

Index

- absorption of medicines, 98
- accountability
 - and non-medical prescribing, 7, 21
 - to employers, 12–13
 - see also* clinical governance
- action learning and reflection, 83–93
 - benefits, 84–6, 91
 - facilitation, 87–8
 - organisational requirements, 86
 - practical experiences, 88–90
 - putting into practice, 87–91
- administration of medicines
 - against prescriptions, 40, 180
 - guidelines, 10
 - loading doses, 101
 - and therapeutic monitoring, 101
- adverse drug reactions, 41, 103–4, 181–2
 - see also* errors and incidents
- agonists, 102
- Allied Health Professionals, 6–7, 50, 175
- annual reviews, 41, 182
- antagonists, 102
- appraisal
 - and CPD monitoring, 24–7
 - tools, 24–6
- appraisal of research see research reviews
- Association of British Pharmaceutical Industry (ABPI), 23
- audit
 - and action learning, 91, 92
 - and identification of learning needs, 24
- bias, 135–6
- bile, 100
- blended learning
 - background and policy contexts, 67–9
 - defined, 65
 - planning activities, 71–4
 - problems and solutions, 74–5
 - resources and tools, 75–9
- blogs, 65, 75–6
- BMJ Learning, 78
- British National Formulary (BNF), 4
- building community, 118–20
- care plans see clinical management plans
- categorisation of drugs, 4
- cellular transport, 102
- chiropodists
 - numbers, 50
 - and supplementary prescribing, 6–7
- clinical governance, 33–4, 42, 44
 - tools to support CPD, 153–61
 - see also* accountability
- clinical management plans (CMPs), 6, 35, 163
 - contents, 37–8
 - policy frameworks, 172–3
- clinical trials, appraisal studies, 129–37
- Code of Conduct, 21
- commissioning arrangements, 53, 59–60
- ‘Community Practitioner Formulary Nurse Prescribers’, 4–5
 - numbers, 50
- ‘community practitioner nurse prescribing’, 4–5
 - see also* nurse prescribing
- competency frameworks, 10, 11, 69–70
- conferences and study days, 23, 54
- confidence issues, 19–20
- Connecting for Health*, 69, 70
- Consultation MLX-3338, 6
- continuing education, 182–4
 - cf. CPD, 18
- Core Learning Unit Programmes, 68
- CPD (continuing professional development), 41
 - background and organisational importance, 17–18
 - employer responsibilities, 11–12, 18–19, 21–2, 192–4
 - in general practice, 215–30
 - identifying opportunities, 23–4
 - implementation difficulties, 22–3
 - monitoring and appraisal, 24–7
 - prescribing knowledge sources, 54
 - resources and funding, 27–8, 57–9
 - role of appraisal, 24
 - role of commissioning, 59–60
 - role of professional accountability, 12–13

