

Index

A

Abused/neglected children, acting out by, 113
Academic orientation, of Black males, 27
Academic performance, 3; Academic Performance Index (API), 189; academic performance indicators, 36; and after-school/summer school programs, 38; attribution of disparities in, 154; and disruptive behavior, 113; high performance, 161–163; and identity, 28–33; and stereotype threats, 141
Academic standards, and NCLB, 173–175
Academic support, 37
Accountability strategy, 176–177
Achievement gap: role and significance of race in, 138–142; and standards-based reform, 175
Ada, F.A. F., 76, 78, 204
Akom, A., 175, 180, 192
Alameda County Health Department, 196
Alsop, J., 242
AmeriCorps program, 211
Ampim, M., 37
Anagnostopoulos, D., 185
Anderson, D., 178

Anderson, E., 216
Anderson, R., 25, 41
Anyon, J., 223, 229
Apel, D., xi
Apple, M., 29, 117, 227, 228
Asylums, 89–90
Athletic ability of Black males/boys, xiii–xiv
Auerbach, J. A., 17
Ayers, R., 129
Ayers, W., 129

B

Bad apples, sorting out, 120–124
Baker, L. D., xi
Barrett, P., 234
Barton, P., 172
Belk, A., xviii
Bell, C., xv
Bell Curve, The (Herrnstein/Murray), 131
Benassi, M., 223
Berkeley Alternative High School, 144
Berkeley, California, student grade point average (GPA), 150–151
Berkeley High School (BHS), California, 132, 136, 142, 245–246; academic outcomes at, 143–144, 146; Biotech Academy, 212;

- Berkeley High School (continued)
 Diversity Project, 150, 155–156, 248–250; English as a Second Language (ESL) program, 146; expulsions/suspensions at, 146; failure of integration at, 143–145; institutional obstacles, overcoming, 154–158; racial inequality in academic outcomes, 144–145; and school desegregation, 143; sorting students at, 145–154
- Bhabbha, H., 12
- Billson, J., 41, 102
- Biotech Academy, Berkeley High School (BHS), California, 212
- Black leadership/political activism, in Oakland, 205–207
- Black males/boys, xii; academic orientation of, 27; and academic success, 34–35; affirmation of identity of, 37; aspirations, lowering of, 23–24; and athletic ability, xiii–xiv; connection between educational performance and hardships endured, 18; consequences of hostility/anger, 42; cycle of failure, breaking, xxiii; difficulties faced by, in American Society, xi; egos of, 41; engaging in debates about personal responsibility, xxv; environmental and cultural factors on academic performance of, 17–42; and HIV/AIDS, 17, 20; hostility/anger in, 41; incarceration of, xviii–xix; marginal roles/groupings, 33; middle-class, and academic performance, 18; as miner's canary in nation's schools, xxvi–xxvii; normalization of failure, xix; police harassment of, xiv; popular perceptions of, xi–xii; pressures/stereotypes/patterns of failure experienced by, xvii; risk, nature of, 19–23; school discipline patterns, xvii–xviii; and social pressures inherent in school experiences, 33; and special education, 18, 21–22; structural vs. cultural explanations of risk behavior, 23–24; trouble with, xxi–xxii, 17–42
- Black Panther Party, 205
- Black students, oppositional identities, 140
- “Blame the victim” perspective, 25
- Blankstein, A., 161–169
- Blasi, G., 190
- Bliss, M., 6, 69, 199
- Bonding social capital, 200–201
- Bourdieu, P., 221, 222, 223
- Bowers, R., xi
- Bowles, H., 117, 227, 228
- Boyden, J. E., 112
- Boykin, W., 38
- Bridging social capital, 199–200
- Brodkin, K., 78, 79
- Brookover, W., 18, 103, 115
- Brown, J., 207
- Burnaford, G. E., 108
- Bush, R., 206
- C
- CalWORKS program, 195
- Campbell, E., 190
- Cao, Y., 15
- Captured market concept, 209
- Captured population, empowering, 232–239
- Carnoy, M., 21, 92, 227
- Carrington, B., 6, 8, 29
- Casella, R., 116, 118
- Castro, M., 139
- Chaconas, D., 207–208
- Chavez, L., 266
- Children's Aid Society, New York City, 213
- Children's Defense Fund, xxiii
- Chubb, J. E., 209, 238
- Cibulka, J., 192
- Civic capacity-building efforts, 208–211
- Civic capacity, developing, 211–212
- Clark, K., 241
- Clark, W., 55, 200, 201

