

Contents

FOREWORD BY ARTHUR KURZWEIL ix

AUTHOR'S INTRODUCTION xvii

- I Are We Actors with Masks? 1
Our Ability to Assimilate Has Been Too Effective for Our Own Good
- II Are We Shattered into Pieces? 17
Despite What Anti-Semites Have Said, Our Infighting and Historical Circumstances Have Never Allowed Unity nor a Unified Leadership
- III Are We a Nation or a Religion? 39
Our People Are Not a Religion, nor a Nation, nor an Ethnic Group, nor a Race
- IV Do We Have Our Own Set of Character Traits? 61
Yes, But Sometimes We Use Them and Sometimes We Abuse Them
- V Is Money Our God? 79
The Slander, Lies, and Misunderstandings Regarding Jews and Money
- VI Why Do We Want to Save the World? 95
Exploring the Jewish Messiah Complex

Contents

- VII Are We Excessively Warm or Excessively Cold? 111
The Seemingly Contradictory Phenomena of Jewish Emotionalism and Intellectualism
- VIII Why Are Our People Involved in Idolatry? 127
Our Theocentric Nature and Our Temptation to Create and Worship Idols
- IX What Is Our Role in the World? 141
*Our "Chosen" Status Demands That We
Be the Priests to the World*
- X How Does Our Jewishness
Influence Our Thinking Process? 155
Marx, Freud, Einstein, and the Jewish Search for Unifying Principles
- XI How Does Anti-Semitism Affect Other People? 167
The Correlation Between a Country's Health and How Well It Treats Its Jews
- XII What Will Become of the Jewish People? 183

THE AUTHOR 189

THE EDITOR 193

INDEX 195