

Index

- Absentee ownership of stocks, 160–163
- Abuses of funds:
- agency costs, 33
  - BISYS Fund Services, 160–161
  - Citigroup and Smith Barney fund management, 160
  - directed brokerage, 63, 153–154
  - first-preferred versus second-preferred stocks (1924), 10
  - market-timing, 63, 112–113, 127, 133, 158, 162
  - Massachusetts Financial Services (MFS), 63
  - NYSE committee (1928), 145–146
  - revenue sharing, 111, 116–117, 156–159
  - self-dealing, 7, 9, 10
  - trust mania, 1890, 8
  - 12b-1 (management) fees, in lieu of “front-end” fees, 148
- Ackerley, Anne, 115, 167
- Advertising:
- frequency linked to poor performance, 110
  - to promote brand names of funds, 110–111, 139
  - revenue sharing, 156–159
  - 12b-1 (marketing) fees, 147–149, 157–159
- AIM Advantage Health Sciences fund, 114
- Alliance Bernstein, 119
- Alliance Capital, 33, 70
- Amazon, 50, 110
- American Century Growth Investors, 60, 129
- American Century Ultra Investors, 60
- American Funds Group, 60, 65, 120, 121, 153–154
- American Mutual Fund, 82
- Amerindo Technology, 113
- Ameriprise Financial, 70, 162–164. See also RiverSource
- Analog Devices, 90
- Analysis:
- company-by-company, 35–36
  - security, versus benchmarking, 130–132
- Annual reports, 60
- Arbitrage, 23, 31, 37, 55
- Asset allocation, 129, 132–133
- Assets under management (AUM):
- focus on, versus performance, 65, 75, 139–140
  - shareholder reports of, 64
  - T. Rowe Price Group, 71, 72, 74–75, 79
- Baker, Russell, 15
- Barron's, 111
- Battle for the Soul of Capitalism* (Bogle), 64
- Behavioral finance, 29, 30, 36–41, 104, 106, 176
- Belgian chocolate theory of financial markets, 107
- Benchmarking:
- against market versus competitive funds, 162–163
  - performance relative to a market index, 78
  - ratings based on near-term results, 138–140
  - risk-adjusted, 137
  - versus security analysis, 130–132
- Berkshire Hathaway, 21, 35, 56, 190
- Bernard, Edward, 76
- Bertelson, Bob, 124
- Big Bang (Britain), 54
- Biotech stocks (1990s), 108
- BISYS Fund Services (SEC), 160–161
- Black Monday (Oct. 19, 1987), 18, 54–55, 56, 108, 143, 175
- Black Rock fund family, 115, 120, 121, 167
- Black swan event (late 1990s), 108–117
- Boards of investment companies:
- conflicts of interest, 73, 75–76
  - directors not invested in funds, 163
  - directors serving multiple boards, 81, 163
  - independent audits mandated, 11
  - interests of investors versus interests of stockholders, 73
  - role of directors, 166–169
  - turnover rates, 167
  - 12b-1 fees, approval by, 166
- Bogle, Jack, 64, 74, 79, 92, 187–189
- Boston-type open-end funds, 11–15
- Bottom-up investing, 80, 144, 184
- Broadcom, 22, 114
- Broad market index funds, 66–67
- Bubble, stock market:
- of late 1990s, 45–47, 110–111, 113, 115
  - advertising of funds in, 110–111
  - and “black swan” event, 108–117
  - effect on Dow Jones Industrials index, 141
  - financial advisers and brokers, 109–110, 134–135
  - investor, individual, 108–117
  - media recommendations, 112–116
  - real estate (up to 2007), 46
  - recovery after 1990s, 66–67
  - Southwest real estate (1980s), 29, 108
- Buffett, Warren, 8, 20, 30, 31, 32, 35, 38, 39, 41, 56, 105, 114, 129, 134, 136, 175, 178, 183, 186
- Bull market, 8–10, 110–111
- BusinessWeek*, 110–112, 115, 116, 133, 136

- Buy-and-hold strategy, index funds, 66–67
 Buying on margin, 48
 Bylesby & Co. investment bank, 10
- Cabot, Paul, 15, 145, 146
 Canary Capital, 113
