

Index

A

- Academia: against subjectivity bias of, 18–19; dismemberment experience suffered in, 21; emotions dismissed by, 208; rejection of novel notions in, 115–116. See also Education
- “Academic freedom,” 147
- Accountancy reform, 183–184
- ACGME (Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education):
“Courage to Teach” retreat held by, 199; medical professionalism residency program by, 196–199; organ donor death case study, 199–202, 207
- ACGME “Courage to Teach” Award, 197–198
- Ackerman, D., 116
- African Americans: black churches of, 180–181; moving away from being marginalized, 45–46. See also Civil rights movement
- Alan’s story, 14–16
- Amateurs, 102, 103*ffg*
- Ambiguity, 110
- American Association of Higher Education, 181
- Apartheid (South Africa), 206
- Aryan Nation, 182
- Association for General and Liberal Studies, 181
- Association of American Colleges and Universities, 193
- Association of Student Personnel Administrators, 193
- Astin, A. W., 194
- Astin, H. S., 194
- “Auguries of Innocence” (Blake), 117, 125
- Authority: confusion of power with, 34; developing the authority to teach, 34
- Awareness, 76

B

- Backstage dynamics of reality, 28, 30
- Baffles, 103
- Barber, B., 94
- Barbour, I., 99–100
- Batalden, P., 199
- Bellah, R., 70
- “Big Six” accountancy firms, 184
- “Big” stories of tradition, 79, 83
- Black churches, 180–181
- Blake, W., 117, 125
- Bohm, D., 99
- Bohr, N., 65
- Bonhoeffer, D., 68

Border collie metaphor, 152–155
Both-and thinking, 65
Buber, M., 17
Bush, G., 54

C

- Camus, A., 39, 40
Center for Courage & Renewal, 216n.1
Chickering, A. W., 193
Civic model of community: application to teaching/learning, 94–95; described, 94–95
Civil rights movement: advocates of change driving the, 172; rewards and accomplishments of, 188; Rosa Parks's decision and, 174–176, 207. See also African Americans
Classroom: holding the tension of paradox in, 86–90; practicing paradox in the, 80–86; space in context of pedagogical design of, 76–80; student participant-observers in, 165. See also Teaching
Clearness committee approach, 157–161
Collective inquiry pedagogy, 128–131
Communities of congruence: developing language of movement's vision through, 179; reinforcing undivided lives to build, 178–179; social change through, 211; training ground provided through, 179–180; as vital to educational reform, 180–181
Community: civic model of, 94–95; images of, 91–97; individualism mix with, 70–71; marketing model of, 95–96; space designed to support, 79–80; therapeutic model of, 92–94. See also Learning in community
Community of truth: creating a, 92; engaging students in the, 118; finding the sacred through, 113–116; four major elements of, 102–103*fig*; great things embraced by, 109–113, 128–131; illustrated diagram of, 105*fig*; objectivist myth of knowing opposition to, 103*fig*–109; reality as web of relationships within, 97–102; reconstructing dynamics of teaching/learning through, 138; secret at the center of the, 107, 113; subject participation in knowing, 107–109; varieties and obstacles to creating, 139–144. See also Space; Subject-centered classroom; Truth
Concept formation, 132*fig*–135
Confidentiality rules, 160
Connectedness capacity: anatomy of fear weakening our, 36–40; controlling our fear to increase, 58–61; conventional diagnosis affecting our, 48–51; described, 11; our personal fears that affect our, 51–58; students which shut down our, 40–47
Copernicus, 95
Council of Independent Colleges, 193
The Courage to Teach (Palmer), 196
“Courage to Teach” programs: ACGME medical professionalism, 196–202; empirical studies on, 195
Creative conflict, 110

Crick, F., 111
Critical moments approach, 150–151
Czech Republic, 20, 21

D

Davies, P., 99
Day, D., 207
Death: case study on medical-related, 199–202; “types” of professionally related, 202–203
Democratic society, 95, 177
Denby, D., 112
Dillard, A., 113
Dis-membering, 21
Discipline. See Subject
Diversity: inviting community, 110; leadership approach to community, 161–163; respecting teacher, 12
Divided lives, 173–178
DNA discovery, 111
The Double Helix (Watson), 111
Drama of teaching, 139–140

