
List of Questions

CHAPTER 1	General Operations of a Nonprofit Organization	1
Q 1:1	What is a nonprofit organization ?	1
Q 1:2	Who owns a nonprofit organization?	2
Q 1:3	Who controls a nonprofit organization?	3
Q 1:4	Sometimes the term not-for-profit organization is used instead of nonprofit organization . Are the terms synonymous?	3
Q 1:5	How is a nonprofit organization started?	3
Q 1:6	How does a nonprofit organization incorporate?	4
Q 1:7	Who are the incorporators?	4
Q 1:8	Can the same individuals be the directors, officers, and incorporators?	4
Q 1:9	What about the registered agent?	5
Q 1:10	What does the registered agent do?	5
Q 1:11	Does the registered agent have any liability for the corporation's affairs?	5
Q 1:12	Can the same individual be a director, officer, incorporator, and registered agent?	5
Q 1:13	How does a nonprofit organization decide the state in which to be formed?	5
Q 1:14	How does a nonprofit organization qualify to do business in another state?	6
Q 1:15	What is the legal standard by which a nonprofit organization should be operated?	6
Q 1:16	What is the standard for an organization that is tax-exempt and charitable?	6
Q 1:17	What is the rationale for this standard for charities?	6
Q 1:18	What does the term fiduciary mean?	7
Q 1:19	What is the standard underlying fiduciary responsibility?	7
Q 1:20	What is the meaning of the term reasonable ?	7
Q 1:21	Who are the fiduciaries of a charitable organization?	7

List of Questions

Q 1:22	What happens as the nonprofit organization grows, achieves a higher profile, and needs to add individuals to the board? How do those who created the entity retain control of the organization? After all their hard work, they definitely don't want some other group to run off with the organization.	8
Q 1:23	Can the founding board have it both ways? Can it retain control of the organization and, at the same time, have an expanded and more professional governing board?	8
Q 1:24	What are the rules regarding the development of chapters?	9
Q 1:25	Do chapters have to be incorporated?	9
Q 1:26	What is the role of a lawyer who represents one or more nonprofit organizations?	9
Q 1:27	How should the lawyer representing a nonprofit organization be compensated?	10
CHAPTER 2	Boards of Directors and Conflicts and Liability	11
Q 2:1	What is the origin of a board of directors of a nonprofit organization?	11
Q 2:2	What are the rules concerning the composition of the board of directors?	12
Q 2:3	How does a charitable organization know whether its board of directors is lawfully constituted?	13
Q 2:4	What is the function of the board of directors?	13
Q 2:5	Must the board of directors of a charitable organization be representative of the community?	14
Q 2:6	Can the organization's board be only family members?	14
Q 2:7	Can the family-member directors also be the officers of the nonprofit organization?	15
Q 2:8	In any instance, can the same individual be both a director and an officer?	15
Q 2:9	What is the function of the officers?	15
Q 2:10	Can the same individual hold more than one officer position?	16
Q 2:11	What are the methods by which a board of directors of a nonprofit organization can vote?	16
Q 2:12	Can members of the board of directors of a nonprofit organization vote by proxy?	16
Q 2:13	What material should be in the minutes of meetings of boards of directors of nonprofit organizations?	17
Q 2:14	Is it a concern as a matter of law whether directors are termed trustees?	17
	Expenditures of Funds
Q 2:15	How do these rules apply to the expenditures of funds?	18
Q 2:16	What is expected in terms of program expenditures?	18

Q 2:17	What are the rules pertaining to employee compensation?	18
Q 2:18	The management of a charitable organization wants to redecorate the offices of the organization and purchase new furniture. How much money can it spend and how “fancy” can it be?	19
Q 2:19	Does this standard of fiduciary responsibility apply to every expense incurred by a charitable organization?	20
Q 2:20	What are the rules for charitable organizations concerning travel by board members, officers, and employees?	21
Q 2:21	What about spousal travel?	21
Q 2:22	What about the use of hotels?	21
Q 2:23	What about the expenses of meals?	22
Q 2:24	Can a board member borrow money from a charitable organization?	22
Q 2:25	Can a charitable organization purchase or rent property from a board member?	22
Q 2:26	Besides expenses, what else should a charitable organization be concerned about?	23

Self-Dealing and Conflicts of Interest

Q 2:27	What is self-dealing ?	24
Q 2:28	Is self-dealing the same as a conflict of interest?	24
Q 2:29	What is the source for a requirement that board members disclose (in writing) any possible conflict of interest they might have with the nonprofit organization they serve?	25
Q 2:30	What language should be contained in a conflict-of-interest statement?	25
Q 2:31	Is a conflict-of-interest policy legally binding on the individuals covered by it and/or the nonprofit organization?	26
Q 2:32	How does an individual know when a conflict of interest is present?	26
Q 2:33	What are the obligations of a board member or officer when a conflict of interest is disclosed?	26
Q 2:34	How should a nonprofit organization respond to disclosure of a conflict of interest?	27
Q 2:35	What are the penalties when a conflict of interest is breached?	27
Q 2:36	Can a nonprofit organization receive contributions from a corporation or foundation where a board member has a conflict of interest?	27
Q 2:37	Can a nonprofit organization negotiate for discounted prices for goods or services to be purchased from a source where a board member or officer has disclosed a conflict of interest?	28
Q 2:38	Are there guidelines on or limitations to the extent or nature of the discount value or percent of purchased goods or services?	28

List of Questions

Exposure of the Board to Liability

- Q 2:39 What happens if the board of directors of a nonprofit organization makes a mistake? 28
- Q 2:40 How likely is it that a member of the board of directors of a nonprofit organization will be found personally liable for something done or not done while serving the organization? 29
- Q 2:41 How can a nonprofit organization provide some protection for its board against the likelihood of personal liability for the result of something they did or did not do while serving the organization? 30
- Q 2:42 Does a nonprofit organization really have to indemnify its officers and directors and purchase liability insurance? Can't they just be certain their acts are always in good faith? 31

CHAPTER 3 Corporate Governance Principles 33

- Q 3:1 What is the meaning of the phrase corporate governance principles? 33
- Q 3:2 What are these emerging concepts? 34
- Q 3:3 What is the law as to board management responsibilities? 35
- Q 3:4 What is the duty of care? 36
- Q 3:5 What is the duty of loyalty? 36
- Q 3:6 What is the duty of obedience? 37
- Q 3:7 Can an organization owe a fiduciary duty to another organization? 37
- Q 3:8 How does all of this relate to board member personal liability? 37
- Q 3:9 How do these principles relate to watchdog agencies' principles? 37
- Q 3:10 How will the federal tax law be affected by emerging corporate governance principles? 39

