

Index

- academic adviser, 13, 46, 131, 159, 201
- academic affairs positions
- conflict and crisis management, 178
 - group dynamics and skills, 201
 - mental health issues, 45
 - microcounseling skills, 141–142
 - multicultural competence, 124
 - supervision, 224
 - theory, 81
- academic competence, 84
- academic self-confidence, 138
- academic skills, mental health effect on, 26
- acceptance, 15, 101, 102, 179, 204, 236
- active listening, 11, 14, 132, 141, 246, 252
- Active Minds, 42
- Adler, A., 82
- administrative positions
- conflict and crisis management, 177–178
 - group dynamics and skills, 200
 - mental health issues, 45
 - microcounseling skills, 141
 - multicultural competence, 123–124
 - supervision, 224
 - theory, 80–81
- admissions, 6, 13, 45, 131–132
- see also* administrative positions
- advocacy, 121, 259–261
- affective domain, 98, 99
- African Americans, 119, 182
- alcohol use, 27, 28
- Allport, G., 87
- American College Health Association (ACHA), 27, 36
- American College Personnel Association (ACPA), 53, 54–55, 62, 63, 127
- American Counseling Association (ACA), 121
- American Psychological Association (APA), 43, 121
- Americans with Disabilities Act, 18, 32, 60
- Anglin, M., 239
- anxiety
- disorders, 31, 37–38
 - generalized disorders, 31, 38
 - theory on, 82–84, 91, 102
- Archer, J., 59
- Armino, J., 228
- Armstrong, J. L., 206, 210
- Asperger's disorder, 31
- assertiveness, 11, 87, 95, 246
- Assessment-Intervention of Student Problems (AISP), 33
- assistant resident director (ARD), 64

- Astin, A. W., 24 attending skills, 90, 143
 attention deficit/hyperactivity, 28
 Aulepp, L., 8
 autism, 31
 autonomy, 53, 59, 179, 229, 233, 234, 249
 awareness competency
 conflict and crisis management, 170, 178–180
 ethics, 57–58, 68
 group dynamics and skills, 201–202
 mental health issues, 41–42
 multiculturalism, 113, 114–115
 supervision, 225
- Ballou, M., 239
 Bandura, A., 85
 Baron, R. A., 174
 BASIC ID, 98, 152–153
 Bateson, G., 90
 Bazelon Center for Mental Health
 Law, 61, 70
 behavioral domain, 98, 99
 Bell, J., 90
 Benishek, K. J., 235, 237
 Benishek, L. A., 235, 237
 Benton, K. L., 29
 Benton, S. A., 26, 27, 29, 30, 35, 36, 48–49
 Benton, S. L., 23, 26, 27, 29, 30, 35, 36, 48–49
 Betz, N. E., 38
 Beyene, T., 239
 bipolar I, 31
 bipolar II, 31
 Blackhurst, A., 237
 blind spots, 135, 154–155
 Blocher, D., 15
 Bonney, W. C., 196, 199, 205, 208–209, 211
 Borodovsky, L. V., 125
 Bradley, D. L., 70
 brainstorming, 156–157, 188
 Brammer, L. M., 102, 107
 Brown, S. M., 58–59
 Brown, V. B., 171, 184, 185–186
 Brown, V. L., 33
 Burkard, A., 11, 21, 132, 239–240
 Burns, D., 42
- campus climate, 182
 Canon, H. J., 68 career center, 122, 138–139, 199, 223
 carelessness, 84
 Carlisle, W., 240
 Carpenter, S., 129
 Carter, G. C., 30
 Castillo, L., 129
 Chen, M., 196–197
 Chernow, E., 229
 Chickering, A. W., 70
 Choi-Pearson, C., 129
 client incongruence, 100–101
 client perception, 101–102 closed-ended questions, 149–150, 164
 cognitive-behavioral theory (CBT), 53, 84–87, 95, 98, 99, 102 relevance to student affairs helping roles, 86–87
 cognitive dissonance, 87 cognitive domain, 98, 99
 cognitive-structural theory, 77
 Cole, D. C., 239–240
 collaboration skills, 11, 12, 13, 14, 49, 69, 95, 132, 135, 138, 246, 258
 collaborative leadership, 231, 234 college impact theory, 77, 153
College of the Overwhelmed
 (Kadison & DiGeronimo), 42 Commission for Counseling and Psychological Services, 43 communication
 nonverbal, 118, 122, 146, 154

