

---

INDEX

---

- APM BoK, see Association of Project Management Body of Knowledge
- Appraisal phase (program management), 133–136
- Association of Project Management Body of Knowledge* (APM BoK), 47
- Bank financing, 296
- Benefits assessment, 134
- Benefits management, 124, 125
- Brainstorming, 216–217
- Business processes, 254–255
- Business strategy, 36–38, 41. See also Moving from corporate strategy to project strategy
- Buyer credit, 298, 299
- Capital, cost of, 295, 296
- Comparative portfolio selection approaches, 100–101
- Competence(-ies), 263
  - for moving strategy, 48, 50–51
  - operational, 68
  - of project managers, 263–265
  - of project teams, 265
- Complexity:
  - of financing, 293
  - of large projects, 148–151
  - in NCTP Model, 187, 189–192
- Concession contracts, 310–312
- Consistent level (of project success), 235–236, 243, 246
- Contingency theory, 178–179
- Contracts, financing, 302, 303
- Core-operations-led organizations, 82
- Corporate strategy, see Moving from corporate strategy to project strategy
- Cost of capital, 295, 296
- Cost of debt, 296
- Cost of equity, 295
- Counter trade, 298
- CREST project, 281–287
- Critical success factors (CSFs), see Success of projects
  - in functional analysis, 212–215
  - for large projects, 155–157
  - in program management, 126
- CSFs, see Critical success factors
- DBFO, see Design-Build-Finance-Operate
- Debt, cost of, 296
- Debt financing, 294–295
- Debt swapping, 299
- Decision making:
  - with large projects, 151
  - with multiple projects, 18–23
- in portfolio selection, 101–102
- strategic decision management model for, 120–122
- strategy and, 11–13
- in value management process, 221–222
- Decision support systems, 101–102
- Deployment phase (program management), 130–133
- Design-Build-Finance-Operate (DBFO), 310–312. See also Private Finance Initiative
- Differences between projects, 177–197
  - and contingency theory, 178–179
  - frameworks for distinction of, 181
  - NCTP Model for, 183–194
  - strategic portfolio classification framework of, 181–183
  - UCP Model of, 179–181
  - work package framework of, 194–195
- Dissolution phase (program management), 136
- Documentation:
  - of large projects, 170–172
  - of project strategy, 76–77
- Economic return, 99–100
- Elaboration (VM process), 218–220

- Equity, cost of, 295
- Equity financing, 294
- Equity swapping, 299
- Evaluation of projects, see Project evaluation
- Expert pools, 267–268
- Export credit, 297

- FBS, see Function breakdown structure
- Feasibility study, 304
- Functioning of projects, 290–307
  - conventional sources for, 296–298
  - design strategy factors for, 291–293
  - and process of financial management, 303–307
  - project finance vs., 290
  - types of, 293–296
  - unconventional sources for, 298–299
- Forfeiting, 299
- Formulation phase (program management), 124–127
- Front-end planning/management, 105
- Functional analysis, 209–215
- Functional excellence, 69
- Function breakdown structure (FBS), 211–212

- Gate keeping, 130
- Gower Street Redevelopment Project, see University College London Hospitals Project
- A Guide to the Project Management Body of Knowledge (PMBOK® guide)*, 47

- Ideation (in VM process), 215–218
- Information content/flow, with multiple projects, 22–23
- Integrated program management cycle model, 120, 121
- Interdependencies, 129, 131
- International financial markets, 296, 297
- International investment institutions, 296, 297
- Investment scorecard, 260
- Islamic banks, 299

