
CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	xi
About the Contributors	xiii
Preface	xvii
Editor's Acknowledgements.....	xix
Part I The Need for a Good Start in Life: Attachment, Bonding, and Children's Rights	1
1 Introduction: An Overview of Children in Public Care	3
Dorota Iwaniec
Introduction.....	3
Problems and Dilemmas with Fostering and Residential Care.....	5
Looked-after Children in the United Kingdom.....	8
Abuse of Children in Care.....	10
The Purpose and Organisation of the Book.....	11
References	14
2 Ordinary Children in Extraordinary Circumstances	17
Jane Aldgate
Introduction.....	17
Children in Need	17
Recent Child-development Thinking.....	18
The Ecological Perspective	19
Recognising the Uniqueness of Individual Children.....	20
The Well-ness Approach.....	21
Resilience and Strengths	21
An Optimistic View of Child Development	22
Children as Actors in their Own Development.....	23
Aspects of Children's Development of Special Relevance to Looked-after Children	24
Children's Attachments	24
What Is Attachment?.....	25
Children and Multiple Attachments.....	26
Continuities and Discontinuities of Working Models.....	27

vi CONTENTS

The Impact of Loss on Children’s Development.....	28
Counteracting the Impact of Loss and Separation with Contact and Connectedness.....	30
Attachments and Socio-genealogical Connectedness	31
Counteracting the Impact of Separation with Stability	32
A Permanency Planning Approach	33
What Can Help Promote Children’s Development in Practice?.....	33
References	35
3 The Importance of Developing Emotional Bonds between Parents and Children	41
Emma Larkin
Introduction	41
What Is Bonding?.....	41
Bonding and Attachment	43
What Influences the Bonding Process?	44
The Bonding Process and Care Careers	48
Facilitating the Bonding Process for Alternative Care-providers.....	53
Summary	54
References	55
4 Children in Alternative Care: Are their Rights Being Met?	61
Rosemary Kilpatrick
Introduction	61
Children’s Rights	62
Articles Associated with Alternative Care	63
Processes Leading to Care Orders.....	65
Care Orders	66
Foster Care	67
Residential Care	69
Secure Accommodation.....	71
Conclusion.....	73
Acknowledgements	75
Notes	75
References	75
Part II Pathways to Permanency.....	79
5 Outcomes of Long-term Foster Care: Young People’s Views	81
Colette McAuley
Introduction	81
Improving Outcomes for Looked-after Children	82
Outcomes of Long-term Foster Care	83
Children’s Rights and Researching Children’s Views	84
The Pathways and Outcomes Study	85
Interviews with the Young People: Key Messages	86

Implications for Policy and Practice	92
Conclusion	93
References	94
6 Kinship Care as a Route to Permanent Placement	99
Una Lernihan and Greg Kelly
Introduction	99
Children Cared For by the Kinship and Traditional Foster Parents	100
The Placement of Children in Kinship Foster Care	102
The Motivation of Kinship Carers	102
Contact between the Children and their Birth-families	104
Contact with Birth-fathers	105
Kinship Foster Carers and Contact	105
Relationship between Birth-mother and Fostering Household	106
Care Plans	108
Adoption	109
Residence Orders	109
Conclusion	110
References	112
7 Exploring Regional Trends in Pathways to Permanency	113
Dominic McSherry and Emma Larkin
Introduction	113
Placement Trends in Northern Ireland: Policy and Practice	114
Placement Trends in Northern Ireland: Statistical Information	116
Research on Regional Placement Variation	117
Examining Regional Variations	119
Variations in Placement Patterns over Time	120
Discussion of Results	124
Conclusion	127
Acknowledgements	127
References	128
Part III Residential and Mixed Care	131
8 Developments in Residential Care in Northern Ireland	133
Dominic McSherry and Emma Larkin
Introduction	133
Setting the Context for Change – Residential Care in England and Wales	134
Setting the Context for Change – Residential Care in Northern Ireland	137
Discussion	140
Conclusion	142

viii CONTENTS

Acknowledgements.....	143
Note.....	143
References.....	143
9 The Mental-health Needs of Looked-after Children.....	147
Tom Teggart
Introduction.....	147
Looked-after Children and Mental Health.....	148
Understanding Looked-after Children’s High Levels of Mental-health Needs.....	152
Are We Meeting the Mental-health Needs of Looked-after Children?.....	155
Models of Mental-health Service Delivery to Looked-after Children.....	158
Conclusion.....	161
References.....	163
10 Changing Lives or Just Changing Location? Planning for Adolescents in Substitute Care.....	169
Helga Sneddon
Introduction.....	169
Background.....	169
The Planning Process for Children Placed in Residential or Foster Care.....	171
Conclusion.....	178
References.....	179
11 Making Use of Positive Psychology in Residential Child Care.....	183
Stan Houston
Introduction.....	183
An Introduction to Positive Psychology.....	185
Goleman and ‘Emotional Intelligence’.....	188
Therapeutic Aspects of ‘Emotional Intelligence’.....	190
Csikszentmihalyi and ‘Flow’.....	193
Therapeutic Aspects of ‘Flow’.....	196
Conclusion: Positive Psychology at Work.....	197
References.....	199
Part IV Court and Family Support Pathways to Substitute Care.....	201
12 Pathways to Permanence: Accommodation, Compulsion, and Permanence under the Children (NI) Order (1995).....	203
Theresa Donaldson
Introduction.....	203
The Study.....	205
Care Order Application or Accommodation?.....	207

Parents' 'Co-operation'	210
Implications for Permanence Planning.....	215
References.....	217
13 Care Planning in Care Proceedings: A Case Study Perspective on Achieving Permanency	219
Dominic McSherry
Introduction	219
Care Planning	220
Parallel Planning	220
Concurrent Planning	221
Permanency Planning and Attachment	221
Case Studies.....	222
Discussion.....	230
Acknowledgements.....	232
References.....	232
14 The Participation of Looked-after Children in Public Law Proceedings	235
Karen Winter
Introduction.....	235
Who Are Looked-after Children?	236
Looked-after Children and Public Law Proceedings	237
Definitions of Participation	238
Reasons for the Increased Emphasis on Participation	239
Mechanisms and Provisions for the Participation of Looked-after Children in Public Law Proceedings.....	240
Effectiveness of Existing Mechanisms and Provisions Regarding the Participation of Looked-after Children in Public Law Cases	242
Room for Improvement.....	244
Ways Forward.....	246
Conclusion	251
References.....	251
Part V Messages from Research	257
15 Messages from Research	259
Dorota Iwaniec and Helga Sneddon
Introduction	259
Pathways to Permanency	259
Kinship Care	261
Permanency through Adoption.....	262
Building Attachments and Bonding.....	263
Children's Rights and Participation of Children in Public Law Proceedings.....	264
Care Planning, Assessment, and Intervention.....	266

x CONTENTS

Legal and Voluntary Pathways to Substitute Care	267
Difficulties and Costs of Legal Proceedings	268
Conclusion	269
References	270
Index	273