- oral, 11, 55, 132
- skills for groups, 203
- verbal, 118, 144–145, 146, 154
- written, 11, 55
- community collaboration, 253, 260–261
- community development theory, 188
- competency approach, 9–12, 10*f*
- conduct disorders, 91
- confidentiality, 58, 59, 61, 64–66
- conflict and crisis management, 14, 169–193
 - in academic affairs positions, 178
 - in administrative positions, 177–178
 - awareness competency, 170, 178–180
 - behavioral clues to crisis, 185
 - campus conflict, 174–175
 - campus crisis characteristics, 172
 - conflict, strategies and tools for addressing, 187–191
 - conflict management approach, 188–189
 - conflict management phases, 187–188
 - conflict resolution approach, 189
 - conflict transformation approach, 189
 - in counseling-oriented positions, 175–176
 - crisis assessment/detection, 183
 - crisis postvention, 184
 - crisis prevention, 183–184
 - crisis work, strategies and tools for addressing, 183–187
 - cultural differences effect on, 181–182
 - defining crises, 171–173
 - human-caused crisis, 172
 - individual vs. large-scale crisis response, 185
 - individualized emotional crises, 173
 - key point summary, 253–254
 - knowledge competency, 170, 180–181
 - leadership and, 190
 - in leadership development/educational positions, 176–177
 - mediation skills needed by helper, 190
 - multiculturalism effect on, 191
 - natural disasters, 172
 - negotiation skills needed by helper, 190
 - peer mediation approach, 189
 - preparation/training, 191–192
 - psychological first aid goals, 185
 - scope/intensity/duration of crisis, 173
 - self-care, 187
 - situational/environmental clues to crisis, 185
 - skills competency, 181–182
 - skills needed by helpers, 186–187, 189–190
 - specific competencies, 178–182
 - steps in crisis response, 185–186
 - verbal clues to crisis, 185
- conflict resolution, 12, 189
- conflict transformation, 188–189
- confrontation skills, 11, 14, 132, 154–155, 246
- consultation, 11, 12, 14, 37, 48, 63, 72, 181, 246, 255, 258
- Cooper, D. L., 229
- Cooper, S., 59
- coping resources, 186
- Corey, G., 18, 95, 100, 196, 199, 204, 207
- Corey, M. S., 204
- Cornish, J. A., 26
- cost-benefit analysis, 157
- Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs, 47, 213–214, 240

