

Index

A

- access authentication, 228
- accountability, 31
- accuracy of data collection, 214
- ACLU (American Civil Liberties Union), 172, 183
- active tags
 - description of, 71, 226
 - Intel Corporation and, 85–86
 - parts of, 72
 - power consumption of, 76
- ad hoc networking, 97
- adapt, pressure to, 117–118
- adaptive business network
 - consumer-driven supply network as, 27
 - description of, 38–40
 - dimensions of, 39
 - manufacturing and, 133–134
- adaptive manufacturing
 - at International Paper, 136–138
 - overview of, 133–135
- adaptive supply network, 251
- aftermarket service, 176
- agile reader, 110
- Agile Software, 248
- Air Liquide, 249
- Airbus
 - fly by wire architecture, 10–11
 - RFID and, 118
 - service management, 146, 149
 - standardization and, 16
 - 300 series, 6, 11
- Ala-Pietilä, Pekka (president), 73–74
- Albrecht, Katherine (CASPIAN founder), 196, 197, 198, 201
- Alien Technology, 188
- American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), 172, 183
- American Kennel Club, 231
- American Veterinary Identification Devices (AVID), 231
- analysis, automated, 47, 48

- analytics
 - overview of, 124–126
 - predictive, 138, 141, 145, 241, 251
 - animals, use of RFID technology
 - with, 195–196, 198–199
 - antenna design, 77
 - anticollision techniques, 79–80
 - anticounterfeiting, 176, 195
 - antitheft tags, 88
 - Applied Digital VeriChip, 179
 - Applied Materials, 245
 - APRISO (software developer), 137
 - Aqui Systems, 57
 - architectural elements, 20–21, 45–47
 - architecture
 - long-term, building, 165
 - new, 158
 - quick-and-dirty, 156–157
 - asset management, 175
 - assets, collecting data about, 242–243
 - authenticity, 176
 - Auto-ID Center (MIT), 103–104, 105, 107, 110
 - Auto-ID infrastructure for data, 122–124
 - automation
 - in aviation, 8–9
 - Real World Awareness and, 42–43
 - automobiles, sensors in, 99–100
 - autopilot, 6, 11
 - aviation. See also Airbus; cockpit; Delta Air Lines; Deutsche Lufthansa AG
 - Boeing, 118
 - business compared to, 13–14
 - early days of, 4
 - fly by wire, 10–11
 - instruments and automation, 8–9
 - new possibilities for, 12–13, 15–16
 - pilot role redefined in, 11–12
 - preventive maintenance, 69, 98, 141–145
 - Real World Awareness and, 3–4, 7–8
 - AVID (American Veterinary Identification Devices), 231
- B
- bar codes, 63–64, 65, 87
 - Bauer, Peter (executive vice president), 77–78
 - benefits of Real World Awareness
 - for consumers, 176–180
 - for industry, 174–176
 - benefits of RFID
 - consumer products business and, 132–133
 - data and, 121
 - at Deutsche Post World Net, 139
 - to retail business, 214–217
 - Wal-Mart mandate and, 114
 - biometrics, 244
 - blogging technology, 63
 - Bluetooth technology, 92–93
 - Boeing, 118
 - broadband Internet access, 96
 - bullwhip effect, 130–131, 216
 - bus architecture, 10–11