- CPD (continuing professional development)
(continued)
and standards for prescribing, 7–10
use of clinical governance tools, 153–61 use of local forums, 55–6
vs. continuing education, 18
see also education and training critical friendships, 122–6 critical incidents see errors and incidents Crown Report (DH 1989), 4–5
Crown Report (DH 1999), 5, 6
- data analysis tools, 24
Delicious website, 78–9
DIGG IT!, 79
digital repositories, 66
dispensing, 40
distribution of medicines, 98–9, 103 documentation, 39–40, 178–9 dose intervals, 101
see also administration of medicines drug companies see pharmaceutical companies drugs see medicines Drugs & Therapeutics Bulletin, 121 duty of care, 3, 4, 7
- E-KSF website, 69
e-learning, 65–79, 193–5
background and policy contexts, 67–9
defined, 66
designing and planning activities, 71–4 problems and solutions, 74–5
resources and tools, 75–9
E-learning for Healthcare (e-LFH) project, 68–9
e-LFH see E-learning for Healthcare (e-LFH) project e-portfolios, 66, 76–7 education and training, 96–7
benefits, 12–13
curriculum and course contents, 96–7
employer responsibilities, 11–12, 18–19, 21–2
funding and resources, 27–8 identifying needs, 19–20
implementation difficulties, 22–3 in-house sessions, 19 for independent prescribing, 5 key requirements, 38 maximising opportunities, 120–22 organising at regional level, 47–61
peer reviews, 54
policy towards new technologies, 69 qualifications, 20–21 role of e-learning, 65–79, 193–5 role of mentoring, 20, 122–6 role of pharmaceutical companies, 23, 54, 184–5 specific pharmacology knowledge, 96–7, 104–5 study days and conferences, 23, 54 for supplementary prescribing, 6–7 use of journal clubs, 129–37, 231–4 use of reflection and action learning, 27, 56–7, 83–93, 197–212
see also information sources;
pharmacology knowledge Egan's Skilled Helper model, 125–6 electronic portfolios, 66, 76–7 electronic prescribing, security, 40 Electronic Staff Record (ESR), 69 elimination and metabolism of medicines, 99–100
employer responsibilities, 43–4, 186–8
CPD and prescribing competency, 10–12, 18–19, 21–2
use of clinical governance tools, 153–61
useful websites, 153
entero-hepatic circulation, 100 enzyme inhibition, 102 errors and incidents, 28, 182 evaluation of competency, 9–10 see also CPD (continuing professional development) evidence-based practice, 130–31
Extended Independent Nurse Prescribers' Formulary, 5, 52
- Facebook, 79
facilitator roles, 50–61
first-pass metabolism effect, 100 FP10 prescriptions, 40
funding and resources, 27–8 shortfalls, 57–9
- General Optical Council (GOC), 5
general practice settings and NMP, organising CPD, 215–30
General Sales List medicines, 39
Gibbs' reflective cycle, 122
GP Notebook, 78
GROW model (mentoring), 124–5
Guiding Principles for CPD for Nurse and Midwife Prescribers (NMC 2008), 68 guidelines and frameworks, 20–21, 36–8
- Health Act-1999, 7
Health and Social Care Act-2001, 5, 6 health visitors, independent prescribing, 4–5 HPC (Health Professions Council), guidelines on CPD, 9
- incidents see errors and incidents independent medical prescribers, 5
accountability, 7, 21, 42

- job descriptions, 146–51
- numbers and uptake, 50
- policy descriptions, 167–8
- professional requirements, 38
- responsibilities, 37
- selection, 42–3
- independent prescribing
 - education and training, 5
 - guidelines and frameworks, 37
 - legislation, 4–5
 - policy frameworks, 173–5
- Independent Prescribing (IP)
 - Regulations-2006, 5, 8
- information needs, 28–9
- identification, 23–4
 - see also* patient information
- information sources
 - employer responsibilities, 12
 - on job descriptions, 146
 - online, 77–9
 - prescribing legislation and guidelines, 6
 - useful websites, 145–6
- insurance, 42

- JISC (Joint Information Systems Committee), 66, 67
- job descriptions, 146–51
- journal clubs, 129–37, 231–4

- Knowledge and Skills Framework (KSF)* (DH 2003), 18, 68

- leadership and professional regulation, 58–9
- ‘learning organisations’, 28
- learning sets
 - in a single speciality, 90–91
 - see also* action learning and reflection
- legal issues
 - and liability, 41–2, 185
 - mixed drugs and licensing, 29
 - and professional indemnity, 42
- legislation
 - on independent prescribing, 4–5
 - on medicines (general), 4
 - on supplementary prescribing, 6–7
- liability issues, 41–2, 185
- line managers, 187
- liver, drug metabolism, 99–100
- loading doses, 101
- local forums, 55–6
- local registers, 39
- lock and key concept, 101–2

