

Index

A

ADD (Attention Deficit Disorder), 13
“Adequate Yearly Progress,” 10
ADHD (Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder), 13
Albers, P., 87
Amanda (student): brainstorming process used by, 80–81; collage story created by, 61*fig*–62
Anderson, R. C., 12
Anderson, R. J., 10
Andrew (student), 101, 176, 183
Angeline (student), 45, 53
Animal Thesaurus, 80
Art materials: collage as, 57–58, 60–62; coordinating paper size to Artists Frame size, 156; crayon resist painting, 57–60; importance and purposes of quality, 56–57, 65–66; Introduction to Watercolors mini-lesson on, 157–161; rich language inspired by quality, 66–67; supporting continued story line development, 62–65; See also Painting
Artists Frame: arranging Artists Chair directly across from, 162; coordinating paper size to size of, 156; displayed during Group Share, 112, 119, 166; introduction to, 98–99
Artists/Writers Celebrations, 52; See also Honoring/celebrating Artists/Writers Chair, 99, 113, 162
Artists/Writers Workshop model: author experiences leading to development of, 28–30; cycling through in two strands when using, 118–119; description and steps in, 30–33; DVD overview of, 99, 118, 146, 155; expanding on best practices of, 37–38; first-grade student’s explanation of, 36–37; lifeline function of, 38–41; research studies on outcomes of, 41; transmediation as driving the, 33–37; why it results in reading improvement, 51–54; See also Learning

Artists/Writers Workshop model steps: 1: Literature Share/Discussion, 31–32, 107–108, 110; 2: Modeling Session, 32, 108, 110–111; 3: Work Session, 32, 108, 111–112; 4: Group Share, 32, 108, 112–116; See also specific steps
Artists/Writers Workshop Overview, 99, 118, 146, 155
Artists/Writers Workshop practices: art materials used in, 56–67; hoosing medium for, 68–69; everyone is an artist assumption of, 67–68; honoring/celebrating student work, 98–101; picture books and Image-Making, 47–54; planning, implementing, and assessing lessons, 103–124; revision/editing, 91–98; thinking in complementary strands as, 118–119; turning pictures into words, 71–88
Assessment: checklists used for, 120, 122–123; daily mini-lesson recording sheet, 121*fig*; planning process as guiding, 119–120; self-assessment component of, 123–124

B

Ball, L., 8, 79, 89, 90, 96–97
Bandura, A., 22, 24
Bell, N., 50, 52
Berger, B., 163, 170
Berghoff, B., 33
Bertrain, V., 53
The Best Winter of All (Noami’s picture book), 76
“Book walks,” 51
Borgmann, C. B., 33
Brainstorming sheets: description of, 59, 80–81; DVD model of, 82; example of completed, 82*fig*; example of lead sentence on, 84*fig*; how to use, 81–85; reflecting on the, 85–86; sample first-grade brainstorming list, 178–179; second grade and up list, 179–181
Brautigam, N., 76

Brudnak, K., 11, 28, 56
 Buccat, L., 53–54

C

Caine, G., 20, 22, 23, 41
 Caine, R. N., 20, 22, 23, 41
 Caldecott Award-winning books, 100
 Carle, E., 28, 49, 60
 Celebrating. See Honoring/celebrating
 The Center for the Advancement of Art-Based Literacy Web site, 69
 Changes in perspective: definition of, 135; film manipulation and, 139–140; Owl Moon illustrations creating, 135–139*fig*, 147; as visual tool, 145; Wild Horse Winter illustrations creating, 140–143*fig*, 147
 Checklists (lesson planning), 120, 122–123
 Chelsea (student), 110, 124, 125, 155
Children as Authors, Children as Illustrators: The Whole Story (video), 29
 Chris (student), 36–37
 Churchill, W., 8
 Clark, A., 81
 Classrooms. See Primary classrooms
 Cleaveland, L., 38
 Collages: beauty of Silvio's, 185–186; constructing picture books using, 57–58; covers of Amanda's collage story, 61*fig*–62; hand-painted textured papers to create, 60–62, 69; "Ice Cracker," 61; Image-Making Within the Writing Process model used for, 53–54, 58; Jamie's story on creating a, 33–34, 35*fig*; teaching benefits of using, 69; units of study inclusion of, 105; See also Picture books
 Collins, P. L., 67, 157
 Color: basics of using, 146; modeling use of, 173–175; Owl Moon use of, 146; as visual tool, 145; using watercolor, 164–165; Wild Horse Winter use of, 143–146
 Color coding activity, 94–96
 Complete Crayon Resist Lesson (DVD), 58–60, 174
 Comprehension strategies: "book walks" as, 51; "mental pictures" as, 50; See also Meaning
 Connor (student), 91
 Cooper, M., 41
 Cooper (student), 167

