

Index

A

Academic expectations, techniques for setting high, 27–56

Achievement First, 20

Acknowledgment, praise vs., 211–212

Acronyms, 80, 159

Age Plus Two rule, 227

All Hands technique, 229–230

Answers: Call and Response technique for giving, 125–131; as data gathered, 98–101; how to handle long, meandering, 230; how to handle right, 222–223; how to handle wrong, 88–92, 221–222, 236, 243–244; insisting on proper format for, 47–51; revealing gaps in student mastery, 102–104; selecting students to give, 28–34, 111–125, 134–137; setting high standard for correctness of, 35–41; students making judgments about, 106–108; students writing before discussing, 137–141. See also Questions

Anticipation, 73–74

Apologizing: for content, 51–54; for students, 54–55

Armstrong, Jason, 40–41, 311–314

Ask for Some Drama technique, 278–279, 280, 281

Assessed standards, 10–11

Assessment: simple, to judge lesson effectiveness, 106; using data from, 11–12. See also Test scores

At Bats technique, 74, 104–105

Attention: ensuring students are paying, 158–159, 168–171; span of, 227, 228

Austin, Janelle, 210

Authority: distinguishing reason for challenges to, 180–181; and following directions, 167–168, 169; Strong Voice technique to signal, 182–191

B

Back to Roots technique, 275

Bambrick-Santoyo, Paul, 10–11

Bathroom access, 161–163

Baumeister, Roy, 256

Beginning of class: ensuring students are prepared for, 159–161; greeting students prior to, 197–199; learning activity for, 152–153; routine for entering classroom before, 151–152

Behavior: countdowns to reinforce, 232–233; distinguishing between students and, 212, 214; negatively defined, 178; praising, 210–213. See also Misbehavior

Behavior management techniques, 143

Behavioral expectations: explaining, 220–221; techniques for setting and maintaining, 167–202

Being with the End technique, 57–59, 62

Berkeley, David, 142–143

Berman, Chris, 216

“Big Mo,” 207–208

Binder Control technique, 157–158

Board = Paper technique, 73, 82–84

Body language, 186–187, 188–190

Boyles, Nancy, on strategies instruction, 298–308

Break It Down technique, 74, 88–92, 109, 236, 237, 243–244

Bridging, 259–260

Brighten Lines technique, 228–229, 233–234

Brillante, Jaimie: information on, 16–17, 20; interview with, 314–316; techniques used by, 76, 90–91, 173, 241–243

Bromley, Leah, 45–46

Buroff, Ashley, 171

C

Call and Response technique, 125–131, 144; mixing with Cold Call technique, 121, 130; as practicing following directions, 177; to reinforce acronyms, 80; when teaching reading, 320

Challenges: introducing lessons with, 76; as motivator, 215; as positive framing method, 208–209

Champion teachers: vs. champion performers, 78–79; common element of, 2–3; examples of, 13–17; impact on test scores, 19–23. See also specific teachers

Change the Pace technique, 226–228

Character, techniques for building, 203–223

Check for Understanding technique, 74, 97–104

Check the Mechanics technique, 280

Checking for understanding, 112, 131, 237. See also Check for Understanding technique; Comprehension

