
Index

- Abrams, L., 121
Administration of Families, 146
Adolescence: as age of feeling in between, 156–158; as age of possibilities, 158–159; identity challenge of, 153–154; instability characteristic of, 154–155; self-focus of, 155–156
Adoption and Children Act (2002) [UK], 44–45
Advancing Futures Bursary program (Alberta), 27
After Care Resource Centre (New South Wales), 46
Aftercare: Irish context of, 109; Loyola House program, 111–115; St. Xavier's Boys Home program for, 107–111; Scottish perspective on, 13, 119–136. See also Youth in transition
Alberta Youth in Transition initiative (2004), 27
Anglin, J., 130
Another Kind of Home report (Scotland), 124–125
Ansell-Casey Life Skills Assessments (ACLSA), 94–95, 100*fig*
Arnett, J. J., 8, 151, 161
Australia: After Care Resource Centre (New South Wales) of, 46; Special Youth Career Program (SYC) of, 45–46
Autonomous functioning: context and overview of the problem, 90–92; lessons learned from PQJ evaluation, 96–102; need for development of, 89–90; PQJ initiative to promote, 92–96
Baker, A.J.L., 91
Bell Canada Child Welfare Research Centre, 26
Bernstein, N., 78
Bobby, 60
Boy Scouts, 141
Boys Club of America, 141
California Youth Connection (CYC), 143–144
Canada: autonomous functioning of youth in care in, 89–102; future directions of service planning for youth in, 28–29; Health and Social Services Act of, 90; initiatives underway in, 26–28; MISWAA (Modernizing Income Security for Working Age Adults) of, 15; Youth Criminal Justice Act of, 90; Youth Protection Act of, 90; youth protection offered in Quebec, 12
Canada Learning Bond, 27–28
Canadian child welfare system: future directions of service planning by, 28–29; research on youth in transition from, 9–10; youth without citizenship leaving, 11–12, 77–88
Canadian Symposium on Child and Family Services Outcomes (2003), 26
CanLAC (Canadian version of Looking After Children), 26–27
Caplan, E., 85
Case management (Lighthouse ILP), 55
Casey Family Programs (U.S.), 40–41
Casey Foundation, 95
Casey, Jim, 40
Casey National Alumni Study (U.S.), 25–26
Catholic Children's Aid Society, 78
Cathy, 59–60
Cazabon, Andrée, 34
Centre of Excellence in Child Welfare (Canada), 34

- Child Care Act (Section 45) [Ireland], 109
- Child Welfare League of America (CWLA), 141, 146
- Child Welfare League of Canada, 34, 79
- Child Welfare Outcome Indicator Matrix (Canada), 26–27
- Child Welfare Outcome Study (Canada), 26–27
- Child welfare system: Australian, 45–46; Canadian, 9–12, 28–29, 77–78; changing to benefit youth, 65–67; examining youth expertise role in, 13; international studies on, 13, 18, 18–26, 107–115, 119–136; Scottish, 13, 119–136
- Children at risk: in the developing world, 1; entering substitute care, 2–3; facilitating transition to independent living, 4–7; providing substitute care for, 1–2. See also Youth in care
- Children (Leaving Care) Act [2000, UK], 18, 43–44
- Children (Scotland) Act 1995 (CSA 1995), 125–126, 127, 131
- Children’s Act (1989) [UK], 42–43
- Children’s Aid Society (Canada), 11–12, 80
- Children’s Bureau, 146
- Conseil permanent de la jeunesse (Quebec), 91
- Corporate parenting concept, 127–131
- Crisis management (Lighthouse ILP), 55
- Crowe, K. M., 7, 13, 139, 149
- “Day at the Capitol” (CYC annual event), 143
- De-Witt-Wallace Foundation, 141
- Dixon, J., 130, 132, 133
- Education: as future success pillar, 36–37; poor outcomes for Scottish youth in care, 122
- Emerging adulthood: as age of feeling in between, 156–158; as age of identity explorations, 153–154; as age of instability, 154–155; as age of possibilities, 158–159; definition of, 152; recommendations for facilitating, 159–160; as self-focused age, 155–156
- Emotional healing, 39
- Emotional support, 55
- “Enrique’s Journey” (Los Angeles Times series), 77–78
- Erikson, E., 153
- Financial support: debate over, 40; ILP program offering, 54
- Former youth in care: Canadian research findings on, 16–17; emerging adulthood of, 152–160; international studies on outcomes of, 17–26. See also Youth in transition
- Foster Care Alumni of America, 147
- Foster Care Independence Act (FCIA) [U.S.], 25, 41–42, 140, 145
- Foster care. See Substitute care (or alternative) living environment
- Foster Club All Stars, 146–147
- FosterClub, 146
- Girl Club of America, 141
- Girl Scouts, 141
- Goffman, E., 129
- Goyette, M., 7, 12, 89, 105
- Groupe de recherche sur les inadaptations de l’enfance, 94
- Hare, F. G., 7, 11, 77, 88
- Health and Social Services Act (Canada), 90
- Homelessness Act (2002) [UK], 44
- Housing: cost considerations for, 72–73; developing independent living options for, 71–72; as future success pillar, 37–38; ILP program providing, 51–75; ILP’s scattered-site apartment model for, 60–61; supervising youth in less restrictive, 62–65. See also Independent living
- Identity: emerging adulthood as time for exploring, 153–154; as future success pillar, 38–39; Goffman’s study on loss of, 129

