

Index

---

• Numbers & Symbols •

!! (double exclamation point), 272
?? (double question mark), 272
= (equal sign), 272
! (exclamation point), 272
-/+ (minus/plus sign), 272
+ (plus sign), 272
+/- (plus/minus sign), 272
(pound sign), 272
? (question mark), 272
½ (one-half fraction), 272

• A •

About Chess (Web site), 343 active move, 315 adjournment, 315
adjudication, 315
adjusting pieces, 315
Alburt, Lev (Comprehensive Chess Course), 341
Alekhine, Alexander (chess player), 179, 256, 308
Alekhine's Defense (opening), 209 algebraic notation, 263, 316
analog clock, 246
Anand, Viswanathan (chess player), 251, 312
Anderssen, Adolf (chess player), 278–283, 310, 326 annotation
  cautions, 278
  definition, 12, 316
  overview, 272
ape-man strategy, 44 arbiter, 250, 316
art, 23
The Art of Attack (Vukovic, Vladimir), 121, 223 artificial intelligence, 258

attack, 222–224, 316 attacked square, 42 Averbakh, Yuri Chess Endings: Essential Knowledge, 147 minority attack, 221

• B •

back rank mate, 124–125, 316
backward pawn, 59, 316 bad bishop, 316
base, 62
BCA (British Chess Association), 317
BCF (British Chess Federation), 317
beginner's mistakes
  check, 50, 157
  endgame, 147
  opening, 193–194
  scholar's mate, 122–123
  tempo gains and losses, 50
beginning of game (opening). See also specific moves analysis of, 196–200
  attacks on opponent, 195–196
  beginner's mistakes, 193–194
  centralization, 180–184
  checkmate, 193, 194
  chess notation, 264–266
  definition, 11, 331
  development, 194–195
  differences in names, 200
  discussion among players, 200
  importance, 193
  king safety strategy, 53, 54
  knight movements, 34–35
  memorization of moves, 193
  rook pawns, 26
  space strategies, 42–45
  transposed, 193
  weird names, 214

- behavior, game
    - spite check, 65
    - tournament etiquette, 251–255
    - verbal “check,” 64
  - Benjamin, Joel (Unorthodox Openings), 214
  - bishop
    - attack power, 27, 29
    - blocks by pawns, 28–29
    - capture basics, 28, 29
    - chess notation, 264
    - Closed English formation, 166–167
    - discovered attack, 92–94
    - double check, 96
    - Dragon formation, 160–161
    - endgame, 238–242
    - exchange of, 185
    - fianchetto, 158–159
    - fork tactic, 83–87
    - key square strategy, 190
    - King’s Gambit, 110–112
    - versus knight, 47
    - middlegame principles, 224
    - Morphy’s mate, 134–136
    - movements, 26–29
    - namesake, 26
    - Nimzo-Botvinnik formation, 168
    - Nimzo-Indian opening, 89–90
    - opening analysis, 197–200
    - opening development, 194
    - origins of chess, 21
    - overview, 26
    - pair, 316
    - pawn formation effects, 156–157
    - pin tactic, 87–90
    - placement on chessboard, 19
    - Queen’s Gambit, 182–184
    - Queen’s Indian, 213
    - quickest checkmate, 53–54
    - relative value, 47, 188
    - Ruy Lopez opening, 201–202
    - sacrifice, 112–114
    - Scheveningen formation, 162, 163
    - scholar’s mate, 122–123
    - skewer tactic, 90–91
    - space guidelines, 45
    - symbol, 18
    - temporary sacrifice, 115–117
  - blindfold chess, 317
  - blitz game, 94, 317
  - blockade
    - definition, 317
    - endgame strategy, 227
    - knight-knight ending, 240
    - overview, 59
    - process, 191–192
  - blunder, 109, 317
  - board
    - colors, 14–15
    - diagonals, 17
    - versus diagrams, 12
    - knight’s tour, 35
    - naming of squares, 16–17
    - number of squares, 15
    - ordering information, 12, 342
    - placement of chess set, 18–21
    - rank and file illustrations, 15–16
    - selection, 13–14
    - tournament rules, 246
  - book move, 317
  - books, 341–342
  - Botvinnik, Mikhail (chess player), 309
  - brevity, 330
  - brilliancy, 317
  - brilliancy prize, 317
  - British Chess Association (BCA), 317
  - British Chess Federation (BCF), 317
  - building a bridge, 151–154
  - Byrne, Donald (chess player), 294–297, 324
- C •
- Caissa (goddess of chess), 317
  - calculation, 137, 138–139
  - candidate move, 139
  - Capablanca, José Raúl (chess player), 292–294, 306
  - captures
    - bishop movements, 28, 29
    - break of pin, 88
    - chess notation, 266–267, 270–271