- business
 - applying Real World Awareness to, 13–14, 17, 21
 - benefits of Real World Awareness for, 174–176
 - lines of, 158
 - RFID in, 16
- business process, mature, 121
- C
- card, smart, 87–88
- Cardinal Health, 247
- Cargill Crop Nutrition, 248
- cash-to-cash cycle, 31
- CASPIAN (Consumers Against Supermarket Privacy Invasion and Numbering), 172, 183, 197
- Caterpillar, 241, 248
- cell phone technology
 - Nokia Corporation, 73–74
 - readers and, 75
 - revolution in, 55
- cellular network application, 63
- cellular phone network, 101
- CEMEX (cement supplier), 251
- challenge, preparing for, 117–118
- change
 - managing, 48, 157
 - reacting to, 38–40
- checkout, instant, invisible, 180
- ChevronTexaco, 250
- child-tracking system, 231–232
- chip, cost of, 49–50
- chip card, 87–88
- classes of tags, 109–110
- closed-loop process, 218–219, 232
- Club Car, Inc., 212–213
- cockpit
 - Airbus 300 series, 6
 - DC-3, 5
 - evolution of, 4–6
 - fly by wire and, 10–11
 - modern, “glass,” 5
 - navigation systems in, 6
 - process changes in, 9–10
 - Spirit of St. Louis*, 4
 - standardization of, 11
 - two-person operation of, 12
- Colgate, 163–164
- commodity suppliers, 246–247
- Communication Futures Program (MIT), 224
- competitive advantage of RFID, 119–120
- complexity of system, 230
- connectivity, 46–47, 91
- consumer. See also consumer-driven supply network
 - fears of, 120
 - value of Real World Awareness for, 176–180, 189
- consumer products. See also Colgate; Gillette; Procter & Gamble; vendor-managed inventory; Wal-Mart Stores, Inc.
 - benefits of RFID and, 132–133
 - challenge in, 25–27
 - METRO Group Future Store, 20, 57–61, 119
 - out of stock situation, 129, 213, 214
 - pull model in, 27, 134, 217
 - replenishment of, 36, 120, 128–133

consumer products (continued)
 smart vending machines, 56, 62, 100–102
 supply network for, 27–28, 31–32
 Unilever, 249
 X Internet technology and, 249
 consumer-driven supply network
 as adaptive business network, 38
 information in, 32, 35–37
 replenishment in, 36, 120, 128–133, 249
 requirements for, 27–28,
 31–32
 RFID and, 114–115
 Consumers Against Supermarket Privacy Invasion and Numbering (CASPIAN), 172, 183, 197 copilot, role of, 8 cost of chip, 49–50
 of RFID implementation, 215 cost efficiency, challenge of, 30 cost of tags growth of RFID and, 77, 140, 187
 passive compared to active, 85–86
 as roadblock to implementation, 215, 230
 critics of Real World Awareness, 78, 171–172, 181–182 customer service, importance of,
 240

D

data about assets, collecting, 242–243 analytical tools for, 124–126
 Auto-ID infrastructure for, 122–124
 complexity of, 122, 126
 granularity of, 124
 integrity of, 123
 laws regulating, 184 misappropriation of, 201–203 online analytic processing (OLAP), 126–127
 point-of-sale (POS), 124, 125–126, 213–214
 protection of transmitted, 54 real-time, importance of, 7 resolving IDs to associated, 231–233
 rich, multidimensional, 125, 127 volume of, 121–122
 data entry clerk, turning item into, 115
 data mining, 127–128 data privacy, right to, 194
 data security legislation regarding, 199–201
 right to, 194
 data storage of RFID, 82–84
 data warehouse, 126
 DataPrivatizers, 200–201
 DC-3 cockpit, 5
 decision-making, streamlining, 167

