

Contents

|                              |       |
|------------------------------|-------|
| Foreword by Doman Lum | ix    |
| Preface                      | xi    |
| Acknowledgments              | xxi   |
| About the Author             | xxiii |

Part I Essential Social Science Theories, Frameworks, and Research to Enhance Culturally Competent Practice

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 1 The Americanization of Latinos: Patterns of Acculturationand Adaptation in the United States | 3   |
| 2 The Social Stratification of Latino Ethnicity, Power, andSocial Welfare in the United States | 39  |
| 3 Latino Ethnic Identity: Psychological Impacts ofStructured Inequality                        | 65  |
| 4 Diversity within Latinos: Subgroups, Identities, andSocial Welfare                           | 93  |
| 5 A New Practice Model for Working with Latinos  | 119 |

Part II Selective Reviews of Major Problem Areas, Latino Groups, and Best and Promising Practices

|                        |     |
|------------------------|-----|
| 6 The Latino Family    | 141 |
| 7 Latino Youth         | 181 |
| 8 Latino Mental Health | 215 |
| 9 Latino Health        | 245 |

viii CONTENTS

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 10 Latino Power: Political Participation, Policy Benefit, andthe Role of Service Providers | 283 |
| Epilogue: Adelante —Proceeding Forward  | 321 |
| Author Index   | 323 |
| Subject Index  | 333 |