

Index

A

Academic profiling, 162–164
Accommodation without assimilation, 143–144, 216–217
Acuña, R. F., 43, 64, 65
Adam, M., 221, 224
Advanced placement courses. See
 Honors/advanced placement courses
Affirmative action, 36
African American students: academic profiling of, 162–163; completion of courses necessary for college entry by, 151; high school graduation rates for, 25; and tracking, 154
Allen, K., 221, 224
Almaguer, T., 31, 35, 92
Alvarez, L., 46, 47, 58
American Educational Research
 Association, 176
American Psychological Association, 176
Amott, T., 26
Anazldúa, G., 60
Anderson, M. L., 197
Anti-immigration bill. See House
 Resolution 4437: The Border Protection, Antiterrorism, and Illegal
 Immigration Control Act of 2005
Apple, M. W., 36, 37
Armanti, C., 124

Asian American students: academic profiling of, 162, 163; completion of courses necessary for college entry by, 151; high school graduation rates for, 25; teaching social responsibility to, 195–196;
 tensions between Latina/o students and, 150, 164–166; and tracking, 152, 154
Assimilation: accommodation without, 143–144, 216–217; negative influence of, 94; and not teaching children Spanish, 90–94
Assimilationist theories. See Cultural deficiency theories
Au, W., 188, 189

B

Baca Zinn, M., 5, 26, 39, 81
Balderrama, F. E., 43
Banking model, of education, 4–5
Barrera, M., 29, 31, 32, 34, 35
Bejarano, C., 113
Belanger, M., 45
Beliefs. See Ideologies; Values
Berliner, D. C., 38, 235
Bettie, J., 35, 143, 144
Bicultural identity, 143–144
Biddle, B. J., 38, 235
Bien educado, 66–67, 193

- Bilingual education, 36, 37, 47, 93, 101, 236
- Bilingualism, 8, 67, 92–93
- Biological deficiency theories: of educational attainment, 29–31; persistence of, 39–40
- Bloom, G. M., 50
- Board of Education, Brown v.*, 225
- Bogardus, E. S., 31
- Bourdieu, P., 61
- Bowles, S., 35, 153
- Brown v. Board of Education*, 225
- Burg, E., 11; on better scheduling of parent-teacher conferences, 212–213; biography of, 15–16; on missing graduate school, 18
- Buriel, R., 70
- C
- Cadena, M., 11; on academic profiling, 162; on “forgotten” students, 168; on Latina/o students’ motivation and involvement, 164–165; on speaking Spanish with students and families, 209; on teaching different ethnic groups, 195–196; on tensions between ethnic students, 166; on testing under NCLB, 180–181
- Calavita, K., 43
- California: Latina/o population of, 41–42; number of Latina/o students/teachers in, 7; school funding system in, 226–228
- California Assembly Bill 540, 224
- California Civil Rights Initiative, 36
- California Department of Education, 151
- California Proposition 13, 226–228
- California Proposition 209, 36
- California Proposition 227, 47
- Camacho, A., 11; on counselors, 167; on efforts to diversity schools, 215; on Latina/o parents’ view of education, 57–58, 83; on parental involvement with teenagers, 220; on schools as intimidating environments, 208; on self-perception of students with tracking, 160; on tensions between ethnic students, 166; on testing for track placement, 158; on tracking and socioeconomic background, 156–157
- Camarillo, A., 33
- Caring: by families, 219–220; by teachers and school officials, 108–109, 115–116, 127, 205
- Central Americans, 41, 42, 44–45, 48
- Change: caution on, of policies, 190; hopeful signs of, 237–238; levels of, needed in schools, 144–146; students as agents of, 202–203
- Chavez, C., 64, 198, 199
- Chavez, L., 32
- Chicana/o movement, 34, 65, 201
- Chicano identity, 132–135, 142
- Chinchilla, N. S., 44
- Class. See Socioeconomic class
- Class size, reducing, 144–145, 171, 207–208
- College: completion of courses necessary for entry to, 151; difficulties of attending, 116–117; financial aid for, 213–214, 221–225; gender differences in support for, 79–80; information given to students and families about, 213–214; Latinas/os graduating from, 108, 235; sacrifices made for, 85–90; supportive organizations in, 117–118, 141–144, 145, 218. See also Higher education
- Collins, P. H., 6, 35, 39, 155, 197
- Colorism, 50–51
- Conchas, G. Q., 162, 164
- “Confronting the Graduation Rate Crisis in California,” 25, 51
- Contreras, F. E., 51
- Cooley, C. H., 139
- Cooperative learning, 207
- Cortez, D., 11; biography of, 13; on effective teaching styles, 125; on Latinos as valuing education, 83; on mother’s love of learning, 78–79

