

---

I N D E X

- A
- Abandonment, 51, 53, 57–58
- Abortion, 149
- Abraham, God of, 20, 80, 99, 114, 115, 166, 167
- Acts of the Apostles, 15, 16, 26–29, 127, 150; date of writing of, 143; and inclusion of Greeks and Romans, 31; origin of Christian community in, 27, 39–40
- Aeschylus, 79–80, 87
- Agamemnon* (Aeschylus), 87
- Agape*, 30
- Ajax, 8
- Albrecht, Bishop, 175
- Albright, William, 104
- Alexander the Great, 81
- Alexandria, 81, 97, 136, 146–148
- Ali, Khalifah, 126
- Ali, Muhammad, 126
- America, evangelism in, 178–183
- Ananias, 15
- Anathema, 153
- Anatolia, 81
- “And immediately,” 94
- Andrew (brother of Peter), 139
- Anonymous adulteress, tale of, 113
- Anti-Christ, 182
- Anticipation, 45, 51
- Antigone, 84
- Antigone* (Sophocles), 83; as horizontal tragedy, 83
- Antioch (Syria), 4, 20, 158
- Anti-Semitism, 166
- Anti-tragedy, 7–8
- Apocalypse of Peter, 137, 144
- Apocryphon of John, 137
- Apostle, Luke’s definition of, 39–40
- Apostoloi*, 39
- Aquinas, Thomas, 160
- Aramaic language, 81
- Archeological discoveries, 14, 99
- Arch-heresies, 155
- Arion*, 79
- Aristotle, 83, 89, 90, 160, 171; Poetics of, 82
- Arius, 147, 151–152, 153
- Ascetic desert movement, 148
- Asia, 134
- Athanasius, 147, 148, 160, 162, 165
- Athens, 158, 158–159
- Augustine of Hippo, 136, 162
- Augustinians, 174, 176

- Authority, 26, 31, 121; apostolic, 113; Christian, 150; early Christian, 130, 180; of Gnostics, 137; of God, 113; Gospel of Mary as text about complexity of, 139; of gospel writers, 126; of Jesus, 91, 108, 112, 113; of Mary Magdalene, 31–32, 71, 108, 128, 142; and Nag Hammadi, 131–137, 145; of New Testament, 145; of Peter, 71, 108, 122, 128, 142; question of, 126; religious, 140; of Roman Catholic church, 163; Synoptic, 108, 143; of Thomas, 71, 108, 121, 128; traditional, 178; true nature of, 30; of women, 140
- Authorship, 127
- B
- Bacon, Benjamin Wisner, 104
- Balkans, 166
- Barnabas, Epistle of, 144
- Basil the Great, 162
- “Beginning,” 95
- Berlin Codex, 137–138, 140
- Bethany, 27, 117
- Bethlehem, 38
- Betrayal, 42, 46, 47, 72, 74, 94; in Synoptic story of Gethsemane, 68–69
- Bible: availability of, 163; and biblical inerrancy, 180; conflict in, 12; early conception of, 144; as human book, 2–3
- Birth of Tragedy* (Nietzsche), 88
- Body and blood, eating and drinking of, 112–113
- Botticelli, 159
- Bramante, 159
- Brunelleschi, 159
- Bultmann, Rudolf, 133
- Buoarrotti, Michelangelo, 159
- Burdon, Christopher, 66
- C
- Caesar’s census, 39
- Cana, wedding in, 108
- Canon, 144; of Athanasius, 147; from, to creeds, 149–156; limits of, 145; from scriptures to, 143–148; use of, versus traditions, 156. See also Kanon
- Caution, 187
- Cephas*, 54. See also Peter; Simon
- Chalcedonian Creed, 146–147, 155
- Christ, the, 153
- Christian bishops, 4, 145, 152, 153, 158, 175, 186
- Christian death wish, 76
- Christian origins: and “Christian,” 4–5; crucible for, 81; and first answers, 32–36; and first arguments, 29–32; and first questions, 26–29; modern quest for, 17–36; and recovering Greekness of gospels, 164; and rising of Jesus, 21–25

