

SUBJECT INDEX

A

Absolute surplus value, 136

Act Up, 161

Action: affirmative action, 47, 199;
Che Guevara on learning in,
65; Citizenship Schools use of principles and, 74–75; radical training relationship between principle and, 71–72

Action research. See Participatory
action research

Adult development: cognitive, psychological, and sociocultural models of, 44; critical theory to teach, 57–62; for democratic socialism preparation, 48–49;
Marxist approach to, 49;
postformal operations of,
44–45; a radical approach
to conceptualizing, 49–57;
reframed in normative pursuit
of true democracy, 43; SDL (self-directed learning) process of, 45; teaching for radical, 57–62

Adult Education: Foundations of Practice (Darkenwald and Merriam), 68

Adult education: African American context of, 209–216;
Basic American Negro Creed influence on, 211; debate over distinctions between training, 69–70; functions of radical aesthetics in, 152–165;

globalization context of,
139–143; new and changing challenges faced by, 216–221;
as part of movement to realize democracy, 5–9, 25–26; radical development,
49–62; reconsidering concepts of, 2–3; SDL (self-directed learning) and learner control of, 38–40; traditional purpose and responsibilities of, 2–3; workplace learning within, 18.

See also Radical adult learning

Adult Education (Bryson), 2, 3

Adult education programs: goals of, 95–99; issues to consider for planning, 86–88; planning criteria for evaluating, 99–106;
principles of planning, 88–95

Adult Education Quarterly, 23

Adult Education Research
Conference, 53, 208

Adult educators: City Colleges of Chicago (CCC) union of, 84–85; codes of ethics for, 88;
educator-activist notion of,
116–117; examples of workeroriented training by, 77–84;
Jane Thompson’s “open letter to whoever’s left” to, 218; Marcuse’s criticism of repressive tolerance taught by, 191–195;
morality of coercion used by,

- 197–198; new and changing challenges faced by, 216–221; responsibility to engage students in troubling ideas, 109–110; socialist pedagogy acknowledgement of authority of, 116. See also Radical teaching; Teaching
- Adult learning: aesthetic dimensions of, 145–170; “Alienated Labor” (Marx) on, 18–19; critical reflection, 23, 31–32, 35–37, 56–57; democratic socialism and, 5–9; expansive approach to understanding, 23–26; from experience, 121–122; globalization impact on, 129–144; learning liberation form of, 26–32; learning liberation through, 26–31; reconsidering concepts of, 2–3; SDL (self-directed learning), 23, 31–32, 37–41; self-criticism tool for, 92–93; theory-practice dialectic of, 122–124; traditional purpose and responsibilities of, 2–3; training context of, 64–85; transformative, 23, 32–35, 56–57, 143–144. See also Radical adult learning; Teaching; Workplace learning
- Adult learning research: Ella Baker’s participatory action research, 172–173; Nelson Peery’s revolutionary participatory action research, 173–175; participatory research in civil rights movement, 179–182; participatory research in the labor movement, 182–183; Paulo Freire and participatory action research, 175–179; principles for participatory research, 183–189; revelations through, 171–172
- Aesthetic dimension: educational functions of radical, 152–165; of liberation learning, 148–152; Paul Robeson on subverting from within using the, 165–170; political significance of, 146–148
- The Aesthetic Dimension* (Marcuse), 146
- Affirmative action, 47, 199
- Affirming pride through art, 161–163
- African American adult education: Basic American Negro Creed (DuBois) impact on, 211–214; DuBois’ examination of, 209–211; Locke’s vision of Bronze Booklets used in, 211–212, 214
- African American Freedom Movement: art building solidarity in the, 154–156; international struggles linked to, 89–90; origins of the, 66; training providing foundation of, 75; voter registration training during, 71, 72–73. See also Civil rights Movement
- African American Pre-Conference (Adult Education Research Conference), 53
- African Americans: Civil Rights Movement struggle of, 66, 75, 92, 97, 155; Paul Robeson’s effort to accurately represent, 168–169; “power of spirit” motivation of, 91; racism against, 16, 45–46; voter registration training to, 71, 72–73; “We Charge Genocide” petition on behalf of, 89–90; White supremacy ideology against, 40, 45–46, 47, 49, 52, 55. See also Racism