- Dell, Inc., 31, 33, 133–134
- Dell, Michael (chairman), 33–34
- Delta Air Lines
 - predictive analytics and, 141, 241, 251
 - preventive maintenance and, 69, 98
 - Real World Awareness and, 143–144
- demand event, responding to, 217
- Dennis, Ron (chairman), 53–54
- Department of Defense
 - mandate of, 118, 212
 - performance-based logistics and, 250
 - Unique ID system of, 234
- Deutsche Lufthansa AG, 15, 147–148
- Deutsche Post World Net, 139–140
- development dependencies, reducing, 168
- Digital Signal Processor (DSP), 53–54
- directional sensor, 76
- disciplines, multiple, 158
- display, flat-panel in-store, 59, 60
- distributed intelligence, 46
- DNS, 233, 234
- downstream requirements, 161
- DSP (Digital Signal Processor), 53–54
- Duke Energy, 250
- duty of information, 198–199
- E
 - EAN International, 233
 - Eastman Chemical, 245
 - EEPROM technology, 82
 - electromagnetic spectrum, 160
 - electronic article surveillance (EAS) tags, 88
 - Electronic Frontier Foundation (EFF), 181, 183
 - electronic product code (EPC)
 - description of, 67, 102–104, 233
 - implications of, 111–112
 - legal scenarios, 194–195
 - network implementation, 210
 - 96-bit number, 108
 - Object Name Service, 110–111
 - specs for RFID chips and readers, 108–110
 - support for, 234
 - workings of, 107–108
 - Electronic Product Code
 - Discovery Service, 104
 - Electronic Product Code
 - Information Service, 104
 - embedded systems. See also electronic product code
 - overview of, 98–100
 - smart shelf, 67–68, 100
 - smart vending machine, 56, 62, 100–102
 - end-to-end process, 248–250
 - Entergy (utility company), 145
 - enterprise computing, 114–115
 - enterprise resource planning (ERP), 122

- EPC. See electronic product code
- EPCglobal Network
 description of, 233
 growth of RFID and,
 105–106
 reaction to critics by, 182 technology partners, 109
- EPCglobal standard acceptance of, 47, 112
 overview of, 50, 67, 103
- ESYNC (systems integration and consulting business), 137
- eTires (Michelin), 241
- Euclid software (SAP), 127
- European Union, privacy legislation in, 186
- expectations setting, 120
 as too high, 155–156
- Extended Internet. See X Internet technology
- EZ Pass system, 180
- F
- failure of new technology projects, 155–157
- fears of consumer, 120
- Federal Trade Commission, 201
- feedback loops, 115
- field-service technician application, 62
- Fine, Charles (professor), 221
- fixed-logic tags, 75
- flight engineer, role of, 8–9, 10
- flight-warning computer, 9, 12
- fluidic self-assembly process, 109
- fly by wire, 10–11, 12
- flying by seat of pants, 4, 7–8
- Food and Drug Administration, 176, 195, 212
- Ford Motor, 245
- forecasting algorithms, 132
- Formula One cars, 51–54
- FRAM technology, 83
- Fraport AG, 149–151
- frequencies of tags, 76, 79, 80–81, 105–106
- functional enhancement, 246–248
- functionality of tags, 77
- fundamental effects of Real World
 Awareness, 25
- G
- GE Aircraft Engines, 242
- Gelsinger, Patrick P. (senior vice president), 85–86
- General Electric, 248
- German law, 196–197
- Gillette, 213, 216–217
- global communications network, 223
- GlobeStar System ConnexALL software, 245
- goals, defining, 166
- governance recommendations, 235–236
- growth of RFID, 223–225
- H
- Harrison, R. Keith, Jr. (global product supply officer), 29–30
- health issues, 179
- Hitachi Medical Corporation, 248
- Homegain database, 231
- hope as enemy, 166
- HP, 248