- Council for the Advancement of Standards in Higher Education (CAS), 47, 195, 213–214, 240
- counseling, evolution of, 6
- Counseling Center Village, 42
- counseling-oriented positions
- conflict and crisis management, 175–176
 - group dynamics and skills, 199–200
 - mental health issues, 44
 - microcounseling skills, 139–140
 - student affairs practitioner, as helper, 16
 - supervision, 222–223
 - theory, 79–80
- counseling psychology, 113, 121
- counselor congruence, 101
- Covert, I. A., 58
- Crafts, R., 184
- Creamer, D. G., 169, 174, 188, 189, 190, 219, 220, 228, 232–233, 234, 241
- Cristiani, T. S., 100, 105
- Crutcher, A. N., 237
- cultural encapsulation, 124–125
- culture
- effect on conflict/crisis management, 181–182
 - effect on mentoring, 237
 - group culture, 209, 210
 - see also* multicultural competence; multiculturalism
- Cureton, S., 23–24
- Dagley, J. C., 196, 199, 205, 208–209, 211
- Dalton, J. C., 229–230, 231
- Davis, S. R., 147, 164, 166
- dean of students, 8, 16, 44, 45, 79, 99, 139, 175, 177, 198, 222
- DeCoster, D. A., 33
- defense mechanisms, 83, 84, 125
- DeLucia-Waack, J. L., 204–205, 211, 212
- Delworth, U., 8, 33
- depression, 24, 26, 27, 28, 31
- major, 35–36
- diagnostic skills, 205
- Dickerson, D., 61, 65, 70
- DiGeronimo, T. F., 31, 42, 49
- director of residence life, 177
- discrimination, 59, 60
- disruptive behavior, 24
- disturbed/disturbing student, 33
- Donigian, J., 209, 212
- drug abuse, 91
- drug modality, 98
- dual relationships, 58–59, 61, 63–64
- Duncan, M. A., 169
- Dunkel, E., 184
- duty to warn, 61, 66–68, 249
- Dynamic Model of Student Affairs Competence, 9–10f, 78, 112
- eating disorders, 24, 28, 31, 91
- eclectic/transactional theory, 97–100
- relevance to student affairs helping roles, 98–100
- Egan, G., 135, 154–155
- Ellis, A., 85
- Ellsworth, J. D., 196, 207–208
- emergency preparedness drills, 183
- emotional stimulation behaviors, 205
- emotions, 88, 166, 179
- empathy, 90, 101, 102, 144
- Enos, M., 106
- ethic of care, 176
- ethical implications, for helping, 51–73
- autonomy, 59
 - campus violence, 60
 - challenges, 53, 56
 - collaborative risk-management teams, 70
 - community approach, 69–70

- competence, 58, 61, 62–63
 confidentiality issues, 58, 59, 61, 64–66 core principles, 52–53
 discrimination, 59, 60
 dual relationships, 58–59, 61, 63–64
 key point summary, 248–249
 liability issues, 59–61
 personal reflection/exploration strategies, 68–69 preparation/training, 71–73
 privacy, 61
 problem-solving skills, 71
 research need, 56
 scanning and awareness strategy, 57–58, 68
 self-determination, 59
 standards and codes, 54–55, 56, 58, 61, 62, 63 strategies for addressing ethical issues, 68–71 student affairs professionals, concerns/issues facing, 56–68 suicide/duty to warn, 59, 61, 66–68, 249
 Evans, D. R., 135, 136, 166
 Evans, N. J., 6, 153
 exit interview, 14

 facilitation skills, 10, 11, 12, 17, 190, 205, 239, 246, 258
 Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), 18, 65 family problems, 26, 31
Feeling Good (Burns), 42
 Fenske, R. H., 5
 force-field analysis, 157
 Forney, D. S., 153
 Freud, S., 82
 Fried, J., 52, 53, 56
 Furr, S. R., 27, 36
 future-oriented questions, 156

 Gallagher, R., 58–59
 Gehring, D. D., 60, 69
 gender differences in mental health issues, 28–29 effect on mentoring relationship, 237
 genuineness, 81, 102, 204
 George, R. L., 100, 105
 Gibson, J., 174
 Grayson, P. A., 31
 Greene, P., 184
 Grieger, I., 184
 group dynamics and skills, 14, 195–217
 in academic affairs positions, 201
 in administrative positions, 200
 advantages of group interventions, 196–198
 awareness competency, 201–202
 benefits of conducting groups, 213 challenges of conducting groups, 212–213
 counseling-oriented positions, 199–200
 feedback provision, 203 group cohesion, 208–209
 group counseling training, 214–215
 group culture, 209, 210
 group cycle, 207–208
 group development stages, 206–209
 group dynamics, 206 group interdependence, 209–210
 group norms, 209
 group purpose, 209
 group theory, 199
 intentionally structured group, 211
 key point summary, 254–255
 knowledge competency, 202–203
 in leadership development/educational positions, 200

