

Index

A

- Abandon, 279–280
- Aboriginal Australians: Cape York peninsular agreement (1996) and, 159–169; cultural differences between non-Aboriginal and, 175
- Abortion manifesto (France), 246
- Absurdity, 69
- Action: “Anger-Hope-Action” model on, 56; categories of, 224–226; domains of, 230–233; forms of control over, 233–234; kinds of social movement and, 234–237; making the right choice for, 221–223; modes of learning leading to, 237–242; moral dimensions of all, 255; morality/moral, 247–262; praxis combination of reflection and, 67; reflection leading to, 219; sites of, 226–230; translating anger into, 50–51; violent, 226, 252–253. See also Choice; Social movements; Teaching action
- ACTION (problem-solving model) stage: deciding on action, 83; meeting agenda and application of, 96; overview of, 81–83*fig*
- Active trust, 267–268
- Activist educators: anger used by, 55–58; helping to define the enemy, 58–59; helping to translate anger into action, 50–51; rational discourse used by, 75; “special studies” courses developed by, 44–47; teaching action, 237–242; teaching choice, 75–93; teaching dialogue, 109–116; teaching morality, 249–252, 263–265, 273–285; teaching negotiation, 135–137, 144–149; teaching negotiation by, 117–127; teaching problem solving, 79–81. See also Adult educators; Learning
- Adam-Smith, P., 19, 20, 21
- Adult education: designing activist, 284–285; phenomenological inquiry as part of, 156–157; role play used in, 144–146
- Adult educators: stating a mission for, 10; teaching defiance examples of, 10–13. See also Activist educators
- Adult learning theory, 59
- AIDS/HIV, 236–237
- Algerian independence struggle, 25
- Allman, P., 4, 109, 111, 113, 115, 116
- Analytic propositions, 201, 203–204
- Anger: calculated and creative, 54–55; comparing rage and, 51–54, 276; connection between hate and, 276; defining the enemy to use, 58–59; rebelliousness inspired by focused, 49–51; using, 55–58
- “Anger-Hope-Action” model, 56
- Anglo-Saxon language, 257, 258
- Anstey, M., 132
- Apartheid (South Africa), 230, 283
- Aragon, L., 278, 280–282
- Aragon’s poem, 281–282, 283
- Archy, 191
- Arendt, H., 119, 120
- Argyris, C., 91
- Australia: border protection (1990s) of, 7–8; cultural rebelliousness tradition of, 17–21; Iraq War (2003) role by, 8–9; multicultural history of, 7, 251–252; World War I experience of, 17–21

- Australian Council of Social Services, 41
 Australian Council of Trade Unions, 56
 Australian Imperial Force (the First AIF), 17
 The Australian Manufacturing Workers Union, 56
The Australian (publication), 287
 Australian test cricket team, 6
 Australian Trade Union Training Authority. See TUTA (Australian Trade Union Training Authority)
 Awesome Africa music festival (South Africa), 221–223, 241–242
 Ayer, A. J. (“Freddie”), 5, 199–203
- B
- Baudrillard, J., 29
 Bauman, Z., 147, 148, 166, 247, 263, 264–265, 268, 270, 273, 280, 282, 283, 287
 Beauvoir, S. de, 25, 246, 258
Bhagavad Gita, 42
 Billy, 68–69, 71–72
 Bin Laden, O., 181
 Black civil rights activists (1960s), 226
 Blake, J. P., 40
 Bloggs, H. (hypothetical character), 104–106
 Boal, A., 210, 211, 215
 Boud, D., 154, 155
 Branch, T., 22, 40
 Brookfield, S., 153, 155, 263
 Brown, B. E., 29, 49
 Bryant, I., 147–148
 Bullen, E., 263, 267
- C
- Calculated/creative anger, 54–55
 Camus, A., 4, 62, 63, 68, 69–70, 177, 199, 200, 207, 248, 269, 273
 Cape York peninsular agreement (1996) [Australia], 159–169
 Caretaker problem story, 87–89
Catch-22 (Heller), 176–177, 182
 Cattlemen’s Union (Australia), 160–161, 165, 166
 CGT (Confédération Générale du Travail), 28
 Channeling dismay, 48–49
 Choice: expression of will and, 67–70; making the right, 221–223; right to, 62–64; subjugating our own, 70–71; suicide as, 63, 67–69, 71–72; teaching, 75–93; when interacting with the Other, 269–270. See also Action
 Civil rights movement (U.S.), 21–23, 226
 Civil society, 227–229
 Closing negotiation phase, 140
 Collier, K., 144, 145, 146, 147, 215
 Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Commission, 24
 Communication: “an ideal speech situation,” 112; intelligibility of, 112–113; teaching dialogue to facilitate, 109–116. See also Discourse; Language
 Communist Party (France), 27–28
 Community action, 231
 Conflict: analyzing power as precursor to engagement in, 127; collective decision versus negotiation to resolve, 117–118; moral action, dignity, and, 270–271; nature of, 117. See also Dispute
 Confrontation, 215–216
 Confrontational action, 225–226
 Congreve, W., 149, 150, 151
 “Conscientization,” 249–250
 Consciousness, 64–67
 Consensus: dialogue used to reach, 109; negotiation used to reach, 117–118
 Consultation, 129, 131–132
 Control by ideas, 234
 Control (forms of), 233–234
 Conventional action, 225
 Counterhegemonic power, 125–126
 Cox, E., 227, 228, 266, 268
 Creative anger, 54–55
 Crisis-management, 76–79
 Criteria-analysis exercises, 153–154
 Critical consciousness, 65
 Critical learning, 237, 239, 240–241
 Critical social theory, 227
 Critical thinking: characteristics of, 9; domestication of, 9–10
 Critical-incident analysis, 153–154
 Crowther, J., 224
 CRS (Compagnies Républicaines de Sécurité) [France], 29–30
Cultural Action for Freedom (Freire), 72
 Cultural rebelliousness: Australian tradition of, 17–21; stories on, 40–42

