

Contents

---

|                                                   |             |
|---------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| Preface                                    | xv   |
| Acknowledgment                             | xvii |
| About the Author                           | xix  |
|                                               |             |
| PART I A WINNING GIFT FOR YOUR DONOR       | 1    |
| Winning versus Losing                             | 2           |
| How do You Know if It's a Winning Gift?           | 4           |
| Why Philanthropic Fundraising?                    | 5           |
| Inspire Giving                                    | 5           |
| The Six I's of Philanthropic Fundraising          | 6           |
| Six I's: Step #1—Identify, Qualify, and Research  | 8           |
| Six I's: Step #2—Introduce, Interact, and Connect | 12          |
| Six I's: Step #3—Interests and Needs (Listen)     | 13          |
| Six I's: Step #4—Inform and Deepen Understanding  | 13          |
| Six I's: Step #5—Involve, Acknowledge, and Engage | 14          |
| Six I's: Step #6—Invest, Recognize, Steward       | 15          |
| Read On                                           | 15          |
|                                               |             |
| CHAPTER 1 People Centered Fundraising      | 17   |
| Start with Peoples' Needs                         | 18          |
| How Does Your Organization Benefit the Community? | 19          |
| A Public Library                                  | 20          |
| A Graduate University                             | 23          |
| Take a Marketing Approach                         | 23          |
| Sales                                             | 24          |
| Marketing                                         | 25          |
| Importance of Strategic Planning                  | 28          |
| Drucker Self-Assessment Tool                      | 29          |
| How to Be People Centered                         | 31          |
| Individuals                                       | 32          |
| In Planned Estate Gift Fundraising                | 35          |
| Foundations                                       | 36          |
|                                                   | ix   |

X CONTENTS

|                                                      |           |
|------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Corporations                                         | 37        |
| Communications and Learning Styles                   | 39        |
| Involve Volunteers in Your Fundraising               | 42        |
| Staff-Driven Fundraising?                            | 45        |
| How to Help Your Organization Become People Centered | 46        |
| Apply What You've Learned                            | 48        |
| CHAPTER 2 Donor Values                        | 51 |
| Giving U.S.A. — Sources and Trends in Giving  | 54        |
| Individuals                                          | 56        |
| Sheehy's New Passages                         | 57        |
| Implications of Americans Living Longer on           |           |
| Estate-Gift Fundraising                              | 59        |
| Andrew Carnegie— The Gospel of Wealth         | 61        |
| Bill Gates                                           | 62        |
| Warren Buffett                                       | 63        |
| Sandy Weill                                          | 64        |
| The Seven Faces of Philanthropy               | 65        |
| Insights on the Faces                                | 65        |
| Do Tax Incentives Drive Philanthropy?                | 67        |
| The Millionaire Next Door                     | 68        |
| Women in Philanthropy                                | 72        |
| Millionaire Women Next Door                          | 75        |
| Analytical Donors                                    | 76        |
| Family-Advised Funds                                 | 77        |
| Leaving a Legacy                                     | 77        |
| Foundation Values                                    | 78        |
| Community Foundations                                | 80        |
| Corporate Motivations for Giving                     | 81        |
| Why Is All of This Important?                        | 83        |
| Apply What You've Learned                            | 84        |
| CHAPTER 3 Listen                              | 87 |
| Become a Deep Listener                               | 88        |
| What Others Advise on Listening                      | 91        |
| Share Yourself                                       | 97        |
| Collective Listening                                 | 98        |
| Listening to Create a Major Gifts Club               | 99        |
| Written Surveys                                      | 100       |
| Participative Focus Groups                           | 103       |
| Board and Strategic Planning Retreats                | 109       |
| Listening to a Specific Donor                        | 109       |
| Discovery Calls                                      | 110       |
| Requesting the Interview                             | 111       |

|                                                                  |            |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Thank-You Visits                                                 | 112        |
| Philanthropic Market Research Studies                            | 114        |
| Listening Tools                                                  | 114        |
| Supplemental Interviews by Staff                                 | 116        |
| What Is Different with Corporations and Foundations?             | 116        |
| Listening to Corporations                                        | 116        |
| Listening to Foundations                                         | 118        |
| Readiness Interviews after the Study                             | 119        |
| Listening during the Ask                                         | 120        |
| Listen for Gifting Noises                                        | 121        |
| When You're Invited to Listen                                    | 122        |
| Apply What You've Learned                                        | 123        |
|                                                              |            |
| PART II SEEK WINNING GIFTS FOR YOUR ORGANIZATION          | 127 |
| Gladwell— The Tipping Point                               | 129        |
| The Law of the Few                                               | 129        |
| Champions                                                        | 130        |
| Connectors                                                       | 131        |
| Salespeople                                                      | 132        |
| The Stickiness Factor                                            | 133        |
| The Power of Context                                             | 134        |
| Implications for Philanthropic Fundraising                       | 135        |
| Cialdini— Ethical Influence                               | 136        |
| #1 Reciprocation—Be the First to Give                            | 137        |
| #2 Scarcity—Unique Features, Exclusive Information               | 138        |
| #3 Authority—Show Knowing, Admit Weakness First                  | 138        |
| #4 Commitments—From Public Positions (Small and Build)           | 139        |
| #5 Liking—Make Friends to Influence People                       | 140        |
| #6 Consensus—Unleash People Power by Showing Responses of Others | 140        |
| Summary                                                          | 141        |
|                                                              |            |
| CHAPTER 4 Make Your Case                                  | 143 |
| Make Your Case Memorable                                         | 144        |
| The Annual Fund Case                                             | 148        |
| The Case for Building Campaigns                                  | 150        |
| Building Budget Planning for Fundraising                         | 153        |
| The Case for Endowment                                           | 157        |
| How Endowment Works                                              | 159        |
| Endowment Examples                                               | 162        |
| What to Do for Financially Fragile Organizations                 | 166        |