- group dynamics and skills (Continued)
- limited training opportunities, 196, 202–203, 216
 - multiculturalism effects, 203–204
 - preparation/training, 213–216
 - psychoeducational group, 199, 211, 212
 - skills competency, 203–204
 - strategies/approaches in student affairs practice, 205–211
 - structured group, 199–200
 - support group, 199, 212
 - teaching group, 215
 - T-group, 207
 - training groups, 215
 - trust issues, 207–208
 - work/task group, 207, 208, 211
- Guido-DiBrito, F., 153
- Halpern, J., 172, 173, 183–184, 185, 186–187
- Hayman, P. M., 58
- Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, 18
- Hearn, M. T., 135, 136, 166
- helping and advising competency, 78–79
- Heppner, P. P., 26
- Herdlein, R. J., 11, 239, 240
- Hirt, J. B., 227, 229
- holistic approach, 6, 47, 98
- Holton, S. A., 186–187, 190–192
- homophobia, 182, 204
- Horney, K., 82
- how question, 150
- Hulse-Killacky, D., 209, 211
- human-caused crisis, 172
- humanistic psychology, 87–90
- humanistic theory, 87–90, 95, 98, 99, 102
- relevance to student affairs helping roles, 89–90
- Humphrey, K. M., 31
- imagery modality, 98
- in loco parentis*, 5, 17, 76
- Integrated Development Model (IDM), 226–227
- integrating helping role
- by advocacy commitment, 259–261
 - by conceptualizing role more broadly, 256–258
 - and training needs, 258–259
- intentionally structured group, 211
- Internet surfing, constant, 87
- interpersonal relationship modality, 98
- Ivey, A. E., 91, 92, 93–94, 95, 104, 135, 136, 166
- Jacobi, M., 235–236
- Janosik, S. M., 55, 56–57, 68, 71, 241
- Jaques, D., 215–216
- Javorek, M. E., 226, 227, 230–231, 241
- Jenkins, J. M., 27
- Jenkins, Y. M., 116, 121
- Jones, D. L., 59
- judicial affairs, 79
- judicial officer, 132
- Junco, R., 31
- Jung, C., 82
- Kadison, R., 31, 42, 49
- Kalodner, C. R., 199, 212
- Keeling, R., 24–25, 30
- Killacky, J., 209, 211
- Kincade, E. A., 199, 212
- Kitchener, K., 52–53, 56, 62, 69
- Kitchens, H., 31
- Kitzrow, M. A., 30, 47
- Kivlighan, D., 26
- Knefelkamp, L. L., 15
- knowledge competency
- conflict and crisis management, 170, 180–181

- group dynamics and skills, 202–203
- mental health issues, 42–43
- multiculturalism, 113, 115–117
- supervision, 225–226
- Kocarek, C., 128
- Komives, S. R., 153
- Kosten, S. R., 10, 239
- Kram, K. E., 235
- Krumboltz, 75
- Lapan, R. T., 26
- Lazarus, A., 97–98, 152
- leadership development/educational
 - positions, 16
 - conflict and crisis management, 176–177
 - group dynamics and skills, 200
 - mental health issues, 45
 - microcounseling skills, 140–141
 - multicultural competence, 123
 - supervision, 223–224
 - theory, 80
- leadership skills, group, 203–205
 - basic competencies, 205
 - caring, 204
 - emotional stimulation
 - behaviors, 205
 - executive functions, 205
 - meaning attribution, 204–205
- learning disabilities, 31
- Learning Reconsidered* (ACPA & NASPA), 259
- lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) students, 111, 119, 204
- Levine, A., 23–24
- listening skills, 90, 135, 142, 143–146
 - active listening, 11, 14, 132, 141, 246, 252
- lock-down drills, 57
- Lovell, C., 10, 239
- Malley, P., 58–59
- Maples, M. F., 129
- Martin, J., 236
- Maslow, A., 87
- McConnell, G. N., 27
- McEwen, M. K., 76, 128
- meaning making, 88
- mediation skills, 11, 12, 177, 180, 181, 189, 190, 246, 258
- Megivern, D. M., 24, 35
- Meichenbaum, D., 85
- Meier, S. T., 147, 164, 166
- Meilman, P. W., 31
- mental health issues, 12–13, 23–49
 - in academic affairs positions, 45
 - in administrative positions, 45
 - alcohol use, 27, 28
 - anxiety disorders, 31, 37–38
 - Asperger's disorder, 31
 - attention deficit/hyperactivity, 28, 31
 - autism, 31
 - awareness competency, 41–42
 - benefits, 46–47
 - bipolar disorder, 31, 37
 - challenges, 46
 - in counseling positions, 44
 - depression, 24, 26, 27, 28, 31
 - developmental approach to students, 27–28
 - developmental disorders, 31
 - developmental skills, 26
 - disruptive behavior, 24
 - disturbed/disturbing student, 33
 - dysthymia, 36
 - eating disorders, 24, 28, 31, 38–39
 - effect on academic skills, 26
 - effect on situational skills, 26
 - family problems, 26, 31
 - gender differences in, 28–29
 - generalized anxiety disorder, 31, 38
 - grief, 26
 - impulsive behaviors, 31