D

- Dallmayr, F., 4, 116, 122
 Dalton, R., 224, 225, 245
 Darwin, C., 53, 54, 55
 Davidson, J. E., 178
 De Botton, A., 52
 De Gaulle, C., 28
 Dean, J., 227
 Decision making: collective, 117–118;
 developing skills for, 75–79
 Defiance, 61
 Demand negotiation phase, 138–139
 Denning, S., 256
 Deshler, D., 196
 Dialogue: description of, 110; discussion distinguished from, 111–113; facilitating, 113–116; striving for consensus through, 109; theoretical explanations for, 110–111
 Diamond, S. A., 43, 51, 52, 53, 55, 276
 Dignity: conflict and, 270–271; respect for, 271–272
 Discourse: facilitating insight through,
 204–207; insight through, 176–177;
 irrational, 174–175; rational, 75;
 teaching insight through, 177–178.
 See also Communication; Language
 Dismay, 48–49
 Disputes, 129, 131–132. See also Conflict
 Dresden bombings (World War II),
 182–183, 184, 185
 Drucker, P., 83

E

- Education and Campaign Unit (Australian Council of Trade Unions), 56
 Empirical hypotheses, 201–202, 204
 Empiricism, 5–6
 English language, 257–259
 Environmentalists, dismay used by, 49
 “Espoused theory,” 91, 93
 Etheridge, M., 257
 Ethics of integrity, 271–272
 European Union, 262
Les événements (France, 1968), 24–25,
 26–30, 41–42, 63, 226–227
 Existentialism, 4, 64, 259
 Explicitness, 217–219
The Expression of the Emotions in Man and Animals (Darwin), 53
The Eye of the Needle (Turner), 63, 283, 284

F

- FACTS (problem-solving model) stage:
 applications of, 84–90; defining the problem, 82; meetings agenda and application of, 95; overview of, 81–83
 Falluja campaign (Iraq War), 182,
 186–187
 Feenberg, A., 25, 29
 Financial capital, 228
 Finkelkraut, A., 261, 262, 267, 274,
 277, 278, 283
 Firkins, P., 18
 Fisher, R., 85
 Focusing anger, 49–51
 Fogler, H. S., 76, 83
 Foley, G., 224
 Forgetting stories, 261–262
 Forum theater, 210–214, 215, 219
 Foucault, M., 25, 29, 63, 120, 121
 France: abortion laws passed (1970s) in,
 245–246; Communist Party of,
 27–28; CRS (Compagnies Républicaines de Sécurité), 29–30; Les évé-nements (1968) in, 24–25, 26–30, 41–42, 63, 226–227; rebelliousness tradition of, 24–30; Les trois cent quarante trois salopes manifesto, 246
 Fraser Island campaign (Queensland, 1970s–1980s), 49
 Free verse, 193
 Free will: expression of, 67–70;
 Slaughterhouse-Five (Vonnegut)
 discussion of, 185–186
 Freedman, J., 25, 29
 Freire, P., 71, 72, 204, 205, 207–208,
 215, 219, 249, 250
 Frustration, 43–47

