

Index

• A •

abdication, 212–213
Abensberg battle, 152 academic performance, 28–29 Acre battle battlefield visit, 329
  description, 112
  effects of Egyptian campaign, 163 reconnaissance criticism, 334 addresses, house, 279 aide-de-camp, 81
Aix (island), 235
Ajaccio (capital of Corsica), 19
Alexander I (Russian tsar) betrayal, 155
  capturing of Paris, 211, 212 domestic pressures, 185 friendship with Napoleon, 150, 183
  Jewish liberation, 321
  Napoleon's remarriage, 290
  preparations for war, 185–186
  Third Coalition campaign, 134
  Treaty of Tilsit, 149, 150
Alexander the Great (military leader), 102, 106
Alexandria (Egyptian city), 106
Alvintzi, Josef (Austrian general), 92, 93 ambulance, 258 American Revolution cause, 47
  definition, 35
  French support, 35–36, 37
Antoine, Louis (Duke of Enghien), 284

Antommarchi, Francesco (doctor), 245
Arc de Triomphe (architectural structure), 280 archaeology, 163 architecture, 280
Arcola battle, 92–93, 329
Aristotle (philosopher), 102–103
Armed Neutrality League (alliance), 164–165
armistice, 201
Armistice of Cherasco, 85 army
  Bulletin news, 262
  conspiracy to replace French government, 121–122 constitution's restrictions, 126–127
  general strategy, 86
  importance, 12–13
  morale, 82–83, 84
  Napoleon's design, 251–253 political force, 119 preparations for war with Russia, 187–189 reconnaissance, 334–335
  rewards, 138–139, 259 arrest, Napoleon's, 55–56 artillery, 254 artillery park, 255 Aspern battle
  battlefield visit, 328–329
  description, 152–153
assassination attempts, 247, 281–284
Auerstädt battle, 144
Augereau, Charles (French general and marshal) defeat at Lyon, 210
  Piedmont battles, 84–85
  preconception of Napoleon, 81–82
Augustus, Frederick (Duke of Warsaw), 312

Austerlitz battle (Battle of the Three Emperors)
  battlefield visit, 327–328
  description, 135–139
  military tactics, 257
Austria
  actions before Waterloo, 226–227
  armistice, 130–131
  battlefields, 328–329
  control of German states, 313
  declaration of war on Napoleon, 223–224
  Fifth Coalition campaign, 152–155 first campaign in Italy, 80–90, 92–94
  Jewish liberation, 321
  lack of support in Sixth Coalition, 202–203
  Napoleon's remarriage, 290–291, 292
  response to Napoleon's call for peace, 126 second campaign in Italy, 126–131
  Sixth Coalition peace talks, 202–203
  Third Coalition campaign, 132–139
  threat to Revolutionary government, 78–79 Treaty of Pressburg, 137–138
Autun (French town), 27–28

• B •

Bacciochi, Felix Pasquale (Napoleon's brother-in-law), 24 baggage train, 258
Bagration, Peter (Russian general), 137, 194

- Balcombe, William (British businessman), 240, 244
- Bank of France, 279
- Barras, Paul (Revolutionary leader)
- conspiracy to replace French government, 119, 120
  - fight against insurgents, 59, 60
  - friendship with Josephine, 70
  - importance, 51
- Bastille Day (French holiday), 39
- Bastille (French prison), 38–39
- Battle of the Three Emperors (Austerlitz battle)
- battlefield visit, 327–328
  - description, 135–139
  - military tactics, 257
- battlefield visits, 325–331
- battles
- Abensberg, 152
  - Acre, 112, 163, 329, 334
  - Arcola, 92–93, 329
  - Aspern-Essling, 152–153, 328–329
  - Auerstädt, 144
  - Austerlitz, 135–139, 257, 327–328
  - Borodino, 193–194, 326–327
  - Cairo, 106–107
  - Castiglione, 91
  - common features, 159
  - Eckmühl, 152
  - Eylau, 145, 330
  - Friedland, 148–150, 330
  - general strategy, 86
  - Heilsberg, 148
  - Jaffa, 111, 329
  - Jena, 144
  - Landshut, 152
  - Leipzig, 204–205, 305–306
  - Lodi, 87–89, 328
  - Lützen, 201
  - Mantua fortress, 90, 93
  - Marengo, 128–130, 330–331, 335
  - Mondovi, 85
  - Mount Tabor, 112
  - Nile, 160–163
  - Piedmont, 84–86
  - Ponte Nuovo, 18
  - Pyramids, 107
  - Salamanca, 180
  - Six Day Campaign, 208–209
  - Smolensk, 191
  - Third Coalition campaign, 133–139
  - timeline, 345–350
  - Toulon, 53
  - Trafalgar, 166–168
  - Tuileries, 59–61
  - Valmy, 90
  - Wagram, 153–154, 328–329
  - Waterloo, 225–234
- Bavaria, 141, 203
- Beaulieu, Johann Peter (Austrian general), 84, 87–88
- bee symbol, 286
- Belgium, 94, 325–326
- Bellerophon* (ship), 235, 236
- Bennigsen, Levin (Russian general), 145, 148
- Beresina River, 196
- Bernadotte, Jean-Baptiste (French general)
- conspiracy to replace French government, 120
  - loyalty, 206
  - marriage to Désirée Clary, 67
  - Russia's war preparations, 186
  - Wagram battle, 153
- Berthier, Louis Alexander (Napoleon's chief of staff)
- appointment, 81
  - death, 227–228
  - Egyptian campaign strategy, 101
  - Napoleon's remarriage, 291
- Berthollet, Claude-Louis (scholar), 89, 103
- Bertrand, Henri-Gatien (French general), 238
- birthplace, 19, 20
- black market, 302, 337
- Blücher, Gebhardt Lebrecht von (Coalition field marshal)
- Sixth Coalition campaign, 201, 209
  - Waterloo, 230, 231
- bombing (assassination attempt), 282–283
- Bonaparte, Carlo (Napoleon's father)
- death, 32
  - Napoleon's coronation as emperor, 287
  - overview, 19–21
- Bonaparte, Caroline (Napoleon's sister)
- education, 30
  - overview, 25–26
  - problems, 336
- Bonaparte, Elise (Napoleon's sister), 24
- Bonaparte, Jérôme (Napoleon's brother), 23–24
- Bonaparte, Joseph (Napoleon's brother)
- defense of Paris, 211
  - education, 30
  - King of Spain, 174, 178
  - overview, 22
  - problems, 336
  - reorganization of Europe, 142
  - romantic interests, 67
- Bonaparte* (Le Dru), 299
- Bonaparte, Leticia (Napoleon's mother)
- Governor Marbeuf's admiration, 21, 27
  - Napoleon's coronation as emperor, 287
  - overview, 19–20, 21
  - struggles after husband's death, 33–34
  - title, 287
- Bonaparte, Louis (Napoleon's brother)
- criticism of, 336
  - Napoleon's heir, 288
  - overview, 23
  - reorganization of Europe, 142
  - violations of Continental System, 302

