

Index

- A
- abstract reasoning 110
 - adults
 - responsibility 14
 - theory of mind 41–42
 - see also* parents
 - aggressive behaviour
 - contributory factors 285–286
 - and distress 1
 - giving meaning 3
 - instrumental 24
 - as manifestation of attachment disorder 3, 7
 - manipulative 111, 141, 187, 192, 254
 - outbursts 5
 - parents' view 9
 - patterns 24, 25
 - proactive 24
 - as protection 150
 - response to fear/anxiety 70, 138
 - response to stress 123
 - risk factors 25–26
 - trigger 71
 - understanding 23–24
 - unintentional 24
 - aggressive child
 - assumes world is hostile 128, 150, 245–247
 - vulnerability 1
 - see also* child
 - aggressive/rejective cycle 24, 32
 - anger
 - and anxiety 192–196
 - in babyhood 119–120
 - directed at therapist 103–104
 - excuse for 190–191
 - protective but dysfunctional 124, 230–231
 - antisocial children see aggressive children
 - anxiety
 - confused with anger 194–196
 - and depression 25
 - displayed as aggressive behaviour 138
 - Asperger's syndrome 220
 - attachment
 - dysfunctional 69, 91
 - needs and behaviours 69, 80–82, 91
 - status 71, 147
 - attachment domain 95–96, 216
 - attachment research 2, 3
 - attachment theory 2, 6
 - attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) 25, 37, 56, 102, 105–106, 108–110, 149, 180, 200
 - auto-regulation, destructive modes 123, 143
 - autobiographical memory 146–157

- avoidance
 addressing 8
 dysfunctional 95, 107
 functional 95
 in therapy 108–113, 149, 220–221
- B
- baby
 emotional development 119–121
 social interaction 120
- behaviour, as communication 2, 9, 27, 49
- book
 co-creation 10, 12, 110, 152
 real/imaginary content 13–14
 as record 11–13
 as temporary transitional object 12
- bullying at school 158–159,
 182–185
- C
- caregiving, quality 121–122, 148
- change
 managing 165–166
 strategies 182–186
- child
 angry behaviour 95
 controlling behaviour 83
 emotional language 8, 134–135, 237 feeling looked after when angry 69–70
 feeling understood in therapy 220
 intensity of feeling 142–143
 lack of memory 149, 150–151 medical/developmental difficulties 80
 mental image of parent 3, 69–70, 147
 neglected 73–75
 oppositional behaviour 79–91
 problem solving 166–186
 protective of parent 75–79, 214
 reflective capacity 96, 105 RICAP method 5–6, 10–16
 seeks comfort from attachment figure 95
 self-regulation of emotion and arousal 122
 theory of mind 42–43
 thinks of himself as bad or mad 23 use of metaphor 198
- child abuse 14, 71–72, 110, 151
see also domestic violence;
 parental abuse/neglect/rejection
- child mental health services,
 referral for aggressive
 behaviour 24
- child protection register 14
- child's book see book
- Christmas, not always a good time 213–215
- clinical examples
 Ali 151–152, 178–180
 Andrew 111–113
 Andrew/Jane 192–196
 Andrew/Sue 187–189
 Bob/Jolene 37–39, 142–143
 Callum 135–136
 Callum/Anita 75–76
 Carol 200–201
 Cheryl 76–77
 Colin 202–206
 Colin/Nora 49–55
 Craig 149–150
 Dan/Tina 158–162
 David 14–16, 108–110
 David/Sian 213
 Douglas 172–174
 Gary 7–8
 Gary/Trisha 19–20
 Gemma/Tessa 79–91
 Heather/Eric/Terry 138–142, 163–164, 208–211
 Jack 206–207

