

Contents

Foreword	ix
An Extraordinary Man for Horses and People
Preface	xiii
How Charles Wilhelm Became a Horseman
Acknowledgments	xix
Introduction	1
Why Every Horse Lover Should Read This Book
1
Understanding the Horse	7
The Emotional, Mental, and Physical Aspects of the Horse	7
The Emotional Aspect	7
The Mental Aspect	13
The Physical Aspect	18
Horse Personalities	21
Conditioned Response	24
Ten Secrets Every Horse Wants His Owner to Know	28
2
Understanding Foundation Training	31
What Is Foundation Training?	31
Working with Pressure	33
Incremental Training	38
Setting and Raising Standards	38
What Is Natural Horsemanship and How Does It Apply to Foundation Training?	39
What Is Ultimate Foundation Training?	40
No Magic Gadgets: The Role of Equipment in Horse Training	43
3
Ultimate Foundation Training	49
The Ultimate Foundation Exercise: The Go-Forward Cue	49
The Round Pen	49
Line Work	61

Leading Manners and Respecting Space	73
Emotional Control and Despooping	80
Giving to the Bit	90
Moving the Hips Over	99
Stopping	102
Shoulder Control	104
Engagement	107
Transitions	109
Collection	114
Training Babies	116
Foundation Training and the Foal	116
Training a Baby for Veterinary and Farrier Work	119
Starting Older Horses	123

4

It's Never, Ever the Horse's Fault 127

Buying the Right Horse	129
Mental Training for Horsemanship	137
Common Problems and How to Solve Them with Ultimate
Foundation Training	142
Pullback Problem	143
Spooking	146
Bolting	150
Rearing	151
Bucking	154
Trailer Loading	157
Buddy Sour	159
Barn Sour	161
Cinchy	161
Head Tossing and Pulling at the Bit	164
No Control: Stud Chains and Bigger Bits	166
If All Else Fails: Finding the Right Trainer	169
Building Your Dream Horse	171

Appendix: The Charles Wilhelm Training Facility 173

Success through Knowledge

Index 183