

Index

• Symbols •

- ' (apostrophe)
 - adding to cut out a syllable, 63
 - described, 254
 - [] (brackets), in poetry essays, 95
 - ^ (caret), indicating inserted word(s), 30
 - : (colon), in a poem, 68
 - (dashes), indicating unfinished thoughts, 196
 - ... (ellipses)
 - inserting in quotations, 173
 - in poetry essays, 94–95
 - used in a novel, 301
 - ! (exclamation point)
 - avoiding in a literary essay, 195
 - intensifying emotions in drama, 196
 - “ (quotation marks), in poetry essays, 94–95
 - // (slashes)
 - marking through obvious wrong answers, 27
 - in poetry essays, 94
- ## • A •
- abbreviations, of character names, 30
 - accents
 - adding to create syllables, 63
 - in a line of poetry, 62
 - accommodations, documenting need to the College Board, 18
 - Achebe, Chinua
 - Things Fall Apart*, 336
 - actions
 - conflict expressed through, 127
 - important involving characters, 131–132
 - adjective placement, 343–344
 - advanced placement (AP), 1.
 - See also* AP English Literature and Composition Exam
 - The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn* (Twain), 334
 - adverb placement, 343–344
 - affect/effect word pair, 345
 - “After Apple-Picking” (Frost), 113
 - gathering evidence for an essay on, 116–118
 - organization of an essay on, 118
 - The Age of Innocence* (Wharton), 282–284
 - agreement, noun-verb and noun-pronoun, 340
 - Albee, Edward
 - Who’s Afraid of Virginia Woolf*, 338
 - Alcott, Louisa May
 - Jo’s Boys*, 126
 - All Quiet on the Western Front* (Remarque), themes of, 138
 - All the King’s Men* (Warren), 334
 - alliteration
 - defined, 103, 254, 256, 259
 - described, 61
 - example of, 299
 - Allman, John
 - “Renters”, 101–102
 - “Spraying the Chickens”, 292, 307–311
 - allusion
 - defined, 181, 256, 297
 - examples, 59
 - allusion/illusion word pair, 345
 - analysis, in a poetry essay, 96–97
 - analytical technique, examples of good and bad, 97
 - anecdote and interpretation structure, for an essay, 143
 - Anna Christie* (O’Neill)
 - example from, 173
 - excerpt from, 140
 - notes about the setting of, 140
 - passage from, 161
 - annotating a literary passage, 27, 28
 - annotation, 33, 34, 35
 - answer guide
 - for compare/contrast essays, 228–233
 - for poetry essays, 114–120
 - answer options, considering the meanings of, 80
 - answer sheets, distributed by the proctor, 19
 - answers
 - recording correctly, 27
 - selecting from multiple options, 101–111
 - Antigone* (Sophocles), 336
 - themes in, 35, 315
 - Antin, Mary
 - The Promised Land*, 246–247
 - writing style of, 258
 - AP (advanced placement), 1
 - AP Coordinator, contacting the nearest, 17–18
 - AP English Literature and Composition exam
 - content and structure of, 9–10
 - cost of, 17
 - described, 1
 - morning of, 25–26
 - overview, 9–20
 - preparation for, 21–30
 - questions, typical, 10–14
 - retaking, 16
 - scoring of, 14–17
 - AP English Literature and Composition section, of the College Board Web site, 24
 - AP English Literature class, 10.
 - See also* English class
 - “Aphasia” (Wender), 286
 - Apollonaire, 65
 - apostrophe
 - defined, 57, 119
 - described, 254
 - examples, 58

- apostrophe (‘)
- adding to cut out a syllable, 63
 - described, 254
- appearance, of characters, 129–130
- appearance, open-ended prompts addressing, 213
- appearance and reality, prompt asking about, 211
- appearance on the page, of a poem, 64–65
- arguments, listening to, 328
- “Arms and the Boy” (Owen), 98
- articles, writing for the school newspaper, 326
- As I Lay Dying* (Faulkner), 334
- assertion and defense structure, for an essay, 143
- assertions, providing evidence for, 13
- assonance
- defined, 256
 - described, 61
 - example of, 299
- asyndeton, 74
- At the Cross* (Crum), excerpt from, 127, 187–188
- attitude
- of a character or speaker, 12, 166
 - questions on, 159–160, 166
 - quotations essential on, 171
 - of speakers compared to poets’ techniques, 219–220
- Austen, Jane
- Northanger Abbey* excerpt, 184–185
 - Pride and Prejudice*, 34, 137, 336
 - scope of, 208
 - Sense and Sensibility*, 132
- author
- compared to narrator, 301
 - tone in an essay, 145
 - tone or diction differing from characters, 134
- author’s arguments, paraphrasing from a nonfiction passage, 170
- author’s attitude, identifying in an essay, 144
- author’s life, writing about, 321
- autobiographies
- defined, 146
 - as excerpted nonfiction passages, 141
 - Harriet Jacobs’s, 291–292
 - The Autobiography of an Ex-Colored Man* (Johnson, James Weldon), 334
 - The Awakening* (Chopin), 334
- B ●
- background information, summarizing for an essay, 170
- Bacon, Francis, essay excerpt, 143
- bad analysis, examples of, 97
- ballads
- defined, 257
 - described, 66, 255
- Beckett, Samuel
- Waiting for Godot*, 338
- Beloved* (Morrison), 334
- open-ended essay example using, 216
- biographies
- analyzing, 147, 149
 - defined, 146
 - as excerpted nonfiction passages, 141
- Blake, William, “A Poison Tree”, 59
- blank verse
- defined, 255
 - described, 63
- blocking, a quotation, 173
- blocks, in poetry essays, 94
- body language, as character response, 132
- body paragraphs
- in an essay, 47–48
 - organizing in a poetry essay, 100
 - of a prose or drama essay, 174
- book-length poems or plays in verse, selecting for the open-ended essay, 207
- brackets, in poetry essays, 95
- brain dump, 45
- breakfast, eating before the exam, 26
- Bronte, Anne
- The Tenant of Wildfell Hall*, 162–163
- Bronte, Charlotte
- Jane Eyre*, 159, 335
- Bronte, Emily
- Wuthering Heights*, 171, 336
- Broun, Heywood
- essay main points, 232
 - essay passage, 227
 - evidence from, 232–233
- Browning, Robert
- explaining a line, 67
 - “My Last Duchess”, 75
- Byron,
- Don Juan*, 78
- C ●
- canceling a score, 16
- candidate pack, 19
- “The Canterville Ghost” (Wilde), tone and diction in, 134–135
- caret (^), indicating inserted word(s), 30
- case, pronoun, 341
- Catch 22* (Heller), 334
- The Catcher in the Rye* (Salinger), 334
- cause and effect structure, for an essay, 142
- Cervantes’, Miguel de
- Don Quixote*, 137
- character versus nature conflict, limited in plays, 139
- characterization
- described, 129–133, 187
 - in drama, 140
 - in the Main Street excerpt, 199–200
 - open-ended prompts addressing, 213
 - questions about, 166
 - quotations essential on, 171
 - studying, 129
- characters
- behaving and interacting, 131–132
 - determining the most important, 129
 - fully-developed in a work of literary quality, 206