 Carry trade, 8
 Cash, holding, 30–31
 Center for Retirement Research at Boston College, 100
 “Churning” of stocks, 63, 137
 “Circuit breakers,” 55
 Cisco Systems, 24, 46, 47, 50, 51, 62, 90, 110
 Citigroup, 45, 120
 Classes of shares, 149–152
 Clipper Fund, 21, 23, 26, 30, 34, 38, 61
 Closed-end funds, 20, 187
 Closet indexing versus bottom-up investing, 80, 144
 Cohernour, Elizabeth, 189
 Commissions:
   American Funds Group and “directed brokerage,” 153–154 inflated, as marketing device, 153
   liquidity, excessive, 54
   versus management fees and expenses, 151
   “soft dollars” for research services, 155–156
   “stepped-out” (passed on) to advisory firm, 154–155
 Commodities market, 50–51
 Common stock, 11–12
Common Stocks and Uncommon Profits (Fisher), 35 Conflict of interest. See also “Consistent style discipline” compensation for board members, 80–81, 163, 168 adding new investors, 79
   investors versus management company stockholders, 73, 126 management fees versus investor’s returns, 83–84, 146–149, 165–166 publicly owned management company and its funds, 79 “revenue sharing” or “pay to play,” 111, 116–117, 156–159
 “Consistent style discipline,” 78, 127, 132, 142–144
 Consulting Group Large Cap Growth, 60
 “Cooling-off” period, 55
 Corporate retirement plans, 14, 58
 “Corporate veil, piercing the,” 86
 Critical analysis and judgment, 142–144. See also Value investing
- De Grauwe, Paul, 107
 Deregulation of stock market (1975), 54, 155–156
 Dillon, Read (1920s), 10
 Dillon, Clarence, 10
- Directed brokerage, 153–154
 Directors, independent, of funds, 80–82
 Disclosure:
   accessible and useful information, 161–163
   Ameriprise Financial, example, 164 board members’ investments in funds, 163 burden on investors to investigate funds, 85 candor toward investors, 89
   full, by MIT fund (1920s), 12
   multiclass stocks, 149–152
   “corporate veil, piercing the,” 86
   free market conditions versus minimum required, 85, 147 high degree of, 51
   investors versus management, T. Rowe Price Group, 81, 85, 86 no-load funds versus load funds, 150
   at Oakmark Select, 81
   12b-1 (management) fees, 146–159, 165–166
   watchdogs, 161, 166–169
 Discount rate, 21, 24
 Diversified International Fund, 144
 Diversified versus concentrated portfolios, 29
 Dodd, David L., 21, 38, 52–53, 66, 108
 Domestic equity funds, 27–28
 Donohue, Andrew, 148–149, 152
 Dow Jones Industrial Average, 40, 54, 140, 141
 Drew, Daniel, 49
 Duer, Martin, 48
 Duke Energy, 114
 DuPont pension plans, replaced by 401(k) plans, 97–98
- Earnings, focus on, 46
 Eaton Vance, 70
 Economic theory and scholarship:
   behavioral finance, 29, 104, 106, 176
   Belgian chocolate theory of financial markets, 107
   capital asset pricing model, 38
   efficient market theory (EMT), 18
   feedback loop (influence of group), 106 market fluctuation risk, 32 “noise” (chatter of the market), 106 rational markets, 41 role of rational investors, 19–20
 Economies of scale:
   directors serving on multiple boards, 81, 163, 168
   Franklin Resources, case study, 125–127
   fund management companies, 14, 125–127
   fund managers’ interests versus investors’ interests, 81, 84 lower fees for investors, 121, 170
   outsourcing, 124
   T. Rowe Price Group, case study, 74
 Edward Jones, 116, 157–158
 Efficient market theory (EMT), 18, 28, 29, 37–38
 18f-3 (multiclass shares in same fund), 149–152

- Emerging markets index fund, 66–67
 EMT. See Efficient market theory