Index

- Christian orthodoxy, 143–144, 153; great dispersion and, 127;
as response to diversity, 143;
shaping of, 125–156
- Christian Patiens*, 80
- Christianity: becomes state religion of Rome, 158; and Christian tradition, 170; ethics of, 172;
as historical religion, 3; later, 9–10; as scriptural religion, 3; as tragic faith, 89
- Christians, 6; definition of, by negative logic, 154; first use of term, 20. See also Early Christians; Later Christians;
Modern Christian churches;
North American Christians
- Christology, 130, 147, 149, 150,
160, 173; and Christological monologue, 70
- Christos*, 4, 111
- Chrysostom, John, 158, 162, 165
- Circumcision, 16, 31
- Classical philology, 159
- Classical traditions, 159
- Clement, 162
- Cleopas, 21, 23, 27, 129
- Codex*, 131
- Codices, 131, 137, 145
- Compassion, Christian, 10, 11, 35–36, 89, 101, 118, 124;
change in conception of, 5, 6;
evangelical exercises in killing,
174–178; fear versus, 7–8; from,
to damning judgment, 106;
new kind of, 95, 118
- Condemnation, 109–110, 116, 121
- Constantine the Great, 149, 150, 155, 158
- Constantinian Church, 164
- Constantinople, ecumenical council at, 150
- Consubstantiality, 153
- Conversion, 180
- Coptic Greek language, 132,
137–138
- Corinthians, second letter of Paul to, 125, 129
- Council of Nicaea, 150, 151
- Council of Trent, 144
- Creationist view, 187
- Creeds, 149–156
- Creon, 84
- Crete, 1, 17, 18
- Crucifixion, 18, 118, 122, 142;
scandal of, 34
- ## D
- Da Vinci, Leonardo, 159
- Damnation, rhetoric of, 167, 174
- Daniel, 135
- Dante, 81
- Darkness, imagery of, 46, 97–98,
106, 118, 121, 122, 166, 186
- David, King, 28, 94, 116
- Dead Sea Scrolls, 13, 16, 114, 144
- Deliverance, 53, 70
- Delphi, 85
- Desert fathers, 148
- Deuteronomy, 115–116, 171

- Devotional writing, 3
Diatessaron (Tatian), 146
 Didymus Judas Thomas, 121, 129
 “Disciple,” 39
 Disciples: failure of, 33; three favorite, 50
 Discipleship, essence of, 43, 65
 Divine comedy, 81
 Divine will, 76
 Divinity, 54
 Division, 51, 53
 Doctrine, 126
 Doubling, 72–73
 Doubt, 10, 54, 76, 118, 178, 186
 “Doubting Thomas,” 121
Doubting Thomas (Most), 1
Doxa, 86–87
 Duality, in character of Jesus, 54
 “Duino Elegies” (Rilke), 157
- E
- Early Christians, 123, 125; and forming of Early Christianity, 145; and language of rules and law, 29–30; as messianic Jews, 4
 Eastern Mediterranean world, 81, 134
 Eastern Orthodox Bible, 144
 Eastern Orthodox Church, 149–150, 155
 Eating, symbolic importance of, 25
Ecclesiastical History (Eusebius), 149
 Eck, Johannes, 175
 Ecumenical council, 150
 Eden, 70
Egô eimi, 114
 Egypt, 14, 27, 29, 81, 126, 137, 148
 Ehrman, Bart, 113
 Elijah, 90, 93
 Emmaeus road, 21, 23–25, 27
 Ephraim, 117
Episkopos, 145
 Erasmus, Desiderius, 160–164, 170, 173, 174, 179; and end to claims of biblical inerrancy, 180
 Eteocles, 84
 Ethics, 149
 Eucharist, 180
 Euripides, 79–80
 European Christians, 160
 Eusebius, 149
 Evangel, 7–8. See also John, Evangel of Evangelical Protestantism, 6, 186; and exercises in killing compassion, 174–178; and fundamentalism, 179; and Luther, 178
Evangelion, 32
 Evangelism, 6, 100–101, 105, 123; in America, 178–183
 Evil, of people, 109–110
 Evolution, 187
 Exodus, 114, 169
 Ezekiel, 135
- F
- Failure, totality of, 65
 Faith, 34, 169; and “faith alone,” 171, 174