- Counselors. See School counselors
- Country of origin, of Latinas/os, 41–42
- Cubans, 41, 48–49
- Cultural deficiency theories: of educational attainment, 31–34; persistence of, 39–40; and programs for Latina/o families, 59; reemergence of, 36
- Cultural restoration, 37
- Culture: classroom, 4. See also Latina/o culture
- Cummins, J., 48
- Curriculum: impact of testing on, 180–182; information for augmenting, 218–219; lack of Latina/o scholarship in, 3; on Latina/o history and culture, 198–202; multiculturalism in, 189–190, 196–202; supplemented by parental teachings, 64–67; teaching self-confidence in, 193–196
- Curriculum tracking. See Tracking
- D
- Darder, A., 23
- De la Luz Reyes, M., 117
- De León, J., 173, 174, 176
- De Ment, T., 70
- Defended typification, 133
- Delgado Bernal, D., 6
- Delgado-Gaitan, C., 67, 81, 83
- Della Piana, L., 228
- Dill, B. T., 81
- DiMaria, F., 214
- Discrimination: ideologies underlying, in education, 39–40; for speaking Spanish, 90–92, 128–131
- Diversity: increasing, in schools, 214–216; of public school teachers, 7–8, 122
- Dominguez, G., 12
- Dominicans, 41, 48
- E
- Economic class. See Socioeconomic class
- Educación*, 192–193
- Education: banking model of, 4–5; discriminatory ideologies in, 39–40; discussion of Latinas/os and, 13–18; explanations for inequalities in, 27–28; funding, 225–228; higher, class favoritism in, 5; marginalization of Latinas/os in, 3–6; neoliberal policies in, 38; reforming, 231, 237–238. See also College; Schools
- Education Data Partnership, 7, 11
- Educational attainment: biological deficiency theories of, 29–31; cultural deficiency theories of, 31–34; and employment, 25–26; gender differences in, 51–52; and income, 26; neoconservatism and neoliberalism perspectives on, 35–38; power-conflict theories of, 34–35. See also High school graduation rates
- Eitzen, D. S., 26
- Ek, L., 132
- Elias, M., 11; biography of, 14–15; caring teachers recalled by, 115–116; difficulties of college attendance by, 116–117; on expanding curriculum, 192–193; honors/AP course placement for, 156; on hostilities among Mexican students, 111–114; interactions of, with children, 107–108, 110; on multiculturalism in curriculum, 197, 198–199; open-door policy of, 211–212; social networks of value to, 117–118, 145; on teachers as role models, 118–119; on testing under NCLB, 174–176, 177, 180, 184, 186–187
- Employment, and educational attainment, 25–26
- English for the Children Initiative, 47
- English language: knowledge of, and testing, 176; teaching, and knowledge of Spanish, 46, 47
- Escobar, M., 11, 65–66
- Espenshade, T. J., 45