 Energy stocks (late 1970s), 29, 108
 Enron, 22, 23, 28, 39, 112, 113
 Erie Railroad, 49
 Eveillard, Jean-Marie, 21, 24, 39
 Exchange-traded funds (ETFs), 187
 Expense ratio:
   need for transparency, 165
   T. Rowe Price Growth Stock Fund, 71, 84
   Vanguard 500 Index Fund, 71
 Exxon Mobil Corporation, 50
- Fairholme, 189–192, 190
 Federal Public Service, 10
 Federated, 70
 Fees and expenses of funds:
   advent of mutual funds, 1950s, 88
   classes, multiple, of shares, 149–152
   increasing, at investor's expense, 146–149
   T. Rowe Price (case study), 71, 72–93
   12b-1 (management) fees, 146–149, 166
 Fidelity, 33, 69, 110–111, 119, 120–122, 139, 140, 159, 167
 Fidelity Advisor Equity Growth, 60
 Fidelity Advisor Fifty, 129–130
 Fidelity Fund, 82, 95–96
 Fidelity Growth Company Fund, 65
 Fidelity Magellan Fund, 103
 Fiduciary duty and integrity:
   agency costs, 33
   disclosure of management fees and expenses, 146–149, 157–159, 166–168 fund managers investing in own funds, importance of, 33–34 management fee schedules, 83, 146–149
   multiclass structure of stocks, 149–152 and “new economy” of 1990s, 89–90, 107 owed to investors, 79–80
   revenue sharing, at expense of investor's assets, 156–159 roles of directors of funds, 166–169 sale of fund management companies, 15
   T. Rowe Price (case study), 70–93
   value managers and, 39
 Financial advisers and brokers:
   Ameriprise Financials and number of, 134–135, 164
   as customers of fund managers, 129 choosing, 177–178
   guidance sought from, 116–117, 128–129
   multiclass stock structures and advising investors, 151–152 payments from fund complexes, 170
 Financial Research Corporation (FRC), 130, 131, 133
Financial Times, 84
 First Eagle Global Fund, 21, 24–25, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 37, 39, 41, 61, 66, 142, 144, 180
 Firsthand Technology Innovators, 113, 114
 Fisher, Philip, 35, 135
 Five-sigma event, 26
 Flipping. See also Turnover
   carry trade, 8
   current practice, 13
   portfolio rebalancing, 136–137, 170
   real estate market, 54
 Foreign and Colonial Government Trust, 8
 Foreign funds, 111
 Fortress Investment Group, 10
Fortune magazine:
   “10 Stocks to Last the Decade,” 22–24, 27–29, 32, 41, 112 reliance on experts for recommendations, 114–116
   report on MIT fund (1949), 12
   401(k) plans, 97–102
 FPA Capital Fund, 21, 23, 25, 26, 30, 32, 34, 61, 79, 138, 180, 185
 Franklin Biotechnology Discovery fund, 112
 Franklin Resources, 70, 120, 125–127, 132–133
 Franklin Templeton, 119
 Fund management companies:
   assets, emphasis on, 64–65
   assets under management (AUM) versus fund performance, 75, 139–140
   economies of scale, 14
   Franklin Resources, case study, 125–127
   investing in versus investing in mutual funds, 69 publicly traded, list of top 10, 69–70 shareholders versus funds' investors, 73
   “soft dollars” for research services, 155–156
   “stepped-out” or passed on, portion of commissions, 154–155
   Sun Life, 14, 64
   trafficking of management contracts, 87
   T. Rowe Price Group, case study, 70–93
 Fund managers:
   benchmarking versus analysis, 130
   financial advisers and brokers as customers, 129 full-time management recommended in 1954, 64
   generalists, 184
   inner-directed, 39
   investing in own funds, 33–34, 124, 167, 183
   long-term perspectives, 38 moved from fund to fund, 124 replaced by team management, 81, 132 role of, important, when choosing funds, 174–176
