

Index

A

A to Z Teacher Stuff Web site, 13, 42, 66, 158
About.com, 100
Absenteeism, 351, 374–376
Active listening skills, 266
Activities. See Classroom activities
Adcock, P., 39, 111, 306, 391
ADD (attention deficit disorder), 394–396
AD/HD (attention deficit/hyperactivity disorder), 394–396
aha!Process Web site, 402
Alcohol abuse, 333
Alfie Kohn’s Web site, 336
Alternative assessment approaches, 220–221
American Federation of Teachers (AFT), 39
AOL Study-Buddies Web site, 319
Art of the pause, 185
Assembly behavior, 414
Assess Your Strengths, 17
Assessments: grading, 218, 227–230; performance, 222; portfolio, 225–227. See also Evaluating students
Assignments. See Homework assignments
Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development (ASCD), 39, 197, 336
AT&T Knowledge Ventures’ Blue Web’n Web site, 158
At-risk students, 399–400
Auditory learners, 186, 187–188

Authority: chain of command, 59; disrespect for, 350
AYP (adequate yearly progress) [NCLB], 22

B

B. J.’s Homework Helper Web site, 274
“Baby-faced” teachers, 130
Back to School Night. See Open house
Backpacks (student), 408–409
Ball toss game, 251
Behavior: fighting and violent, 332, 351, 379–382; inappropriate assembly, 414; peer pressure influence on, 141–142, 344; tips for promoting on-task, 330; unacceptable student, 350–351. See also Intervention strategies; Misbehaving students
Behavior Advisor Web site, 329
Behavior contracts, 361, 365–366, 367
Behavior problems: acting decisively when responding to, 360–361; avoiding lawsuits related to, 352–353; Behavioral Incident Report on, 354; Classroom Management Techniques to Avoid, 357; controlling anxieties using proactive attitudes, 348–349; dealing with a difficult class and, 362–363; figuring out the reasons for, 358–359; myths about discipline, 349; problem-solving approach to, 359–360; student conferences to handle, 364–365; supervisor expectations regarding response to, 351; Talk It Over on, 386; teacher advice on, 349, 350, 358, 411, 412, 419;

thinking before responding to, 358; troubleshooting twenty common, 407–422; understanding your role/mistakes in, 355–356. See also Intervention strategies; Misbehaving students; School problems
Behavioral Incident Report, 354
BestWebQuests Web site, 170
Beyond Discipline: From Compliance to Community (Kohn), 336
Bickham, C. M., 167, 400
Bingo game, 251
Bloom’s Taxonomy of thinking skills, 213
Board games, 250
Boardgames.com, 250
Body language, 180–181
Book storage, 98
Bulletin boards, 95–96
Burnout: described, 43–44; proactive anti-burnout strategies to avoid, 44–45; safety net of professionalism to avoid, 46–48; teacher to teacher advice on, 45; turning problems into opportunities to avoid, 45–46
Bush, G. W., 22

C

Cambron-McCabe, N. H., 352
Carol Ann Tomlinson Web site, 388
Carroll, D., 20, 142, 322, 329
Cause-and-effect maps, 197
Cell phone disruptions, 409–410
Center for the Study of Reading Web site, 319
Chain making game, 251
Chain of command, 59

- Character Traits of Successful Teachers, 7
- Charismatic classroom presence, 176–177
- Childhood obesity, 255
- Children. See Students
- Class interruptions, 295
- ClassNotes Online Web site, 76
- Classroom activities: accommodating diverse learning styles, 187–189; critical thinking opportunities in, 161–163, 193–194; for the first day, 113–114; keeping them simple, 11; for learning vocabulary words, 317–318; post-reading assignments, 312–313; practice work, 202–203; pre-reading, 308–310; productive transition, 291–294; sponge, 291; teacher advice on, 161; while reading assignments, 310–312
- Classroom areas: for bulletin boards, 95–96; to conduct class business in, 95; for enrichment materials work, 95; in portable classroom, 97; for student motivation, 95; when sharing a classroom, 97
- Classroom discussions: questions stimulating critical thinking, 193–194; strategies for asking engaging questions, 191–193; what to do after, 190–191; what to do before, 189–190; what to do during, 190
- Classroom furniture organization: arrangement of desks, 92–93; traffic flow consideration, 92; your personal space, 93–94; using seating charts, 109–110;
- Classroom Management Techniques to Avoid, 357
- Classroom materials/supplies: paper supplies, 27–28, 98; setting up shared supplies bank, 330, 332; storage of, 98; supply list of, 99–101; tips on organizing, 98–99; which you'll need to keep, 102–103; your list of, 99–101
- Classroom newsletters, 75–76
- Classroom organization: cleaning items to bring to school, 91–92, 99; creating an inviting environment, 94–96, 145; creating positive classroom culture, 328; importance of, 12; Is Your Classroom Ready for Students?, 104; of materials and supplies, 98–101; moving furniture, 92–94; in portable classroom, 97; storage on a budget, 98; Talk It Over regarding, 105; tips for useful computer systems, 103; Web site resources on, 91; when sharing classroom, 97
- Classroom preparation: importance of, 11; lesson planning, 147–173
- Classroom responsibilities: self-assessing your management of, 19; suggestions on managing, 18
- Classroom routines: for collecting money, 89; consistent adherence to, 176–177; early intervention through establishment of, 330; for lunch counts/other counts, 89; for predictable tasks, 87; for recurring daily activities, 87–88; for recurring term activities, 88; for recurring weekly activities, 88; teaching students the, 112; Where to Find Help with Establishing Routines and Procedures, 90
- Classroom rules: consequences for breaking, 339–340; creating, 335–336; enforcing, 338; enlisting student support for, 338–339; monitoring students following, 340–342; posting, 348; student refreshers on, 337; teaching, 336–337
- Classroom troubleshooting: 1: heavy backpacks blocking the aisles, 408–409; 2: disruptive cell phones, 409–410; 3: fire drills, 410; 4: drumming on desks, 410–411; 5: eating in class, 411; 6: note passing, 411–412; 7: public displays of affection, 412; 8: dress code violations, 413; 9: excessive noise, 413–414; 10: inappropriate behavior at assemblies, 414; 11: restless students during video viewing, 415; 12: lost papers, 415–416; 13: sleeping in class, 416; 14: crying, 416–417; 15: feigned illness, 417; 16: inappropriate comments, 418; 17: talking back, 418–419; 18: defiance, 419; 19: theft, 420–421; 20: cheating by copying from online source, 281, 421; Talk It Over on, 422. See also School problems
- Classroom web page, 76
- Classrooms: class rules for the, 335–342, 348; Classroom Management Techniques to Avoid, 357; creating inviting, 94–96, 145; creating goals for, 334; creating a positive culture goal for, 328; creating a positive group identity, 119; creating a safe environment in, 332–333; creating a sense of community in, 329; empowering students while maintaining control of, 143; furniture organization in, 92–94; handling requests to leave the, 296–297; improving your charisma in, 176–177; instructional time in, 283–301; Is Your Classroom Ready for Students?, 104; managing diversity in your, 387–406; observations in, 61–62; overcrowded, 376–377; portable, 97; using seating charts in, 109–110; sharing, 97
- Cleaning supplies, 91–92, 99
- Clinic (school health), 296
- Coalition of Essential Schools, 39
- Collecting money routine, 89
- Communication: arranging for signals for help, 342; body language, 180–181; inappropriate comments, 418; talking back, 418–419; watching your language during, 140; using “I” messages, 141. See also Language issues; Listening
- Comprehension skills: activities while reading assignment, 310–312; crucial importance of, 308; post-reading activities to build, 312–313; pre-reading activities to build, 308–310; teacher advice on, 313
- Computer system tips, 103
- Concept maps, 196
- Confidence boosters, 11–12
- Consequences: detentions as, 366, 368–369; establishing, 339–340; inconsistency in enforcing, 356; twenty-five discipline don'ts, 384–385. See also Punishment
- Consistent behavior, 344–345
- CoolFreebieLinks Web site, 100
- Council for Exceptional Children Web site, 391
- Councill, S., 133, 388
- Counts routine, 89
- Courtesy: importance of mutual, 127–128; on-the-job, 50, 52
- Create Your Vision of the Year Ahead, 21
- Criminal behavior, 58
- Critical thinking: essential questions stimulating, 193–194; giving directions encouraging, 162–163; planning opportunities for, 161–162
- Crying student, 416–417
- Cultural differences, 403–404
- Cummings, M., 139, 208, 251, 271, 327