CHAPTER 4 Acquiring Tax-Exempt Status 40

Nonprofit and Exempt Entities

- Q 4:1 Are all nonprofit organizations tax-exempt organizations? 40
- Q 4:2 Are all tax-exempt organizations nonprofit organizations? 41
- Q 4:3 Concerning tax exemption, what taxes are involved? 41

Exemption Application Basics

- Q 4:4 How does a nonprofit organization become a tax-exempt organization? 41
- Q 4:5 Is a nonprofit organization required to apply to the IRS for tax-exempt status? 42
- Q 4:6 What does recognition of tax exemption mean? 42
- Q 4:7 Is an organization required to seek recognition of exempt status from the IRS? 43
- Q 4:8 Are there any exemptions from the recognition requirement? 43
- Q 4:9 What is the procedure for seeking recognition of tax-exempt status? 44

Q 4:10	Where are these applications filed?	44
Q 4:11	How long does it take the IRS to process an exemption application?	45
Q 4:12	How long does an exemption ruling remain in effect?	45
Q 4:13	What happens if there is a substantial change in an organization's character, purposes, or methods of operation?	46

General Procedures

Q 4:14	Will the IRS issue a ruling to an organization in advance of its operations?	46
Q 4:15	How much information must be provided to the IRS?	47
Q 4:16	What happens if the IRS decides the application is incomplete?	48
Q 4:17	What is a substantially completed application?	48
Q 4:18	Is the application for recognition of exemption an important document for an exempt organization?	49
Q 4:19	How long does it take to prepare an application for recognition of tax exemption?	50
Q 4:20	Is there a charge for the processing of an application for recognition of exemption?	50
Q 4:21	Can an application for recognition of exemption be referred to the National Office of the IRS?	50
Q 4:22	Can the applicant organization seek the assistance of the National Office?	51
Q 4:23	Can an application for recognition of exemption be withdrawn?	51
Q 4:24	If an organization is denied recognition of exemption, may it later reapply?	51
Q 4:25	What is the effective date of these rulings?	52
Q 4:26	To what extent can the organization rely on its ruling?	52
Q 4:27	How does an organization remain tax-exempt?	52
Q 4:28	When might an organization's tax exemption be revoked?	52
Q 4:29	If an organization loses its tax-exempt status, can it reacquire it?	52
Q 4:30	Are tax-exempt organizations completely immune from taxation?	53
Q 4:31	In view of the massive amount of government regulation of nonprofit organizations, why don't they forfeit tax-exempt status and be treated for tax purposes the same as for-profit organizations?	54
Q 4:32	What are the basic considerations to take into account in deciding whether an organization should be exempt as a charitable organization or a social welfare organization?	54
Q 4:33	What are the basic considerations to take into account in deciding whether an organization should be exempt as a charitable entity or a business league?	55
Q 4:34	When should a tax-exempt organization consider the establishment of a related foundation?	55

List of Questions

Application Form

Q 4:35	What are the contents of the application?	56
Q 4:36	What is required in Part I of Form 1023?	56
Q 4:37	What is required in Part II of Form 1023?	57
Q 4:38	What is required in Part III of Form 1023?	57
Q 4:39	What is required in Part IV of Form 1023?	57
Q 4:40	What is required in Part V of Form 1023?	57
Q 4:41	What is required in Part VI of Form 1023?	58
Q 4:42	What is required in Part VII of Form 1023?	59
Q 4:43	What is required in Part VIII of Form 1023?	59
Q 4:44	What is required in Part IX of Form 1023?	59
Q 4:45	What is required in Part X of Form 1023?	60
Q 4:46	What is required in Part XI of Form 1023?	60
Q 4:47	What happens when the requested ruling as to tax-exempt status is not granted?	60

Group Exemption

Q 4:48	What is the group exemption procedure?	60
Q 4:49	How is the group exemption initially established?	61
Q 4:50	How is the group exemption maintained?	62
Q 4:51	How are the annual information return reporting requirements satisfied?	63
Q 4:52	Do the central organization and the subordinate organizations have to have the same tax-exempt status?	63
Q 4:53	Can the same organization be involved in more than one group?	63
Q 4:54	When can the group exemption be terminated?	63
Q 4:55	What are the advantages of the group exemption?	64
Q 4:56	Are there any disadvantages to the group exemption?	64

CHAPTER 5 Annual Return Preparation 66

General Requirements

Q 5:1	Do tax-exempt organizations have to file an annual return with the IRS?	66
Q 5:2	Is there any significance to use of the term annual information return ?	67
Q 5:3	What organizations are not required to file an annual return?	67
Q 5:4	What constitutes gross receipts ?	68
Q 5:5	What does the term normally mean?	69
Q 5:6	What happens once this $25,000 gross receipts test is exceeded?	69
Q 5:7	What IRS form is this annual information return?	69
Q 5:8	Is there any reason to file the simpler version of the annual information return when the organization is exempt from the filing requirement because of the amount of its gross receipts?	70

Q 5:9	When is this annual information return due?	71
Q 5:10	Are extensions of this filing due date available?	71
Q 5:11	Where is the annual information return filed?	71
Q 5:12	How does an organization amend its return?	72
Q 5:13	Does the IRS provide copies of previously filed annual information returns?	72
Q 5:14	What if the return is a final return?	72

Overview of Return Contents

Q 5:15	How are the contents of the annual information return determined?	72
Q 5:16	What are the contents of the annual information return?	73
Q 5:17	What items of information are required in the heading of the return, preceding Part I?	73

Revenue, Expenses, Balances, Assets

Q 5:18	Since the classification of government grant revenues is somewhat different for tax and accounting purposes, what issues must be considered in determining whether an item of revenue of this nature is reportable as a grant or program service revenue?	74
Q 5:19	What information as to revenue is required on the annual information return?	75
Q 5:20	What information as to expenses is required on the annual information return?	77
Q 5:21	How does a public charity report a program-related investment?	77
Q 5:22	What information as to net income or loss is required on the annual information return?	78
Q 5:23	What information as to net assets is required on the annual information return?	78
Q 5:24	Should organizations be concerned about a large amount of net assets or fund balance?	80
Q 5:25	Under what circumstances should an amended return be filed when an organization finds that a prior-year annual information return contains an error?	81
Q 5:26	What accounting method should be used in preparation of an annual information return?	81
Q 5:27	Aren't financial statements of exempt organizations prepared on another basis of accounting?	81
Q 5:28	Doesn't this use of two accounting systems require exempt organizations to maintain two sets of financial records?	81

