

Index

A

- Action-e-Reaction: avoiding blaming in, 93–94; components of, 91, 96; examples of, 92–93, 94, 98; feeling words used in, 95; techniques similar to, 208n2; used by subordinate with disrespectful superior, 161–165; used for Routine Performance Return (RPR), 101; used to confront unprincipled behavior by colleague, 96–98
- Affection, as key to change, 179
- American Nurses Association, 37
- Anderson, Lewis L., 89
- Annual performance review, 99–100
- Aristotle, 2, 20, 26, 185
- Arthur Andersen, 36–38
- Arthur, King of England, 185
- Assertiveness training, 78
- Assessment: in Black Box Solutions Model, 157; of executive by his direct reports, 180; of your motivating power, 117; of your own character, 189–197
- Authority, as motivating power, 113, 114, 116, 121–122

B

- Baring, Fred (pseudonym): attempt by, to solve lateness problem, 76–77; communication style of, 66, 67, 69; complains about communication training, 75–76; successes of, due to courageous communication, 86–87
- Barton, Amy, 161–165
- Beller, Susan, 200–201
- Bennis, Warren, 120
- Best business practices, as middle core values, 25–29
- Betzner, Karen, 70

- Black Box Solutions Model, 151–159; causes of relationship problems and, 152–156; cautions on using, 159; purpose of, 186; steps in, 156–159
- Blake, Robert R., 72
- Blaming, avoiding, when giving feedback on feelings, 93–94
- Boards of directors, core values failure by, 21–22
- Bodenheimer, Edgar, 71
- Body language, to show respect, 127–128
- Brooks, Garth, 202

C

- Cardozo, Henry (pseudonym), 170–171
- Caring for others: Coach Tony's teachings on, 19–20, 35; as key to change, 179
- Carnegie, Dale, 91
- Carter, Stephen L., 22, 169
- Center for Creative Leadership, 98
- Challenging wrongs: failure of, as cause of relationship problems, 155–156; steps in, 141, 155; as third leadership act, 136–143
- Change: caring for others as key to, 179; courage to, 201–203; fear of, 182–183; in relationship with family, 175–178, 181–184
- Character: defined, 36; as high core value, 29; person of, vs. good person, 188; as quality of leaders, 108; required at Points of Decision, 4–5
- Character Matrix, 40–41, 118
- Character Quotient (CQ), 189–197; defined, 190; forms, 192–197; how to use, 191; purpose of, 186
- Child abuse, 105–106, 113
- Churchill, Winston, 1, 2, 75, 185, 189