- Ethnicity/race: and academic profiling, 162–164; and courses necessary for college entry, 151; and financial aid for college, 224; and high school graduation rates, 25; and tracking, 151–152, 154, 160–167, 195
- Expectations: educational, of Latina/o parents, 57, 62–63, 71; of family vs. schooling, 94–105; high, of students, 205; as self-fulfilling, 131, 139; study of impact of, on achievement, 139–140
- F
- Falbo, T., 127, 171, 172, 228
- Families. See Latina/o families
- Familismo*, 60, 100
- Ferguson, Plessy v.*, 225
- Fernandez, L., 12, 209, 210
- Financial aid, for college, 213–214, 221–225
- Flores, L. A., 3, 6
- Flores-González, N., 127, 133, 138, 205
- Foster, M., 7
- Frankenberg, R., 32, 36
- Freire, P., 4, 191, 207
- Fuentes, M. A., 46
- G
- Galguera, T., 8
- Galvez, D., 11; Chicano identity of, 132–135, 142; family's cultural identity rejected by, 131–132; on self-fulfilling expectations, 131, 139
- Gándara, P., 50, 51, 57, 60, 61, 62, 63, 77, 80, 81
- Garcia, A., 37
- Gender differences: in childhood restrictions, 69–70; in educational outcomes, 51–52; in support for higher education, 79–80
- Gibson, M. A., 99, 144, 216
- Gimenez, M. E., 41
- Ginorio, A., 52, 150
- Gintis, H., 35, 153
- Glazer, N., 32
- Glenn, E. N., 81
- Gómez, I., 11; bilingualism in classroom of, 122–123; language discrimination experienced by, 128–131; on misperceptions about bilingual education, 93; on negative experience with tracking, 161
- Gonzales, M. D., 112, 113
- Gonzalez, G. G., 29, 30, 32, 33, 35, 39, 59, 79, 153, 154, 170, 172, 176
- Gonzalez, J., 42, 236
- González, N., 124
- Gordon, M., 32
- Graduate school: Latinas/os completing, 108; teachers' desire to return to, 18, 19
- Graduation rates. See High school graduation rates
- Grant, G., 7, 172
- Grant High School: academic profiling at, 162–164; International Baccalaureate Program (IB) at, 157–158, 162, 166–167, 168–169; Latinas/os in non-college-prep classes at, 149–150, 151; resource allocation at, 167–170; tensions between ethnic students at, 150, 164–166. See also Tracking
- Green, L., 227
- Guba, E. G., 5
- Gutiérrez, D. G., 112
- H
- Haederle, M., 201
- Halcón, J. J., 117
- Hamilton, N., 44
- Handel, E., 12
- Haney, W., 176
- Hanson, J., 12, 66
- Harrison, L. E., 32
- Heinrich, R., 12, 220–221, 237
- Helfand, D., 25, 26
- Heller, C. S., 32
- Hernández, A., 132
- Herrera, R., 85

- Higareda, I., 122, 124, 215
 Higginbotham, E., 5, 39
 High school dropouts: cost of, 26; increasing number of, 179, 237–238
 High school graduation rates: and ethnicity, 25; gender differences in, 51; of Latina/o students, 108, 233; of U.S.-born vs. immigrant Latinas/os, 46. See also Educational attainment
 Higher education. See College
 Hirji, H.S.P., 225, 226, 227, 228
 Hispanics, 41
 History: curriculum on, 115–116,
 197–202; of Latina/o ethnic groups in U.S., 42–45; parents' teachings about, 64–65
 Holman, L. J., 173, 174, 176
 Home ownership, 49
 Hondagneu-Sotelo, P., 43
 Honors/advanced placement courses:
 disparity in resources for, 169–170;
 and ethnicity/race, 166–167; labeling students for, 160; Latina/o students in, 150; segregation of students in, 161; timing of recommendation for, 156
 hooks, b., 4, 215–216, 231
 House Resolution 4437: The Border Protection, Antiterrorism, and Illegal Immigration Control Act of 2005: student walk-outs in opposition to, 232–233, 237; students' knowledge about, 203; teacher's comment about, 136–137
 Howard, G., 7
 Hunter, M., 51
 Huntington, S. P., 37
 Hursh, D., 37, 38, 174
 Huston, M., 52, 150
- I
- Identity: bicultural, 143–144;
 Chicano, 132–135, 142; family's cultural, 131–132, 216–217; national, 37; racial, 50
- Ideologies: discriminatory, in higher education, 39–40; underlying exclusionary practices, 128; underlying tracking, 152, 153, 154, 171, 172.
See also Biological deficiency theories; Cultural deficiency theories;
 Neoconservatism; Neoliberalism;
 Power-conflict theories Immigrants: children of, as “cultural brokers,” 70; neoconservatism as fueling sentiment against, 37; public opinion of, 45. See also Latina/o immigrants
 Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), deportation campaigns, 43
 Income: and educational attainment,
 26; of Latinas/os, 48–49
 Individualism, values of family vs., 99–104
 Inouye, A., 24
 Intelligence (IQ) tests, 30
 Interfaith, 118
 International Baccalaureate Organization, 162
 International Baccalaureate Program
 (IB), Grant High School, 157–158,
 162, 166–167, 168–169
- J
- Jacobson, L., 139–140
- K
- Kao, G., 83, 164
 Karides, M., 5
 Karp, S., 227
 Kennelly, I., 5
 Kibria, N., 163
 Kochhar, R., 49
 Kozol, J., 35, 225
- L
- Labeling students: for honors/AP classes, 160; and knowing all students can learn, 205; as “mentally retarded,” 30, 92; study of impact