D

- Daily activity routines, 87–88
- Dave's ESL Café Web site, 250, 403
- David Sadker's Web site, 405
- Deadlines (student), 271–273
- Defiance, 419

- Delayed learning cycle, 270–271
 Description maps, 196
 Designing lessons. See Lesson planning
 Desk arrangements, 92–93
 Detention notice: before issuing, 366;
 when you issue, 366–368
 Detentions: during, 368–369; following, 369
 Diabetic students, 255
 Difficult classes, 362–363
 Difficult colleagues, 56, 57
 Difficult students. See Misbehaving
 students
 Directions: giving clear verbal, 199, 201; giving clear written, 200;
 teacher advice on giving, 201; teaching students to follow, 198–199
 Disadvantaged students, 400–402
 Discipline: detentions, 366, 368–369; inappropriate, 355; inconsistency in applying, 356; myths about, 349;
 twenty-five don'ts, 384–385
 Discovery School Web site, 250
 Discussion groups. See Talk It Over
 Discussions. See Classroom discussions
 Dishonesty, 351
 Disrespect for authority, 350
 Disruptive behaviors. See Misbehaving
 students
 Diverse classroom: at-risk students, 399–400; avoiding gender bias, 405;
 gifted students, 388–390; growing issue of, 387–388; non-English-speaking students, 402–403; special needs students, 390–397; students living in poverty, 400–402; students who are underachievers, 397–399;
 Talk It Over on, 406; teacher advice on, 388, 390, 391, 396, 397; using multicultural approach to, 403–404
 Diverse learning styles: activities accommodating, 187–189; gifted students, 388–390; meeting the needs of, 185–187. See also Special needs students
 Diverse workplace, 53–54
 Documentation Log for Parent Contact, 68
 Door to Door concept, 301
 Dress codes: recommended for teachers, 11, 129–130; violation of student, 413
 Drug abuse, 58, 333, 350, 378–379
 Drumming on desks, 410–411
 Dyetub Media Web site, 253
- E
- An Easy-to-Use Format for Daily Lesson Plans, 156
- Eating in class, 411
 Edible rewards, 254–255
 Editorial Projects in Education Blog-board Web site, 13
 EdScope Web site, 158
 Education Place Web site, 91
 Education Technology Department at San Diego State University Web site, 170
Education Week (journal), 41
 Education World Web site, 42, 76
 Educational Development Center Web site, 319
Educational Leadership (journal), 41
 Educational research, 2–3
 Educators Network Web site, 158, 225
 EduHound Web site, 42–43
 Efficient teachers/teaching: eliminating procrastination, 29–30; managing student information, 34;
 organizing and managing forms,
 33–34; teacher binder role in, 34–36;
 teacher to teacher advice on, 33;
 Teacher's To-Do List, 37; time management, 30–33; using faculty handbook wisely, 29
 eInstruction Corporation Web site, 223
 Electronic grade books, 228–229
 Emotions: behavior problems and controlling your, 358; controlling your temper and, 144; strategies for controlling your, 145
 Empowering students, 143
 Enforcing classroom rules, 338
 Essay tests: designing, 213; grading strategies for, 218
 Evaluating students: fair evaluation of groups, 247; grading, 218, 227–230;
 how to use assessment data for,
 219; interactive response systems used for, 223; journals and learning logs used for, 222–223; performance assessments used for, 222; pitfalls to avoid when, 213–214;
 portfolio assessments used for,
 225–227; rubrics for, 224–225; Talk
 It Over on, 231; using alternative assessments for, 220–221. See also
 Students; Tests/testing
 Evaluation conference: tips for actions following, 63; tips for during, 63
 Evaluation process: correcting weaknesses following, 64; How Observers Will Evaluate You, 62; making them work for you, 63; overview of,
 60–61; preparing for an observation, 61; turning criticism into positive experience, 63
 Excessive noise problem, 413–414
- Extra credit dilemmas/solutions,
 279–280
 Eye contact, 185
- F
- Faculty handbook, 29
 Failure to complete work, 350
 Family Education Network Web site,
 226–227
 Federal Resources for Educational Excellence Web site, 43
 Feigned illness, 417
A Field Guide to Using Visual Tools
 (Hyerle), 197
 Fighting/violent behavior, 332, 351,
 379–382
 File cabinets: setting up your, 101–102;
 storage tips for, 98
 Fire drills, 410
 First day: achieving first-day-of-school goals, 120, 121; activities for the, 113–114; analysis of students' readiness for learning, 118; creating positive group identity, 119; getting to know your students, 114, 116–118; learning student information and names, 114, 115–116; overcoming first-day jitters, 108–109; priorities for your, 110–112; Talk It Over regarding your, 120; using seating charts on your, 109–110; welcome packet for, 112–113; why it is important, 108
 First day priorities: 1: take charge of your class, 110; 2: calm your students' fears, 111; 3: introduce yourself, 111; 4: engage your students' minds, 111; 5: begin to teach class routines, 112
 First semester challenges, 5
 First year experience: advantages to enjoy during, 16; avoiding burnout, 43–48; becoming an efficient teacher, 28–37; becoming a team player, 49–82; common problems faced by, 4; finding a mentor, 38–39;
 have a fantastic first day, 107–121;
 how to share space, materials, and equipment, 26–28; school information, policies, and procedures you need to know, 24–26; staying healthy, 47. See also Teachers
 First-Day-of-School Goals, 121
 First-day-of-school welcome packet,
 112–113
 504 plan (Individualized Education Program), 353, 396–397
 Flash cards, 318
 Food allergies, 255