- Classroom example (Oakland, CA), classroom for difficult/disruptive students, 122–124
- Clinchy, E., 210
- Cobb, C. W., 238
- Cohen, M., 61
- Coleman, J., 18, 190, 199, 204, 225,
230, 243–244
- Coley, R. J., 172
- Come On People* (Cosby/Poussaint), xxv
- Comer, J., 185, 222, 231, 233, 242
- Commission for Positive Change, 200
- Conant, J., 93–94, 94, 95
- Conchas, G., 212
- Congruity in values, 244
- Connelly, W., 55
- Controlled institutions, schools as,
85–86
- Cooper, H., 105
- Cornelius, W., 53
- Cosby, W., xxv
- Cose, E., 234
- Cotton, K., 62
- Crain, R. L., 238
- Cremin, L., 90, 91, 92, 94, 129,
173, 241
- Cripps, 299
- Cross, W., 29
- Cuban, L., 187, 228, 298
- Cultural capital: influence on character of school officials and parents,
221–223; perceived value of, 226
- Culture or poverty, 25
- Currie, E., 17, 27, 84, 241
- Cycle of failure, breaking, xxiii
- D
- Darling-Hammond, L., 172, 181
- Daux, T., 85
- Davidson, A. L., 139
- Davidson, H., 15
- Davila, F., 84
- Delpitt, L., 194
- Denton, N., 201, 202, 232
- Development, Relief and Education for Alien Minors Act, 251
- Devine, J., 118
- Diagnostic assessments, 183–185
- Dillard, J., 225
- Discipline, xvii–xviii. See also Punishment; bad apples, sorting out, 120–124; disorder and disengagement in high schools, 124–127; as exercise of power, 94–96; politics of, 101–103; and race, 102; rethinking practices, 111–130; and safety, 66–68; and the social purpose of education, 117–120
- Disciplining event, 96–101
- Disorder and disengagement in high schools discipline, 124–127
- Diversity Project, 150, 155–156, 248–250; goal of, 250; parent outreach committee, 249–250
- Dorhn, B., 129
- Dreeben, R., 185
- Driscoll, D., 177
- Dryfoos, J., 180, 213
- Durkheim, E., 115, 117
- Dusek, J., 105
- Dyson, A., 29
- E
- E. R. Taylor Elementary School, San Francisco, California, 246
- Earls, F., xv, 23
- Eaton, S. E., 9, 79, 158, 181, 189, 229
- Eccles, J., 180
- Eckert, P., 302
- Edmonds, R., 19, 34, 37
- Education: discipline and the social purpose of, 117–120; racial politics and the quest for excellence/equity in, 131–158
- Education Data Partnership, 195
- Educators, and positive racial identity development, 14–16
- Effective schools: building of leadership capacity at all levels, 163; characteristics of, 36–37; common mission/vision/values/goals, 162;

- Effective schools: (continued) participation of family and community members to help learning, 163; staff member collaboration to maintain focus on teaching/learning, 162; systems to ensure achievement for all students, 162; use of data to evaluate programs/monitor initiatives, 163
- Ellison, R., xii
- Elmore, R., 173, 191, 233
- Emerson Elementary School, Berkeley, California, 163–165
- England, R., 17, 80, 101, 102, 103, 113
- Epstein, J., 185, 193, 204, 222
- Equity, need for, xxv–xxvi
- Erickson, E., 18, 27, 105, 115
- Erikson, E., 7, 29
- Ernst, 242
- Estes, S., 189
- Expulsion hearings, 97–101
- Expulsion/suspension, 121
- Extracurricular activities, 14–15
- F
- Facial feature differences, 6
- Fantini, M., 204, 239, 241, 299
- Fass, P. S., 78
- Faucault, M., 96–97
- Feddeman, S., 177
- Ferguson, A., 221
- Ferguson, R., 30, 42, 137, 139
- Ferretti, 242
- Field trips, 15
- Fine, M., 210, 221, 222
- Firmness, of teachers, 65
- Fischer, C. M., 231
- Fishman, J., 119, 129
- Foley, D., 28
- Fordham, S., 9, 24, 30, 31–32, 140, 225
- Foster, H., 84
- Foster, M., 225
- Foucault, M., 94, 97, 100
- Fox, C., 61, 66
- Frazier, E. F., 223
- Fredrickson, G., 223
- Freed, K., 84
- Frère, P., 19, 216
- Friendship groups, and racial/ethnic identity, 7–8
- Fuller, F., 233
- G
- Gandal, M., 173
- Gans, H., 78
- Garbarino, J., 21
- Garcia, E., 80
- Gargiulo, M., 223
- Gibson, M., 140, 141
- Gilmer, M., xi
- Gintis, H., 117, 227, 228
- Giroux, H., 28, 108, 227
- Gittell, M., 204, 239, 241, 299
- Glazer, N., 79, 94
- Goetz, 172
- Goffman, E., 27
- Gold, E., 193
- Goldman, D., 102
- Gonzalez, E. D., 44
- Good, T., 105
- Gootman, J. A., 180
- Gormley, W., 208, 209
- Gottfredson, D., 116, 117
- Greenberg, M., 229
- Gross, B., 83
- Gross, R., 83
- Grubb, N., 93
- Guinier, L., xiv–xv, xxv–xxvi
- H
- Hacker, A., 234
- Hair texture differences, 6
- Hall, G. S., 91
- Hall, S., 223
- Hallisey, E., 85
- Haney, W., 177
- Harding, D., 61, 66
- Harris, C., 223
- Harry, B., 21, 22
- Harvard Civil Rights Project, 61