- Labeling students: (continued)
 of, on achievement, 139–140; as “teacher’s pet,” 126–127, 206
- Ladson-Billings, G., 7, 196
- Landsberg, M., 72
- Languages: diverse, of immigrant Latinas/os, 47; taught at high school level, 48. See also English language; Spanish language
- Lareau, A., 58, 61
- Latina mothers, and education, 77–81, 96–99
- Latina teaching assistants, 124
- Latina/o culture: curriculum on, 197–202; and parent participation, 58; teachers’ knowledge of, 205
- Latina/o families, 57–83; advice for, 219–220; cultural identity of, 131–132, 216–217; education as valued by, 57, 83; encouragement by, for education, 81–83; important cultural role of, 205; learning from stories of, 68–77; programs aimed at, 59; schools as intimidating for, 208–210; traditions of, vs. formal education and career, 85–90; values of, vs. schooling, 99–104. See also Familismo; Latina mothers; Latina/o parents
- Latina/o immigrants: confronting teacher’s negative remarks about, 135–137; ethnic hostilities directed at children of, 111–114; public opinion of, 45; school experience of, 45–47; undocumented, and college financial aid, 224–225. See also Immigrants
- Latina/o parents: educational expectations of, 57, 62–63, 71; interviewed by author, 12; need for involvement of, with teenagers, 220; open communication with, by schools, 210–214; participation by, in schools, 57–58, 60–61, 81; as role models, 78–79; teachings of, 64–67. See also Latina mothers; Latina/o families
- Latina/o students: academic profiling of, 162–163; advice for, 216–219; generational differences in school experience of, 45–47; intraethnic hostilities among, 111–114; knowing and caring about, 205; as “native informants,” 4; number of, 7; opposing anti-immigration bill, 232–233, 237; tensions between Asian American students and, 150, 164–166. See also Students
- Latina/o teachers: discussion by, on Latinas/os and education, 13–18; family stories of, 72, 74–77; interviewed by author, 10–11; non-Latina/o teachers vs., 124–125; number of, 7, 122–123; sacrifices made in becoming, 85–90; scholarship on, 124. See also Teachers
- Latinas/os: country of origin of, 41–42; defined, xi; discussion of education and, 13–18; marginalized in education, 3–6; unheard perspective of, 8–9
- Learning styles, 206–208
- Lee, S. J., 154
- Lewis, O., 32
- Lincoln, Y. S., 5
- Lindholm, K., 47
- Lojero Latimer, S., 208
- Lopez, A. C., 60
- Lopez, D., 91
- Lopez, N., 26, 35, 51, 52, 69, 70, 81, 87, 162, 163, 164
- Los Angeles County: Latina/o population of, 41; Latina/o students/teachers in schools of, 7
- Luttrell, W., 126

M

- Madrid, A., 4
- Madsen, W., 32
- Mahitivanichcha, K., 60
- Manifest destiny, 92
- Márquez, G. G., 196

