
Index

- Accountability (after-school programs), 77
- Acculturation issues, 35–36
- Adolescence: development changes/challenges during late, 13–25; technological skill development during, 41–49
- Adolescents: acculturation issues and, 35–36; after-school programs for, 67–78, 111–112, 119–120, 123; community services for, 106–114; social action participation by, 81–90. See also Older youth
- After School Achievement Program (ASAP) [Houston], 114
- After School Matters (ASM), 68–69, 70, 71, 73, 74, 111–112, 119
- After School Matters (ASM) apprenticeship model, 71
- After School Safety and Education for Teens (AASETs), 68, 70
- After-school initiatives: After School Matters (ASM), 68–69, 70, 71, 73, 74, 111–112, 119; After School Safety and Education for Teens (AASETs), 68, 70; The After-School Corporation (TASCS), 69, 70, 71, 119, 123, 124
- After-school programs: examining initiatives for, 68–71; instructors of, 74–75; lessons learned from, 72–74; moving from engagement to mastery, 74; partnerships required for successful outcomes, 75–76; recommendations for policymakers and funders of, 76–78; relevance of, 73–74; shortage of, 67–68; understanding needs of youth, 108–109. See also Community services; Out-of-school-time
- Alarcon, E., 32
- Alfeld, C., 17
- Arches, J., 10, 81, 90
- At-risk teens: after-school programs and identification of, 76; cultural tailoring levels and, 31–36; graduation rates and, 91; hardships faced by, 29–30; substance abuse and prevention issues for, 30–31; technology as learning tool for, 46–47. See also Older youth; Youth of color
- Authoritative parenting styles, cultural differences in, 35
- Barr, S., 9, 67, 79
- Baumert, J., 17
- Big Brother Big Sisters, 93
- Birmingham, J., 9, 67, 79
- Blake, S. M., 36
- Bloomberg, M., 110, 111
- Brown, D. E., 10, 91, 104
- California Department of Education, 123
- Castro, F. G., 32
- Center for Employment Training, 93
- Center for Labor Market Studies (Northeastern University), 91
- Central Park East Secondary School, 57
- Centre for Social Action (CSA), 84–85
- Chapin Hall Center for Children (University of Chicago), 70
- Child Care Development Block Grant, 123
- Coleman, M. B., 112
- Coley, R., 45
- College transition issues, 17–19
- Columbus Youth Commission (CYC), 112–113
- Community: importance of supporting older youth, 106–107; older youth and challenges of, 105–106
- Community Development Agency (NYC), 110

- Community Programs to Promote Youth Development* (NRC), 112
- Community services: adequate funding for sustainability of, 113–114; elements of innovative, 108–114; expanded to older youth, 107–108; long-term benefits to older youth, 106–107. See also After-school programs
- Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA), 92
- Computer technology: digital divide and, 44–45; gender differences in use of Internet and, 42–44; skills development in, 45–49
- Connell, J. P., 8, 53, 66
- Continuity of care (FTF feature), 54–58
- Cradler, J., 45
- CSA (Centre for Social Action), 84–85
- Cultural differences: acculturation issues of, 35–36; family child-rearing norms and, 35
- Cultural tailoring: deep level of, 33–36; description and benefits of, 32; surface level of, 31–33
- “Culture of poverty,” 30
- Daley, M., 112
- Daley, R. M., 109, 111–112
- Department of Youth Community Development (DYCD) [NYC], 110–111
- Department of Youth Services (NYC), 110
- Digital divide, 44
- Diverse learning opportunities: after-school program access to, 78; as FTF feature, 60
- Documentary Workshop (Educational Video Center), 120–121
- D’Onofrio, C. N., 31
- Eccles, J. S., 7, 13, 14, 15, 17, 25
- Education: after-school programs facilitating, 67–78, 111–112; standards-based, 59–60, 98–99, 112–113; technology as part of coherent approach to, 47. See also Learning
- Educational reform: adult-student relationship assumption of, 54–55; after-school programs, 67–78; creating policies supporting older youth, 117–128; First Things First (FTF) framework for, 53–54. See also Schools