 African National Congress (ANC) [South Africa], 20, 21
 African Negro Folk Associates Services (AAAE), 3
 African socialism, 49
 Africentric paradigm, 53–56, 112–113
 Agency development, 51–52
 Aids Coalition to Unleash Power, 161
 “Alienated Labor” (Marx), 18–19
 Alliance for Progress, 179
Amandala! (film), 155
 American Association for Adult Education (AAAE), 2, 3, 35, 210
 American Dream, 219
 American Friends Service Committee’s (AFSC) Coyuntural Analysis, 101
 American Indian Pow Wow ceremonies, 151
 Anti-imperialism, 89–90
 Antigonish movement, 102
 Apartheid (South Africa), 25, 155
 Art. See Aesthetic dimension
 Aryan superiority, 46
 Associates in Negro Folk Education (ANFE), 210–211, 214
 Audacity principle, 95–96
 Authority: educator-activist, 116–117; exercise of teaching, 125–126. See also Hegemony
 Aversive racism, 208

B

Basic American Negro Creed (DuBois), 211–214
 Basic survival needs: democratic socialism criteria for, 6; effective ways of meeting, 9–10
The Battle of Chile (film), 148, 165
 Bethune-Cookman University, 25
Between Facts and Norms (Habermas), 109
 Black History Month, 28
 Black liberation struggle, 163
 Black nationalism, 103
 Black Panther Party (BPP), 91, 95, 103–104, 154, 170
 Black Power movement, 103, 147
 Blair administration, 4, 46
 Bobby Sands hunger strike, 164
 Bolivarian Revolution, 141
Bowling Alone (Putnam), 48
 Brazil’s Landless Workers Movement, 80
Bread and Roses (Loach), 164
 British Intelligence, 163
 Bronze Booklets, 211–212, 214
 “Buffalo Soldier” (Marley), 163–164
 Building solidarity through art, 154–156
 Bush administration, 46

C

El Canto General (Neruda), 155
 Capital: labor as form of variable, 135–136; Marx on constant form of, 135
 Capitalism: curriculum challenging ideology of, 111–112; economic meltdown of American, 118; exploring has it can be transformed into socialism, 57–62; globalization impacting the logic of, 136–137;

- intersection of White supremacy ideology and, 17, 26, 40, 47, 109, 200, 202; learning liberation from, 26–32; SDL for establishing socialist alternatives to, 40–41; Soviet Union’s practice of state, 52; systematic exploitation of, 14; transformative adult learning theory to explain ideology of, 34–35, 143–144; understanding internal relations of, 134; unquestioning celebration of, 4; workplace critical reflection and critique of, 36–37. See also Ideology
- “Las Casitas del Barrio Alto” (song), 156
- Centro de Investigaciones y Estudios de la Reforma Agraria, 79
- “Check Your School” survey, 173
- Chicano/Mexican American movement (1960s–1970s), 157
- Chilean cultural movement, 151–152
- Chilean Popular Unity Government, 165, 179
- Citizenship School Teacher Training, 74
- Citizenship Schools: origins of, 65–66, 71; principles and actions used in, 74–75; radical training in, 72–75, 180–181
- Citizenship Workbook* (SCLC), 181
- City Colleges of Chicago (CCC), 84–85
- Civil Rights Congress, 89
- Civil rights Movement: as culmination of polarization process, 220; examples of participatory research in, 179–182; as historical process of social change, 92; ideological conditioning on racism no longer being an issue, 199; love and empathy motivations of the, 90; Malcolm X’s disapproval of nonviolence of, 92; origins of the, 66; radicalized learning facilitating the, 24, 75, 180; voter registration training during, 71, 72–73, 182; “We Shall Overcome” anthem of, 154–155. See also African American Freedom Movement; United States
- Civil society decline, 48
- The Clash (punk band), 146
- Clydeside shipbuilding sit-in (Scotland), 37
- Coalition of Immokalee Workers (CIW), 98, 99, 105, 140, 142, 219
- Codes of ethics, 88
- Collective forms development, 52–56
- Collective identity development, 50–51
- Collective movement development, 52–56
- Collectives of Popular Sandinista Education (CEPS), 78–79
- College Republicans (University of Wisconsin-Madison), 157–158
- Commando* (Reitz), 21
- Commission of Professors of Adult Education, 88
- Common Fire* (Parks Daloz, Keen, Keen, and Daloz Parks), 48
- Communist Party of South Africa, 25
- Communist Party USA (CPUSA), 173–174, 214, 217
- Computer course (Zimbabwe), 129–130

“The Concept of Training and its Current Distortion” (Thompson), 70

Congress of Racial Equality
(CORE), 75

Convergence (journal), 23

Council on African Affairs, 169

Counter-storytelling, 208–209

Creativity: to create fairness in spite of differences, 12–14;
critical theory facilitating expression of, 57–62; as democratic socialism condition, 8; as program planning principle, 93–94; socialism as freedom to realize, 31