- Making a Difference* (DH 1999), 68
- medical errors see errors and incidents

- medical journals, reviews and critiques, 129–31, 133–7
- medicine
 - concepts and models, 117–18
 - role of professional artistry, 118–20
- medicines
 - absorption and distribution, 98–9
 - categorisation, 4
 - general management guidelines, 10–11
 - interactions and adverse reactions, 101, 103–4
 - loading doses, 101
 - metabolism and elimination, 99–100
 - modes of action, 101–2
 - pharmacodynamics, 101–2
 - pharmacogenetics, 103
 - research reviews, 129–37
 - ‘supply and administration’ cf. ‘prescribing’, 35
 - therapeutic monitoring, 101
 - see also* pharmacology knowledge
- Medicines Act-1968, 4, 5
- MEDLINE, 134–5
- mentoring, 20, 122–6
- models, 124–6
- MeReC Bulletins, 77
- metabolism and elimination of medicines, 99–100
- midwives
 - independent prescribing, 4–5
 - professional standards and policy frameworks, 174–5
- Misuse of Drug Regulations-2001, 4
- Misuse of Drugs Act-1971, 4
- MLE (Managed Learning environment), 66
- mobile learning, 66, 75
- Modernising Health Care Training* (DH 2006), 69
- monitoring of drug concentrations, 101
- monitoring of NMP, 9–10, 188
- MP3 files, 66, 75

- National Prescribing Centre (NPC), 6, 28, 53, 68
 - online resources, 77–8
- ‘near misses’ see errors and incidents
- networking sites, 78–9
- NHS Act-1977 Regulations, 5
- NHS Connecting for Health* website, 69, 70
- NHS organisation, 48–9
- The NHS Plan* (DH 2000), 49
- NHS Trusts and non-medical prescribing
 - background and organisational contexts, 48–9
 - development of NMP lead roles, 54
 - policy documentation, 163–89
 - roles and responsibilities, 11–12, 18–19, 21–2, 43–4, 186–8
 - and strategic intent, 36

- NMC (Nursing and Midwifery Council) on competency frameworks for prescribing, 10
 on employer responsibilities, 11–12 on guiding principles for prescribing, 68 on medicines management, 10–11
 on proficiency standards for prescribing, 7–9, 20–21
 NMC register, 8
 NMP facilitators see non-medical prescribing facilitators ‘no-blame’ culture, 28 non-medical prescribing
 background and policy contexts, 49–50
 commissioning arrangements, 53, 59–60 competency evaluations, 10 disseminating information and building community, 118–20
 facilitator roles, 50–61
 funding and resources, 27–8, 57–9
 governance and accountability, 7, 21, 42
 guidelines and frameworks, 36–8, 68, 163–89
 job descriptions, 146–51
 key principles, 36, 168–9
 leadership and professional regulation, 58–9
 legislation, 4–7
 monitoring practice, 43
 organisational roles and responsibilities, 21–2, 43–4
 policy development, 34–5, 163–89 professional groups, 5, 6
 professional requirements, 38
 record keeping and documentation, 39–40
 registration, 38–9, 175–7 selection of prescribers, 42–3, 187 standards, 7–10, 20
 strategic intent, 36
 terminology, 35
 Trust-based policy documentation, 163–89
 use of journal clubs, 129–37
 vs. ‘supply and administration’, 35 non-medical prescribing facilitators key responsibilities, 50–54, 191–2 resource challenges, 57–9 role boundaries, 58
 nurse training see education and training
 Nursing and Midwifery Order-2001
 (The Order), 7–10
- off-label prescribing, 5
 onmedica, 78
 optometrists, prescribing frameworks, 5–6
 ‘The Order’ see Nursing and Midwifery Order-2001 (The Order) organisation responsibilities see NHS Trusts
 and non-medical prescribing
- PACT (Prescribing Analysis and Cost) data competency framework tools, 11 identification of learning needs, 24
 as learning resource, 54, 121
 palliative care, 121
 Patient Group Directions (PGDs), 35, 167 patient information, 42
 PDAs, defined, 66
 PDPs, defined, 66
 peer reviews, 54
 pharmaceutical companies guidance on associations, 41, 184–5
 as learning resource, 23, 54
 partnership working, 23
 pharmacodynamics, 101–102
 pharmacogenetics, 103
 pharmacokinetics, 97–9 elimination and metabolism, 99–100
 pharmacology knowledge, 95–114, 213–14 background and new developments, 95–6 critical analysis of studies, 129–37
 information sources, 213–14
see also information sources
 pharmacists
 numbers, 50
 professional standards and policy frameworks, 9, 168, 174
 and supplementary prescribing, 6–7 physiotherapists
 numbers, 50
 and supplementary prescribing, 6–7
 PICO, 133–5
 podcasts, 66, 75
 podiatrists
 numbers, 50
 and supplementary prescribing, 6–7 policy development for non-medical prescribing, 49–50, 68
 example of a Trust policy document, 163–89
 local implementations, 34–5 portfolios, 10
 electronic, 76–7
 Practice Standard-15 (SPNMP-2006), 8, 20
 PREP (1999) standards, 8–9 prescriber training see education and training prescribers see independent medical prescribers; supplementary prescribers Prescription by Nurses Act-1992, 4–5 prescription handling, 40
 Primary Care prescribing data, 24
 Primary Care Trusts (PCTs), 48 professional appraisal see appraisal professional guidance see guidelines and frameworks; professional standards professional indemnity, 42, 185 professional responsibility, 1, 10–11 see also employer responsibilities