- giving information about other characters, 131 looks of, 129–130 against nature, 126
 number of, 134
 objects associated with, 133
 one against another, 126 participating in dialogue, 130 against society, 126 speech of, 130–131
 against themselves, 127 tone shifting for, 134
- Chopin, Kate
The Awakening, 334
- Christopher, Nicholas
Desperate Characters (book-length poem), 136
- chronological order in an autobiography, 147–148
 strict, 146
- chronological structure, of biography and memoir, 146–148
- citing, line numbers in poetry
 essays, 95–96
- “Civil War” (Jones)
 main points, 228–229
 points about, 223–224
- claims, forgetting to support, 322–323
- clarification, asking the teacher for, 38
- clarity of pronouns, 342
 in writing style, 49–50
- class notes and papers, reviewing, 24
- classics, selecting from, 206
- classroom, in the before the exam, 18–19
- clause, 164
- climax, 125
- clothing, wearing comfortable
 for the exam, 25
- Coleridge, Samuel Taylor
 “The Rime of the Ancient Mariner”, 55–56
- college admission essays, 142
College Admissions Essays For Dummies (Woods), 142
- College Board
 about, 1
 AP English Literature and Composition section of the Web site, 24
 Services for Students with Disabilities Office, 20 telephone number for registration, 17
 Web site, 17
- college-level work, in an AP English Literature course, 10
- colloquial diction, 115
- colon (:), in a poem, 68
- The Color Purple* (Walker), 334
- Columbia Granger’s World of Poetry*, 41
- comedy
 described, 208
 elements of, 168
- command of language, writing with, 43
- commentary, adding in poetry
 essays, 96–97
- “A Communication Which the Author Had to London, Before She Made Her Will”
 (Whitney), 64
- compare and contrast structure,
 for an essay, 143
- compare/contrast essays
 answer guide for, 228–233
 practicing, 223–228
 structure of, 174
- comparison of speakers’ attitudes and poets’ techniques, 219–220 of two poems by one author, 220
- complement, 68
- complete sentences components of, 339
 versus fragments and run-ons, 339
- complete thought, in a sentence, 339
- composite score. See overall AP exam score
- computer crashes, effects of, 37
- conceits, 57
- conclusion
 of an essay, 48
 for the half-and-half approach, 222
 of a prose or drama essay, 174–175
 wrapping up a poetry essay with a quick, 97–98
- conflict in context, 127
 defined, 124
 described, 126–127
 highlighting, 126
 identifying and determining the significance of, 127
 open-ended prompts addressing, 213
 in plays, 138
- confusing words, differentiating between, 345
- conjunctions
 described, 344
 omission of, 74
- connotations checking in poetry, 71
 of words, 42
- Conrad, Joseph
Heart of Darkness, 335
The Secret Sharer, 175–176
- “Constantly Risking Absurdity” (Ferlinghetti), visual appearance of, 65
- content
 determining for an essay, 43–46
 of the AP English Literature and Composition exam, 9–10
 grasping, 32–35
 prompts querying about, 96
- context of conflict, 127
 deciphering definitions in a poem, 79–80
 defined, 74
 in poetry, 74
 understanding vocabulary in, 154–155
- conventions, in this book, 2
- conversion chart, for multiple-choice
 score, 260
- Cooper, James Fennimore
The Deerslayer, 128

couplets
 described, 61
 example of, 298
 in sonnets, 66, 119
 in “Sunset in the Tropics”, 231
 course assignments, reading beyond, 38–39
 courtly love, 74
 coverage, focusing broadly in an open-ended essay, 213 credit, colleges awarding, 16
 “The Creditor to His Proud Debtor” (Horton), 86 “Credo” (Robinson), excerpt
 from, 79
 critical editions, of literary works, 41
 critical essays, reading about major works, 22
 criticism. See literary criticism
 crossword puzzles, solving, 326 crucial word, capitalized in an exam question, 153
The Crucible (Miller), 336
 setting of, 128
 Crum, Dana
At the Cross excerpt, 127, 187–188
 culture
 discussing a clash of, 215
 open-ended prompts addressing, 213

• D •

Dancing at Lughnasa (Friel), 336 dashes (—), indicating unfinished thoughts, 196
 dates of the exam, 18 dead white male (DWM), works not written by, 208
 deadlines, important, 18 Death of a Salesman (Miller), theme of, 139
 debates, listening to, 328 deciding, what to write, 43–46 Declaration of Independence,
 excerpt from, 164
 deeper meanings, in poetry, 70–74

The Deerslayer (Cooper), setting of, 128
 definitions, deciphering in the context of a poem, 79–80
 denouement, 125
 desk yoga, 26
Desperate Characters (Christopher), second-person point of view, 136
 detached tone, 299 details
 as evidence for the open-
 ended essay, 215
 in a memoir or biography, 149
 Dewey Decimal System, “800” numbers of, 40
 dialogue
 creating a personality and background, 130
 determining characterization
 in drama, 140
 evidence dealing with in essay
 on An Enemy of the People, 196 example in a passage, 163 poet relying on, 115 summarizing, 170
 Dickens, Charles Great Expectations, 242–243, 335
 Dickinson, Emily
 “I said just to be a bee”, 81 “Success”, 251, 266–270
 diction
 in “After Apple-Picking”, 117
 assessing in a story or novel, 134
 checking to figure out tone, 253
 defined, 60, 85, 133
 in drama, 140
 in an essay, 145
 formal throughout a poem, 260
 in “A London Thoroughfare. 2 A.M.”, 231
 noting in a literary work, 134–136
 questions on, 85–86
 quotations essential, 171 rhetorical techniques related
 to, 144

in a story or novel, 134–136
 and tone, 12
 understanding, 60
 dictionaries, consulting, 33 didactic mood, 115
 disinterested/uninterested
 word pair, 345
 distractions, avoiding in the exam room, 26
A Doll’s House (Ibsen), 336
Don Juan (Byron), excerpt
 from, 78
Don Quixote (Cervantes’), subject and themes of, 137
 Donne, John
 “A Valediction Forbidding Mourning”, 57
 double meanings, in poetry, 71 Douglass, Frederick autobiography excerpt, 147, 149–150
 drama
 blocking dialogue from, 173 particularities of, 138–140 drama essays
 answer guide for, 194–201
 organizing and discussing
 ideas, 173–175
 writing, 191–194
 drama passages
 analyzing, 151–152
 described, 123–124
 dramatic monologue, 139, 257 Dunbar, Paul Laurence
 “Not They Who Soar”, 251, 266–270
 dynamic characters, 129 dysgraphia, accommodations
 for, 20

• E • effect and cause structure, for an essay, 142

 effect/affect word pair, 345 effects, prose and drama questions focusing on, 151 either/or, noun-verb agreement
 with, 340
 electronic databases, finding literary criticism in, 41
 elegy, defined, 257