- Bonaparte, Lucien (Napoleon's brother) activity in Revolution politics, 51 conspiracy to replace French government, 120, 121
 education, 30
 overview, 22–23
- Bonaparte, Napoleon. See
 Napoleon
- Bonaparte, Pauline (Napoleon's sister),
 24–25, 336
- Boney (nickname for Napoleon), 295
- books, 33, 341–342
- Borghese, Camillo (Napoleon's brother-in-law), 25
- Borodino battle
 battlefield visit, 326–327
 description, 193–194
- Bourbon dynasty assassination attempts, 283–284
 definition, 14
 restoration, 77, 119, 212
- Brienne (French town), 28
- Britain
 actions before Waterloo, 226–227
 alliance of France and Spain, 100
 battle in Egypt, 160–163
 Bulletin news, 263
 Continental System, 144
 Corsican independence, 18 declaration of war on Napoleon, 223–224
 destruction of Danish fleet, 164–166
 French takeover of Spain,
 175–177, 180–181
 Jewish liberation, 321
 naval strength, 159
 overview, 295–296
 peace, 125–126, 131, 296–302
 personal attacks on Napoleon, 303–306
 Portugal conflict, 178–179
- progressive government, 296
 Toulon battle, 49–50
 Trafalgar battle, 166–168
 Waterloo battle, 232–233
- Britt, Albert Sidney (The Wars of Napoleon), 83
- Brueys, François-Paul (French admiral),
 160–161
- Bulletins of the Great Army (news publications), 262–264
- burial site, Napoleon's, 31
- Buxhöwden, Friedrich
 (Russian general), 136, 137
- •
- Cadoudal, Georges (conspirator against Napoleon), 282, 283
- Cairo (Egyptian city), 106–107, 108, 112
- Campbell, Neil (British colonel), 214
- canal system, 279, 280
- cannon, 60, 254
- caricature, 303–306
- Carteaux, Jean (French general), 52–53
- Castiglione battle, 91
- Catholic Church education reform, 275, 277
 Napoleon's coronation as emperor, 286, 287
 religious freedom, 315–318
 tolerance for Jews, 319 turmoil in Spain, 174–175
- censorship
 France versus other European countries, 268 government controls, 266–267
 newspapers, 264
- Champollion, Jean-Frances (scholar), 104
- Chandler, David (Dictionary of the Napoleonic Wars), 341
- Charlemagne (Frankish emperor), 307–308
- Charles IV (Spanish king), 171–172
- Charles, Hippolyte (French lieutenant), 92, 108–109
- chief of staff, 80–81
- childhood, 26–33
- Chouan rebels (conservative Catholic royalists), 118
- Christianity, 48
- Cisalpine Republic (Italian nation), 95–96, 309
- Clary, Désirée (romantic interest), 67
- Clary, Julie (Napoleon's sister-in-law), 22
- clergy, 316, 317
- Cockburn, George (British admiral), 237–238, 240
- Code Napoléon* (legal code) creation, 272–273
 definition, 12
 Italy, 310
 religious freedom, 320
- Code of Civil Procedure (legal code), 274
- colleges, establishment of, 277
- commemorative medallion, 268
- Commentaries* (campaign
 description), 262
- Commercial Code (legal code), 274
- Committee of Public Safety (radical faction), 48, 55
- Concordat (agreement between France and Catholic Church), 318
- Confederation of the Rhine (French allies), 141, 203, 313
- Congress of Vienna (meeting of European leaders), 223
- Constant, Benjamin (critic of Napoleon), 222–223
- constitution, French army command, 126–127 creation, 123, 124
- consul
 definition, 16
 Napoleon's appointment,
 122–123, 281