Format for a Course Overview, 151
 Format for a Unit Plan, 153
 Forms: Behavior Contract, 367; Behavioral Incident Report, 354; Documentation Log for Parent Contact, 68; An Easy-to-Use Format for Daily Lesson Plans, 156; Format for a Course Overview, 151; Format for a Unit Plan, 153; organizing and managing, 33–34; Sample Positive Message to a Parent, 67; Student Information Form, 115; Student Inventory for Elementary Students, 135; Student Inventory for High School Students, 137; Student Inventory for Middle School Students, 136
 4Teachers Web sites, 91, 224
A Framework for Understanding Poverty (Payne), 402

G

Games: encouraging learning through, 249–250; suggestions for, 250–251; Web resources for, 250
 Gangs/gang violence: handling potential, 332; student clothing expression of, 413
 Gardner, E., 12, 44, 52, 129, 261, 358, 396
 Gender bias, 405
 Gift dilemma, 73
 Gifted students: modifying learning processes for, 388–390; teacher advice on, 390; teaching in mixed abilities group, 390; Web resources on, 388
 Global classroom, 53–54
 GlobalSchoolNet Web site, 43
 Goals. See Professional goals; Student goals
 Gossip, 55–56
 GradeBookWizard Web site, 229
 Grading: essay tests, 218; general information on management/recording, 227–229; response to student challenges to, 230
 Grading records: electronic grade books used for, 228–229; general strategies for managing, 227–228; paper grade books used for, 228; personalizing, 229–230
 Graphic organizers, 195–197
 Group discussion. See Talk It Over
 Group tests, 222
 Group work: benefits of, 243; strategies for facilitating, 245–246; teacher advice on, 243, 244; teacher role in, 244

Groups: creating student work, 244–245; fair evaluation of, 247; fostering team spirit of, 246; getting them off to a good start, 245; managing noise levels of, 247
 Guardians. See Parents/guardians
 Guidance office, 297
 Gutenberg Project Web site, 316

H

Hangman game, 251
 Harassment, 382–384
 Health tips, 47
 Help signals, 342
 Herrala, C., 9, 45, 76, 161, 209, 240, 294, 397, 419
 High-stakes testing. See Tests/testing
 Homework assignments: developing policies on, 274, 276, 278–280; for diverse learning styles, 186–187; failure to complete, 350; helping students meet deadlines, 271–273; long-term projects, 280–282; lost, 415–416; motivating students by adding interest to, 241–243; motivating students using in-depth, 235; planning valuable, 161; steps to follow when assigning, 276–278; strategies to boost student motivation for, 275
 Homework Center Web site, 274
 Homework partnerships: between students, parents, and teachers, 273–274; Web resources on facilitating, 274
 Homework policy: extra credit dilemmas/solutions, 279–280; issues to address in, 274, 276; on making up missed work, 278–279; sample letter for parents on, 276
 Hotmath Web site, 274
 Houghton Mifflin's Education Place Web site, 197, 311
 How Effective Are You at Preventing Problems?, 331
 How Observers Will Evaluate You, 62
 How Well Do You Student?, 262
 How Will You Rate as a Teacher?, 8
 Hyerle, D., 197

I

"I" messages, 141
 Ice Breakers Web site, 118
 Illegal behavior, 58 iLoveLanguages Web site, 72
 Inappropriate comments, 418
 Individualized Education Program (or 504 plan), 353, 396–397
 Injuries, 381–382

Inspiration (software), 197
 Instruction: avoiding pitfalls, 177, 179; being enthusiastic during your, 176; conducting discussions engaging every student, 189–194; creating learning centers for, 197–198; diverse learning styles and, 185–189; guidelines for classroom charisma, 176–177; helping students to stay on track during, 183–184; improving oral presentations, 184–185; Is Your Delivery Effective?, 178; making seatwork appealing, 202; paying attention to your audience during, 181; publishing student work following, 194–195; setting the stage for, 179–180; strategies for special needs students, 392; student practice of, 202–203; Talk It Over on delivering, 206; teacher advice on, 181, 182, 187, 223; teaching students to follow directions, 198–199; techniques for getting points across, 182–183; using body language to motivate, 180–181; using class time to review, 204–205; using graphic organizers with, 195–197; using toys to capture attention, 181–192. See also Learning; Lesson plans
 Instructional time: accommodating student work at different speeds, 290; controlling, 283–284; eight-minute closing exercise, 299–300; examples of misused or wasted, 284–285; first ten minutes of class, 288; handling interruptions, 295; handling requests to leave the classroom, 296–298, 299; Inviting Ways to Open Class, 289; last ten minutes of class, 298–300; principles of effective management of, 285–286; productive transition activities, 291–294; raising your students' awareness of, 286; Talk It Over on, 301; teacher advice on, 290, 294, 300; Track How You Use Time worksheet, 287; two-minute dismissal, 300
Instructor (journal), 41
 Interactive response systems, 223
 Interactive Wordplays Web site, 319
 International Reading Association Web site, 320
 International Reading Association/National Council of Teachers of English Web site, 320
 Internet: classroom Web page on the, 76; lesson plan resources on the, 157–158; publishing student work