- “Elegy Before Death” (St. Vincent Millay), 244
- elimination, practicing the process of, 153–154
- Eliot, T. S.
The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock, 333
Murder in the Cathedral, 337
- “Ellic Camel Gets a Hit” (Johnson, Dave), 280–282, 295–297
- ellipses (. . .)
 inserting in quotations, 173
 in poetry essays, 94–95
 used in a novel, 301
- Emerson, Ralph Waldo, essay excerpt, 143–144
- emotion, quotations essential on, 172
- emphasis, in a memoir or biography, 149
- end-of-line rhymes, 61
- An Enemy of the People* (Ibsen)
 main points about, 195
 passage from, 191–192
- English class. See also AP English Literature class books studied in, 206 getting the most out of, 31–51 participating in, 329
 taking notes in, 37–38 writing assignments in, 43
- English Grammar For Dummies* (Woods), 322, 339
- English Grammar Workbook For Dummies* (Woods), 322, 339
- English notes, dedicating one notebook or loose-leaf section to, 37
- English sonnet
 described, 66
 rhyme scheme, 61
- enjambment
 defined, 64, 106, 256, 259
 example of, 299
- epics, 66
- equivalent statements, 155–156
- essay(s)
 answer guide for poetry, 114–120 arguing and exploring ideas on the exam, 142–146
 building, 46–48
 close reading of, 144
 crafting solid poetry, 112–114
 as excerpted nonfiction passages, 141
 honing the writing process, 43–48 injecting yourself into, 320 practicing effective compare/contrast, 223–228
 on poetic passages, 89–100 requirements, general, 114–115, 194–195, 228
 scoring, 15, 260–276, 302–303
 speed-writing, 27, 29–30
 structures of, 142–144
 writing on prose and drama passages, 165–178
- essay 1 (autobiography) in practice exam 2, scoring, 303–307
- essay 1 (drama)
 organization of, 197
 overall assessment of, 197
 potential points for, 195–197
- essay 1 (Major Barbara) in practice exam 1, scoring, 261–266
- essay 1 (paired passages)
 organization of, 230
 overall assessment, 230
 potential points for, 228–230
- essay 1 (poetry)
 organization of, 116
 overall assessment, 116
 potential points for, 115–116
- essay 2 (nonfiction)
 organization of, 198
 overall assessment of, 198
 potential points for, 197–198
- essay 2 (paired passages)
 organization of, 232
 overall assessment, 232
 potential points for, 230–232
- essay 2 (paired poems) in practice exam 1, scoring, 266–270
- essay 2 (poetry), potential points for, 116–118
- essay 3 (fiction)
 organization of, 200–201
 potential points for, 199–201
- essay 3 (paired passages)
 organization of, 233
 overall assessment, 233
 potential points for, 232–233
- essay 3 (poetry)
 organization of, 120
 overall assessment, 120
 potential points for, 118–120
- essay answer booklet, getting back for review, 17
- essay prompt(s)
 about, 13–14
 creating, 212
 prompt 1 (drama), 191–192
 prompt 1 in practice exam 2, 291–292
 prompt 1 (Major Barbara) in practice exam 1, 250–251 prompt 1 (paired passages), 223–225
 prompt 1 (poetry), 112
 prompt 2 in practice exam 2, 292
 prompt 2 (nonfiction), 192–193
 prompt 2 (paired passages), 226–227
 prompt 2 (paired poems) in practice exam 1, 251
 prompt 2 (poetry), 113
 prompt 3 (fiction), 193–194
 prompt 3 in practice exam 1, 252
 prompt 3 in practice exam 2, 293
 prompt 3 (paired passages), 227–228
 prompt 3 (poetry), 114
 on prose and drama, 165–167
 prose and drama sometimes breaking from tradition, 166
- essay section, of the exam, 9, 13
- Euripides
Medea, 337
- events
 order of, 147, 162–163
 space or emphasis given to, 36 “everybody”, as a singular pronoun, 341

- evidence
- from Broun's essay, 232–233
 - choosing for a prose or drama essay, 169
 - detecting and selecting for open-ended essays, 213–215
 - for essay 1 (drama), 195–196
 - for essay 2 (nonfiction), 197–198
 - gathering on “You Get What You Pay For” (Johnson, Dave), 115
 - gathering for an essay on “After Apple-Picking” (Frost), 116–118
 - gathering for an essay on Sonnet 56 (Shakespeare), 119
 - from Broun's essay, 232–233
 - providing for assertions, 13
 - supporting from “A London Thoroughfare. 2 A.M.” (Lowell), 231–232
 - from Woolcott's essay, 233
- exclamation point (!)
- avoiding in a literary essay, 195
 - intensifying emotions in drama, 196
- exposition
- after the initiating incident, 124
 - defined, 185
 - described, 186
 - plays beginning with, 138
- extended metaphor, 58
- F ●
- facial expression, as a subset of body language, 132
- fact question, example of a simple, 152–153
- facts, paying attention to, 152–153
- factual questions, in poetry multiple-choice, 77–82
- falling action, 125
- A Farewell to Arms* (Hemingway), 334
- fast reading, as a great advantage, 23
- Faulkner, William
- As I Lay Dying*, 334
- fees, related to receiving scores, 16
- Ferlinghetti, Lawrence
- “Constantly Risking Absurdity”, 65
- fiction
- conflict essential to, 126
 - employing various elements of, 36
 - passages, 123–124
- fictional people, manufacturing, 129
- figurative language
- in “After Apple-Picking”, 117
 - defined, 103, 109, 257
 - described, 12–13
 - in an essay, 146
 - example of, 110
 - example of moving into, 300
 - expressing creativity with, 56–59
 - looking for, 36
 - questions about, 83–84
 - in “Sunset in the Tropics”, 231
 - testing your ability to interpret, 155
- figures of speech. See also figurative language
- as building blocks of creative writing, 134
 - value in, 83–84
- final score, determining, 16
- first reading, of a prose or drama passage, 151, 167
- first-person point of view, 130, 133, 136, 257
- Fitzgerald, F. Scott
- The Great Gatsby*, 215, 335
 - “Over Tilly”, 170, 173
- flair, writing with, 48–51
- flashbacks, in memoir and biography, 146
- flash-forward, in memoirs, 147
- focus
- narrowing without a prompt, 45
 - reminders of, 44
- foreshadowing, 125
- form
- described, 13
 - of a poem, 63–66
- formal writing, using, 322
- fragments, 339
- frame, around a main plot, 36
- frame story, 125
- framework, creating for an essay, 46–48
- Frankenstein* (Shelley), 334
- structure of, 36
- free association
- applying to poetry, 71–72
 - described, 35–36
 - using for symbol-hunting, 59
- free verse
- defined, 257
 - described, 66, 255
- Friel, Brian
- Dancing at Lughnasa*, 336
- Frost, Robert
- “After Apple-Picking”, 113, 116–118
 - “Good Hours”, 284–285
- full-length-only rule, 206
- fun, reading for, 38
- G ●
- genres (types)
- concentrating on known, 26
 - of literature, 2
 - open-ended prompts addressing, 213
- Glaspell, Susan
- Trifles*, 153–154, 337
- The Glass Menagerie* (Williams), 336
- Golding, William
- The Lord of the Flies*, 38, 39, 128, 335
- good analysis, examples of, 97
- “Good Hours” (Frost), 284
- graders, of poetry essays, 93
- grading
- in an AP class, 10
 - of essays on the exam, 15
- grammar
- getting sloppy with, 321–322
 - review of, 339–345