- Marquez, M., 11; biography of, 14; on building students' self-confidence, 193–194; on experience with multicultural curriculum, 196; family story of, 68–72; on impact of NCLB, 185–186; on negative experience with tracking, 161; on resource disparities between schools, 169–170; on school counselors, 125–126, 155–156; on teachers encouraging critical thinking, 125; on teachers' lack of discussion time, 18; testing's impact on, 184
- Martínez, A. P., 224
- Martínez Alemán, A. M., 109
- Martínez, C., 11; on being “teacher's pet,” 126; biography of, 16–17; on experiences with MEChA, 141–144, 145; on impact of individual teachers, 145–146; on parents' modeling value of education, 63; sacrifices made by, for education, 85–90; on speaking Spanish with parents, 209–210; testing's impact on, 183–184
- Martínez, E., 37
- Martínez, E. S., 103
- Martínez, T., 224
- Martínez, T. A., 19
- Matute-Bianchi, M. E., 112, 113, 144
- McIntyre, A., 7
- McSpadden McNeil, L., 179, 182, 183
- Meier, D., 181
- Men of color, as teachers, 120–122
- Mendez v. Westminster*, 33
- Mendoza, C., 33
- Mendoza, L., 33
- Mentally retarded, labeling students as, 30, 92
- Mexican Americans, defined, xi
- Mexican students, intraethnic hostilities among, 111–114
- Mexican-American War, 31, 116, 197
- Mexicans: defined, xi; history of, 42–44; income and wealth of, 48, 49
- Mexico, as national origin of Latinas/os, 41, 42
- Michie, G., 7
- Military recruiters, 24
- Misra, J., 5
- Moll, L. C., 124
- Monzó, L. D., 122, 124, 215
- Moraga, C., 34, 51
- Moreno, R. P., 58, 61, 62, 81
- Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Aztlán (MEChA), 117, 141–144, 145, 218
- Moynihan, P., 32
- Multicultural education, 37
- Multiculturalism, in curriculum, 189–190, 196–202
- Muñoz, G., 11; biography of, 16; on educational support by mother, 79–80; on lack of financial assistance in college, 222; on parents' teachings, 67; visits to students' homes by, 212
- Murguía, E., 50
- Murray, C. E., 7, 172
- N
- Naples, N., 81
- A Nation at Risk* (National Commission on Excellence in Education), 38
- National Collaborative on Diversity in the Teaching Force, 7–8, 121, 122, 189
- National Commission on Excellence in Education, 38
- National Council on Measurement in Education, 176
- National identity, threats to, 37
- National origin, of Latinas/os, 41–42
- Native Americans, 151
- Neff, D., 124
- Nelson, G., 197
- Neoconservatism, 35–38
- Neoliberalism, 35, 36, 38, 152
- Nieto, S., 6, 7
- No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act: impact on teachers, 183–188, 234;

No Child Left Behind Act: (continued)
 and military recruiters, 24; resisting, 189–190; students pushed out of school due to, 179; testing at core of, 173–174. See also Testing
 Non-college-preparatory classes,
 Latinas/os in, 149–150, 151

O

Oakes, J., 35, 149, 150, 153, 154,
 159, 160, 162, 167, 170, 172,
 226, 228
 Ochoa, E. C., 44, 202
 Ochoa, G. L., 20–21, 33, 44, 61, 66,
 81, 92, 112, 113, 131, 132, 133,
 134, 165, 170, 197, 202, 208, 209,
 210, 214, 221
 Odden, A. R., 227
 Ogbu, J. U., 87
 Olsen, L., 46
 Omi, M., 32, 36
 Operation Wetback, 43
 Orellana, M. F., 132
 Orfield, G., 35, 50, 170
 Organizations, supportive, 117–118,
 141–144, 145, 218

P

Padilla, M., 165
 Páez, M. M., 42, 45
 Paley, V. G., 7
 Parents. See Latina/o parents
 Park, R., 32
 Parsons, T., 32
 Passerson, J. C., 61
 Pearl, A., 38
 Pedagogy, banking model of, 4–5
 Peer networks, and resisting marginalization, 113
 Pérez, E., 219
 Perez, L., 11; on anti-immigrant remarks of teacher, 135–137;
 content taught by, 189–190;
 on courses on Latina/o history and culture, 198; on expectations of students, 205; on influence of teachers, 123–124; on Latina/o vs.

 non-Latina/o teachers, 125
 Pérez Huber, L., 108
 Picus, L. O., 227
 Pineda, D., 109, 145
Plessy v. Ferguson, 225
 Policy changes, caution on, 190
 Portes, A., 216
 Positivist research methodologies,
 5–6
 Power-conflict theories, of educational attainment, 34–35
 Praxis test, 188
Priest, Serrano v., 226, 227
 Public schools. See Schools
 Puerto Ricans, 41, 48

