

Index

A

Abuse, 75, 133, 214. See also specific type
Academic achievement: case scenarios related to, 6–8, 63–68, 147–148; and class schedules, 156; and cooperation of teachers, 95–96; and family interactions, 175–180; and lack of motivation, 97–99; student placements for, 112–113; and team approach, 202–205
Acceptance, of student, 21, 66, 68
Administrators, school: complaints of, 17–18; and labels, 33; relationship building of, 195–196
Adolescents. See Secondary students
Alcohol abuse. See Drug/alcohol abuse
Alcoholics Anonymous, 13
Alternative schools: case scenarios related to, 2–5, 88, 175–176; Teacher Observation Sheet for, 3
American Red Cross, 213
Anger: case scenarios related to, 128–129; externalization of, 49–50, 128–129; re-description of, 23–24; scaling questions for, 215; and solution-focused guidelines, 16
Arguing parents, 166–167
Attendance, 37–38, 111–112
Attention deficit disorder, 97, 166
Attention, personal, 17, 23
Attitude, students', 149

B

Bam, the Wizard (Furman), 133
Becoming Solution-Focused in Brief Therapy (Peller & Walter), 100–102
Behavior modification approaches, 44, 189
Behaviors, student: effect of parents on, 167–168; focus on changeable, 21–22; knowing reasons for, 17; positive versus negative thoughts about, 10; problem re-descriptions guidelines for, 36; ripple effect in, 18–19; stereotyping of, 18. See also specific behaviors
Behaviors, teacher, 13–15
Berg, I., 74, 75, 113, 119, 136, 139, 155
Berkeley, G., 59
Blame, 64, 67, 100, 132, 134

Boehmer, E., 103

Breakups, in relationships, 221
Brief Family Therapy Center, 113

C

Cade, B., 190–195
Calming techniques, 49, 51
Campbell, D., 189
Case note worksheet, 82, 181–183
Celebrations, 132, 133
Certificates: for elementary school children, 140; and scaling down problems, 53, 56
Change, of behavior: assumptions of educators about, 36–37; and competency building, 60; considering past successes in, 41–43; encouragement of, 22–23; and family dynamics, 67–68; importance of motivation in, 20; realistic thinking about, 21–22; ripple effect of, 18–19; slow versus rapid progress toward, 22; teachers' response to, 150, 155
Change, resistance to: case scenarios related to, 103–104; effect of cooperation on, 21; and students' worldview, 19–20; teachers' issues with, 100–104
Cheerleader role, 68
Classroom management: and class schedules, 156–157; language in, 43–44
Cognitive abilities, 218–219
Collaborative task assignments. See Task assignments
College applications, 157–159
Compassion, 88–90
Competencies, counselors', 80–81, 83–86
Competencies, students': and capacity for change, 60; and discipline, 193–194; of secondary school students, 177; and solution-focused guidelines, 16–17
Competencies, teachers', 11, 13
Competency-based conversations: case scenarios related to, 63–68; cheat sheets for, 79; goal setting in, 65–66, 70–72; and nonverbal students, 75–76; note writing in, 80; overview of, 59–60; and relationship building, 61–63; school counselor's role in, 61, 68; stages