- doubled pawn remedy, 61
- en passant method, 169–171
- illegal, 88
- king movements, 32
- material guidelines, 48
- pawn movements, 36–39
- queen movements, 30
- rook movements, 25
- typical pawn formations, 143–146
- Caro-Kann Defense (opening), 208–209
- cash prize, 248
- castling
  - chess notation, 268, 269–270
  - Closed English benefits, 166
  - definition, 53, 317
  - Dragon formation, 160–161
  - Nimzo-Indian opening, 90
  - opening strategy, 53, 54
  - overview, 172–175
  - Queen’s Gambit, 183–184
- center, of chessboard
  - chess strategies, 180–184
  - Closed English formation, 166–167
  - definition, 318
  - Double Stonewall formation, 165–166
  - illustration, 44
  - middlegame principles, 223
  - opening development, 194
- center-counter opening, 51–52
- centralization
  - definition, 318
  - opening development, 194
  - overview, 180–184
- chain, pawn
  - definition, 61, 332
  - French Defense opening, 140–143
  - overview, 61–62
  - weakening tips, 62, 140–141
- chatrang, 21, 318
- chaturanga, 21, 318
- cheating, 254
- check
  - beginner’s mistakes, 50, 157
  - definition, 10, 318
  - overview, 63–64
  - pointless, 64
  - types, 65
  - verbal “check,” 64
- checkmate. See also specific types
  - definition, 318
  - with king and queen, 66–70
  - with king and rook, 70–78
  - major pieces, 25
  - minor pieces, 25, 26
  - opening, 193, 194
  - overview, 66
  - quickest, 53–54
- chess
  - club, 245–246, 344
  - drama, 110
  - game versus intellectual activity, 1
  - object of game, 63
  - origins, 21
  - overview, 9–12
  - phases, 11
  - versus warfare, 11
- Chess Assistant (database program), 260
- Chess Cafe (equipment resource), 342, 343
- chess clock
  - definition, 318
  - draw offering, 254
  - overview, 246–247
- Chess Endings: Essential Knowledge* (Averbakh, Yuri), 147
- Chess Life* magazine, 246
- Chess Mentor (instructional software), 260, 343
- Chess Ninja (Web site), 343
- chess notation
  - annotations, 272
  - captures, 266–267, 270–271
  - castling, 268, 269–270
  - chess pieces, 264
  - definition, 330
  - en passant method, 271
  - exchanges, 268–269
  - newspaper diagrams, 272–273
  - opening, 264–266
  - overview, 12, 263
  - pawn promotion, 270
- Chess Olympiads (tournaments), 250

- chess problem, 318
- chess set. See also specific pieces
  - color, 13
  - definition, 12
  - design, 13
  - key to power, 55
  - major pieces, 25
  - notation, 264
  - ordering information, 12, 342
  - overview, 23
  - placement on chessboard, 18–21
  - relative values, 46–47
  - science versus art, 23
  - selection, 13–14
  - symbols, 18
  - tournament rules, 246, 254–255
  - wood versus other materials, 13–14
- chess strategy. See also specific strategies
  - center control, 180–184
  - endgame, 226–227
  - importance, 11
  - overview, 179–180
- Chess Today* (newspaper), 343
- chess tournament
  - book of games, 338
  - chess set design, 13
  - clubs, 245–246
  - definition, 338
  - etiquette, 251–255
  - international, 250
  - overview, 12, 245
  - queen-pawn mates, 125–129
  - score sheet, 273–274
  - touch-move rule, 254–255
  - U.S. basics, 246–249
- Chessbase (database program), 260
- ChessBase (Web site), 343
- chessboard
  - colors, 14–15
  - diagonals, 17
  - versus diagrams, 12
  - knight's tour, 35
  - naming of squares, 16–17
  - number of squares, 15
  - ordering information, 12, 342
  - placement of chess set, 18–21
  - rank and file illustrations, 15–16
  - selection, 13–14
  - tournament rules, 246
- chessist, 318
- chessman, 319
- Chesster (computer program), 260
- Chigorin, Mikhail Ivanovich (grandmaster), 211, 311
- China, 21
- class prize, 248
- classic bishop sacrifice, 112–114
- classical chess, 319
- clearance sacrifice
  - process, 97–100
  - queen-pawn mate, 125–127
- clock
  - definition, 318
  - draw offering, 254
  - overview, 246–247
- Closed English formation, 166–167
- closed file, 319
- closed game, 319
- closed position, 56
- club, 245–246, 344
- color
  - bishop movements, 28
  - chess set, 13
  - chessboard, 14–15
  - knight movements, 34
- combination. See also specific types
  - benefits, 96, 97
  - definition, 2, 11, 319
  - false assumptions, 97
  - overview, 81, 96–97
  - sacrifice, 97–100
- compensation, 319
- competition
  - book of games, 338
  - chess set design, 13
  - clubs, 245–246
  - definition, 338
  - etiquette, 251–255
  - international, 250
  - overview, 12, 245
  - queen-pawn mates, 129
  - score sheet, 273–274