- mental health issues (Continued)
- increased prevalence/severity of, 25–29
 - increased prevalence/severity of, reasons for, 29–31
 - key point summary, 247–248
 - knowledge competency, 42–43
 - in leadership development/educational positions, 45
 - learning disabilities, 31
 - major depression, 35–36
 - medication use, 25, 26, 28
 - mood disorders, 31, 35–38
 - most common psychological concerns, 35–40
 - obsessive-compulsive disorder, 31, 38
 - panic disorder, 31, 38
 - personality disorders, 26, 31, 39–40
 - physical problems, 26
 - posttraumatic stress disorder, 28, 31, 38
 - preparation/training, 47–50
 - race differences, 28–29, 31–32
 - and relationships, 26–27
 - self-mutilation, 31
 - sexual assault, 26, 27
 - sexual concerns, 31
 - sexual orientation, 28–29, 32
 - skills base needed to address, 43
 - sleep difficulties, 27, 31
 - stress/anxiety, 24, 26–27, 28, 31
 - substance abuse, 24, 26, 31, 40
 - suicidality, 24, 26, 27, 28, 31, 35–36, 36–37
 - violent behavior, 31
- mentoring, 14, 234–239
- benefits for mentor/mentee, 238–239
 - career function of mentoring, 235, 236
 - cultural context of, 237
 - defining mentoring, 235, 236
 - developmental program, 238
 - formal/informal mentoring, 235
 - functions of mentoring, 235–236
 - instructional program, 238
 - preparation/training for
 - supervision/mentoring, 239–241
 - psychological function of mentoring, 235, 236
 - research need, 236
 - role modeling function of mentoring, 236
- microcounseling skills, 14, 131–167
- in academic affairs positions, 141–142
 - in administrative positions, 141
 - challenges to new helpers, 161–165
 - in counseling-oriented positions, 139–140
 - developing goals and action plans cluster, 137, 155–158
 - establishing rapport/exploring dilemma, 134–135
 - exploring own feelings, 166
 - gaining insight into dilemma and focusing, 135–137
 - interpreting and confronting cluster, 136, 151–155
 - key point summary, 252–253
 - in leadership development/educational positions, 140–141
 - listening cluster, 135, 143–146
 - making referrals cluster, 137, 158–161
 - phases of helping in student affairs, 133–139
 - practicing fears, 166–167
 - problem solving, premature, 163–164
 - questioning and clarifying cluster, 136, 148–151
 - questioning and fact-finding, excessive, 161–162