- Independent living: definition and meaning of, 108; definitions of common options for, 53e; facilitating transition from care to, 4–7; Irish social care system aftercare approach to, 13, 108–115; Lighthouse Youth Services (ILP) program on, 51–75; preparing youth for, 69–75; supervising youth in, 62–65. See also Housing; Substitute care (or alternative) living environment; Youth in transition
- Intergenerational interdependence norm, 34
- International studies: on Australian child welfare programs, 45–46; characteristics of youth in, 18; on Irish child welfare system, 107–115; Scottish perspective on transition, 13, 119–136; U.S./UK findings on youth leaving care, 18–26
- Ireland: examining the social care system of, 13; Loyola House program, 111–115; St. Xavier’s Boys Home of, 107–111, 113, 114, 115; Section 45 (Child Care Act 1991) of, 109
- John H. Chafee Foster Care Independence Program (U.S.), 25, 26, 140, 143
- Kroner, M. J., 7, 11, 51, 75
- Leaving Care: Throughcare and Aftercare in Scotland*, 134
- Life skills: as future success pillar, 38; ILP program offering training in, 55; preparing youth independent living, 71; promoting autonomous functioning, 89–102
- “Life Skills Guidebook,” 95
- Lighthouse Youth Services (ILP) [U.S.]: assumptions underlying scattered-site apartment model used by, 60–62; case examples of youth in housing program, 58–60; examining outcomes of, 11; housing pilot program started by, 51–52; housing program description, 52, 54; lessons learned about supervising youth from, 62–63; lessons learned on transition process from, 67–75; measuring success of housing program, 56–58; risk management/liability issues approach by, 63–65; transition services offered by, 54–56
- Los Angeles Times*, 77
- Loyola House (Ireland), 111–115
- McElwee, N., 7, 13, 107, 117
- McKenna, S., 7, 13, 107, 117
- Mann-Feder, V. R., 8
- Martin, F., 16
- Midwest Evaluation of Adult Functioning of Former Foster Youth: (U.S.), 25, 26
- Millar, J., 7, 13, 117, 119, 137
- Mincer, C., 91
- MISWAA (Modernizing Income Security for Working Age Adults) [Toronto], 15
- Multi-Site Evaluation of Foster Youth Programs (U.S.), 25, 26
- National 4-H program, 141
- National Collaboration for Youth, 141
- National Foster Care Coalition, 140, 147
- National Foster Care Month campaign, 140
- National Independent Living Association, 140, 147
- National Youth in Care Network (Canada), 34, 87
- National Youth Development Bureau, 141
- National Youth-in-Transition Database (U.S.), 25
- Nazario, S., 77
- Need to remourn, 6
- New York Times*, 77, 78
- O’Connor, M., 7, 13, 107, 117
- Olson, D., 91
- The Orphan Country* (Abrams), 121
- Pape Adolescent Resource Centre (PRAC) [Toronto], 81–83