- touch-move rule, 254–255
- U.S. basics, 246–249
- composition, 217–221
- Comprehensive Chess Course*
(Alburt, Lev), 341
- computer chess. See also Internet chess
  - calculations, 257–258
  - instruction, 260–261
  - overview, 12, 257
  - software, 259–260
- consultation chess, 283, 319
- contested square, 42, 56
- control, 42–45, 46
- cook, 319
- correspondence chess, 250–251, 319
- counterattack, 224
- courtesy
  - spite check, 65
  - tournament etiquette, 251–255
  - verbal “check,” 64
- cramped game, 42, 186, 319
- cramping move, 42, 141
- crippled majority, 319
- critical position, 320
- cross-check, 320
- crosstable, 320
- cutting off squares process
  - definition, 66
  - king and queen, 66–70
  - rook and king, 70–72, 74–77
- D •
- Damiano’s mate (mating pattern), 97–100, 125–129
- database, 260
- decoy, 100–102, 320
- Deep Blue (IBM chess computer), 259, 297–299
- deflection sacrifice, 102–104
- descriptive notation, 263, 320
- design, of chess set, 13, 337
- desperado, 320
- destroying the guard, 104–105
- developing move, 49
- development
  - center-counter opening, 51–52
  - definition, 11, 48, 320
  - gambits, 50, 52, 110–112
  - middlegame principles, 223
  - opening moves, 194–195
  - opponent’s, 194–195
  - overview, 48–49
  - tempo gains and losses, 49–50
- diagonal
  - bishop movements, 27–29
  - definition, 320
  - Dragon formation, 160–161
  - fianchetto strengths, 159
  - material guidelines, 48
  - overview, 17
  - pawn captures, 36–37
  - pawn chains, 61–62
  - queen movements, 30
- diagram
  - versus actual chessboard, 12
  - conventions, 2
  - definition, 320
- discovered attack, 320
- discovered check
  - definition, 65, 320
  - overview, 92–94, 94–96
- distraction, 252, 255
- double attack, 92–94, 320
- double bishop sacrifice, 320
- double check
  - definition, 65, 321
  - overview, 94–96
  - queen-knight mates, 132
- double exclamation point (!!), 272
- double king pawn opening, 201–207
- double queen pawn opening, 210–211
- double question mark (??), 272
- double round robin, 321
- Double Stonewall formation, 164–166
- doubled pawn, 60–61, 321
- doubling, 224
- Dragon formation, 160–161
- drama, of game, 110
- draw
  - bishop-bishop ending, 242
  - definition, 4, 321
  - overview, 65–66
  - rook endings, 238
  - tournament etiquette, 253–254
- duffer, 321

Dufresne, J. (chess player), 281–283 dynamic equilibrium, 43 dynamism, 321

• E •

edge

cutting off squares process, 66–70, 73–77

definition, 45, 321

Indian Defense, 212–213

space guidelines, 45

electronic resources

chess clubs, 344

chess programs, 259, 260

correspondence chess, 251

databases, 260

Deep Blue, 299

informational sites, 261

instructional software, 260

Internet chess, 261, 343

mail order, 342

elements. See also specific elements

definition, 10

importance, 10

overview, 41

elephant, 26

Elo, Arpad (rating system developer), 247

Elo ratings, 247, 321

e-mail chess. See Internet chess

en passant capture

definition, 321

notation, 271

overview, 169–171

endgame

beginner's mistakes, 147

bishop endings, 238–242

bishop movements, 28

definition, 11, 322

king movements, 33

knight and bishop values, 188

knight endings, 238–242

material strategies, 48

minor piece endings, 238–242

overview, 225

pattern recognition, 147–154

pawn-king endings, 227–237

rook endings, 237–238

space, 44

strategy, 226–227

study, 322

English Opening, 166

equal sign (=), 272

escape square, 322

etiquette, 251–255

Europe, 21

Euwe, Max (Judgment and Planning in Chess), 179, 310

The Even More Complete Chess Addict
 (Fox, Mike and James, Richard),
 256, 342

The Evergreen Game (famous chess game), 281–283

exchange variation, 268–270

exchanging pieces

bishop-bishop ending, 242

chess notation, 268–269

definition, 322

endgame strategy, 227

middlegame principles, 224

overview, 185–186

pawn formation, 146

uneven trades, 185

exclamation point (!), 272

experience, 216, 245–246

• F •

feedback, 260

fers, 322

fianchetto

definition, 89, 322

Dragon formation, 160–161

Indian Defenses, 212–213

Nimzo-Indian opening, 89

opening analysis, 199–200

overview, 158–159

FIDE (International Chess Federation)

definition, 322

Kasparov-Short match (1993), 251

Official Rules of Chess, 331, 341

origins of chess, 21

overview, 250
ratings, 247
FIDE master (FM), 250, 322
50-move rule, 323
file
  chess notation, 270–271
  definition, 15, 323
  illustrated, 16
  middlegame principles, 224
  naming system, 16
file-first method, 16
Fine, Ruben (The Ideas Behind the Chess Openings), 140
Fingerfehler (finger-slip), 323
first board, 323
Fischer clock (chess clock), 323
Fischer, Robert J. (chess player)
  overview, 306
  versus Donald Byrne, 294–297, 324 fish, 323
flag, 323
flank
  cutting off squares process, 66–70, 73–77
  definition, 45
  development, 323
  Indian Defense, 212–213
  openings, 323
  space guidelines, 45
flight square, 323
fluid pawn center, 324 FM (FIDE master), 250 food, 255 fool's mate, 324 forced move, 324 forcing nature, 138–139 forfeit, 247 fork
  decoy, 102
  definition, 324
  overview, 82–87
formation
  benefits of learning, 140
  definition, 2, 11, 332
  effect on game, 156–157
  exchange of pieces, 146

overview, 155
strength and weakness analysis, 157–159
typical, 143–146
Forsyth notation, 324
forsythe notation, 263
Fox, Mike (The Even More Complete Chess Addict), 256, 342
Frankenstein-Dracula (tactic), 82–87
free game, 83
Free Internet Chess Server (Web site), 261 freeing move, 42
French bishop, 324
French Defense (opening)
  drawback, 207, 208
  pawn chain, 140–143
  pawn formation, 156
Fritz (computer program), 259, 260 frontier line, 324

