

Contents

.....

Preface	ix
The Author	xiii
Introduction: A Framework for Studying the History of Higher Education	1
1. Establishing the Collegiate Form in the Colonies: 1636–1789	9
Societal Context 9 • Institutions 14 • Students 21 • Faculty 25 • Curriculum 27 • Governance 39 • Finance 45 • Outcomes 47
2. The Diffusion of Small Colleges in the Emergent Nation: 1790–1869	51
Societal Context 51 • Institutions 56 • Students 64 • Faculty 70 • Curriculum 73 • Governance 83 • Finance 87 • Outcomes 93
3. University Transformation as the Nation Industrializes: 1870–1944	97
Societal Context 97 • Institutions 103 • Students 114 • Faculty 124 • Curriculum 133 • Governance 151 • Finance 159 • Outcomes 166

4. Mass Higher Education in the Era of American Hegemony: 1945–1975	175
Societal Context	175
Institutions	186
Students	196
Faculty	206
Curriculum	222
Governance	236
Finance	250
Outcomes	273
5. Maintaining the Diverse System in the Contemporary Era: 1976–1998	291
Societal Context	291
Institutions	300
Students	319
Faculty	333
Curriculum	354
Governance	372
Finance	389
Outcomes	412
Conclusion: Trends and Issues for the Future	437
Societal Context	440
Students and Staff	441
Curriculum	443
Institutions, Governance, Finance	450
Outcomes	454
References	459
Index	473