326 Index

- Chunk It technique, 269
- Circulate technique, 73, 84–88
- Classroom: assigned seating in, 151; attention to details in, 195–196; circulation of teacher throughout, 68–69, 84–88; physical layout of, 67–69, 70; postings on walls, 69, 79; tips on transitions in, 154–157
- Classroom culture: and Call and Response technique, 128, 130, 131; and Cold Call technique, 115, 144; of compliance vs. noncompliance, 168, 169; components of, 145–151; and J-Factor technique, 215–216, 218; and No Opt Out technique, 8–9; techniques for building, 151–165; and What to Do technique, 178, 181
- Clear and Concise technique, 240–241
- Cognitive work, increasing student’s share of, 92–97, 236
- Cold Call technique, 111–125, 130, 132, 144, 229–230, 245
- Collins, Jim, 2, 214
- Compare, Combine, Contrast technique, 274
- Competition: as motivator, 215; as positive framing method, 208–209; against time, 232–233
- Compliance: giving directions to ensure, 177–182; total, as classroom standard, 167–177
- Comprehension, 283–308; connection-making questions to build, 295–297; defined, 252, 283; during-reading techniques for building, 289–294; importance of teaching, 283–284; other reading skills linked to, 252, 297–298; postreading techniques for building, 294–295; prereading techniques for building, 284–289; and reading strategies instruction, 298–301, 298–308; standard-aligned questions to build, 297
- Connecting strategy, 303–304
- Connections, questions to make, beyond text, 295–297
- Consequences: delivering, for misbehavior, 200–201; as level of intervention, 174; repetition of desired behavior as, 191–195; as temporary, 214
- Constructing Meaning Through Kid-Friendly Comprehension Strategy Instruction* (Boyles), 298
- Content: avoiding apologizing for, 51–55; choice of, 12–13
- Context: cueing, 270; providing, 90–91; teaching vocabulary by, 80–81, 272
- Contexting technique, 286, 289
- Control: as component of classroom culture, 148–149, 150–151; of teacher’s emotions, 16, 219–220, 223
- Control the Game technique, 124, 229, 230, 253–261, 319–323
- Correcting students: for decoding errors, 264–270; interviews about, 315–316, 318–319; levels of intervention for, 172–175; Positive Framing technique for, 204–210. See also Errors
- Countdowns, 232–233
- Crisis situations, giving directions in, 181–182
- Cueing systems, 270
- Culture. See Classroom culture
- ### D
- Data: and Check for Understanding technique, 97–104; from test scores, 19–23; used to inform teaching, 11–12
- Davis, George, 218
- de Leon, Roberto: information on, 17; reading techniques used by, 260, 278–280, 287, 297–298
- Decoding, 263–270; correcting errors in, 264–270; defined, 251, 263; importance of teaching, 263–264
- Defiance, incompetence vs., 178, 180–181
- Delfavero, Lisa, 286
- Dickinson, Domari, 87–88
- Didion, Joan, 138
- Differentiation: between acknowledgment and praise, 211–212; by asking follow-up questions, 41, 42; with bonus problems, 105; between defiance and incompetence, 178, 180–181
- Direct instruction, 71
- Directions: ensuring students follow, 167–177; giving, 177–182
- Discipline, as component of classroom culture, 146–147, 150–151
- Do It Again technique, 124, 156, 191–195
- Do Now technique, 152–153
- Don’t Wait technique, 289–291
- Double Plan technique, 65–66
- Drama: as J-factor category, 216–217; reading with, 277, 278–279, 280
- Draw the Map technique, 67–69
- Driggs, Colleen: information on, 15, 20; techniques used by, 77, 115, 124, 137
- Driven by Data* (Bambrick-Santoyo), 10–11
- Drop Everything and Read (DEAR), 255
- Dweck, Carol, 213
- ### E
- Echo correction, 264, 266
- Emotional Constancy technique, 16, 219–220, 223
- Engaging students: as component of classroom culture, 149–151; techniques for, 111–144. See also Participation

