

INDEX

After the Masquerade

- act utilitarianism, 97
aesthetics, ethics vs., 204–209
Afghanistan, 34
Alexander the Great, 39, 58
Aline, 71
androgyny, 174
anger, 138, 142–145
apatheia, 138
“argument from design,” 130
Aristotle, 82, 83–84, 85–86, 199
“armchair life-insurance salesmen,” 208
authoritarianism, 34–35, 65
autonomy, 24
- BBC, 76
Beardsley, Monroe, 164
Beauvoir, Simone de, 181–182
Bentham, Jeremy, 66
Bergson, Henri, 115, 117–124
Bernard, 71
Bernstein, Carl, 75, 202
Big Figure, 9, 22
biological existentialism, 181–182
Black Freighter
Moore on, 58
Rorschach and, 21
Blake, Edward (Comedian), 36, 190
consequentialism and deontology, 71, 72
deontology and, 71
depiction of U.S. history and, 75
feminist philosophy and, 177–180
humor and, 197, 199–205, 202, 210–211
Laurie and, 175, 179–180
morality and, 40–41
Stoicism and, 138, 139, 140, 143
Übermensch concept and, 55
Blake, William, 167
“Blood from the Shoulder of Pallas”
(Watchmen), 161
Boethius, 128
brain, identity and, 109–113 “Brain Bisection and the Unity of Consciousness” (Nagel), 112
bravery, virtue ethics and, 83–84
Bubastis, 63, 65
Burroughs, William S., 167
Busiek, Kurt, 43–44
- cancer, Dr. Manhattan and, 6, 132, 142, 143–144
Captain America, 37
categorical imperative, 24, 73, 93.
See also Kant, Immanuel

- Chrysippus, 139
Civil War (Marvel Comics), 37
 Cold War, 34
 Comedian. See Blake, Edward (Comedian)
 comics, as literature, 157–158, 159–160, 165, 168–169
Comics Britannia (BBC), 76
 compatibilists, 127
 consequentialism, 63–65
 defined, 64
 deontology and, 70–74
 retributivism vs., 23
 utilitarianism and, 65–70
 costumes
 feminist philosophy and, 175–177, 183
 masks, 197, 203
 Übermensch concept and, 54–55

Dazzler, 159, 169
 DC Comics, 75
 deconstruction, 176
 deontology, 63–65, 74–76
 consequentialism and, 70–74
 defined, 64
 Rorschach and, 63–74
 Derrida, Jacques, 176
 Descartes, René
 identity concept and, 104–105, 110
 as Neo-Stoic, 149, 150
 dichotomous thinking, 72–73
 dignity, 23–25
 “disprefer,” defined, 142, 143
 divine command theory of ethics, 11–13
 Doris, John, 87–88
 Dreiberg, Dan (second Nite Owl), 7–8, 205
 on being an adventurer, 182–183
 “Blood from the Shoulder of Pallas,” 161
 deontology and, 63–64, 76
 fatalism and, 131–133
 as Sam Hollis, 174–175
 Stoicism and, 142
 truth as problematic and, 91–92,
 97–98, 208
 Übermensch concept and, 53–55
 virtue ethics and, 79–89
 duplication, identity and, 111–112

 Eagleton, Terry, 164
 egalitarianism, 66
 Eisner, Will, 159
 “either/or” phases of existence,
 204–209
 Elisabeth, Princess of Bohemia, 149
 emotion
 emotivism, 8–10
 eupatheia (“good emotions”),
 147–148
 Stoicism and, 138, 142–145
Emotional Construction of Morals, The (Prinz), 8
 ends and means. See consequentialism Epictetus, 140–141
 eudaimonia, 82
 eupatheia (“good emotions”), 147–148
 existential feminism, 180–183
 existentialism, 198–199, 209–211
 “either/or” phases of existence,
 204–206
 skepticism and, 206–209

 fatalism
 defined, 126–127
 Dr. Manhattan example, 125–135
 foreknowledge and, 125–126
 Stoicism and, 145–146
 theological, 127–130, 134–135
 feminist philosophy, 173
 existential feminism, 180–183
 liberal feminism, 173–175
 postmodern feminism, 175–177
 rape attempt storyline and, 177–180
 fiction, defined, 164
 Fine, Detective Steve, 208 flourishing, virtue ethics and, 82–83
 foresight. See fatalism
 free will. See fatalism