- on the, 194–195; as teaching resource, 42–43; WebQuests, 168, 170. See also Web sites
- Interruption situations, 295
- Intervention strategies: being a consistent teacher, 344–345; class rules as, 335–342, 348; creating class goals, 334; creating safe environment for students, 332–333; How Effective Are You at Preventing Problems?, 331; monitoring students, 340–342; positive classroom culture as goal of, 328; positive peer pressure as, 344; prevention approach to, 328–330; self-discipline as correct approach to, 327; Talk It Over on, 345–346; teacher advice on, 327, 329, 345; teaching and enforcing school rules, 334–335, 348; Web resources on, 329; why punishment is not the answer, 326–327. See also Behavior; Behavior problems; Misbehaving students
- Intimidating behavior, 350
- Intrinsic motivation, 240–241
- Inviting classrooms, 94–96, 145
- Inviting Ways to Open Class, 289
- iParadigm Plagiarism.org Web site, 281
- Is Your Classroom Ready for Students?, 104
- Is Your Delivery Effective?, 178
- J
- Journals (student), 222–223
- K
- Kathy Schrock's Guide for Educators Web site, 42, 96, 170, 197, 224–225
- Kids Store Web site, 253
- Kidspiration (software), 197
- Kim's Korner Web site, 96
- Kindergarten Connection Web site, 43
- Kinesthetic (or tactile) learners, 186, 188
- Know/Want to Know/Learned (KWL) chart, 308
- Kohn, A., 336
- L
- Language issues: non-English-speaking parents, 71–72; non-English-speaking students, 402–403; watching how to speak to students, 140–141. See also Communication
- Lawsuits: behavior problems and related, 352–353; reality about, 5; understanding laws/legislation to avoid, 352, 355
- LD OnLine Web site, 390–391
- LD Pride Web site, 186
- Learner Profile Web site, 229
- Learner success: creating homework partnership for, 273–279; extra credit dilemmas and solutions, 279–280; habits of mind to encourage, 258; helping them to meet deadlines, 271–273; improving writing skills to facilitate, 268–270; incorporating student skills in every lesson for, 258–262; long-term projects and, 280–282; memory skills for, 267–268; metacognition practice for, 270; stress management to facilitate, 271, 272; Talk It Over on, 282; taught how to take notes, 264–265; taught listening skills for, 265–266; taught to organize notebooks for, 263; taught to speak in front of class for, 266–267; taught to think on paper for, 263–264; teacher advice on, 258, 259, 261, 271. See also Reader success
- Learning: analyzing your students' readiness for, 118; interference with others' right to, 350; modifying processes for gifted students, 388–389; pairing students for maximum, 247–248; stopping failed cycle of delayed, 270–271; through group work, 243–247; using games to encourage, 249–250; ways to get students involved with, 237. See also Instruction
- Learning centers, 197–198
- Learning Disabilities Association of America (LDA), 391
- Learning (journal), 41
- Learning logs, 222–223
- Learning styles: activities to accommodate each, 187–189; meeting needs of diverse, 185–187; teacher advice on, 187; three types of, 186; Web site resources on, 186
- Learning-Styles-Online.Com, 186
- "Least restrictive environment" mandate, 390
- Legal Rights of Teachers and Students* (McCarthy, Cambron-McCabe, and Thomas), 352
- Leigh, W., 96
- Lesson planning: beginning with NCLB state standards, 149–150; benefits of, 147–148; common problems in, 157; course overview used in, 150–151; finding the time for, 149; guidelines for, 148; how to begin, 150; Internet resources for, 157–158; Talk It Over on, 172–173
- Lesson plans: accommodating nontraditional scheduling, 165–167; backup, 165; creating daily, 154, 156; creating individual unit, 152–153; An Easy-to-Use Format for Daily Lesson Plans, 156; how to adjust, 165; including critical thinking opportunities in, 161–163; including technology as part of, 167–170; to maximize intrinsic motivation, 240–241; modifying content to challenge gifted students, 389; offering students options, 164; perfecting your pacing, 160–161; for sequencing instruction, 158–159; for substitute teachers to use, 170–172; tapping your students' prior knowledge, 159–160; what to include in, 155. See also Instruction
- Library visit requests, 296
- Listening: importance of, 11, 356; to parents and guardians, 72; teaching students skills of, 265–266. See also Communication
- Literacy: as education issue, 304; mistakes to avoid in teaching for, 307. See also Reader success
- Literacy Connections Web site, 321
- Lockers (student), 296
- Long-term projects: guidelines for planning, 281; helping students to complete, 280; teaching project skills to complete, 280–282
- Los Angeles County Office of Education Web site, 344
- Lost homework assignments, 415–416
- Lunch count routine, 89
- M
- Mahoney, S., 112, 390
- Makeup work policy, 278–279
- Manage Your Classroom Responsibilities, 19
- Many Teaching Ideas Web site, 265
- Master Teacher Web site, 329
- Matching test questions, 211–212
- Materials. See Classroom materials/supplies
- McCarthy, M. M., 352
- McManaway, D., 20, 148, 182, 201, 345
- Meetings: accidental meetings with parents, 72–73; parent conferences, 77–80; professional behavior during, 55; student conferences, 364–365
- Memorization skills, 267–268
- Mental habits, 258
- Mentors, 38–39

Merriam-Webster Web site, 319
 Metacognition, 270
 Microsoft® Excel Web site, 229
 Mid-Continent Research for Education and Learning Web site, 43
 Misbehaving students: acting decisively when responding to, 360–361; arranging for signals as prevention for, 342; behavior contracts with, 361, 365–366, 367; controlling emotions when dealing with, 144; don't give up on difficult and, 361–362; early intervention strategies for, 328–330; establishing consequences for, 339–340; fighting and violent behavior by, 332, 351, 379–382; figuring out reasons for, 358–359; myths about disciplining, 349; power of positive peer pressure on, 344; private discussions with, 359; problem-solving approach to, 359–360; referrals to administrator, 361, 369–371; student conferences with, 364–365; substitute teachers and, 171; Talk It Over on, 386; teacher advice on, 349, 350, 358, 411, 412, 419; thinking before responding to, 358; tips on increasing positive behaviors in, 343; troubleshooting twenty common problems, 407–422; unacceptable behaviors by, 350–351; using detentions effectively, 366, 368–369; when you should take action, 342–343; why punishment is not the answer, 326–327. See also Behavior; Behavior problems; Intervention strategies; Students
 Model displays, 236
 Monitoring students: arranging for signal for help, 342; how to become an effective monitor, 340–341; successful approaches to, 340
 Motivating students: by adding interest to assignments, 241–243; by encouraging awareness of learning benefits, 238, 240; introducing peer tutoring for, 248–249; by lessons to maximize intrinsic motivation, 240–241; pairing students for maximum learning, 247–248; strategies boosting interest in homework, 275; Talk It Over on, 255–256; teacher advice on, 235, 240, 241, 243, 251; by teaching students to set/achieve goals, 236–238, 239; through working in groups, 243–247; using games to encourage learning, 249–251; using positive reinforcement for, 251–255; using visual aids for, 235–236; ways to get students involved with learning, 237–238

 Motivation: children as the best teachers, 3; classroom areas to facilitate student, 95; intrinsic, 240–241; model displays to facilitate, 236; self-fulfilling prophecy and, 233–234; using body language to facilitate, 180–181; ways to encourage student, 234–235. See also Students
 Multicultural approach, 403–404
 Multiple-choice test questions, 212
 Muth, P., 22, 157, 350
 Mutual respect/courtesy, 127–128, 181
 MyGradeBook Web site, 229
 Myths about discipline, 349