Hauser, R., 178
 Hausman, A., 17
 Hayes-Bautista, D., 51, 80
 Haymes, S., 223
 Hernandez, M., 43–59; high school experience, 47–49; mother's immigrant experience, 46; restaurant work, 48–49; South Bronx, changes in, 45–46
 Herrnstein, R., 131
 Hess, G. A., 210
 High achievement, and ostracizing by peers, 9
 High-stakes testing, 65–66
 High standards, 163–166; holding state governments accountable for maintaining, 181
 Hilliard, A., 22
 Hirschi, T., 113
 HIV/AIDS, 17, 20
 Hoberman, J., 23
 Hobson, C., 190
 Holland, D., 28
 Hondagneu-Stoieto, P., 52
 Horton, M., 216
 Hostility/anger, 41–42; consequences of, 42
 Hout, M., 231
 Hubert, J., 178
 Hunter, C., 87
 Hyperghetto, public schools in, 128

I

Identity: and academic performance, 28–33; construction of, within schools, 40–41; and meaning/significance of race, 29–30
 Identity-achievement connection, theories of, 8–10
 Ignatiev, N., 223
 Immerwahr, J., 86
 Immigration: and immunity to association between race and achievement, 140–141; of Latinos, 43–59; as need to escape poverty/suffering, 54–55

Incarceration of Black males/boys, xviii–xix, xxiii–xxv
 Inequality, social consequences of, 24
 Inner-city public schools, as example of community organizations transformed into institutions, 127–130
 Institutional responsiveness, and social capital, 202–205
Invisible Man (Ellison), xii

J

Jackson, T., 21
 James, D. W., 189
 Jankowski, M. S., 231
 Jenck, C., xxvii, 18, 61, 131, 139, 190
 Jenkins, E. J., xv
 Jerald, C. D., 182
 Jobu, R., 78
 Joaquin's dilemma, 3–16; academic performance, 3; friends of, 3–4; image projected by, 4; race, emerging awareness of, 5–6; trapped by stereotypes, 4
 Johnson, J., 86, 115
 Johnson, T., 112
 Jonnes, J., 266, 267
 Joseph, G., 105
 Joseph, P. B., 108
 Jurich, S., 189

K

Kao, G., 34, 80
 Kaplan, H., 17
 Katz, M., 91
 Katznelson, I., 79, 120, 173, 191, 227, 231, 241
 Kemper, P., 84
 King, A., 102
 Kirp, D., 147, 232
 Kochman, T., 225
 Kozol, J., 190, 192, 214, 229, 233
 Kretovics, J., 108
 Kunjufu, J., 27, 41, 42

