

Contents

Executive Summary	ix
Foreword	xiii
Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
The Revolution in Leadership	1
The Continued Need for Leadership in a Changed Context	1
Organization of the Book	4
Key Terms and Theories	6
Challenges and Missed Opportunities in the Study of Leadership in Higher Education	11
New Directions in Higher Education Leadership	12
Contributions of This Book	13
A World Apart: New Paradigms of Leadership	15
Positivist Paradigm	18
Social Constructivism Paradigm	19
Critical Paradigm	21
Postmodern Paradigm	23
Comparing the Paradigms' Impact	25
Summary	28

A World Anew: The Latest Theories of Leadership	31
Transformational Leadership	34
Complexity and Chaos Theory	39
Expanding Cognitive Theories: Mental Models and Organizational Learning	45
Expanding Cultural and Symbolic Theories: Social and Cultural Theories of Leadership	50
Rethinking Contingency Theories: Processual Leadership	58
Team or Relational Leadership	62
Summary	69
Revolutionary Concepts of Leadership	71
Ethics and Spirituality	72
Collaboration	76
Empowerment	77
Social Change and Social Movements	81
Emotions	84
Globalization	86
Entrepreneurialism	91
Accountability	94
Summary	98
Higher Education Leadership in the New World	101
Changes in the Landscape of Higher Education Leadership Research	101
Trait and Behavior Theories	103
Power and Influence Theories	106
Transformational Leadership	108
Complexity and Chaos Theory	111
Cognitive Theory: Cognitive Frames and Organizational Learning	115
Cultural and Symbolic Theories	123
Teams and Relational Leadership	131
Summary	135

Revolutionary Leadership Concepts in Higher Education	137
Ethics and Spirituality	137
Empowerment	140
Social Changes	141
Collaboration and Partnering	144
Emotions	147
Globalization	149
Entrepreneurialism	151
Accountability	154
Summary	156
Practical Implications for the Leadership Revolution	157
Framing Leadership Research in a New Era	169
Notes	177
Appendix: Three Case Studies	179
References	191
Name Index	208
Subject Index	214
About the Authors	218

