

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: Make the Ordinary Extraordinary	1
Secret #1: Acknowledge Your Customers Immediately	25
What Is a Customer? 27
Opportunities Lost, 31
The Game of Service Is the Game of Business, 38
He'll Know My Name, 41
■ Putting It into Practice, 44
Secret #2: Redefine Your Routine Activities	47
A Finishing School for Motorcycle Cops, 50
A Service Pro at Work in Terminal A, 59
The 999 Drill, 63
■ Putting It into Practice, 65
Secret #3: Give Customers Your Undivided Attention	67
Hey! Welcome to Cici's! 70
We Escort Our Guests, 73
A Sign of the Times, 78
It's Simple—Service Sells, 81
■ Putting It into Practice, 85

Secret #4: Listen, Think, and Use Common Sense	87
I Prefer Peach Yogurt, 90
Service Is Spelled S-A-Z-E-R-A-C, 94
When Is a Greeter Not Just a Greeter? 98
Service Is Common Sense, 102
■ Putting It into Practice, 108
Secret #5: Bend the Rules, Sometimes	111
Take a Minute to Think, 117
He Will if He Really Wants to Sell Me Something, 122
I Guess This Is My Lucky Day, 126
■ Putting It into Practice, 132
Secret #6: Make the Last Few Seconds Count	135
You Don't Expect Us to Give Our Services Away, Do You? 137
They Try Harder . . . and It Pays, 142
Well, I'll Be Doggone, 147
Making Friends by Serving Friends, 151
■ Putting It into Practice, 154
Conclusion: The Magic of Service Professionalism	157
When Magic Isn't Magic After All, 162
Magic Defined, 165
Mythical Customer Service, 167
It Can't Get "Mulch" Worse than That, 171
Experiencing a Magical Moment, 176
About the Author	181
Service Professionalism in Action	185
Other Books by Phillip Van Hooser	187
More Information Available, 188	