E

Education: civic model of community in context of, 94–95; image of traditional medical, 127; microcosm approach to, 123–135; NCLB pressures on K–12, 194–195; for the new professional, 204–208; role of evaluation in, 141–142; therapeutic model of community in context of, 93.
See also Academia; Pedagogy
EDUCATION as Transformation, 221n.4
Education as transformation movement: ACGME case study on institutional change, 196–199; conferences exploring inner lives of teachers, 192–193; empirical studies exploring the impact of, 195–196; increasing credibility of, 191–192; K–12 education programs supporting, 194–195; publications exploring, 193–194.

See also Teachers

Education reform: communities of congruence as vital to, 180–181; driven by reality, 19–20; going public to build support for, 182–186; using insights to revitalize education, 169–173; rewards and accomplishments of, 187–190. See also New professional; Pedagogy; Social movements
Educational community, community of truth evoking virtues of, 110–111

Educational Forum (journal), 195

Educational Leadership (journal), 195

Educational structures: anatomy of fear created by, 36–40; mode of knowing dominating, 51–52; results of broken paradoxes of, 68–69

Either-or thinking: described, 64; fragmented sense of reality from, 64–65

Emotional intelligence, 208–212

Emotional path, 5

Emotions: academia dismissal of, 208; as enemy of objectivity, 209; value of experiencing/using our, 208–210. See also Fear

Encouraging Authenticity and Spirituality in Higher Education (Chickering, Dalton, and Stamm), 193

- Eric's story, 14–15, 16
- Erikson, E., 49
- Evaluation: limitations of teacher, 147; power implications of, 141–142
- Experts, 102, 103*fig*, 112
- F
- Fear: acknowledging teacher's, 48–51; behaviors generated by, 46–47; created through education structures, 36–40; learning to control our, 58–61; of losing identity, 38; personal types of, 51–58; positive effects of, 39–40; understanding Student from Hell's, 45–46. See also Emotions
- Freedom, 111
- French Lessons* (Kaplan), 26
- Frost, R., 107
- G
- Galileo, 95
- Gandhi, M., 17
- Gang of Three story, 72–74, 154
- Gelwick, R., 101
- Generativity: choice between stagnation and, 49; renewal through, 49–50
- “Going Public with Spirituality in Work and Higher Education” (2000 conference), 193
- Grading: evaluation through, 141–142; power represented by, 142
- The Grammar of Science* (Pearson), 55
- Great things: community of truth as embracing, 109–113; defining meaning of, 110; McMaster University's collective inquiry into, 128–131; making them disappear, 111–112
- Ground rules for dialogue: “clearness committee” approach to, 157–161; confidentiality, 160; problems of conventional, 155–156; Quaker community, 156–157
- Gulf War, 54
- H
- Habits of the Heart* (Bellah), 70, 71, 81
- “Hagia Sophia” (Merton), 63
- Hasidic tale of two pockets, 113
- Havel, V., 20–21, 207
- A Hidden Wholeness: The Journey Toward an Undivided Life* (Palmer), 211
- Higher Education Research Institute (UCLA), 193
- Highlander Folk School, 175
- Holographic logic, 125–126
- Honesty, 110
- Horton, M., 175
- Human consciousness, 21
- Humanistic medical practice: definition of, 196–197; medical professionalism renewal to create, 196–199
- Humility, 110
- I
- The Idea of the Holy* (Otto), 114
- Identity: definition of, 13–14; fear of losing, 38; good teaching coming from, 10–13; lost through distortion, 24; reclaiming our teaching, 24–26; shadow side of borrowed, 27; sources of, 14; through the subjects that chose us, 26–30;

 vocations which violate, 31–32
 Individualism, 70–71
 Inner landscape: education as transformation exploring the, 192–193;
 questions regarding, 205; value
 of exploring teacher's, 3–6 Integrity: definition of, 14; good teaching coming from, 10–13;
 sources of, 14; through the subjects that chose us, 26–30; vocations which violate, 31–32
 Intellectual path, 5
 Intimacy: of personal relationships, 93–94; of therapeutic model of community, 92–93
 Intrator, S., 195 “Inward Journeys: Forms and Patterns of College Student Spirituality” (Palmer), 193