- Educational Video Center (NYC), 120–121
- Effective Youth Development Plan (Washington, D.C.), 110
- Engel, P., 45
- Equipped for the Future Workforce Readiness Credential, 122
- Erikson, E., 14
- Erikson Institute, 71
- Ethnic differences. See Racial/ethnic differences
- Family advocate system strategy, 61–63
- Family relationships, 20–21
- Ferber, T., 11, 117, 129
- First Things First (FTF): continuity of care feature of, 54–58; described, 9; diverse learning opportunities feature of, 60; family advocate system strategy used in, 61–63; as framework for school reform, 53–54; framework for student outcomes, 54, 55*fig*; increased instructional time feature of, 54–57, 58–59; instructional improvement goals of, 63–64; seven critical features listed, 56*e*; small learning communities (SLCs) strategy used in, 54, 61, 62, 64; standards feature of, 59–60. See also Institute for Research and Reform in Education (IRRE)
- Fleming, J., 10, 81, 90
- Fornal, J., 9, 67, 79
- Freire, P., 84
- Friendships: after-school program development of, 71, 72–73; during late adolescence, 21–22
- Frye, B. A., 34
- Gaines, E., 11, 117, 129
- Gallery 37 (Chicago), 69
- Gender differences: in computer/Internet use, 42–44; implications for developing technological skills, 45–46

- Gender-neutral software, 44
 General equivalency diploma (GED), 96, 97
 Giuliani, R., 110
 Gloria, A. M., 34
 Goldenberg, E. P., 47
 Goldstein, M. J., 7, 29, 40
 Goodenow, C., 36
 Gootman, J. A., 14, 15, 25
 Graduation. See School graduation
- Hall, G., 8, 41
 Halpern, R., 71
 Harbor Point Community Research Unit (HPCRUI), 88–89
 Health Initiative Collaborative: Community University Partnership (HIC CUP), 87–89
 Hecht, 36
 High school. See Schools
 Hoffman, D. L., 45
 Houston's After School Achievement Program (ASAP), 114
- Immigrant students, 35–36, 37
 Increased instructional time (FTF feature), 54–57, 58–59
 Indian culture, 34
 Institute for Research and Reform in Education (IRRE), 53–54, 62, 64. See also First Things First (FTF)
 Instruction strategies: diverse learning, 60, 78; First Things First (FTF) approach to, 54, 61–64. See also Learning
 Internet: developing skills in use of, 45–49; digital divide in use of, 44–45; gender differences in use of, 42–44. See also Web sites
- Job Corps, 93
 Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA), 92–93
- Klein, R., 9, 67, 79
 Klem, A. M., 8, 53, 66
 Köller, O., 17
 Kugler, M. R., 48
- Late adolescence: achievement milestones during, 16–20; cognitive development during, 15–16; community challenges related to, 105–114; developmental changes during, 13–14; implications of developmental challenges during, 23–25; physical and biological changes during, 15; social relationships during, 20–22; unique challenges of, 14–16
- Latino culture, 34
 Learning: after-school programs facilitating, 67–78, 111–112; at-risk teens and technology used for, 46–47; opportunities for diverse, 60, 78; small learning communities (SLCs) to facilitate, 54, 61, 62, 64; technology as part of coherent education approach to, 47. See also Education; Instruction strategies
- Ledsky, R., 36
 Levin, H., 106
 Levy, F., 23
Listening to Learn (DfES) [UK], 82
 Living skills development, 71
 Louisiana Children's Cabinet, 126
 Lupart, J., 43
- McLaughlin, M., 74
 Maine's Legislative Youth Advisory Council, 127
 Maryland's Joint Committee on Children, Youth and Families, 126
 Meier, D., 57, 58
 Minority students: cultural tailoring levels and, 31–36; digital divide and, 44; hardships faced by urban, 29–30; substance abuse and prevention issues for, 30–31
- Moore, M., 128
 Murnane, R. J., 23
- National Association of Manufacturing, 122
 National League of Cities' Council on Youth, Education, and Families, 111–112
 National Longitudinal Study of Adolescent Health, 22

- National Research Council, 112
 National Urban League, 122