- Pathways (assessment tool), 134–136
- Poor Law (Scotland) Act 1845, 120
- Portrait synthèse du jeune et de sa famille, 94
- PQJ (Projet Qualification des jeunes) [Quebec]: assessment of youth in, 94–95, 97*t*, 100*fig*; clients served by, 93; description of program, 92–93; intervention objectives, process, and strategies, 94–96
- Promoting Positive Outcomes for Youth From Care Project (University of Victoria), 17
- Quarriers Homes (England), 121
- Regina, 56–57
- Reid, C., 7, 10, 33, 49
- Relationships: adolescence explorations with, 153; as future success pillar, 36; PQJ evaluation lessons on issues of, 96–99
- Remourning, 6
- St. Xavier's Boys Home (Ireland): comparing Loyola House to, 113, 114; description and focus of, 107–108; key worker system at, 110–111; lessons learned from, 115; milestones used at, 111; supportive and consistent environment of, 109–110
- SARIMM (Service d'aide aux réfugiés et aux immigrants du Montréal Métropolitain) [Quebec], 85–86, 87
- Scattered-site apartment program model (Lighthouse ILP), 60–61
- Scottish child welfare system: Another Kind of Home report on, 124–125; aspiration and inspirations for, 126–127; challenge of aftercare of young offenders in, 123–124; Children (Scottish child welfare system) Act 1995 (CSA 1995), 125–126, 127, 131; corporate parenting concept used in, 127–131; examining care/aftercare practices by, 13, 119; needs not deeds approach by, 122–123; Pathways assessment tool, 134–136; poor educational/economic outcomes of youth in, 122; Poor Law (Scotland) Act 1845, 120; Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968, 122; Still a Bairn? report, 132–134; Supporting Young People in Scotland: and, 133–134; Victorian cultural/historic factors impacting, 120–122, 126
- Section 45 (Child Care Act 1991) [Ireland], 109
- Separated child, 78–79
- September 11, 2001, 78
- Silva-Wayne, S., 16
- Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968, 122
- Solidarité Jeunesse program (Quebec), 90
- Special Youth Career Program (SYC) [Australia], 45–46
- Standards of Excellence for Transition, Independent Living and Self-Sufficiency Services (TILSS), 141
- Stein, M., 130, 132, 133
- Still a Bairn?* report (Scotland), 132–134
- Substitute care (or alternative) living environment: Casey Family Programs (U.S.) as private, 40–41; challenges of, 3–4; definition of term, 90; entering, 2–3; facilitating transition to independent living, 4–7; leaving, 4–6; providing children at risk with, 1–2. See also Independent living; Youth in care
- Supporting Young People in Scotland, 133
- TILSS (Transition, Independent Living and Self-Sufficiency Services), 141
- Title IV-E Independent Living Initiative (1986) [U.S.], 25
- Toronto Globe and Mail*, 77
- Transition from care. See Youth in transition
- Transitional Year Program (University of Toronto), 27
- Trevor, 59
- Tweddle, A., 7, 9, 15, 31
- UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, 80, 87–88
- Unaccompanied minors: future directions of studies/policies for, 87–88;

- interviews with child welfare personnel on, 81–83; interviews with others regarding, 85–86; interviews with, 83–85; literature on, 78–80; preliminary implications regarding, 86–87; study of Canadian welfare system and, 11–12, 77–88; transition and vulnerability of, 80–81
- UNHCR (United Nations High Commission for Refugees), 79, 80
- United Kingdom: Adoption and Children Act (2002) of, 44–45; Children (Leaving Care) Act [2000] of, 18, 43–44; Children's Act (1989) of, 42–43; Homelessness Act (2002) of, 44; youth leaving care studies in, 18–25
- United Nations High Commission for Refugees (UNHCR), 79, 80
- United States: Casey Family Programs of, 40–41; Foster Care Independence Act (FCIA) of, 25, 41–42, 140, 145; Title IV-E Independent Living Initiative (1986) of, 25; youth leaving care studies in, 18–25
- University of Toronto's Transitional Year Program, 27
- University of Victoria (Canada), 17
- University of York (Scotland), 132
- U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, 140–141
- U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, 25, 146
- U.S. Homeland Security, 78
- U.S. Homeland Security Immigration Statistics Yearbook, 79
- U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, 78
- Voices for America's Children (U.S.), 25
- Wards of the Crown* (film), 34
- YMCA, 141
- Youth advisory boards, 142–145
- Youth in care: increasing number of, 16; MISWAA study of, 15; promoting autonomous functioning of, 89–102. See also Children at risk; Former youth in care; Substitute care (or alternative) living environment
- Youth Criminal Justice Act (Canada), 90
- Youth development: incorporating youth expertise partnership in, 142–148; programs for, 140–142
- Youth engagement: as future success pillar, 39; through involvement in service planning, 142–148
- Youth expertise: embracing youth as partners through, 139; examining use of, 13; including at macro level of planning, 146–147; including at micro level of service design, 145–146; interviews with unaccompanied minors, 83–85; moving beyond youth advisory boards, 142–145; recommendations for successful transition by Canadian, 28–29
- Youth Protection Act (Canada), 90
- Youth in transition: Canadian research on, 9–10; Casey study predicting outcomes for, 25–26; examining international examples of best practices, 10–11; facilitating process of, 4–7; future directions of Canadian service planning for, 28–29; international studies on, 18–26; Irish social care system approach to, 13, 107–115; lessons learned about, 67–75; need to remourn and, 6; research on process of, 33–34; seven pillars and foundation for, 35–40; study of unaccompanied minors in Canada, 11–12, 77–88; supervising in less restrictive housing, 62–65. See also Aftercare; Former youth in care; Independent living
- Youth in Transition initiative (2004) [Alberta], 27
- Youth in transition pillars: education, 36–37; emotional healing, 39; foundation of financial support, 40; housing, 37–38; identity, 38–39; life skills, 38; relationships, 36; youth engagement, 39