   stewardship versus salesmanship, 64–65, 177–178
 Futures (“time bargains”), 48
 Galbraith, John Kenneth, 9, 27
 Genentech, 22
 General Motors, 9, 12, 79

- Gipson, James, 26, 38
 Global Crossing, 51, 109
 “Goldfarb 10”:
   compared to “Group of 15,” 59, 66
   list of top ten funds, 20–41, 26
 Goldfarb, Bob, 20
 Google, 45
 Graham-and-Dodd principles, 21, 23, 24, 27, 29, 31, 34–36, 39, 41, 107–108
 Graham, Benjamin, 8, 21, 31, 34–35, 38, 51–53, 66, 88, 185
 Grantham, Jeremy, 183
 Greed:
   case study of T. Rowe Price, 69–93 versus panic, as impetus in choosing stocks, 175 “Group of 15”:
   average returns compared to S&P 500, 59, 60, 61
   compared to “Goldfarb’s 10,” 59 “Guide to Asset Allocation, A” (Franklin Resources), 132
- Hamilton, Alexander, 48
 Harbor Capital Appreciation, 60
 Harlem Railroad (1830s), 49
 Havel, Vaclav, 44
 Hawkins, Mason, 30
 Health care index fund, 66–67
 Hedge funds, 10, 37, 178
 “Herd” (momentum investing), 36–37, 105
- Index-arbitrage market and “circuit breakers,” 55
 Index funds, 58, 66–67, 186–189
 Indexing:
   Black Monday (Oct. 19, 1987), 54
   closet indexing versus bottom-up investing, 80
   and importance of timing, 28
   Lipper index, tech stocks in 1990s, 90
 Individual retirement account (IRA), 99
 Initial public offerings (IPOs), 114
 Insurance, portfolio, and Black Monday
   (Oct. 19, 1987), 54
 Insurance Securities, 86–87
 Intangible assets, T. Rowe Price (TROW), 72
 Intel, 24
Intelligent Investor, The (Graham), 21, 88
 International equity funds, 142–144
 Internet, 113
 Invesco Leisure funds, 112
 Invesco Telecommunications, 112 Investment:
   interests of the small investor versus interests of fund managers, 15
   risk, as defined by price volatility, 39
 Investment companies:
   American (1920s to 1930s), 8–12
   British trusts (1800s), 8
   closed-end companies (1920s), 11
   Dutch trusts (1700s), 8
   trusteeship model, 13–14
   vehicles for “self-dealing” (1920s), 9
 Investment Company Act of 1940, 11, 79, 83–84, 87, 161, 179
 Investment Company Institute, 81
 Investor, individual:
   absentee ownership of stocks, 160–163
   bubbles and swan events, 107–117
   burden on, to investigate funds, 85, 127 candor toward, 87–92 confidence, fluctuating, 95–96
   disclosures, needed, 180
   dividend yields, 96–97
   financial advisers and brokers, 129, 134–135, 151–152, 177–178
   following the herd, 176–177
   funds and stocks, switching, 89, 104, 133–137
   Harris poll in late 1990s, 115
   individual retirement account (IRA), 99
   interests of, 173–192
   life expectancy and effect on retirement, 99–101
   multiclass stock structures and different fees, 149–152
   mutual funds, choosing, 173–192
   naïveté in portfolio decisions, 73 pension plans, replaced by 401(k) plans, 97–98 prey for “marketing machine,” 127 protections, 179
   “rational,” 17–41
   retirement, 401(k) plans, 97–102
   United Airlines bankruptcy and effect on pension plan, 98
   wisdom of, versus Wall Street, 109–117
 Investor’s Diversified Services, 162
 “Invisible hand of” stock market, 45
 Irrational exuberance (overpricing), 38–39
Irrational Exuberance (Shiller), 24
- Jacob Internet fund, 110, 113, 139
 Jacob, Ryan, 113, 115
 Janus fund, 47, 48, 70, 112, 129, 185
 Janus Growth & Income, 60
 Janus Twenty, 60
 JDS Uniphase, 47
 Jefferson, Thomas, 47
 Johnson, Abigail, 144
 Johnson, Edward, 144
 JP Morgan, 120
 Junk bonds (1980s), 108
- Kettering, Charles, 9