General Operations

Q 5:29	What happens when an organization is engaging in an activity that was not previously disclosed to the IRS?	82
---------------	--	----

List of Questions

Q 5:30	What happens when an organization changed its operating documents but did not previously report this to the IRS?	82
Q 5:31	How does the filing of the annual information return relate to the receipt of unrelated business income?	83
Q 5:32	What if the organization dissolved or substantially contracted during the year?	83
Q 5:33	What about relationships with other organizations?	83
Q 5:34	What if the organization received a contribution of services or a gift of the use of property?	84
Q 5:35	What about the public inspection requirements?	84
Q 5:36	What about fundraising practices?	84
Q 5:37	How does a tax-exempt organization change its accounting period (tax year)?	85
Q 5:38	How does a tax-exempt organization change its accounting method?	85
Q 5:39	Don't some states require that copies of the annual return be filed with them?	86
Q 5:40	Does the annual information return require any additional information concerning general operations?	86
Q 5:41	How is the annual information return form obtained?	87

Special Considerations

Q 5:42	It was previously advised that, to be tax-exempt, an organization must primarily engage in the appropriate exempt functions. Is this rule of law reflected in the annual information return?	87
Q 5:43	What about the organization's programs? How should they be discussed?	88
Q 5:44	Surely there is more to the reporting of expenses than simply reporting program, management, and fundraising costs.	89
Q 5:45	There has been some controversy about allocating what some regard as fundraising costs to programs. Is this reflected on the return?	90
Q 5:46	Does the annual return require any additional information about an organization's expenses?	90
Q 5:47	What about expenses for compensation?	92
Q 5:48	How does this matter of compensation relate to the intermediate sanctions rules?	93
Q 5:49	But the intermediate sanctions rules relate to much more than excessive compensation, don't they?	94
Q 5:50	Are there reporting requirements for public charities that make grants to individuals?	94
Q 5:51	There must be reporting requirements for grants to organizations, as well.	94
Q 5:52	Does the annual information return ask any questions about lobbying activities?	95

Q 5:53	Does the annual information return ask any questions about political activities?	98
Q 5:54	What about the ownership by a tax-exempt organization of a taxable subsidiary?	98
Q 5:55	What about the involvement of a tax-exempt organization in a partnership?	99
Q 5:56	What about the organization's relationship to other tax-exempt organizations?	99
Q 5:57	What information must be reported concerning the organization's public charity status?	100
Sanctions
Q 5:58	What can give rise to penalties on organizations concerning annual information returns?	101
Q 5:59	What are these penalties?	101
Q 5:60	Are there penalties on individuals as well as organizations for nonfiling and the like?	102
CHAPTER 6	Private Inurement and Private Benefit	103
Q 6:1	What is private inurement ?	103
Q 6:2	When is a person an insider?	105
Q 6:3	What types of tax-exempt organizations are expressly subject to the private inurement rule?	105
Q 6:4	What is private benefit ?	106
Q 6:5	What is the difference between private inurement and private benefit?	106
Q 6:6	What happens when a nonprofit organization engages in either practice?	106
Private Inurement
Q 6:7	What are the principal types of transactions that constitute private inurement?	106
Q 6:8	When is compensation private inurement?	107
Q 6:9	Is payment of a bonus to an employee of a nonprofit organization legal?	108
Q 6:10	How should a bonus compensation program for employees be defined?	108
Q 6:11	What role should the board of directors play in the annual review and approval of bonus awards to employees?	109
Q 6:12	How is the bonus compensation program reported to the IRS and disclosed to the public?	110
Q 6:13	Are the seven factors mentioned above the only elements to take into account in determining the reasonableness of compensation?	110
Q 6:14	How do the intermediate sanctions rules interrelate?	110
Q 6:15	When is a loan private inurement?	112

List of Questions

Q 6:16	When is a rental arrangement private inurement?	112
Q 6:17	Are there other forms of private inurement?	113
Private Benefit
Q 6:18	How is private benefit determined in actual practice?	114
Q 6:19	What is primary private benefit ?	114
Q 6:20	What is secondary private benefit ?	114
Q 6:21	What is the current status of the private benefit doctrine?	115
Q 6:22	Is it possible for a donor, when making a gift to a nonprofit organization, to realize a private benefit from the gift?	115
Q 6:23	How is incidental private benefit measured?	116
CHAPTER 7	Intermediate Sanctions	117
Q 7:1	What does the term intermediate sanctions mean?	117
Q 7:2	What is the effective date of the intermediate sanctions rules?	118
Q 7:3	When were these rules enacted?	118
Q 7:4	What is the legislative history of this legislation?	118
Q 7:5	Have the Treasury Department and the IRS issued guidance as to these rules?	118
Q 7:6	What types of tax-exempt organizations are involved in these rules?	118
Q 7:7	Are there any exceptions to these rules?	119
Q 7:8	To what types of transactions do these rules apply?	119
Q 7:9	How is value measured?	119
Q 7:10	Can an economic benefit be treated as part of the recipient's compensation?	120
Q 7:11	What happens if an economic benefit cannot be regarded as part of the recipient's compensation?	120
Q 7:12	What does the phrase directly or indirectly mean?	120
Q 7:13	What does the phrase for the use of mean?	121
Q 7:14	Is there any other definition of the term excess benefit transaction ?	121
Q 7:15	Are there any economic benefits disregarded for these purposes?	121
Q 7:16	In the context of compensation, how does one determine whether it is excessive?	122
Q 7:17	What are the tax law standards used in determining the reasonableness of compensation?	122
Q 7:18	What items are included in determining the value of compensation?	123
Q 7:19	Do these rules apply to rental transactions?	124
Q 7:20	Do these rules apply to lending transactions?	124
Q 7:21	Do these rules apply to sales transactions?	124
Q 7:22	Who has the burden of proof in a dispute with the IRS as to whether a transaction involves an excess benefit?	124
Q 7:23	What does the phrase conflict of interest mean?	126
Q 7:24	What does the term disqualified person mean?	127