- IATA Cargo 2000 initiative, 148
- IBM, 119, 175
- ICANN registry, 233, 234
- identifiers, managing, 230–235
- identity, defining, 49
- implementation
 - core processes and, 159
 - costs of, 215
 - electromagnetic spectrum and, 160
 - of emerging technology, 163–164
 - of EPC network, 210
 - failure of new technology projects during, 155–157
 - managing risks of, 157–158
 - mandates, downstream requirements and, 161
 - models for, 161
 - overview of, 153–155
 - reading tags and, 159, 160
 - roadblocks to, 228–230
 - succeeding with, 161–162, 165–169
 - tag availability, quality, and, 159
- incrementalism, 165
- industry, value of Real World Awareness for, 174–176. See also business
- Infineon Technologies AG, 77–78
- information
 - consumer-driven supply network and, 32
 - growing hunger for, 32, 35
 - replacing inventory with, 35–37
 - information gathering stage
 - consumer-driven supply network, 28
 - overview of, 18–19
 - Real World Awareness and, 41
 - information retrieval, 227
 - innovation
 - benefits and downsides of, 173
 - by chipmakers, 188
 - failure of, 155–157
 - opportunities for, 116–117
 - with RFID, 225
 - innovation stage
 - at Dell, Inc., 33–34
 - overview of, 19–22
 - pace of, 29
 - Real World Awareness and, 43–45
 - in-sourcing, 251
 - instruments in aviation, 8–9
 - integration, top-floor-to-shop-floor, 135
 - integration test phase, planning for, 168–169
 - Intel Corporation, 85–86, 94, 119
 - International Paper, 136–138
 - Internet of Things, 223–224
 - inventory. See also vendor-managed inventory
 - control and distribution of, 175
 - reducing, 214
 - replacing with information, 35–37
 - visibility of, 215–216
 - Ionic Fusion Corporation, 188
 - IT security
 - legislation regarding, 199–201
 - right to, 194

IT systems
 cost of, 215
 RFID and, 118
 typical failure of new projects, 155–157
 item-level tagging, 186–188, 211–212

J–K

just-in-time review, 180

Klym, Natalie (research analyst), 221

L

label, smart, 88

labor

efficiency of, 215
 reducing, 214

Lauer, Stefan (executive board member), 147–148

lean manufacturing, 217

legal challenges

CASPIAN scenario, 197
 data security, 199–201
 digitalization of people and misappropriation of data, 201–203

EPC scenarios, 194–195

METRO Group scenario, 196–197

notification of RFID use, 198–199

overview of, 194

Privacy Protection for Consumers, 202

RTAMA scenarios, 195–196,
 198–199

RTAMP scenarios, 195, 199

limitations of RFID, 140

Lindbergh, Charles (aviator), 4 lines of business, 158

logic circuitry in tags, 83–84

logistics, 120, 140, 148

Lo-Jack, 89

Loretto, Jonathan (executive representative), 105–106

Lufthansa Cargo, 148

Lufthansa Technik Logistik, 148

luggage tracking, 16

M

maintenance, management system for, 149–151. See also preventive maintenance

MAN (metro area network), 93

management. See also service management; supply chain management of assets, 175

challenges of, 21–22, 47–49

management by exception and insight

cultural shift to, 48–49

overview of, 44–45

managing identifiers, 230–235

mandate

anticipating, 161

of Department of Defense, 118, 212

of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 113–114, 117, 212

manufacturing

adaptive, 133–138

benefits of RFID and, 215–216

goal of, 44

- lean, 217
 - optimization of, 175
 - marketing, individualized, 176, 180
 - Marks and Spencer, 212
 - Massachusetts Institute of Technology. See MIT
 - MATRICS (tag maker), 137
 - Matsushita Electric Works, 245
 - McLaren Racing, 53–54
 - memory capacity of tags, 71–72, 75, 83
 - mesh radio, 90, 95–98
 - metro area network (MAN), 93
 - METRO Group
 - Future Store, 20, 57–61, 119
 - RFID and, 119–120, 196–197
 - Michelin North America, Inc., 212, 241
 - microchip, 225
 - microprocessor-based tags, 84
 - microwave, 81
 - Mierdorf, Zygmunt (chief information officer), 119–120
 - miniaturization of electronic components, 55–56
 - mission-critical system, 157
 - MIT
 - Auto-ID Center, 103–104, 105, 107, 110
 - Communication Futures Program, 224
 - mobile solutions, 73
 - models
 - data, 45–46
 - pull, 27, 134
 - service-centric, 250–251
 - virtual, 161
 - money issues, 179–180
 - multiband RFID system, 106
 - myths surrounding RFID, 183–184
- N
- navigation systems, 9–10
 - navigator, role of, 8, 9–10
 - Near Field Communications technology, 74, 227
 - network technologies
 - Bluetooth, 92–93
 - mesh radio, 95–98
 - overview of, 90–91
 - scope of, 92
 - Wi-Fi or WLAN, 93
 - WiMax, 93–95
 - networking, ad hoc, 97
 - networks. See also supply network, consumer-driven
 - adaptive business, 27, 38–40, 133–134
 - adaptive supply, 251
 - cellular phone, 101
 - global communications, 223
 - MAN (metro area network), 93
 - PAN (personal area network), 91
 - WAN (wide area network), 95
 - wireless, 46–47, 86, 89
 - WLAN (wireless local area network), 93
 - new product introduction, 26
 - Nippon Television, 245
 - Nokia Corporation, 73–74
 - Norwich Union, 241
 - notification of RFID use, 198–199
 - NTT Marketing Act Corporation, 232