 Keynes, John Maynard, 51, 55, 67, 107–108, 135
 Klarman, Seth, 30
- Large-cap growth funds:
   average annual total returns, 5-year and 10-year (ended 2005), 27
   emphasis on growing assets versus performance, 65

- “Group of 15” and average returns, 59, 60, 61
  - versus index funds, 66–67
  - look-alike variety of, 122
  - T. Rowe Price Group, case study, 70, 77, 78–80
- Laughlin, Kevin, 137
- Leffler, Edward, 12, 178, 179
- Legg Mason Value, 21, 22–23, 26, 28, 30, 32, 61, 70, 120
- Leveraging of capital structures, outlawed, 11
- Lipper Large Cap Growth index, 78, 90, 92, 140, 141, 169
- Liquidity:
  - assets, available, and T. Rowe Price Group, 72
  - continuous, and MIT fund (1920s), 13
  - excessive, and rise in turnover rate, 53–56
- Longleaf Partners, 21, 25, 26, 28, 30, 34, 61, 66, 159, 180–181, 182
- Long-Term Capital Management, 143, 178
- Lowenstein, Roger, 47
- Lucent, 114
- Lynch, Peter, 103

- Macroeconomic trends, 29–30
- Madison, James, 47
- Magellan Fund, 140
- Mainstay Capital Appreciation, 60
- Management fees. See also 12b-1 (marketing) fees
  - Advisor Class of stocks, 91
  - conflict of interest with investor’s returns, 83–84
  - fifty years ago, compared to today, 82–84
  - increasing, at investor’s expense, 146–149
- “Margin of safety,” 21, 32, 35, 37, 51, 107, 120–121
- Marketing and brand identification of funds, 81, 84, 121–124, 147–149, 156–159
- Markets. See also Market trends
  - behavior of, 56
  - bubble, late 1990s, 45–47, 92, 110–111, 113, 115
  - bull, 8–10, 110–111
  - commodities, 50–51
  - fluctuation risk, 32
  - frenzies, 20, 29
  - grain, 52
  - index, outperforming, 28
  - lack of major developments in 2004, 40
  - manipulation in 1920s, 9
  - manic versus depressed, 39
  - not used for benchmarking, 162–163
  - risk versus business risk, 32, 186
  - secondary, 52–53, 55–56
  - securities, 53
- Market-timing scandal, 7, 63, 127, 158, 162
- Market trends:
  - closet indexed funds versus bottom-up investing, 80
  - “consistent style discipline,” 78, 127, 132
  - trading in and out of stocks, 15
- Massachusetts Financial Services (MFS), 14, 61–65
  - Massachusetts Investors Growth Stock Fund, 60, 61–65, 108
  - Massachusetts Investors Trust (MIT), 11–15, 58, 61, 62, 64, 96, 121, 178
  - McGinnis, Joe, 119, 144
  - Meeker, Mary, 110
  - Melvin, Tim, 127
  - Merrill Lynch, 109, 110–111, 116, 119, 120, 129, 153
  - Met Life, 15
  - MFS Investment Management, 61
  - Microsoft, 90
  - Mid-cap funds, T. Rowe Price Group (TROW), 70
  - Mid-cap stocks, 35
  - Miller, Bill, 30
  - MIT. See Massachusetts Investors Trust
  - Money* magazine, 110–114
  - Morgan Stanley, 22, 110, 143–144, 151
  - Morningstar:
    - appraisal of T. Rowe Price, 74–76, 82, 83
    - comments on Invesco funds, 113
    - “Group of 15” average returns compared to S&P 500, 59, 60, 61
    - index based on funds, 141
    - management expense ratio, 146
    - rating categories for funds, 130
    - “styles” of mutual funds, 127–128, 130
  - Morningstar Funds 500*, 181
  - Morris, Charles “Chip,” 90–91
  - Multiclass stock structures, 149–152, 170
  - Munger, Charles, 21, 28, 35
  - Munnell, Alicia, 100
  - Mutual Beacon, 21, 23, 24, 26, 28, 39, 61
  - Mutual funds:
    - advent of, 7–15
    - bond and money market funds, 57
    - bubble of late 1990s, 45–47, 92, 110–111, 113, 115
    - choosing, how to, 173–192
    - closing to new investors, 139, 183–184
    - expense ratio, 61–62
    - growth of, 57–58