- Competency-based conversations (continued)
of, 69–75; student types in, 76–78; task assignments in, 67; training exercise, 83–86
- Competency-based programs, 45
- Competition Scale for Defeating Bad Habits worksheet, 130, 131
- Complainants, 76–77
- Complaints, students': about nagging teachers, 19–20; about school, 6; in competency-based conversations, 65; global statements of, 23; in problem redescriptions, 34–35; versus symptoms, 17–18
- Conferences: case scenario related to, 12; involving teachers in, 91–93, 97–99; and team approach, 204; worksheet for, 27–28
- Confidence, 132
- Connie, E., 165–167
- Consent forms, 169, 170
- Contractual agreements, 141–142
- Control, need for, 21, 23, 49
- Conversations. See Competency-based conversations
- Cooperation: challenges to, 75; in competency-based conversations, 70–71, 75; effects of, 21; of teachers, 94–95, 96
- Coping skills, 150–151, 210, 216
- Creative Strategies for School Problems* (Durrant), 213
- Crisis situations, 219–222, 223
- Crisp, Q., 145
- Criticism, 63–68, 116, 177
- Curiosity, 43–44, 194
- Customers, 77–78
- D
- Dangerous Minds* (film), 168
- Davis, T., 76
- de Shazer, S., 15, 21, 34, 41, 45, 53, 67, 74, 76, 113
- Death: and competency-based conversations, 73; from drug/alcohol abuse, 212; questioning techniques to deal with, 214; revisiting memories after, 219–220
- Defensiveness, 149
- Denial, 71–72
- Depression, 221; externalization of, 46–47; and global complaints, 23; and teachers' frustrations, 13–15
- Developmental milestones, 63–64
- Diagnoses, 30
- Diary, 197, 199
- Discipline: case scenarios related to, 190–195; definition of, 206; goal setting in, 192–193, 197, 198; and mentors, 201–202; overview of, 189; parent and teacher involvement in, 194–195; relationship building for, 195–196; and student competencies, 193–194; students' need for, 175–176; students' participation in, 200–201; task assignments in, 193; training exercise for, 207
- Divorce: case studies related to, 31, 41, 166–167; and remarriage, 166–167
- Dolan, Y., 135
- Drawing: to externalize anger, 128; and imagination techniques, 216–217; for nonverbal students, 75–76
- Drug/alcohol abuse: case scenarios related to, 30–33, 209–210; education about, 211; and externalization of problems, 51; respecting need for, 210–211; scaling questions for, 184–185; scare tactics related to, 212–213
- Durrant, M., 100, 213
- E
- Elementary school students: certificates for, 140; contractual agreements with, 141–142; exercise to eliminate bad habits in, 130–131; externalization of problems for, 46, 128–130, 134; labels for, 127–129; miracle questions for, 114–115; overview of, 129; and problem redescriptions, 36; skill development in, 132–133; storytelling with, 135–139; suffering from sexual abuse, 133–139; training exercise for working with, 141
- Emotional connections, with students, 94, 95
- Encopresis, 19
- Epston, D., 29, 30, 37–38, 45, 53, 75, 80, 134, 140, 179
- Even, T., 145–146, 221
- Expulsion, 72, 189, 190
- Externalizing problems: in elementary school children, 46, 128–130, 134; and language, 45–50; in relationship building, 62

F

Failure, 22

Families: challenges of, 8–9; changing dynamics of, 67–68; compromises within, 184–185; conducting therapy for, 168–183; housing move of, 6, 59, 87; importance of helping, 164–165; involvement of teachers in, 168, 171; overview of, 163–164; scaling questions for, 184–185; solution-focused scripts for, 171–175; training exercise for working with, 187. See also Parents

Fielding, L., 147–148

Fighting, 21, 59, 130, 190

Freeman, J., 80

Frolov, D., 111

Frustration, 215

Fulghum, R., 95

Furman, B., 132–133

Future, language related to, 36–37

G

Gerrard, B., 186

Gifted students, 97–99

Ginott, H., 87

Goal setting: in competency-based conversations, 65–66, 70–72; in crisis intervention, 221, 222; to discipline students, 192–193, 197, 198; in family therapy, 171; miracle questions in, 113–115; in relationship building, 62; with secondary students, 35, 184–185; with teachers, 105; vagueness versus specificity in, 35, 70; worksheet for, 198

Grigsby, N. S., 217–219

H

Habits, 130–131. See also specific habits

High school students. See Secondary students

HIV-AIDS prevention programs, 213

Homework, 11–12

Honesty, 217

Hopelessness, 23, 39–40

Household chores, 175–176

Hyperactive students, 1

I

Illnesses, 6, 37–38

In Search of Solutions (O’Hanlon & Weiner-Davis), 16, 43

Independence, 63

Innovative Resources, 48

Intelligent students, 97–99

Internalizing problems, 45–48, 62

J

Jacobs, J., 216

Jagger, M., 209

K

Keeney, B., 36

Kids’ Skills (Furman), 132

Kuehl, B., 55

L

Labels: case scenarios related to, 30–33; for elementary school children, 127–129; power of, 30; and problem redescriptions, 34–35, 36; for secondary school students, 146; and solution-focused guidelines, 16, 17–18

Language: of alternative stories, 29–30; and assumptions of educators, 36; consequences of labels in, 30; to convey hope, 39–40; to discover past experiences, 73; of elementary school labels, 129–130; to externalize problems, 45–50, 62; to find past successes, 40–43; of note writing, 38, 39; overview of, 29; of praise versus curiosity, 43–44; in relationship building, 61–63; to scale down problems, 53–55; specificity in, 35; and students’ worldview, 34–35; in student-teacher conferences, 91; and teachers’ assumptions about change, 36–37; training exercise for, 29–30; for working with complainants, 77

Learning skills, 132

Lee, N.-C.M., 215

Lesson plans, 94, 213

Lipchik, E., 53

Listening: and alternative stories, 34; to build relationships, 61–62; in crisis intervention, 221