- grammatical structure, singling out in poetry, 80–82
- graphic novels, selecting for the open-ended essay, 207
- Great Expectations* (Dickens), 335
- excerpt from, 242–243
- The Great Gatsby* (Fitzgerald), 335
- supporting detail in, 215
- green booklet, not seen by graders, 93
- guessing, on multiple-choice questions, 14
- Gulliver's Travels* (Swift), 335
- excerpt from, 288–289
- H ●
- half-and-half approach, to paired-passage essays, 221–222
- Hamlet* (Shakespeare), 336–337
- essay scoring practice, 274–275
- recording notes on, 210
- Hansberry, Lorraine
- A Raisin in the Sun*, 337
- Hawthorne, Nathaniel
- The Scarlet Letter*, 336
- Heart of Darkness* (Conrad), 335
- Heller, Joseph
- Catch 22*, 334
- Hemingway, Ernest
- A Farewell to Arms*, 334
- heroic couplets, 255
- he/verb combinations, in an essay, 145
- highlighting, difficult sections while reading, 33
- history, bringing to bear on AP exam questions, 129
- holistic scoring, 15
- Hollander, John, 65
- Homer
- Illiad*, 333
- Odyssey*, 333
- home-schooled students, contacting an AP Coordinator, 17–18
- homework reading, techniques for, 32–36
- honors English class, compared to AP English, 10
- Horton, George Moses
- “The Creditor to His Proud Debtor”, 86
- “How Soon Hath Time” (Milton), excerpt from, 95
- Hurston, Zora Neale
- Their Eyes Were Watching God*, 336
- hyperbole
- defined, 256, 258, 299
- described, 117, 168
- example of, 186
- I ●
- “I said, just to be a bee” (Dickinson), 81
- iambic pentameter, 63, 255
- Ibsen, Henrik
- A Doll's House*, 336
- An Enemy of the People* passage, 191–192
- icons, in this book, 4–5
- ID number, on the student pack, 19
- ideas
- fleshing out in complete sentences, 30
- identifying the most important, 37
- putting in order for a poetry essay, 92
- space or emphasis given to, 36
- writing in random order, 324
- identity, open-ended prompts addressing, 213
- Illiad* (Homer), 333
- illusion/allusion word pair, 345
- imagery
- in “After Apple-Picking”, 116–117
- considering the significance of sensations, 82–83
- defined, 103
- described, 256
- in a poem, 55–56
- imagination, as the lifeblood of figurative language, 56
- The Importance of Being Ernest* (Wilde), excerpt from, 139
- IM-speak, avoiding, 30
- “In Memorium A.H.H.” (Tennyson), excerpt from, 65
- Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl, Written by Herself* (Jacobs)
- essay scoring practice, 303–307
- passage from, 291–292
- incongruity, 168
- index cards, defining unfamiliar words, 42
- index-card dictionary, adding to, 42
- inference(s)
- defined, 157
- making about plot, 125
- inference questions
- approach to, 158
- described, 12, 85, 157–159
- formats of, 157–158
- initiating incident, beginning a story, 124
- “Inland” (St. Vincent Millay), 105
- insertions, clunky and smooth in a poetry essay, 93–94
- interactive learning, 38
- internal conflict, depicting in theater, 139
- internal rhymes, 61–62
- Internet, sites for literary criticism, 41
- Internet Public Library (IPL), 41
- interpretation questions
- described, 156–160
- in poetry multiple-choice, 82–88
- interpretive questions, on non-fiction, 141
- introduction(s)
- to an AP essay, 194
- of an essay, 46–47
- examples of effective, 169
- of a poetry essay, 91–92
- introductory paragraph, summarizing the plot, 214
- inverted structure, 257

Invisible Man (Wright), 335
 IPL (Internet Public Library), 41 irony
 described, 58, 59, 168, 186, 255
 in essays on censorship, 232
 example of, 296
 examples, 59
 issues, in a work of literary quality, 206 Italian sonnet, 66
 its/it's word pair, 345
 I-verb repetitive pattern, 115

• J •

Jacobs, Harriet
 Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl, Written by Herself, 291–292, 303–307
 Jacob's Room (Woolf), 286–288
 Jane Eyre (Bronte, Charlotte), 335
 passage from, 159
 January preceding the exam,
 preparation during, 23
Joe Turner's Come and Gone
 (Wilson), 337
 Johnson, Dave
 “Ellic Camel Gets a Hit”,
 280–282, 295–297
 “You Get What You Pay For”,
 112, 115, 116
 Johnson, James Weldon
 The Autobiography of an Ex-Colored Man, 334
 “Mother Night”, 249
 “Sunset in the Tropics”, 226
 Jones, Hettie
 “Civil War”, 223–224, 228–229
 “Words”, 248–249
Jo's Boys (Alcott), selection
 from, 126
The Joy Luck Club (Tan), 335
 Joyce, James
 A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man, 335
JStor, 41
 juxtaposition asking about, 162
 using in essays, 221

• K •

Kafka, Franz
 The Metamorphosis, 50, 335
 Keats, John last lines written by, 60
 “Ode on a Grecian Urn”, 34, 35
 “This Living Hand” poetic fragment, 60
 key facts, recording about a literary work, 32
 key words, keeping in mind
 from a prompt, 91

• L • language, paying close attention to, 36 laundry list approach, to essay

 scoring, 15
 layers of meaning, in a work of literary quality, 206
 Lee, Harper
 To Kill a Mockingbird, 136 legal notices, reading before the exam, 19 legibility, of essays, 30
 Lewis, Sinclair
 Main Street, 193–194, 199–200 librarians, consulting, 41 library card, using, 327 life, statement about in an open-ended essay prompt, 212 life experiences, applying to a poem, 75
 line breaks emphasizing a sense of alienation, 232 indicating with a slash or with a blocked quotation, 94
 in a poem, 64
 line numbers citing in poetry essays, 95–96
 citing quotations by, 178
 “Lines Composed a Few Miles Above Tintern Abbey” (Wordsworth), 240–241
 listening, to a poem, 73–74 literal content, in prose and drama passages, 169
 literal meaning decoding in poetry, 67–70
 determining, 11
 literal questions on nonfiction, 141
 pointing out obvious, 152–156 literary criticism
 defined, 40
 finding well-written, 40–41
 reading, 39–41
 literary devices, in essay 2 (nonfiction), 198
 literary essay, injecting yourself into, 320
 literary magazine, poems and stories for, 326 literary passages, making notes on, 27, 28
 literary quality
 adhering to standards of, 206–207
 good, 10
 literary selections on the exam, 10
 quoting from, 13
 reading on the exam, 29
 literary techniques, quotations essential on, 171 literary terminology, laundry list approach to, 15 literary terms, falling out of favor on the exam, 13 literary works assignments in response to a specific question about, 43 categories of, 208 choosing to prepare for the AP exam, 208
 list of in an open-ended essay
 prompt, 212
 listing of, 333–338 preparing for AP use, 205–211 literature
 decoding and interpreting, 32–36
 selecting for the open-ended
 essay, 207
 statement about in an open-ended essay prompt, 212 talking about at lunch, 327 types to avoid on the open-
 ended essay, 207