Index

- Falwell, Jerry, 179
- Fate, 60
- Fear, 15–16, 36, 69, 95, 118, 186;
as most fundamental Christian emotion, 7–8; versus pity and compassion, 7–8
- Feast of Dedication, 116
- Feast of Tabernacles, 113
- Florence, 159
- Following, 44, 45; as heart of discipleship, 43; in Luke, 43, 62
- Freud, Sigmund, 84
- Fundamentalism, 6, 164, 179
- G
- Galatians, Paul's letter to, 31
- Galilee, 23, 47, 91, 93, 112
- Gardner-Smith, P., 104
- Garrett, Susan, 91
- Genesis, 99, 166
- German language, 165
- Gethsemane story, 9; failure of disciples in, 33; as heart of Christian compassion, 37–77;
John's mocking rejection of, 9,
35; John's version of, 67–75;
loneliness of, 36; Luke's main point in, 45; Luke's version of,
40–47; Mark's rendition of,
54–66; Matthew's version of,
47–54; meaning of name of, 57;
personal marks of gospel authors in, 75–77; three essential components of Synoptic story of, 68–69, 74
- Gnosis*, 133
- Gnostic*, 133–134
- Gnostic gospels, 129, 146; as anti-tragic, 69; two problems with, 136
- Gnostics, 15, 122, 136–138, 142,
153; secret books of, 126, 134;
Zoroastrian, 134
- God: of Abraham and Moses, 80; of decisive deeds, 61; as immaterial Light, 136; Incarnate, 136; Kingdom of, 27, 28, 36; as lost, 59; questions about justice of, 169;
steadfastness of biblical, 34; will
of, 45, 46, 54
- Good and evil, battles between,
105, 186
- Good Samaritan, 110
- Good works, 171, 172
- Goodenough, E. R., 104
- Gospel(s), 67; alternative, 126;
and argument about rules, authority and quality of human life, 31; from, to evangel, 106–118; genre of second- and third-century, 129; "Harmony," 146; historical and spiritual,
146; as historical documents,
3–4; invention of, 32; and law,
29–30; as new literary genre, 7,
19–21; recovering Greekness of,
164; relation of tragedy to, 6
- Greek*, 158
- Greek converts, 16. See also Greeks; Pagan Greece

- Greek language, 4, 6, 81, 160
 Greek philosophy, 171
 Greek tragedy, 8, 21, 43, 45, 105;
     and Greek tragedians, 135–136;
     pity, fear, and compassion in, 7
 Greeks, 4, 8; and recovering
     Greekness of gospels, 164. See also
     Greek converts; Pagan Greece
 Gregory the Great, Pope, 26
- H
- Hamilton, Edith, 87
Hamlet (Shakespeare), 86
 Harnack, Adolf von, 133
 Harrison, Tony, 79
 Hebrew Bible, 29–30, 34, 144
 Hebrew language, 4
 Hebrew scriptures, 8, 22–23, 25,
     53; translation of, into Greek,
     81
 Hegel, G.W.F., 12, 82–87, 89, 105; horizontal and vertical tragedy in, 83; tragedy as moral collision in, 82–83
 Helena, Saint, 177
 Hellenism, 7, 158
 Heracleon, 135
 Heracles, 8
 Heresy, 69, 76–77, 142, 149, 151,
     153; arch-, 154, 155; pagan, 158
 Herod, 92
 Heterodoxy, 141
 “Higher criticism,” 164
 Holy Spirit, 27–29, 45
 Homer, 43, 46, 89, 135–136
 Horizontal collision of wills, 83,
     85, 92, 105; versus conflict between good and evil, 105
 Human destiny, Greek conception of, 60
 Human suffering, 82, 98
 Humanists, 161
- I
- “I am” sayings, 35, 70, 73, 114
 Idolatry, 158
Iliad (Homer), 20
 “Iliad, or, the Poem of Force”
     (Weil), 157
 Incarnation of God, identification of Jesus as, 146, 147, 149,
     150–151, 153
 India, 81
 Ingolstadt, 175
 Inner circle, 62
 Intensity, 50
Ioudas. See Judas Iscariot
 Irenaeus, 162
 Isaac, 99, 114
 Israel: God’s covenant with, 19–20;
     restoration of Kingdom of, 28
 Italian Christians, 160
 Italian Renaissance, 82, 159,
     163–164. See also Renaissance
- J
- Jacob, 114
 Jairus’s daughter, 62
 James (brother of Jesus), 26, 129,
     133, 134; letters of, 172