N

Name That Person, [battle, city, or other item] game, 251
 National Association for the Education of Young Children, 40
 National Association for Gifted Children Web site, 388
 National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS), 40
 National Education Association (NEA), 40
 National Geographic Web site, 274
 National High School Association, 40
 National Middle School Association (NMSA), 40
 Negative peer pressure, 141–142
 New Horizons for Learning Web site, 404
 Newsletters, 75–76
 No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB): AYP (adequate yearly progress) required by, 22; debate and controversy over, 207; “highly qualified” requirement of, 23; official Web site of, 24; origins and four components of, 22; raising to the challenge of, 3; standards for reaching benchmarks of, 20; state standards required by, 149–150; strategies for understanding requirements of, 23; Web resources to help with challenges of, 23–24. See also School laws/legislation; Tests/testing
 Noisy class problem, 413–414
 Non-English-speaking students, 402–403
 Nontraditional schedules, 165–167
 Note passing, 411–412
 Note taking strategies, 264–265
 Nurses' office, 296

O

Observations: How Observers Will Evaluate You, 62; preparing for, 61
 Office (school), 297
 On-task behavior, 330
 On-the-job courtesy, 50, 52
 123sortit Web site, 99
 Online cheating/copying, 281, 421
 Open house: general guidelines for, 69; overview of, 69; preparing for, 69–70; presenting professional image during, 70–71; professional interaction with parents during, 71; timeline for successful, 71; what to include in your presentation, 70
 Open-book (or open-note) tests, 222
 Open-ended questions: motivating students using, 234; used on tests, 221–222
 Oral language materials, 316
 Oral presentations: art of the pause, 185; eye contact during, 185; teaching students to give, 266–267; videotape yourself to improve, 184–185
 Oral reading, 321
 Organization: classroom, 12, 91–104; of grading records, 227–229; preparation timeline prior to school, 83–84, 86; Talk It Over regarding, 105; teaching your students notebook, 263; What Do You Already Know About Beginning a School Term?, 85; of your time and tasks, 86–91
 Organization timeline: day before school starts, 86; month before term begins, 84; one week before term, 86; three weeks before term, 84; two weeks before term, 84, 86
 Organizing time/tasks: establish routines and procedures for, 88–89; of predictable tasks, 87; of recurring activities, 87–88; steps to take for, 86–87; Where to Find Help with Establishing Routines and Procedures, 90. See also Time management
 Out of the Box Games Web sites, 250
 Overcrowded classes, 376–377
 Owen, W. N., 63, 181, 258, 307

P

Pairs tests, 222
 Paper grade books, 228
 Paper supplies: recycling, 28; storage of, 98; tips on conserving, 27–28
 Paperwork: managing load of, 33; managing student information, 34;

- organizing and managing forms, 33–34; which to keep, 102–103
- Para-educators, 394
- Parent conferences: five essential goals for, 77; guidelines for effective, 77–79; handling uncooperative parents/guardians during, 80; negative attitudes by parents during, 79–80
- Parent contact records: Documentation Log for Parent Contact, 68; importance of keeping, 67
- Parents/guardians: behavior problems and contacting, 361; being positive with, 66–67; class rules made available to, 337; classroom Web page for, 76; early intervention support from, 329–330; effective correspondence with, 73–74; expectations by, 65; handling accidental meetings with, 72–73; handling gift dilemma with, 73; homework partnerships between students, teachers, and, 273–274; making telephone calls to, 74–75, 333; non-English-speaking, 71–72; open house with, 69–71; parent contact records on, 67–68; responding to youthful appearance comments by, 130; sample letter on homework policy to, 276; Sample Positive Message to a Parent, 67; sending home class newsletters to, 75–76; student conference notification to, 364; working well with, 64–66
- Parker, N., 4, 241, 259, 320
- Parking lot errands, 296
- Payne, R., 402
- Pearson Education Web site, 274
- Peer pressure: disruptive behavior and positive, 344; student coping with negative, 141–142; Web resources on, 344
- Peer tutoring, 248–249
- Performance assessments, 222
- Personal classroom space, 93–94
- Personal privacy: guarding your, 56–57; teacher-student relationship and, 131–132
- Personalizing grade reports, 229–230
- Phi Delta Kappan* (journal), 41
- Phone use requests, 297
- Phonics instruction, 306
- Photocopier: how to save paper when using, 27–28; optimizing your use of, 27
- Pirrone, Y., 33, 56, 79, 244, 252, 290, 382
- Plagiarism, 281, 421
- Planning: to correct weaknesses, 64; effective lessons, 147–173
- Platt, C., 235, 243
- Portable classrooms, 97
- Portfolio assessments: advantages of using, 225–226; integrated into class work, 226; three types of, 226; Web resources on using, 226–227
- Positive reinforcement: benefits of using, 251–252; cautions against using food as, 254–255; rewarding students for appropriate behavior, 253–254, 329; using praise effectively, 252–253
- Practice activities, 202–203
- Praise, 252–253
- Preparation: importance of, 11; lesson planning, 147–173
- Problem behavior. See Behavior problems; Misbehaving students
- Procrastination elimination, 29–30
- Professional conferences, benefits of attending, 20
- Professional educators: core values of, 3–4; support through network of, 2. See also Teachers
- Professional expertise: advantages to enjoy in your early years, 16; assessing your strengths, 17; attending conferences to facilitate, 20; creating your vision of, 21; learning through reading and research, 20; managing classroom responsibilities, 18–20; NCLB in context of, 22–24; preventing burnout, 43–48; professional organizations as part of, 39–40; professional teaching standards and role models for, 22; school information, policies, and procedures as part of, 24–26; sharing space, materials, and equipment as part of, 26–28; Talk It Over on development of, 48; time management/organization to enhance, 28–39; using Internet as teaching resource, 42–43; using journals to enhance, 41–42
- Professional goals: achieving your first-day-of-school, 120, 121; becoming an efficient teacher, 28–37; Create Your Vision of the Year Ahead, 21; establishing your, 20; for parent conference, 77; positive classroom culture as, 328; Set Goals to Improve How You Work with Others, 51. See also Student goals
- Professional image, 129–130
- Professional organizations, 39–40
- Professional resources: on diversity in the classroom, 54; journals listed, 41–42; reading and research as, 20; using the Internet as, 42–43. See also Web resources
- Professional teaching standards, 22
- Professionalism: characteristics/behavior reflecting, 124–125; during open house, 70–71; professional image as part of, 129–130; as safety net, 46–48
- ProTeacher Directory Web site, 329
- ProTeacher Web site, 319
- Public displays of affection, 412
- Public Law 94-142, 390
- Public speaking skills, 266–267
- Publishing student work, 194–195
- Punctuation, 321
- Punishment: as being ineffective, 326–327; detentions as, 366, 368–369; inappropriate, 355; inconsistency in applying, 356; twenty-five discipline don'ts, 384–385. See also Consequences
- ## Q
- Question-and-answer sessions: facilitating student outcomes of, 191–193; stimulating critical thinking, 193–194
- Questions: designing test, 211–212; open-ended, 221–222, 234
- Quiz Bowl game, 250
- Quizzes: rules of student conduct for, 215–218; similarities between tests and, 210; strategies for designing, 210–211
- Qwizdom Web sites, 223
- ## R
- Reader success: helping students to build comprehension skills, 308–313; importance of, 303–304, 305–306; improving students' vocabulary skills, 313–318, 319; increasing reading fluency, 318–322; mistakes to avoid when teaching for, 307; most important reading skills for, 306; Talk It Over on, 322–323; teacher advice on, 303, 306, 307, 309, 313, 317, 322. See also Learner success; Literacy
- Reading fluency: definition of, 318; four strategies for building, 321; silent reading to build, 320–322; Web resources for increasing, 319–320
- Reading Is Fundamental Web site, 320
- “Reading wars,” 306
- Recycling paper supplies, 28
- Requests to leave class, 296–298, 299