• G •

Gallagher, Joe (The Magic of Mikhail Tal), 119 gambit classic example, 110–112
  definition, 50, 324
  origin of term, 112
  overview, 110
Game of the Century (Fischer-Byrne game, 1956), 294–297, 324 grading, 324
grandmaster draw, 325
grandmaster (GM), 250, 325
Grandmaster of Chess (formal title), 325
Grünfeld, Ernst (chess player), 256

• H •

half-open file, 325
half-pin, 325
hand hover, 255 handle, 261
hanging pawn, 60, 325

heavy piece, 25
 heuristics, 258 hole, 325
 Hooper, David (The Oxford Companion to Chess), 342
 hypermodern, 325

• I •

ID, online, 261
The Ideas Behind the Chess Openings (Fine, Ruben), 140 illegal move, 325–326 illegal position, 326
 IM (international master), 250
 The Immortal Game (famous chess game), 278–281, 326
 India, 21
 Indian Defense (opening), 212–213, 326 initiative
   definition, 50, 326
   Queen's Gambit, 184
 instruction, 260–261
 intermediate move, 339
 international arbiter, 326 International Chess Federation (FIDE)
   definition, 322
   Kasparov-Short match (1993), 251
   Official Rules of Chess, 331, 341
   origins of chess, 21
   overview, 250
   ratings, 247
 International Computer Chess Association, 326 international grandmaster (GM), 326 international master (IM), 250, 326 international tournament, 250 international woman grandmaster, 327 Internet chess. See also computer chess
   correspondence chess, 250–251
   Kasparov versus the world, 299–303
   overview, 12
   procedure, 261–262
   types, 261
   Web sites, 251, 343

Internet Chess Club (Web site), 261 Internet resources
   chess clubs, 344
   chess programs, 259, 260
   correspondence chess, 251
   databases, 260
   Deep Blue, 299
   informational sites, 261
   instructional software, 260
   Internet chess, 261, 343
   mail order, 342
 interposing, 88
 intuition, 137, 139 isolated pawn, 59–59, 327
 Isouard, Count (chess player), 283–285

• J •

James, Richard (The Even More Complete Chess Addict), 256, 342
 John G. White Collection (library), 344
Judgment and Planning in Chess (Euwe, Max), 179

• K •

Karl of Braunschweig, Duke (chess player), 283–285
 Karpov, Anatoly (chess player), 307
 Karpov-Chom game (1977), 97–100
 Kasparov, Garry (chess player)
   cheating, 254
   versus Deep Blue, 259, 297–299 versus Nigel Short, 251
   overview, 305
   versus the world, 299–303
 Keres, Paul (chess player), 312
 key square, 188–191
 kibitz, 2, 327
 Kieseritzky, Lionel (chess player), 278–281, 326
 king
   back rank mate, 124–125
   capture basics, 32
   castling process, 172–175

- center-counter opening, 51–52
- check overview, 10, 63–65
- check process, 66–70
- chess notation, 264
- classic bishop sacrifice, 112–114
- clearance sacrifice, 99–100
- cutting off squares process, 66–72, 74–77
- decoy, 100–102
- defense, 32
- double check, 95–96
- endgame basic strategy, 226–227
- fork tactic, 84–87
- hunt, 327
- illegal capture, 88
- King’s Gambit, 110–112
- Lucena’s position, 148–154
- major versus minor pieces, 25
- movements, 32–33
- opposition, 229–233
- origins of chess, 21
- overview, 31
- pawn promotion, 173
- pawn-king ending, 227–237
- pin tactic, 88
- placement on chessboard, 20
- queen-knight mates, 129–133
- Queen’s Gambit, 183–184
- quickest checkmate, 53–54
- rook endings, 238
- rook-king checkmate, 70–78
- Scheveningen formation, 163
- scholar’s mate, 122–123
- sign of resignation, 253
- skewer tactic, 90–91
- stalemate overview, 65–66
- symbol, 18
- temporary sacrifice, 115–117
- king safety element
  - middlegame plan, 217–218
  - overview, 52–53
  - quickest checkmate, 53–54
- King’s Gambit (classic gambit), 110–112
- King’s Indian (opening), 212–213
- kingside, 172, 327
- Kmoch, Hans (Pawn Power in Chess), 217
- knight
  - Alekhine’s Defense, 209
  - attack power, 33–34
  - versus bishop, 47
  - blockades, 192
  - center-counter opening, 52
  - chess notation, 264
  - classic bishop sacrifice, 112–114
  - clearance sacrifice, 98–100
  - Closed English formation, 166–167
  - destroying the guard, 104–105
  - discovered attack, 92–94
  - endgame, 238–242
  - exchange of, 185
  - fork tactic, 82–87, 327
  - French Defense, 142
  - Indian Defense, 212–213
  - isolated pawn blockades, 59
  - key square strategy, 189–191
  - middlegame principles, 224
  - movements, 34–35
  - Nimzo-Botvinnik formation, 168
  - Nimzo-Indian opening, 89–90
  - opening development, 194
  - origins of chess, 21
  - overview, 33
  - permanent sacrifice, 118–119
  - Petroff’s Defense, 202–206
  - placement on chessboard, 19
  - queen-knight mates, 129–133
  - Queen’s Gambit, 181–184
  - relative value, 47, 188
  - scholar’s mate, 122–123
  - space guidelines, 45
  - symbol, 18
  - temporary sacrifice, 115–117
- knight’s tour, 35, 327
- Koltanowski, George (grandmaster), 35, 173
- Korchnoi, Viktor (chess player), 175, 307, 312
- Kotov, Alexander (Think Like a Grandmaster), 139
- Kramnik, Vladimir (chess player), 310

