

CONTENTS

Foreword	vii
by Kate Roberts
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction: Lost in Sherwood Forest	1
Facing the Fact That Marketing Is a Must
1. The Heart of Robin Hood Marketing	10
Focus on Getting People to Do Something Specific
2. Robin Hood Reconnaissance	36
Appeal to Your Audiences' Values, Not Your Own
3. The Village Square	66
React to the Forces at Work in the Marketplace
4. All for One and One for All—We Wish	84
Stake a Strong Competitive Position
5. Building a Merry Band	104
Partner Around Mutual Benefits
6. The Heart of the Good Archer's Arrow	130
Put the Case First and the Cause Second
7. Sharpening the Arrow's Point	162
The Four Things Your Message Must Do
8. Aiming for Hearts and Minds	184
Take Your Message to Where Your Audiences Are
9. Robin Hood Media Savvy	216
Approach the Media as a Target Market
10. Letting Your Arrow Fly	240
Execute Campaigns and Assess Their Worth

Notes	265
The Author	271