Respect: earning students', 126–127; importance of mutual, 127–128; instruction and atmosphere of, 181
 Restroom visits, 297
 Reviewing instruction/tests, 204–205
 Rewarding students: for appropriate behavior, 253; cautions against edible rewards for, 254–255; as early intervention strategy, 329; resources on free rewards for, 254; Web resources on, 253
 Richardson, S., 118, 219, 313
 Routine procedures. See Classroom routines
 Rubrics: assessment using, 224; sample example of, 225; Web resources for, 224–225
 Rules: creating classroom, 335–336; teaching and enforcing school, 334–335
 Rumors, 55–56

S

Safe environment, 332–333
 Sample Positive Message to a Parent, 67
 Sassy Sue's Freebies, 100
 Saving paper tips, 27–28
 Savoy, J., 218, 412
 Scholastic Web site, 91, 197, 311
 School administrators: expectations regarding misbehaving students, 351; referring misbehaving students to, 361, 369–371
 School laws/legislation: due process related to, 355; familiarity with, 352. See also No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB)
 School nurse, 296
 School office, 297
 School problems: 1: tardiness, 351, 372–374; 2: absenteeism, 351, 374–376; 3: overcrowded classes, 376–377; 4: substance abuse, 58, 333, 350, 378–379; 5: fighting and violence, 332, 351, 379–382; 6: harassment, 382–384. See also Behavior problems; Classroom troubleshooting
 School rules, 334–335, 348
 School terms: organization timeline prior to, 84, 86; recurring activities of, 88
 Schools: avoiding discussions about problems at, 58; chain of command at, 59; as diverse workplace, 53–54; information on policies and procedures of, 24–26; sharing space, materials, and equipment of, 26–28; support staff of, 58–59; teachers as solution to problems of, 6; teaching and enforcing rules of the, 334–335
 Scott, L., 6, 125, 213, 300, 411
 Seating charts: how to create, 110; why you need, 109
 Seatwork, 202
 Self-assessments: Assess Your Strengths, 17; Character Traits of Successful Teachers, 7; Classroom Management Techniques to Avoid, 357; Create Your Vision of the Year Ahead, 21; First-Day-of-School Goals, 121; How Effective Are You at Preventing Problems?, 331; How Observers Will Evaluate You, 62; How Will You Rate as a Teacher?, 8; Is Your Classroom Ready for Students?, 104; Is Your Delivery Effective?, 178; Manage Your Classroom Responsibilities, 19; Set Goals to Improve How You Work with Others, 51; A Teacher's To-Do List, 37; What Are Your Assumptions About Teaching?, 5; What Do You Already Know About Beginning a School Term?, 85; Where to Find Help with Establishing Routines and Procedures, 90. See also Teachers
 Self-confidence building, 142–143
 Self-discipline, 327
 Self-fulfilling prophecy, 233–234
 Set Goals to Improve How You Work with Others, 51
 Setting and Achieving Goals, 239
 Shared supplies bank, 330, 332
 Sharing classrooms, 97
 Sharing school space, 26–27
 Short-answer test questions, 212
 Sight words, 321
 Signals (help), 342
 Silent reading, 320–322
 Single parents, 5
 Sleeping in class, 416
 Social mistakes, 57–58
 Southern Poverty Law Center Web site, 404
 Special education teachers, 393
 Special needs students: with ADD or AD/HD, 394–396; collaborating with special education teachers and, 393; described, 390; 504 plans and, 353, 396–397; general strategies for working with, 391–393; instructional strategies for, 392; “least restrictive environment” mandate for, 390; teacher advice on, 391, 396, 397; Web resources on, 390–391; working with para-educators and, 394. See also Diverse learning styles
 Sponge activities, 291
 Sporting events game, 251
 Standards. See Professional teaching standards
 Stanton, M. M., 187, 223
 Stephenson, K., 125, 176, 309
 Storage issues, 98
 Storytellers game, 250
 Stress management: strategies for teaching, 272; teaching students, 271
 Student backpacks, 408–409
 Student conferences, 364–365
 Student crushes, 131
 Student desk arrangements, 92–93
 Student goals: creating classwide, 334; Setting and Achieving Goals, 239; teaching how to set/achieve, 237–238. See also Professional goals
 Student information: first-day updating of, 114; management of, 34; strategies for learning informal, 132–134; Student Information Form, 115; using student inventories to learn about, 134–138
 Student inventories: additional topics for, 134, 138; described, 134; Student Inventory for Elementary Students, 135; Student Inventory for High School Students, 137; Student Inventory for Middle School Students, 136
 Student work publications, 194–195
 Student worksheets: How Well Do You Student?, 262; Setting and Achieving Goals, 239; Track How You Use Time, 287
 Students: analyzing readiness for learning, 118; at-risk, 399–400; balancing like-respect for teachers by, 5; becoming successful learners, 257–282; as best motivation for teachers, 3; calming fears of your, 111; creating positive group identity/positive self-image of, 119; disadvantages/living in poverty, 400–402; diversity among, 387–406; encouraging recycling of supplies by, 28; engaging minds of your, 111; fighting and violence by, 332, 351, 379–382; first-day-of-school welcome packet for, 112–113; getting to know your, 114, 116–118; gifted, 388–390; handling misbehaving, 144; impact of caring teachers on, 6; inclusion of all, 3; involving in classroom organization, 95; learning names of, 114, 116; learning styles of, 185–189; living in poverty,