- Jack/Sarah 215–217
 James 175–176
 Jamie 47–48
 Janet/Paul/Harry 101–106
 Jed 76–79, 126–131
 Joe 180–181
 Keith 155–157
 Kevin 44–45
 Kieran 73–75, 148–149
 Kirk 27–31
 Kristy 167
 Larry/Julie 115–118, 189–192
 Maggie/Trevor/Lee 97–101
 Marc/Derek/Gail 123–124,
 219–280
 Mark 182–186
 Max 48–49, 201–202
 Max/Gabby 136–137
 Miles 152–155
 Milly 169–171
 Ollie 31–37
 Paul 134
 Rachel/Milly 56–57
 Richard 107
 Sam/Ted 58–61
 Sharon/Lucy 61–67
 Simon 45–47, 198–200
 Susan 71–73, 181–182
 Wayne 132–134, 176
- conduct disorder 1, 5, 25, 26, 281
 confrontation, avoidance 234 control 83, 85, 90, 108
 coping strategies 30, 150, 151, 203, 206 crying 62–63, 80–91
 parent's response 121–122
 possible meanings 86–88
- D
 diagnostic criteria, criticism 25
 diagnostic focus 5
 difficult time, detailed accounts 19, 36, 66, 80–82, 97–98, 136–137,
 140–141, 157, 161–163, 176, 186,
 187, 189, 208–209, 254–255
- domain confusion 95–96, 195, 196
 domestic violence 44, 49, 54, 148, 157, 158, 189, 214
 drawing of attachment status 71
 as communication 10, 11, 198
 observation 13, 14
 real or imagined content 13–14
 see also book
 drawing the problem 234–237
 drawing what is on your mind 198, 237–249
- E
 emotional development 2, 119–121
 emotional lability 108
 emotional language
 developing 8, 237
 incoherent/inadequate 134–135
 emotional truth vs literal truth 138–140
 emotions, denying 126, 131
 empathy 128–131
 enuresis 153
 executive functioning 108
- F
 family relationships, importance 234, 262
 father
 absent 45–46, 132–134, 148–249
 violent 213
 see also child abuse; domestic violence fear
 displayed as aggressive behaviour 70, 138
 reactions to 70
 feelings
 finding words for see emotional language
 unacceptable 131, 134
 fighting, as reaction to fear 70
 Fonagy, Peter 2, 3

- frustration
 and attachment needs 69
 and hyperactivity 107–108
 low threshold 108
 mutual 81–82, 270
 as trigger for aggressive
 behaviour 25, 61, 192–196
- G
- game playing 92–93
 generation cycle 282
 good time
 hard to remember 114, 159–160, 164, 260
 reflecting on 136, 157, 186–187,
 215–216, 255–256, 259–260, 263–264
- H
- hope 228
 hyperactivity 107–108
see also ADHD
- I
- impulsivity 108
 infant, psychobiological development 122–135
 internal world, making sense of 202–206
 interpersonal cognitive problem solving 287
 interpersonal exchanges, reflection on meaning 1–2
- L
- language see emotional language lie-telling 141–142
 life event, overwhelming 201–202
 loneliness 177
 lying 24, 25, 140–141
- M
- MacArthur Story Stem technique 8
 meaning, effect on observable
 behaviour 3, 6, 9
- memories, traumatic 151–157
- memory
 attention to detail 162–163
 autobiographical 146–157
 hard-wiring 145
 lack 8, 11, 149
 processing 145–146
 retelling 147
 short-term vs long-term 146
 store 146
- mentalising 2
- metaphor 197–217
 as agent of change 217
 definition 197
 in natural language of children 198–207
 and the parent 207–217
 use 206–207
- mind
 emerging 2
 theory of 3–4, 41–44
- modelling 131–135
- mother see parents
- N
- nightmares 155–157
- O
- observation
 of child's drawing process 13, 14
 of parent–child relationship
 2–3
- oppositional behaviour
 child's view 180–181
 coercive cycle 108
 parents' view 32, 63, 85–86, 88, 170, 195
 therapist's response 220
 as type of aggression 5, 24, 25
 as way of managing distress 55, 79
- oppositional defiant disorder (ODD) 5, 24, 281
- oppositional domain 95, 96