- Consular Guard (elite force), 253
- Consulate (period of government), 16
- Continental System (sanctions)
definition, 144, 169
- Denmark's support, 165, 166
- drawbacks, 302–303, 336–337
- overview, 302
- Russia's problems with, 184–185, 303
- Spain's lack of support, 170
- Convention (French legislative body), 57–59, 63
- coronation, 286–287
- corps d'armée, 252
- Corsica (Napoleon's birthplace)
French Revolution, 43–45
- independence, 17–20
- Napoleon's fascination with, 33
- Napoleon's last visit, 114
- overview, 17
- pre-Napoleon history, 17–20
- Council of Ancients (French legislative body), 58
- Council of Five Hundred (French legislative body), 58
- Coup d'état de Brumaire (Napoleon's rise to power), 122
- Couriguer, Joseph Anton (goldsmith), 300
- court system, 273–274
- Criminal Code (legal code), 274
- Cronin, Vincent (Napoleon), 342
- Cruikshank, George (artist), 303
- Cruikshank, Isaac (artist), 303
- cuirassiers, 232
- currency, 279
- curriculum, school, 277
- Czech Republic, 327–328
- D •
- Danton, Georges-Jacques (French Revolutionist), 41
- Danzig (Prussian city), 148
- d'Argenteau, Mercy (Austrian general), 84
- David, Jacques-Louis (painter), 127, 286
- Davout, Louis (French marshal)
Eylau battle, 145
- Prussian conflict, 144
- Waterloo, 228
- de Beauharnais, Alexander (Josephine's first husband), 68–70
- de Beauharnais, Eugène (Napoleon's stepson), 141
- de Beauharnais, Hortense (Napoleon's stepdaughter)
Memoirs of Queen Hortense, 71
- Napoleon's heir, 288
- overview, 23
- de Bressieux, Garembe (French baron), 66
- de Cambacères, Jean-Jacques Régis (French consul), 123
- de Godoy, Manuel (Spanish prime minister), 171–172
- de Goya, José (painter), 173
- de Staël, Anne Louise Germaine (scholar), 98
- de Tolly, Barclay (Russian general), 189, 190–191
- de Vaux, Comte (French general), 18
- de Villeneuve, Pierre-Charles (French admiral) criticism of naval battle, 162–163
- Trafalgar battle, 166–167
- death
Antoine, Louis, 284
- Berthier, Louis Alexander, 227–228
- Bonaparte, Carlo, 32
- de Villeneuve, Pierre-Charles, 167
- Desaix, Louis Charles, 129
- Josephine, 214
- Kléber, Jean-Baptiste, 129
- Lannes, Jean, 153
- Louis XVI, 40, 45, 48
- Murat, Joachim, 234
- Nelson, Horatio, 168
- Ney, Michael, 234
- Pitt, William, 142
- Robespierre, Augustine, 55
- Robespierre, Maximilien, 55
- death, of Napoleon burial site, 31, 245–246, 248
- controversy, 247, 340
- description, 245
- return of body to France, 248
- debt, of France, 278–279
- decorative arts, 268–269
- Dego (Italian village), 85
- Delaroche, Paul (painter), 127
- Denmark, 164–166
- Denon, Vivant (engraver), 103
- department, 273–274
- d'Erlon, Jean-Baptiste (French general), 230, 232
- des Mazis, Alexander (friend of Napoleon), 32
- Desaix, Louis Charles (French general), 106, 128, 129
- Description de l'Égypt* (engravings), 104
- Dictionary of the Napoleonic Wars* (Chandler), 341
- Directory (French ruling body) idea for Egyptian campaign, 101
- Napoleon's return after Egyptian campaign, 116
- Napoleon's return after Italian campaign, 98–100
- poor performance, 115, 118
- view of Napoleon, 97, 99

divine right, 48 divorce from Josephine criticism, 337–338
   overview, 289–290
   reason for, 146
 divorce, legal reform, 273
 Dolgoruki, Peter (Russian prince), 135 domestic spy, 267, 268 du Colombier, Caroline (romantic interest), 66 du Teil, Jean-Pierre (French general), 43
 Ducos, Roger (French politician), 120–121, 123
 Dugommier, Jacques Coquille (French general), 53
 Dumas, Thomas-Alexander (French general), 108 Dupont, Pierre (French general), 175 dynasty
   criticism, 339–340
   Napoleon's attempt to create, 285–292

• E •

eagle, 286
 Eckmühl battle, 152 economic reform, 277–280, 299
 education
   Napoleon's, 26–33 publicity, 265
   reforms, 274–277
 Egyptian campaign
   Alexandria battle, 106 battle with Britain, 160–163
   Cairo battle, 106–107, 108 documentation, 104 experts' views, 113 Malta capture, 105
   mystery of Egypt, 101
   Napoleon's reassurance of Egyptian people, 105–106
   Napoleon's romantic life, 108–109
   overview, 100–101
   Rosetta stone, 103–104