- Literature class. See AP English Literature class
- Literature Resource Center*, 41
- location, considering in a passage, 162
- logical progression, in an essay, 50
- “A London Thoroughfare. 2 A.M.” (Lowell), 226–227
- main points, 230–231
- supporting evidence for, 231–232
- A Long Day’s Journey into Night* (O’Neill), 337
- looks, of characters, 129–130
- lopsided essay, avoiding, 214
- The Lord of the Flies* (Golding)
- described, 335
- sample form on, 38, 39
- setting of, 128
- The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock* (Eliot), 333
- Lovelace, Richard
- “To Lucasta, Going to the Wars”, 61–62, 69–70
- Lowell, Amy
- “A London Thoroughfare. 2 A.M.”, 226–227
- lunching, with literature, 327
- M ●
- Macbeth* (Shakespeare), 337, 313–314
- main character, narrating a story, 130
- main idea, identifying, 156–157
- main points
- Broun essay, 232
- “Civil War” (Jones), 228–229
- developing for a poetry essay, 115, 116, 118–119
- An Enemy of the People* (Ibsen), 195
- for essay 1 (drama), 195
- for essay 2 (nonfiction), 197
- “A London Thoroughfare. 2 A.M.” (Lowell), 230–231
- Main Street* (Lewis), 199
- “Returning” (Wender), 228–229
- “Sunset in the Tropics” (Weldon), 230–231
- Woollcott essay, 232
- Main Street* (Lewis)
- excerpt from, 193–194
- main points about excerpt, 199–200
- main-idea questions, 156–157
- Major Barbara* (Shaw)
- excerpt from, 250–251
- essay scoring practice, 261–266
- major events, passages covering, 131–132
- makeup week, exam during, 19
- Malamud, Bernard
- The Natural*, book compared to movie, 206
- Man and Superman* (Shaw), 337
- March preceding the exam, preparation, 24
- marginal notes, about a poem, 91
- margins, in a poem, 65
- meaning
- aspects queried in prose and drama prompts, 165
- summarizing in an essay, 320
- mechanics, 261
- Medea* (Euripides), 337
- Melville, Herman
- “Misgivings” excerpt, 83
- Moby-Dick*, 35, 335
- memoirs
- analyzing, 149
- analyzing passages from, 147
- defined, 146
- as excerpted nonfiction passages, 141
- memory, open-ended prompts
- addressing, 213
- The Metamorphosis* (Kafka), 335
- writing about, 50
- metaphors
- compared to symbols, 58
- defined, 56, 254, 258, 259
- example of, 57, 183, 299
- extended, 58
- in nonfiction, 146
- in a poem, 72
- in Sonnet 56, 119
- meter (rhythm)
- in poetry, 62–63
- in questions about structure, 88
- Miller, Arthur
- The Crucible*, 128, 336
- Death of a Salesman*, 139
- Milton, John
- “How Soon Hath Time”
- excerpt, 95
- “When I Consider How My Light Is Spent”, 59
- minor characters, prompt
- asking about effects on major characters, 211
- “Misgivings” (Melville), excerpt from, 83
- mistakes, avoiding on essays, 319–324
- Moby-Dick* (Melville), 335
- themes in, 35
- mocking tone, example of, 185
- “A Modest Proposal” (Swift), passage from, 159–160
- monologue, defined, 103
- mood, quotations essential on, 171
- mood of a poem, characterizing, 115
- Morrison, Toni
- Beloved*, 216, 334
- “Mother Night” (Johnson, James Weldon), 249
- motivation, quotations essential on, 172
- movies, based on plays, 328
- Mrs. Dalloway* (Woolf), 335
- point of view in, 137
- sample essay on, 272–273
- multiple options, choosing an answer from, 179–191
- multiple-choice conversion chart, 260
- multiple-choice conversion formula, 302
- multiple-choice poetry questions, 77–88, 101–111
- multiple-choice prose and drama questions, conquering, 151–164

multiple-choice questions
 described, 11–13
 not discussing, 26
 scoring, 14, 253–260
 scoring for practice exam 2, 295–302
 zooming through, 26–27
 multiple-choice section, of the exam, 9, 11–13
Murder in the Cathedral (Eliot), 337 must-have info, recording for the open-ended essay, 209
 “My Last Duchess” (Browning), point of view in, 75

• N •

narration, example in a passage, 163
 narrative
 defined, 103
 in a memoir or biography, 149
 narrator, as the “I” voice in prose, 130
 narrators compared to authors, 301
 number of, 134
 unreliable, 131
 narrator/speaker word pair, 345
The Natural (Malamud), book compared to movie, 206 nature, characters against, 126 neither/nor, noun-verb agreement with, 340
 night before the exam, preparation, 25
Noncensorship, essays protesting censorship, 232
 nonfiction, on the exam, 141–142
 nonfiction passages, reading, 141–150
 non-print works, avoiding on
 the open-ended essay, 207
 non-published works, avoiding on the open-ended essay, 207 Northanger Abbey (Austen),
 excerpt from, 184–185
 “Not They Who Soar” (Dunbar), 251, 266–270

notes
 adapting to answer several question types, 209–211
 compiling on chosen works, 208–211
 grouping into subtopics, 29 taking in English class, 37–38 taking prior to writing an essay, 91
 notetaking, techniques of, 37–38
 noun-verb and noun-pronoun agreement, 340–341
 novellas, selecting for the open-
 ended essay, 207
 novels, listing of quality, 334–336

• O • object pronouns, 341 objects, associated with characters, 133

 octave, in a sonnet, 66 “Ode on a Grecian Urn” (Keats),
 excerpt from, 34, 35
 odes, described, 66
Odyssey (Homer), 333
Oedipus Rex (Sophocles), 337
 one year in advance preparation, for the exam, 22
 O’Neill, Eugene
Anna Christie, 140, 161, 173
A Long Day’s Journey into Night, 337
 “only”, misplacement of, 344
 onomatopoeia, defined, 254, 259 open-ended essay, 4
 described, 14
 example, 216–217
 evaluation, 217
 fiction and drama always the basis for, 123
 grading for practice test 2, 312–316
 grading of, 270–275
 preparing for, 205–217 selecting works for, 206–207 skimming notes on, 26

open-ended essay prompts, standard elements of,
 212–213
 open-ended questions, focus of, 205 order of events
 analyzing, 147
 considering, 162–163
Othello (Shakespeare), culture clash in, 215
 “Over Tilly” (Fitzgerald), 170, 173
 overall AP exam score calculating for practice exam 1, 275–276
 calculating for practice exam
 2, 316
 overall assessment, of a poetry
 essay, 116, 118, 120
 Owen, Wilfred
 “Arms and the Boy”, 98
 Oxymoron, 104

• P • paired conjunctions, paral-lelism problem stemming

 from, 344
 paired passages annotating and gathering ideas from, 220–221
 described, 4
 essays, 219, 221–223
 prompts, 219–220, 223–228
 questions, 142
 paired passages (essay 1)
 organization of, 230
 overall assessment, 230
 potential points for, 228–230
 prompt for, 223–225
 paired passages (essay 2)
 organization of, 232
 overall assessment, 232
 potential points for, 230–232
 prompt for, 226–227
 paired passages (essay 3)
 organization of, 233
 overall assessment, 233
 potential points for, 232–233
 prompt for, 227–228

