

Contents

---

Preface	vii
PART I
HYPER-COMPETITION	1
Chapter 1 Magnitude Advances in Competitive Standards and Technologies	3
Chapter 2 Global Leanness: An Unstable Phenomenon	10
Chapter 3 Big Question: Does Lean Beget Financial Success?	22
Chapter 4 Ultimate Trend: Improving the Rate of Improvement	26
PART II
IMPROVEMENT GONE WRONG—AND MADE RIGHT	45
Chapter 5 Waste Elimination, Kaizen, and Continuous Improvement: Misdefined, Misunderstood	47
Chapter 6 The Metrics Trap	56
Chapter 7 The Case against (Much of) Management Goal Setting	71
PART III
BUILDING A COMPETITIVE FORTRESS	83
Chapter 8 Fortress by Culture	85
Chapter 9 Vengeful Numbers	94
Chapter 10 Process Improvement: Stretching Company Capabilities	102
Chapter 11 Unique Business Models (Big Ideas)	111
PART IV
WHAT GOES WRONG: IMPRESSIVE COMPANIES AND THEIR WEAK SPOTS	119
Chapter 12 Does Rapid Growth Put the Brakes on Lean?	121
Chapter 13 Losing Their Way—or Not	132
PART V
LEANNESS: A CHANGING LANDSCAPE	155
Chapter 14 Global Lean Champions: Passing the Torch	157

Chapter 15 How Overweight Companies Get Lean	170
Chapter 16 Flow-Through Facilities	182
Chapter 17 External Linkages	195

PART VI*WHY INDUSTRIES RANK WHERE THEY DO 213

Chapter 18 Leanness Rankings for Thirty-Three Industrial Sectors	215
Chapter 19 Electronics: A Metamorphosis	221
Chapter 20 Motor-Vehicle Industry: Earliest but Lagging	231
Chapter 21 Aerospace-Defense: OEMs Are Soaring; Suppliers Are Not	245
Chapter 22 Other Industries	256

Epilogue 273*Index 275