- reflecting and summarizing cluster, 135, 146–148
- saying the “right” thing or making “mistakes,” 164–165
- self-disclosure, premature, 163
- silence fears, 165
- taking action, 137–139
- third party emphasis, 162–163
- Miller, T. K., 122, 196, 199, 205, 208–209, 211, 240
- Mintz, L. B., 38
- mood disorders
 - anxiety disorder, 37–38
 - anxiety disorder, generalized, 38
 - bipolar disorder, 37
 - depression, 24, 26, 27, 28, 31
 - depression, major, 35–36
 - dysthymia, 36
 - eating disorders, 38–39
 - obsessive-compulsive disorder, 38
 - panic disorder, 38
 - posttraumatic stress disorder, 38
 - suicidality, 23, 24, 26, 27, 28, 31, 35–37, 36–37, 184
- Moore, L. V., 76
- moral conversation, 70
- Mueller, J. A., 9, 14, 15, 78, 112, 114, 120, 122, 128, 129
- multicultural competence, 111–130
 - in academic affairs positions, 124
 - in administrative positions, 123–124
 - assessment instruments, 113–114
 - benefits, 126
 - challenges, 124–126
 - concrete competencies, 120–121, 122
 - content knowledge, 115–116
 - counseling functional areas, 122–123
 - defining multicultural competence, 114
 - defining multiculturalism, 124
 - frameworks for, 121
 - graduate preparation/training, 127–128
 - helping behaviors across functional areas, 122–124
 - impact of oppression, 116
 - key point summary, 250–251
 - in leadership development/educational positions, 123
 - multicultural awareness, 113, 114–115
 - multicultural knowledge, 113, 115–117
 - multicultural skills, 113, 117–118
 - professional education/development, 129
 - salient cultural constructs, 117
 - strategies for developing, 126–129
 - student affairs practitioner, as helper, 14
 - tripartite model, 113
 - see also* culture; multiculturalism
- Multicultural Competence in Student Affairs Scale, 122
- multicultural/feminist theory, 93–97
 - relevance to student affairs helping roles, 96–97
- multiculturalism
 - defining, 124
 - effect on conflict and crisis management, 191
 - effect on group dynamics and skills, 203–204
 - effect on supervision, 228, 232
 - see also* culture; multicultural competence
- Multidimensional Model of Cultural Competence, 121
- multimodal theory, 97–98
- Murphey, J., 26

- Nash, R. J., 69, 70, 71
NASPA Standards of Professional Practice, 54
 National Association of Student Personnel Administrators (NASPA), 53, 54, 127
 National Survey for Counseling Center Directors, 25
 Native Americans, 95, 115–116, 119 natural disaster, 172
 negotiation skills, 189, 190
 Newton, F. B., 26, 29
 Nisenholtz, B., 103–104, 105–106
 nondirectional approach, 102–103
 nonverbal behavior, 90, 160, 202
 Norcross, J., 102–103
- obsessive-compulsive disorder, 31
 O'Connell, J., 26
 Odiorne, G. S., 238
 Okun, B. F., 83, 86, 91, 92, 93, 98, 143–144, 159, 171, 173, 187
 O'Malley, K., 26
 open-ended questions, 90, 149, 150, 164 oppression, effect on college students, 116 organization development theory, 188
 Osfield, K. J., 31
 Ott, M., 239–240
 Owen, J. J., 13, 34
- panic disorder, 31
 Park, J., 235, 237
 Parker, C. A., 15
 Parsons, R. D., 152, 156
 Patrick, J., 31
 Pavela, G., 67
 Pederson, P. B., 82, 124–125
 peer mediation approach, 189
 personal myth, 105–106
 personality disorders, 26, 31, 39–40
- Peterson, J. V., 103–104, 105–106 physical domain, 99
 physical problems, of students, 26
 Pledge, D. S., 26
 Ponterotto, J. G., 125
 Pope, R. L., 9, 14, 15, 78, 96, 112, 114, 120, 122, 128, 129, 240 posttraumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 28, 31
 preparation/training, 12–13
 for addressing group issues, 213–216 for conflict/crisis management, 191–192 for ethical issues, 711 for group issues, 213–216
 for mental health issues, 47–50 for multicultural issues, 127–128 for supervision/mentoring, 239–241 primary prevention, of crisis, 184
 privacy, 18, 57, 61, 63, 65
 problem-solving skills, 11, 14, 69, 71, 131, 155, 163–164, 166, 171–172, 186, 187, 190, 237, 244, 246, 252
 process models, 99
 Prochaska, J. O., 102, 103
 procrastination, 29, 84, 87, 152
 Pruett, H. L., 171, 184, 185–186
 psychodynamic/psychoanalytic theory, 82–84, 102
 relevance to student affairs helping roles, 83–84
 psychoeducational group, 199, 211, 212
 psychological autopsy, after suicide attempt, 184 psychological first aid, 185
 psychosocial theory, 77, 153
- questions
 closed-ended, 149–150, 164