- paired selection, essay questions described, 14
- paragraph/stanza word pair, 345
- parallel characters or situations, prompt asking how, 211
- parallel structure, 257
- parallelism, 344–345
- parallels, in poetry, 106
- paraphrasing, a poem, 68, 70
- parent-child relationships, prompt asking how, 211
- parts of a work, open-ended prompts addressing, 213
- passages. See also paired passages
- length of, 123
 - reading quickly through once, 151
 - rereading slowly, 152
- passive voice, avoiding, 47
- past tense, in an essay, 48
- pattern breaks, in poetry, 62
- patterns, created by poets, 62
- pedantic, meaning of, 85
- people, identifying in a poem, 68–69
- persona, creating a fictional, 259
- personality traits, of characters, 129
- personification
- defined, 57, 74, 254, 256, 258
 - example of, 259, 299
 - examples, 57
 - in nonfiction, 146
 - in “Sunset in the Tropics”, 231
- photo-ID, government-issued, 18
- phrases, underlining or highlighting, 35–36
- The Piano Lesson* (Wilson), 337
- plagiarism, described, 40
- planning, an essay, 44–46
- planning stage, for essay writing, 27, 29
- plays, listing of quality, 336–338
- plot
- in book-length poems and prose plays, 209
 - defined, 124
 - described, 124–126
 - determining how much to include in an open-ended essay, 214–215
 - non-chronological, 125
 - in plays, 138
 - summarizing in an essay, 320
- plot landmarks, pinpointing in an excerpted passage, 125–126
- plot points
- detecting, 125–126
 - jotting down, 32
 - seldom worth quoting, 170
- plot structure, recalling, 124–125
- plot summary, avoiding, 213
- poems
- analyzing, 69–70
 - annotating, 34, 35
 - avoiding on the open-ended essay, 207
 - comparison of two by one author, 220
 - listing of classic, 333
 - making notes on, 27, 28
 - reading, 89
 - standard forms of, 66
- poetic devices
- prompt focusing on, 96
 - sorting out, 55–66
- poetic language, coming to terms with, 74
- poetic meaning
- discovering, 67–69
 - unraveling, 67–75
- poetic passages, mastering
- essay questions on, 89–100
- poetic techniques
- examining, 37
 - relating to content, 88
 - significance of an image and a comparison of, 220
- poetic techniques phrase, in prompts, 90
- poetic work, writing about on the open-ended essay, 209
- poetry
- bringing your own experience to, 75
 - deeper meanings in, 70–74
 - form of, 63–66
 - poetry essays
 - adding commentary, 96–97
 - answer guide for, 114–120
 - conclusion of, 97–98
 - crafting solid, 112–114
 - evaluation of, 99–100
 - general requirements, 114–115
 - mechanics of writing, 93–96
 - sample, 98–100
 - sample about “Arms and the Boy”, 98–99
 - poetry prompts, standard elements in, 89–90
 - poetry quotations, punctuating properly, 94–95
 - poetry readings, attending, 325–326
 - point of view
 - described, 136–137
 - in poetry, 74, 75
 - of a story, 133
 - “A Poison Tree” (Blake), 59
 - polishing, essays, 30
 - Pope, Alexander
 - The Rape of the Lock*, 333
 - A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man* (Joyce), 335
 - possessive pronouns, 341
 - practical aspects, of the exam, 17–20
 - practice exam 1
 - questions and essays, 239–252
 - scoring, 253–276
 - practice exam 2
 - questions and essays, 279–293
 - scoring, 295–316
 - practice set 1 (nonfiction), 179–184
 - practice set 1, of multiple-choice poetry questions, 101–105
 - practice set 2 (fiction), 184–187
 - practice set 2, of multiple-choice poetry questions, 105–108
 - practice set 3 (fiction), 187–191
 - practice set 3, of multiple-choice poetry questions, 108–111
 - pre-exam preparation, 22–25
 - preparation, for the exam, 21–30 present tense opting for, 343 writing an essay in, 195

 writing in, 48

present-tense-for-literature rule, exception to, 343

Pride and Prejudice (Austen), 336 annotated excerpt from, 34
 themes in, 137

problem and solution structure,
 for an essay, 142

proctor, 18, 19

The Promised Land (Antin),
 excerpt from, 246–247

prompts
 decoding, 2
 defined, 89
 dissecting, 44–45
 essay on prose and drama, 165–167
 in essay questions, 13–14 linking technique and meaning, 97
 reading carefully, 27, 44 restating the question in, 44

pronoun agreement, 340–341

pronoun case, 341–342

pronoun clarity, 342

pronoun reference, questions
 addressing, 163

pronouns, questions on, 81

ProQuest Learning, 41

prose
 annotation of, 34
 described, 124

prose and drama
 multiple-choice questions,
 samples of, 179–191
 passages, plan for reading, 167–169

prose essays
 answer guide for, 194–201
 organizing and discussing
 ideas, 173–175
 sample, 175–178
 writing, 191–194

prose fiction. See fiction

prose passage, analyzing, 151–152

prose poems
 defined, 307
 described, 124
 example of, 292

protagonist, in poetry, 130

punctuation
 evidence dealing with in essay
on An Enemy of the People, 196
 in a poem, 68
 reviewing in a poem, 69
 of titles of full-length works, 206

• Q •

quality literature, standards for, 333

quatrain, in a sonnet, 66, 119

question and answer structure,
 for an essay, 143, 144

question types, preparing for several on the open-ended
 essay, 209–211

questions
 extracting points to answer four different, 211 not answering, 319
 typical AP exam, 10–14

quotation marks (“”), in poetry
 essays, 94–95

quotations
 citing in poetry essays, 95–96
 concluding with, 48
 inserting in a poetry essay, 93–94
 inserting into the open-ended
 essay, 209
 punctuating in poetry essays, 94–95 recognizing when essential, 171–172
 selecting and inserting appropriate, 172–173
 selecting for a poetry essay, 92

quoted statements, about the subject of a memoir or biography, 149

quoting, knowing when to, 170

• R •

A Raisin in the Sun
 (Hansberry), 337

random order, writing ideas in, 324

The Rape of the Lock (Pope), 333 reader’s notebook, keeping, 32 reading, beyond course assignments, 38–39

reading comprehension
 extracting details from poetry, 77–78
 working on, 31–37

reading comprehension questions, described, 152–160

reading windsprint, 23

reality, open-ended prompts
 addressing, 213

recent books or plays, selecting for the open-ended essay, 207 reduced fees, due to financial need, 17

references, to earlier events in biography and memoir, 146

Remarque, Erich Maria
All Quiet on the Western Front, 138

“Renters” (Allman), 101–102

repeating yourself, in an essay, 323–324

repetition arising from a lack of confidence, 324
 effects of, 255

rereading, a prose or drama passage, 168

“Returning” (Wender)
 main points, 228–229
 points about, 223, 225–226

reviewing, essays, 30

rhetoric, in essays, 144

rhetorical question, defined, 257, 258

rhetorical techniques
 in memoir and biography, 148–150
 paying attention to, 144–146