- professional standards, 7–10, 20
- 'PSP', 39
- qualifications for non-medical prescribing, 20–21
- Quality and Outcomes Frameworks, 120–21
- radiographers
 - numbers, 50
 - and supplementary prescribing, 6–7
- receptor proteins, 101–102
- receptor theory, 101–2
- record keeping, 40
- reflection and action learning, 27, 56–7, 83–93
 - benefits, 84–6, 91
 - facilitation, 87–8
 - organisational requirements, 86
 - practical experiences, 88–90
 - putting into practice, 87–91
- regional level NMD see Strategic Health Authorities (SHAs) and NMD
- registers, 38–9
 - local, 39, 175–6
 - national, 8
- registration policies, 38–9, 175–7
- renal elimination, 99
- reporting adverse drug reactions, 41, 104, 181–2
- research reviews
 - analysis frameworks, 133–5
 - analysis topics, 135–6
 - use of journal clubs, 129–37, 231–4
- responsibilities see employer responsibilities
- responsibilities; professional responsibilities
- restrictions on prescribing, 39
- reviewing pharmacology evidence, 129–37
- The Royal Pharmaceutical Society for Great Britain (RPSGB), 7
- Scotland
 - policy development, 50
 - prescribing frameworks and tools, 11–12
- security measures, 40, 181
- selection of trainees, 42–3, 187
- Shipman Enquiry, 9
- side-effects and drug reactions, 41, 102, 103–4
- Skype, 66
- social bookmarking, 78–9
- social software, 78–9
- SPNMP-2006 see Standards of Proficiency for Nurse and Midwife Prescribers (2006)
- Standards of Proficiency for Nurse and Midwife Prescribers* (NMC 2006), 8–9, 20–21, 68
- Practice Standard-15, 8, 20
- statutory instruments see legislation
- storage of medicines, guidelines, 10
- Strategic Health Authorities (SHAs) and NMD
 - background history and structures, 48–9
 - role in non-medical prescribing, 50–54, 191–2
- strategic intent of non-medical prescribing, 36
- study days and conferences, 23, 54
- Stumbleupon, 79
- supplementary prescribers, 6
 - accountability, 7, 21, 42
 - job descriptions, 146–51
 - numbers and uptake, 50
 - policy descriptions, 168
 - responsibilities, 37
 - selection, 42–3
- supplementary prescribing
 - education and training, 6–7
 - governance and accountability, 7, 42
 - guidelines and frameworks, 37, 169–73
 - legislation, 6–7
 - professional standards, 7–10
- Supporting Best Practice in E-learning across the NHS* (DH 2005), 68
- Surrey and Sussex Strategic Health Authority, 51–61
- syringe-drivers, legal implications of mixed drugs, 29
- therapeutic index for medicines, 101
- training see education and training
- Trusts see NHS Trusts and non-medical prescribing
- V100 qualification, 20
- V150 qualification, 20
- V300 qualification, 21
- VLE (virtual learning environment), 66, 71
- Wales, policy development, 50
- Web 2.0 technologies, 75–6
- Wiki software, 67, 76
- yellow card reporting systems, 41, 104

