effect, 232
- English Longitudinal Study of
 - Ageing, 158
- ERISA, See Employee Retirement
 - Income Security Act
- Euler's theorem, 99, 114
- ex ante incentive compatible
 - contract, 72
- expected utility hypothesis, 137
- exponential discounting, 223
- ex post settling up, 72
- externality, 187
- factor–price frontier, 116
- factors of production, 2
- final salary lump sum scheme, 8
- final salary pension scheme, 64
- final salary scheme, See defined
 - benefit schemes
- financing cost, 62
- first-order difference equation, 101
- fiscal policy, 2–3
- fixed benefit plans, 6
- framing effects, 239
- fundamental (non-linear) difference
 - equation, 101
- funded pension schemes, 1
- GDP, 4
- generational accounts, concept of,
 - 164
- Gini coefficients, 33
- goal-gradient effect, 32
- golden-age path, 103–104

- golden rule, 104
 consumption, 150 modified, 151
golden-rule path, 120 government budget constraint, 117, 164
Greenbury Committee, on executive pay, 82 hazard rate, 140

herding behaviour, 225
high flyer's pension, 189 home equity release, 10 house money effect, 235 human capital, 14, 18, 33, 37, 66, 141, 143, 153 hyperbolic discounting, 223

idiosyncratic risk, 173, 197, 200, 213 implicit contract, 61 aspects of, 62 income effect, 96
incomplete market risks externalities, 187–188 portfolio restrictions, 186–187
 selection or sorting effects, 188
 taxation, 187
 transaction costs, 187
 untradeable, 181–186 indirect utility function, 112–113 individual defined contribution, 4 individual optimal lifecycle consumption, 106 individual retirement account, 9 individual's wealth dynamics, 138, 143 infectious diseases, 160 inflation rate, See consumption function, possibilities involved with inflation risk, 174 influenza pandemics, 160
inframarginal savings, 21 insolvency risk, 183–184 insurance, 1
interest rate risk, 174

intergenerational–redistributional effect, 151 intertemporal indifference curve, 20 intertemporal substitution elasticity, 17, 94–95, 140 investment risk, 174
ISE, See intertemporal substitution elasticity iso-cost curve, 51, 53, 58, 183–184 iso-elastic utility function, 93

Keynes–Ramsey capital stock, 151 labour, See factors of production labour market status, See consumption function, possibilities involved with labour productivity, 57 diminishing returns to, 58

Lagrangian function, 92
LCM, See lifecycle model
Leibnitz's rule, 145–146
LEL, See lower earnings limit
LET, See lower earning threshold life annuity, 140 life cycle assets, 28
lifecycle factors, See consumption function, possibilities involved with lifecycle model, 13–19 empirical studies evaluating, 28–29 of Feldstein, with induced retirement consumption decision, 32–37 retirement behavior, 37–38 illustrations of, 14 principle feature of, 18 stages of, 14
life expectancy, 4 lifetime budget constraint, 15 linear homogeneous, 98 liquidity constraints, See consumption function, possibilities involved with longevity risk, 158, 174
long-term care, 10

- loss aversion, 236
- lower earnings limit, 193–195
- lower earning threshold, 195
- macroeconomics, 2–3
- mandatory pension savings, 21
- mandatory retirement clauses, 66
- marginal product, 66
 - value of, 67
- marginal propensity, to consume, 18
- marginal rates
 - of intertemporal substitution, 93
 - of intertemporal transformation, 93
- market imperfections, 76
- median voter, 176
- mental accounting, See narrow framing effects
- microeconomics, 2
- MIG, See minimum income guarantee
- minimum income guarantee, 196
- MLA, See myopic loss aversion
- model of perpetual youth, 142
- modern portfolio theory, 227–228
- monetary policy, 2–3
- moral hazard, 71, 172, 185
- mortality profit, 141
- multiple-agency relationships, 72
- myopic loss aversion, 237
- narrow framing effects, 236
- national insurance contributions, 195
- NDC schemes, See non-financial defined contribution schemes
- neutrality of pensions, 50
- non-financial defined contribution schemes, 4
 - properties of, 5–6
- non-pension savings, 22
- nursery DC scheme, 8–9
- occupational pension rights, 31
- occupational pension schemes, 6, 20, 24–25, 30, 39
 - risk sharing
 - complete markets, 178–180
 - risk sharing in
 - incomplete markets, 180–188
- occupational pension wealth, 38
- official tax rate, on steady state welfare, 127
- OLG, See overlapping generations model
- opaque frame, 230
- optimal contract theory, 75
- optimal employment contract, 180
- optimal sorting, 59
- optimal steady state consumption, 130
- Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development report, 160
- overlapping generations model, 89
- Pareto-improving equation, 120–12, 132, 196, 199–203, 210, 212, 214
- Pareto-optimal outcome, 105, 192
- pay-as-you-go pension scheme, 1, 69, See also Blanchard–Yaari OLG model
 - and state pension schemes
 - transition deficit, 210–212
 - viability, 206–210
- PAYG, See pay-as-you-go pension scheme
- pension, 1
 - essential purposes, 1
- Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, 79–80
- pension capital loss, from quitting, 65
- pension economics, 3
 - behavioural
 - accumulation phase, See accumulation phase, in behavioural pension economics
 - decumulation phase, See decumulation phase, in behavioural pension economics