  scholarly preparation, 102–103
   strategy, 101–102
   Turkey's response, 108
 Egyptian Institute (scholarly association), 103
 El Arish (Holy Land fortress), 110
 Elba (island of exile), 213–218 elementary education, 275 embargo. See Continental System (sanctions) employment, 279–280 England
   actions before Waterloo, 226–227
   alliance of France and Spain, 100
   battle in Egypt, 160–163
   Bulletin news, 263
   Continental System, 144
   Corsican independence, 18
   declaration of war on Napoleon, 223–224
   destruction of Danish fleet, 164–166
   French takeover of Spain, 175–177, 180–181
   Jewish liberation, 321
   naval strength, 159
   overview, 295–296
   peace, 125–126, 131, 296–302
   personal attacks on Napoleon, 303–306
   Portugal conflict, 178–179
   progressive government, 296
   Toulon battle, 49–50
   Trafalgar battle, 166–168
   Waterloo battle, 232–233
 English Channel, 100
 Englund, Steven (Napoleon: A Political Life), 342 engravings of Egypt, 104 equality, 271, 319, 339 Essling battle
   battlefield visit, 328–329
   description, 152–153
 Estates General (French congress), 37–38

Europe. See also specific countries influence of French Revolution, 77
 maps, 351–352
 Napoleon's influence, 12, 13
 Napoleon's vision of unity, 307–314
 peace, 125–126
 reorganization after Treaty of Pressburg, 141–143 setbacks after Egyptian campaign, 113–114
 exile
   Elba, 213–218
   St. Helena, 235–245
 Eylau battle, 145, 330

• F •

family, Napoleon's. See also specific members described, 20–26
 education, 30
 feelings toward Josephine, 72
 French Revolution, 44
 loyalty, 20, 21
 Napoleon's coronation as emperor, 287
 Napoleon's help after military school, 33–34 payments from France after Napoleon's exile, 216–217 problem siblings, 335–336
 reorganization after Treaty of Pressburg, 141–142
 reunion after Italian campaign, 95 Spanish throne, 173–175 fatherhood, 74, 138
 Ferdinand (Spanish prince), 171
 Fesch, Joseph (Napoleon's uncle), 51, 287 feudal system, 184, 272 field piece, 254
 Fifth Coalition (alliance against France), 152–155

- Finkenstein (Polish mansion), 147
  - First Battle of Polotsk, 191–192
  - First Empire (period of rule), 15
  - First Empire: The International Magazine for the Napoleonic Enthusiast, Historian and Gamer*, 342
  - First Estate (social class), 38
  - fleches, 327
  - flying ambulance, 258
  - food, 258
  - forced march, 257
  - Foreman, Laura (Napoleon's Lost Fleet), 163
  - Fort Aboukir, 113
  - Fort Mulgrave, 53
  - fortunetelling, 68
  - Fouché, Joseph (French minister of police), 177, 267, 334
  - Fourès, Pauline (Napoleon's mistress), 109
  - Fox, Charles, James (British foreign minister), 142
  - France
    - alliance with Spain, 100
    - Bulletin news, 262–263
    - conspiracy to replace government, 119–124
    - constitution, 123, 124
    - Corsican independence, 18–19
    - divisions during French Revolution, 49–50
    - domestic peace, 124
    - effects of Trafalgar, 168
    - fondness for Josephine, 337
    - maps, 351–352
    - Napoleon's defense during Sixth Coalition, 206–213
    - Napoleon's influence, 12, 13
    - Napoleon's return after Egyptian campaign, 114–116, 118–124
    - Napoleon's return after exile, 219–223
    - One Hundred Days period, 218–224
    - reactions to Louis XVIII, 216–217
    - relationship with Spain, 169–170
    - return of Napoleon's body, 248
    - setbacks after Egyptian campaign, 113–114
    - social classes, 38
    - support of American Revolution, 35–36, 37
  - Franceschi, Cipriani (Napoleon's butler), 238
  - Francis I (Austrian emperor)
    - Napoleon's offer of peace, 126
    - Napoleon's remarriage, 290–291, 292
    - overview, 78
    - Treaty of Pressburg, 137–138
  - freedom, 273, 315–321
  - French Empire, 15
  - French language, 27–28
  - French Revolution
    - Austrian threat, 78–79
    - causes, 37–40
    - Corsica, 44
    - divisions of France, 49–50
    - end, 59–62
    - gilded youth, 58
    - influence in Europe, 77
    - middle class ideals, 271
    - Napoleon's contacts, 51–52
    - Napoleon's family, 44
    - Napoleon's military service, 42–45
    - radical factions, 48
    - reaction to king's execution, 48
    - religious freedom, 316–318
    - treatment of Jews, 319
  - Fréron, Louis Marie Stanislas (French revolutionist), 41, 51
  - Friedland battle, 148–150, 330
  - friendships, Napoleon's
    - childhood, 29, 31
    - Russian tsar, 150, 183
    - Toulon mission, 54
  - funeral, 246
- G •
- Gasparin, Thomas (Revolutionary leader), 51
  - general, 16
  - general of division, 254
  - Genoa (Italian republic), 96
  - George III (British king), 125
  - Gérard, Maurice Etienne (French general), 209
  - Germanic law, 272
  - Germany
    - European unity, 313–314
    - Napoleon's allies, 132
    - reorganization after Treaty of Pressburg, 141
  - ghetto, 319
  - gilded youth, 58
  - Gillray, James (artist), 303, 304
  - girls, education for, 275
  - Goethe, Johann (philosopher), 14
  - Gohier, Louis (head of Directory), 116
  - Gourgaud, Gaspar (French general), 238, 243
  - government controls, 265–268
  - graduation, 32
  - Grand Duchy of Warsaw (Polish territory)
    - creation, 148, 184, 311–312
    - dissolution, 312–313
    - Russia's view, 150
  - Grassini, Giuseppina (Napoleon's mistress), 128
  - Great Britain
    - actions before Waterloo, 226–227
    - alliance of France and Spain, 100
    - battle in Egypt, 160–163
    - Bulletin news, 263
    - Continental System, 144
    - Corsican independence, 18
    - declaration of war on Napoleon, 223–224
    - destruction of Danish fleet, 164–166