- Civil War, 23
 Clark, Dwight, 30
 Coach Tony: best punch taught by, 6; on caring for others, 19–20, 35; courage taught by, 63–64; encouragement by, 133–134; hated indifference to oneself, 39–40; on need for encouragement from others, 132; recognition given by, 8; respect shown by, 129–130; support by, 135
 Codes of ethics, 36, 37–38
 Collins, Jim, 23, 25, 26, 73, 185, 207n11
 Communication: collegial, as step in
 Courageous Communication Model, 79–80; courageous, as learnable, 85–86; emotional content of, 71; fear as motivator in, 69; importance of, 71; principled vs. unprincipled, and relationships, 70–72; as problem at TPMG, 66–69; typical, to solve workplace performance problem, 76–77; value of training in, 75–76, 86. See also Action-e-Reaction; Courageous Communication Model
 Communication triangulation, 146, 147
 Conflict avoidance: as core value, 23, 44–45; by male vs. female executives, 40–41; in problem relationships with colleagues, 146, 148–149; in solutions, 12–13, 17–18; universality of, 20–22
 Confucius, 31, 178
 Conscience, honoring, to tell right from wrong, 32–33, 206n2
 Consultants: contacted about nonperforming COO, 17–18; using Black Box technique with, 159. See also Counsel
 Cooke, Alistair, 57, 125
 Core values, 19–30; aligning work behaviors with, 150–151; confusion between results and, 25, 38; defined, 22; high, 23, 29–30; importance of knowing, 23–24; lack of engagement of, at Points of Decision, 60; low, 23, 24–25; middle, 25–29; personal, of company's CEO, 23, 24; proposed by new CEO, 12–13, 32; universality of, 22–23; Whirlpool's engagement of, 61
 Counsel, seeking, to help discern right from wrong, 34. See also Consultants
 Courage: defined, 35; developing, in daily life, 201–203; facing fears as element of, 35–36; as high core value, 29; as leadership trait, 9; as learnable, 3–4, 6, 63–64; as motivating power, 113, 114, 115–118; required at Points of Decision, 4–5; universal, timeless need for, 2, 5
 Courageous Communication Model: learning, 79–85, 208n1; power of using, 85–87; steps in, 78, 79, 80, 81, 85; used with family, 176–178
 Covey, Stephen R., 65, 120
 Cowardice, as opposite of courage, 2
 Crew, Mark, problem relationship of, with colleague, 145–159
 Customer focus, as core value, 26–28
- ## D
- Daniel, Alison, 181–184
 Daniel, John, 179–184
 De Pree, Max, 120
 Dean, Fred, 205n6
Diaphoranta, 12, 16, 20
 Discerning right from wrong, 31, 32–34, 141, 155, 206n2
 Doctors: communication as problem for, 66–69; nurse using Action-e-Reaction with, 161–165
 Dornier Klein, demand by, that IntegWare manager be named COO, 14–15, 17, 52
 Drucker, Peter, 114, 120
- ## E
- Ebbers, Bernie, 21, 138, 139
 Emotions. See Feelings
 Encouraging others: failure of, as cause of relationship problems, 155; as second leadership act, 130–135
Encouraging the Heart (Kouzes and Posner), 133
 Enron, 23, 32, 36–37
 Ethics, 36–38, 187–189
 Executives: conflict avoidance by male vs. female, 40–41; good vs. courageous, 38–39
- ## F
- Family: author's changed relationship with, 175–178; CEO's interactions with, 13–14, 16, 18, 55; coaching executive to change relationship with, 179–184; courageous communication as improving relationship in, 87; ethics learned in, 186–187, 190; problem with, as

- excuse for COO's nonperformance, 44, 47, 48
- Fannie Mae, 207n11
- Fastow, Andy, 114
- Fear: of change, 182–183; destructiveness of, 2; facing, as element of courage, 35–36; in family relationships, 176, 177; learning to avoid responding on basis of, 19–20; problem solving hindered by, 68–69, 151; as separating good from courageous people, 38–39
- Feedback: in annual performance review, 99–100; benefit of giving, 91–92; defensiveness with judgmental, 92; honest, given employee, 89–90, 91; leaders' skill in giving, 102–104; positives-to-negatives ratio in, 98; in routine performance returns (RPR), 100–102, 103. See also Action-e-Reaction
- Feelings: covering up, vs. giving feedback, 91–92; fear of, 39; humans as creatures of, 91; scarcity of, 94; words for, 95
- Firing: of nonperforming COO, 49–50; showing respect when, 128
- FIRO-B, 180
- France, Niles, 24
- G
- Gandhi, Mahatma, 19, 113
- Gerdelman, John: encouragement by, 130, 131–133, 135; feedback given by, 103; wrongs challenged by, 136–139, 142
- Gifts, acceptance of, in business, 27
- Global Leadership and Organizational Behavior Effectiveness (GLOBE) Project, 210n2
- Good to Great* (Collins), 73, 207n11
- Griggs, Pete, confronting unprincipled behavior by, 96–98
- H
- Harvard Business School, leadership definition of, 119, 120
- Helms, Adrienne, 165–167
- Herzberg, Frederick, 70
- Hicks, Dwight, 205n6
- High core values, 23, 29–30
- Hockfield, Susan, 51
- Honesty, as core value, 24
- Honoring and respecting all persons: examples of, 125–126, 128, 129–130; failure of, as causing relationship problems, 153–155; as first leadership act, 126–128, 129. See also Respect
- Hoss, Ed, 121–122
- House, Robert, 189, 210n2
- I
- Integrity: business scandals due to failure of, 30, 32; as core value, 22–23, 29, 32; defined, 31, 206n1; telling right from wrong as element of, 31, 32–34, 206n2
- Integrity glossary, 188
- IntegWare: confronting problem of nonperforming COO at, 46–50; confronting problem of poor relationship with manager at, 50–54; core values of, 12–13, 32; overview of problems/conflicts facing, 11–18. See also Kay, Christopher; Armstrong; Sampson, Will; Stingley, Gene
- ISEC: confronting unprincipled behavior by employee at, 96–98; difficulty of giving feedback at, 89–90. See also Long, Gilbert W.; Shaw, Don
- J
- Jackson, Andrew, 199
- K
- Kai Tu, David, 27, 126, 140–141, 142
- The Kaiser Permanente Medical Group (TPMG): communication problems at, 66–69, 76–77, 206n2; Courageous Communication model training at, 79–85; need for communication training unrecognized at, 75–76; results of communication training at, 86
- Kasser, Tim, 205n1
- Kay, Christopher Armstrong: conflict-avoiding solutions adopted by, 12–13, 17–18; conflicts/problems facing, 13–16; confronting nonperforming COO problem, 46–50; confronting problem of poor relationship with manager at, 50–54; consultant contacted by, 16–17, 44–46; core values of, 23, 24, 32; family background of, 13–14, 44–45; family life of, 16, 18, 55; leadership acts by, 142; middle core values discussion with, 26–28; professional background of, 11–13, 25, 32