• L •

ladder, 327–328
 Lasker, Emanuel (chess player) versus José Raúl Capablanca, 292–294
   overview, 307–308
 legal move, 328
 Legall's mate (mating pattern),
   92–94, 328
 Legall–St. Brie Paris game (1750), 92–94 letter, 15–17, 264
 lever, 38, 328
 Levitsky, Stepan (chess player), 290–292 lightning chess, 328 line, 100, 224
 liquidation, 328
 living chess, 328 locked pawn, 37–38
 long algebraic notation, 328 long castling, 328
 Lopez, Ruy (chess player), 112 loser, 256
 loss on time, 247
 Lucena's position (endgame pattern),
   147–154, 328

• M •

magazine, 246
The Magic of Mikhail Tal (Gallagher, Joe), 119
 major piece, 25, 329 majority, 329
 manners
   spite check, 65
   tournament etiquette, 251–255
   verbal “check,” 64
 mantri, 21
 Marshall Chess Club, 329, 344
 Marshall, Frank (chess player), 290–292 Marshall swindle, 329 master, 329
 master tournament, 329
 match competition, 249, 329 Match of the Century (Soviet Union versus the world), 329

mate. See also specific types
   definition, 318
   with king and queen, 66–70
   with king and rook, 70–78
   major pieces, 25
   minor pieces, 25, 26, 239–240
   opening, 193, 194
   overview, 66
   quickest, 53–54
 material
   guidelines, 48
   middlegame plan, 217–218
   overview, 46
   strategies, 47–48
   value of pieces, 46–47 mating attack, 329
 mating net, 173
 mating pattern. See also specific types
   definition, 10
   versus endgame patterns, 147
   memorization, 121
   overview, 121
 mating sacrifice, 329
 mechanical move, 329 Mechanics' Institute Chess Room (chess club), 344
 memorization
   mating patterns, 121
   opening moves, 193
   pattern recognition, 138
 Mephisto (chess-playing device), 330
 middlegame
   attacks, 222–224
   definition, 11, 330
   general principles, 223–224
   overview, 215–216
   plan, 216–222
   space strategies, 44
 miniature, 330
 minor exchange, 330
 minor piece
   definition, 26, 330
   endgame, 238–242
 minority attack
   definition, 330
   middlegame, 221–222
   overview, 186–187

minus/plus sign (-/+), 272
 mismatch, 249
 mistakes, beginner's check, 50, 157
   endgame, 147
   opening, 193–194
   scholar's mate, 122–123
   tempo gains and losses, 50
 mobility
   definition, 330
   endgame, 241–242
   middlegame, 217–218
Modern Chess Strategy (Pachman, Ludek), 217 Monster variation (tactic), 82–87 Morphy, Paul (chess player) versus Duke Karl of Braunschweig and Count Isouard, 283–285
   mating patterns, 134, 136
 Morphy's mate (mating pattern), 134–136 moves. See combination; strategy; tactic
My System (Nimzowitsch, Aaron), 330

• N •

national master, 330 neoromantic play, 330 newspaper diagram, 272–273
 Nimzo-Botvinnik formation, 167–168
 Nimzo-Indian opening, 89–90
 Nimzowitsch, Aaron (famous chess player) isolated pawns, 58–59
   My System, 330 notorious loss, 256 popular opening, 89 weakened pawn chains, 140
 norm, 330
 notation
   annotations, 272
   captures, 266–267, 270–271
   castling, 268, 269–270
   chess pieces, 264
   definition, 330
   en passant capture, 271

exchanges, 268–269
 newspaper diagrams, 272–273
 opening, 264–266
 overview, 12, 263
 pawn promotion, 270
 number, 15–17