Cowan, K., 87

Craft Lessons (Fletcher and Portalupi), 50

Crayon resist painting: picture book construction using, 57–60; Picturing Writing model used for, 58; teaching benefits of using, 68–69

D

Daily lessons: assessment of, 119–124; checklists for planning, 120, 122–123; complementary strands of teaching during, 118–119; step 1: Literature Share/Discussion, 31–32, 107–108, 110; step 2: Modeling Session, 32, 108, 110–111; step 3: Work Session, 32, 108, 111–112; step 4: Group Share, 32, 108, 112–116; See also specific steps; Units of study
 Daily mini-lessons: Introduction to Watercolors, 156–162; Painting Sunset: Introducing Crayon Resist, 58–60, 169–176; Painting Twilight, 163–167; recording sheet for, 121*fig*; Writing to Sunset, 176–182; Writing to Twilight, 167–169
 David (story), 3–5, 58
 Deasey, R. J., 41
 dePaola, T., 170
 Devin (student), 60
 Dillon (student), 169
 Drama: pictures establishing mood and, 130; three visual tools combined to create, 145–146; Wild Horse Winter illustrations creating, 142*fig*–143*fig*; Wild Horse Winter use of color/texture to create, 143–146; words conveying sense of purpose and, 151, 153
 Dry paper watercolor demonstration, 158–159
 Dual-language approach: author's personal experience with, 27–30; pictures and words blended together for, 20–22; redefining pictures as language for learning in, 25–27; theoretical background of, 22–25
 DVD: Artists Frame as seen on, 98–99, 112, 119, 156, 166; Artists/Writers Workshop Overview on the, 99, 118, 146, 155; brainstorming sheet modeled on the, 82; Complete Crayon Resist Lesson on, 58–60, 174; demonstration lessons on, 67; "happy accidents" referred to in, 116; Introduction to Watercolor on Wet Paper lesson on, 164; modeling coloring in the, 173; overview of the, 1–2; Secret Dawn mini-lesson in, 146; tissue clouds modeled on the, 59–60;

unit of study planning facilitated by, 106–108
Dyslexia, 8–9

E

Edison, T., 8, 9
Editing, 96–97; See also Revision
Educational system: hidden verbal bias in, 6–8, 9–10; historic failures of, 8–9, 17; importance of recognizing learning styles in, 16–17; “net of exclusion” created in, 14; new theories reframing the, 11–14; See also Schools
Einstein, A., 8, 8–9
Eisner, E. W., 41
Ellen (student), 92
Envisioning Writing (Olson), 7–8
Establishing mood picture, 130

F

Fern (teacher), 183–184
Fiona (student), 163
First-grade brainstorming list, 178–179
“Five-cent words,” 78
Fletcher, R., 38, 50, 107, 167, 177
“Fourth-grade slump,” 12*fig*
Frames of Mind: The Theory of Multiple Intelligences (Gardner), 22
Freed, J., 13, 14

G

Gardner, H., 8, 13, 22
Gardner’s multiple intelligences theory, 8, 11
Garrett (student), 74, 75*fig*, 86
Gibbon, G., 150, 151
Gold seals, 100–101
Grandfather Twilight (Berger), 163, 170
Graves, D., 37
Grayson (student), 18, 99
Greg (student), 92–94
Group Share: Artists Frame displayed during, 112, 119, 166; complementary strands of teaching during, 119; as daily lesson
component, 108; description of/using the,
32, 112–113; directions and procedures for,
113–116; “happy accidents” and “learning experiences” through, 116–117; importance of holding regular, 117; Introduction to Watercolors mini-lesson use of, 161–162;