Q

Quijada, P., 46, 47, 58

R

Race. See Ethnicity/race
 Racial identity, 50
 Racism: encountered at college, 117; reverse, 36; and skin color, 50–51
 Ramirez, R. R., 48, 50
 Research methodologies: new models of, 6; positivist, 5–6; storytelling and, 19–22; for this book, 10–13
 Resource disparities: between school districts, 137, 225–228; within schools, 167–170
 Respect, 100–102, 194
Respeto, 60, 100, 102
 Reverse racism, 36
 Rewarding students, for effort vs.
 ability, 171
 Robles, J., 182, 183
 Rodríguez, R., 43
Rodriguez, San Antonio Independent School District v., 225
 Rogers, J., 226, 228
 Role models: parents as, 78–79; teachers as, 118–119, 137
 Romero, G., 11, 197
 Romo, H. D., 127, 171, 172, 228

- Rosenthal, R., 139–140
 Rueda, R., 122, 124, 215
 Rumbaut, R. G., 216
 Rumberger, R., 26
- S
- Sadker, D. M., 228
 Sadker, M. P., 288
 Salazar, R., 64, 65
 Saldana, E., 11; on allocation of resources in schools, 168–169; on impact of tracking, 157–158; on testing for tracking, 159
San Antonio Independent School District v. Rodriguez, 225
 Schlesinger, A., 37
 School counselors: allocation of, 167; positive impact of, 125–126, 127, 155–156; reducing workload of, 144–145; steering Latina/o students into easier courses, 23–24
 School officials: importance of caring by, 108–109, 127; Spanish-speaking, 208–210
 Schools: collaborative approach to improving, 220–221; creating inclusive atmosphere at, 208–216; diversifying, 214–216; funding, 225–228; graduate, 18, 19, 108; multiple levels of change needed in, 144–146; reducing class size in, 144–145, 171, 207–208; segregation in, 29–30, 33, 50. See also College; Education
 Scientific management, 172
 Scribner, J. D., 60
 Segregation: California Supreme Court ruling against, 32–33; in public buildings, 33; school, 29–30, 33, 50. See also Tracking
 Segura, D. A., 35, 138, 150, 197, 205
 Self-confidence, building students', 193–196
Serrano v. Priest, 226, 227
 Shannon, S. M., 61, 208
 Shor, I., 82
 Shyness, of Latina teachers as children, 109, 123–124, 129, 138, 161, 198
 Sides, P., 228
 Skin color, 50–51
 Social networks: as form of support, 217–218; organizations as, 117–118, 141–144, 145, 218; significance of, 109, 145. See also Peer networks
 Socioeconomic class: of academic researchers, 39–40; and allocation of school resources, 169–170; diverse, of Latinas/os, 48–50; and financial aid for college, 221–224; and neoliberal economic policies, 37; and parent participation, 58; and school funding, 225–228; and teacher placement, 137; and tracking, 151–152, 156–157
 Sosa, V., 11; biography of, 15; on caring by parents, 219–220; family story of, 72–74; on impact of negative experience with teacher, 137–138; on missing graduate school, 18; on mother's love of learning, 77–78; on not being taught Spanish at home, 90–91, 93–94; on parents' educational expectations, 63; positive motivators for, 139; on students' self-perception with tracking, 160; teaching philosophy and techniques of, 74–77; on testing under NCLB, 177–178, 179, 187; on working while in college, 223–224
 Soto, G., 199
 Soto, L. D., 35, 93
 South Americans, 41, 48
 Sowell, T., 32
 Spanish language: children rejecting, 100–101, 131–132; discrimination for speaking, 90–92, 128–131; as foundation for teaching English, 46, 47; high school classes teaching, 129–130; Latinas/os not being taught, 90–94; raising children to speak, 66, 67; school officials speaking, 208–210; students entering school speaking, 47

Spanish language: (continued)