French takeover of Spain, 175–177, 180–181
 Jewish liberation, 321
 naval strength, 159
 overview, 295–296
 peace, 125–126, 131, 296–302
 personal attacks on Napoleon, 303–306
 Portugal conflict, 178–179
 progressive government, 296
 Toulon battle, 49–50
 Trafalgar battle, 166–168
 Waterloo battle, 232–233
 great pyramids, 107
 Great Saint Bernard Pass (mountain pass), 127
 Grenoble (French city), 220–221
 Grouchy, Emanuel (French general)
   Friedland battle, 149
   Spanish turmoil, 172
   Waterloo, 228, 231, 232
 Guides (elite force), 253 guns, 254

• H •

Hanover (British holding), 302
 Hapsburg dynasty, 15 heavy cuirassiers, 325 heavy guns, 254 height, Napoleon's, 11, 306
 Heilsberg battle, 148
 heir, 285, 287–288
 Hitler, Adolf (German ruler), 147
 Hohenlohe, Friedrich (Prussian general), 144
 Holland, W. (artist), 305 Holy Land (Middle East region) campaign battlefield visits, 329
   described, 110–114
   Jewish state, 319–320
 Holy Roman Empire, 141 horses, 188, 190, 201 Hotel Metropol (Moscow hotel), 327 house addresses, 279

 husbands' rights, 273

• I •

Imperial Glory: The Bulletins of Napoleon's Grande Armée, 1805–1814 (Markham), 342
 Imperial Guard (Napoleon's elite force), 209, 253 Imperial University (educational organization), 276 infernal machine, 282–283 inspiration, 258–259 institute, 277
 insurgency campaign
   French revolution, 59–60
   Spanish turmoil, 169, 179
 International Napoleonic Society, 247, 343–344
 Israel, 329
 Italy
   battlefields, 328, 329, 330–331
   Code Napoléon, 310 crowning of Napoleon as king, 131, 132, 310 first Austrian campaign, 80–90, 92–94
   geography, 78–79 modern-day view of Napoleon, 86–87, 89 Napoleon's exile, 217 organization after Italian campaign, 95–96, 309
   pre-Napoleon history, 17–20
   reunification, 308–311
   second Austrian campaign, 126–131
   setbacks after Egyptian campaign, 113–114

• J •

Jacobin club (radical group), 41, 282, 283
 Jaffa (Holy Land city), 111, 329

Jena battle, 144
 Jerusalem (Holy city), 319
 jeunesse dorée, 58
 Jewish people, 315, 319–321
 Josephine (Napoleon's wife) absence during Italian campaign, 91–92 activities during Egyptian campaign, 108–109 affair with Hippolyte Charles, 92, 108–109 criticism, 337
   death, 214
   divorce, 146, 289–290, 337–338 first marriage, 68–70 France's fondness for, 337 friendship with Paul Barras, 70 marriage to Napoleon, 73–74 Martinique home, 69
   name, 68
   Napoleon's coronation as emperor, 286–287
   Napoleon's return after Egyptian campaign, 116–117
   overview, 65
   romance with Napoleon, 71–73
   violations of Continental System, 302
 Joubert, Barthelemy (French general), 120
Journal of the Empire (newspaper), 264–265
 Junot, Andoche (friend of Napoleon), 54, 170, 175

• K •

Kaliningrad Hotel, 330
 Kellerman, François (French general), 89–90
 The King of Rome birth, 292
   definition, 15
   Napoleon's return from exile, 222

Kléber, Jean-Baptiste (French general) command of Alexandria, 106
 death, 129
 Turkish campaign, 112
 Kray, Paul (Austrian general),
 126, 130
 Kremlin (Russian walled city), 194–195
 Kutusov, Mikhail (Russian general), 133

● L ●

Laffrey (French village), 220 lancer, 232
 Lancers (cavalrymen), 311
 Landshut battle, 152
 Lannes, Jean (French general)
 death, 153
 Egyptian campaign strategy, 101
 first Austrian campaign, 87
 Friedland battle, 148
 Larrey, Dominique-Jean (doctor), 258
 Las Cases, Emmanuel-August-Dieudonné de (British politician), 238 law reform, 272–274
 Le Caillou (Napoleon's headquarters at Waterloo), 326
 Le Dru, Hilaire (Bonaparte), 299
 “Le Souper de Beaucaire” (short story by Napoleon), 45
 Lebrun, Charles François (French consul), 123
 Leclerc, Victor (Napoleon's brother-in-law), 24 Legion of Honor (award), 259 Leipzig battle
   caricature, 305–306
   description, 204–205
 Ligurian Republic (Italian nation), 96, 309
 Lines of Torres Vedras (British defensive position), 178–179