Keegan, Mike (pseudonym), 130–132, 133, 209n1
Kenner, Tom, problem relationship of, with colleague, 145–159
Kimberly-Clark, 4, 22–23
King, Martin Luther Jr., 145
Kouzes, James M., 133

L

Lamott, Anne, 19
Lao Tzu, 119, 120
Lawyers: communication and relationships as problems for, 69–70; communication training for, without top partners' support, 165–171; public opinion of, 207n4
Leadership: courage as trait for, 9; courageous, examples of, 105–112; definitions of, 119–121, 122–123; management vs., 118–119; skill of, in giving feedback, 102–104; top, communication training without participation of, 165–171; types of motivating power used by, 113–118, 121–122; universally admired traits of, 189, 210n2
Leadership acts, 126–143; challenging wrongs as, 136–143; encouraging and supporting others as, 130–136; failure of, as causing relationship problems, 152–156; honoring and respecting all persons as, 126–130
Learnable skills: courageous behaviors as, 3–4, 6, 63–64; courageous communication as, 85–86; giving respect as, 129
Lee, Harper, 161
Lewis, C. S., 11
Lincoln, Abraham, 23, 89
Listening: to show respect, 128; as step in Courageous Communication Model, 80–81
Logan, Thurn, 125–126, 140
Long, Gilbert W.: confronts colleague for unprincipled behavior, 96–98; e-Reaction given by, 92–93, 94; gives honest feedback to colleague, 89–90, 91; reacts to judgmental feedback, 92
Lott, Ronnie, 205n6
Low core values, 23, 24–25

M

Maaty, Yehia, 72
Mahron, Bill, 59

Management, leadership vs., 118–119
MCI: leadership encouraging others at, 130–133; Point of Decision for, 4, 21, 137–139
Medellin drug cartel, teamwork in, 28–29
Middle core values, 25–29
Military, example of courageous leadership in, 107–109
Minneapolis Gas Company, 70
Montana, Joe, 30, 205n6
Moral imperative, 168
Motivating power: tool for assessing your, 117; types of, 113–118, 121–122
Motivators: fear as, 69; in workplace, 70
Murphy, Ryan, 167–171
Murray, Charles A., 128, 134, 206n3

N

Neelum, Payton (pseudonym), 130–131, 132, 139, 209n1
Nurse, using Action-e-Reaction with disrespectful doctor, 161–165

P

Paine, Thomas, 178–179
Pappalardo, Chuck, 186–189
Pearl, Robbie, 66, 206n2
Performance: continual feedback on, with Routine Performance Returns (RPR), 100–102; typical annual review of, 99–100
Points of Decision (POD): character and courage needed at, 4–5; defined, 4; results of lack of engagement of core values at, 60
Posner, Barry Z., 133
Power. See Motivating power
Practice, necessity of, of courageous behaviors, 179, 183
Problem solving: Black Box method for, 151–159; fear as hindering, 68–69, 151
Productivity, as core value, 25
Profits, as core value, 25, 38