    - index funds, 58
    - Jacob Internet fund, 110
    - managed by external corporations, 13–14
    - marketing and brand identification, 81, 121–124, 147–149, 156–159
    - returns, 57
    - revenue sharing, 111, 116–117, 156–159
    - sales of, 146
    - selling short, as rare, 37
    - size as not advantageous, 183–184
    - stock funds, 58
    - “style consistency” versus value investing, 78, 127, 132, 142–144
    - styles of, defined by Morningstar, 128
    - team management, 81
  - Mutual group of funds, 125, 126, 132

- Nardelli, Robert, 168
 NASDAQ Composite index, 18, 108, 109
 National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD), 153
 National Semiconductor, 101
 Net asset value (NAV), 12
 Nevis fund, 113, 114
 “New economy” of 1990s, 50, 89, 107–108
 New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), 53–55, 145
New York Times, 136
 Nifty Fifty (1970s), 29
 Nokia, 22, 23, 29, 32, 112
 No-load funds, 70, 114, 148–150, 186–187
 Norfolk Southern, 110
 Nortel Networks, 22, 29, 112
 Nuveen, 70
 Nygren, Bill, 104, 139, 185–186
- Oakmark Select, 21, 26, 28, 34, 61, 66, 75, 81, 104, 139, 185–186
 Oak Value, 21, 23, 26, 31, 61
 Old economy stocks (late 1990s), 18
 Open-end fund, 11–12, 88
 Oracle, 22, 23, 24, 41, 90, 112
 Oversight by independent directors of funds, 80–82
- Pension funds:
 consultants and consistency, 78
 portfolio insurance of, contributing cause of Black Monday, 54 replaced by 401(k) plans, 97–102
 United Airlines bankruptcy, effect on, 98
 Pension Protection Act of 2006, 99
- Performance:
 five-year and 10-year, when choosing fund, 182–183
 pressure on financial advisors and brokers to act, 134–135 punishment of, in groups of funds, 134
 as small portion of fund management, 140
- Phillips, Don, 58
- Portfolio:
 concentrated, 29, 32
 diversification, 9, 19
 of MIT fund, 1920s, 12
 selective, 79
 rebalancing, 133–137, 170
 small, 182
 “spinning,” 92
 turnover, costs of, 62, 142
 volatility of, 32
- Portfolio insurance computer programs (late 1980s), 143
 President’s Council of Economic Advisers, 100
- Price:
 –book value ratio, 35
 –earnings ratio (P/E), 35, 112 manipulation (1920s), 11
 market, versus business performance, 105 and value, 185–186
 volatility, as a measure of investment risk, 39
- Price, Michael, 126–127
 Profile Plus summary (under consideration by SEC), 164–166
 Prudential Securities, 110
 “Prudent Man Rule,” 64
- Psychology of investors:
 behavioral finance, 29, 30, 36–41, 104, 106, 176
 Belgian chocolate theory of financial markets, 107
 motivations of investors, 43–47
 reason versus emotion in investing, 53
- Putnam, 47
- Qualcomm, 47, 114
 Quality of earnings, 35–36
 Quantitative tests, low price–earnings ratio, 35–36
- Ratings of funds, 138–140
- Rational investors:
 and undiversified, long-term portfolios, 20
 reason versus emotion in investing, 53
 reason not to invest versus reason to invest, 28
- Real estate market bubble (up to 2007), 46
 Regulation and deregulation of stock market, 48–56
- Retirement:
 401(k) plans, 97–102
 life expectancy, 99–101
 long-term, patient investing, 135
- Revenue sharing (“pay to play”), 111, 116–117, 156–159
- RiverSource, 60, 162–166. See also Ameriprise
 Robinson, Dwight, 64
 Rodriguez, Bob, 32, 79, 139, 144
 Rogers, Brian, 75, 76
 Ruane, Bill, 36
 Rubin, Robert (former Treasury Secretary), 29
 Russo, Tom, 186
- SAI. See Statement of Additional Information (SAI)
 Sales commissions, 12, 153–156