G

- Galloway, V., 224
 Gammage, B., 18, 20, 21
 Gandhi, M., 31, 32–37, 42, 52, 245, 253, 255
 Gandhi's salt march, 42
 Garhwali Rifles (Peshawar regiment), 42
 de Gaulle, C., 28
 Gay and lesbian movement, 232, 233
 General Federation of Trade Unions, 57
 Genuine propositions: analytic propositions, 201, 203–204; empirical hypotheses type of, 201–202, 204

- Giddens, A., 4, 263, 264, 265, 267, 268, 273, 287
 Gildea, R., 29
 Gonczy, A., 10
 Gramsci, A., 116, 229
 Gramscian hegemony, 71
 Great Britain: Gandhi's active resistance against, 31, 32–37, 42, 52, 245, 253, 255; satyagraha resistance against, 31–32, 33–37
 Green movement, 232–233
 Greene, G., 187
 Greenland, H., 29, 30
 Griffith, T. R., 149
 Guerilla warfare, 253
 Guimaraes, P., 255
- H
- Habermas, J., 4, 111, 112, 116, 122, 227, 229
 Halimi, G., 246
 Hate: advantages of constructing morality using, 274–275; connection between anger and, 276; Hazlitt on great motivation through, 275–277; love to limit, 277–279
 Hayden, M., 6
 Hazlitt, W., 274, 275–277, 278
 Hegemonic power, 125–126
 Heidegger, M., 215, 217
 Heller, J., 176, 177
 Highlander Parks workshop, 22–23
 Hitler, A., 277
 HIV/AIDS, 236–237
 Holocaust, 262
 Hopkins, G. M., 189, 190, 194
 Horton, M., 23, 240
L'Hôte (Camus), 200
 Human capital, 228
 "Human sciences" knowledge, 121
 Hussein, S., 181
 Husserl, E., 155, 156
- I
- "An ideal speech situation," 112
 Identity and self, 147–149
 Ideology, 239
 Indian Declaration of Independence (1930), 33–34
 Indian Mutiny, 42
 Indian National Congress, 33, 34–35, 36, 253
 Indian Relief Act (1914), 32
 Insight: association of explicitness with, 217–219; confrontation leading to, 215–216; facilitating, 181–214; as "literally senseless," 203; rupture leading to, 216–217; teaching, 177–178; through discourse, 176–177
 Insight facilitation: using forum theater, 210–214, 215, 219; using metaphor for, 194–198; using naming/renaming, 207–210; using novel for, 181–187; using questioning for, 204–207; using role play for, 198–204; using three sonnets for, 187–194
 Institutional control, 234
 Institutional power, 123–124
 Instrumental control, 234
 Instrumental learning, 237, 238
 Intelligibility, 112–113
 INTERESTS (problem-solving model), 86, 90, 93*fig*
 Interpersonal understanding, 237
 Interpretive learning, 237, 238–239
 Iraq War (2003): Australian inclusion in, 8–9, 181; continuing violence of, 287; Falluja campaign of, 182, 186–187; peaceful protest against, 39–40; stories on reaction to, 255
 Irigaray, L., 258
 Irrational discourse, 174–175
 ISSUES (problem-solving model) stage: applications of, 84–90; clarifying the issues, 82; meetings agenda and application of, 95; overview of, 81–83*fig*
- J
- Jamaican English, 258
 Jarvis, P., 247
 Jealousy, 66
 Johnston, R., 147–148
 "The Joker" (forum theater facilitator), 210–211, 213–214, 215, 219
- K
- Kaye, M., 256
 Kellner, D., 63
 Kennedy, R., 183