The Crisis (NAACP newspaper), 92

Critical race theory (CRT), 208–209

Critical reflection: challenging
ideological manipulation
through, 31–32; definition of,
35; Mezirow’s emphasis on,
35–36; radical development
through, 56–57; research focus on, 23

Critical theory: cohort groups
as pedagogic emphasis in,
62; conceptual reasoning component of, 60–61; on detachment to spur critical thought, 61–62; as radial teaching requirement, 116–117; revolutionary change
through, 57–58; teaching radical development using,
57–62. See also Socialist adult pedagogy

Crusade for Citizenship, 77

Cuba: Che Guevara’s program planning in, 87–88; Guevara’s hegemony goal for, 94; revolution

in, 64–65; theory-practice experience in, 124

“Cultural front” (1930s), 151

D

“Day Against Capitalism”
(London), 24

Daytona Educational and Industrial Training School for Negro Girls, 25

Degradation of women, 40

Democracies in Flux (Putnam), 48

Democracy: adult development
reframed in normative pursuit
of, 43; adult education for socialism of, 5–9, 25–26; Basic American Negro Creed impact on practice of, 211; challenging coterminous relationship of democracy and, 111–112;
different forms and ends of, 11;
fairness in spite of differences in, 7–8, 11–14; inseparability of socialism and, 29–30; learning requirements for practicing, 17; as metanarrative component
of repressive tolerance, 195–196; participation based on all relevant information requirement of, 196;
participatory political, 4; self-determination in, 41; stewardship of common resources in, 48

Democratic laboratories, 207

Democratic Republic of the Congo, 65

Democratic socialism: adult learning facilitating, 5–9;
changing challenges facing,
216–221; constant negotiation of rights and responsibilities in, 124; creativity of, 8, 12–14;

- development leading to discussion of, 48–49; examining radical adult learning in context of, 16–20; fairness in, 7–8, 11–14; four societal requirements of, 7–9; inclusive, 8–9, 14–16; meeting basic survival needs, 7, 9–10; standing against White supremacy ideology, 205; understanding power and building, 126–127.
See also Socialism
- Democratic Socialists of America, 41
- Desegregation, 47
- Developing agency, 51–52
- Development. See Adult development
- Differences: acknowledging individual, 13–14; confronting diversity, 205–206; creativity for ensuring fairness in spite of, 8, 12–14; inclusion in spite of, 8–9,
14–16. See also Diversity
- Discipline learning principle, 91–92
- Dispossessed: Basic American Negro Creed impact on, 211;
does work begin with pressing demands of, 100; does work build organization exercising power by, 104–105; does work build political independence of,
103–104; does work develop skills and knowledge of, 105–106; does work facilitate understanding by the, 100–102; does work facilitate understanding of local and broader interconnectedness, 102–103
- Diversity: confronting differences and, 205–206; dismantling privilege in context of, 206–216;
- ideological detoxification
related to, 201–205; practicing liberating tolerance of, 199–201;
questioning the accuracy of celebrating narrative of, 190–191;
repressive tolerance of, 27–28, 109–110, 191–199. See also Differences
- Do the Right Thing* (film), 153–154
- Dorchester Center (Georgia), 73
- Dusk of Dawn* (DuBois), 210–211
- E
- Ebonics language, 159
- Echo in My Soul* (Clark), 73
- Economic and Philosophical Manuscripts* (Marx), 18
- Education as the Practice of Freedom* (Freire), 175
- Educator-activist notion, 116–117
- Edutainment* (KRS-One), 150
- Empathy, 90–91
- Empowerment through art, 156–159
- The End of History and the Last Man*
(Fukuyama), 218
- ESL for Action* (Auerbach and Wallerstein), 102
- Ethnic cleansing, 45–46, 110
- Eurocentric philosophy, 193
- European-American Collaborative Challenging Whiteness (ECCW), 207
- Evaluation. See Program evaluation criteria
- Everyday Face of Globalization, 142
- F
- Fairness: as central to socialist ideal, 7; creativity to ensure, 8, 12–14;
of democratic socialists society,
7–8; how to ensure, 11–12