- Large projects, 144–174
  - characteristics of, 145–148
  - critical success criteria for, 155–157
  - development phase of, 161–162
  - environmental complexity and strategic direction of, 148–151
  - execution and control phase of, 172–173
  - handover and closeout phase of, 173–174
  - implementation phase of, 162–169
  - initiation phase of, 168, 170, 171
  - integrated life cycle planning for, 157–164
  - life cycle of, 144, 151–153
  - life cycle project management
    - approach to, 164–174
    - managing risks and uncertainties with, 153–155
    - modeling for, 157–164
    - planning and documentation phase of, 170–172
    - strategic phase of, 158–160
  - Largest single cost, 291–292
  - LCOFs, see Life cycle objective functions
  - LCPM, see Life cycle project management
  - Leasing, 298
  - Lessons learned, see Project evaluation
  - Life cycle objective functions (LCOFs), 154–164
  - Life cycle project management (LCPM), for large projects, 164–174
  - London Stock Exchange (LSE) case study, 278–284
  - LSE case study, see London Stock Exchange case study
- Management of projects, viii, xi–xiii
- The Management of Projects* (Peter Morris), xii
- Mapping, of stakeholders, 275–277, 283
- Market research, 99–100
- Maturity, of project-oriented companies, 268
- Mezzanine debt, 294
- Mission, project, 316–318
- Morris, Peter, xii
- Moving from corporate strategy to project strategy, 34–61
  - and availability of resources, 38, 39
  - case studies of, 53–56
  - competencies for, 48, 50–51
  - and development of corporate strategy, 34–35
  - and hierarchy of objectives and strategies, 38
  - and hierarchy of strategic plans, 38, 41
  - and positioning of project management, 35–36
  - roles/responsibilities/accountabilities for, 48, 51–53
  - and strategic framework of project, 45, 47
  - and strategy management process, 36–38
  - structured approach to, 48, 49
  - survey on processes/practices for, 56–60
  - through portfolio management, 41–43
  - through program management, 41, 43–44
  - through project management process, 44–47
- Multiple projects, management of, 1–28
  - emergent strategies in, 9–11
  - empirical examples of, 18–23
  - and organizational design/decision making, 11–13
  - and program management, 5
  - and project portfolio management, 4–5
  - strategic business management framework for, 23–28
  - strategic importance of different project types in, 2–4
  - strategy and strategic management in, 6–7
  - strategy formulation and implementation in, 7–8
  - theoretical framework for, 6, 14–18
  - time management in, 13–14
- NCTP Model, 181–194
  - complexity dimension of, 187, 189–192
  - for managing highly uncertain/complex programs, 192–194
  - novelty dimension of, 183–185
  - technological uncertainty dimension of, 184–188
- Networking:
  - of projects, 262–263
- New product development (NPD):
  - project portfolio management with, 94–95
  - risk assessment/management in, 96

- Novelty (in NCTP Model), 183–185
 NPD, see New product development
- Objectives, hierarchy of, 38, 40
 Operational competence, 68
 Optimization models, 101
 Organizational fit model, 251–254
 Organization phase (program management), 127–130 Organizations:
   program-based, 136–139
   project-based, 81
   types of, 81–82
 Outsourcing, 97–98
- Personnel, management processes for, 263–265
- PFI, see Private Finance Initiative
 PMBOK® guide, see A Guide to the Project Management Body of Knowledge
- PMSO, see Project management support office
- POC Maturity Model, 268
 POCs, see Project-oriented companies
 Portfolio management, 117–118. See also Project portfolio management
 Portfolio matrices, 99–100
 Portfolio selection, 99–109 characteristics of projects affecting, 98–99 models/methodologies for, 99–102
   and outsourcing, 97–98
   post-process phase in, 108–109
   preprocess phase in, 104–105 process phase in, 105–108 stages in, 102–104
 Post-project evaluations, see Project evaluation
- Power, of stakeholders, 277–278
 Prioritization, 129–130
 Private Finance Initiative (PFI), 299–301, 309–329 affordability assessment, 319–320 aims/objectives of parties to, 312–313 assessing value-for-money in, 316–318 barriers involved with, 328–329 concession contracts vs., 310–312 consequences of using, 313–314 defining project mission in, 316–318 and project risks, 314–316
   and resource base mobilization, 321–328 stakeholder consent for, 320–321 writing output specification for, 318
- Professional associations, vii, 200. See also specific organization names
- Program-based organizations, 136–139
 Program management, xii, 113–140 appraisal phase of, 133–136 definition of terms used in, 116–118 deployment phase of, 130–133
   dissolution phase of, 136
   formulation phase of, 124–127 framework for, 120–122
   life cycle of, 122–124
   and link between programs and strategy, 118–119 moving business strategy through, 41, 43–44
   with multiple projects, 5 organization phase of, 127–130 paradigms for, 114–116
   portfolio management vs., 117–118
   process of, 119–124
   in program-based organization, 136–140
   in project-oriented companies, 257–258
- Program validation, 134–136
- Project(s), 64
   differences between, 177–197
   hierarchy of, 38, 40
   strategic importance of, 2–4
   types of, 2–4, 85
- Project-based organizations, 81. See also Project-oriented companies
- Project evaluation, and selection of project strategy, 65–66
- Project finance, 299–303. See also Private Finance Initiative financing of projects vs., 290 forms of, 300–302
   roles/contracts for, 302, 303
   structures for, 302–303
- Project-led organizations, 82
- Project level of success, 234–235, 241, 243, 245
- Project management:
   approaches to, ix–xi
   within business management context, 35–36
   current paradigms for, 116 history of, vii link between strategic management and, 77–78 models of, vii–viii
   moving business strategy through, 41, 44–47
   for multiple projects, 1–28
   in project-oriented companies, 255–257
- Project management level of success, 233–234, 240–242, 244
- Project management support office (PMSO), in project-oriented companies, 266–267
- Project managers:
   competencies of, 263–265
   worldview of, 239–240
- Project orientation models, 80–92
   data analysis in, 88–89
   data collection for, 87–88
   findings/implications in, 89–92 measurement in, 88
   organizational perspective model, 84, 86, 87 project perspective model, 82–85
   variables in, 86, 87
- Project-oriented companies (POCs), 250–269 assignment of projects and programs in, 259–260 management quality in projects/programs of, 258–259 maturity of, 268
   networking between projects in, 262–263 organizational design of, 266–268 organizational fit model of, 251–254 personnel management in, 263–265 program management in, 257–258 project management in, 255–257 project portfolio coordination in, 261–262
   as social construct, 250–251 specific business processes of, 254–255
- Project plan/planning, 76, 78, 170–172
- Project portfolio management, 94–102, 109–110
   and characteristics of projects, 98–99
   literature on, 94–98
   moving business strategy through, 41–43
   with multiple projects, 4–5