- P
- parent-child relationship
 - importance 121
 - mismatch of actions and emotions 91-94
 - observational studies 2
 - parental abuse/neglect/rejection 132, 167, 181, 189, 197-198
 - parental letters 17-19, 37, 50-51, 61, 80-81, 97-98, 115-116, 158
 - Gail/Derek 250-280
 - parents
 - aggressive 75-76, 202-203
 - anger or withdrawal 122-123
 - attributes 16-17
 - avoidant 79-91, 97
 - childhood experiences 138-143
 - and child's emotions 122, 136-138
 - child's mental image 3, 69-70, 147
 - commitment and involvement required 17
 - fear of inadequacy 61-65, 82
 - fear of losing control 82
 - inconsistent/unpredictable 70-71, 102
 - and metaphor 207-217
 - new insights 19
 - overwhelmed by child's behaviour 9, 101-106
 - problem solving 186-196
 - reaction to aggressive behaviour 49, 95
 - reflection 60-61, 67-68, 96, 207
 - reporting specific memories 17-20, 102, 136, 157, 186
 - responsibility 82
 - and RICAP 5-6, 16-21, 157-158
 - view of aggressive behaviour 9
 - want medical diagnosis 56
 - want to feel understood 17
 - see also* adults
 - play domain 96
 - problem
 - denial 166-171
 - drawing 234-237
 - identification by others 172-176
 - straight from the heart of the child 176-182
 - problem solving 8, 165-196, 287
 - psychobiological development 122-135
- R
- reflection
 - and aggression 44
 - and attachment 42-43
 - by parent 60-61, 67-68
 - and coherence 57-58
 - definition 3
 - facilitating 5-6, 134
 - process and meaning 43-44
 - reduced capacity 8, 95, 107
 - role in psychobiological development 124
 - Reflective Interpersonal Therapy for Children and Parents (RICAP)
 - background to development 26-27
 - description of the intervention 5-24
 - encouraging flexibility of mind and thought 243
 - ensuring attendance 97
 - extending child's emotional language 237
 - opens up possibilities of change 228
 - overall aim 5-6
 - parent sessions 17-21
 - and parents 56, 57, 103
 - processes rather than symptomatic behaviour 39
 - randomised controlled trial 289-292
 - structure 9-10
 - theoretical stances 6
 - therapeutic benefit 2
 - therapist's role 9

rejection trap 211–213 relationships at home 200–201
 restlessness 108
 ritalin 20, 102, 149, 180, 220, 264
see also attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) role reversal 85

S

sadness and anger 226
 in babies 119
 managing 203
 staying 'stuck' 152–155
 unacceptable 131, 134
 scary things 46, 84–85, 136, 185, 226, 237, 243–245
 school bullying 158–159, 182–185
 difficulties 14–15, 283
 exclusion 15, 115, 219
 fears 237, 240, 243–246, 248, 249
 self-agency 181
 self-control 110
 self-deception 196
 self-esteem 214
 building up 164, 276, 277
 fabricated 44, 136, 247
 genuine 13
 in parent 82, 158, 160, 189, 259
 poor 166, 283
 self-harm 14–15, 76–79, 126–128

self-image 125–128
 sense of self 125–128
 sensory register 146
 signals vs symbols 68
 social helplessness 150
 social referencing 120
 symbolic, Jung's definition 197

T

temper
 coping strategies 30
 meaning 253–254
 parent's 103
 as symptom of ODD 281
 underlying feelings 31–37
 theory of mind 3–4, 41–44
 therapeutic relationship 4, 71, 135, 149, 163, 192
 therapist
 attention to detail 192
 helps parents find strategies 101
 observation of the drawing process 13, 14
 sensitivity 224
 skills 10, 54–55, 195, 207–208, 209, 220
 target of negative feelings 135 threat, defence against 7–8
 time spent together 211–213, 215–217
 trauma and negative behaviours 49–57
 trust 175–176, 274