- Kenway, J., 263, 267
 King, M. L., Jr., 22, 183
 Knowledge: constitutive interests of, 237–238; “human sciences,” 121; relationship between power and, 120–121. See also Learning
- L
- Langer, J., 6
 Language: inauthentic and authentic, 204–205; naming/renaming, 207–210; negotiation, 140–141; of storytelling, 256–259. See also Communication; Discourse
Language, Truth and Logic (Ayer), 199
 Learner-centered learning, 59
 Learning: designing activist, 284–285; phenomenological inquiry as part of, 156–157; relationship between action and, 240–242. See also Activist educators; Knowledge
 LeBlanc, S. E., 76, 83
 Lewis, A., 22
 Lifeworld, 227, 229–230, 248
 Lima, L., 255
 Love: advantages of constructing morality using, 274–275; disassociation from reason, 279–280; hate limited by, 277–279; rational, 280–282
 Lyotard, J.-F., 29, 256
- M
- McAllister, I., 224, 245
Macbeth (Shakespeare), 259
 McIntyre, J., 64
 MacKinnon, S., 49, 159, 160, 162, 165, 168, 169
 McMillan, J. F., 25, 29, 61
 Mandela, N., 107, 252–253, 255
Le Marais district (Paris), 234
 Maritime Services Board seminar, 197–198
 Marquis, D., 191
 Martin, I., 224
 Marxism, 3–4, 25, 67
 Mason, M., 247, 265, 266, 268, 271–272, 273
 Matra (European firm), 257–258
 Mayer, B., 124
 Meditative consciousness, 65
 Meeting management: cynicism or realism debate over, 106–107; dialogue as part of, 109–116; effective speaking as part of, 103–106; environment role in, 100–102; of informal, problem-solving, and formal meetings, 96*fig*; manipulating the meeting process and, 102–103; participants and, 98–99; reaching consensus through dialogue, 109; timing as part of, 99–100
 Meetings: FACTS, ISSUES, OPTIONS, ACTION and agenda of, 95–96; informal, problem-solving, and formal, 96*fig*; problem-solving model and management of, 96*fig*–107
 Merquior, J. G., 121
 “Meta-narratives,” 256
 Metaphors: facilitating insight using, 194–198; tightrope walker, 46–47
 Metaxis: as dual consciousness of identity and self, 147–149; examined through role play, 144–147. See also Negotiation
 Mezirow, J., 65, 153, 154, 155, 162, 217, 237
 Millamant, Mrs. (fictional character), 149–151
 Miller, V., 255
 Millet, K., 258
 Mirabell (fictional character), 149–151
 Moi, T., 258
 Monk, G., 256
 Montgomery boycott (1955–1956), 21–22
 Montgomery Improvement Association, 22
 Moral consciousness, 249–250
 Moral relativism, 265–266
 Morality/moral action: applying reason and prereason to, 268–270; conflict, dignity, and, 270–271; ethics of integrity and, 271–272; hating and loving role in constructing, 273–285; innate and constructed, 247–249; looking for absolutes of, 266–268; nonrational or prerational nature of, 247–248; storytelling about, 255–262; teaching, 249–252
 Morphet, T., 63

Multiculturalism, 7, 251–252
The Myth of Sisyphus (Camus), 68

N

Naming/renaming, 207–210
 Natal Indian Congress, 31
 National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 22
 National Council for Civil Liberties, 41
 Natural selection, 53
 Negotiation: analyzing power as precursor to engagement in, 127;
 benefits of, 143–144; Cape York
 peninsular agreement (1996)
 [Australia], 159–169; deciding on consultation, dispute, or, 129, 131–132; definition of, 129–132;
 disruptive, 159–169; distinguished from collective decision making,
 117–118; four Ps and two Cs mnemonic for, 132–135; impact of power relationships on, 118–127;
 language used in, 140–141; phases of, 137–140; of a relationship,
 149–152; to resolve conflict,
 117–118. See also Metaxis; Teaching
 negotiation
 Nehru, J., 253
 Neville, B., 64
 Newman, M., 5, 58, 122, 207, 262
 Nonviolent resistance: anti-Iraq War peaceful protest as, 39–40; escalation to violent struggle from, 252–253;
satyagraha as, 31–32, 33–37
Le Nouvel Observateur (French weekly), 246
 Ntuli, P., 221, 224, 229–230, 241

O

Objects-to-subjects, 5, 217–218
 Opening negotiation phase, 137–138
 OPTIONS (problem-solving model) stage: canvassing the options, 82–83; meetings agenda and application of,
 95–96; overview of, 81–83*fig*
 Oser, F., 265, 270–271, 273
 “The Other”: changing perceptions of, 163–165, 166, 168; hatred of the,
 277; love and placing value on the,
 279; moral choice when interacting with, 269–270; respect for, 267