- Project portfolio management
  - (continued)
  - and portfolio selection, see Portfolio selection
  - in project-oriented companies, 266–267
- Project portfolio scorecard, 261, 262
- Project strategy, 63–79. See also
  - Moving from corporate strategy to project strategy
  - in context of strategic management, 69–71
  - creation of, 47
  - documentation of, 76–77
  - evaluation/selection of projects in, 65–66
  - importance of, 71
  - and link between strategic management and project management, 77–78
  - and principles of project planning, 78
  - project plan in, 76
  - and strategic management, 66–67
  - transition from business strategy to, 44–47
  - work breakdown structure in, 71–74
  - work packages in, 74–76
- Project success, see Success of projects
- Project teams:
  - classification of, 64, 65
  - competencies of, 265
- Public-Private Partnership (PPP), 299–301

- Quality management, in project-oriented companies, 258–259

- Resource management, in deployment phase, 131–132
- Resource management, when moving from corporate strategy to project strategy, 38, 39
- Risk:
  - with large projects, 146–147
  - in portfolio management, 95–96
- Risk management:
  - in deployment phase, 131
  - financial, 306–307
  - with large projects, 153–155
- ROLAND GAREIS Project and Programme Management®, 255–256

- Scheduling, see Time control
- Scoring models, 101
- Senior debt, 294
- Sensemaking process, 207–208
- Shareholder financing, 296
- Stakeholder analysis, 208–209
- Stakeholder management, 271–288
  - in formulation phase, 124, 125
  - incentives approaches to, 282, 285–287
  - increasing complexity of, 271–274
  - London Stock Exchange case study, 278–284
  - and power of stakeholders, 277–278
  - processes required for, 274–277
- Standards and guides, for value management, 200
- Strategic business management, 23–28
- Strategic decision management model, 120–122
- Strategic effectiveness, 68, 69
- Strategic management, 66
  - balance among factors in, 67–69
  - corporate and business strategies in, 36–38
  - link between project management and, 77–78
  - and project strategy, 66–67, 69–71
  - through multiple projects, 1–28
- Strategic plan(s):
  - hierarchy of, 38, 41
  - in organization phase, 127–129
  - project strategy in, 63
- Strategic portfolio classification, 181–183
- Strategy(-ies), 63. See also Project strategy
  - business, 36–38, 41
  - corporate, 34–38
  - financial, 291–293
  - five Ps of, 6
  - hierarchy of, 38, 40
  - intended vs. realized, 9
  - link between programs and, 118–119
  - moving from corporate to project strategy, 34–61
  - with multiple projects, 6–11
  - and organizational design/decision making, 11–13
  - in program management context, 116
- Success of projects, 226–246. See also Critical success factors
  - consistent level of, 235–236, 243, 246
  - factors contributing to, 236–240
  - large projects, 155–157
  - levels of, 232–240
  - literature on, 227–232
  - metrics for, 236
  - project level of, 234–235, 241, 243, 245
  - project management level of, 233–234, 240–242, 244
- Supplier credit, 298
- Supplier financing, 297
- Switch trades, 299

- TAURUS system, 279–287
- Technological uncertainty (in NCTP Model), 184–188
- Time control, with multiple projects, 13–14

- UCLH project, see University College London Hospitals Project
- UCP Model, 179–181
- University College London Hospitals (UCLH) Project, 309, 312–315, 317–319, 321, 326

- VA, see Value analysis
- Validation, 134–136
- Value, 201, 202
- Value analysis (VA), 201–203
- Value engineering (VE), 201–203
- Value management (VM), 199–224
  - for ambiguity reduction, 117
  - choice in, 221–222
  - concept of value in, 202, 203
  - elaboration in, 218–220
  - focus on results in, 206–207
  - function(al) analysis in, 209–215
  - historical background of, 199–201
  - ideation in, 215–218
  - key concepts in, 201
  - at management level, 203–204
  - at organizational level, 204–205
  - process of, 205–206
  - sensemaking process in, 207–208
  - stakeholder analysis in, 208–209
  - value analysis and value engineering vs., 202, 203
- VE, see Value engineering
- VM, see Value management

- WBS, see Work breakdown structure
- Work breakdown structure (WBS), 71–74
- Work packages, 74–76, 194–195