

Contents

Foreword		v
	Introduction	1
Chapter 1	Listen to the Market Crowd	7
Chapter 2	A World Darkened by Fear: An Overview of Soviet, German, and Japanese Aggression from 1929–1945	19
Chapter 3	Stock Markets Struggle: From the Great Depression to the Start of WWII	35
Chapter 4	“1940: The Most Splendid, Most Deadly Year”: The Time of England’s Greatest Peril	55
Chapter 5	Besieged and Alone: England in 1941	91
Chapter 6	Operation Barbarossa: Germany Attacks Russia	109
Chapter 7	Miracles at the Coral Sea and Midway: Japan and America	131
Chapter 8	Stock Markets Understood: Nobody Else Did	153
Chapter 9	The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse Ride Again	173

Chapter 10	France Declines Financially, Economically, and Socially	187
Chapter 11	Gone with the Wind: Preserving Wealth in Italy and Germany	203
Chapter 12	Stalingrad: The Battle of the Century	231
Chapter 13	Defeats and Then Victories in Asia and North Africa	251
Chapter 14	The Test in Korea: The Last Battle of WWII	275
Chapter 15	Preserving Wealth in a Time of Cholera	303
Chapter 16	Barbarians at the Gate	321
Notes		335
Bibliography		347
Index		353