

Contents

Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xv
Introduction	1
Chapter 1: The Concept of Pet Sitting	11
What Makes Pet Sitting a Great Career	12
Alternatives to Pet Sitting	14
The Advantages of Operating a Pet-Sitting Service	16
The Need Is Everywhere	17
How Much Can You Earn?	17
What You Need to Start	18
Chapter 2: Getting Started	21
Research and Resources	21
Pet Sitters International	25
A Market Survey	27
Naming Your Business	29
Your Business Logo	31
Business License	31
Your Office Location	32
Basic Office Supplies and Furnishings	33
Business Telephone	36
Structuring Your Business	38
Finding an Accountant	38
Selecting a Bank	39
Insurance	40
Dishonesty Bond	42

Chapter 3: Office Procedures	45
Using a Computer	45
Customer Card System	49
Policies and Procedures	52
Credit Cards	55
Telephone Techniques	55
Cell Phones	60
Answering E-mail	61
Determining Service Areas	61
Setting Prices	62
Compensating Sitters	66
“Always Ready” Service	67
Planning for Disasters	68
Initial Client Interviews	70
Handling Customer Complaints	72
Handling Delinquent Accounts	73
Chapter 4: Personnel Choices	79
Finding Qualified Pet Sitters	80
Applicant Interviews	84
Sitter Orientation	85
Survival Bag	96
Sitter Safety	97
Sitter Nutrition	100
Managing and Motivating Sitters	101
Staff Meetings	106
Employees or Independent Contractors?	106
Chapter 5: Advertising: The Means to the Masses	109
PSI’s Web Locator	110
A Brochure and a Business Card	111
A Word About “Licensing”	114
Using Your Brochure and Business Cards	115
Inexpensive Ways to Advertise	129
Do You Need a Web Site?	133
Newspapers	135
Yellow Pages	139
Radio	139
Television	140

“Free” Advertising	141
More Great Advertising Ideas from Readers	145
Chapter 6: Public Relations	147
A Newsletter or E-zine	148
News Releases	151
Public Speaking	154
Exhibition Booths	155
Special Events	157
Business Etiquette	157
Chapter 7: Examining the Negatives	159
Just Say No	161
Industry Challenges	165
Don’t Do This!	170
How to Avoid or Handle Other Problems	175
The Best from the Best: Tips from the Field	183
Chapter 8: Useful Business Forms	185
Designing a Service Contract	185
Invoices	191
Daily Log	192
Evaluation Form	192
Client Reservation Form	193
Notification Forms	193
Additional Forms	194
Tips from Pet Sitters	195
Chapter 9: Buying, Selling, or Closing a Business	197
How a Business Broker Can Help	198
The P’s and Q’s of Saying Good-Bye	199
Thinking of Buying?	200
Chapter 10: Tracking Trends	201
Analyzing Your Business Trends	201
Crime Deterrence	202
Overnight Pet and House Sitting	203
Expanded Services	203
Closing Thoughts	204

Appendix	205
Estimated Start-up Costs Checklist	205
Helpful Products for Professional Pet Sitters	207
Pet and Business-Related Organizations	208
PSI Recommendations for Excellence in Pet Sitting	210
Postscript	211
Index	213