Painting Sunset: Introducing Crayon Resist mini-lesson use of, 175–176; Painting Twilight mini-lesson use of, 166–167; selecting students to participate in, 113; Writing to Sunset mini-lesson use of, 182; Writing to Twilight mini-lesson use of, 169

H

Haiku-like poem, 60, 168, 169
Hailee (student), 90
Hall, D., 170
Hand-painted textured papers: advantages of using, 69; creating collages using, 60–62
Hannah (student), 55
“Happy accidents,” 116
Hiebert, E. H., 12
Honda T., 126, 150
Honoring/celebrating: Artists Frame for, 98–99, 112, 119, 156, 162; Artists/Writers Chair for,
99, 113, 162; gold seals for everyone’s work,
100–101; publishing student work with care,
99–100; See also Artists/Writers Celebrations
“How Animals Move” word bank, 79–80
Howard, M.A.D., 10

I

I Am an Artist (Collins), 67, 157
“Ice Crackler” (student collage), 61
Image-Making model: description of, 58;
hand-painted textured papers origin of, 61;
integrated unit of study curriculum in, 105;
student engagement in, 53–54
In a Spring Garden (Lewis), 168
In the Mind’s Eye (West), 8
Introduction to Watercolor on Wet Paper
(DVD), 164
Introduction to Watercolors (mini-lesson),
156–162

J

Jamie (student): collage experience of, 33–34;
first two pages of story by, 35*fig*
Jared (student): on the “magic trick” of creating books, 90; on “making magic” with his story,
77, 89; The Pup’s Rescue by, 147–153

K

Kapololu, C., 81
 Kate (teacher), 184
 Katelyn (student), 90
 Kelly, F. J., 10
 Kelsea (student): cover of story by, 62–63*fig*;
 last picture in book by, 64*fig*; Sunset Dream
 written by, 62–65
 Kelsey (student), 90

L

Language: parallels between picture and word, 26–27; pictures and words as equal, 25–26;
 quality art materials that inspire rich, 66–67;
See also Pictures; Words
 Lead sentences, 134–135
 Learning: dual-language approach to, 20–30; importance of recognizing different ways of,
 16–17; recognizing different ways of, 6–8;
 redefining pictures as language for, 25–27;
 self-efficacy beliefs and impact on, 24–25;
 tracking through the primary/middle school years, 13*t*; zone of proximal development and, 23–24; See also Artists/writers Workshop model; Students; Verbal learners; Visual learners
 “Learning experiences,” 116, 117
Learning Magazine, 11
The Legend of the Indian Paintbrush (dePaola), 170–172
 Lessons. See Daily lessons; Units of study
 Lewis, R., 168
 Literature Share/Discussion: complementary strands of teaching during, 118–119; as daily lesson component, 108; description of/using the, 31–32, 110; example of preparing for, 107–108; Introduction to Watercolors
 mini-lesson use of, 157; Painting Sunset:
 Introducing Crayon Resist mini-lesson use of,
 170–172; Painting Twilight mini-lesson use of, 163–164; Writing to Sunset mini-lesson use of, 177; Writing to Twilight mini-lesson use of, 168
 Lloyd, D. N., 10
 Locker, T., 49
 Luenn, N., 177

M

“The magic trick,” 89–90
Making Connections: Teaching and the Human Brain (Caine and Caine), 23
 Marcus, L., 125
 Mark (student), 39–40*fig*
 Marzollo, J., 170
 McClanahan, R., 20
 McGuire, C., 10
 McPartland, J. M., 13
 Meaning: “mental pictures” root of, 50; sign systems used to create/share, 33; See also Comprehension strategies
 Medium: collage as, 57–58, 60–62; crayon resist painting as, 57–60; selecting the correct, 68–69
 Melanie (student), 59
 Melissa (student), 99, 103
 “Mental pictures,” 50
 Mentor texts: description and use of, 38; using picture books as, 46–50
 Merrilee (student), 90
 Mini-lessons. See Daily mini-lessons
 Modeling Sessions: complementary strands of teaching during, 118; as daily lesson
 component, 108; description of/using the,
 32, 110–111; Introduction to Watercolors
 mini-lesson use of, 157–161; Painting Sunset:
 Introducing Crayon Resist mini-lesson use of,
 172–175; Painting Twilight mini-lesson use of, 164–165; Writing to Sunset mini-lesson use of, 177–181; Writing to Twilight mini-lesson
 use of, 168–169
 Mood establishment, 130
Mother Earth (Luenn), 177
 Motivation, 53–54
 Multiple intelligences theory, 8, 11