O

Object Name Service, 110–111, 233
 object tracking, 228
 online analytic processing (OLAP), 126–127 Operation Safe Commerce initiative, 248 order fulfillment, 175
 out of stock situation, 129, 213, 214
 Oxycontin (medication), 69

P

pallet, smart, 100
 PAN (personal area network), 91
 partners, 158, 168
 passive tags
 description of, 64, 225–226
 Intel Corporation and, 85–86
 power for, 76
 passport, smart, 178
 payment, 228
 personal area network (PAN), 91 personal shopping assistant, 58–59 persons digitalization of, 201–203
 use of RFID technology with, 195, 199
 Physical Markup Language (PML), 111, 233 pilot, 11–12
 plan–do–check–act process, 218–219 planned obsolescence, 33 planning algorithms, 132, 133 planning for integration test phase, 168–169 point-of-sale (POS) data, 124, 125–126, 213–214 positioning technology, 63, 89 potential of RFID for retailer, 119–120 power consumption of tags, 76, 81–82 predictive analytics benefits of, 145

 at Delta Air Lines, 141, 241, 251
 description of, 138
 presence awareness, 245
 preventive maintenance
 description of, 37–38
 predictive analytics and, 138, 141–142, 145
 sensors and, 98, 99 privacy issues
 critics of Real World Awareness and, 78, 171–172
 data privacy, right to, 194
 in European Union, 186 Near Field Communications and, 74
 overview of, 182–183
 point-of-sale applications and, 229 secrecy and, 120
 in United States, 186 Privacy Protection for Consumers, 202 process closed-loop, 218–219, 232 end-to-end, 248–250
 fluidic self-assembly, 109 focus on, 121, 162
 new, 158

- process improvements stage
 - consumer-driven supply network, 28
 - at Dell, Inc., 34
 - overview of, 19
 - Real World Awareness and, 41–43
 - processing power of tags, 75
 - Procter & Gamble, 20, 26, 29
 - product recall, 176
 - Progressive Policy Institute, 182, 185
 - promotional activities and supply chain, 131–132
 - protection of transmitted data, 54
 - proximity communication initiation, 228
 - pull-based strategy, 27, 134, 217.
 - See also* vendor-managed inventory
 - Purdue Pharma L. P., 69
- Q–R
- Quarterback Rating, 138