Stallworth, J., 57

Stanton-Salazar, R. D., 91, 109

Storytelling, 19–22

Student-centered classrooms, 207

Students: building self-confidence of, 193–196; future for, without high school degrees, 235–236; learning capability of, 204–205; teachers' favoring, 126–127, 206; teaching strategies for valuing knowledge of, 203–204. See also Latina/o students

Suárez-Orozco, M. M., 42, 45

Subtractive schooling, 233

T

Tatum, B. D., 128

Teacher education programs: misperceptions about bilingual education in, 93, 101; NCLB's impact on, 186–188, 189, 236

Teachers: anti-immigrant remarks by, 135–137; blaming, 8–9, 38; caring by, 115–116, 127, 205; diversity of, 7–8, 120–122, 214–216; effective, 191–192; "highly qualified", under NCLB, 186–188, 189, 234; impact of testing on, 183–188, 234; lack of opportunity for discussion among, 18; language discrimination by, 128–131; Latina/o parents as, 64–77; limited effect of individual, 145–146; negative experience with, 137–138; "outsider within" perspective of, 155; placement of, 137; positive impact of, 120–122, 124, 127, 139, 140; as role models, 118–119, 137; Spanish-speaking, 123–124, 209–210. See also Latina/o teachers

"Teacher's pet," 126–127, 206

Teaching assistants, 124

Teaching strategies: to encourage students as change agents, 202–203; knowing and caring about students as, 205; for valuing student knowledge, 203–204

Teaching styles, 124–125, 206–208

Telles, E., 50

Testing, 173–190; as core of NCLB, 173–174; defining students and schools on basis of, 229; educational disparity increased by, 182–183; English language knowledge needed for, 176; and identity, 217; impact on students, 174–179; impact on teachers, 183–188, 234; impact on teaching, 180–182; of new teachers, 186–188, 189, 236; for track placement, 158–159

Texas, results of testing-centered education policy in, 182–183

Thorton Dill, B., 5, 39

Torres, E. E., 5

Tracking, 149–172; eliminating, 170–172, 228–229; and ethnicity/race, 151–152, 154, 160–167, 195; ideologies underlying, 152, 153, 154, 171, 172; impact of selection process in, 155–160; origin of, 153; and resource allocation, 167–170; and socioeconomic class, 151–152, 156–157; students' comments on experience with, 149–150, 151; students' self-perceptions with labeling for, 160

Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, 92

U

Under the Feet of Jesus (Viramontes), 108

V

Valdés, G., 58, 59, 67, 102, 104, 193

Valencia, R. R., 62

Valenzuela, A., 35, 46, 51, 52, 59, 67, 87, 92, 105, 112, 113, 131, 162, 165, 167, 172, 181, 182, 193, 205, 207, 233

Values: of family vs. individualism, 99–104; parental teaching of, 66–67

Vasquez, A., 11; biography of, 17; on blaming teachers, 8–9; on desire to teach, 122; on effective teachers, 191–192; on expectations of family vs. schooling, 94–105; on lack of financial assistance in college, 223; on positive impact of teachers, 120–122, 140

Vasquez, M., 26, 222

Vigil, J. D., 92

Villa, M., 11; on educational support by mother, 79; on parents' educational expectations, 62–63; on parents' teachings, 64–65; on students' ability to learn, 204

Villarreal, D., 12, 82, 210

Villenas, S., 59, 67

Violence: due to tensions between ethnic groups, 166; Mexican immigrant children resorting to, 114

Viramontes, H. M., 107, 108

Vocational courses, 24

W

War of the North American Invasion.
See Mexican-American War

Wealth gap, 49

Weber Cannon, L., 5, 39

Weber, D. J., 31

Westminster, Mendez v., 33

Wheelock, A., 172

White students: academic profiling of, 163; benefits of multicultural curriculum for, 200–201; completion of courses necessary for college entry by, 151; high school graduation rate for, 25

Williams, D. L., 57

Williams, J., 226, 227

Winant, H., 32, 36

Wood, G., 174, 181

Y

Young, J., 11; on placement of “good teachers,” 137; on resentment between ethnic groups, 165; on resources allocated for IB program, 168, 169

Yun, J. T., 50

Z

Zavala, R., 12