 Sales of funds, 146
 Samuelson, Paul, 69, 70, 74, 77, 125
 Schwab, 22, 110–111, 116, 119, 129, 159
 Scioto Company, 48
 Scottish American Trust Company, 1875, 8
 Secondary markets, 52–53, 55–56
 Second Bank of the United States (1818), 48, 49
 Securities, 49–50, 53
 Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC):
 advisory fees, comments on, 81

- BISYS Fund Services, 160–161
 board members and disclosure of investments, 163
 charges against MFS for “directed brokerage,” 63
 Citigroup and Smith Barney fund management, 160
 conflict of interest at Insurance Securities (1956), 86–87
 “cooling-off” period, 55
 Division of Investment Management, 148–149, 165
 Division of Market Regulation, 163, 165 economies of scale, comments on (1961), 74–75
 Edward Jones brokerage censured by, 158
 failure to require adequate disclosure, 72 fraud charges against Nevis, 114 marketing expenses (12b-1), 147–149, 156–159
 multiclass shares in same fund (18f-3), 149–152 Profile Plus summary (under consideration), 164–166 report to Congress on crash of 1929, 9–11
 requesting SAI from, 183
 role of boards in controlling fees, 84
 “soft dollars” for research services (Section 28[e]), 155–156
 Statement of Additional Information (SAI), 85, 153
 transparency and integrity, efforts to improve, 171
- Securities market, 1790s, 48, 53
- Security analysis:
 Benjamin Graham, 88
 complexity of, 50–51
 “death of,” 129–132
- Security Analysis* (Graham and Dodd), 21, 38, 52–53
- Selling of the President 1968* (McGinnis), 119
- Sense and Nonsense in Corporate Finance* (Lowenstein), 27
- Sequoia Fund, 20, 36, 140, 175
- 76th Congress, Investment Company Act of 1940, 11
- “Sheep index,” 144
- Shiller, Robert, 24, 28
- Short-term investing, 19, 53–56, 137
- Small-cap stocks, 35, 70
- “Smart money,” 18–19, 105, 109
- Smith Barney, 136, 153
- Social Security, 58, 100–101
- Society for Useful Manufactures, 48
- “Soft dollars” for research services, 155–156
- SoGen (Société Générale), 40–41
- Soros, George, 136
- Source Capital, 20, 21, 26, 34, 61
- Southwest real estate bubble (1980s), 29, 108
- Speculating versus investing: in 1990s, 18, 89
 liquidity, excessive, 55
 portfolio rebalancing, 136
 securities markets, 53
- Standard & Poor’s 500 index (S&P 500):
 average returns compared to “Group of 15” mutual funds, 59, 60, 61 “black swan” event of late 1990s, 108–109
 closet indexed funds versus bottom-up investing, 80
 dividends versus inflation, 96
 market bubble of late 1990s, 24–25 long-term investing, 66 measure of broad market, 141 recovery after 1990s bubble, 66–67 returns compared to value funds, 26–27 returns compared to “Group of 15” large-cap mutual funds, 59–60 returns compared to “Goldfarb 10,” 60, 61
 Sequoia Fund compared to, in annual reports, 140
- Statement of Additional Information (SAI):
 filed with Securities and Exchange Commission, 85 requesting, when choosing a fund, 183 single, filed for multiple RiverSource funds, 163
- State Street Investment Corporation, 14–15, 145
- Stewardship versus salesmanship, 64–65, 177–178
- Stock funds, 14, 58
- Stock market:
 aspects of, 43–56
 Black Monday (Oct. 19, 1987), 31, 54–55, 56, 108, 143, 175
 “black swan” event (late 1990s), 108–109
 boom and crash of 1792, 47–48
 bubble of late 1990s, 45–47, 92, 110–111, 113, 115
 “churning” of holdings, 63
 “Class B” stocks in 2007, 10 crash of 1929, 9–11
 deregulation (1975), 54
 distortion of prices, in late 1990s, 17–18