Lobovits, D., 80

Long, T., 51

Lovelace, N., 195–196

Lying, 217

M

Maybe (Maybe Not) (Fulghum), 95
Mediation-type setting, 77
Mental retardation, 218–219
Mentors, 5, 201–202
Metcalf, L., 44, 134, 158, 213
Middle school students. See Elementary school students; Secondary students
Miller, S., 113
Miracle question: case scenarios related to, 111–113, 114–115; for elementary school students, 114–115; exercise worksheet for, 122–125; in goal setting, 113–115; overview of, 113–114; for parents, 118–119; for secondary students, 115–118; and students' imagination, 216–217; timing of, 119–120. See also Questioning
The Miracle Question: An Exercise of Hope worksheet, 122–123
Motivation: lack of, in gifted students, 97–99; scaling questions for, 215; and solution-focused guidelines, 20, 22
Move, of family, 6, 59, 87
My Goals worksheet, 198
My New Story worksheet, 136–138
My Solutions! worksheet, 49–50
Myerhoff, B., 220

N

Naming problems, 46, 48
Narrative counseling, 147–148
Negative thinking: versus positive thinking, 10; and redescribing problems, 23–24; and teachers' frustrations, 13–15
Nonpathological terms, 16
Nonverbal students: assessing problem solving of, 75; and competency-based conversations, 75–76; scaling question strategies, 53–54, 215, 216
Note writing: in competency-based conversations, 80; language of, 38, 39; regarding students' changed reputation, 155

O

Observations, 35
O'Hanlon, W. H., xi, 16, 41, 43, 77, 113

Osborn, C., 76

Ozick, C., 127

P

Parenting, need for, 175–176
Parents: bad notes home to, 141; children's behavior, effect on, 165–167; and class schedules, 156; and college application, 158–159; complaints of, 17–18, 76–77; cooperation with, 21; denial of, 71–72; in discipline strategy, 194–195; miracle question for, 118–119; as models for children's behavior, 167–168; normal conflicts between adolescents and, 63–64; punishment by, 32; work-related discussions with, 185–186. See also Families
Parents, divorced. See Divorce
Parents, working: case scenarios related to, 6–8, 30–33; and secondary students, 185–186
Past experiences: in competency-based conversations, 66–67, 73–74; in crisis intervention, 221; and relationship building, 62–63; using language to discover, 40–43
Pathological labels. See Labels
Patience, 120
Peller, J., 100–102
Physical abuse, 51, 89–90
Positive thinking, 10, 13–15
Poverty, 87–89
Power struggles, 100–103
Practice, skill, 132
Praise, 43–44, 155
Prevention programs, 212–213
Problem solving, students': assessment of, 74–75, 103; case scenario related to, 11–12; to externalize anger, 49–50; externalizing versus internalizing in, 45–48, 62; rationale for, 11; redescribing problems in, 23–24, 34–35, 36; with scale-down questions, 53–55; in secondary school, 149–150; and solution-focused guidelines, 16–17; time allotted for, 21–22
Problem solving, teachers': assessment of, 21; considering past successes in, 40–43; and emotional connections to students, 94, 95; problem- versus solution-oriented view of,

13–15; simplicity in, 19; steps in, 104–107; traditional method of, 40
Problems: definition of, 69–70; perceptions of, 61–62. See also Redescribing problems
Punishment, 32, 72, 200

Q

Questioning: to address complainants, 77; to assess students' problem solving, 74–75, 103; in college application process, 158; in competency-based conversations, 66–68, 69–75, 79; in crisis intervention, 222; to deal with death, 214, 220; to defeat bad habits, 130, 131; to define problems, 69–70; to evaluate teacher effectiveness, 44–45; to focus on past successes, 41–43; key words and phrases in, 39–40; to scale down problems, 53–55, 134; to schedule classes, 157; for skill development, 133; of working parents, 185–186. See also Miracle question

R

Realistic thinking: versus miracle questions, 114; solution-focused guidelines and, 21–22; and specificity of language, 35
Rebelliousness, 177
Redescribing problems: case studies of, 191–192; guidelines for, 36; and labels, 34–35; and negative thinking, 23–24; training exercise for, 207. See also Problems
Referrals, 90–91
Relationship building: case scenarios related to, 111–113; for discipline purposes, 195–196; guidelines for, 61–63; in teacher mentorships, 202; between teachers and students, 91, 94
Reminders, 133
Reminiscing, 66–68
Reputation, students', 59–60, 149–155, 161
Resistance, to change. See Change, resistance to Respect: for habits, 210–211; of teachers' feelings, 94–95, 96
reteaming.com, 133
Rewards, behavior, 202
Ripple effect, 18–19, 44, 213
Roth, J., 134