- Female form of epistemology, 53
 Feminism scholarship, 53
 “Fight the Power” (Public Enemy), 153
 Ford Ranger plant (Twin Cities):
   decline and closing of,
   130, 134–136; globalization impact on, 130–133; political economy of globalization impacting, 134
 Frankfurt School, 14, 57
 Free Trade Agreement of the Americas meeting (Miami, 2003), 219
 Freedom Movement. See African American Freedom Movement
 Freedom Road Socialist Organization, 25, 41
 Freedom Schools and Community
   Centers, 66, 181–182
 Freedom Summer project
   (1964), 66
From the Mountains to the Maquiladoras (documentary), 102–103
- G
- Gay rights movement, 161
 Gender scholarship, 53
 Ghost Yard graffiti, 149
 Girl Geeks for the Gipper (University of Wisconsin-Madison), 158
 “Glad to Be Gay” (Robinson), 161
 Globalization: adult education in the era of, 139–143; “civil societarian” perspective of, 132–133; disproportionate corporate power and, 131–132;
   Ford Ranger plant (Twin Cities) impacted by, 130–133;
   political economy of, 133–138;
   transformative learning and,
   143–144
 “Globalization Gong Show”
   (game), 142
 “Globalization Jeopardy”
   (game), 142
The Good Society (Bellah, Madsen, Sullivan, Swidler, and Tipton), 48
 Graffiti art, 149
 Great Depression (1930s), 4, 151
 Green movement, 138
 Greenpeace, 47
 Grenada invasion anniversary,
   157–158
 Guerilla theater, 157–159
 Guevara, E. “Che”: on internal discipline, 91–92; on learning in action, 65; on learning from experience, 121–122, 124; on learning reflecting culture of the participants, 112; Mandala influenced by writings of, 21;
   on motivation for social justice, 90; on primary function of leaders, 126; program planning perspective of work by, 87–88;
   on sacrifice transformed into service hegemony, 94; trainer role in pedagogy of, 64–65
- H
- Habits of the Heart* (Bellah, Madsen, Sullivan, Swidler, and Tipton), 48
Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education (Wilson and Hayes), 67
Handbook of Race and Adult Education (Sheared, Johnson-Bailey, Colin, Peterson, and Brookfield), 207
 Harlem Adult Education
   Experiment, 76

- “Haters Page” (Marcuse home page), 191
- Health care ideology, 30–31
- Hegemony: Che Guevara’s goal for service, 94; teaching that illuminates power and, 118–120. See also Authority
- Highlander Folk School, 38, 65–66, 72, 74, 154–155, 180
- Highlander Research and Education Center, 102–103
- Hip-hop culture, 149–151, 154, 159, 208
- Hmong refugees, 164
- Holocaust, 110
- Home Depot, 135
- Homophobia, 52
- Honesty learning principle, 92–93
- House on Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC), 166, 167
- Human resource development (HRD), 93, 133
- Hurricane Katrina, 95
- I
- Ideal speech situation, 62
- Ideological detoxification, 201–205
- Ideological manipulation: capitalism and, 4, 14, 26–32, 36–37, 40–41; contemporary adult learning to resist, 31–32; critical reflection to resist, 23, 31–32, 35–37; health care, 30–31; self-directed learning to resist, 23, 31–32, 37–41; transformative learning to resist, 23, 32–35
- Ideology: Basic American Negro Creed, 211; racism, 16, 45–46, 199, 206; repressive tolerance used to promote, 109–110; transformative adult learning theory explaining formation of, 34–35; “war of liberation,” 46; Whitestream, 193. See also Capitalism; White supremacy ideology
- Immigrant rights marches (2006), 219
- Immigrant rights movement, 94
- Immigrant workers, 93–94, 102–103
- Immigration waves, 93–94
- Inclusion: as democratic socialist society quality, 8–9, 15; recognizing differences and embracing, 14–16
- International Dictionary of Adult and Continuing Education* (Jarvis), 68
- International Encyclopedia of Adult Education* (English), 32, 66, 68
- International Journal of Lifelong Education*, 23
- International Labor Organization, 139
- International Monetary Fund, 129, 218
- International Socialist Organization, 41
- “The Internationale” (socialist anthem), 112
- Internationalism, 89–90
- Internationalist curriculum, 112–113
- Intrinsic motivation, 90–91
- Iraq invasion (2003), 28, 46, 118
- Irish Republican Army’s (IRA) Bobby Sands hunger strike, 164
- J
- Johns Island voter registration, 71
- K
- Kenwood Academy, 150
- Kmart, 135

Knowledge/skills: adult learning to gain, 41–42; common good, 48; evaluating program ability to develop, 105–106

L

Labor: as form of variable capital, 135–136; globalization and Ford Ranger plant, 130–136; increasing profit by exploiting, 137; objectification of, 19; UAW Local 879, 132–133; UAW/Ford MnSCU Training Center, 130; value of commodity determined by required, 135. See also Workers