 effect on CEO accountability, 45
 “first preferred” versus “second preferred” in 1920s, 10
 “invisible hand of,” 45
 motivations of investors, 43–47
 penny stocks (“fancies”), 48
 price and value of stocks, 185–186
 regulation, 48–56
 secondary markets, 52–53, 55–56
 Second Bank of the United States (1818), 48
- Styles of mutual funds:
 defined by Morningstar, 128
 marketing construct, 129 “style consistency,” 78, 127, 132

- Subprime mortgages, 178
- Sun Life (Canada), 14, 64
- Sun Microsystems, 62
- “Superinvestors of Graham-and-Doddsville, The” (Buffett), 186
- Sutton, Willie, 75, 76
- Swensen, David, 36, 74, 135, 141

- TD Ameritrade, 159
- Team management, 81
- Templeton funds, 125
- Thakore, Nick, 163
- Third Avenue Value Fund, 31, 129, 134, 179
- Third World debt (late 1990s), 108
- Tobin, James, 53
- Tracking error (underperforming), 24, 33, 142
- Trading costs and taxes, 31, 40
- Transparency, 87–92, 165–166. See also Disclosure
- Treasuries, 30–31
- Trend chasing, 29, 38
- T. Rowe Price Group (TROW):
  - advertising, during bubble of late 1990s, 111
  - case study of, 70–93
  - Developing Technologies Fund (PRDTX), 91–92
  - disclosures to shareholders versus to investors, 86
  - management fee schedule, 1955–2006, 83, 84
  - Price Science and Technology Fund (PRSCX), 89–91, 114
  - small-cap funds, 70
- Trusteeship 13, 92, 138
- Trust mania (1890), 8
- Turnover:
  - at Ameriprise, 163
  - of boards of investment companies, 167
  - costs of, 62, 142
  - before deregulation of trading commissions (1975), 176–177
  - Fidelity Advisor Fifty fund, excessive, 123
  - liquidity, excessive, 53–54
  - low rates of, 181–182
  - MFS Investment Management, 62–63
  - mutual funds, “churning” of, 58–61
  - pressure to reduce, 81–82
- Twain, Mark, 136
- Tweedy Browne American Value, 21, 26, 32, 34, 61
- 12b-1 (marketing) fees. See also management fees
  - approval by boards of investment companies, 166
  - Division of Investment Management (SEC), 148–149
  - multiclass shares and different fee schedules, 149–152
  - T. Rowe Price Group (TROW), 70, 78–79, 91
- United Airlines bankruptcy, 98, 102
- United States and Foreign Securities Corporation, 10
- Univision, 22
- Utility and Industrial (U&I), 10

- Value funds:
  - capping of growth and closing of fund, 139, 183–184
  - cash, holding, 30–31, 37
  - finding, 173–192
  - Goldfarb’s list of top ten, 20–41
  - Graham-and-Dodd principles, adhering to, 107–108
  - investing from bottom up, 29, 184
  - long-term business potential, 35–36
  - managers, investment philosophy, 38
  - market inefficiencies, 36
  - as part interest in a business, 186
  - percentage, low, of total investing, 58
- Value investors:
  - holding to standards, 23–24, 107–108
  - performance in market “frenzies,” 20
  - substantial discount to intrinsic value, looking for, 37–38
- Vanderbilt, Cornelius, 49
- Vanguard 500 Index Fund, 66, 71, 120, 149–150, 186, 187, 189
- Vanguard Growth Index, 60
- Vanguard U.S. Growth, 60
- Van Wagoner, 47
- Vaulx, Charles de, 142
- Viacom, 22, 23
- Vilar, Alberto, 113, 115

- Waddell & Reed, 70
- Wall Street, 47, 109–117
- “Watered stock,” 49
- Weisenberger reports, 83, 87
- Whitman, Martin, 31, 134, 144, 179
- Wiesenberger, Arthur, 96
- Williams, Ted, 37
- Wintergreen Fund, 39, 189–192, 190
- Winters, David, 39, 189
- WorldCom, 51, 109
- World War II, effect on SEC negotiations with fund industry, 11

- Yahoo!, 24, 90
- Yale University endowment fund, 36, 135