- future-oriented, 156
 how, what, why, 150
 open-ended, 90, 149, 150, 164
- race effect on mental health issues, 28–29, 31–32
 effect on mentoring relationship, 237
- rapport building, 134–135, 140, 141, 154, 230
- Reason, R. G., 6
- reflection, 14, 90
 ethical, 68–69, 71
 reflect-in-action, 69
- reflection skills, 136, 142, 146–148, 150, 151, 165
 and groups, 204, 210
 and mentors, 239
- relationships, toxic, 87
- Rendon, L. I., 166
- Rentz, A. L., 6
- residence hall director, 131
- restatement, 146, 150, 151, 165
- restory, 135, 137–138
- Reynolds, A. L., 9, 14, 15, 78, 96, 112, 114, 120, 122, 127–128, 240
- Robertson, J. M., 26, 29, 35
- Rodolfa, E. R., 13
- Roehlke, H. J., 26
- Rogers, C., 87, 100, 102
- Rollo, J. M., 169, 172, 176
- Roper, L., 128, 220
- Ryback, C. J., 197
- Sabnani, H. B., 125
- Saddlemire, G. L., 6
- Samels, J. E., 236
- Sanchez, W., 239
- Sanford, N., 15, 216
- Saunders, S. A., 61, 229
- Schlossberg, N. K., 166
- Schuh, J. H., 240
- Schultz, D. P., 82
- Schultz, S. E., 82
- secondary prevention, of crisis, 184
- self-awareness, of practitioner, 94, 179–180, 205
- self-care, during conflict/crisis management, 187
- self-concept, 88, 89
- self-determination, 59
- self-mutilation, 31
- self-sabotage, 84
- sensation modality, 98
- Sevig, T., 28, 31
- sexual assault, 26, 27, 66
- sexual orientation differences, 28–29, 32
- sexual promiscuity, 31
- sexual victimization, 31
- Sharf, R. S., 102
- silence, as element of listening, 145
- skills competency
 conflict and crisis management, 181–182
 group dynamics and skills, 203–204
 supervision, 227–228
- Skinner, B. F., 84–85
- Slattery, S. M., 235, 237
- sleep difficulties, 27
- social identity theory, 77, 153
- social justice, 93–94, 121
- Soet, J., 28, 31
- SOLER approach, to listening, 144, 145
- Spooner, S. E., 34–35
- Statement of Ethical Principles and Standards*, 54–55
- Stimpson, M. T., 129
- Stock-Ward, S. R., 226, 227, 230–231, 241
- Stoflet, T., 239–240
- stress inoculation, 183–184
- structured groups, 199–200

- student affairs practitioner visibility on campus, 13, 244, 253
see also student affairs practitioner, as helper
- student affairs practitioner, as helper
 academic affairs positions, 16, 17
 administrative positions, 16–17
 benefits, 19
 challenges, 17–19
 competency approach, 9–12, 10*f*
 counseling-oriented positions, 16
 counseling role, 7–8 counseling skills, 12
 environmental stressors, 19
 helping skills overview, 8–9, 13–15 individual interventions, 14 individual stressors, 18–19 institutional interventions, 14
 key point summary, 246–247
 leadership development/educational positions, 16
 multicultural competence, 14
 preparation/training issues, 12–13, 19–21
 program development and assessment, 14
 referrals to professional counselors/therapists, 34
 responsibilities/roles of, 5–7
 roles, 107
 teaching and training, 14
 therapeutic climate for students, 15
 vignettes about, 3–5
- student-centered approach, 47
- student development theory,
 153, 188
- student personnel training programs,
 5–6
- student success model, 153
- substance abuse, 40
- Sue, D., 115
- Sue, D. W., 115, 121
- suicidality, 23, 24, 26, 27, 28, 31,
 35–37, 184
- supervision, 14, 219–242
 in academic affairs positions, 224
 in administrative positions, 224
 awareness competency, 225
 benefits, 234
 challenges, 232–233
 counseling-oriented positions, 222–223
 defining, 219–220, 239
 feedback, 229
 feedback, negative, 233
 key point summary, 255–256
 knowledge competency, 225–226
 in leadership development/
 educational positions, 223–224
 limited training opportunities, 220, 233 mentoring on campus, 234–239
 motivational strategies, 229–230 multicultural issues, 232
 multiculturalism effects, 228
 preparation/training for supervision/mentoring, 239–241
 rapport building, 230
 role on campus, 221–222
 skills, 227–228
 skills competency, 227–228
 strategies/tools for, 228–232 structuring supervisory relationship, 230–231
 Synergistic Supervision Model,
 231–232, 234
- Sutton, E. M., 270
- Synergistic Supervision Model,
 231–232, 234
- Synfax Weekly Report*, 67
- Synthesis: Law and Policy in Higher Education*, 67
- systems/family theory, 90–93
 relevance to student affairs helping
 roles, 92–93