Q 7:25	What is the scope of this substantial influence rule?	127
Q 7:26	What does the term organization manager mean?	128
Q 7:27	What does the term member of the family mean?	129
Q 7:28	What is the definition of a controlled entity ?	129
Q 7:29	Can a tax-exempt organization be a disqualified person?	130
Q 7:30	What are the sanctions?	130
Q 7:31	What does the term correction mean?	131
Q 7:32	What does the term participation mean?	131
Q 7:33	What does the term knowing mean?	131
Q 7:34	What does the term willful mean?	132
Q 7:35	What does the term reasonable cause mean?	132
Q 7:36	Can there be joint liability for these taxes?	132
Q 7:37	If the executive of a charity or social welfare organization is receiving compensation that he or she believes to be unreasonable, should the executive voluntarily reduce the compensation or wait to see whether the IRS raises the issue?	133
Q 7:38	If the IRS raises questions about an executive's compensation, should the executive voluntarily reduce his or her compensation in order to minimize the risk of imposition of the sanctions?	133
Q 7:39	If the board of directors approves an employment contract with an executive and later determines that the compensation provided in the contract is excessive, what steps, if any, should the board take prior to expiration of the contract?	134
Q 7:40	Is there any relief from this tax scheme? Any basis for being excused from these penalties?	134
Q 7:41	How are these taxes reported and paid?	135
Q 7:42	Can an organization reimburse a disqualified person for these taxes?	135
Q 7:43	Can an organization purchase insurance for a disqualified person to provide coverage for these taxes?	135
Q 7:44	Does the payment of an intermediate sanctions tax have any direct impact on a tax-exempt organization?	135
Q 7:45	Is there a limitations period, after which these taxes cannot be imposed?	136
Q 7:46	Do intermediate sanctions take precedence over other sanctions used by the IRS?	136
Q 7:47	Won't the private inurement doctrine have an impact on definitions of excess benefit transactions?	136
Q 7:48	Won't the private foundation rules as to self-dealing have a similar impact?	136
Q 7:49	Won't determinations as to what is an excess benefit shape the law of private inurement and self-dealing?	137
Q 7:50	Has any litigation concerning the intermediate sanctions rules been initiated?	137

List of Questions

CHAPTER 8 Lobbying 138

- Q 8:1 What is lobbying? 138
- Q 8:2 What is legislation? 139
- Q 8:3 Is lobbying a necessary or appropriate activity for a nonprofit organization? 139
- Q 8:4 What are the federal tax rules concerning lobbying that are unique to tax-exempt organizations? 140
- Q 8:5 How do charitable organizations measure substantiality? 140
- Q 8:6 Is there more than one form of lobbying? 140
- Q 8:7 What are the various ways by which lobbying can be accomplished? 141
- Q 8:8 Are there laws concerning lobbying by nonprofit organizations, other than the federal tax rules? 141

Charities and the Substantial Part Test

- Q 8:9 What is the substantial part test? 142
- Q 8:10 Can private foundations lobby to the extent of the substantial part test? 142
- Q 8:11 Are there exceptions to the prohibition on lobbying under the substantial part test? 142
- Q 8:12 Can lobbying be considered a political campaign activity? 142
- Q 8:13 What happens when the organization engages in substantial lobbying? 143
- Q 8:14 Can a charitable organization that loses its tax exemption because of excessive lobbying convert to another type of tax-exempt organization? 143
- Q 8:15 What planning can a charitable organization under the substantial part test engage in to avoid adverse tax consequences because of lobbying? 143

Charities and the Expenditure Test

- Q 8:16 What is the expenditure test? 144
- Q 8:17 How does this test become applicable to an organization? 144
- Q 8:18 Are there exceptions to the term lobbying under this test? 144
- Q 8:19 What happens when the organization engages in “too much” lobbying? 145
- Q 8:20 Can the charitable organization convert to another type of tax-exempt organization? 145
- Q 8:21 What types of lobbying programs are most suitable for the expenditure test? 145
- Q 8:22 When should a charitable organization elect the expenditure test? 146
- Q 8:23 Under what circumstances would an organization elect to revoke its election to be under the expenditure test? 146

Q 8:24	What planning can a charitable organization under the expenditure test engage in to avoid adverse tax consequences because of lobbying?	147
Social Welfare Organizations
Q 8:25	Are there any restrictions on lobbying by tax-exempt social welfare organizations?	147
Q 8:26	Why don't all lobbying charities convert to social welfare organizations?	147
Q 8:27	How can a public charity utilize a tax-exempt lobbying subsidiary?	148
Trade, Business, and Professional Associations
Q 8:28	Are there any restrictions on lobbying by tax-exempt trade and other associations?	148
Q 8:29	How does the member know how to calculate the dues deduction?	149
Q 8:30	What happens if the association makes an error in the calculation of the dues deduction ratio?	149
Q 8:31	Are there any exceptions to these rules?	149
Q 8:32	Is the concept of lobbying the same as it is for public charities?	150
Veterans' Organizations
Q 8:33	Are there any restrictions on lobbying by tax-exempt veterans' organizations?	150
Q 8:34	Aren't the tax rules for veterans' organizations unfair in relation to those for charitable organizations?	150
Reporting Requirements
Q 8:35	Are any reporting requirements imposed on tax-exempt organizations that lobby?	151
Q 8:36	What are the reporting requirements under the substantial part test?	151
Q 8:37	What are the reporting requirements under the expenditure test?	151
CHAPTER 9	Political Activities	152
Q 9:1	What are political activities ?	152
Q 9:2	What are the rules, for tax-exempt organizations, concerning political activities?	153
Q 9:3	What do participation and intervention mean?	153
Q 9:4	Can a charitable organization educate the public about candidates and issues in the setting of a political campaign?	154
Q 9:5	Does the law differentiate between the political positions of organizations and those of individuals associated with them?	155
Q 9:6	When is an individual a candidate?	156

List of Questions

- Q 9:7 When does a campaign begin? 156
Q 9:8 What is a public office? 156

Charities and Political Activities

- Q 9:9 Is there a substantiality test for charitable organizations concerning political activities? 157
Q 9:10 What happens when a public charity engages in a political campaign activity? 157
Q 9:11 Do these rules apply to churches and other religious organizations? 158
Q 9:12 Are these rules enforced against religious organizations? 158
Q 9:13 Is the prohibition against political campaigning by religious organizations constitutional? 158
Q 9:14 What happens when a private foundation engages in a political campaign activity? 159
Q 9:15 Can a charitable organization utilize a political action committee without adversely affecting its tax exemption? 159