- rhyme
 in poetry, 61–62
 in questions about structure, 88
- rhyme scheme
 irregular emphasizing unpredictability of life, 117 naming, 61
- rhythm (meter)
 in poetry, 62–63
 in questions about structure, 88
- “Richard Corey” (Robinson), excerpt from, 87
- “The Rime of the Ancient Mariner” (Coleridge), imagery in, 55–56
- rising action, 125
- Robinson, Edward Arlington
 “Credo” excerpt, 79
 “Richard Corey” excerpt, 87
- Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead* (Stoppard), 337
- Rozakis, Laurie
Vocabulary For Dummies, 42
- run-ons, 339
- S ●
- Salinger, J. D.
The Catcher in the Rye, 334
- sample answer 1
 for essay 1 in practice exam 1, 263, 264
 for essay 1 in practice exam 2, 305–306
 for essay 2 in practice exam 1, 268–269
 for essay 2 in practice exam 2, 309, 310
 for essay 3 (open-ended) in practice exam 1, 272–274
 for essay 3 (open-ended) in practice test 2, 313–314
- sample answer 2
 for essay 1 in practice exam 1, 264–266
 for essay 1 in practice exam 2, 306, 307
 for essay 2 in practice exam 1, 269–270
- for essay 2 in practice exam 2, 310–311
- for essay 3 (open-ended) in practice exam 1, 274–275
- for essay 3 (open-ended) in practice exam 2, 315–316
- sample poetry essay, 98–99
- sample prose essay, 175–178
- sarcasm, example of, 133
- satire, example of, 301
- “A Scandal in Bohemia” (Sherlock Holmes story), 136
- The Scarlet Letter* (Hawthorne), 336
- scheduling, exam preparation, 21
- school literary magazine, poems and stories for, 326
- school publications, writing for, 326
- scope, narrowing for an open-ended essay, 214
- score
 canceling, 16
 receiving, 16–17
 withholding from a particular college, 16
- scoring
 essays, 15, 260–276
 of the exam, 14–17
 multiple-choice, 14
- scoring grid
 for essay 1 practice exam 1, 261–263
 for essay 1 practice exam 2, 303–305
 for essay 2 in practice exam 1, 266–268
 for essay 2 in practice exam 2, 308–309
 for essay 3 (open-ended) on practice test 1, 271–272
 for essay 3 (open-ended) on practice test 2, 312–313
- second-person point of view, 136
- The Secret Sharer* (Conrad), excerpt from, 175–176
- section 1: multiple choice
 in practice exam 1, 240–249
 in practice exam 2, 280–290
- section 2: essays
 in practice exam 1, 250–252
 in practice exam 2, 291–293
- selection of detail, quotations essential on, 172
- selections, reading both in a paired passage, 220
- semicolon, in a poem, 68
- Sense and Sensibility* (Austen), passages from, 132
- sensory details. See imagery
- sentence pattern, in an essay, 144
- sentence structure
 adult-level in a work of literary quality, 206 avoiding overly complicated, 49–50
 questions about, 163
- sentences
 long giving a sense of urgency, 145
 structure of, 81
 underlining or highlighting, 35–36
 untangling complicated, 342
- September preceding the exam, preparation during, 22–23
- Services for Students with Disabilities Eligibility (SSDE) form, 20
- Services for Students with Disabilities Office, of the College Board, 20
- sestet, in a sonnet, 66
- setting
 described, 128–129
 in drama, 139–140
 effects on a story’s meaning, 128
 for essay 2 (nonfiction), 197, 198
 identifying in a poem, 69
- Shakespeare, William Hamlet, 210, 336–337
Macbeth, 337, 313–314
Othello, 215
 Sonnet 56, 114
Twelfth Night, 338
- Shakespearean sonnet, points for an essay on, 118–120
- shape poems, 65

- Shaw, George Bernard fame of, 261
Major Barbara, 250–251, 261–266
Man and Superman, 337
 “She Dwelt Among the Untrodden Ways” (Wordsworth), 62–63 visualization while reading, 73
- Shelley, Mary Frankenstein, 36, 334
- Sherlock Holmes story, “A Scandal in Bohemia”, 136
- shift questions, variations of, 162
- shifts
 described, 162
 in imagery, 82
 quotations essential on, 172
 short stories, avoiding on the open-ended essay, 207 showing up, for the exam, 18–19 sickness, on exam day, 19
 signing up, for the exam, 17–18 silence, maintaining in the exam room, 18 similarities-and-differences approach, to paired-passage essays, 223
- similes
 defined, 56
 example of, 299
 in nonfiction, 146
 in a poem, 72
- singular pronouns, 340
- situation, identifying in a poem, 69
- situational irony, 58
- slashes (/)
- marking through obvious wrong answers, 27
 - in poetry essays, 94
- sleep, importance of, 329
- social norms, open-ended prompts addressing, 213
- society, characters against, 126
- soliloquy, 139
- Sonnet 56 (Shakespeare)
 described, 114
 gathering evidence for an essay on, 119
 organization of an essay on, 120
- sonnets
 defined, 257, 259
 described, 61, 66
- Sophocles
Antigone, 35, 315, 336
Oedipus Rex, 337
- sound adding meaning to poetry, 61–63
 in “After Apple-Picking”, 117–118
- sound patterns
 in “A London Thoroughfare. 2 A.M.”, 232
 in a poem, 73
- speaker
 as the “I” voice, 130
 in a poem, 68
- speaker/narrator word pair, 345
- special needs, dealing with, 20
- specifics
 leaving out, 323
 topping generalities in literary essays, 171
- speed-reading, taking up, 23
- speed-writing, essays, 27, 29–30
- spelling, getting sloppy with, 321–322
- “Spraying the Chickens” (Allman), 292
- scoring an essay on, 307–311
- SSDE (Services for Students with Disabilities Eligibility) form, 20
- St. Vincent Millay, Edna “Elegy Before Death”, 244–245 “Inland”, 105
- stage directions, in An Enemy of the People, 196
- stage set, 139–140
- standard forms, of poems, 66
- stanza breaks, in poetry, 65
- stanza/paragraph word pair, 345
- stanzas
 defined, 69
 described, 65
- state of mind, quotations essential on, 172
- statement about life or literature, in an open-ended essay prompt, 212
- statements, choosing specific over general, 49
- Stephen, Leslie, essay excerpt, 144–146
- Stevens, Wallace
 “Thirteen Ways of Looking at a Blackbird”, 209
- Stoppard, Tom
Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead, 337
- straightforward factual questions, answering, 152
- strategies, for saving time, 26–30
- strengths, analyzing your, 329
- structure
 considering, 36
 described, 13
 of essays, 142–144
 of the exam, 9–10
 of poems, 86–87
- structure questions
 described, 162
 on poetry, 86–87
- student pack, 19
- students, paying attention to in class, 38
- study-buddy, finding in English class, 38
- studying, activities reinforcing, 325–329
- style. See also writing style author’s purpose in choosing elements of, 160–161
 described, 13
 elements of, 165
 in fiction and drama, 133–137
 improving your, 48–51
 recognizing, 36–37
 role of, 160–164
- style portion, of an essay prompt, 166
- subject of a book, 137
 direct statements by in a memoir or biography, 148
 in a sentence, 339
 of a verb, 81
 of a verb phrase, 256
- subject pronouns, 341
- subject-verb agreement, 340
- subject-verb order, poets fiddling with, 68