- Talbot, D. M., 128
 Talley, F. J., 69
 Tao, K. W., 13 task group, 215–216
 teaching group, 215
 tertiary prevention, of crisis, 184
 T-group, 207
 theory, helping, 75–108
 in academic affairs positions, 81
 in administrative positions, 80–81
 cognitive-behavioral theory (CBT), 53, 84–87, 95, 98, 99, 102
 cognitive-structural theory, 77, 153
 college impact theory, 77, 153
 core theoretical helping assumptions, 100–103 in counseling position, 79–80 developing personal theory of helping, 103–107 eclectic/transactional, 97–100 essential counseling/helping, 81–103 existential-humanistic, 153
 helping and advising competency, 78–79
 history of student affairs theory, 76–77 humanistic, 87–90, 95, 98, 99, 102 illustrations of counseling theory across functional areas, 79–81
 key point summary, 249–250
 in leadership development/educational positions, 80
 multicultural/feminist, 93–97 person-environment theories, 77
 psychodynamic/psychoanalytic, 82–84, 102
 psychosocial theory, 77, 153
 social identity theory, 77, 153
 student development theory, 153
 student success model, 153
 systems/family, 90–93 theory as core competence, 78–79
 typology model, 77, 153
 use/application of counseling theory, 79–81 theory and translation competency, 78–79
 Tinto, V., 24 training
 need for, 196, 202–203, 216, 258–259
 student personnel training programs, 5–6
 see also preparation/training
 Tramontin, M., 172, 173, 183–184, 185, 186–187 trust building, 64, 154, 179, 207–208, 229, 230 Tseng, W., 26
 tutors, 17, 46, 142, 201, 215, 224
 typology model, 77, 153
 Uhlemann, M. R., 135, 136, 166 unconditional positive regard, 101, 102, 144 Upcraft, M. L., 76
 verbal prompt, 144–145
 vice president of student affairs, 177, 220, 257 violence, campus, 23, 57–58, 65, 72
 violent behavior, 31
 vocational guidance movement, 77
 Wade, R. W., 239
 Waple, J. N., 9, 11, 55, 240
 Warters, W. C., 174, 188, 190
 Watson, J. B., 84–85
 Web site, for mental health issues, 42, 66–67, 72
 Weber, R. C., 207
 wellness educator, 132
 Westefeld, J. S., 27
 what question, 150

- Wheeler, L., 26
- why question, 150
- Widick, C., 15
- Winek, J. L., 59
- Winseman, J. S., 30
- Winston, R. B., 8, 61, 79, 132,
159–160, 196, 199, 205,
208–209, 211, 219, 220, 227,
229, 232–233, 234, 240
- Woodard, D. B., 153
- workshops, 14, 16, 17, 48, 132
 - structured group, 195, 200, 201, 202, 216
 - work-study student, 136–138, 224
- work/task group, 207, 208, 211,
215–216
- worldview, 115
- “worried well,” 159
- Wrenn, C. G., 7, 124
- Yalom, I. D., 197, 214–215
- Yarbrough, S. L., 206, 210
- Young, R. B., 54, 69
- Zachary, L. J., 235, 237–238
- Zdziarski, E. L., 169, 172, 176