- James, Secret Book of, 138
- Jerome, 160–162
- Jerusalem, 21–23, 25, 113, 116, 134; Council at, 150; Temple, 13–14, 25, 94, 109, 110, 113; destruction of, 19
- Jesus: baptism of, 108; as divided in heart, 62; family of, 26; Gnostic picture of, 136; as God's incarnate Logos, 71; as Incarnate Word of God, 118; innermost circle of, 57; as Jew in Greek and Roman world, 4; length of ministry of, 8–9, 117; messianic status of, 33; nature of, in John, 10, 69, 70, 76, 105, 107–111, 114, 115, 117, 119, 166, 178; nature of, in Luke, 59–60; nature of, in Mark, 57–59, 117, 180, 187, 188; scandal of unexpected execution of, 5, 7; as “second Person” in divine Trinity, 147; women followers of, 23–24
- Jewish: identity, 13; prophecies, fulfillment of, 71
- Jews, 4, 10, 119; evangel as extended polemic against, 121; Luther's war against, 165–168
- Joanna, 24
- John, 133, 134; Apocryphon of, 137; attitude of, toward Greeks, 122; attitude of, toward Jews, 120–121; and authority figures, 121; as “beloved disciple,” 107–108, 120, 122, 128; fundamental irony of, 120; letters of, 162, 172; versus Mark, 103–106
- John, Evangel of, 7–10, 34, 100, 186; absence of parable in, 35; anti-Thomas dimension of, 121; as anti-tragedy, 7–8, 101, 107; and authority, 120–124; as canon within Christian canon, 173; chronology of, 35; and concept of Christianity, 4–5; date of, 143; denial of Christian tragedy in, 76; difference of, from Synoptic gospels, 6–7; divine comedy in, 76, 112, 118; element of farce in, 70, 112; evangelical vision of, 105; as extended polemic against Jews, 121; as gospel of choice for new converts, 11; from gospel to evangel form in, 106–124; “I am” sayings in, 35; irony in, 73, 74; and Martin Luther, 157–183; ministry of Jesus in, 8–9; negative logic in, 154; and new description of Jesus's personality and life, 5–6; orthodoxy in, 69; place of, at heart of Luther's Reformation, 165, 178, 187; shocking twist in, 10; turning against world in, 118–120; as upending of Christian world created by Mark, 8–9
- John, letters of, 161, 172, 180
- John Mark, 127
- John of Damascus, Saint, 155

- John the Baptist, 90, 92, 93, 108, 117
- John-centered spirituality, 6
- Jonas, Hans, 133
- Jordan River, 90
- Joseph, 38
- Judaism, 7, 35, 71; rabbinic, 81
- Judas, Gospel of, 14, 69
- Judas Iscariot, 28–29, 41, 46, 49, 57, 59, 64, 67–69, 71, 72, 113
- Judeans, 111
- Judgment, 106, 118, 174
- Justinian, 158–159
- K
- Kanon, 144. See also Canon
- Kedron Valley, 67
- Kennedy, George, 89
- Kerr, Walter, 17, 79, 81–82
- King of the Jews, Jesus as, 119
- Kingdom of God, 27, 28, 36
- Knowledge, 133
- Knowledge, faith versus, 177
- Knowledge-Savior, 136
- Krutch, Joseph Wood, 103
- L
- Later Christians, 9–10, 96
- Lateran Palace (Rome), 176–177
- Latin language, 153
- Latin Vulgate, 160
- Law, 92; language of, 29–30
- Law of Moses, 16, 29–30, 31, 80, 171
- Lazarus, 117
- Leo X, Pope, 175
- Leo XIII, Pope, 155
- Levi, 139
- Listening, 65
- Literary genre, Mark’s invention of new, 19–21, 32, 79
- Logos*, 71, 74, 106–118, 123, 161; becomes verbum, 161; Incarnate, 149
- Loneliness, 51
- Love: compassionate, 109; principle of selfless and reconciling, 14–15; reconciling Christian, 30; tragedy-informed, 98
- Luke, 5, 14–15, 40–41; association of, with Paul, 128
- Luke, Gospel of, 34, 39; date of, 143; influence of Mark on, 33; nature of Jesus in, 59, 60; prayer in Gethsemane in, 40–47; as Synoptic gospel, 6
- Luther, Martin, 6, 157–183; brilliant achievement of, 165; and church traditions, 170; influence of Erasmus on, 164; On Jews and Their Lies, 167; and ninety-five theses, 174–175; rhetoric of damnation of, 167; That Jesus Christ Was Born a Jew, 167
- “Lutherans,” 175
- M
- Mainz, 175
- Malchus, 68, 73