 - Radio Frequency (RF) electronics, 53–54
 - Radio Frequency IDentification.
 - See* RFID
 - radio officer, 8, 10
 - radio signals, 76, 79
 - Radjou, Navi (vice president), 239
 - readers
 - cost of, 215
 - description of, 210, 226
 - EPC RFID, 110
 - problems with, 160, 161
 - RFID, 75, 95
 - rules regarding, 200
 - Real World Awareness. See also technology of Real World Awareness
 - adaptive business network and, 40
 - applications of, 49–54
 - applying to business, 13–14, 17, 21
 - architectural changes for, 45–47
 - better information through, 18–19
 - business challenges for, 47–49
 - definition of, 24–25
 - fundamental effects of, 25
 - innovation through, 19–22
 - process improvements through, 19
 - stages of evolution for, 17, 41–45
 - real-time data, importance of, 7
 - redundancy, 10
 - remote monitoring, 98
 - replenishment in consumer-driven supply network
 - METRO Group and, 120
 - overview of, 36, 128–133
 - Wal-Mart and, 249
 - reputation systems, 229
 - response, automated, 47
 - retailer, potential of RFID for, 119–120
 - rewriteable tags, 71, 82–83
 - Reynolds and Reynolds telematics system, 247

- RFDump software, 229
- RFID (Radio Frequency Identification). See also tags advantages of, 63–64
 in aviation, 3–4, 7–8, 16
 operation of, 64–66
 overview of, 7
 uses of, 147–148
- RFID tags. See tags
- Rolls-Royce, 250
- router, 95–96
- RTAMA scenarios, 195–196, 198–199
- RTAMP scenarios, 195, 199
- S
- safety concerns, 161
- safety stock, 130
- sales, individualized, 176
- SAP AG (support and consulting business). See also Auto-ID infrastructure for data Colgate and, 163–164
 description of, 154
 Euclid software, 127
 METRO Group and, 119
 role of, 178
- Sara Lee, 248
- Savi Technology, 244
- scanning range, 184
- Schmid, Viola (professor), 193
- scope controlling or reducing, 167
 as spinning out of control, 156
- security issues. See also privacy issues
 for consumers, 178–179
 data and, 194, 199–201
 protection of transmitted data, 54
 supply chain and, 229, 248
- Sensitech sensors, 246
- sensors in automobiles, 99–100 in embedded systems, 98–100 in jet engines, 142, 144 in machine tools, 135
 RFID, 76, 81–82
 in tags, 76, 81–82, 99
 uses of, 245
 wireless, 97
- service costs, 247
- service infrastructure
 access authentication, 228
 information retrieval, 227
 object tracking, 228
 overview of, 226–227
 payment, 228
 proximity communication initiation, 228
- service management
 Airbus, 146, 149
 Fraport, 149–151
 overview of, 145–146
- service revenues, 244–246
- service-centric business model, 250–251
- shelf, smart, 67–68, 100
- Shewhart cycle, 218–219

- shop floor of factory, 69, 135
- Simchi-Levi, David (professor), 209
- Smart and Secure Tradelanes initiative, 248
- smart card, 87–88
- Smart Dust, 96, 97
- smart label, 88
- smart pallet, 100
- smart passport, 178
- smart shelf, 67–68, 100
- smart vending machine, 56, 62, 100–102
- SmartSignal (company), 141–142, 145, 241
- Snagg musical instrument authentication, 231
- social context of technologies, 171–174
- speed of data collection, 214
- Spirit of St. Louis* cockpit, 4
- SRAM technology, 83
- standardization, 11, 16, 47
- standards. See also electronic product code; EPCglobal standard
 - Bluetooth, 92–93
 - challenges of, 230
 - fears of consumers and, 184
 - importance of, 16, 30, 103, 148
 - Real World Awareness, 67, 68
 - uncertainty about, 187–188
- state machine, 84
- sub-daily replenishment, quest for, 131–132
- success with project
 - business, focus on, 162
 - decision-making, streamlining, 167
 - development dependencies, reducing, 168
 - goals, defining, 166
 - hope as enemy, 166
 - incrementalism, 165
 - integration test phase, planning for, 168–169
 - long-term architecture, building, 165
 - partner relationships, 168
 - process, focus on, 162
 - scope, controlling or reducing, 167
 - transparency, 166
 - vision, 162, 165
- supply chain management.
 - See also* replenishment in consumer-driven supply network; vendor-managed inventory
 - closed-loop process, 218–219
 - efficiency of, 217–218
 - METRO Group, 60–61
 - promotional activities and, 131–132
 - RFID and, 73, 210–213
 - security and, 248
 - service-delivery, 146
 - trend in, 134
 - visibility and, 216

supply network, consumer-driven as adaptive business network, 38
 information in, 32, 35–37
 replenishment in, 36, 120, 128–133, 249
 requirements for, 27–28, 31–32
 RFID and, 114–115

