

Index

A

- Adjusting leadership inner work: addressing roots of overdoing and underdoing, 165–171; depolarizing your relationship to two sides, 161–162; overcoming aversion, 163–165; polarized on principle, 162–163
- Adjusting leadership sides: highlights of, 171; importance of, 157–158; inner work of, 161–171; keeping one side from crowding out the other, 171–172; outer work of, 159–161. See also Leadership lopsidedness
- Adopting regimen: revving up outer work by, 139–140; throttling back outer work by, 116t, 118–119
- Ahab (Moby Dick character), 8–9, 132, 159–160, 170
- Alston, W., 122
- Anderson, S., 69
- Aristotle, 10
- Assessment. See Leadership assessment

B

- Balance, 28
- Behavior: adopting a regimen to change, 139–140; throttling back to change, 113–135. See also Fear reactions; Leadership mind-set
- Boston Consulting Group, 101
- Brown, J., 179

C

- Calmness, 177–181
- Camelot* (Broadway production), 177
- Carnegie, D., 119, 138

- Central, S. (“Sara Central”): altering idea of the switch by, 122–123; defusing her trigger points, 146–147; extreme overdo LVI score of, 130; leadership lopsidedness of, 86–88, 87t; “swing thought” used by, 116
- “Chameleon,” 182
- Cleveland, H., 157
- Coaching: on adjusting leadership sides, 171–172; on forceful and enabling leaderships, 95; on leadership assessment, 37; on leadership mind-set, 71; on revving up, 154; on strategic and operational leaderships, 109; on strength excess, 18; to strengths not weaknesses, 50; on throttling back, 134; on underestimating your strengths, 56
- Counterweights: described, 114, 115t, 129; putting in place, 129–131; tolerating tension of being checked/countered, 132–133
- Crick, F., 28
- Crooked thinking: leader performance thrown off by, 61–65, 62fig; revving up by straightening out, 142–143; throttling back by straightening out, 121t–125
- Csikszentmihalyi, M., 178

D

- Darwin, C., 173
- Deficiencies. See Leadership deficiencies
- Development/coaching highlights: on adjusting leadership sides, 171–172; on forceful and enabling leaderships, 95; on leadership assessment, 37; on

- leadership mind-set, 71; on revving up, 154; on strategic and operational leaderships, 109; on strength excess, 18; on throttling back, 134; on underestimating your strengths, 56
- Disengaged leadership, 92*fig*
- “Dynamic equilibrium” state, 147
- E
- Ellis, A., 139–140
- Emerson, R. W., 3, 59, 106
- Enabling leadership. See Forceful/enabling leadership
- Enron International, 15–16
- Epicurus, 177
- Excess. See Leadership excess
- Excessively high expectations, 124–125
- F
- Fear reactions: adopting a regimen to overcome, 139–140; to being perceived as arrogant, 53–54; to complacency, 53; to having to keep up superior performance, 54–55; knowing the signs of, 139. See also Behavior
- Feedback: emotional reactions to positive, 51–55; gravitational pull of negatives of, 49–51; overcoming resistance to positive, 48–51, 128–129; pulling back from giving negative, 128. See also Leadership assessment; LVI (Leadership Versatility Index); 360-degree feedback
- Feedback loops: revving up outer work building, 141; throttling back outer work building, 116*t*, 119–120
- “Field general” lopsided leadership, 183*fig*, 184–185
- Fitzgerald, F. Scott, 17
- Forceful/enabling leaderships: average ratings of Ella Solo’s, 42*fig*; as both virtues and vices, 83*t*; described, 73, 75–76; highlights of, 95; inverse relationship between two types of, 85*fig*–86; lopsidedness of, 30*t*, 31–32, 82*t*–91; questions for reflection on, 95–96; research on positive correlations between, 84; subpairs of, 93*t*–94; three configurations of effectiveness of, 76–77, 91–93, 92*fig*; as virtues, 76–77, 82*t*
- Forceful/enabling lopsidedness: case of Billy Peoples, 88–91, 90*t*; case of Sara Central’s, 86–88, 87*t*; of Ella Solo’s leadership, 30*t*, 31–32; inverse relationship between, 85*fig*; understanding, 82, 84–86; virtues only listed, 82*t*; virtues and vices listed, 83*t*
- Foster, V., 124–125
- Freed, R. (“Rick Freed”): learning to own his strengths, 147–151; 360-degree survey ratings of, 147–149
- Frost, R., 3
- G
- Goethe, 39, 61, 62, 180
- “Golden mean,” 10
- Growth-Efficiency subpair, 105
- Guiliani, R., 181
- H
- Harrison, M., 139
- “Heroic” lopsided leadership, 183*fig*, 184
- Horace, 178
- How to Stop Worrying and Start Living* (Carnegie), 119
- I
- IBM, 98
- Innovation-Consistency subpair, 105
- Intellectual abilities: case studies on overcoming underestimating, 166–169; distorting effects of underestimating, 44*fig*; overdoing effect of underestimating, 44*fig*, 45–46; underdoing effect of underestimating, 44*fig*, 46–47
- J
- Jullien, F., 23
- Jung, C., 106
- K
- Kaiser, R., 11, 26, 29, 76, 104
- Kaplan, H., 113
- Kegan, B., 146, 147
- Kinder, R., 15–16
- Kirton, M., 107
- Knowing the signs: revving up outer work by, 139; throttling back outer work by, 116*t*, 117–118