- Marcus. See Mark
- Mark, 55, 142; as disciple of Peter, 127–128; John versus, 103–124; as tragedian, 79–80
- Mark, Gospel of: 180, 117; audience of, 98–100; and birth of Christian genre, 79; date of, 143; genius of, 7; heart of, 36; and heart of human tragedy, 63; and invention of Christian gospel, 7; and invention of new literary genre, 32; knowledge of Homer of, 89; nature of Jesus in, 57–59, 62, 63, 91, 92, 97–98, 117, 180, 187, 188; question of spiritual attention in, 58; revision of ending of, by later New Testament authors, 8, 99; as Synoptic gospel, 6; tragic heart of, 77; tragic manner of, 33, 35–36; tragic suffering in, 18–19; version of execution of Jesus, 5–6
- Martyrdom, 10–11, 96, 99, 124
- Mary, 24, 26; authority of, 71
- Mary Magdalene, Gospel of, 14, 137–139
- Mary of Magdala, 24, 26, 97, 129, 138, 139; authority of, 31–32, 71, 108, 128, 142
- Mathetes*, 39
- Matthew, 5, 47–48; as eyewitness, 128
- Matthew, Gospel of, 172; date of, 143; influence of Mark on, 33; nature of Jesus in, 59; as Synoptic gospel, 6; version of Gethsemane in, 37–54
- Matthias, 28–29
- McDonald, Dennis, 89
- Medici popes, 164
- Mediterranean piracy, 17
- Melanchthon, Philipp, 164
- Messiah, 58, 93, 108, 111, 116
- Messiah*, 4
- Metellus, 1
- Midsummer Night's Dream* (Shakespeare), 86
- Ministry, length of Jesus's, 8–9, 70, 146
- Miracle sources, 141
- Miracles, 142; and feeding of five thousand people, 112; and Lazarus, 117
- Modern Christian churches, 35
- Modern period, 149
- Modern Temper, The* (Krutch), 103
- Monasteries, Christian, in Egypt, 148
- Monasticism, 148
- Money changers, 94
- Moral perfection, 30
- Moses, 22–23, 80, 90, 114, 171
- Most, B., 1
- Mount of Olives, 41–44, 57
- N
- Nag Hammadi, 126, 128, 129, 135, 137, 142, 148, 153, 181; authority and, 131–137; codices, 145

- Nag Hammadi Library, 14, 16,
27, 69, 104, 121, 126–132,
140, 142, 147–148, 152, 180;
eclecticism of, 132
- Name-calling, 182
- Natural reason, 171
- Nazareth, 38
- Nazianus, Gregory, 162
- Neoplatonism, 158–159
- New Testament, 3; archeological and historical perspective on, 29; arguing in, 30; great divide in,
12; language of, 81; and use of name “Christian,” 4
- Nicaea, 150, 151, 153, 154
- Nicene Creed, 123, 146–147,
150–156
- Nicodemus, 109
- Nicomachean Ethics* (Aristotle), 171
- Nietzsche, Friedrich, 87–89,
104–106, 165
- Ninety-five theses, 174–175
- North American Christians, 6, 39, 155, 163, 178; impact of Protestant Reformation on,
178–183
- Northern Italian university culture, 159
- O
- Odyssey* (Homer), 20
- Oedipus, 8, 84, 85
- Oedipus at Colonus* (Sophocles), 85
- Oedipus the King* (Sophocles), 83; as vertical tragedy, 84
- Old Testament, 3
- Olympic Games, 158
- On Jews and Their Lies* (Luther), 167
- Optimism, 86
- Oral traditions, 20–21, 141
- Origen of Alexandria, 136, 146,
162
- Original sin, 116, 171, 177
- “Orthodox,” 135
- Orthodox Christianity, 141,
150–151
- Orthodoxy, 143, 147, 151,
152, 154
- “Other,” 154; self-definition at expense of, 182
- Ottoman Turks, 166, 182
- P
- Pachomius, Saint, 148
- Pagan Greece, 71, 80, 160
- Paganism, 158–160
- Pagels, Elaine, 121, 134–135,
147–148
- Pain, 35–36
- Palestine: revolt in, 19; Roman occupation of, 18
- Parables, 33, 70, 92; in John, 3;
and parable about scattering of seed, 57, 58
- Paschal Lamb of God, 117
- Passion narrative, 118–119; in Mark, 63
- Passion of Christ, 70, 169
- Passover, 112, 149–150, 169
- Pathos, 7–8, 23, 50, 51, 53, 86–87