- gay-by-nature hypothesis, 187
 gay marriage, 193–194. See also
 homosexuality
 gay rights movement, 194–195. See also
 homosexuality
Gay Science, The (Nietzsche), 52
 Gibbons, Dave, 1–2
 on consequentialism and deontology, 65
 illustrations of, 165–166
 superhero characterization by,
 33–34, 38
 See also Watchmen (Moore, Gibbons)
 “giving style,” 52
 Glass, Milton, 5
 Gloria, 86, 87
 God/gods
 “God is dead” claim by Nietzsche, 48–51
 godliness of Dr. Manhattan, 129–130, 150–151
 rational creator concept and Stoicism, 148–151
 graphic novels
 comic books and, as hybrid, 168–169
 illustrations in, 165–166
 lettering of, 166–167
 as literature, 157–158
 origin of term, 159
 grounds of obligation, 94–96

 happiness, virtue ethics and, 82–83
 Harman, Gilbert, 9
 hedonism, 66
 Hegel, G. W. F., 26
 heterosexuality, as “natural,” 186–188
 Hill, S.H.I.E.L.D. Commander Maria, 37
 Hirsch, E. D., 164
 Hollis, Sam, 174–175
 Hollis, Sandra, 174–175
 homosexuality
 gay marriage, 193–194
 gay rights movement, 194–195
 lesbianism and feminist philosophy, 176–177
 relationship between Hooded Justice and Captain Metropolis, 185–187, 191, 194–195
 as “unnatural,” 186–188, 192–193
 honesty, virtue ethics and, 86–88 honor, 27–29
 Hooded Justice, 21, 177, 178
 human rights, 67, 73
 Hume, David, 8, 105–106, 110
 humor, 197
 aesthetics vs. ethics (“either/or”), 204–209
 existentialism and, 198–199, 209–211
 irony and, 200–204
 skepticism and, 206–209

 “ideal view of natural processes,” 189 identity, 103–104, 113–114
 as continuous, 104–107
 mind and, 109–113
 transporting and, 107–109
 immanence, 182–183
 incompatibilists, 127
 intrinsic field removing chamber, 104
 intrinsic motivation, 10
 involuntary memory, 119–120
 Iran-Contra scandal, 75
 Irigaray, Luce, 176
 irony, 199–204

 Joey, 71, 208
 Johnson, Dave, 44
 joy, 148
 Jupiter, Sally (first Silk Spectre)
 Blake (Comedian) and, 40–41,
 177–180, 190, 202
 feminist philosophy and, 173–184
 Laurie and, 180–183
 Übermensch concept and, 50–51,
 53–55
 Juspeczyk, Laurie (second Silk Spectre), 6–7
 on being an adventurer, 182–183
 Blake (Comedian) and, 202–203
 fatalism and, 125, 131–133

- Juspezyk, Laurie (continued)
 feminist philosophy and, 173–177, 179–184
 identity and, 108
 Sally and, 180–183
 as Sandra Hollis, 174–175
 Stoicism and, 138–139, 142–145, 146–147
 time concept and, 116, 117
 truth as problematic and, 91–92, 208
 Übermensch concept and, 53–55, 57
 virtue ethics and, 84
- Juvenal, 42, 74–76
- Kant, Immanuel, 9, 11–13, 71, 73
 on honor, 27–29
 on justice, 26–27 “murderer at the door” example and
 truth, 93–99
 on punishment, 23–25
- Keene Act of 1977, 36–39
- Kennedy, J. F., 202
- Kierkegaard, Soren
 on “armchair life-insurance salesmen,” 208
 on “either/or” phases of existence, 204–209
 existentialism and, 198–199, 209–211
 on irony, 200, 202–204
- Kovacs, Walter Joseph. See Rorschach
 (Walter Joseph Kovacs)
- Lack of Character: Personality and Moral Behavior* (Doris), 87–88
- Lamarque, Peter, 164
- lesbianism, 176–177, 190. See also
 homosexuality
- lettering, of books, 166–167
- lex talionis* (“an eye for an eye”), 22–23
- liberal feminism, 173–175
- literary discourse, 164
- literature, 157–158, 169–170
 comic books/graphic novels as hybrid of, 168–169
 defined, 160–162
 expertise about, 158–160
 illustrations and, 165–168
 opinion and, 162–165
- Locke, John, 106
- Long, Dr. Malcolm, 206–207, 208–209
- Luban, David, 14–15
- Manhattan, Dr. (Jonathan Osterman), 168, 183
 cancer rumor and, 6, 132, 142, 143–144
 consequentialism and deontology, 64, 69
 fatalism and, 125–135
 godliness of, 129–130, 150–151
 identity and, 103–114
 morality and, 6–8, 10–17
 powers of, 5–6, 7, 116, 131–133, 140–142, 145–146
 Rorschach and, 28
 Stoicism and, 137–146
 Stoicism and sagehood, 146–151
 on thermodynamic miracles, 147– 148, 150–151, 179–180
 time concept and, 115–124
 truth as problematic and, 91–92, 208
 Übermensch concept and, 53–58
 vigilantism and, 36, 39–40, 41–42
- marriage, gay, 193–194
- Mars, 6
- Marvel Comics, 37
- Marvels* (Busiek, Ross), 43–44
- masks, 197, 203
- Mason, Hollis (first Nite Owl), 205
 death of, 43
 deontology and, 76
 Übermensch concept and, 53–55
 virtue ethics and, 86–87
- means. See Kant, Immanuel
- memory
 identity and, 106–107
 perception and, 118–119
 voluntary vs. involuntary, 119–120
- metaphysics, defined, 198
- Mill, Harriet Taylor, 173
- Mill, John Stuart, 66, 68, 173