Koslowski, D., 9
Koufax, S., 122, 179

L

Lahr, J., 137

Lay, K., 15, 16

Leadership: adjusting both sides of, 157–172; forceful and enabling, 30*t*, 31–32, 42*fig*, 73, 75–96; mind-set of, 59–72; multi-versatile, 173–188; strategic and operational, 32–33*t*, 34, 43*fig*, 73, 97–108; two most important dichotomies of, 73. See also Leadership models

Leadership assessment: calling into question your self-limiting, 144–145; Ella Solo's, 29–35*fig*; highlights of, 37; potent clarity through, 36; questions for reflection on, 38; rating scales and evaluation scales for, 20*e*–21; 360-degree feedback for, 12, 23, 24–26. See also Feedback; LVI (Leadership Versatility Index)

Leadership deficiencies: leadership effectiveness and skirting, 9–11; lopsidedness and corresponding, 14*t*; map of Ella Solo's, 34–35*fig*; mind-set roots of, 61. See also Leadership weaknesses

Leadership effectiveness: description of, 9–11; forceful and enabling qualities of, 76–77, 91–93, 92*fig*

Leadership excess: assessing and addressing, 11–13; counterweights to, 114, 115*t*, 129–133; distribution of 107 managers' scores for, 26–27*fig*; lopsidedness form of, 13*fig*–16, 15*t*; many faces of, 8–9; map of Ella Solo's, 34–35*fig*; mind-set roots of, 61; rating scale to detect, 26*fig*–27; Rich Spire's example of, 6–8; skirting deficiency and, 9–11. See also Throttling back

Leadership lopsidedness: corresponding deficiency to, 14*t*; detecting, 27–29; of forceful and enabling leadership, 30*t*, 31–32, 92*fig*; as form of excess, 13*fig*–14; four types of, 183*fig*–185; mind-set resulting in, 67–69; origins of term, 13; peril of one-sidedness resulting in, 69–70; in Rich Spire, 14*t*–15; of strategic and operational leadership,

32–33*t*, 34, 99*t*–101; versatility flip side of, 16–17. See also Adjusting leadership sides

Leadership mind-set: crooked thinking factor of, 61–65, 62*fig*; highlights of, 72; importance of having, 59–60; origins of lopsidedness in, 67–70; questions for self-reflection on, 71–72; revving up by changing your, 142–151; roots of deficiency and excess in, 61–67; throttling back work of changing, 114, 115*t*, 120–129; trigger points factor of, 62*fig*, 65–67. See also Behavior

Leadership models: adding missing element to your mental, 143–144; circumplex model of multi-versatile, 175–177, 176*fig*; development shaped by, 160–161; illustration of table, 17*fig*. See also Leadership

Leadership strengths: highlights on, 18, 56; learning to use selectively, 122; map of Ella Solo's, 34–35*fig*; meaning of “strengths and weaknesses,” 3–4*fig*; moderating value placed on, 123–124; obstacles to overcoming knowing your, 48–55; reflection questions on, 18–19, 57; revving up through ownership of, 147–151; Rich Spire's example of, 4–6; throttling back through ownership of, 127–129. See also Underestimating strengths

Leadership weaknesses: excesses as, 8–9; map of Ella Solo's, 34–35*fig*; meaning of “strengths and weaknesses,” 3–4*fig*; Rich Spire's example of, 6–8; skirting deficiency and excess, 9–11. See also Leadership deficiencies