N

“Net of exclusion,” 14
 Nicole (student), 156
 No Child Left Behind, 10, 11, 41
 Naomi (student), 76

O

Olshansky, B., 61, 167, 170, 177
 Olson, J. L., 7–8, 10

Oral rehearsal: crafting your questions for a purpose, 77; by drawing out details through questioning, 74–76; learning benefits of, 73–74; peer conferences and small group shares for, 77

Owl Moon (Yolen): analyzing the lead sentences of, 134–135; changing perspectives used in, 135–139, 147; close-up perspective and shift to “visual first person,” 138*fig*; color used in, 146; cover picture and title of, 127*fig*–128; dedication page of, 128–130; as example of words and pictures marriage, 126; father and child walking toward gate (and the reader) in, 136*fig*; final illustration in, 139*fig*; fourth illustration drawing the reader into story, 137*fig*; lessons learned from, 150, 151; literacy learning through use of, 51; setting picture (or lead picture), 130–133; title page of, 128, 129*fig*
The Oxcart Man (Hall), 170

P

Painting: crayon resist, 57–60; demonstrations of watercolor, 158–161; parallels between art of writing and, 20; two complementary languages used in, 20–21, 25–27; word, 20–21, 25–27; See also Art materials; Pictures

Painting Sunset: Introducing Crayon Resist (mini-lesson), 58–60, 169–176

Painting Twilight (mini-lesson), 163–167

Paper-texturing techniques, 60–62

Parent volunteers, 97

Parks, M., 97

Parr, C., 33

Parsons, L., 13

Peer conferences, 77

Perspective: basics of, 147; creating changes in, 135–140, 147; as visual tool, 145–146

Peter (student), 45–46, 52

Picture books: characteristics of quality, 126; color, texture, and perspective of, 146–147; considering the job of the words in the, 48–49; coordinating paper size to Artists Frame size, 156; dialogue between images and words in, 125; Owl Moon (Yolen), 51, 126–139*fig*; picturing process of telling a story in, 49–50; selecting for older students, 50–51; Wild Horse Winter (Honda), 126, 140–146; See also Collages

Picture books (student created): art materials used for, 56–69; beauty of Silvio’s, 185–186; honoring and celebrating the, 98–101; publishing, 97–98, 99–100; The Pup’s Rescue (Jared), 147–153; reading improvement through creation of, 51–54; reading the pictures/illustrations of, 47–48; revision and editing of, 91–98; Sarena and the Beautiful Skies (Amanda), 61*fig*–62; selecting themes for pages in, 105; Someone Special (Jamie), 33–34, 35*fig*; student engagement in Image-Making, 53–54; Sunset Dream (Kelsea), 62–65; typing the stories used in, 97; weaving pictures into words through the, 71–88; See also Students

Pictures: created before writing, 71–72; creating a sense of depth, 130–133; as equal and parallel to words, 25–27; establishing mood through, 130; insight for teachers on student created, 72–73; objects nearby/farther away, 133; oral rehearsal or reading the, 73–78; reading setting information through, 130, 132; reading the, 47–48; redefined as language for learning, 25–27; “rehearsal drawings,” 56; story told through both the words and, 49; telling a story function of, 22; universal language of, 21–22; visual function of creating, 19–20; See also Language; Painting

Picturing Writing model, 58

Portalupi, J., 38, 50

Primary classrooms: “fourth-grade slump”

in, 12*fig*; hidden verbal bias in, 6–8, 9–10; how students learn through the grades in, 13*t*; learning strengths in the, 12*fig*; parent volunteers in, 97; See also Schools; Teachers