- 400–402; non-English-speaking, 402–403; receiving gifts from, 73; remember to love all of your, 9, 400; requests to leave class by, 296–298, 299; special needs, 390–397; tapping prior knowledge of, 159–160; taught to follow directions, 198–199; teaching class routines to, 112; underachieving, 397–399, 419; using seating charts for, 109–110; violating privacy of, 58; when grading is challenged by, 230; who work at different speeds, 290. See also Evaluating students; Misbehaving students; Motivation; Teacher-student relationships
- Study skills: How Well Do You Study?, 262; lesson incorporation of, 258–259; to teach your students, 259–261
- Substance abuse, 58, 333, 350, 378–379
- Substitute teachers: handling behavior problems, 171; lesson planning for, 170–171; providing essential information for, 172
- Supervisors: chain of command, 59; working well with, 59–60
- Supplies. See Classroom materials/supplies
- Support staff, 58–59
- Sustained silent reading, 320–322
- T
- Tactile (or kinesthetic) learners, 186, 188
- Take-home tests, 222
- Talk It Over: on becoming a team player, 81–82; on delivering instruction, 206; on developing professional expertise, 48; on managing a diverse classroom, 406; establishing groups for, 13–14; on evaluating students, 231; on handling behavior problems, 386; on how to get a good start in your new vocation, 12–14; on how to have a fantastic first day, 120; on instructional time management, 301; on intervention strategies, 345–346; on learner success strategies, 282; on lesson planning, 172–173; on motivating students, 255–256; network support using, 11; on organizing your time and tasks, 105; on reader success, 322–323; on teacher-student relationships, 145–146; on troubleshooting classroom problems, 422. See also Teacher to teacher advice
- Talk show game, 250
- Talking back, 418–419
- Tardiness, 351, 372–374
- Task organization: establishing routines/procedures for, 88–90; of predictable tasks, 87; of recurring activities, 87–88; steps taken for, 86–87
- Teach Net Web site, 229
- Teacher binders: advantages of using, 34; materials and tips on creating, 35–36
- Teacher colleagues: establishing discussion groups with, 13–14; expectations of you by, 50; finding mentors among, 38–39; finding role models among, 22; generous support by, 16, 22; maintaining private social life separate from, 56–57; responding to youthful appearance comments by, 130; working with difficult, 56, 57
- Teacher Magazine*, 42
- Teacher to teacher advice: on avoiding burnout, 45; on building vocabulary skills, 317; on class activities, 161; on delivering instruction, 181, 182, 187, 223; on managing a diverse classroom, 387–388, 390, 396; on enjoying your students, 96; on entering the teaching profession, 125; on facilitating reader success, 306, 307; on fighting and violence, 382; on giving directions, 201; on group work, 243; on the influence of caring teachers, 6; on instructional time management, 290, 294; on loving every child, 9; on motivating students, 240, 243; on special needs students, 396, 397; on testing students, 209, 218; on time management strategy, 33; on underachieving students, 419; on your first day, 112. See also Talk It Over
- Teacher-student relationships: being a role model as part of, 128–129; earning your students' respect, 126–127; empowering students while maintaining control, 143; handling misbehaving students, 144; handling student crushes, 131; helping students cope with negative peer pressure, 141–142; how much personal information to share, 131–132; keeping your temper, 144–145; learning about your students, 132–138; problem of being a popular teacher, 125; promoting trust with students, 139; showing how you care about your students, 138–139; Talk It Over on, 145–146; teaching students to believe in themselves, 142–143; using “I” messages, 141; watching your language, 140; what it should be, 124–125; what your students really want, 126
- Teachers: avoiding social mistakes, 57–58; “baby-faced,” 130; balancing like-respect by students for, 5; becoming an efficient, 28–37; being consistent, 344–345; characteristics/behavior of inspiring, 124–125; common problems faced by all, 4; commonsense steps to boost confidence, 11–12; connecting with your students, 123–146; core values of, 3–4; disciplinary mistakes made by, 355–356; diversity of, 53–54; dress codes/appearance of, 11, 129–130; evaluation process for, 60–64; inclusion/love of all students by, 3, 9, 400; maintaining private social life, 56–57; monitoring role of, 340–342; personal classroom space of, 93–94; professionalism of, 46–48; as role models, 128–129; special education, 393; staying healthy, 47; substitute, 170–172; ten skills required by all, 10. See also First year experience; Professional educators; Self-assessments
- The Teacher's Corner Web site, 96
- Teachers Network Web site, 40, 230
- A Teacher's To-Do List, 37
- TeachersFirst Web sites, 388
- Teachers.Net Homepage Maker Web site, 76
- Teaching: fallacies/myths about, 1–2; investigating national standards on, 22
- Teaching career: beginning your new, 1–2; developing professional expertise, 15–48; examining your assumptions about, 4–5; the good news about, 2–3; how to avoid ruining your, 9; how to get a good start on your, 12–14; setting professional goals for, 11–12
- Teaching profession promotion, 10–11
- Technology Web site, 43, 66, 197, 253, 311, 319, 400
- Team players: avoiding gossip, 55–56; avoiding social mistakes, 57–58; being assertive in a positive way, 54–55; evaluation process and, 60–64; how to fit in as, 54; on-the-job courtesy by, 50, 52; professional behavior by, 55; reaching out to your community, 81; Set Goals to Improve How You Work

