

Contents

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| About the author  | ix  |
| List of illustrations   | xi  |
| Acknowledgements  | xv  |
| An old Jewish tale  | xvi |
|   |     |
| Mind that child!  | 1   |
| 1 RICAP: a description of the intervention                             | 5   |
| 2 RICAP and aggression: sometimes it helps to be bad                   | 23  |
| 3 RICAP and reflection: are these children mindless?                   | 41  |
| 4 RICAP and attachment: fighting to feel safe                          | 69  |
| 5 RICAP and avoidance: a useful defence or a habitual ploy?            | 95  |
| 6 RICAP and emotions: why does everything have to be reduced to anger? | 119 |
| 7 RICAP and memory: what I remember tells me who I am                  | 145 |

|           |   |            |
|-----------|---|------------|
| 8  | RICAP and problem solving: do solutions matter?        | 165 |
| 9  | RICAP and metaphor: the use and usefulness of metaphor | 197 |
| 10 | Marc: a case study                                     | 219 |
|           | Appendices  | 281        |
|           | References  | 293        |
|           | Index   | 297        |