

Index

360 degree feedback 72

A

acceptance 222
accountability 127
accreditation, coach 172–82 areas of competence and 181–2 criteria 173–6
 process 176–81
action 137, 138, 139
aim of coaching 5–6
analytic method 16, 18
angst 2
anxieties 3, 57–8
 about behaviour of coaches 135 due to behaviour of coachee 120–1
 about boundaries of coaching 116, 133–4
 coaching 3
 about coach's own intuition 118–19, 134
 about coach's own role 117–18, 134
 about contribution of coaches 119–20, 134
 learning and 25
 around satisfying outcomes 116–17, 134
 stemming mainly from coach 121–3, 135

Ashridge Leadership Process 73 attitude of coach 161

B

belief 43
benchmarking 23
boundaries of coaching 116, 133–4 breakdown of relationship 138, 139 breakthrough moments 103
Breuer, Joseph 209, 210
Buddhism 156

C

challenging coaching style 164 change, satisfactory 138, 139 Cicero 5
client-centred approach 52 client-directed coaching 53 coach, definition 22–3
coach development programmes 23
coachee-focused approach 163 Coaching Behaviours Questionnaire 74, 76
coaching conversation 7 coaching database 237 coaching logbook 188 coaching relationship 237–8 developing 8–12
 supervision as 196–7
coaching science 237
co-coaching 188–9

- code of ethics 172–3 cognitive-behavioural therapy 27 cognitive therapy 35 commitment 43, 241
common factors 38–9, 43–4, 45, 104, 173, 237
communication techniques 162 competences of coach 159–1 complementary unconscious identification 195
congruence 222
connectedness 24
construction of conversation 14 containment 98, 124–5, 141–2, 150, 151
contract 29
anxiety about 133–4 conversation 211–14
coaching 7
construction and deconstruction of 14
direction of 101
doubts about 98, 100–1 convictions of coach 43, 159–61 counselling methods 8, 16, 18 counter-transference 99, 103, 113, 150, 214
counteraction 137, 138, 139 critical incidents technique 97 critical moments 56–61 doubts and 97–102
of experienced coaches 109–29 handling 97–8, 115–25, 131–53 initial classification 94, 112–14 of less experienced coaches 93–107
temporal patterns 137–42
- D
deconstruction of conversation 14 deepening of relationship 138, 139 defence 137
Descartes: Meditations 106
- development of individuals and groups 162
development of organisations 162 directing coaching style 90, 164 direction of coaching contribution 14, 15
direction of conversation 101 discovering coaching style 164 distancing 137, 138, 139 doctor/patient relationship 11–12 Dodo conjecture 37, 240 dogmatism 42–3
doubts 95–6
about boundaries of coaching conversations 101–2
of coach 62
about coaching conversation 98 about coaching relationship and transference 98–100
existential 62
about guiding the coaching conversations 100–1
handling of 97–8
- E
eclecticism 240
education, coach 164–72 effect size 33–6
effectiveness 33–6
effectiveness/ROI paradigm 237 egodocuments 127
emotion 137, 139
empathy 222
Encouragement 83
ethical dilemma 137
European Mentoring & Coaching Council (EMCC) 23
evaluative attitude 222 existential doubts 62
existential tensions 61 experience, benefits of 104–5 expert advice 5 expertise 27
exploration joint 14

- external factors 39, 44
Eysenck, Hans 32
- F
- family therapy, structural approach to 215
- Fineman: Four-force model 185
- first impressions 8–10
- Five Forces Model (Porter) 185
- formative function of coaching supervision 190
- Foucault, Michel 204
Fearless Speech 228–31
- Freud, Sigmund 11, 209, 210, 223
- G
- globalisation 24
- group supervision, process of 198–200
- GROW method 16, 18, 219
- growth in coaching 21–30
- guild master/freeman relationship 11
- H
- Hawkins, Peter and Shohet, Robin 204
Supervision in the helping professions 231–3
- Hawthorne effect 53, 71
- helper's syndrome 105, 214
- Helpfulness study 73–91
- Heron, John: Helping the Client 218–21
- history of coaching 5
- hobbyism 27
- Homer: Odyssey 5, 204–6
- I
- ideological commitment 41, 42, 43
- ideology 37–8
- individual consultation 8
- individual professional development 186–8
- individual psychotherapy 223–5
- individual supervision, process of 195–8
- informing coaching style 164
- insight-focused coaching 15, 16, 163, 219
- insight meditation 155–6
- instrumental doubts 62
- instrumental tensions 60
- integrative coaching 27
- interior dialogue 136
- interior monologue 137, 138, 139
- internal coach 8, 17
- internal dilemma 137
- internal supervision 55
- internalisation 148
- International Coach Federation
(ICF) 23
- interpersonal theory 53
- intuition, anxieties about 118–19, 134
- inverse projection 195
- ironic method 16, 18
- irritation 141
- issue 137, 138, 139
- K
- knowledge of coach 161–2
- Kolb's Learning Style Inventory 74
- L
- ladder method 16, 18
- language 237
- leadership effectiveness 71
- learning anxiety 25, 26
- learning by coaches 104
- Learning Style Inventory (LSA IIa) 74, 76
- learning styles 83–4, 90
- Listening 83
- M
- Malan, David 204
Individual Psychotherapy 223–5