S

Satir, V., 18
Scaling questions, 106; to assess frustration and motivation, 215; in crisis intervention, 222; and mentorship for discipline, 202; for nonverbal students, 215, 216; overview of, 53–55; and resistance to change, 103; for secondary students, 184–185, 215–216
Scare tactics, 212–213
Schedules, class, 156–157
Schneider, A., 111
School attendance, 37–38
Secondary students: aligning with worldview of, 19–20; competencies of, 177; competency-based conversation example of, 63–68; goal setting with, 35, 184–185; guidelines for working with, 159–160; labels for, 146; mentorships for, 201–202; and miracle questions, 115–118; normal conflicts between parents and, 63–64; overview of, 145–147; punishment of, 32; reputations of, 149–155; respecting habits of, 210–211; scaling questions with, 53–54, 184–185, 215–216; scare tactics for, 212–213; self-image of, 149; training exercise for working with, 161; and working parents, 185–186
Self-image, 149
Self-perception, 45–46
Senior release time, 156
Sexual abuse: of elementary school children, 133–139; externalization of, 51; solution-focused guidelines for, 16–17
Shannon, N., 200–201
Shattered Dreams program, 212
Shaw, G. B., 163
Skills, students', 132–133
Socializing, with students, 61
Solution-focused approach: guidelines for, 16–24; overview of, 15–16; versus problem-oriented approach, 13–15, 69, 104; school district's introduction to, 9–10; staff members' concerns about, 9
A Solution-Focused Approach to Conversations: Guiding Questions Cheat Sheet, 78–79
Solution-Focused Script worksheet, 172–174

Special needs, students with, 217–219
Steiner, T., 74, 75, 136, 139, 155
Stepparents, 166–167, 178–179
Storytelling: with elementary school children, 135–139; of nonverbal students, 75–76; rationale for alternative stories in, 29–30; and students' worldview, 34–35; training exercise for, 143
Strength Cards (Innovative Resources), 48
Student behaviors. See Behaviors, student
Student Success Diary, 197, 199
Students. See specific types
Student-Teacher Conference Worksheet, 91–93
Stuffed animals, 46, 48
Suicide, 221
Systems theory, 163, 167

T

Task assignments: in competency-based conversations, 67; to discipline students, 193; in family therapy, 172; principles of, 43
Teacher Observation Sheet, 3
Teachers: assessing effectiveness of, 44–45, 106; assumptions of, about change, 36; complaints of, 17–18; in discipline strategy, 194–195; ending power struggles with, 100–103; and entry into family systems, 168, 171; frustrations of, 10, 13–15, 44; involvement of, 87–99; as mentors, 201–202; persecution by, 19–20; resistance of change in, 100–104; respecting feelings of, 94–95, 96; response of, to behavior changes, 150, 155; solution-focused counseling introduction of, 9–10; student interaction times with, 23; students' emotional connections with, 94, 95; and team approach, 202–205; training exercise related to, 108–109; unfair treatment from, 87–89
Teacher-Student-Counselor Conference form, 27–28
Team approach, 202–205
Team Strategies for Students form, 203

Temper tantrums: externalization of, 48; and family problems, 163–164; language related to, 37; and solution-focused guidelines, 22
Tension, in families, 178–180
Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission, 212
thefreedictionary.com, 206
Therapist referrals, 9
Time: for family sessions, 168–169; and miracle questions, 119–120; and nonverbal students, 76; for problem-solving tasks, 21–22; slow versus rapid progress, 22; of teacher-student interactions, 23
Training exercises: for crisis situations, 223; for family therapy, 187; to identify competencies, 83–86; for miracle question, 125; for note writing, 57–58; for redescribing problems, 207; for reputation rescue, 161; for storytelling, 143; for understanding solution-focused approach, 25–26; for working with teachers, 108–109
Trauma, 51–52, 75, 214
Trust, 17
Truth, 217

V

Validation, 70
Venting clients, 76–77
Verbal abuse, 51, 71
Violence, 176, 216–217. See also specific types
Visitors, 76
Visual activities, 134–135

W

Walter, J., 100–102
Watch Out for the Miracle! worksheet, 124
We Believe in You worksheet, 204–205
Weiner-Davis, M., 16, 41, 77, 113
White, M., 29, 30, 39, 45, 48, 53, 75, 80, 134, 140, 179, 220
Worldview, of students: and discipline, 200–201; and language, 34–35; and resistance to change, 19–20