- Team players (cont.)
 with Others, 51; Talk It Over on becoming, 81–82; trustworthiness of, 52–53; what your co-workers expect from you, 50; working well with parents and guardians, 64–80; working with difficult colleagues, 56, 57; working with supervisors, 59–60; working with support staff, 58–59
- Teamwork: between parents/guardians and teachers, 64–80; between support staff, supervisors, and teachers, 58–60; skills that build success, 49–50
- Technology: ideas for classroom use of, 169; teaching advantages of access to, 3; teaching strategies using, 167–168; WebQuests, 168, 170
- Telephone use requests, 297
- Telephoning parents/guardians, 74–75, 333
- Terms. See School terms
- Test designs: creating useful objective questions, 211–212; for essay tests, 213; flawed, 219; strategies for, 209–210
- Test questions: matching, 211–212; multiple-choice, 212; short-answer, 212; true or false statements, 211
- Tests/testing: designing effective quizzes and, 209–213; essay, 213, 218; how to encourage students to correct their errors, 220; preparing for success on standardized, 208–209; rules of student conduct for, 215–218; taking time to review, 204–205; teacher advice on, 209; teaching students successful test-taking strategies, 214; variations on traditional, 222; when students fail, 219–220. See also Evaluating students; No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB)
- Theft problem, 420–421
- Thinkfinity Web site, 43
- Thinking: critical, 161–163, 193–194; teaching your student to think on paper, 263–264
- Thomas, S. B., 352
- Threatening behavior, 350
- Time management: arriving early/leaving late, 32; of instructional time, 283–301; for lesson planning, 149; managing paperwork load, 33; using small blocks of time wisely, 31; tips on, 30, 32. See also Organizing time/tasks
- Time sequence maps, 196
- Tower of English Web site, 403
- Toys (instructional), 181–182
- Track How You Use Time, 287
- Traffic flow (classroom), 92
- Troubleshooting problems. See Classroom troubleshooting
- Truancy, 351, 374–376
- True or false test questions, 211
- Trustworthiness issue: between you and your colleagues, 52–53; between you and your students, 139
- Turnitin Web sites, 281
- Twenty Questions game, 251
- ## U
- Underachieving students, 397–399, 419
- Underage drinking, 333
- Unit plans, 152–153
- Unsafe behavior, 350–351
- Unsafe school environment, 332–333
- U.S. Department of Education: No Child Left Behind Web site information, 24; Web site of, 23, 43, 396; What Works Clearinghouse of, 24
- U.S. Department of Justice Web site, 332
- ## V
- Verbal directions, 199, 201
- Veteran teachers. See Teachers
- Violent behavior: gangs and, 332, 413; handling fighting and, 379–382; as unacceptable behavior, 351
- Visual aids, 235–236
- Visual learners, 186, 188
- Visual Tools for Constructing Knowledge* (Hyerle), 197
- Vocabulary skills: activities for building, 317–318; enriching your students', 313–315; making the classroom rich in words, 315–316; teacher advice on, 317; Web resources on improving, 319
- Vocabulary University Web site, 319
- ## W
- Walski, S., 349
- Water fountains, 297
- Weapons, 381
- Web resources: for at risk/disadvantaged students, 400, 402; for classroom bulletin boards, 96; for classroom organization, 91; for classroom supplies, 100; for classroom Web page, 76; for creating classroom rules, 336; for diverse learning styles, 186; for early intervention strategies, 329; for electronic grade books, 229; for 504 plans, 396; for free e-books, 316; for games, 250; for gangs and gang violence, 332; for gender bias, 405; for gifted students, 388; for graphic organizers, 197; for homework partnerships, 274; for icebreakers, 118; for improving vocabulary skills, 319; for increasing reading fluency, 319–320, 321; for interactive response systems, 223; for lesson plan, 157–158; for multicultural approach to education, 404; for No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB), 23–24; for non-English-speaking students, 403; for organizing strategies, 99; for peer pressure, 344; for personalizing grade reports, 229–230; for plagiarism, 281, 421; for portfolio assessments, 226–227; for pre-reading activities, 311; for professional journals, 41–42; for professional organizations, 39–40; for rewarding students, 253; for rubrics, 224–225; for special needs students, 390–391; for teaching listening skills, 265; for WebQuests, 168, 170. See also Professional resources
- Web sites: A to Z Teacher Stuff, 13, 42, 66, 158; About.com, 100; aha!Process, 402; Alfie Kohn's, 336; AOL Study-Buddies, 319; AT&T Knowledge Ventures' Blue Web'n, 158; B. J.'s Homework Helper, 274; Behavior Advisor, 329; BestWebQuests, 170; Boardgames.com, 250; Carol Ann Tomlinson, 388; Center for the Study of Reading, 319; ClassNotes Online, 76; CoolFreebieLinks, 100; Council for Exceptional Children, 391; Dave's ESL Café, 250, 403; David Sadker's, 405; Discovery School, 250; Dyetub Media, 253; Editorial Projects in Education Blogboard, 13; EdScope, 158; Education Place, 91; The Education Technology Department at San Diego State University, 170; Education World, 42, 76; Educational Development Center, 319; Educators Network, 158, 225; EduHound, 42–43; eInstruction Corporation, 223; Family Education Network, 226–227; Federal Resources for Educational Excellence, 43; 4Teachers, 91, 224; GlobalSchoolNet, 43; GradeBookWizard, 229; Gutenberg Project, 316; Homework Center, 274; Hotmath, 274; Houghton Mif-

- flin's Education Place, 197, 311; Ice Breakers, 118; iLoveLanguages, 72; Interactive Wordplays, 319; International Reading Association, 320; International Reading Association/National Council of Teachers of English, 320; iParadigms' Plagiarism.org, 281; Kathy Schrock's Guide for Educators, 42, 96, 170, 197, 224–225; Kids Store, 253; Kim's Korner, 96; Kindergarten Connection, 43; LD OnLine, 390–391; LD Pride, 186; Learner Profile, 229; Learning Disabilities Association of America (LDA), 391; Learning-Styles-Online.Com, 186; Literacy Connections, 321; Los Angeles County Office of Education, 344; Many Teaching Ideas, 265; Master Teacher, 329; Merriam-Webster, 319; Microsoft® Excel, 229; Mid-Continent Research for Education and Learning, 43; MyGradeBook, 229; National Association for Gifted Children, 388; National Geographic, 274; New Horizons for Learning, 404; No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB) official, 24; 123sortit, 99; Out of the Box Games, 250; Pearson Education, 274; ProTeacher, 319; ProTeacher Directory, 329; Qwizdom, 223; Reading Is Fundamental, 320; Sassy Sue's Freebies, 100; Scholastic, 91, 197, 311; Southern Poverty Law Center, 404; Teach Net, 229; The Teacher's Corner, 96; Teachers Network, 230; TeachersFirst, 388; Teachers.Net Homepage Maker, 76; Teachnology, 43, 66, 197, 253, 311, 319, 400; Thinkfinity, 43; Tower of English, 403; Turnitin, 281; U.S. Department of Education, 23, 43, 396; U.S. Department of Justice, 332; Vocabulary University, 319; What Works Clearinghouse, 24; Wordsmith, 319. See also Internet WebQuests, 168, 170
- Weekly activity routines, 88
- Werner, M., 265
- What Are Your Assumptions About Teaching?, 5
- What Do You Already Know About Beginning a School Term?, 85
- What to Include in Your Lesson Plans, 155
- What Works Clearinghouse, 24
- Where to Find Help with Establishing Routines and Procedures, 90
- Whole-language approach, 306
- Wordsmith Web site, 319
- Worksheets. See Student worksheets
- Writing skills: neatness and accuracy elements of, 269–270; tips on facilitating student, 268–269
- Written directions, 200