P

”Para-Christian” movements (Brazil, 1950s/1960s), 250
 Parks, R., 21–23, 40, 41
 Participation, 224–225
 Perspective transformation, 237
 Phenomenological reflection, 155–157
 Physical capital, 228
 Pilgrim, Billy (fictional character), 183–
 185, 187
 Plato, 52, 53
 “The Pleasure of Hating” (Hazlitt),
 274
 Political action, 232, 234
 Political rebelliousness, 21–23
 Pondering, 157
 “Port Arthur” (Newman), 115
 POSITIONS (problem-solving model),
 86, 90, 93*fig*
 Postmodern theory: French theorists associated with, 63; regarding nature and use of power, 120–121; uncompromising summary of, 147
 Power: definition of, 119–121; impact on negotiation, 118–119; people with, 126–127; as precursor to any engagement, 127; productive nature of,
 120–121; sources of, 124–126; ways and means of, 122–124
 “Powershift” course, 12–13
Praxis, 67
 “Pre-knowledge” mortality, 247
 Principal interventions problem, 89–90
 Proactive consciousness, 66–67
The Problem of Knowledge (Ayer), 199
 Problem solving: model for, 81–93;
 teaching, 79–81
 Problem-solving model: applications and expansions of, 84–93; FACTS, ISSUES, OPTIONS, ACTION
 stages of, 81–90, 83*fig*, 93*fig*, 95–96; managing meetings using, 96*fig*–98;
 meeting agenda and application of,
 95–96; OBJECTIVES and
 PRACTICE points of, 93*fig*;
 POSITIONS and INTERESTS points of, 86, 90, 93*fig*; represented as a flowchart, 173; STATUS and RESPONSIBILITIES points of, 90,
 93*fig*
 “Problematising,” 207

Problems: using commonsense logic to address, 75; decision making to solve, 75–79; principal interventions, 89–90; school caretaker, 87–89
 Protest, 224–225

R

Rage, 51–54, 276
 Rasmussen, D., 4
 Rational discourse, 75
 Rational love, 280–282
 Rational self-reflection, 152–155
 Reason: applied to morality/moral action, 268–270; as concerned with loyalty to self, 279; love as being disassociated from, 279–280; love as rational, 280–282
 Rebelliousness: channeling dismay into, 48–49; cultural, 17–21; defiance as instilling purpose in, 61; focusing anger to inspire, 49–51; frustration leading to, 43–47; political, 21–23; rebellion and, 24–30; revolution and, 31–37; systemic, 23–24
 Relationships: impact of rupture on, 216–217; negotiating, 149–152; phenomenological reflection on, 155–157
 Renaming/naming, 207–210
 Respect, 271–272
 RESPONSIBILITIES (problem-solving model), 90, 93*fig*
 Responsibility to other, 269–270
 Revolution: rebelliousness and, 31–37; violent activism escalated to, 253
 Ricoeur, P., 261
 “The Right,” 72
 Rogers, B. A., 200
 Role play, 144–146, 198–204
Romeo and Juliet (Shakespeare), 259–260
 Rosemount Resource Centre (Northern Ireland), 57
 Rowlatt Act (1919) [India], 33
 Rupture, 216–217
 Ruskin College (Oxford), 57
 Russo, E., 75, 76, 83

S

La sagesse de l'amour (The Wisdom of Love) [Finkielkraut], 274

Sartre, J.-P., 4, 25, 62, 65–66, 163–164, 165, 207, 249, 255
Satyagraha resistance (India), 31–32, 33–37
 Schoemaker, P., 75, 76, 83
 Schön, D., 91, 154, 155
 School caretaker problem, 87–89
 “Second Chance for Women” course, 56–57
 Segal, S., 166, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219
 Self: duality of identity and, 147–149; idea of multiple and discontinuous, 148–149; moral, 268; reason as concerned with loyalty to, 279; shame of, 164–165
 Self-identity: duality of self and, 147–149; sustaining of, 4
 Self-reflection: action from, 219; encouraging, 157–158; phenomenological, 155–157; pondering, 157; rational, 152–155
 Semistructured social movements, 235–236
 Seneca, 52, 187
 September 11, 2001, 7, 255
 Seryge, D., 246
Sexual/Textual Politics (Moi), 258
 Shakespeare, W., 194, 259–260
 Sharp, G., 31, 32, 36, 37
 Shembe Church (South Africa), 221, 222–223, 230, 241
 Shongweni Resources Reserve, 221
Slaughterhouse-Five (Vonnegut), 182
 Slogans, 61
 Snowden (fictional character), 176–177
 Social action, 231–232, 233–234
 Social capital, 228
 Social movements: kinds of, 234–237; U.S. civil rights, 21–23, 226. See also Action
 Sonnets: as art form, 188–189; flouting conventional structure of, 191–193; standard structure of Elizabethan, 187–188; “warty bliggens, the toad” (Archy), 191–193; “The Windhover” (Hopkins), 189–190
 South Africa: apartheid of, 230, 283; Awesome Africa music festival of, 221–223, 241–242; Mandela’s