Other Exempt Organizations and Political Activities

- Q 9:16 What is a political organization? 159
Q 9:17 Aren't political action committees affiliated with other tax-exempt organizations? 160
Q 9:18 Is the tax imposed on political organizations confined to those organizations? 160
Q 9:19 What are the rules concerning political activities by social welfare organizations? 161
Q 9:20 What are the rules concerning political activities by trade and business associations? 161
Q 9:21 Can lobbying by these organizations be considered political campaign activity? 161
Q 9:22 To what extent can exempt organizations other than charities utilize political action committees? 162
Q 9:23 What do the terms hard money and soft money signify? 162
Q 9:24 How do the federal election laws interrelate with the federal tax laws? 162
Q 9:25 How did passage of the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act affect this interrelationship? 162

Reporting Requirements

- Q 9:26 What are the reporting requirements for charitable organizations? 163
Q 9:27 What are the reporting requirements for other tax-exempt organizations? 163

CHAPTER 10	Public Charity Status	164
Q 10:1	What is a public charity ?	164
Q 10:2	What is a private foundation ?	164
Q 10:3	What are the categories of public charities?	165
Q 10:4	How does an organization acquire public charity status?	165
Q 10:5	How does an organization maintain its public charity status?	165
Q 10:6	Why is it so important to be classified as a public charity and avoid private foundation status?	166
	Publicly Supported Charities
Q 10:7	What is a donative publicly supported charitable organization ?	167
Q 10:8	What is a service provider publicly supported charitable organization ?	168
Q 10:9	What is an advance ruling ?	168
Q 10:10	At the end of the advance ruling period, will the IRS automatically request more information regarding the organization's public support, or does the organization need to initiate contact with the IRS?	170
Q 10:11	What is a definitive ruling ?	170
Q 10:12	Does it matter which category of publicly supported charity an organization uses?	170
Q 10:13	What happens when an organization ceases to be a publicly supported charity?	171
Q 10:14	What should an organization do when it realizes, during the course of its advance ruling period, that it will not qualify as a publicly supported organization as of the close of that period?	172
	Supporting Organizations
Q 10:15	What is a supporting organization ?	172
Q 10:16	What are the requisite relationships between a supporting organization and a supported organization?	173
Q 10:17	What are the functions of a supporting organization?	175
Q 10:18	Does the supported organization have to be identified in the organizational document of the supporting organization?	176
Q 10:19	How many supported organizations can a supporting organization support?	177
Q 10:20	Can a supporting organization support or benefit a charitable organization or other person, in addition to one or more specified supported organizations?	177
Q 10:21	Can a supporting organization support another supporting organization?	178
Q 10:22	Can a charitable organization be a supporting organization with respect to a tax-exempt organization that is not a charitable one?	179

List of Questions

Q 10:23	Are any limitations placed on the composition of the board of directors of a supporting organization?	179
Q 10:24	Should a supporting organization be separately incorporated?	180
Q 10:25	Should a supporting organization have bylaws?	180
Q 10:26	Who elects or appoints the directors of a supporting organization?	181
Q 10:27	Can a supporting organization maintain its own financial affairs (such as by means of a separate bank account and separate investments)?	181
Q 10:28	What financial reports and disclosure should a supporting organization make to the supported organization?	182
Q 10:29	What oversight should the supported organization perform?	182
Q 10:30	How do donor-advised funds pertain to the uses of public charities and private foundations?	183
CHAPTER 11	Private Foundation Rules	184
	Disqualified Persons
Q 11:1	What is a disqualified person ?	184
Q 11:2	What is a substantial contributor ?	185
Q 11:3	What is a foundation manager ?	186
Q 11:4	What is a 20 percent owner ?	186
Q 11:5	What is a member of the family ?	187
Q 11:6	When is a controlled corporation a disqualified person?	187
Q 11:7	When is a controlled partnership a disqualified person?	187
Q 11:8	When is a trust or estate a disqualified person?	187
Q 11:9	Can a private foundation be a disqualified person?	188
Q 11:10	Can a government official be a disqualified person?	188
	Private Foundation Rules
Q 11:11	Just what are the private foundation rules ?	189
Q 11:12	What are the sanctions for violation of these rules?	189
Q 11:13	What are the rules concerning self-dealing ?	189
Q 11:14	Are there any exceptions to the self-dealing rules?	190
Q 11:15	When does an act of self-dealing occur ?	191
Q 11:16	What is the amount involved ?	191
Q 11:17	What does correction mean?	192
Q 11:18	What are the self-dealing tax penalties?	192
Q 11:19	What are the mandatory distribution rules?	193
Q 11:20	What are the charitable assets of a private foundation?	193
Q 11:21	Are there any exceptions to the mandatory distribution rules?	193
Q 11:22	What are the mandatory payout tax penalties?	194
Q 11:23	What are the excess business holdings rules?	194
Q 11:24	Are there any exceptions to the excess business holdings rules?	194
Q 11:25	These excess business holdings rules seem strict; are there any relief provisions?	195

Q 11:26	What are the excess business holdings rules tax penalties?	195
Q 11:27	What are the jeopardizing investments rules?	195
Q 11:28	Are there any exceptions to these rules?	196
Q 11:29	What are the jeopardizing investments tax penalties?	196
Q 11:30	What are the taxable expenditures rules?	197
Q 11:31	What are the rules concerning lobbying?	197
Q 11:32	What are the rules concerning electioneering?	197
Q 11:33	What are the rules concerning grants to individuals?	198
Q 11:34	What are the rules concerning grants to noncharitable organizations?	198
Q 11:35	What are the rules concerning grants for noncharitable purposes?	198
Q 11:36	What are the taxable expenditures tax penalties?	199
Q 11:37	Can these initial taxes be abated?	200
Q 11:38	When does a taxable event occur ?	200
Q 11:39	Can these additional taxes be abated?	201
Q 11:40	Are there other private foundation rules?	201
Q 11:41	Is there more than one type of private foundation?	201
Q 11:42	Are private foundations subject to the unrelated business rules?	204
Q 11:43	Are private foundations required to file annual information returns with the IRS?	205
Q 11:44	Are private foundations subject to document disclosure and dissemination rules?	205
Q 11:45	Can a private foundation terminate its private foundation status?	206
Q 11:46	Are private foundations subject to the private inurement doctrine?	206
Q 11:47	Are private foundations subject to the private benefit doctrine?	207
Q 11:48	Are contributions to private foundations deductible?	208
Q 11:49	Is there any advantage to classification as a private foundation?	208
Q 11:50	Is there any disadvantage to classification as a private foundation?	209
Q 11:51	Do developments in the law concerning intermediate sanctions have an impact on the private foundation rules?	210
CHAPTER 12	Charitable Giving Rules	211
Q 12:1	Are all tax-exempt organizations eligible to receive tax-deductible contributions?	211
Q 12:2	What are the rules for deductibility of contributions of money?	212
Q 12:3	What are the rules for deductibility of contributions of property?	213
Q 12:4	What is planned giving ?	215
Q 12:5	What are income interests and remainder interests ?	216
Q 12:6	How are these interests created?	216
Q 12:7	What are the tax advantages for a charitable gift of a remainder interest?	217
Q 12:8	It was said that the trust generally is tax-exempt. Why the qualification?	217
Q 12:9	What is a charitable remainder trust ?	217