J

Journal of College and Character, 193

K

Das Kapital (Marx), 139
 Kaplan, A., 26–27
 Keller, E. F., 56
 “Killing the self,” 54–55
King Lear (Shakespeare), 86
 King, Martin Luther, Jr., 175
 “Know thyself,” 3
 Knower-known symbiosis, 100– 101
 Knowing: McClintock's approach to genetic, 56–57, 104, 105–106;
 objectivist myth of, 103*fig*–109;
 physics and notion of, 98–100;
 the sacred and, 113–116; subject participation in, 107–109

Knowledge: community of truth image of, 97–109, 103*fig*–109;
 objectivism approach to, 52–58;
 objects of, 102, 103*fig*; as power myth, 57; subjectivity approach to, 18–19. See also Learning
 Ku Klux Klan, 182
 Kunzman, R., 195

L

Leach, D., 196, 197, 198, 199
 Leadership: building learning community, 163–167; community diversity story on, 161–163;
 failure of coercive approach to,
 161–162; “teaching consultant”
 approach to, 164
 League for Innovation in the Community College, 193
 Learning: civic model of community applied to, 94–95; community of truth reconstructing dynamics of, 138; through digital technology, 121; evaluation of, 141–142;
 focusing on, 6–8; “Merlyn”
 speaking to “Arthur” on value of, 166; as more important than act of teaching, 118. See also Knowledge
 Learning in community: ground rules for dialogue for, 155–161;
 need for leadership in, 161–167;
 new topics of conversation in the, 149–155; teaching in isolation versus, 146–149. See also Community; Teachers; Teaching
Letters to a Young Poet (Rilke), 89
 “Lit Instructor” (Stafford), 35
 “Little” stories of individuals, 79, 83
 “The Low Road” (Piercy), 169

M

- McClintock, B., 56–57, 104, 105–106, 108, 115
- McMaster University (Ontario), 128
- Mandela, N., 207
- Marginalized people, 45–46
- Marketing model of community, 95–97
- Marx, K., 139, 140
- Medical professionalism renewal: ACGME program for, 196–199; humanistic medical practice as defined by, 196–197; organ donor case study from ACGME retreat, 199–202, 207
- Medical school microcosm, 126–131
- Melville, H., 112
- Mentors: becoming one ourselves, 26; reclaiming the power of our, 21–26
- Merton, T., 63
- Microcosm approach: in medical school, 126–131; in social research, 131–135; teaching to fill space using, 123–126
- Mills, C. W., 27, 28
- Mirroring, 160
- Moby Dick* (Melville), 112
- Mode of knowing: McClintock's approach to genetic science, 56–57; objectivism, 52–58; traditional, 51–52
- Morton, N., 47
- Movements. See Social movements
- Muhammad Ali, 120

N

- NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People), 175

- Nazis, 182
- New professional: definition of, 212–213; educating the, 204–208; emotional intelligence role in the, 208–212; institutional change for medical, 196–202; moving forward to embracing the, 212–214; why we need, 202–204. See also Education reform; Teachers
- No Child Left Behind (NCLB), 194–195
- “Now I Become Myself” (Sarton), 9

O

- Objectivism: described, 52; emotions as enemy of, 209; making a case against, 54–58; making a case for, 53–54; mode of knowing as subjective in, 52–53; myth of knowing of, 103*fig*–109; teacher-centered classroom as fostering, 121–122
- Objects of knowledge, 102, 103*fig*
- Oliver, M., 91
- On-stage reality show, 28, 30
- The Once and Future King* (White), 145, 166
- Organ donor case study, 199–202, 207
- Otto, R., 114