Lopsidedness. See Leadership lopsidedness
Lucretius, 64

LVI (Leadership Versatility Index): assessing effects of underestimating one's strengths, 40–41, 42*fig*–44*fig*; assessing excesses/lopsidedness using, 29–30*t*, 31–33*t*, 34–35*3fig*; Bill People's results of, 90*t*–91; described, 29; four patterns or variations to, 91–93, 92*fig*; Pete Power's overall profile on the, 185*fig*; Sara Central's results of, 87*t*; Will Stonecraft's results on the, 176*fig*. See also Feedback; Leadership assessment
LVI variations, overview of, 91

M

- McGregor, D., 78–79
 Machiavelli, N., 10, 181
The Man of Fifty (Goethe), 180
 Manning, P., 139
 Mark, R., 15
 Marshall, G., 182
Maxims and Reflections (Goethe), 61, 62
The Mental Game of Baseball, 60 (need author for this)
 Menza, S. (“Sam Menza”), 101–103, 106, 107, 184
 Michaelis, D., 24
 Mind-set. See Leadership mind-set
Moby Dick (Melville), 8–9, 132–133
 Modesto, M., fear of arrogance by, 53
 Modulation, 122–123
 Montaigne, 173
 “More-than” attitude, 123
 Morgan, J., 179
 Multi-versatile leader: being overly versatile, 181–182; boosting versatility in, 185–188; circumplex model of, 175–177, 176*fig*; state of calm characteristic of, 177–181; Will Stonecraft as approximation of, 173–175. See also Versatility

N

- Napoleon, B., 8, 106
 Negative feedback: gravitational pull of, 49–51; learning to pull back from giving, 128
 Noah’s Ark principle, 29

O

- “One of the troops” lopsided leadership, 183*fig*, 184
 One-sidedness, 69–70
 O’Neal, S., 59
 Operational leadership: average ratings on, 43*fig*; factors affecting, 106–107; highlights of, 109; lopsidedness of, 32–33*t*, 34, 99*t*–101; overview of, 97–99; Peter Power’s example of, 103–104; questions for reflection on, 110; subpairs of, 104–106, 105*t*; versatility of, 98–99, 107–108; virtues only listed, 99*t*; virtues and vices listed, 100*t*. See also Strategic leadership
 Over-talking, 119–120

- Overdoing effect: addressing vulnerability at root of, 165–171; case 1 on overcoming, 166–168; case 2 on overcoming, 168–169; crooked thinking resulting in, 65; of underestimating strengths, 44*fig*, 45–46
 Owning strengths: revving up through, 147–151; throttling back through, 127–129

P

- Peoples, B. (“Billy Peoples”), 88–91, 90*t*, 126
 Perfectionism, 124–125
 Pollack, J., 182
 Positive feedback: emotional reactions to, 51–55; overcoming resistance to, 48–51, 128–129
 Powers, P. (“Pete Powers”): “field general” leadership of, 184–185; LVI profile of, 185*fig*; strategic and operational leadership of, 103–104
 “Presidential” lopsided leadership, 183*fig*, 184
 Pythagoras, 105

R

- Recalibrating faulty gauge, 145–146
 Reflection questions: on forceful and enabling leaderships, 95–96; on leadership assessment, 38; on leadership mind-set, 71–72; on revving up, 155; on strategic and operational leaderships, 110; on strength excess, 18–19; on throttling back, 135; on underestimating your strengths, 57
 Regimen adoption: revving up outer work by, 139–140; throttling back outer work by, 116*t*, 118–119
Restoring Leadership in Business, 79
 Revving up: changing mind-set using inner game of, 142–151; highlights of, 154; using others as complements, 151–153; outer work of, 137–141; questions for reflection on, 155
 Revving up inner work: adding to your mental model of leadership, 143–144; defusing trigger points, 146–147; owning your strengths, 147–151; questioning self-limiting assumptions, 144–145; recalibrating faulty gauge, 145–146; straightening out crooked thinking, 142–143

Revvng up outer work: adopting a regimen, 139–140; building feedback loops, 141; choosing a swing thought, 138–139; importance of, 137–138; knowing the signs, 139

S

St. Vincent Millay, E., 164

Sanders, B., 179

“Scrub” (St. Vincent Millay), 164

Self-limiting assumptions: calling into question your, 144–145; underestimating strengths as, 39–57

Sharp, S. (“Steve Sharp”): overdoing effect on, 45–46; resistance to positive feedback by, 52, 128–129

Signs (knowing the): revvng up outer work by, 139; throttling back outer work by, 116t, 117–118