T

tags. See also active tags; cost of tags; passive tags antitheft, 88 availability of, 159
 contents of, 66–67, 70
 description of, 64, 225–226
 electronic article surveillance, 88 encryption or securing of, 184
 EPC RFID, 108–109
 frequencies of, 76, 79, 80–81, 105–106
 functionality of, 77
 item-level, 186–188, 211–212 logic circuitry in, 83–84 managing collisions, 79–80 memory of, 71–72, 75, 83
 parts of, 72
 power consumption and, 76, 81–82
 processing power of, 75 quality of, 159
 readers of, 75, 160
 reading, 159, 160
 reliability of, 210
 sensors in, 76, 81–82, 99 size of, 70, 71 types of, 109–110
 uses of, 50, 69–71, 244
 Target Stores, 244

Team McLaren-Mercedes, 51–54 technology. See also cell phone technology; IT systems; X Internet technology advances in as disruptive, 222–223
 blogging, 63
 EEPROM, 82
 FRAM, 83
 identifying business strategy with, 162
 Near Field Communications, 74, 227
 new, 158
 positioning, 63, 89
 SRAM, 83
 technology of Real World
 Awareness
 antitheft tags, 88
 bar codes, 87
 chip cards or smart cards, 87–88
 overview of, 61–64
 positioning, 89
 RFID, 63–72, 74–76, 79–84
 smart labels, 88
 telemetry in Formula One cars, 51–54
 Texas Instruments, 188, 249 time issues, 179–180
 Toben, Ed (chief information officer), 163–164 traffic patterns, 160 transformation in business, 7 transparency, 166, 185
 transponder
 cellular-phone-based, 89
 RFID, 225
 TREAD Act, 241

Trossen, Dirk (scientist), 221 truck, refrigerated delivery, 56
 TSMC (semiconductor manufacturer), 245

U

ultra-high-frequency (UHF), 81, 105, 110 ultra-wideband (UWB), 93
 Uniform Code Council, 233
 Unilever, 249
 Unique ID system, 234
 United Kingdom Breweries, 212
 United States, privacy legislation in, 186
 URL as tag ID, 233

V

Valeika, Ray (senior vice president), 143–144 value of Real World Awareness, proving for consumers, 176–180, 189
 for industry, 174–176
 striking balance, 181–182
 Van Fleet, Steve (director), 136 vending machine, smart, 56, 62, 100–102 vendor-managed inventory (VMI) information and, 32, 35
 overview of, 19, 27, 28, 129–130
 weakness of, 130–131 visibility into products, 242
 vision
 creating, 49
 as management challenge, 21–22 road map and, 162, 165

W

Wal-Mart Stores, Inc.
 EPC and, 234
 mandate of, 113–114, 117, 212
 replenishment and, 249
 RFID and, 31
 Weber, Juergen (chairman), 15–16 wide area network (WAN), 95
 Wi-Fi technology, 93, 245
 WiMax technology, 93–95
 wireless local area network (WLAN), 93 wireless network connectivity and, 46–47 expansion of RFID and, 86
 positioning technology and, 89 World Cup tickets, 49
 writeable tags, 82

X

X Internet technology
 description of, 240, 243
 end-to-end processes and, 248–250 examples of, 241
 functional enhancement and, 246–248 service profits and, 244–246 service-centric business model and, 250–251

Z

Zigbee, 92–93
 Zumwinkel, Klaus (CEO and chairman), 139–140