- subject-verb-complement, establishing, 68
- subplots, 125
- subtext, excavating, 35–36
- subtopics choosing, 46 creating for a poetry essay, 91
 defined, 46
 one paragraph for each, 174
 in paired-passage essays, 222
 placing in order, 29
- “Success” (Dickinson), 251, 266–270
- summarizing, the plot or meaning, 320
- summary, in a memoir or biography, 149
- summer reading, planning quality, 22
- “Sunset in the Tropics”
 (Johnson, James Weldon), 226, 230–231
- Swift, Jonathan
 “A Modest Proposal”, 159–160
 Gulliver’s Travels, 288–290, 335
- symbolism
 defined, 256
 examples, 59
- symbols
 defined, 258, 300
 described, 58
 obviousness of, 59
 quotations essential on, 172
 revealing, 35–36
- synecdoche
 defined, 57
 examples, 58
- syntax checking in a poem, 68
 defined, 60, 68, 80, 163
 in drama, 140
 of a passage, 145
 in a poem, 69–70
 quotations essential on, 172
 rhetorical techniques related
 to, 144
 singling out grammatical structure in poetry, 80–82
 in Sonnet 56, 119
 untangling, 11
 in “You Get What You Pay For”, 115
- syntax questions
 described, 163–164
 focus of, 81–82
- T •
- Tan, Amy
 The Joy Luck Club, 335
- technique, role of, 160–164
- The Tenant of Wildfell Hall*
 (Bronte, Anne), excerpt
 from, 162–163
- ten-minute break, during the exam, 19
- Tennyson, Alfred, Lord
 “In Memorium A.H.H.”, 65
- tense
 defined, 343
 past, 48
 present, 48, 195, 343
- test center, time required at, 10
- test day, showing up, 18–19
- test preparation. See preparation
- test site, finding an alternate route to, 25
- text, analyzing in relation to the prompt, 174
- textual knowledge, showing for the entire work, 214
- theater
 as a collaborative art, 138
 going to, 328
- Their Eyes Were Watching God*
 (Hurston), 336
- thematic approach, to paired-passage essays, 222–223
- themed publications, topical research for, 326
- themes
 defined, 35
 in dramatic works, 139
 in fiction and drama, 137–138
 identifying in a literary work, 137–138
 imagery reinforcing, 82
 in plays, 138
 in a poem, 72
- thesis
 defined, 45
 of an essay, 43
- thesis statement(s) constructing for an essay on a prose or drama passage, 168–169
 creating, 29, 45–46
 creating for a paired-passage
 essay, 221
 creating for a poetry essay, 91
 creating for an open-ended
 essay, 213
 examples of good, 46
 Things Fall Apart (Achebe), 336
- third-person limited, 137
- third-person omniscient, 137
- third-person point of view, 137
- “Thirteen Ways of Looking at a Blackbird” (Stevens), shifting reality of, 209
- “This Living Hand” (Keats), poetic fragment, 60
- Thoreau, Henry David, essay
 by, 179–180
- time period, writing about, 321
- timeline constructing, 147
 determining in a plot, 125
- time-saving techniques, for the multiple-choice questions, 26–27
- titles of full-length works, 206 imagining for main-idea questions, 157
- To Kill a Mockingbird* (Lee),
 point of view in, 136
- “To Lucasta, Going to the Wars” (Lovelace), 61–62
 analyzing, 69–70
- To the Lighthouse* (Woolf) important events placed in brackets, 36
 issues in, 206
- “To the Right Honourable William” (Wheatley),
 excerpt from, 65
- tone
 assessing in a story or novel, 134 checking diction to figure out, 253
 defined, 60, 85
 detached, 299

tone (continued)
 of an essay, 144
 example of mocking, 185
 in literature, 133
 noting in a literary work, 134–136
 of a poem, 109
 questions on, 12, 85–86, 159–160
 quotations essential on, 172
 in a story or novel, 134–136
 understanding, 60
 topic sentence, of a paragraph, 47–48
 tragedy, 208 tragic hero, open-ended essay example about, 216
 transitions, knitting body paragraphs together, 48 Trifles (Glaspell), 337
 excerpt from, 153–154
 Twain, Mark
The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, 334
Twayne's Authors Series, 41
Twelfth Night (Shakespeare), 338
*Twenty Thousand Leagues
 Under the Sea* (Verne),
 excerpt from, 133, 157
 two weeks before the exam, preparation during, 24–25

• U • uncertainty, reinforcing, 115 underlining difficult sections while reading, 33

 phrases, 35–36
 sentences, 35–36
 words, 42, 44
 understatement, 168
 unfamiliar words, underlining or listing, 42
 uninterested/disinterested
 word pair, 345
 universal issues, addressed by open-ended prompts, 213 university-sponsored sites, identifying on the Internet, 41

unknown words, dealing with, 33 unreliable narrators, 131

• V •

“A Valediction Forbidding Mourning” (Donne), con-ceits in, 57
 variety in literary terms, 208
 spicing up writing, 50–51
 verb agreement of, 340
 in a sentence, 339
 tense of, 343
 verbal irony, 58
 Verne, Jules
*Twenty Thousand Leagues
 Under the Sea*, 133, 157 visualization, of poetry, 72–73 vocabulary adult-level in a work of literary quality, 206
 building, 41–42
 examining individual words in poetry, 80
 improving, 22
 understanding in context, 154–155
Vocabulary For Dummies
 (Rozakis), 42
 vocabulary-in-context questions
 described, 11, 154–155
 understanding, 74–75

• W •

Waiting for Godot (Beckett), 338
 Walker, Alice
The Color Purple, 334
 Warren, Robert Penn
All the King's Men, 334
 web of ideas, creating, 45
 Web site for College Board, 24 well-organized essay component, of a prompt, 90
 Wender, Abby
 “Aphasia”, 286
 “Returning”, 223, 225–226

Wharton, Edith
The Age of Innocence, 282–284
 Wheatley, Phyllis
 “To the Right Honourable
 William” excerpt, 65
 “When I Consider How My Light Is Spent” (Milton), allusion
 from, 59
 Whitney, Isabella
 “A Communication Which the Author Had to London, Before She Made Her Will”,
 64 whole work, relating the part
 to, 215
Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf
 (Albee), 338
 why, answering in analysis, 97
 wildcard prompts, 220 Wilde, Oscar
The Importance of Being Ernest, 139
 “The Canterville Ghost”, 134–135
 Williams, Tennessee
The Glass Menagerie, 336
 Wilson, August
Joe Turner's Come and Gone, 337
The Piano Lesson, 337 withheld scores, 16
 Woods, Geraldine
College Admissions Essays For Dummies, 142
English Grammar For Dummies, 322, 339
*English Grammar Workbook
 For Dummies*, 322, 339
 Woolf, Virginia
Jacob's Room excerpt, 286–287
To the Lighthouse, 36
Mrs. Dalloway, 137, 272–273, 335 Woollcott, Alexander
 essay main points, 232
 essay passage, 227–228
 evidence from, 233
 word choice and arrangement, questioning, 163–164
 word in context, asking for the meaning of, 256

- word-for-word transcript, as a waste of time and energy, 37
- words
connotations of, 42 dealing with unknown, 33
differentiating between confusing, 345
underlining in a prompt, 44
underlining or listing unfamiliar, 42
zeroing in on unfamiliar in a
poem, 68
- “Words” (Jones), 248–249
- Wordsworth, William “Lines Composed a Few Miles Above Tintern Abbey”,
240–241
“She Dwelt Among the Untrodden Ways”, 62–63, 73
“The World Is Too Much with Us”, 108
- work as a whole, relating to, 213, 215
- work that you love, preparing for the exam, 208
- workshops, on essay scoring, 15
- “The World Is Too Much with Us” (Wordsworth), 108
- Wright, Richard
Invisible Man, 335
- Writer’s Block, 43
- writing
with flair, 48–51
spicing up with variety, 50–51
- writing assignments in English class, 43 starting or adding to a file of, 22
- writing style, graders more interested in, 15
- wrong answer, snagging test takers reading only part of a passage, 153
- Wuthering Heights* (Bronte, Emily), 336
excerpt from, 171
- Y •
- “You Get What You Pay For”
(Johnson, Dave), 112, 115, 116
- young adult works, selecting
for the open-ended essay, 207
- yourself, writing about, 320
- Z •
- zero hour, activities just prior to, 25–26