Labor movement participatory research, 182–183

Land and Freedom (film), 148, 165

The Last Supper (film), 160

The Lavaca Collective, 83–84

“Leadership Training Program and Citizenship Schools” memo, 72

League of Revolutionaries for a New America, 25

Learning in Adulthood (Merriam, Caffarella, and Baumgartner), 67

Learning liberation: aesthetics of, 148–152; from capitalism ideology, 26–27; challenging power relations and advantage, 28–30; from health care ideology, 30–31; learning to recognize repressive tolerance, 27–28

Learning Liberation (Thompson), 25

LGBT communities, 40, 55

Liberating tolerance, 14, 199–201

Life of Brian (film), 6

“Line of march,” 96

“Little Boxes” (Reynolds), 156

“The Lonesome Death of Hattie Carroll” (Dylan), 163

Long Walk to Freedom (Mandela), 20

M

McCarthy witch hunts (1950s), 152, 166

Macho Nerds for Reagan (University of Wisconsin-Madison), 157, 158

Marcuse “Haters Page,” 191

Martin Luther King Day, 113

Marxophobia, 31, 57, 117

MC’ing of hip-hop, 159

Medicaid, 51

Meeting Basic Learning Needs in the Informal Sector (Singh), 139

Million Man March (1995), 218

Minneapolis Iraq war protest, 28–29

Minnesota Labor and Sustainability Conference, 132–133

Mississippi Freedom School Curriculum, 66

Modern Times (film), 160–161

Moral Majority, 57

Morality of coercion, 197–198

Mothers of the plaza de Mayo, 29

Mount Saint Vincent University (Nova Scotia), 55

Movement collective development, 52–56

Movimento dos Trabalhadores Rurais Sem Terra (MST), 80–82

“My Daddy (Flies That Ship in the Sky)” [Guthrie], 148, 159–160

N

Nation of Islam, 93, 154

National Association for the Advancement of Colored

People (NAACP), 75, 76–77, 92, 169, 173, 210
 National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, 53
 National of Islam, 24
 National Louis University (Chicago), 55, 110
 Negro Labor Council, 174
Negro and the New Deal (DuBois), 210
 Negro spirituals, 163
 New Deal legislation, 210
 New York City, 148–150
Nguzo Saba (Swahili values), 54
 Niagara Movement, 92
Nichel and Dimed (Ehrenreich), 31
 Nihilist Workers Party, 158
 Nondogmatic thinking, 93–94
 Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 132
 North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), 24, 218
 Northern Ireland's H Block prisons study, 115

O

Obama administration, health care proposal of, 30–31
 Objectification of labor, 19
 Objective reframing, 35
 Off-Track Betting shop, 45
 Oil industry, 46–47
 “Old Man River” (song), 165–166
One-Dimensional Man (Marcuse), 60
 “Only a Pawn in Their Game” (Dylan), 163
 Open Space Technology, 127
 Organization of Afro-American Unity, 24
 Organization collectives, 52–56
 “Oxford Town” (Dylan), 163

P

Pan-Africanism, 89, 161–163
 Participatory action research: civil rights movement examples of, 179–182; Ella Baker's approach to, 172–173; five research stages necessary for community-based, 177–178; Nelson Peery's approach to, 173–175; Paula Freire's role in emergence of, 175–179
 Participatory action research principles: epistemological, 184–186; key questions for researchers related to, 187–189; methodological, 186–187
Pedagogy of the Oppressed (Freire), 177, 179
 Pedagogy. See Socialist adult pedagogy
 People's Institute for Survival and Beyond of New Orleans, 195, 199 Perspective transformation, 32.
See also Transformative adult learning
Philosophical Concepts and Values in Adult Education (Lawson), 69
 Polarization: challenges of the current process of U.S., 216–221; Civil rights movement as culmination of, 220
 Political independence of working-class, 95–96
 “Political will formation,” 157
 Poor People's Economic Human Rights Campaign (PPEHRC), 100, 101, 104
 Poor People's Marches, 219
 Popular culture: dominant ideologies represented in, 166; educational functions of radical, 152–165; hip-hop,