Lion Mound (Waterloo landmark), 326 literacy, 277
 Lobau Island, 328–329
 Lodi (Italian village), 87–89, 328
l'Orient (ship), 102, 104, 162, 163
 lottery, 278
 Louis Napoleon (Napoleon's son), 15
 Louis XV (king of France), 18
 Louis XVI (king of France) alliance with United States, 35–36, 37
 death, 40, 45, 48
 French Revolution, 36–40, 43
 Louis XVIII (king of France)
 Napoleon's death, 247
 Napoleon's exile in Elba, 216–217
 Napoleon's return after Elba exile, 220 response to Napoleon's ascension to First Consul, 282 self-declaration as king, 59
 Waterloo, 233
 Louisa (Prussian queen), 149–150
 Louvre (museum), 269
 Lowe, Hudson (British governor), 241–243
 loyalty
   family, 20, 21
   Jean-Baptiste Bernadotte, 206
   Marie Louise, 146, 211
   Poland, 148
 Lützen battle, 201
 lycées, 276, 277

● M ●

Macdonald, Jacques (French marshal), 26, 208–209, 221
 Madrid (Spanish city), 171–173
 Maitland, Frederick (British captain), 235–236
 Malet, Claude-François (French general), 196–197, 199
 Malta (island), 101, 105, 301 manifest, 257
 Mantua (fortress), 90
 maps, 351–352
 Marbeuf, Charles René (Corsican governor), 21, 26–27 march, forced, 257
 Marchand, Louis-Joseph (Napoleon's valet), 238 Marengo battle
   battlefield visit, 330–331
   criticism, 335
   description, 128–130
 Maria Luisa (Spanish queen), 171
 Marie Antoinette (French queen), 40, 43
 Marie Louise (Napoleon's second wife) alliance with Austria, 202 heritage, 15
 loyalty, 146, 211
 marriage, 290–292
 Napoleon's abdication, 213
 Napoleon's return from exile, 222
 romance with Napoleon, 146–147
 Markham, J. David
Imperial Glory: The Bulletin of Napoleon's Grande Armée, 1805–1814, 342
Napoleon's Road to Glory: Triumphs, Defeats and Immortality, 342 Marmont, Auguste Frédéric Louis (friend of Napoleon), 54, 212 marriage law, 273 marriage, of Napoleon, 73–74, 290–292 marshal, 16
 Marshalate (military rank), 253–254
 Martinique (French region), 69

- Masséna, André (French general)
 Piedmont battles, 85
 preconception of Napoleon, 81–82
 second Austrian campaign, 127, 128
 Wagram battle, 153
 medals for soldiers, 259 medallions, 268 media, 261–268
 medical problems, 243–244
 Melas, Michael (Austrian general), 127, 128 memoirs, 241
Memoirs of Queen Hortense (de Beauharnais), 71 Metternich, Clemens (Austrian foreign minister), 202–203 middle class
   economic reform, 277–280
   education reforms, 274–277 ideals of French Revolution, 271 legal reforms, 272–274
   Treaty of Amiens, 300
 Milan (Italian city), 89 military school, 28–32 military service appointment after marriage to Josephine, 79
   first Austrian campaign, 80–90
   first commission, 32–33
   French Revolution, 42–45
   Revolutionary contacts, 51–52
   second Austrian campaign, 126–131
   Topographical Bureau, Italian section, 57
   Toulon mission, 52–55, 56
   Tuileries defense, 62–63
 Ministry of Foreign Affairs (government agency), 266
 Ministry of Police (government agency), 266 Ministry of the Interior (government agency), 267 modern warfare, 12–13
 Mondovi (Italian town), 85 money reforms, 279
 Monge, Gaspard (scholar), 89, 103
The Monitor (newspaper), 264
 Montenotte (Italian town), 84
 Montholon, Charles Tristan (French count), 238, 243, 247
 Moore, John (British general), 177
 Moreau, Jean Victor (French general), 126, 130, 283
 Moscow (Russian city)
   battlefield visits, 327
   Russian invasion, 192–195, 338
 Mount Tabor battle, 112
 Murat, Joachim (Napoleon's brother-in-law) appointment as aide-de-camp, 81
   death, 234
   desertion, 208
   Egyptian campaign strategy, 101
   Eylau battle, 145
   family problems, 336
   insurgency campaign, 60
   King of Naples, 174 occupation of Madrid, 171
   overview, 25–26
   Spanish turmoil, 172, 173
   title, 254
   Waterloo, 228
 museum, 269, 311
 Museum of the Reunification, 311
- N •
- Napoleon importance, 11, 13–14
 name, 2, 237
 public's fascination with, 1, 9 strengths, 251
Napoleon: A Political Life (Englund), 342
Napoleon (Cronin), 342
 Napoleon Foundation, 344
 Napoleon Museum, 269
 Napoleon II. See The King of Rome
 Napoleon Series Web site, 344
Napoleone Buonaparte (Richter), 298 Napoleonic Alliance (historical organization), 343
 Napoleonic complex, 11
 Napoleonic Society of America, 343
 Napoleonic timeline, 345–350
 Napoleonic Wars, 15, 155
Napoleon's Lost Fleet (Foreman and Phillips), 163
Napoleon's Road to Glory: Triumphs, Defeats and Immortality (Markham), 342 National Institute of Sciences and Arts of France (scholarly association), 98 nationalism, 308–314 natural frontier, 207 navy, 100, 159, 168 Nelson, Horatio (British admiral)
   death, 168
   destruction of Danish fleet, 165
   Egyptian campaign, 105
   Nile battle, 160
   Trafalgar battle, 166, 167
 neutrality, 300 newspaper, 264–265, 267
 Ney, Michael (French marshal)
   death, 234
   Napoleon's return after exile, 221
   Russian campaign, 197
   title, 254
   Waterloo, 228, 230, 231, 232–233
 Nile battle, 160–163
Northumberland (ship), 237