L

- Ladson-Billings, G., 36, 250
 Lareau, A., 193, 199, 204, 221, 233
 Large schools: advantages of, 62–63;
 anonymity in, 64; discipline/safety,
 66–68; high-stakes testing, 65–66;
 student goals/motivation, 68;
 student-teacher relationships,
 64–65
 Latino immigrants: as backbone of U.S. economy, 52–53; caught between two worlds, 75; characteristics of, 50; disruptions in school attendance, 76; education/immigration of, 43–59; education patterns, 52; hardships of, 53–54, 75; health/well-being, 51; interaction with Black students, 6–7; migrant workers, 77; push and pull factors on, 76–78; racialized inequalities, 79–80; schools' failure to serve, 53; social adaptation, 51–52; social mobility, 78–79; students, prospects for the future, 80–82; transnational families, 76
 Lau v. Nichols, 79
 Lawson, B., 88
 Leadership capacity, building at all levels, 163
 Learning to Labor (Willis), 116
 Ledesma, J., 11
 Lee, S., 11, 19
 Levin, H., 92
 Levinson, B., 28, 227
 Lewis, M., 25, 130
 Lightfoot, S. L., 109
 Lindsay, J., 242
 Linn, R., 192
 Listening, 61–71; and school decision making, 69–71; to student experiences, 63–68
 Littles, M., xi, xvii
 Local site councils (LCSs), 210
 Loewen, J., 29
 Low-performance schools, focus on the problems facing, 181–182
 Lucas, S., 231
 Lugg, C. C., 268
 Luker, K., 26–27
 Lynn, S., 185

M

- MacLeod, J., 228
 Madaus, G., 177
 Madhubuti, H., 41
 Maeroff, G., 171, 214, 223, 229, 232
 Magat, R., 204, 239, 241
 Majors, R., 41, 102
 Manpower Research Development
 Corporation, 61
 Massachusetts Comprehensive
 Assessment of Skills (MCAS),
 65–66
 Massey, D., 201, 202, 232
 Matutu-Biachi, M., 140
 McCarty, L. P., 119, 129
 McCoy, R., 240
 McDermot, J., 87
 McLaughlin, M., 186
 McLeod, 25
 McPartland, J., 37, 84, 190
 McWhorter, J., 13, 132
 Medi-Cal, 235–239, 299
 Mehta, J., 61, 66
 Meier, K., 17, 22, 80, 101, 102, 103,
 113, 298
 Mentors, 37, 84–85
 Metropolitan Life, 35, 120, 124
 Metz, M. H., 30, 95
 Mickelson, R., 34–36, 35, 68
 Migrant workers, 77
 Miles, R., 29
 Miller, L. S., 189
 Miller, S. L., 180
 Milofsky, C., 18
 Mincy, R., xiii
 Miner's canary, Black males/boys as,
 in nation's schools, xxvi–xxvii
 Minority Student Achievement
 Network (MSAN), 8, 132, 133–138,
 155; "educational equity issues"
 plaguing districts within, 134;

- lack of progress in minority student achievement, 137–138
- Moe, T., 209
- Moe, T. M., 238
- Monroe, L., 165–166
- Mood, A., 190
- Morrow, R., 25
- Moynihan, D., 79
- Moynihan, D. P., 94, 299
- Moynihan, P., 102
- Murray, C., 25, 131
- Musgrove, G., 207
- Mutual accountability, 182–183
- N
- Name-calling, and racial boundaries, 29
- National Research Council (NRC), 17
- NCLB, See No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB)
- Neediest children, punishment of, 113, 129
- Nemeth, P., 87, 88, 96
- Nettles, S. M., 37, 84
- Newman, F., 61, 139
- Newman, K., 66
- Newmann, F., 124, 127
- Newport News, Virginia, school district, 166–168; “pyramid of interventions,” 166–168; “red-flagged” students, 167–168; student success at, 166–167
- No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB), 161, 171, 215; and academic standards, 173–175; accountability strategy, 176–177; diagnostic assessments, 183–185; disadvantages of, 179; high standards, holding state governments accountable for maintaining, 181; mutual accountability, 182–183; nonacademic needs of poor children, responding to, 180–181; partnership building, 185–186; and the promise of American education, 171–173; toughest schools, addressing the needs of, 178–179
- “No-zones,” 229
- Nocera, J., 147, 227
- Noguera, P., 6, 8, 40, 69, 143
- Noguera, P. A., 34, 49, 50, 51, 79, 122, 127, 163, 175, 180, 192, 196, 199, 204, 223, 231, 237
- Nonacademic needs of children, responding to, 180–181, 195–199
- Nonvoluntary minorities, 140
- Nussel, E. J., 108
- O
- Oakes, J., xx, 18, 22, 79, 85, 92, 94, 117
- Oakland (CA) Unified School District (OUSD), 196, 204; captured market concept, 198; failing schools, poverty racial isolation in, 193–194; nonacademic needs of children, responding to, 195–199; race/class boundaries and geographical patterns, correspondence to census tracts, 201–202; social capital, 199–200; strategy for providing social services at school sites, 213
- Oakland Citizens Organizations (OCO), 206
- Obidah, J., xx
- Office of Economic Development, 201
- Ogbu, J., 9, 23, 24, 31–32, 51, 80, 81, 132, 139, 140, 141, 225, 234
- Olsen, L., 77
- Omega Boys Club, 37
- Omi, M., 16
- Oppositional identities, 140
- Oppositional behavior, and marginality of Black students, 31
- Orfield, G., 9, 79, 158, 181, 189, 229
- Organization, of teachers, 64
- Ornstein, A., 95
- Out-of-class experiences, 15