- Entry Routine technique, 151–152, 165
- Errors: correcting decoding, 264–270; normalizing, 221–223; student, technique for handling, 74, 88–92, 109, 236, 237, 243–244. See also Correcting students
- Every Minute Matters technique, 133, 230–231
- Everybody Writes technique, 122, 137–141, 144
- Evidence-Based Questioning technique, 293–294
- Exit Ticket technique, 74, 106, 109
- Expectations. See Academic expectations; Behavioral expectations
- Explain Everything technique, 220–221
- Explanation, 73
- F
- Figuring Out strategy, 307–308
- Fluency, 276–281; defined, 252, 276; importance of teaching, 276; techniques to reinforce, 277–281
- Focal Points technique, 286–287, 288, 289
- Format Matters technique, 47–51, 56
- 4 Ms technique, 60–63
- Front-loading technique, 287–288
- Fun, techniques emphasizing, 141–143, 214–218
- G
- Gaines, Earnest, 53–54
- Grammar, correct, 47–49
- Greeting students, 197–199
- Guided practice, 71
- H
- Half-Statement, 94, 229, 230
- Head-to-head, 133–134
- Hill, Ryan, 227
- Hirsch, E. D., 271, 286
- Hit Rate technique, 243
- Homework: folder for, 158; neatness of, 196; routine for turning in, 152, 161
- The Hook technique, 73, 75–77, 108
- Huelskamp, Christy, 91
- Humor, 217
- Hurdle rate: defined, 254; for meaningful reading, 254–255, 256–257
- I
- Incompetence, defiance vs., 178, 180–181
- In-cues, 127–129
- Independent practice, 71
- Inferring strategy, 307–308
- Influence, as component of classroom culture, 149, 150–151
- Interventions: levels of, for misbehavior, 172–175; Positive Framing technique for, 204–210
- I/We/You structure, 65, 71–74, 108
- J
- Jackson, Julie, 12, 14, 65
- J-Factor technique, 214–218, 218, 223
- K
- Knight, Bobby, 12
- Knowledge Is Power Program, 23
- KWL charts, 285
- L
- Lather, Rinse, Repeat technique, 280–281
- Lesson planning: champion teachers excelling at, 12, 14, 16–17; higher-level, 12; including physical environment in, 67–69; including “what could go wrong” in, 73–74; including what students will do when in, 65–66, 70; recommended sequence for, 59; techniques for, 57–70; using standards when, 9–11
- Lessons: broken down into steps, 77–82; checking for understanding during, 97–104; clearly indicating beginning and end of activities in, 228–229; closing, 106; introductions to, 75–77; I/We/You structure for, 65, 71–74, 104; repetition in, 74, 104–105
- Levin, David, 92, 141
- Lewis, Hillary, 261, 319–323
- Lofthus, Hannah, 260, 281
- Look Forward technique, 231–232
- Lower the Level technique, 292–293
- Lubar, David, 287
- M
- Management: behavior, 143; as component of classroom culture, 147, 150–151
- Marcovitz, Ben, 301, 309–310
- Mark the Spot technique, 265–266, 267
- Marx, Karl, 149
- Materials: making sure students have, at beginning of class, 159–161; teaching behaviors for moving, 7–8, 156–157; teaching system for organizing, 156–157, 196
- Matthew effect, 271
- McBride, David, 216
- McCurry, Doug, 7–8, 71, 146, 157

328 Index

McKee, Todd, 60
Meaningful reading, 255–257
Merton, Robert K., 271
Misbehavior: delivering consequences for, 200–201;
giving warnings for, 199–200; ignoring, 175;
levels of intervention for, 172–175
Mistakes: correcting decoding, 264–270; normalizing, 221–223; student, technique for handling, 74, 88–92, 109, 236, 237, 243–244. See also Correcting students
Modeling, 73
Moderately expressive reading, 255
Morish, Ronald, 146
Multiple Takes technique, 273
Murray, Kate, 73–74
Music: as J-factor category, 216–217, 218; reading as like, 277

N

Name the Sound technique, 267–269
Name the Steps technique, 73, 77–82, 109
Narrated Wait Time technique, 135–137
No Bait and Switch technique, 240
No Opt Out technique, 8–9, 15, 28–34, 55, 124, 244
No Warnings technique, 199–201
Nonverbal signals: with Call and Response technique, 127, 129, 130; to indicate position on answers given by peers, 100–101, 107–108; as level of intervention, 172; to reinforce SLANT technique, 159; for seated students to indicate needs, 161–163, 165. See also Body language
Noormuhammad, Sultana, 16, 156, 187–188, 218, 281
Normalize Error technique, 221–223
Note taking, teaching, 82–84
Noticing strategy, 302–303