XII CONTENTS

|                                                         |            |
|---------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| The Role of Planned Estate Gifts forEndowment Cases | 172        |
| The Case for Comprehensive Campaigns                    | 173        |
| Case Statement Formats                                  | 174        |
| Presentation Guide                                      | 176        |
| The Process of Case Refinement                          | 178        |
| Share Internally                                        | 178        |
| Audition Externally                                     | 181        |
| Processing the Complex Case                             | 184        |
| Importance of the One-on-One Interview                  | 186        |
| Lock in Your Case                                       | 187        |
| Make a Movie                                            | 187        |
| Make it Stick                                           | 188        |
| Ways to Achieve Top-of-Mind Understanding of Your Case  | 190        |
| Resurrecting Good Memories                              | 191        |
| Creating Memories                                       | 192        |
| Importance of Mementos                                  | 193        |
| Newsletters, Letters, and E-mail Communications         | 193        |
| Mass and Target Marketing                               | 194        |
| Do You Always Need to Make Your Case?                   | 197        |
| Apply What You've Learned                               | 200        |
|                                                     |            |
| CHAPTER 5 The Win-Win Ask                        | 203 |
| The Ideal Ask Team                                      | 205        |
| Prepare for the Ask                                     | 210        |
| The Written Proposal                                    | 212        |
| How Much Should We Ask For?                             | 213        |
| Recruiting and Preparing the Ask Team                   | 216        |
| The Pregnant Pause                                      | 219        |
| Final Preparation Steps                                 | 220        |
| Make the Ask                                            | 221        |
| Asking Tools                                            | 221        |
| Popping the Question                                    | 225        |
| The Role of Challenge Gifts                             | 226        |
| The Triple Ask                                          | 228        |
| What's Different about Corporate Requests?              | 229        |
| How Do Foundation Requests Work?                        | 231        |
| If You Get an "I Need to Think About It"                | 232        |
| If You Get a "No"                                       | 233        |
| If You Get a "Yes"                                      | 234        |
| Thank the Donor                                         | 236        |
| Detect and Conquer Asking Obstacles                     | 236        |
| #1 Don't Understand the Impact of the Gift              | 237        |
| #2 Outrageous Goal                                      | 238        |

|                                 |     |
|---------------------------------|-----|
| #3 Lack of Information          | 239 |
| #4 Focus Diffusion              | 241 |
| #5 No Transaction               | 242 |
| #6 Can't Say the Number         | 243 |
| #7 One Leg at a Time            | 244 |
| #8 Don't Want to Ask My Friends | 244 |
| #9 Can't Ask My Family          | 246 |
| #10 Telephobia                  | 247 |
| #11 Image Rejection             | 248 |
| #12 Overpreparation             | 249 |
| #13 Disorganized                | 250 |
| #14 Afraid to Talk about Death  | 251 |
| Personalize These Obstacles     | 252 |
| Summarizing the Win-Win Ask     | 253 |
| Apply What You've Learned       | 253 |

CHAPTER 6 After Winning the Gift 255

|                                                                                           |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| A Thank-You System                                                                        | 256 |
| Involve Your Asking Team                                                                  | 257 |
| Others Can Participate in the Fun of Thanking Donors                                      | 258 |
| Thresholds of The Thank-You System                                                        | 260 |
| Tier One—All Annual Gifts of $5,000 or Moreand All Capital Gifts of $25,000 or More | 260 |
| Tier Two—All Annual Gifts of $1,000 or Moreand All Capital Gifts of $10,000 or More | 261 |
| Tier Three—All Annual Gifts Up to $1,000 andAll Capital Gifts Up to $10,000         | 262 |
| Gifts of Stock and Other Appreciated Assets                                               | 264 |
| Recognition Opportunities                                                                 | 266 |
| Power of Gift Clubs                                                                       | 267 |
| Value of the Donor Wall                                                                   | 268 |
| Commemorative Naming Opportunities                                                        | 269 |
| Recognition Events                                                                        | 274 |
| Planned Estate Gifts                                                                      | 275 |
| Kaizen                                                                             | 277 |
| Stewardship                                                                               | 277 |
| Reports                                                                                   | 279 |
| Events                                                                                    | 281 |
| Personal Stewardship                                                                      | 282 |
| Director of Stewardship Movement                                                          | 283 |
| Others Are Starting to Hold You Accountable                                               | 283 |
| Good Stewardship Is Good for Fundraising                                                  | 285 |
| Apply What You've Learned                                                                 | 287 |

XIV CONTENTS

|                                                                   |            |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Coda—The Summary Review                                    | 289 |
| Postlude                                                   | 293 |
| Appendixes                                                 | 295 |
| A—Definition of Steps in The Six I’s of Philanthropic Fundraising | 297        |
| B—Written Survey Form                                             | 299        |
| C—Donor Bill of Rights                                            | 303        |
| D—AFP Code of Ethics for Professional Philanthropic Fundraisers   | 305        |
| E—Gentle Letter of Intent                                         | 307        |
| Index                                                      | 309 |