- pension equity scheme, See final salary lump sum scheme
- pension guarantee, 2
- pension promise, 2
- Pension Protection Fund, 79
- pension schemes
 - and ageing, See ageing, economics of
 - as altruism, 48–49
 - as contingent claims, 60–61
 - in countries, 3
 - as deferred payments
 - firm-specific human capital, 55–58
 - in imperfect capital markets, 52–53
 - in perfect capital markets, 50–52
 - risk factors, 53–54
 - selection or sorting effects, 58–60
 - tax breaks, 54–55
 - in Diamond-Samuelson OLG model, See Diamond-Samuelson OLG model, pension schemes
 - members of, 6
 - occupational, 3
 - defined benefit, 6
 - defined contribution, 6
 - hybrid, 6, 8–9
 - pillars of
 - first, 3–6
 - fourth, 10
 - second, 6–9
 - third, 9–10
 - redistribution
 - in private pension schemes, 188–191
 - in state pension schemes, 206
 - and retirement decisions
 - no pensions, 23–24
 - private funded pension, 24–25
 - unfunded state pensions, 25–28
 - risks and risk sharing
 - in occupational pension schemes, See occupational pension schemes, risk sharing in
 - in personal pension schemes, 175–177
 - in private pension schemes, 174
 - private sector market failure and compensation schemes, 191–192
 - in state pension schemes, 192–196
 - in state schemes, 196–206
 - and savings
 - private funded pensions, 20–22
 - unfunded state pensions, 19–20
 - pension scheme trustees, 72
 - performance-related fee, 80
 - personal or subjective discount rate, See rate of time preference
 - personal pension scheme, 9, 175–177
 - phase line, 103
 - physical capital, See factors of production
 - policy variable, 90
 - political risk, 174, 192
 - portability loss, 188
 - portability risk, 174
 - positive election, 224
 - possibly land, See factors of production
 - poverty relief, 1
 - preference reversals, 229
 - present value, of system assets, 4–5
 - primary surpluses, 148, 165
 - principal–agent problems, 71
 - private funded pension, See occupational pension schemes
 - private pension savings, 28–29
 - production function, 98
 - projected benefit assumptions, 62
 - projected benefits method, 62
 - prospect theory, 233–235
 - put option, 60
 - quit pension wealth, 65

- rate of time preference, 17 recognition effect, 32, 192 relative risk aversion, coefficient of, 94 replacement rate risk, 174 representativeness heuristics, 232 reputational risk, 205 reservation wage, 67, 180 residual loss, 71 retired member, See pension schemes, members of retirement balance scheme, 8 retirement consumption, 22 retirement effect, 30 return chasing phenomenon, 233 Ricardian equivalence, 30 risk averse, 53, 172 risk-averse workers and pensioners, 76 risk neutral, 53 risk-neutral probability, 179 risk premium, 172
- saddle path, 152
saddle point, 152
Sarbanes-Oxley Act, 82
save more tomorrow plans, 227
savings, definition of, 29 savings replacement effect, 30 sequential hybrid scheme, 8–9
SERPS pension, 193–195
SERPS wealth, 35, 37
shared risk scheme, See cash balance scheme shareholder activism, 81
SmarT plan, See save more tomorrow plans social security system, 23, 29–30, 32, 197, 199
 Beveridgean system, 4 Bismarckian system, 4 social welfare function, 121 sponsor, 6
sponsor contribution holidays, 8 spot labour market, 63
- state pension schemes basic, 193–195
 with exogenous labour supply and retirement, 106–117
 and PAYG transition deficit, 210–212
 viability, 206–210
 private market failure, 191–192 redistribution of, 206
 risk sharing in family, 197–198
 social security system, 198–206
 risks in, 192–196
state variable, 90 stay pension wealth, 65 substitution effect, 96 surplus, 8, 35
systematic demographic risk, 192, 197
- targeted benefit scheme, 9 tax arbitrage hypothesis, 74–75 tax-transfer scheme, 199 time consistency, of programme, 205–206 time diversification, 228 time inconsistency problem, 67, 198 time value of money, 5 trading down, 9
transition deficit, 210–212
TTE system, of tax breaks, 68–69
two-way altruism, 197
- uncertainty risk, 224
underfunding pension schemes, in corporation bargaining position in, 78 and bonding costs, 77–78 market imperfections, role of, 76–77
 risk sharing, 78
 schemes and insurance funds, 79–80 underpinning arrangements, 9 unfunded pension liabilities, 78

256 Index

-
- unfunded pension scheme, 19–20, 25–28, See pay-as-you-go pension scheme
 - unfunded system, 4
 - unit-elastic model, 128
 - unwinding of liability discount, See financing cost
 - utility
 - function, 16
 - intertemporal substitution elasticity, 17
 - logarithm, 17
 - marginal, 16, 94
 - value function, 179
 - wealth–age profile, 19, 29
 - wealth substitution effect, See
savings replacement effect
 - welfare economics, 3, 171
 - windfall gain, 112