- Millar, Mark, 44
 mind, identity and, 109–113
 Minutemen, 175, 176–177
 Moloch, 25, 38, 72, 203, 204, 207
 Moore, Alan, 1–2, 169
 on Black Freighter, 58
 on comics as literature, 159–160
 on consequentialism and deontology, 65
 Nietzsche influence on, 48
 superhero characterization by, 33–34, 38
 on utilitarianism, 68–69
 V for Vendetta, 75–76
 See also Watchmen (Moore, Gibbons)
 morality, 5–8, 16–17
 consequentialism and deontology, 71
 homosexuality and, 191–193
 moral exemplars, 85–86
 moral reasoning, 8–10
 political, 13–16
 punishment and, 19–30
 right vs. wrong, 10–13
 motivation, moral beliefs and, 10
 “murderer at the door” example, 93–99

 Nagel, Thomas, 112
Natural Theology (Paley), 130 nature homosexuality as “unnatural,” 186–193
 Neo-Stoicism and, 149–151
 Neo-Stoicism, 149
New Frontiersman (Watchmen), 69, 190
 Nietzsche, Friedrich
 on creation of values, 49–51
 The Gay Science, 50–51
 “God is dead” claim by, 48–51
 Thus Spoke Zarathustra, 47–48
 Übermensch concept and, 47–58
 nihilism, 48–51
 Nite Owl. See Dreiberg, Dan (second Nite Owl); Mason, Hollis (first Nite Owl)
 Nixon, Richard, 34, 75
Nova Express (Watchmen), 167

 Olsen, Stein Haugom, 164
 omnibenevolence, 127
 omnipotence, 127–129
 omniscience, 127–129
 Osterman, Jonathan. See Manhattan, Dr. (Jonathan Osterman)
 Ozymandias (Adrian Veidt), 167–168 cancer rumor spread by, 6
 character traits of, 36
 consequentialism and deontology, 63–74
 fatalism and, 133
 humor and, 201, 204–205
 identity and, 110
 Rorschach and, 28
 Stoicism and, 138–139, 146, 150
 time concept and, 121, 122
 truth as problematic and, 91–99
 Übermensch concept and, 53–58
 Veidt Method and, 57–58
 vigilantism and, 36–39
 virtue ethics and, 79, 82–84, 85

 Paley, William, 130
 Parfit, Derek, 107–109
 pedophiles, 191
 perception, time and, 117–119 personal identity. See identity “physical criterion,” 108
 Plato, 120
 poetry, 165–169
Politics as a Vocation (Weber), 35
 postmodern feminism, 175–177 preference, 142, 144, 148
 Prinz, Jesse, 7–8, 9
 “psychological criterion,” 109–113 punishment, 19–20, 29–30, 207 honor and, 27–29
 moral order and, 25–27
 respect and dignity, 23–25
 retributive theory of, 20–23, 29–30
 See also morality