List of Questions

Q 12:10 What is a pooled income fund ?	219
Q 12:11 What is a charitable lead trust ?	220
Q 12:12 What is a charitable gift annuity ?	220
Q 12:13 What about gifts of life insurance?	222
Q 12:14 Are there other ways to make deductible gifts of remainder interests?	222

Charitable Remainder Trusts

Q 12:15 What types of charitable organizations can be remainder interest beneficiaries of remainder trusts?	223
Q 12:16 How does the makeup feature work?	223
Q 12:17 What types of property are suitable for charitable remainder trusts?	224
Q 12:18 What happens if the donated property is encumbered with debt?	224
Q 12:19 What happens when an option is transferred to a charitable remainder trust?	224
Q 12:20 What happens when an item of tangible personal property is transferred to a charitable remainder trust?	225
Q 12:21 Who can be a donor to a charitable remainder trust?	226
Q 12:22 How are amounts distributed to an income interest beneficiary from a charitable remainder trust taxed?	226
Q 12:23 Who can be a trustee of a charitable remainder trust?	226
Q 12:24 Can a charitable remainder trust be prematurely terminated?	227
Q 12:25 When should a charitable remainder trust be used rather than another planned giving technique?	227
Q 12:26 What are the disadvantages of using a charitable remainder trust in relation to other planned giving techniques?	227

Pooled Income Funds

Q 12:27 What types of charities can be remainder interest beneficiaries of pooled income funds?	228
Q 12:28 What types of property are suitable for pooled income funds?	228
Q 12:29 How is the rate of return calculated for a new pooled income fund?	228
Q 12:30 Who can be a donor to a pooled income fund?	229
Q 12:31 Who can be a trustee of a pooled income fund?	229
Q 12:32 What happens when a charitable organization that has a pooled income fund ceases to qualify as a type of public charity that can maintain a pooled income fund?	229
Q 12:33 When should a pooled income fund be used rather than another planned giving technique?	230
Q 12:34 What are the disadvantages of using a pooled income fund in relation to other planned giving techniques?	230

Starting a Program

Q 12:35 How does a charitable organization start a planned giving program?	230
Q 12:36 What does the future hold for planned giving?	232

New Charitable Giving Legislation

Q 12:37 What are the rules concerning contributions of intellectual property?	232
Q 12:38 To what types of intellectual property do these rules apply?	232
Q 12:39 How are any subsequent charitable deductions determined?	232
Q 12:40 How will the donor know when to take a particular charitable deduction and how much it will be?	233
Q 12:41 What are the rules concerning contributions of vehicles?	234
Q 12:42 To what types of vehicles do these rules apply?	234
Q 12:43 Are there any exceptions to this rule limiting the charitable contribution deduction?	234
Q 12:44 What happens if these rules are violated?	234

CHAPTER 13 Fundraising Regulation 236

Q 13:1 How does the federal government regulate fundraising for charitable purposes?	236
Q 13:2 How do the state governments regulate fundraising for charitable purposes?	237
Q 13:3 Are these state laws constitutional?	237

Federal Law Requirements

Q 13:4 What are the IRS audit practices as applied to fundraising charitable organizations?	237
Q 13:5 How do the charitable giving rules apply?	238
Q 13:6 What are the charitable gift substantiation requirements?	238
Q 13:7 What does the phrase goods or services mean?	239
Q 13:8 Do these rules apply with respect to benefits provided to donors after the gifts were made, where there was no prior notification of the benefit, such as a recognition dinner?	240
Q 13:9 How do the substantiation rules apply to gifts made by means of charitable remainder trusts, charitable lead trusts, and pooled income funds?	240
Q 13:10 What are the quid pro quo contribution rules?	241
Q 13:11 What is a good faith estimate?	241
Q 13:12 Are there any exceptions to the quid pro quo contribution rules?	242
Q 13:13 How does a charitable organization value the involvement of a celebrity for purposes of the quid pro quo contribution rules?	242
Q 13:14 What are the appraisal requirements?	243
Q 13:15 What does the IRS look for with respect to new charitable organizations?	243
Q 13:16 How do the reporting rules apply?	243
Q 13:17 Do the unrelated business income rules apply in the fundraising setting?	244

List of Questions

Q 13:18	Are there limitations on the use of the royalty exception in the fundraising setting?	245
Q 13:19	Are there fundraising disclosure requirements for noncharitable organizations?	246
Q 13:20	Are there any other federal law requirements as to fundraising?	247
State Law Requirements
Q 13:21	What are the elements of a typical state charitable solicitation act?	248
Q 13:22	Do these laws apply to all charitable solicitations?	250
Q 13:23	How do these laws apply to professional fundraisers?	250
Q 13:24	How do these laws apply to professional solicitors?	251
Q 13:25	Do these laws place limitations on the fees paid to professional solicitors?	252
Q 13:26	What is a charitable sales promotion and how do the state laws apply to it?	252
Q 13:27	What is the significance of the portions of these laws concerning prohibited acts?	253
Q 13:28	Are there any exceptions to these laws?	253
Q 13:29	What provisions are generally required in a contract between a charitable organization and a professional fundraiser or professional solicitor?	254
Q 13:30	When does a charitable organization have to comply with one of these laws?	255
Q 13:31	When does a professional fundraiser or a professional solicitor have to comply with one of these laws?	255
Q 13:32	When does a charitable organization have to comply with more than one of these laws?	255
Q 13:33	Are solicitations of merely a few individuals subject to these state laws?	256
Q 13:34	When does a professional fundraiser or professional solicitor have to comply with more than one of these laws?	256
Q 13:35	What happens when a charitable organization, professional fundraiser, or professional solicitor violates one of these laws?	256
Q 13:36	What is the rationale for these state laws?	257
Q 13:37	Are these state laws effective?	257
Q 13:38	To be in compliance with these laws, what type of management system should a charitable organization have?	258
Q 13:39	How does state law regulation interrelate with the oversight activities of the watchdog agencies?	259