P

Page, L., 62
 Parent education, 245
 Parent-school official interactions, 221–223
 Parental empowerment, lessons from existing models of, 243–250
 Partnership building, 185–186
 Pathways to Student Success, 63
 Patience, of teachers, 64–65
 Payne, C., 223, 233, 237
 Peer groups: and identity, 30; and socialization process, 30–31
 Perlman, H., 177
 Perlstein, M., 229
 Perry, T., 194
 Peshkin, A., 29, 30
 Phelan, P. A., 15, 30
 Phillips, M., 61, 131, 139
 Phyl's Academy (Fort Lauderdale, FL), 130
 Physical differences, awareness of, 5–6
 Pierce, C., 14
 Pinkney, A., 230
 Pittz, W., 112
 Police harassment of Black males/boys, xiv
 Pollack, M., 115
 Pollard, D. S., 18
 Portes, A., 51, 79, 81
 Positive racial identity development, and educators, 14–16
 Poussaint, A., xxv
 Prisons, breaking the connection between schools and, 127–130
 Private organizations, and systems of support for students, 213–214
 Proposition 187, 54–55
 Prothrow-Stith, D., 17
 Public education: as birthplace of democratic reform, 216; high performance, 161–163; high standards, 163–166; reclaiming the promise of, 161–169; standards-based reform in, 171–188; systems for success, 166–168; will, generating, 168–169

 Public School Accountability Act (1999), 193
 Punishment, See also Discipline: of neediest children, 113, 129; social implications of, 111–130; students removed from classroom for, 112–113
 Putnam, R., 193, 199, 230, 234, 243
 “Pyramid of interventions,” Newport News, Virginia, school district, 166–168

R

Race: awareness of, 5–7; in school context, 10–14
 Racial differences, significance of, 5–6
 Racial identity: development process, 142; link between school-related behaviors and, xxvii
 Racial politics, and the quest for excellence/equity, 131–158
 Racial separation in schools, 12–13
 Racist speech, hurtful nature of, 6
 Rawls, J., 55, 115
 Reconstitution, 299–300
 “Red-flagged” students, 167–168
 Reform, calls for, 61–62
 Respect, of teachers, 65
 Rice, E. J., 93
 Ridgeway, G., 14
 Rimer, S., 86
 Rist, R., 223
 Robinson, M., 172
 Roediger, D., 78, 79, 223
 Rojas, W., 244
 Roper, 17
 Roth, W., 61, 66
 Rothman, D., 89, 90
 Rouce, C., 209
 Rousseau, J., 119
 Rumbaut, R., 51, 79, 81
 Rutledge, S., 185
 Ryan, R., 25