 Ramses II, 58
 rape
 moral agents and, 27

- rape (continued)
 rape attempt storyline and feminist philosophy, 177–180
 rape attempt storyline and homosexuality, 190
- rational agents
 defined, 93–94
 equality of humans and, 174
- rational creator concept, 148–151
- Reagan, Ronald, 75
- reality, Stoicism and, 140–142
- retaliation, 22–23
- retributivism, 20–23, 29–30. See also punishment
- role models, 85–86
- Rorschach (Walter Joseph Kovacs), 19–20, 166
 categorical imperative and, 9
 character traits of, 36
 death of, 41
 as deontologist, 63–74
 fatalism and, 133
 humor and, 197, 205, 206–213
 journal of, 69
 on punishing evil, 20–23, 25–30 (See also punishment)
 Stoicism and, 138
 truth as problematic and, 91–99
 Übermensch concept and, 51, 53–58
 vigilantism and, 36–39
 virtue ethics and, 79, 82–84, 85, 88
- Ross, Alex, 43–44
- rule utilitarianism, 66, 68, 97
- sagehood, Stoicism and, 146–148
- Sartre, Jean-Paul, 181, 198
- Satires* (Juvenal), 74–76
- Second Sex, The* (Beauvoir), 181–182
- self. See identity
- Seneca, 138, 143, 144
- Seymour, 69
- Shelley, Percy Bysshe, 70, 168
- Silhouette (Ursula Zandt), 176–177, 190
- Silk Spectre. See Jupiter, Sally (first Silk Spectre); Juspeczyk, Laurie (second Silk Spectre)
- situationism, 87–88
- skepticism, 206–209
- Slater, Janey, 115–116, 129, 131, 138–140, 141
- Socrates, 160–162, 188
- Soviet Union
 as depicted in Superman: Red Son (Millar, Johnson), 44
 as depicted in Watchmen, 34
- Spinoza, Baruch, 149–151
- stereotypes
 feminist philosophy and, 176–177, 193–194
 homosexuality and, 185–186
- Stoicism, 137, 151
 defined, 137–140
 emotion and, 138, 142–148
 fate and, 145–146
 rational creator concept and, 148–151
 reality and, 140–142
 sage model of, 146–148
- subjectivism, 162–163
- superhero genre. See Übermensch concept; vigilantism
- Superman: Red Son* (Millar, Johnson), 44
- tachyons, 133–134
- “teleological argument,” 130
- teleporting, 107–109
- Thatcher, Margaret, 75–76
- theological fatalism, 127–130, 134–135
- Theory of Social and Economic Organization* (Weber), 35
- Thomas Aquinas, St., 128
- “Three Metamorphoses” (Nietzsche), 50
- Thus Spoke Zarathustra* (Nietzsche), 47–48
- Timaeus* (Plato), 120
- time
 as continuum, 120–123
 knowledge of, 117–119
 Manhattan’s ability to see future and, 115–117

- voluntary vs. involuntary memory and, 119–120
- Time*, 157
- Tower Commission Report, 75
- transcendence, 182
- “transporter,” 107
- Truman, Harry, 72
- truth
as problematic, 91–99, 208
virtue ethics and, 86–88
- “Tyger, The” (Blake), 167
- Übermensch concept
The Gay Science (Nietzsche) and, 51–53
nihilism and, 48–49
Thus Spoke Zarathustra (Nietzsche), 47–48
values and, 49–51
Watchmen characters and,
53–58
- United States
as depicted in Watchmen, 75
political morality and, 13–16
- utilitarianism, 58
act utilitarianism, 97
consequentialism and, 65–70
as justification for lying, 96–98
rule utilitarianism, 68, 97
virtue utilitarianism, 66
- values, 49–51. See also morality
- Veidt, Adrian. See Ozymandias (Adrian Veidt)
- V for Vendetta* (Moore), 75–76
- Vietnamese lover (Watchmen character), 40–41, 71, 202
- Vietnam War
as depicted in Watchmen, 34, 36,
39–40, 75
Dr. Manhattan role in, 57
- vigilantism, 33–34
corruption of power and, 42–45
state violence and, 34–42
- virtue ethics
Dan Dreiberger (Nite Owl) as example of, 79–89
defined, 80–81
- virtue utilitarianism, 66
- voluntary memory, 119–120
- Watchmen* (Moore, Gibbons), 1–2
“Blood from the Shoulder of Pallas,” 161 depiction of historical events in, 34, 36, 39–40, 57, 75, 202
as literature, 157–170
New Frontiersman, 69, 190
Nova Express, 167
origin of “Watchmen” name, 42
See also individual names of characters
- watch symbolism, 129–130
- Watergate. See Bernstein, Carl;
Woodward, Bob
- Weber, Max, 35, 39
- Wollstonecraft, Mary, 173
- Woodward, Bob, 75, 202
- Zandt, Ursula (Silhouette), 176–177, 190