CHAPTER 14 Unrelated Business Activities 260

Q 14:1	A tax-exempt organization often needs more money than it can generate through gifts, grants, and dues. Management of the organization is thinking about raising money by charging fees for
---------------	--

some products or services, but it is concerned about taxation. Where does it begin?	260
Q 14:2 How does an organization measure what is primary ?	261
Q 14:3 How does an exempt organization know whether an activity is a related one or an unrelated one?	261
Q 14:4 What is the rationale underlying the unrelated income rules?	262
Q 14:5 Are these claims of unfair competition leading to anything, such as law changes?	263
Q 14:6 What is the trade or business requirement?	263
Q 14:7 Does this mean that the law considers the programs of exempt organizations as businesses?	263
Q 14:8 When the federal tax law regards an exempt organization as a composite of businesses, isn't that different from how nonprofit organizations see themselves?	264
Q 14:9 Why would a tax-exempt organization object to that additional element of the definition, concerning a profit motive? Wouldn't that rule always favor exempt organization, causing some activities to not be businesses in the first instance?	264
Q 14:10 What are some of the other elements being grafted onto this definition?	265
Q 14:11 What is a commercial activity ?	265
Q 14:12 What are the statutory and regulatory references to the commerciality doctrine?	265
Q 14:13 What are the rules as to whether a business activity is regularly carried on?	266
Q 14:14 How is regularity measured?	266
Q 14:15 Are there any other aspects of this level of analysis?	266
Q 14:16 What are the other two aspects of regularity?	267
Q 14:17 Do some operations get converted into regular ones by using that approach?	267
Q 14:18 What about the third level of analysis, concerning the substantially related requirement?	267
Q 14:19 How is relatedness determined?	268
Q 14:20 What are some examples of these judgments?	268
Q 14:21 Are there any other aspects of the substantially related test?	269
Q 14:22 How is the unrelated business income tax calculated?	270
Exceptions
Q 14:23 What types of activities are exempt from unrelated income taxation?	271
Q 14:24 What types of income are exempt from unrelated income taxation?	272
Q 14:25 How can the royalty exclusion be most effectively utilized?	273
Q 14:26 Are there any exceptions to the rules stating these exclusions?	273
Q 14:27 Are there any exceptions to these exceptions?	274

List of Questions

Specific Applications

- Q 14:28 What are the contemporary unrelated business issues for hospitals and other health care providers? 274
- Q 14:29 What are the contemporary unrelated business issues for colleges and universities? 274
- Q 14:30 What are the contemporary unrelated business issues for museums? 274
- Q 14:31 What are the contemporary unrelated business issues for trade, business, and professional associations? 274
- Q 14:32 How do the unrelated business rules apply in the context of charitable fundraising? 275
- Q 14:33 How is the unrelated business income tax reported? 275

CHAPTER 15 Subsidiaries 276

- Q 15:1 What is a subsidiary in the nonprofit law context? 276
- Q 15:2 Why would a tax-exempt organization establish a subsidiary? 276
- Q 15:3 How does a nonprofit organization control a subsidiary? 277
- Q 15:4 What body can act as the incorporator or corporate member to establish a subsidiary? 278
- Q 15:5 Is there a minimum number of board members required for a subsidiary? 278
- Q 15:6 What legal requirements should be followed in maintaining the parent–subsidiary relationship? 278
- Q 15:7 What are the powers and oversight requirements of the parent organization? 279
- Q 15:8 How is revenue from a for-profit subsidiary taxed? 279
- Q 15:9 What are the tax consequences of liquidation of a subsidiary into its parent organization? 280
- Q 15:10 What are the federal tax reporting requirements with respect to subsidiaries? 280
- Q 15:11 What are the state law reporting requirements with respect to subsidiaries? 281

Tax-Exempt Subsidiaries

- Q 15:12 Why would a tax-exempt organization establish a tax-exempt subsidiary? 281
- Q 15:13 What are some of the common uses of tax-exempt subsidiaries? 282
- Q 15:14 Is it necessary for a tax-exempt subsidiary to obtain separate recognition of tax-exempt status? 283
- Q 15:15 Should the tax-exempt status of the subsidiary be as a charitable entity or as a supporting organization? 283
- Q 15:16 What are the reporting requirements between the parent and subsidiary organizations? 284

Q 15:17	If a tax-exempt subsidiary can raise money in its own name, what disclosure requirements should it observe with respect to the parent organization?	284
Q 15:18	What formal action is required to transfer funds between a tax-exempt parent and a tax-exempt subsidiary?	284
Q 15:19	Can a tax-exempt subsidiary raise funds for an endowment and hold these funds separate from the parent?	284
For-Profit Subsidiaries
Q 15:20	Why would a tax-exempt organization establish a for-profit subsidiary?	285
Q 15:21	What are some of the common uses of for-profit subsidiaries?	286
Q 15:22	Are there limits on the use of tax-exempt assets to capitalize a for-profit subsidiary?	287
Q 15:23	Are there any rules concerning accumulations of income and other assets in a for-profit subsidiary?	287
Q 15:24	Can a supporting organization have a for-profit subsidiary?	288
Q 15:25	Can a private foundation have a for-profit subsidiary?	288
CHAPTER 16	Partnerships and Joint Ventures	290
Partnerships Basics
Q 16:1	What is the legal definition of a partnership ?	290
Q 16:2	What is a general partnership ?	291
Q 16:3	What is a limited partnership ?	291
Q 16:4	Why is the partnership vehicle used?	291
Q 16:5	How are partnerships taxed?	292
Joint Venture Basics
Q 16:6	What is the legal definition of a joint venture ?	292
Q 16:7	Why is the joint venture vehicle used?	293
Q 16:8	What is a limited liability company ?	293
Q 16:9	How are joint ventures taxed?	293
Q 16:10	How are limited liability companies taxed?	294
Tax-Exempt Organizations and Partnerships
Q 16:11	Can a tax-exempt organization be involved in a general partnership?	294
Q 16:12	Can a tax-exempt organization be involved in a limited partnership?	294
Q 16:13	Can a tax-exempt organization be involved in a limited partnership as a limited partner?	294
Q 16:14	Can a tax-exempt organization be involved in a limited partnership as a general partner?	295