Publishing student work: honoring students by, 99–100; preparations for, 97–98

The Pup’s Rescue (Jared’s book): cover picture for, 148*fig*–149; lead picture of, 149; lead sentences of, 149–150; picture depicting the story problem in, 150; solution and ending picture in, 151–152*fig*; writing to the problem in, 151; writing to the solution/ending of, 152–153

Q

Questioning: crafting setting, 77; drawing out description through, 74–76; Quick as a Cricket (Wood), 177

R

Rafferty, S., 52
 Readers: definition of, 126; setting information for, 130, 132; visual tools to draw in the, 133
 Reading improvement: picture books strategy used for, 47–51; why Artists/Writers Workshop model results in, 51–54
 Reading the picture (oral rehearsal), 73–78
 “Rehearsal drawings” practice, 56, 64–65
 Revision: Artists/Writers Workshop approach to, 91–94; color coding activity for, 94–96; emotions related to, 91; See also Editing Right-Brained Children in a Left-Brained World (Freed), 13
 Right-brain/left-brain dichotomy, 20–21
 Routman, R., 15
 Ryan (student), 101
 Rynerson, B., 28

S

Sarena and the Beautiful Skies (Amanda’s book), 61fig–62
 Savannah (student), 89
 Schoenherr, J., 51, 126, 129–130, 132, 133, 134, 135–138, 141, 150
 Schools: historic failures of, 8–9, 17; No Child Left Behind mandates for, 10, 11, 41; See also Educational system; Primary classrooms
 Scott, J. A., 12
 Second grade and up brainstorming list, 179–181
Secret Dawn mini-lesson, 146
 Self-assessment, 123–124
 Self-efficacy beliefs, 24–25
 Sense of depth, 132–133
 Serena (student), 71, 85
 Setting information picture, 130, 132
 Setting questions, 77
 Siegel, M., 33
 Sign systems, 33
 “Silver dollar words,” 52, 78–79
 Silvio (student), 185–186
 Slavin, R. E., 13
 Small group shares, 77
Someone Special (Jamie’s collage story), 33–34, 35fig
 Special education students: ADD and ADHD, 13; Artists/Writers Workshop outcomes for, 41, 51

Sperry, R., 20

Steven (student), 54, 85

Story: art materials supporting continued line development of, 62–65; function of pictures in telling the, 22; picturing process of telling the, 49–50; words and pictures both used to tell the, 49

Student motivation, 53–54

Student narrations: Amanda, 62; Andrew, 101, 176, 183; Angeline, 53; Chelsea, 110, 124, 125, 155; Connor, 91; Cooper, 167; David, 3–5, 58; Dillon, 169; Fiona, 163; Grayson, 99; Greg, 92–94; Jamie, 33–34, 35fig; Jared, 77, 147–153; Kelsea, 63, 64; Kelsey, 90; Melanie, 59; Melissa, 99, 103; Nicole, 156; Noami, 76; Savannah, 89; Serena, 71

Students: Artists/Writers Workshop outcomes for, 41; defining as both artists and writers, 27, 110; hidden bias toward verbal learners among, 6–8, 9–10; honoring and celebrating picture books by, 98–101; picture books for older, 50–51; reflections on revision by, 91; selected to participant in Group Share, 113; self-efficacy beliefs of, 24–25; special education, 13, 41, 51; “tears of joy” by, 101; verbal learners, 6–10, 13t, 15–16; visual learners, 6–10, 12fig–14, 184; visualizing themselves as artists and writers, 45–46; zone of proximal development of, 23–24; See also Learning; Picture books (student created)

Sun Song (Marzollo), 170

The Sun’s Day (Olshansky), 167, 168, 170, 177

Sunset Dream (Kelsea’s picture story), 62–65

T

Teachers: discovering the power of pictures, 183–186; insight on student created pictures for, 72–73; more likely to be verbal learners, 14; self-assessment by, 123–124; self-efficacy beliefs of, 24–25; See also Primary classrooms
 “Tears of joy,” 101