South Africa, continued
 leadership in, 107, 252–253, 255;
 Rick Turner's impact in, 283–284;
 Shembe Church musical group of,
 221, 222–223, 230, 241; Treatment
 Action Campaign of, 237
 “Special studies” courses, 44–47
 Speculation negotiation phase, 139
 STATUS (problem-solving model), 90,
 93*fig*
 Sternberg, R. J., 178
 Stores (cultural rebelliousness), 40–42
 Stories: debate over use of, 263–265;
 examining ideas through, 260–261; gathering, 255; remembering and forgetting, 261–262; telling and using, 256
 Storytelling: kinds of, 259–260; language of, 256–259; teaching and learning through, 260–261
 Subject-to-object, 5, 217–218
 Subject-to-self, 5
 Subject-to-subject, 5
 Suicide, 63, 67–69, 71–72
 The system, 227
 Systemic rebelliousness, 23–24, 23–24

T

Tavris, C., 53, 54, 55
 Teaching action: on relationship between learning and action, 240–242; understanding modes of learning, 237–239. See also Action
 Teaching choice: problem solving skills involved in, 75–79; teaching problem solving as part of, 79–81
 Teaching defiance, 10–13
 Teaching dialogue: facilitating dialogue through, 113–116; identifying nature of dialogue, 111–113
 Teaching insight, 177–178
 Teaching morality: conscientization process and, 249–250; debate over, 263–265; hating and loving role in,
 273–285; techniques for, 250–252
 Teaching negotiation: guidelines for, 135–137; introducing learners to metaxis for, 144–149; rational self-reflection used in, 152–155; role of self-reflection in, 152–158. See also Negotiation

Teaching problem solving, 79–81
 Terrorism, 253
Theatre of the Oppressed (Boal), 215
 “Theory in use,” 91, 93
 Thompson, J., 56–58
 Tightrope walker metaphor, 46–47
 Treatment Action Campaign (South Africa), 237
 Triolet, E., 278
Les trois cent quarante trois salopes manifesto, 246
 Trust, 267–268, 273
 Truth, 239
 Turner, R., 62–64, 284, 285
 TUTA (Australian Trade Union Training Authority): “Alf Ayer” role play used by, 199; courses supported by, 11–13*fig*, 79; negotiation process recommended by, 132–135*fig*;
 problem-solving model used by,
 81–83*fig*, 84–93*fig*
 Tutu, Archbishop D., 223

U

Ultimatum negotiation phase, 139–140
 Umar, A., 255
 Understanding, 178–179
 UNICEF, 232
 University of Southampton, 56
 Unstructured social movements,
 236–237
 Ury, W., 85
 Usher, R., 147–148
 Utopian realism, 267

V

Value spheres, 4–5
 VIEU (Victorian Independent Education
 Union), 149, 151
 Violence-sabotage, 253
 Violent action: definition of, 226, 253;
 four kinds of activist, 253; as response to unjust conditions, 252–253
 Vonnegut, K., 182–186, 187, 248

W

Walker, D., 154, 155
 War on Terror, 181
 “warty bliggens, the toad” (Archy),
 191–193

-
- The Way of the World* (Congreve), 149–151
Weber, M., 39, 119
Welton, M., 116, 230
West London Friends of the Earth, 44
“The White Australia Policy,” 7
Will: expression of free, 67–70;
 Slaughterhouse-Five (Vonnegut)
 discussion of free, 185–186
Willis, B., 29
Willis, P., 156, 193
“The Windhover” (Hopkins), 189–190
The Women’s Group, 57
Woodcock, G., 31, 35, 36–37, 42, 253
Woolf, V., 258
World Trade Towers attack (2001), 7, 255
World War I, 17–21
- Y
- Yossarian (fictional character), 176–177
Youngman, E., 228, 229
- Z
- Zancarini-Fournelle, M., 246