• O •

obstructive sacrifice, 330
Official Rules of Chess (FIDE), 331, 341 one-half fraction ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ), 272 online ID, 261
 open file, 331
 open game, 331
 open tournament, 331 opening. See also specific moves
   analysis of, 196–200
   attacks on opponent, 195–196
   beginner's mistakes, 193–194
   centralization, 180–184
   checkmate, 193, 194
   chess notation, 264–266
   definition, 11, 331
   development, 194–195
   differences in names, 200
   discussion among players, 200
   importance, 193
   king safety strategy, 53, 54
   knight movements, 34–35
   memorization of moves, 193
   rook pawns, 26
   space strategies, 42–45
   transposed, 193
   weird names, 214
 opening theory, 193 opposite-colored bishop ending, 28
 opposition
   definition, 331
   overview, 229–233
 Orangutan (opening), 331 organic weakness, 331 outside passed pawn, 331
 overloaded piece
   definition, 332
   overview, 106–107

overprotection, 332

The Oxford Companion to Chess (Hooper, David and Whyld, Kenneth), 342

• p •

Pachman, Ludek (Modern Chess Strategy), 217

pairing, 332

passed pawn

  advantage, 57

  bishop-bishop ending, 242

  definition, 57

  endgame basic strategy, 226–227

  knight-knight ending, 240

  pawn-king ending, 235–237

  protected, 57–58

  rook endings, 238

pattern recognition

  calculations, 137, 138–139

  endgame, 147–154

  importance, 4, 10

  memorization, 138

  overview, 137

  skill building, 138–139

pawn. See also specific types

  Alekhine's Defense, 209

  back rank mate, 124–125

  bishop movements, 28–29

  blockades, 59, 191–192

  capture basics, 36–39

  Caro-Kann Defense, 208–209

  center-counter opening, 51–52

  classic bishop sacrifice, 112–114

  clearance sacrifice, 98–100

  Closed English formation, 166–167

  discovered attack, 92–94

  double king pawn opening, 201–207

  double queen pawn opening, 210–211

  en passant method, 169–171

  first impressions, 155

  fork tactic, 82–87

  French Defense, 207, 208

  importance, 37

  Indian Defense, 212–213

  key square strategy, 189–191

  king-pawn ending, 227–237

  King's Gambit, 110–112

  knight-bishop ending, 242

  lever strategy, 38

  locked, 37–38

  minority attack, 186–187, 221–222

  Morphy's mate, 135

  movements, 36–39

  Nimzo-Botvinnik formation, 168

  opening analysis, 196–200

  opening development, 195

  opening space strategies, 43–45

  origins of chess, 21

  overloaded pieces, 106–107

  overview, 35

  permanent sacrifice, 117–119

  Petroff's Defense, 203–206

  Philidor's Defense, 206–207

  placement on chessboard, 20–21

  queen-pawn mates, 125–129

  Queen's Gambit, 181–181, 210–211

  quickest checkmate, 53–54

  relative value, 47

  rook movements, 26

  Ruy Lopez opening, 201–202

  scholar's mate, 122–123

  Sicilian Defense, 207, 208

  The Slav, 211

  space guidelines, 45

  symbol, 18

  temporary sacrifice, 115–117

pawn chain

  definition, 61, 332

  French Defense opening, 140–143

  overview, 61–62

  weakening tips, 62, 140–141

pawn duo, 39, 55

pawn formation. See also specific types

  benefits of learning, 140

  definition, 2, 11, 332

  effect on game, 156–157

  exchange of pieces, 146

  overview, 155

  strength and weakness analysis,

    157–159

  typical, 143–146

- pawn grabbing, 332
Pawn Power in Chess (Kmoch, Hans), 217 pawn promotion. See also queening a pawn
    chess notation, 270
    definition, 148, 334
    Lucena's position, 148
    overview, 171–172
    pawn-king ending, 227–237
pawn quadrant, 227–229
pawn square method, 227–229
pawn storm, 332
pawn structure
    backward pawns, 59
    definition, 39, 332
    doubled pawns, 60–61
    guidelines, 62
    hanging pawns, 60
    isolated pawns, 58–59
    middlegame plan, 217–221
    overview, 54–56, 139–140
    passed pawns, 57–58
    pawn chains, 61–62
Pawn Structure Chess (Soltis, Andy), 140 pawns, queening. See queening a pawn pay-to-play site, 261
PCA (Professional Chess Association), 251 perfect score, 333
permanent sacrifice, 117–119
perpetual check, 65, 333 Petroff's Defense opening
    overview, 202–206
    tempo gains and losses, 49–50
Petrosian, Tigran (chess player), 310 phalanx, 333
Philidor, François-André Danican (chess player), 309 Philidor's Defense (opening), 206–207 piece, chess
    color, 13
    definition, 12
    design, 13
    key to power, 55
    major pieces, 25
    notation, 264
    ordering information, 12, 342
    overview, 23
    placement on chessboard, 18–21
    relative values, 46–47
    science versus art, 23
    selection, 13–14
    symbols, 18
    tournament rules, 246, 254–255
    wood versus other materials, 13–14
piece exchange
    bishop-bishop ending, 242
    chess notation, 268–269
    definition, 322
    endgame strategy, 227
    middlegame principles, 224
    overview, 185–186
    pawn formation, 146
    uneven trades, 185
Pillsbury, Harry Nelson (chess player), 311
pin tactic, 87–88, 333
plan, 216–222
Playchess (Web site), 261 playoff, 333
plus sign (+), 272
plus/minus sign (+/-), 272
Pogo (Web site), 261
poisoned pawn, 333
Polgar, Judit (chess player), 254 position
    definition, 216
    middlegame attacks, 222
    middlegame plan, 216–217
positional advantage, 184
positional understanding, 185
postal chess, 250 postmortem session, 253, 333
pound sign (#), 272
prepared variation, 333 preventive sacrifice, 333
Professional Chess Association (PCA), 251 promotion. See pawn promotion protected passed pawn, 57–58, 334
pseudo-sacrifice, 115–117
Purdy, Cecil (famous chess player), 55

