

Contents

Foreword	ix
Susan Earl Hosbach	ix
Jon M. Wagner	x
Andrea McManus	xi
Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
Introduction	xix

I Hesitating to Ask for Money 1

What Fears May Prevent or Postpone the Ask?	3
Knowing the Prospect Well Before Making the Ask	4
Giving Is the Greatest Gift of All	13
Every Organization Has Its Own Sparkle and Is Deserving of a Gift	16
Knowing the Organization Inside and Out	17
Asking Must Be Done in Person	17
Saying No to the Gift Is Not Saying No to You	18
Conclusion	20
Looking Ahead	20

2	Judging the Prospect's Readiness for the Ask	21
	Avoiding Common Pitfalls When Judging Readiness	22
	The Readiness Profile	27
	The Readiness Formula	33
	The Match	40
	The Pre-Ask Conversation	41
	Unrestricted Gifts Are Our Friends	42
	Asking for Money on the First Visit	43
	Conclusion	44
	Looking Ahead	44
3	Selecting the Right Person or Team to Do the Ask	45
	Determining Your Pool of Potential Askers	46
	Characteristics of a Good Asker	53
	Determining When One Asker Can Conduct an Ask	58
	Using the Team Approach	61
	Conclusion	67
	Looking Ahead	68
4	Preparing for the Ask	69
	The Right Tone for the Ask	70
	The Review Prior to the Ask	74
	The Script for Each Ask	79
	Conclusion	93
	Looking Ahead	94
5	Asking for Special Event or Community Project Gifts and Increased Annual Gifts	95
	The Ask for a Special Event or Community Project	97
	The Ask for the Enhanced Annual Gift	106
	Conclusion	116
	Looking Ahead	117

6 Asking for Major Gifts 119

- Defining a Major Gift 120
- Defining Major Gift Prospects 121
- Essentials of Any Major Gifts Program 122
- Major Gift Asks 129
- Conclusion 137
- Looking Ahead 138

7 Asking for Planned Gifts 139

- The Importance of Planned Gifts for the Organization 141
- The Importance of Planned Gifts for Donors 142
- Planned Giving Donor Profiles 143
- The Planned Giver Prospect Pool 146
- Planned Giving Program Prerequisites 148
- Coordinating the Planned Giving Program with All Fundraising Programs 152
- Building a Planned Giving Program 153
- Marketing a Planned Giving Program 157
- Asking for Planned Gifts 158
- Conclusion 167
- Looking Ahead 167

8 Asking for Complex and Challenging Capital Campaign Gifts 169

- Defining the Capital Campaign 170
- Phases of the Campaign 174
- Defining Campaign Gifts and Prospects 177
- Preparing Campaign Materials to Use During the Ask 179
- Asking for Campaign Gifts 180
- Conclusion 185
- Looking Ahead 186

9 Addressing the Prospect's Response to the Ask 187

- Preparing for the Prospect's Response 188
- Responding to the Prospect's Concerns 189
- Analyzing the Responses to the Prospect's Concerns 198
- Conclusion 203
- Looking Ahead 204

10 Following Through with Each Ask 205

- The Next Steps After Each Ask 206
- How to Juggle and Balance Time After Each Ask 211
- The Ten Guiding Principles for Any Ask 213

- Resource A: Sources for Fundraising Software 215
- Resource B: Prospect Research Providers and Web Sites 217
- Resource C: AFP Code of Ethical Principles and Standards of Professional Practice 219
- Resource D: Thank-You Letter After the Ask 223
- Resource E: Notification of Bequest 225
- Resource F: Sample Prospect Materials for a Charitable Gift Annuity 227
- Resource G: Sample Prospect Materials for a Charitable Remainder Unitrust 231
- Resource H: Sample Capital Campaign Marketing Materials 235

- References 249
- The Author 251