 National Youth Employment Coalition (NYEC), 10–11, 94, 96, 98
 New Deal Braunstone (UK), 85–87
 New Deal for Communities (NDC) [UK], 85
 New Mexico Alliance, 127
 New York Regents (high school exit) exams, 70
 Noguera, P. A., 7, 29, 40
 Norris, C., 46
 Novak, T. P., 45
 NYC Department of Youth and Community Development (DYCD), 110–111
 NYEC EDNet, 102
 NYEC (National Youth Employment Coalition), 10–11, 94, 96, 98
- O'Donnell, L., 36
 Older youth: community challenges regarding, 105–106; expanding community services to, 107–108; importance of community support of, 106–107; public policies supporting, 117–128; school-to-work transition of, 19–20, 41–49, 91–102. See also Adolescents; At-risk teens
 Online Index to Quality Practices, 101
 Oregon's PASS program, 122
 Orlandi, M. A., 34
 Otero-Sabogal, R., 31
 Ouellette, M., 11, 105, 115
 Out-of-school-time: alternative pathways to credentials through, 121–122; financial incentives for youth, 118–120; funding issues of, 123–124; maximizing for older youth, 118–124; participation requirements, 122–123; school credit for, 120–121. See also After-school programs
- Partnership for 21st Century Skills, 41–42
 Pasick, R. J., 31
 PASS program (Oregon), 122
- Peer relationships: after-school program development of, 71, 72–73; during late adolescence, 21–22
 PEPNet Awardee Profiles, 101
PEPNet Guide to Quality Standards for Youth Programs: (PEPNet), 100–101
 PEPNet Improvement Action Planning Tool, 102
 PEPNet (Promising and Effective Practices Network): described, 10–11, 94; National Youth Employment Coalition (NYEC) program of, 10–11, 94, 96, 98; PEPNet Standards guide of, 94–95
 PEPNet Quality Self Assessment Tool, 101–102
 PEPNet Results Assessment Tool, 102
 Peregoy, J. J., 34
 Philadelphia Youth Network (PYN), 124
 Piha, S., 9, 67, 79
 Pinkard, N., 43, 44
 Piran, N., 34
 Policy Studies Associates, 70
 Powley, S., 47
 Prout, A., 82
 Public policy: maximizing out-of-school-time for older youth, 118–124; national focus on youth and, 117–118; new ideas for, 127–128; principles for effective youth, 125–127
 Public/Private Ventures, 46
- Quantum Opportunities Program, 93
- Rabasca, 43
 Racial/ethnic differences: digital divide and, 44–45; graduation rates and, 91; implications for developing technological skills, 45–46; in substance abuse, 36–37
 Regents (New York high school exit) exams, 70
 Romantic partnerships, 22
- San Francisco Beacon Centers, 74
 SCANS (Secretary's Commission on Achieving Necessary Skills), 98

- Schnabel, K. U., 17
- School graduation: after-school programs focus on, 76; after-school programs research on outcomes of, 70; general equivalency diploma (GED) alternative to, 96, 97; out-of-school programs facilitating, 120–122; Urban Institute research on rates of, 91–92
- School-to-work transition: as late adolescent milestone, 19–20; technological skill development as part of, 41–49; workforce development to facilitate, 91–102
- Schools: after-school programs and increased attendance in, 70; high-school to college transition, 17–19; as late adolescent milestone, 16–17; out-of-school programs giving school credit, 120–122. See also Educational reform
- Service and Conservation Corps, 93
- SES (socioeconomic-status): digital divide and, 44–45; transition to college and impact of, 18–19
- Sexual relations, 22
- Small learning communities (SLCs), 54, 61, 62, 64
- Social action participation: Centre for Social Action (CSA) and, 84–85; commitment to increasing young people and, 82–83; continuing challenge of including youth in, 89–90; Health Initiative Collaborative: Community University Partnership (HIC CUP), 87–89; New Deal for Communities (NDC) [UK], 85–87
- Social change theory, 84
- Social relationships: after-school program development of, 71, 72–73; during late adolescence, 20–22
- Some Thing Do Make a Difference* research, 93
- Standards-based education: community programs which include youth voice and, 112–113; as FTF feature, 59–60; youth workforce development and, 98–99