• Q •

Quad tournament, 249
 queen
   attack power, 31
   capture basics, 30
   center-counter opening, 51–52
   check process, 66–70
   chess notation, 264
   classic bishop sacrifice, 112–114
   clearance sacrifice, 97–100
   cutting off squares process, 66–70
   decoy, 100–102
   defense, 31
   deflection sacrifice, 102–104
   destroying the guard, 104–105
   discovered attack, 92–94
   double check, 95–96
   fork tactic, 83–87
   French Defense, 142
   history of piece, 30
   isolated pawn blockades, 59
   key square strategy, 191
   king-queen checkmate, 66–70
   knight-queen mates, 129–133
   major versus minor pieces, 25
   middlegame principles, 224
   Morphy's mate, 134–136
   movements, 30–31
   opening analysis, 197–200
   opening development, 194
   origins of chess, 21
   overloaded pieces, 106–107
   overview, 30
   pawn-queen mates, 125–129
   Petroff's Defense, 204–206
   pin tactic, 87–88
   placement on chessboard, 19–20
   quickest checkmate, 53–54
   relative value, 47
   scholar's mate, 122–123
   skewer tactic, 90–91
   stalemate overview, 65–66
   symbol, 18
   temporary sacrifice, 115–117

queening a pawn. See also pawn promotion
   definition, 148
   endgame strategy, 227
   king-pawn ending, 232, 236–237
   Lucena's position, 148, 150, 154
   opposition, 230–231
   overview, 171–172
   pattern recognition, 148, 150, 154
   rook endings, 238
 queening square, 172, 334
 Queen's Gambit, 180–184, 210–211
 Queen's Indian (opening), 213 queenside, 172
 question mark (?), 272
 quiet move, 334

• R •

rajah, 21
 rank
   definition, 15
   illustrated, 15
   middlegame principles, 224
   naming system, 15
 rapid chess, 334
 rating, 247–248, 334
 recaptured pieces, 111, 145
 recognizing patterns calculations, 137, 138–139
   endgame, 147–154
   importance, 4, 10
   memorization, 138
   overview, 137
   skill building, 138–139
 recording games, 335
 removing the defender, tactical theme, 85
 repetition of position, 335 Reshevsky, Samuel (chess player), 312 resignation, 252–253 restraining advance, 191 retailer, equipment, 12, 342
 Réti's mate (checkmate), 96
 Réti-Tartakower Vienna game (1910), 94–96
 retrograde analysis, 335

- return match clause, 309
- rook
- back rank mate, 124–125
  - capture basics, 25
  - castling process, 172–175
  - chess notation, 264
  - clearance sacrifice, 97–100
  - cutting off squares process, 70–78
  - decoy, 101–102
  - deflection sacrifice, 102–104
  - destroying the guard, 104–105
  - double check, 96
  - endgame, 237–238
  - Lucena's position, 148–154
  - major versus minor pieces, 25
  - middlegame principles, 224
  - Morphy's mate, 134–136
  - movements, 24–25
  - opening development, 194
  - origins of chess, 21
  - overloaded pieces, 106–107
  - overview, 24
  - pawn promotion, 172
  - pin tactic, 87–90
  - placement on chessboard, 18
  - queen-knight mates, 129–130
  - Queen's Gambit, 183–184
  - relative value, 47
  - sacrifice, 126–127
  - symbol, 18
- rook pawn, 26
- Rotlewi, Georg (chess player), 288–290
- round-robin tournament, 249, 335
- Rubinstein, Akiba (grandmaster)
- versus Georg Rotlewi, 288–290
  - overview, 311
  - rook endings, 237
- rule of the square, 227–229
- running away, 88
- Ruy Lopez opening, 201–202, 335
- S ●
- sacrifice. See also specific types
- bishop, 112–114
  - combination, 97–100
  - decoy, 320
  - definition, 48, 109, 335
  - double check, 95–96
  - drama, 110
  - gambits, 110–112
  - knight-knight ending, 240–241
  - overview, 109–110
  - pawn-king ending, 236
  - queen-knight mate, 132–133
  - queen-pawn mate, 125–128
  - rationale, 10
  - rook, 126–127
- sandbagger, 248
- Scheveningen formation, 161–163
- Schiller, Eric (Unorthodox Openings), 214
- scholar's mate, 122–123, 335
- science, 23
- scope, 27
- score
- definition, 264, 335
  - scorekeeping, 273–274
- score sheet
- definition, 264, 335
  - example, 273–274
- The Scotch opening, 202
- sealed move, 335
- second, 336
- seesaw, 336
- sharp opening, 82, 336
- short castling, 336
- Short, Nigel (chess player), 251
- Sicilian Defense (opening)
- overview, 207–208
  - variations, 159–163
- simplification, 47
- simultaneous display, 336
- skewer tactic, 90–91, 336
- skittles, 336
- The Slav (opening), 211
- smothered mate, 131, 336
- Smyslov, Vasily (chess player), 221, 310
- software, 259–260, 272
- Soltis, Andy (Pawn Structure Chess), 140
- sound combination, 97
- space
- guidelines, 45
  - importance, 46
  - middlegame principles, 224