O

Objectives: beginning planning with, 57–59; criteria for effective, 60–63, 69–70; direct approach to achieving, 64–65; posting, 63–64; when using
Vegas technique, 143
Observations: for noticing reading strategy, 299,
302–303; as way to check for understanding,
101–102
On Your Mark technique, 159–161
One at a Time technique, 237–239
100 Percent technique, 167–177, 202, 308, 314,
316–319
O'Neill, Patricia, 51–52
Oral cloze, 260
Oral reading. See Reading aloud
Organization, of binders, 157–158, 196

P

Pacing: defined, 225–226; techniques for improving,
112–113, 226–234
Participation: ensuring student, 28–34; increasing student, 92–97, 106–108. See also Engaging students
Passing out papers, 7–8, 156–157
Pastore, Patrick, 20, 233, 260
Payne, Summer, 124
Pencils, 160–161, 162
Pepper technique, 76, 122, 123, 131–134,
229–230
Picasso, Pablo, 1–2
Pick sticks, 133
Picture This technique, 275
Picturing strategy, 304–306
Placeholders, when reading aloud, 260
Planning. See Lesson planning
Point-to-point movement, 155
Positive Framing technique, 157, 204–210, 223
Post It technique, 63–64
Poverty: among Uncommon Schools students, 19; impact on test scores, 20, 22–23; and teaching reading comprehension strategies, 301; vocabulary gap accompanying, 271
Praise: avoiding overuse of, 222–223; for effort vs.
mastery, 37–38; embodying expectations in, 209;
with Take a Stand technique, 108; technique for giving public, 163–165. See also Precise Praise technique
Precise Praise technique, 137, 204, 210–213, 223
Predicting strategy, 306–307
Prereading techniques, for building comprehension,
284–289
Prescreening technique, 289
Props technique, 163–165
Punch the Error technique, 265, 266–267

Q

Questions: aligned with standards, 297, 302; evidence-based, 293–294; follow-up, 41–47; to gather data, 98–101; how to handle off-task, 230; to judge effectiveness of lesson, 106; to make connections beyond text, 295–297; practicing, 245; purposes of, 236–237; rhetorical, 209;
techniques for asking, 125–134, 237–245. See also Answers

R

Ragin, Kelli, 20, 79, 81, 91
Ratio technique, 74, 92–97, 229, 230, 236, 237, 244–245