• O •

- offensive tactics
  - criticism, 334–335
  - overview, 255–258
- O'Meara, Barry Edward
  - (British naval surgeon), 238, 243–244
- One Hundred Days period, 219–224

• P •

- Paoli, Pasquale (Corsican leader)
  - Corsican independence, 18–19
  - trouble with Napoleon, 44
- Papal States (Italian kingdom)
  - defeat, 93–94
  - definition, 78
  - liberation, 90
- paper money, 279
- Paris
  - defense against Sixth Coalition, 210–213
  - Napoleon's education, 31
  - Napoleon's return after Egyptian campaign, 114–116, 118–124
  - Napoleon's return after Italian campaign, 98–100
  - Napoleon's return after Russian invasion, 199–200
- Paris mob, 59–61
- Parker, Hyde (British admiral), 164–165
- Patterson, Elizabeth
  - (Napoleon's sister-in-law), 23
- Paul I (Russian tsar), 134, 164
- peace
  - Austria, 130–131
  - Britain, 125–126, 131, 296–302
  - domestic, 124
  - Napoleon's offer before Waterloo, 227
  - Napoleon's return from exile, 223
  - Sixth Coalition offers, 207–208, 210
- Penal Code (legal code), 274
- Peninsular War, 170, 178–181
- performing arts, 99
- personal attacks, 303–306
- personality, 82, 124
- Phillips, Ellen (Napoleon's Lost Fleet), 163
- Pichegru, Charles (French general), 283
- Piedmont (Italian kingdom), 79, 80–90
- Pitt, William (British prime minister), 142, 296–297
- plague, 111
- plebiscite, 123, 300
- poisoning, 247, 340
- Poland
  - independence, 146, 148, 311–313
  - loyalty, 148
  - Napoleon's headquarters, 146
  - Russia's problems with, 184
  - Treaty of Tilsit, 150
- police, secret, 267, 268
- political opposition, 267, 268
- Poniatowski, Joseph (French marshal), 204, 205
- Ponte Nuovo battle, 18
- Pope Pius VI (ruler of Papal States), 93–94
- Pope Pius VII (ruler of Papal States)
  - Napoleon's coronation as emperor, 286, 287
  - religious freedom, 317–318
- popularity
  - establishment of dynasty, 285
  - government controls, 265–268
  - image promotion, 268–269
  - importance, 261
  - media promotions, 261–265
  - negative images, 303–306
  - Treaty of Amiens, 298, 300
  - victories, 126
- Portugal, 170, 178–179
- Posoritz Post House
  - (Austerlitz landmark), 328
- post-secondary education, 276
- poverty, 28, 29–30
- prefect, 273–274
- prints, 268
- prisoner, 110, 111, 237
- proclamations, 263
- prophecy, Josephine's, 68
- Provera, Johann (Austrian general), 93
- Prussia
  - actions before Waterloo, 226–227
  - conflict with France, 143–144
  - control of German states, 313
  - loss as French ally, 200–202
  - Poland's independence, 311–313
  - Sixth Coalition peace talks, 202–203
  - Treaty of Tilsit, 150
  - Waterloo battle, 229–233
- public works program, 279–280
- publicity, 265–269
- Punic War, 17, 105
- pyramids, 107

• R •

- Rapp, Jean (French general), 282–283
- reading habits, 33
- rebel force, 124
- reconnaissance, 334–335
- redoubt, 193, 327
- reference material, 341–344
- regent, 202
- religion
  - education reform, 275, 277
  - freedom, 315–321
  - secularization, 272, 277
- Richter, Henry (Napoleone Buonaparte), 298