- 149–151, 154, 159, 208; Paul Robeson's role in struggle using, 166–170
- Popular Unity Government (Chile), 165, 179
- Postmodernism, 218
- Power: controlling resource distribution, 138; empowerment through art, 156–159; facilitated for the dispossessed, 104–105; globalization and disproportionate distribution of corporate, 131–132; teaching that illuminates hegemony and, 118–120; understanding democratic socialism, 126–127
- Power relations: building organizations for dispossessed to improve status of, 104–105; learning liberation challenging, 28–30
- Practice-theory dialectic of learning, 122–124
- Privilege: diminishing objective basis for, 215; dismantling, 206–216; opposition to, 94–95
- Problem-solving program planning training model, 101–102
- The Profession and Practice of Adult Education* (Merriam and Brockett), 67, 68
- Profit: absolute surplus value, 136; exploitation of labor to increase, 137; globalization impacting capitalism logic on, 136–137; relative surplus value, 136
- Program evaluation criteria: does work allow understanding of local and broader interconnectedness, 102–103; does work begin with demands of the dispossessed, 100; does work build organization to exercise power, 104–105; does work build political independence, 103–104; does work develop skills and knowledge, 105–106; does work help dispossessed to understand social realities, 100–102
- Program planning: for evaluation criteria, 99–106; existing literature on, 87; goals of, 95–99; issues to consider for, 86–88; principles of, 88–95; problem-solving program planning training model for, 101–102
- Program planning goals: political independence of working-class people, 95–96; understanding dynamics and trajectory of change, 96–97; understanding one's place in history, 98–99; understanding social change as historic process, 97–98; working with and from the movements of working-class people, 99
- Program planning principles: creative, flexible, nondogmatic thinking and audacity, 93–94; discipline, 91–92; honesty, truth, and self-criticism, 92–93; internationalism and anti-imperialism, 89–90; intrinsic motivation of love and empathy, 90–91; service, sacrifice, and opposing privileges, 94–95; social purpose of education context of, 88–89
- Progressive Party, 166
- The Progressive Patriot* (Bragg), 112
- Project South (Atlanta), 93, 97, 98–99, 141–142
- The Proud Valley* (film), 168

Provisional Organizing Committee (POC), 174
Public Enemy, 153, 154

Q

“Questionnaire on Community Background” (Highlander Folk School), 180

R

- Racism: aversive, 208; conditions required for successful challenge to, 215; critical race
theory (CRT) on, 208–209; DuBois’ study on relation of economic factors to, 210–211;
ideology of, 16, 45–46, 199, 206; racial microaggressions
expressions of, 207–208;
repressive tolerance as perpetuating, 27–28, 109–110,
191–199. See also African Americans
- Radical adult education research: Ella Baker’s
participatory action research, 127–173; Nelson Peery’s revolutionary participatory
action research, 173–175;
participatory research in civil rights movement, 179–182;
participatory research in the labor movement, 182–183;
Paulo Freire and participatory
action research, 175–179;
principles for participatory research, 183–189; revelations
through, 171–172
- Radical adult learning: in context
of democratic socialism, 16–20;
examining the meaning of,
3–4; Nelson Mandela’s example of, 20–22, 25. See also Adult education; Adult learning
- Radical aesthetics: affirming pride function of, 161–163;
alternative epistemologies
and ontologies functions of, 159–161; building solidarity function of, 154–156; claiming empowerment function of, 156–159; educational functions of, 152–165; sounding warnings function of, 153–154; teaching history function of, 163–165
- Radical development:
components of, 49; teaching for, 57–62; three distinctive tasks of, 49–56; transformation, critical thinking, and, 56–57
- Radical development tasks: 1:
collective identity development,
50–51; 2: developing agency,
51–52; 3: developing collective forms, movements, and organizations, 52–56
- Radical privatism, 48
- Radical Teacher* (journal), 117, 118
- Radical teaching: issues to consider for, 107–111; practices
of, 117–127; as radical form, 114–117; as radical function,
111–114. See also Adult educators; Teaching
- “Radical Teaching Now” issue
(Radical Teacher), 118
- Radical teaching practices:
aim of learning to create
democratic socialist society, 120; all teaching approaches are appropriate depending on context, 126–127; developing a standardized list of, 117–118;
illumination of power and