P

- Paradoxes: description of, 69; holding the tension of, 86–90; instinctive capacity to hold together, 66–67; learning limits and potentials of self through, 69–76; pedagogical design and, 76–80; practicing in the classroom, 80–86; price paid for splitting, 67–68; of

- “profound truths” of teaching, 65–66; results of broken educational, 68–69; of social movements, 172; strength-weakness/gift-liability, 74
- Parks, R., 174–176, 179, 207
- Pearson, K., 54–55
- Pedagogical design, 76–80
- Pedagogy: conventional, 118; designing classroom space, 76–80; McMaster University’s collective inquiry, 128–131; placing third thing (great thing) in center of, 119; student-centered models of, 118–119, 122; subject-centered, 119–123; teacher-centered models of, 118–119, 120, 121–122. See also Education; Education reform
- “Pedagogy of the Distressed” (Tompkins), 29
- Personal Knowledge* (Polanyi), 101
- Personality types, 68
- Personal/public life intersection: “self-protective” disconnection and, 18–19; teaching done at the, 18
- Physics: communal metaphors used in reality of, 99–100; notion of knowing in, 100; transforming images of reality in, 98–99
- Piercy, M., 169
- Plato, 94
- Pogo principle, 176
- Polanyi, M., 101
- Power: confusion of authority with, 34; cultural answers about, 20; of “grace of great things,” 109–113; grading representing dynamics of, 141–142; myth of knowledge as, 57; social movements driven by fighting against, 206–207
- Pretending, 90
- Professional and Organizational Development Network in Higher Education, 181
- Professor X, 23–24
- Pseudo-movements, 182–183
- ## Q
- Quaker community, 156–157
- ## R
- Race concept: concept formation approach to understanding, 132–135; The Relation of Income to Race table on, 132*fig*
- Re-membering, 21
- Reality: academic transformation of images of, 98–99; communal nature of, 97–102; computer’s power to create virtual, 121; cultural answers about, 20; education reform driven by, 19–20; either-or thinking fragmenting, 64–65; on-stage show and backstage dynamics of, 28, 29
- Rilke, R. M., 1, 5, 59, 88, 89, 109
- “A Ritual to Read to Each Other” (Stafford), 191
- Roosevelt, E., 175
- Rumi, J., 190
- ## S
- The sacred: cultivating a sense of, 114; as paradoxical concept, 114–115; rediscovering the, 115–116
- Sarton, M., 9
- Schumacher, E. F., 87, 88

- Science: discovery of DNA, 111;
 McClintock's approach to genetic,
 56–57, 104, 105–106, 108, 115;
 transforming images of reality/
 knowing in physics, 98–100
- Scott, D., 193
- Scott-Maxwell, F., 30, 90
- Self: identity and integrity elements of, 10–14; “killing the,” 54–55;
 objectivism on the subjective, 52–53; paradox to explore limits and potentials of, 69–76; remembering our mentors to reclaim our, 21–26; “sociological imagination” applied to understanding, 27–29; the teacher within invitation to honor true, 30–34; teaching as done by the true, 8, 13–17
- Self-knowledge, 25–26
- “Self-protective” disconnection, 18–19
- Service-learning programs, 121
- Sexism, 209
- Shapiro, J., 115
- Sheepdog metaphor, 152–155
- Silence, 80, 85
- Small Is Beautiful* (Schumacher), 87
- Social Darwinism, 98
- Social movements: communities of congruence's language of, 179; differences between pseudo-movement and, 182–183; education as transformation, 191–214;
 four stages of, 172–173, 192;
 going public to build, 182–186;
 “movement mentality” of, 171– 172; origins of, 206; overcoming divided life through, 173–181;
 paradoxical genius of, 172;
 rewards and accomplishments of,
 186–190. See also Education reform
- Social research microcosm, 131–135
- “Sociological imagination,” 27–29
- “Soft eyes” practice, 116
- Space: clearness committee approach to creating, 157–161; defined in context of classroom, 76; developing skills to open, 136–138; paradox applied to pedagogical design of, 76–80; resistance to opening rather than filling the, 135–136; teaching from the microcosm to create truthful, 123–135; teaching to create community of truth in,
 92. See also Community of truth
- Speech, 80, 85
- Spiritual path, 5
- Stafford, W., 35, 191, 201, 213
- Stagnation-generativity choice, 49
- Stapp, H., 99
- Student from Hell: experience of teaching, 43–45; fear of teacher in story of, 48; lessons learned from, 50–51; understanding the fear driving, 45–46
- Student-centered classroom: abuses of, 122; debate between teacher-centered and, 118–119
- Students: capacity for connectedness challenged by, 40–47; engaging them in community of truth, 118; Gang of Three, 72–74, 154; helping them to find their voices, 47; negative stereotypes of, 41–43; as participant-observers in classes, 165
- Subject: holographic logic of each, 125–126; participation in knowing/