- Risorgimento (Italian reunification), 308–311 road system, 279, 280
Robespierre, Augustine (French Revolutionist) Committee of Public Safety, 48
death, 55
overview, 41
power, 51
Robespierre, Maximilien (French Revolutionist)
death, 55
overview, 41
terror, 42 Roman law, 272 romantic life
Caroline du Colombier, 66 courtship of Josephine, 68–74
Désirée Clary, 67
Egyptian campaign, 108–109
first Austrian campaign, 91–92
Marie Louise, 146–147
Napoleon's return after Egyptian campaign, 116–117
second Austrian campaign, 128
teenage years, 65–66
Rosetta stone, 103–104
royalism, 317
Russia
actions before Waterloo, 226–227
battlefields, 326–327, 330
Bulletin news, 263
Eylau battle, 145
French invasion and withdrawal, 189–198
Friedland battle, 148–150
Heilsberg battle, 148
Jewish liberation, 321
Napoleon's remarriage, 290
Poland's independence, 311–313
preparation for war, 185–186 problems with Continental System, 184–185, 303
Sixth Coalition peace talks, 202–203
Third Coalition campaign, 132–139
Treaty of Tilsit, 150–151, 183–185
withdrawal from Second Coalition, 126
- S •
- Salamanca battle, 180
Saliceti, Antonio Cristoforo (French Revolutionist), 41, 51
Sanhedrin (meeting of Jewish leaders), 320
Sardinia (Italian kingdom), 79
Savary, Jean (French general), 135 school, 274, 275–276
Schwarzenberg, Karl (Austrian prince), 208, 209
Second Coalition (alliance against France), 126, 131
Second Empire (period of rule), 15 Second Estate (social class), 38 secondary education, 275–276 secret police, 267, 268
secularization, 272, 277
Selim III (Turkish sultan), 108
Sérurier, Jean-Mathieu (French general), 85
Seventh Coalition (alliance against Napoleon), 224, 226 ships of the line, 167
Siyès, Emmanuel Joseph (French politician), 120, 123
Six Day Campaign, 208–209
Sixth Coalition (alliance against Napoleon) conflicts outside France, 200–205 defense of France, 206–213 peace talks, 207–208, 210
Smolensk battle, 191 social classes in France, 38
Soult, Nicolas (French marshal)
Austerlitz battle, 136, 137
British attacks in Spain, 177, 180–181
Waterloo, 228
Spain alliance against Britain, 100 appointment of Napoleon's family to throne, 173–175
Britain's help after French takeover, 175–177, 180–181 domestic turmoil, 170–173, 174–175 lack of support of Continental System, 170 Napoleon's reforms, 176 problems of French rule, 177–180 relationship with France, 169–170
Trafalgar battle, 166–168
speech, inspirational, 83 spousal rights, 273 spy, domestic, 267, 268
St. Denis, Etienne (Napoleon's valet), 238
St. Helena (island)
British negotiations for exile, 235–239
Napoleon's arrival and lifestyle, 239–245
Napoleon's death, 245–246
Stara Posta (Slovak-Austerlitz hotel), 328
Stokoe, John (doctor), 245
Suez Canal, 299 suffrage, 123 suicide attempt, 213 supplies, 257–258 surprise attack, 256–257
Suvorov, Alexander Vasilivich (Russian field marshal), 126

• T •

Talleyrand-Périgord, Charles Maurice de (Napoleon's sometimes friend) coup d'état plans, 177 Egyptian campaign strategy, 100, 102
 overview, 333–334
 praise of Napoleon, 14 treachery during defense of Paris, 211, 212 treachery during Egyptian campaign, 108

Taranto peninsula, 302

Tascher de la Pagerie, Marie Joséphe Rose. See Josephine (Napoleon's wife) tax, 278, 279

teacher reforms, 276

teasing at school, 28–29, 31

The Terror (uprising), 42, 70

Third Coalition (alliance against France) campaign, 132–139 declaration of war, 301–302 organization, 131
 rationale, 132

Third Estate (social class), 38

Toulon (French city), 49–54

Toussaint l'Ouverture, Pierre Dominique (French general), 125 trade war. See Continental System (sanctions)

Trafalgar battle, 166–168

transportation system, 279, 280

Treaty of Amiens, 297–300

Treaty of Campo Formio, 94, 95, 309

Treaty of Fontainebleau, 212

Treaty of Pressburg, 137–138

Treaty of Schönbrunn, 154

Treaty of Tilsit, 150–151, 183–185

Treaty of Tolentino, 94

Tuileries (French palace), 59–61

Turkey

Egyptian campaign strategy, 101–102

Holy Land campaign, 110–114 response to Egyptian campaign, 108

• U •

Ülm (German city), 133

United States, 217

U.S. War of Independence. See American Revolution

• V •

Valmy battle, 90

Vandamme, Dominique (French general), 136

Vendée (French regional government), 56

Venice (Italian republic), 95

Verling, James (doctor), 244–245, 340

Versailles (French palace), 36

viceroy, 310

Victor Amadeus III (Sardinian king), 79

Victor, Claude (French marshal), 209

victories important, 139
 popularity, 126

Vienna (Austrian city), 134

• W •

Wagram battle
 battlefield visits, 328–329
 description, 153–154

Walewska, Marie (Napoleon's mistress) introduction to Napoleon, 146
 Napoleon's divorce, 290
 Napoleon's exile in Elba, 215

Walewski, Alexandre Florian Joseph (Napoleon's son), 146, 215 war against insurgents. See insurgency campaign

War of 1812, 187

The Wars of Napoleon (Britt), 83

Warsaw (Polish city), 146

Waterloo battle
 battlefield visit, 325–326
 fighting, 229–233
 importance, 225
 overview, 225, 325–326
 preparations, 227–229
 strategy, 229

Waterloo (film), 229

weapons

Napoleon's tactics, 254–259 preparation for war with Russia, 188 shortage, 82–83, 86

Waterloo, 232–233

Web sites, 344

Weider, Ben (Napoleon scholar), 247

Wellesley, Arthur (Sir Wellington; British general)

Napoleon's defense of France, 206

Spanish conflict, 175, 178–179, 180

Waterloo, 230, 231

widows of soldiers, 138

William III (Prussian king), 143, 144

Wittgenstein, Ludwig (Russian general), 201 women, reforms related to, 273, 277, 339

wounded soldier, 258

Würmser, Dagobert (Austrian general) goal, 90–91

strategy, 92–93