- hegemony focus, 118–120;
learning exhibits dialectical relationship of theory and practice, 122–124; methods and curriculum are constantly negotiated/cocreated, 124–126;
teaching is accomplished
through particular struggles, 120–122
- Radical training: examples of,
72–84; pedagogy of shared responsibility in, 79–80;
relationship between principle
and action in, 71–72
- Radicalism in America* (Lens), 3–4
- “Rainbow” coalitions, 51, 154
- Recovered factory movement
(Argentina), 82–83, 141
- Red Guards, 104
- Red Star Over china* (Snow), 21
- Relative surplus value, 136
- Renault factory occupation
(France), 37
- Repressive tolerance: case studies of, 195–199; definition of, 192; examples of, 27–28; how social change is neutralized
by, 193–195; mainstream ideology promoted by, 109–110;
Marcuse’s essay on, 191–195;
metanarrative of democracy
component of, 195–196
- Republic of the Congo, 64–65
- Republican National Conventions, 219
- “Research by the People:”
(Gaventa), 186–187
- Researching learning. See Adult learning research
- Resources: problem of power
controlling distribution of, 138; rational self-interest and distribution of, 48; stewardship of, 9–10, 48–49
- The Revolt* (Begin), 21
- Revolutionary Anarchist Clown
Bloc, 158–159
- Robeson, P.: affirming racial pride work by, 161–163;
called before the HUAC, 166,
167; Civil Rights Congress
signed by, 89; commitment to socialism by, 167; on his support for social justice, 91;
pop culture fame of, 147, 151, 165–166; role in subverting
the system by, 25, 166–170, 213; on self-determination, 41;
on understanding common
struggles, 112
- S
- Sacrifice principle, 94–95
- Sanders of the River* (film), 168
- Sandinista National Literacy Crusade (Nicaragua), 77–79, 106
- Sandinista Revolution (1979), 78
- School of Oriental Languages, 161
- School of Unity and Liberation (SOUL), 93, 97
- Self-criticism, 92–93
- Self-determination, 41
- Self-directed learning (SDL):
challenging capitalism ideology
through, 40–41; challenging
ideological manipulation
through, 31–32; description of,
37–38; development through,
45; emancipatory education tradition fitting, 38; learner’s control over, 38–40; research focus on, 23
- Self-help groups, 51–52
- Service principle, 94–95

- Showboat* (musical), 166
- Si, se puede* (Yes, we can) slogan, 94
- Silabario* (Matte Pérez), 175–176
- Situated cognition, 33–34
- Skills. See Knowledge/skills
- Social change: how repressive tolerance neutralizes, 193–195; Paul Robeson’s role in using popular culture for, 166–170; understanding dynamics and trajectory of, 96–97; understanding one’s place in historic, 98–99; understood as historical process, 97–98
- Social justice: emerging new and existing movements for, 218–219; example of radical training for, 72–84; motivation for, 90–91; pedagogy of shared responsibility in training for, 79–80; relationship between principle and action in training for, 71–72
- Social movements: emerging new and existing, 218–219; radical training to facilitate, 71–84; social justice goals of, 71–91; working with and from working-class, 99. See also specific movement
- Social Text* (1996), 218
- Socialism: African, 49; established as alternative to capitalism, 40–41; exploring how capitalism can be transformed into, 57–62; fairness as central to, 7; freedom of, 31; inclusion argument of, 14–16; inseparability of democracy and, 29–30; stewardship and deployment of resources under, 9–10; as ultimate participatory democracy, 7–8; U.S. ideology condemning, 29–30. See also Democratic socialism
- “Socialism or barbarism” slogan, 138
- Socialist adult pedagogy: authority of adult educators acknowledged by, 116; Che Guevara on trainer role in, 64–65; internationalist curriculum using, 112–113; morality of coercion used in, 198; recommended elements of, 113–114; self-criticism tool of, 92–93; shared responsibility of, 79–80; student-centered learning component of, 116–117. See also Critical theory
- Society for Participatory Research in Asia, 187
- The Sociological Imagination* (Wright Mills), 60
- Soldiers for Solidarity movement, 140–141
- South Africa: African National Congress (ANC) of, 20, 21; apartheid of, 25, 155; Communist Party of South Africa, 25; Nelson Mandela’s example of radical learning in, 20–22, 25; Truth and Reconciliation Commission hearings in, 29
- Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), 72, 73, 74, 75, 77, 173, 180, 181
- Soviet Union, 52, 167
- Spanish Civil War rally (1937), 169
- Spanish Republic (1930s), 91
- Stewardship of resources: democratic socialism approach to, 48–49; socialism approach to, 9–10

 Street slang, 159
 Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), 66, 103, 106, 180
 Student-centered learning, 116–117
Studies in Continuing Education, 23
Studies in the Education of Adults, 23
 Subgroup of the Leadership Development and Current Issues Committee, 181
 Sweet Honey in the Rock, 147, 151

T

Taco Bell Boycott workshop, 142
The Take (documentary), 82
Tales of Manhattan (film), 168
 Teachers College (Columbia University), 2
 Teaching: critical theory used in, 57–62; political issues of women, 59; for radical adult development, 57–62; as radical form, 114–117; as radical function, 111–114; self-criticism, honesty, and truth used in, 92–93. See also Adult educators; Adult learning; Radical teaching
Teaching Defiance (Newman), 1, 183
 Tennessee Industrial Renewal Network, 102
 Theory of consciousness, 60
 Theory-practice dialectic of learning, 122–124
 Tolerance: practicing liberating, 14, 199–201; repressive, 27–28, 109–110, 191–199
 “The Tragedy of the Commons” (Hardin), 48
 Training: and adult education in era of globalization, 139–143;