community of truth, 107–109;
teachers with passion for the, 122
Subject-centered classroom: handling a contradiction in a, 120;
pedagogical advantages of, 119– 123; teaching from the microcosm to fill space in, 123–135; third thing characterization of, 119–120
Subjective self, 52–53
Subjectivity: academic bias against,
18–19; objectivism opposition to,
52–58

T

Teacher within voice, 30–34
Teacher-centered classroom: debate between student-centered and,
118–119; objectivism fostered in,
121–122; problems found in the,
120 Teachers: acknowledging our fears as, 48–51; exploring the inner life of, 3–6; good teaching from identity and integrity of, 10–17; losing heart, 17–21; NCLB pressures on K–12, 194–195; normal mode of evaluating, 147; with “passion for the subject,” 122. See also Education as transformation movement;
Learning in community; New professional Teaching: act of learning as more important than, 118; asking deeper inquiries about, 4–6; beyond technique, 6, 9–13, 118, 149; civic model of community applied to, 94–95; colleagues as resources for,
148–149; as coming from identity and integrity for, 10–13; community of truth reconstructing dynamics of, 138; to create community of truth in space, 92; critical moments approach to, 150–151;

with drama, 139–140; focusing on learning instead of, 6–8; isolation of, 146–149; marketing model of community applied to, 95–97;
microcosm approach to, 123–135;
paradoxes of “profound truths”
of, 65–66; the self that does the, 8, 13–17; the teacher within call to,
30–34; therapeutic model of community applied to, 93; from who we are, 1–3. See also Classroom;
Learning in community
Teaching a Stone to Talk (Dillard), 113
“Teaching consultant” leadership, 164 Technique: in context of good teaching, 6; of du jour, 12; reducing teaching to, 12, 118, 149; teaching beyond, 9–13, 118
Technologically enhanced learning, 121
Tennyson, Alfred Lord, 98
Therapeutic model of community:
in context of education, 93; intimacy of, 92–93
Tompkins, J., 29–30
Total Quality Management, 95
Truth: implications/suggestions of, 102; McClintock’s approach to genetic, 56–57, 104, 105–106, 108, 115; objectivism approach to, 52–58; paradoxes of “profound,” 65–66; subjectivity approach to, 18–19. See also
Community of truth

U

UCLA Higher Education Research Institute, 193

“Uncovering the Heart of Higher Education: Integrative Learning for Compassionate Action in an Interconnected World” (2007 conference), 193

Undivided lives: building communities of congruence through, 178–181; Pogo principle on choosing, 176; Rosa Parks’s desire for living, 174–178, 179; social movements driven by desire for,
173–174

V

Velvet Revolution (Czechoslovakia),
20–21, 206

Vietnam War, 54

Virtual reality, 121

Vocations: deep gladness sign of the right, 31; which violate identity and integrity, 31–32

Voices: helping students to find their, 47; space designed in order to invite, 78–79, 83; of the teacher within, 30–34

W

Watson, J., 111

White, T. H., 145

Whitehead, A. N., 53

“Wild Geese” (Oliver), 91

Women’s movement, 172, 188, 206, 209