Skilling, J., 15

Sloan Management Review, 11

Socrates, 173

Solo, E. (“Ella Solo”): addressing self-concept distortion by, 47–48; assessing leadership of, 29–35fig; average ratings on forceful/enabling leadership, 42fig; average ratings on strategic/operational leadership, 43fig; effects of underestimating one’s strengths, 39–41; leadership strengths of, 34; lopsidedness on forceful/enabling leadership of, 30t, 31–32; lopsidedness on strategic/operational leadership of, 32–33t, 34; maps of strengths and deficiencies/excesses of, 34–35fig; “one of the troops” lopsided leadership of, 184; potent clarity through assessment of, 36; 360-degree feedback report on, 24–26

Spire, R. (“Rich Spire”): exemplary leadership strengths of, 4–6; inability to be proportionate, 10, 11; leadership liabilities of, 6–8; leadership lopsidedness of, 14t–15; need for leadership assessment by, 17; 360-degree survey feedback to, 12

Stalin, J., 129–130, 181

Starkbuck (Moby Dick character), 9, 132–133, 159–160

Stonecraft, W. (“Will Stonecraft”): LVI results on, 176fig; as multi-versatile leader, 173–175; state of calm shown by, 177, 180–181

Strategic leadership: average ratings on, 43fig; factors affecting, 106–107; highlights of, 109; lopsidedness of, 32–33t, 34, 99t–101; overview of, 97–99; questions for reflection on, 110; Sam Menza’s example of, 101–103; subpairs of, 104–106, 105t; versatility of, 98–99, 107–108; virtues only listed, 99t; virtues and vices listed, 100t. See also Operational leadership

Strengths and weaknesses, 3–4fig

Stubb (Moby Dick character), 8

Swartz, M., 9

Swing thoughts: revvng up outer work choosing, 138–139; throttling back outer work by choosing, 116t–117

T

Theory X, 78–79

Theory Y, 78–79

360-degree feedback: Billy People’s initial reaction to his, 90; Ella Solo’s, 24–26; omissions of, 23; resistance to positive, 48–55; Rich Spire’s, 12. See also Feedback

Throttling back: using counterweights for, 114, 115t, 129–133; highlights of, 134; inner work of changing mind-set, 114, 115t, 120–129; outer work of, 114, 115t–120; questions for reflection on, 135; three ways of, 113–115t. See also Leadership excess

Throttling back inner work: altering your idea of the switch, 122–123; defusing trigger points, 125–127; described, 114, 115t, 120–121; moderating excessively high expectations, 124–125; moderating sky-high value placed on strength, 123–124; owning your own strengths, 127–129; recognizing when more is less, 122; straightening out crooked thinking, 121t–125

Throttling back outer work: adopting a regimen, 116t, 118–119; building in feedback loops, 116t, 119–120; choosing a swing thought, 116t–117; described, 114, 115t; knowing the signs, 116t, 117–118

“Travelgate” scandal, 124–125

Trigger points: leader performance affected by, 62*fig*, 65–67; revving up by defusing, 146–147; throttling back by defusing, 125–127

Tyco International, 9

U

Underdoing effect, 46–47

Underestimating strengths: addressing self-concept distortion effect of,
47–48; distorting effects of, 41–44*fig*,
45; Ella Solo and effects of, 39–41;
highlights on, 56; of intellectual ability, 44*fig*, 45–47; overdoing effect of,
44*fig*, 45–46; reflection questions on,
57; resistance to positive feedback effect of, 48–55; underdoing effect of,
44*fig*, 46–47. See also Leadership strengths

Unfairness, 125–126

Unlimited versus Limited, 105–106

V

Van Gogh, V., 182

Versatility: boosting leadership, 185–188;
of forceful and enabling leaderships,
92*fig*; having “too much,” 181–182;

homogenous concerns about, 77–81;
LVI (Leadership Versatility Index) of,
29; quality of, 28; of strategic and operational leaderships, 98–99, 107–108;
as virtuous flip side of lopsidedness,
16–17. See also Multi-versatile leader

Vulnerabilities: addressing overdoing/underdoing, 165–166; case 1 on addressing, 166–168; case 2 on addressing, 168–169

W

Watson, J., 28

Watson, T, Jr., 98

Websites, LVI (Leadership Versatility
Index), 29

Winesburg, Ohio (Anderson), 69

Woods, T., 59

Z

Zaleznik, A., 79–80

Zhukov, G., 130