- space (continued)
    - opening strategies, 42–45
    - overview, 41–42
  - Spanish game (opening), 201–202
  - Spassky, Boris (chess player), 310
  - special move, 169–175
  - speculative move, 336
  - Spielmann, Rudolf (chess player), 179
  - spite check, 65, 336
  - sportsmanship
    - spite check, 65
    - tournament etiquette, 251–255
    - verbal “check,” 64
  - squares, on chessboard
    - attacked versus contested, 42
    - bishop’s attack power, 27
    - color, 14
    - knight’s attack power, 34
    - naming system, 15–17
    - number, 15
    - queen placement, 19
    - queen’s attack power, 31
  - stalemate
    - bishop-bishop ending, 242
    - definition, 4, 10, 321
    - overview, 65–66
    - rook endings, 238
    - tournament etiquette, 253–254
  - Staunton design, 13, 337
  - Staunton, Howard (chess player), 13
  - Steinitz, Wilhelm (chess player), 285–288, 308
  - Stonewall formation, 163–164
  - strategic outpost, 188–191
  - strategy. See also specific strategies
    - center control, 180–184
    - endgame, 226–227
    - importance, 11
    - overview, 179–180
  - structure
    - backward pawns, 59
    - definition, 39, 332
    - doubled pawns, 60–61
    - guidelines, 62
    - hanging pawns, 60
    - isolated pawns, 58–59
    - middlegame plan, 217–221
    - overview, 54–56, 139–140
    - passed pawns, 57–58
    - pawn chains, 61–62
  - swindle, 337
  - Swiss Gambit (tournament strategy), 249
  - Swiss system, 248–249, 337
  - symbol, 272
  - symmetrical pawn structure, 337
  - symmetry, 337
- T •
- tactic. See also specific tactics
    - definition, 11, 82, 337
    - importance, 10, 81
  - taking turns, 48–49
  - Tal, Mikhail (grandmaster), 119, 309–310
  - Tarrasch, Siegbert (chess player), 237, 311
  - Tartakower, Saviely (chess player), 95
  - tempo
    - beginner’s mistakes, 50
    - definition, 49, 337
    - development, 49–50
    - gains and losses, 49–50
  - temporary sacrifice, 115–117
  - text move, 337
  - thematic move, 338
  - theoretical novelty, 338
  - theory, 338
  - Think Like a Grandmaster* (Kotov, Alexander), 139
  - tiebreaking system, 338
  - tied game
    - bishop-bishop ending, 242
    - definition, 4, 321
    - overview, 65–66
    - rook endings, 238
    - tournament etiquette, 253–254
  - time
    - control, 247
    - learning needs, 1
    - limit, 273, 338
    - trouble, 338
  - top board, 323, 338
  - touch-move rule, 254–255, 338

tournament
  book of games, 338
  chess set design, 13
  clubs, 245–246
  definition, 338
  etiquette, 251–255
  international, 250
  overview, 12, 245
  queen-pawn mates, 129
  score sheet, 273–274
  touch-move rule, 254–255
  U.S. basics, 246–249
transposed opening, 194
trap
  definition, 193–194, 338
  Petroff's Defense, 203–205
traveling set, 13 tree of analysis, 139
triangulation, 339 tripled pawn
  definition, 60, 339
  remedy, 61
turn taking, 48–49

• U •

underpromoting, 171, 339
undoubling, 339
unintentional loss, 109
unit, 339
United States Chess Federation (USCF), 246, 247, 339 Unorthodox Openings (Benjamin, Joel and Schiller, Eric), 214 unsound combination, 97

• V •

vacating sacrifice, 339 variation, 97
Vienna game (opening sequence), 82–87
vizier, 21, 30

Von Bardeleben, Kurt (chess player), 285–288
Vukovic, Vladimir (The Art of Attack), 121, 223

• W •

warfare, 11
Web server. See Internet chess Web sites
  chess clubs, 344
  chess programs, 259, 260
  correspondence chess, 251
  databases, 260
  Deep Blue, 299
  informational sites, 261
  instructional software, 260
  Internet chess, 261, 343
  mail order, 342
The Week in Chess (Web site), 343
white square, 14, 50 Whyld, Kenneth (The Oxford Companion to Chess), 342
wing
  cutting off squares process, 66–70, 73–77
  definition, 45
  Indian Defense, 212–213
  space guidelines, 45
wood sets and boards, 13–14
woodpusher, 216, 339
world championship, 250
World Chess Hall of Fame & Sidney Samole Chess Museum, 344

• Y •

Your Move Chess & Games (retailer), 342

• Z •

Zugzwang (forced move), 188, 339
Zwischenzug (intermediate move), 339