List of Questions

Q 16:15 What are IRS concerns about public charities as general partners in limited partnerships?	295
Q 16:16 Why has this controversy lasted so long?	295
Q 16:17 What was this original IRS hard-line position?	296
Q 16:18 What became of the per se rule of the IRS?	296
Q 16:19 When can a tax-exempt organization be involved in a limited partnership as a general partner and still be tax-exempt?	298
Q 16:20 Are there any other aspects of this matter?	299
Q 16:21 How do the unrelated business income rules apply in the partnership context?	300

Tax-Exempt Organizations and Joint Ventures

Q 16:22 Can a tax-exempt organization be involved in a joint venture?	300
Q 16:23 Why would a public charity want to participate in a joint venture?	300
Q 16:24 What does a public charity in a joint venture have to do to acquire or retain tax-exempt status?	301
Q 16:25 How can a tax-exempt organization be considered involved in joint venture against its will?	301
Q 16:26 How do the unrelated business income rules apply in the joint venture context?	302
Q 16:27 How do these rules apply when the joint venture uses a limited liability company?	302
Q 16:28 Have the courts agreed with this IRS ruling?	306
Q 16:29 Does this ruling have any implications outside the health care setting?	306
Q 16:30 How do these rules apply when the charitable organization's involvement in a joint venture is less than the "whole-entity" approach?	307
Q 16:31 Has a court agreed with this ruling?	308

Information Reporting

Q 16:32 How does an exempt organization know what income and the like to report from a partnership?	308
--	-----

CHAPTER 17 Competition and Commerciality 310

Competition

Q 17:1 Just what is this matter of nonprofit/for-profit competition all about?	310
Q 17:2 What is the problem with nonprofit/for-profit competition?	311
Q 17:3 How common is this form of competition?	312
Q 17:4 Has Congress responded to these complaints about unfair competition?	313

Q 17:5	What are some of the contemporary illustrations of issues in this area of competition?	314
Q 17:6	Is the law successful in eliminating forms of this type of competition?	315
Commerciality
Q 17:7	How does this matter of competition relate to commerciality?	317
Q 17:8	What is the commerciality doctrine?	318
Q 17:9	Where did the doctrine come from?	318
Q 17:10	What factors are looked at in determining commerciality?	320
Q 17:11	What is to be made of the commerciality doctrine?	320
Q 17:12	Are there other factors that are taken into account in determining commerciality?	321
Q 17:13	Is Congress likely to legislate some form of the commerciality doctrine?	323
Q 17:14	What is the future of the commerciality doctrine?	323
Q 17:15	What should nonprofit organizations be doing in this regard in the interim?	324
CHAPTER 18	Disclosure and Distribution Rules	325
Annual Information Returns
Q 18:1	It was mentioned earlier that the annual information returns are public documents. What does that mean?	325
Q 18:2	What are the distribution rules?	326
Q 18:3	What is an individual able to do if denied a copy of the return?	327
Q 18:4	Are there any exceptions to the inspection requirement?	327
Q 18:5	Are there any exceptions to the distribution requirement?	327
Q 18:6	What does the term widely available mean?	328
Q 18:7	What does the term harassment campaign mean?	328
Q 18:8	How are these returns available from the IRS?	329
Exemption Applications
Q 18:9	What is the disclosure requirement with respect to applications for recognition of exemption?	329
Q 18:10	Do the distribution requirements apply to applications for recognition of exemption?	330
Q 18:11	Are copies of exemption applications available from the IRS?	330
Disclosure and Distribution Sanctions
Q 18:12	What is the penalty on organizations for failure to comply with the public inspection requirements?	331
Q 18:13	What is the penalty on individuals for failure to comply with the public inspection requirements?	331

List of Questions

Q 18:14	What are the penalties for failure to comply with the distribution requirements?	331
Provision of Goods and Services
Q 18:15	What are the disclosure rules regarding the availability of goods and services?	331
Q 18:16	What are the parameters of this type of solicitation ?	332
Q 18:17	What is the penalty for violation of this rule?	332
Fundraising Disclosure
Q 18:18	What are the fundraising disclosure rules for noncharitable organizations?	332
Q 18:19	What are the penalties for violation of these rules?	333
Q 18:20	What are the fundraising disclosure rules for charitable organizations?	333
Q 18:21	What are the penalties for violation of these rules?	334
CHAPTER 19	IRS Audits of Nonprofit Organizations	335
Q 19:1	How is the IRS organized from the standpoint of its audit function?	335
Q 19:2	Where does the IRS derive its audit authority?	336
Q 19:3	What issues are addressed in an exempt organization's audit?	336
Q 19:4	How is an IRS audit initiated?	337
Q 19:5	Why is an IRS audit initiated?	337
Q 19:6	What items of a tax-exempt organization will the IRS review on audit?	337
Q 19:7	Are there different types of IRS audits?	338
Q 19:8	How does an exempt organization cope with IRS personnel during an audit?	339
Q 19:9	What does the IRS do after the audit has been completed?	339
Q 19:10	What is the likelihood that a tax-exempt organization will be audited by the IRS?	339
Q 19:11	Can the IRS prevent abuse by tax-exempt organizations by means other than examination and revocation of exempt status?	340
IRS Audits of Health Care Organizations
Q 19:12	What is the IRS audit program for hospitals and other health care organizations?	340
Q 19:13	What is the focus of the IRS concerning the tax-exempt status of nonprofit hospitals?	341
Q 19:14	What is the emphasis by the IRS in this area on private inurement and private benefit?	342
Q 19:15	What is the interest of the IRS in this area with respect to joint ventures?	343

Q 19:16 What types of financial analyses is the IRS likely to make in these audits?	344
Q 19:17 What are the rules for analyzing a hospital’s balance sheet?	345
Q 19:18 Are there any special rules for hospitals in connection with package audits?	345
Q 19:19 What unrelated business income issues involving health care institutions arise on audit?	347
Q 19:20 How is the IRS using closing agreements in the health care context?	347

Colleges and Universities

Q 19:21 What is the focus of the IRS as to the tax-exempt status of colleges and universities?	348
Q 19:22 How does the IRS approach an audit of a college or university?	349
Q 19:23 What internal items of a college or university will the auditing agent review?	349
Q 19:24 What other information is the agent likely to evaluate?	349
Q 19:25 What issues are likely to be reviewed during this type of audit?	350
Q 19:26 Do the rules pertaining to lobbying and political campaign activity get reviewed in these audits?	351
Q 19:27 What unrelated business income issues involving colleges and universities arise on audit?	351
Q 19:28 What other issues can arise in these audits?	351