Teele, S., 11, 12, 13, 28, 56

Texture: basics of using, 147; as visual tool, 145; Wild Horse Winter use of, 143–146

Thissell, M., 90

Tissue clouds, 59–60

Title I, 41, 51

Transmediation: Artists/Writers Workshop driven by power of, 33–37; definition of, 33
Twilight Comes Twice (Fletcher), 107, 167, 168, 177
 Typing picture books, 97

U

Unit planning worksheet, 107*fig*
 Units of study: assessment of, 119–124; checklists for planning, 120, 122–123; Literature Share used in, 107–108; organizing Artists/Writers Workshop around, 104–105; planning, 106–108; planning worksheet for, 107*fig*; rhythm and flow of, 109; step by step factors for implementing, 109–117; steps for facilitating the process, 108–109; See also Daily lessons

V

Vagos, G., 80
 Veldman, D. J., 10
 Verbal learners: description of, 8; hidden bias toward, 6–8, 9–10; learning through the grades by, 13*t*; visual avenue to, 15–16; See also Learning
 Verbal tasks, 20–21
 Visual learners: description of, 8; “fourth-grade slump” of, 12*fig*; hidden bias against, 6–8, 9–10, 13–14; hidden genius dormant in some, 8–9, 184; learning through the grades by, 13*t*; See also Learning
 Visual tasks: creating changes in perspective, 135–143*fig*; creating sense of depth, 132–133; drawing the reader in, 133; establishing mood, 130; reading setting information, 130, 132; right-brain/left-brain role in, 20–21
 Visual tools: color as, 143–146, 164–165, 173–175; perspective as, 135–143*fig*; texture as, 143–146
 Vocabulary building: “silver dollar words” for, 52, 78–79; word banks for, 79–80
 Vygotsky, L., 22, 23

W

Water Dance (Locker), 49
 Watercolor demonstrations: dry paper, 158–159; wet paper, 159–161

Ways of Telling: Conversations on the Art of the Picture Book (Marcus), 125

Web sites: The Center for the Advancement of Art-Based Literacy, 69; student reflections on revising, 91

West, T. G., 8, 17, 184

Wet paper watercolor demonstration, 159–161

Wild Horse Winter (Honda): changes in perspective in, 140–143*fig*, 147; close-up of horses in storm in, 142*fig*; use of color and texture in, 143–146, 147; cover of, 141*fig*; final illustration in, 143*fig*; horses travel before and into the storm, 144*fig*; lessons learned from, 150, 151; literacy learning through, 126; long distance view of horses in, 142*fig*

Wilkinson, I.A.G., 13

Winner, E., 41

Wolves (Gibbon), 150, 151

Wood, A., 177

Wood Ray, K., 38

Word banks, 79–80

Word Painting: A Guide to Writing More Descriptively (McClanahan), 20

Word painting: description of, 20; two complementary languages within, 20–21, 25–27

Words: building active vocabulary of, 73–86; considering job of picture book, 48–49; conveying sense of purpose and drama, 151, 153; creating pictures which express, 19–20; as equal and parallel to pictures, 25–27; “five-cent,” 78; painting a picture function of, 22; “silver dollar,” 52, 78–79; story told through both the pictures and, 49; See also Language

Work Sessions: complementary strands of teaching during, 119; as daily lesson component, 108; description of/using the, 32, 111–112; Introduction to Watercolors mini-lesson use of, 161; Painting Sunset: Introducing Crayon Resist mini-lesson use of, 175; Painting Twilight mini-lesson use of, 165; Writing to Sunset mini-lesson use of, 182; Writing to Twilight mini-lesson use of, 169

Writing experience: advantages of creating pictures before, 71–72; parallels between

Writing experience (continued)

- art of painting and, 20; re-visioning in order to improve, 86–88; revision and editing components of, 91–98; transforming the student, 3–6; two complementary languages used in, 20–21
- Writing to Sunset (mini-lesson), 176–182
- Writing to Twilight (mini-lesson), 167–169

Y

- Yeats, W. B., 8
- Yolen, D., 129
- Yolen, J., 51, 126, 129, 134
- Yup'ik dialects, 22

Z

- Zone of proximal development, 23–24