- Patriotism, 187
- Paul, 26, 34, 40, 129, 130,
171, 172; arguments with Peter,
31; letters of, 125, 172; second letter of, to Corinthians,
125, 129
- Peira*, 43
- Peirasmon*, 43
- Pentecost, 29, 45
- Persia, 81
- Pessimism, 86
- Peter, 15, 24, 26, 43, 48, 50,
54, 62, 64, 69, 95, 96, 107,
122, 128, 129, 133–134, 138,
138–139, 139, 142; Apocalypse of, 137, 144; arguments of, with Paul, 31; authority of, 71, 108,
122, 128, 142; letters of, 172;
place of, in innermost circle, 57;
role of, 128; takes up informal leadership, 28
- Peter, Gospel of, 69
- Petros*, 54. See also Peter; Simon
- Phalasarna, Crete, 1, 17–18
- Pharisees, hypocrisy of, 94
- Philemon, 156
- Pilate, Pontius, 119, 177
- Pity, 7–8, 36, 118
- Plato, 81–82, 132, 136, 145
- Polemic, theology through, 182
- Polyneices, 84
- Pompey, 1
- Porphyry, 97
- Possibility, 49, 52
- Power, 46
- Prayer, 43–47, 49, 51, 53, 59;
Luke's obsession with, 42; in Synoptic story of Gethsemane,
68–69
- Preaching, 25, 28, 38
- Prophets, 22–23, 53, 144
- Protestant Christians, 6, 10–11, 149–150; Bible, 144; emergence of, 163; rhetoric of, 163–174;
and United States as Protestant country, 155
- Protestant Reformation, 144, 159;
alleged beginning of, 174–175
- Pseudonymous authorship, 127
- Ptolemy, 135
- Q
- Qumran, 13, 104
- Qur'an, 8
- R
- Rabbi, depiction of Jesus as, 39
- Raphael, 159
- Rebirth, 159
- Redemption, tragic, 87
- Reformation, 155; rhetoric of, 163–174
- Religious communities, formation
of, 29
- Religious images, 150
- Religious right, 187
- Renaissance, 159, 160; humanists,
161; Luther's Christian, 177; and Renaissance evangel, 161–163.
See also Italian Renaissance

- Republic* (Plato), 132
 Resoluteness, 51, 52
 Resurrection, 95, 96; in John, 121;
     in Luke, 21–25; nature of, 25
 Retrospect, 131
 Revelation, 135
 Riley, Gregory, 121
 Rilke, Rainer Maria, 157
 Robbins, Vernon, 89
 Roman Army, 1
 Roman Catholic Bible, 144
 Roman Catholic Church, 155, 160,
     162; liturgy of, 160; Luther's
     breaking with, 176
 Roman Catholics, 163, 179
 Roman civil administration, 94
 Roman Empire, 1, 14, 28, 30, 145
 Roman Palestine, 91
 Roman tragedians, 79–80
 Romans, 9, 10; as executors of Jesus, 18
 Romans, Paul's letter to, 172–173
 Romantic poets, 82
 Rome, 54, 134, 158
 Rotterdam, Netherlands, 160
- S
- Saint Peter's Cathedral, 164
 Salvation, 12, 87, 169; as central matter of Christianity, 165
 Samaria, 110
 Same-sex relationships, 149
 Santa Scala, 176–177
 Sapphira, 15
 Satan, 91, 113, 136
     “Save,” 28
     Saxony, 164
     “Scandal,” 34
     Schweitzer, Albert, 87–88, 104
     Scriptural fate, 61
     Scriptures, 3, 31; from, to canon, 143–148; fulfillment of, 53;
         importance of, in Luther, 169; and “scriptures alone,” 170, 177, 179
     Scroll, 131
     Second Jewish Revolt, 168
     Second Person, of Divine Trinity, 156
     Second Vatican Council, 160
     Second World War, 13, 63, 104, 140
     Secret, 133
     Secret Book of James, 138
     Secret teachings, 129, 133, 139
     Self-definition, 182
     Septuagint, 34
     Sermon on the Mount, 35, 128,
         172
     Shakespeare, William, 83, 86
     Shepherd of Hermas, 144
     Simon (Peter), 26, 54, 62, 68, 73;
         Jesus's appearance to, 24
     Sistine Chapel, 164
     Sola scriptura, sola fides, 169, 177
     Solomon, 28
     Son of God, 8, 65, 90, 91, 100,
         116, 117, 146
     Son of God, identification of Jesus
         as, 8
     Son of Man, identification of Jesus
         as, 41, 93, 116, 117