- Reading: basic skills needed for, 251–252;
importance of skill in, 249–250; meaningful, value of activities vs., 253–257; need for all teachers to teach, 251; time students spend, 250–251. See also Comprehension; Decoding; Fluency; Vocabulary
- Reading aloud: Control the Game skills for, 257–260; leveraging meaningful reading with,
255–256; teacher modeling, 277–278. See also Fluency
- Rector, Jesse, 92, 122–123
- Register, 188–190
- Repetition: of desired behavior, as consequence, 156, 191–195; of directions, 181–182; importance of,
74, 104–105
- Retelling, summarizing vs., 294
- Riffle, Annette, 133
- Right Is Right technique, 35–41, 45–46, 55–56, 124, 244, 311–314
- Rochester Prep, 20, 22, 23
- “Rounding up,” 35–36
- Routines: for beginning class, 152–153; for giving public praise, 163–165; for passing out papers, 7–8; for students entering classroom, 151–152;
for turning in homework, 152, 161
- Rowe, Mary Budd, 134
- Roxbury Prep Charter School, 20
- ## S
- Scaffolding: in Cold Call technique, 117–119; to teach transition behaviors, 155
- Seat Signals technique, 161–163, 165
- Self-esteem, 256
- Self-report, 100–101
- Sentences, complete, 48–49
- Shells, Stacey, 20, 94–95
- Shepherd, Dinah, 289
- Shortest Path technique, 64–65
- Show Some Spunk technique, 277–278, 279–280
- Signals. See Nonverbal signals
- Simple to Complex technique, 239
- Sit down, 134
- SLANT technique, 36, 158–159
- Specialists, 251, 275–276
- Speed the Exceptions technique, 269–270
- Standards: how to use, 9–11; questions aligned with, 297, 302
- Stock Questions technique, 241–243
- Strategies: reading, and techniques in book, 301–308; reading, instruction based on, 298–301;
recommended, for effective teaching, 9–13; vs.
techniques, 3–4, 309
- Strengths, maximizing and leveraging, 5
- Stress the Syntax technique, 274–275
- Stretch It technique, 41–47, 56, 236–237, 244
- Strictness, 213–214
- Strong Voice technique, 15–16, 182–191, 230, 281, 318
- Summarizing strategy, 308
- Summarizing technique: postreading, 294–295;
prereading, 288–289
- Sunstein, Cass, 148
- Surprise, 217
- Sweat the Details technique, 195–196
- Synonym model, for teaching vocabulary, 271–272, 274
- ## T
- Take a Stand technique, 74, 106–108
- Taubman, Mike, 142
- Teachers. See Champion teachers
- Teaching: as art, 1, 13, 309; outstanding, impact on test scores, 19–23; strategies for effective, 9–13
- Techniques: for addressing decoding errors,
266–270; for building character and trust,
203–223; for building classroom culture,
151–165; for building comprehension, 284–295;
as common element of champion teachers, 2–3;
and educational theories, 7–9; effectiveness of,
5–6; for engaging students, 111–144; for improving pacing, 226–234; for lesson planning, 57–70; names of, 6–7; for questioning, 237–245;
reading strategies and, 301–308; to reinforce fluency, 277–281; for reinforcing vocabulary,
273–275; for setting academic expectations,
27–56; for setting behavioral expectations,
167–202; strategic context for, 9–13; vs.
strategies, 3–4, 309; for structuring and delivering lessons, 71–109; tips on using, 5, 13, 309–310.
See also specific techniques
- Test scores: outstanding teaching’s impact on, 19–23; poverty’s impact on, 20, 22–23; skills needed for successful, 17–19
- Thaler, Richard, 148
- Thinking: increasing students’ share of, 92–97, 236; skills needed for higher-order, 17–19; writing to clarify, 137–141
- Threshold technique, 197–199, 202
- “Thumbs up, thumbs down,” 100–101, 107
- Tight Transitions technique, 154–157, 218
- Time: building anticipation toward future, 231–232; counting down, 232–233; making productive use of, 7–8, 230–231; students spend reading,
250–251. See also Pacing
- Toll, Dacia, 198

330 Index

Transaction costs: of correcting decoding errors, 265–266; defined, 50, 258; and student engagement, 320; of transitions, 259
Transitions: J-Factor technique applied to, 218; technique for effectively handling, 154–157; transaction costs of, 259
Trust, techniques for building, 203–223
Tschang, Chi, 227

U

Unbundle, 93–94, 229, 230, 244–245
Uncommon Schools: poverty rate for students at, 19; test results for, 19–23
Upgrade technique, 274

V

Vegas technique, 141–143, 218
Vera, Suzanne, 194–195
Verbatim (No Bait and Switch) technique, 240
Verrilli, Beth, 94, 124–125
Verilli, Jamey, 100, 160, 198, 231
Vocabulary, 271–276; defined, 252; examples of teaching, 124, 125, 297–298; follow-up questions for developing, 43; getting students to use precise, 39–41; importance of teaching, 271–273; methods for specialists to introduce, 275–276; techniques for teaching, 271–272, 273–275; value of large, 271

Voice: for giving praise, 212; as prompt for audible format, 50–51. See also Strong Voice technique

W

Wait Time technique, 134–137, 144
Walls, classroom, 69, 79
Warm/Strict technique, 213–214
Warnings, for misbehavior, 199–200
What to Do technique, 177–182, 202
Williams, Darryl: information on, 15–16; techniques used by, 31, 49, 88–89, 117–118, 190–191, 220
Williamsburg Collegiate, 23
Without Apology technique, 51–55, 56
Wondering strategy, 306
Work the Clock technique, 232–233
Worrell, Art, 140–141
Writing, to clarify thinking, 137–141

Z

Zimmerli, Bob: information on, 14–15, 20; interview with, 316–319; techniques used by, 75, 76–77, 107, 174–175, 232