- management of expectations 163 mentee satisfaction with mentoring relationship 71
 mentoring 8, 71, 189, 195–6 meta-analyses 32–6, 55, 237 mid-life crisis 209–11
 midwife/mother relationship 12
 Miller, Alice: Drama des begabten Kindes, Das 203, 225–8 moments of coaching 238 moments of meeting 126
 morality 239
- N
- narrative study 111
 nature of coaching contribution 14, 15
 needs of coach and coachee 10
 Nietzsche, Friedrich 209, 210, 211, 228
 nihilism 240
 normative function of coaching supervision 190
 now-moments 126
 numbfish, encounter with 207–9
- O
- object relations school 53 old boys relationship 12
 O'Neill, Mary Beth 204
 Executive Coaching with Backbone and Heart 214–16
 organisation coach 13–14 organisation coaching 16, 21 organisation development 26, 27 organisations
 coachee's 238
 role of coaching in 238–41 outcome expectancies 72
- P
- paradoxical coaching 16, 18, 230
 parallel projection 195 parrhesia 229–30–1
 parrhesiastic contract 229 peer consultation 188–9 peer review relationship 12
 Peltier, Bruce 204
 Psychology of Executive Coaching, The 216–18
 performance anxiety 2 person-focused coaching 15, 16, 219 person of the client 43–5 person of the therapist 40–3 personal development 26, 27 personality of coach 220–1 placebo effect 99
 Plato 5, 204
 Meno, The 207–9
 Porter: Five Forces Model 185 preferred approach 55 problem, definition 6 problem-focused coaching 15, 16, 163, 219
 problem owner 6
 professionalisation 27–8 provocative coaching 16, 230 psychodynamics 162
 psychotherapy 19, 22, 28, 42 knowledge of 162
- Q
- qualitative study 111 quality of client/therapist
 relationship 39
 quantitative outcome research 70
- R
- rational-emotive coaching 219
 re-contracting 138
 referral 50
 reflection 138, 139
 reintegration 38
 relational coaching 52–6, 61–3, 240, 241

relational doubts 62
 relational psychoanalysis 53 relational tensions 60 relationships 162, 241
 coaching 237–8
 developing 8–12
 supervision as 196–7
 releasing coaching style 84, 164 research in coaching 237–8 resistance 214
 resonance 197
 restorative function of coaching supervision 190
 Rogers, Carl 16, 52, 90, 97, 204
 On Becoming a Person 221–3
 Rosenzweig conjecture 37–9

S
 satisfaction
 coachee 33
 mentee, with mentoring
 relationship 71
 scope of coaching issues 7–8, 9 selective approach 55
 self-changing 52
 self-efficacy beliefs 72 self-help 44
 self-knowledge 162
 self-love 230
 self-monitoring 55
 self-understanding 52
 Seneca 5
 seven-eyed supervision model 190–1, 232
 seven-ring model 191–5, 241 social trends, underlying 24, 26 Socrates 207, 208
 solution-focused coaching 15, 16, 18, 163, 219
 sparring partner 12
 stage fright 2
 strategic skills of coach 162–3

Stroeken, Harry 204
 Kline psychologie van het gesprek 211–14
 struggles 122–5
 to contribute coach's own observations 125
 to contribute containment to the
 relationship 124–5
 to retain/increase coach's ability to put things into perspective 123–4
 to stay fresh and receptive 122–3
 supervision 132, 142–50
 coaching 189–200
 function 190
 learning outcome 146–8 participants' motivation for using 143–4 response to critical moments 144–6
 supporting coaching style 90, 164 survival anxiety 25, 26 systematic desensitisation 35

T
 team coaching 21
 Ten Commandments for executive coach 47–51
 tensions 102–3
 therapy 7
 therapy help 44
 thick skin 58
 thin skin 58
 transference 98–100, 105, 150, 190, 197, 212, 213, 214, 232 triangular relationship 215 triangulation, anxiety about 133–4 turning point moments 126

U
 unconscious identification 195 Understanding 83
 unknown future 138, 139

unpredictability 127
unshared reflection 137

V

values of coach 159–61
vulnerability of clients 29 vulnerability of coaching 29

W

warmth 222
Weber, Max 239

weird moments 126
working alliance 11, 39–46, 132, 162

Worldwide Association of Business
Coaches (WABC) 23

Y

Yalom, Irvin: When Nietzsche Wept 204, 209–11