Che Guevara’s exploration of learning in, 64–65; debate over distinctions between education and, 69–70; defining and debating, 67–71; downgrading attitude toward, 66; examples of radical, 71–84; voter registration, 71, 72–73; worker-oriented, 77–84

“Training by Corporations” (Handbook 1934), 68

“Training Leaders for Citizenship Schools: Outline of Training Workshop” (Highlander Folk School), 180

“Training” (Ollagnier), 66

Transformation adult learning: capitalism ideology explained by, 34–35, 143–144; challenging ideological manipulation through, 31–32; definition of, 32; globalization and, 143–144; radical development through, 56–57; research focus on, 23. See also Perspective transformation

Truth principle, 92–93

Truth and Reconciliation Commission (South Africa), 29

Turin factory councils, 37

U

UAW Local 879, 132–133

UAW/Ford MnSCU Training Center, 130

Ujamaa (African socialism), 49

Umkhonto we Sizwe group (Spear of the Nation) [South Africa], 20–21

UNESCO Krupskaya Prize for Literacy, 80

United Auto Workers, 140

United Nations, 89–90, 179

- United States: Alliance for Progress of, 179; democratic roots of the, 4; destruction of the middle class in, 219–220; health care debate in the, 30–31; House on Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC) of the, 166, 167; increasing polarization in, 216–221. See also Civil rights Movement
- University of Hip-Hop (Chicago), 150–151
- University of Poor (PPEHRC), 101, 104
- University of St. Thomas, 110
- University of Wisconsin-Madison's College Republicans, 157–158
- Urban League, 75
- US Social Forums, 218, 219
- V
- Venezuelan anti-IMF protests (1989), 218
- Veterans for Peace, 95
- Vietnam War, 170
- Voter Education Project, 75
- Voter registration training, 71, 72–73, 182
- W
- Wage fairness, 8
- Wal-Mart, 50
- “War of liberation” ideology, 46
- Warsaw Pact, 52
- “We Charge Genocide” petition, 89–90
- “We Shall Overcome” (song), 154–155
- White privilege: diminishing objective basis for, 215; dismantling, 206–216; opposition to, 94–95
- White supremacy ideology: adult development as challenging, 55, 63; Black Nationalism critique of, 147; counter-storytelling to expose, 208–209; critical race theory (CRT) on, 208–209; danger of learning framed by, 114, 117; democratic socialism narrative standing against, 205; detoxification from, 201–205; DuBois' creed condemnation of, 212–213; intersection of capitalism and, 17, 26, 40, 47, 109, 200, 202; narrative supporting, 45–46, 194, 199, 203, 205; Paul Robeson's struggle against, 166–167, 169; repressive tolerance used to promote, 109–110, 193. See also Ideology
- Whitestream ideology, 193
- The Wind That Shakes the Barley* (film), 164–165
- Women: female form of epistemology by, 53; gender scholarship on, 53; teaching political issues of, 59
- Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF), 89
- Women's movement, 104
- Worker-oriented training: The Lavaca Collective on, 83–84; Movimento dos Trabalhadores Rurais Sem Terra (MST) of, 80–82; recovered factory movement (Argentina) of, 82–83; Sandinista National Literacy Crusade (Nicaragua) for, 77–79
- Workers: From the Mountains to the Maquiladoras (documentary) on immigrant, 102–103; marginalization of, 137–138;

- political economy of
 globalization impacting, 133–138; principles of program planning for, 88–95; radical training provided to, 77–84;
 social movement activism
 among immigrant, 93–94. See also Labor
- Workers' Education Association
 (WEA), 4
- Working-class people: culture
 of, 52–53; marginalization of, 137–138; political independence of, 95–96;
 working with and from movements of, 99
- Workplace learning: adult education focus on, 18–19;
 critical reflection form of,
 36–37; objectification of, 19–20;
 participatory research in labor movement and, 182–183;
 training context of, 64–84. See also Adult learning
- World Aspects of the Race Problem*
 (Bunche), 212
- World Bank, 47, 129
- World Social Forum (2001), 218
- World Trade Organization (WTO) protest (Seattle, 1999), 218
- Y
- Young Negroes Cooperative League, 76
- Young Patriots, 104
- Z
- Zapatista Army of National Liberation (Mexico), 24, 141, 218
- Zimbabwe computer course, 129–130