Q

Questions: asking, in Courageous Communication Model, 81–84, 170; using, to discuss problems, 101–102

R

Reflection, as element of discerning right from wrong, 33–34

- Relating respectfully, as step in Courageous Communication Model, 85
- Relationships: causes of problems in, 152–156; courageous communication for improving, 65; principled vs. unprincipled communication and, 70–72; problem, Black Box technique applied to, 151–159; results increased by, 72–74, 207n11
- Respect: behaviors for showing, 127–128; giving, as learned skill, 129; meaning of, 127, 154; relating with, as step in Courageous Communication Model, 85, unconditional positive respect (UPR), 127. See also Honoring and respecting all persons
- Results: confusion between core values and, 25, 38; relationships as increasing, 72–74, 207n11
- Revenue shortfall, courageous values applied to deal with, 4, 57–62
- Rewards: as motivating power, 113, 115, 116; respect vs., 127, 154
- Reynolds, Jack “Hacksaw,” 205n6
- Right, discerning wrong from, 31, 32–34, 141, 155, 206n2
- Roosevelt, Eleanor, 43, 128
- Routine performance returns (RPR), 100–102, 103
- S
- Sampson, Will: being held accountable for nonperformance, 46–50; confrontational meeting with, 46–49; consultant contacted about, 16–17, 44–46; family problem as excuse for, 44, 47, 48; firing of, 49–50; nonperformance by, as COO, 12, 13, 14, 46; support given to, 142
- San Francisco 49ers, 30, 205n6
- San Francisco Family Violence Project, 106
- Scandals: board cover-ups of, 21–22; due to integrity failure, 30, 32; middle core values insufficient to avoid, 27, 28
- Schutz, William, 180
- Schwarzkopf, H. Norman: encouragement by, 134; on leadership, 105, 107–109, 120; motivating power modeled by, 114; respect shown by, 129–130; support by, 135–136
- Sellars, Joe, 99–102
- Shakespeare, William, 175
- Shaw, Don: e-Reaction given to, 92–93, 94; given honest feedback about non-performance, 89–90, 91; judgmental feedback given to, 92
- Shearn, David, 99–102
- Skills. See Learnable skills
- Slim, William, 45
- Smiling, 127–128
- Smith, Darwin, 23
- Smith, Rachel (pseudonym), 79–85, 208n2
- State Bar of California: example of courageous leadership ignored by, 109–111; motivating power exhibited by, 113; response of, to public opinion of lawyers, 69–70
- Stein, Terry, 66, 206n2
- Stingley, Gene: CEO’s efforts to improve professional relationship with, 50–54; client demanding naming of, as COO, 14–15, 17, 52; conversation with consultant about, 45–46
- Streat, Toussaint, 103
- Sullivan, Scott, 138
- Sun Tzu, 120
- Supporting others: failure of, as cause of relationship problems, 155; as second leadership act, 130–133, 135–136
- T
- Taylor, Jerry, 137, 138
- Teamwork: as core value, 28–29; as step in Black Box Solutions Model, 158–159
- Thieneman, Mike, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61–62, 139–140
- Tomlin, Lily, 185
- TPMG. See The Kaiser Permanente Medical Group (TPMG)
- Travers, Sly, 15
- Trust, respect vs., 154
- Tull, Bob, 66, 206n2
- Tyco, core values of, 23
- U
- U.S. Army, reporting of violations of standards of conduct in, 37, 206n3
- V
- Valdes, Jorge, 28–29
- Values. See Core values

W

Walsh, Bill, 30, 205n6
Watergate, 23
West Point, leadership definition of,
120
Whirlpool: courageous values applied at,
4, 57–62; leadership acts performed at, 139–140
Whitwam, Dave, 57, 59–60, 61

Williamson, Carlton, 205n6
WorldCom, 21, 138–139, 142
Wright, Eric, 205n6
Wrong, discerning right from, 31, 32–34,
141, 155, 206n2

Y

Yenovkian, Rick, 199–200
Yu, Diane C., 109–111, 114