Index

- Sophocles, 79–80, 83–85; Antigone, 83; Oedipus at Colonus, 85; Oedipus the King, 83
- Sorrow, 50, 51
- Spiritual attention, 58
- Spiritual Christians, 135
- Spiritual counterculture, 145
- Staupitz, Johannes von, 175, 176
- Stevens, Wallace, 185
- Stories, 38
- Stout, Jeffrey, 40
- Strauss, David Friedrich, 104
- “Student,” 39
- Suffering, 23, 35–36, 46; anticipation of, 45
- Synoptic*, 6
- Synoptic gospels, 6, 9, 10; John’s intention to replace, 180, 186; Luther’s demotion of, 173
- Syria, 20
- T
- Tatian, 146
- Temptation, 42–45, 49; false, 96; in John, 108; in Luke, 63; in Mark, 63; in Matthew, 63; religious, 44; in Synoptic story of Gethsemane, 68–69
- Tertullian of Carthage, 158, 162, 165
- Tetelesthai*, 107
- Tetzl, Bishop, 175
- That Jesus Christ Was Born a Jew* (Luther), 167
- Thebes, 84, 85
- Theodosius, 158
- Theology, 149, 153
- Thomas, 122, 129; authority of, 71, 108, 121, 128
- Thomas, Gospel of, 14, 121; I, 125
- Titus, 156
- Torah, 29–30, 144
- Traditions, 30–31, 159; ecclesiastical, 163, 176; episcopal conception of, 147; Luther’s war on sacred, 166
- Tragedy: as contest of wills, 58; from, to triumph, 103–124; and gospel, 89–94; as pagan Greek genre, 80; and philosophy, 81–88; relation between gospel and, 6; in Synoptic gospels, 76; and tragic endings, 94–98; and tragic questions, 98–101
- Tragedy and Comedy* (Kerr), 17, 79
- Tragic suffering (Mark), 18–19
- Tragic thinking, 8
- Trinity, 147, 149, 156, 162, 180
- Triumphalism, 35, 71, 76; change from tragedy to, 103–124
- V
- Valentinianism, 134–136, 140, 146
- Valentinus, 135, 153
- Vatican pronouncements, 144
- Vertical collision of wills, 84, 85, 105
- Vetruvius, 159
- Victorian sexual and marital morality, 187

- Violence, Jesus's response to, 52
Virgil, 135–136
Virgin Birth, 168
Vulgate, Latin. See Latin Vulgate
- W
- Watching, 62–64
Weil, Simone, 63, 157
“The Well Dressed Man with a Beard” (Stevens), 185
Western Catholic Church,
    149–150
Wholeness, 89–90
Will(s), 45–47, 51, 58, 82; collision of, 85–86, 88, 105; of God, 60, 85; of Jesus, 59–60, 85
Wisdom, 133
Wisdom of Jesus Christ
    (fragmentary document), 137
Wittenberg, Castle Church at, 164,
    171, 175
Women disciples, 23–24;
    apparition to, 26
World, end of, 182
Writings (Hebrew Bible), 144
- Y
- Yahweh, 114
Yale University, 104
- Z
- Zebedee, sons of, 48, 50
Zoroastrian Gnostics, 134