- Street, T., 113
- Student support services: after-school programs, 67–78, 108–109; expanding by communities, 105–114; youth workforce development, 99
- Students: substance abuse trends among immigrant and U.S. born, 35–36, 37; technological skill development in, 41–49. See also Teachers
- Substance abuse: acculturation impact on, 35–36; ethnic/racial differences in adolescent, 36–37; research findings on adolescent, 36–37; as urban poor issue, 30–31
- Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, 35
- Substance abuse prevention programs: cultural tailoring strategy applied to, 31–36; incorporating Latino values into, 34; research on urban youth and, 30–31
- Support services. See Student support services
- TASC's Scholars and Mentors program, 69
- TASCs (The After-School Corporation), 69, 70, 71, 119, 123, 124
- Teachers: after-school program, 74–75; after-school program partnerships with, 75–76. See also Students
- Technological skills: digital divide and, 44–45; gender differences in computer/Internet use and, 42–44, 45–46; increasing demands for, 41–42; integrating into youth development experiences, 48–49; program and instruction design for developing, 45–46; racial differences in computer/Internet use and, 44–46
- Technology: coherent education approach and use of, 47; as learning tool for at-risk teens, 46–47
- Thakur, M. B., 10, 91, 104
- Transition to college, 17–19
- 21st Century Community Learning Center (21st CCLC), 120, 123, 124

- Ungemack, J. A., 32
- United Kingdom (UK): continuing challenge of youth participation in, 89–90; Department for Education and Skills (DfES) of, 82; New Deal Braunstone of, 85–87; youth social action participation in, 82–83
- United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC), 81, 83
- United States: Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) of, 92; continuing challenge of youth participation in, 89–90; Health Initiative Collaborative: Community University Partnership (HIC CUP) of, 87–89; Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA) of, 92–93; Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (WIA) of, 93–94, 119, 124; youth social action participation in, 82–83
- Urban Institute, 91
- Urban youth: cultural tailoring levels and, 31–36; hardships faced by, 29–30; substance abuse and prevention issues for, 30–31
- U.S. Chamber of Commerce, 122
- U.S.-born students, 35–36, 37
- Velez, Cs. N., 32
- Web sites: First Things First (FTF), 54; WestEd, 70; youth workforce development and use of, 99. See also Internet
- WestEd, 70
- Williams, A. A., 109, 110
- Wilson-Ahlstrom, A., 11, 117, 129
- Wong, O.N.M., 34
- Workforce: development to facilitate entrance into, 91–102; as late adolescent milestone, 19–20; technological skill development to facilitate, 41–49
- Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (WIA), 93–94, 119, 124
- Yegelski, R. P., 47
- Yohalem, N., 11, 117, 129
- Youth action participation. See Social action participation
- Youth of color: cultural tailoring levels and, 31–36; hardships faced by urban, 29–30; substance abuse and prevention issues for, 30–31. See also At-risk teens
- Youth public policy: maximizing out-of-school-time for older youth, 118–124; national focus on, 117–118; new ideas for, 127–128; principles for effective youth, 125–127
- Youth workforce development: additional resources on, 100–102; federal investments in, 92–94; as late adolescent milestone, 19–20; looking forward to, 100; opportunities, supports, and services in, 97–100; promising/effective practices of, 94–97; technological skill development as part of, 41–49
- Youth workforce development programs: approach taken by effective, 95–96; evidence of success of, 97; managing for quality, 95; National Youth Employment Coalition (NYEC), 10–11, 94, 96, 98; youth competencies developed through, 96–97
- Zarrett, N., 7, 13