S

- Saegert, S., 199
- Sampson, R., 190, 199
- San Francisco Unified School District, 244–245
- Sandler, S., 22
- Schneider, D., 229
- School-community partnerships, 212–213
- Schooling, social control and the social contract of, 114–117
- Schools: breaking the connection between prisons and, 127–130; as controlled institutions, 85–86; decision making, and listening to students, 69–71; environments, humanizing, 109–110
- Schott Foundation, xvii, 17
- Schrag, P., 242
- Schwartz, R., 172, 173
- Self-perception, 7
- Serano v. Priest*, 192
- Serna, I., 134
- Shanker, A., 242
- Shea, R., 87
- Shores, K., 130
- Simba, 37
- Singer, S., 113, 114
- Siskin, L., 61
- Sizemore, B., 34, 36, 37, 182
- Skiba, R. J., 113
- Skin color differences, 6
- Skolnick, J., 17, 27, 241
- Sleeping Car Porters Union, 205
- Sleeter, C., 105
- Small schools: discipline/safety, 66–68; high-stakes testing, 65–66; student goals/motivation, 68; student-teacher relationships, 64–65
- Smaller schools/learning communities, push for, 62–63
- Smith, R., 79
- Smitherman, G., 41
- Social adaptation, Latino immigrants, 51–52
- Social capital, 199–200; bonding, 200–201; bridging, 199–200; defined, 199; factor in determining form of, 224; and institutional responsiveness, 202–205; investments in, 217–251; negative, 225; and parent-principal relationship in urban schools, 218–227; potential role of, 208–211
- Social control, maintaining through force and discipline, 110
- Social mobility, Latino immigrants, 78–79
- Social problems, normalization of, xviii
- Social welfare programs, 230–231
- Sockwell, I., 87, 109
- Solomon, R. P., 234
- Sorting practices, and “normal racial separation, 11–12
- Soule, C., 105
- South Bronx, changes in, 44–46
- Special education, 18, 21–22
- Spencer, M., 131
- Spindler, G., 250
- Spindler, L., 250
- Spivak, H., 17
- Spring, J., 29, 141
- Standards-based reform: and achievement gap, 175; in public education, 171–188
- Steele, C., 10, 141
- Steinberg, L., 15, 30, 61, 68, 70, 124, 139
- Stepick, A., 139
- Stereotype threats, and academic performance, 141
- Stereotypes, 4; and expectations, 10–14
- Stewart, J., 17, 80, 101, 102, 103, 113
- Stone, C., 186, 211
- Student experiences in small vs. large schools: discipline/safety, 66–68; high-stakes testing, 65–66; learning from, 63–68; student goals/motivation, 68; student-teacher relationships, 64–65

 Student expulsion hearing, 97–101
 Student motivation, and student achievement, 157
 Student perspectives, soliciting/responding to, 71
 Suarez-Orozco, C., 49, 51, 81, 139, 140
 Suarez-Orozco, M., 49, 51, 81, 139, 140
 Sugrue, T. J., 268
 Swidler, A., 231

T

Tatum, B., 5, 29, 253, 257
 Taylor, Frederick, 92
 Taylor-Gibbs, J., 21, 27
 Teen pregnancy, 26–27
 Thompson, C., 206
 Thompson, P., 199
 Thorne, B., 29
 Tienda, M., 34, 80
 Tobier, E., 46
 Toby, J., 83, 102
 Torres, G., xv, xxv–xxvi
 Toughest schools, addressing the needs, 178–179
 Transnational families, 76
 Traub, J., 182
 Troubled students, addressing the needs of, xxii–xxiii
 Troyna, B., 6, 8, 29
 Tyack, D., xxvii, 17, 89, 90, 93, 96, 187, 216, 228, 241, 298

U

UNIA (Universal Negro Improvement Association), 205
 United Federation of Teachers (UFT) strike (1968), 239–242
 Urban schools: continued failure in, 229–230; and equal opportunity notion, 231–232; parent-principal relationship in, 218–227; and power of choice, 233–234; as reliable source of stability/social support for poor children, 231; role in reproduction of social inequality, 227–232; and social capital, 217–251

 U.S. Census, 202

V

Valdez, G., 78
 Valenzuela, A., 70
 Violence: alternative approaches to, 107–110; counseling programs, 85; discipline as exercise of power, 94–96; disciplining event, 96–101; get-tough approach, 85; mentoring programs, 84–85; politics of discipline, 101–103; as pressing educational issue, 83; preventing, 84, 107–110; preventing/producing, 83–110; role of teachers, 103–107; school as agent of control, 89–94; waging the fight against, 87–89
 Vocational high schools, 93
 Voluntary minorities, 140
 Voss, K., 231
 Vouchers, 209

W

Wacquant, L., 127–128, 190, 201, 221, 223, 225
 Wallace, D., 44
 Wallace, R., 44
 Warren, M., 199
 Wasley, P. M., 64
 Watson, C., 37
 Weinfeld, F., 190
 Weinstein, R., 36, 105
 Weir, M., 79, 120, 173, 191, 227, 231, 241
 Wellness Medical Center, 235–239
 Wells, A., 134
 Wells, A. S., 238
 West, C., 41

Wheelock, A., 177
Wilgoren, J., 209
Williams, B., 9, 139
Willis, P., 25, 116
Wilson, W. J., 17, 24, 94, 230,
232, 298
Winant, H., 16, 223
Wong, K., 185
Woolcock, M., 199, 200, 230
Wunsch, J. L., 44

Y

York, R., 190
Youth culture: dynamic nature of, 39; generational differences in interpreting/understanding of, 40; importance of understanding, 39–40
Yu, H. C., 139

Z

Zentella, A. C., 51

