

Index

• Numerics •

1-2-3 MAGIC: Effective Discipline for Children 2–12 (Phelan), 281

• A • academics

- attention seekers struggling with, 166
- dealing with struggles with, 200–202
- developing study skills, 202–203
- homework guidelines, 203–204
- homework tips, 204–205
- preparing for exams, 205–207
- pressures on teens, 153
- skills for preparing for primary school, 194 acceptance

- giving teen, 155
- stage of grief, 243

accomplishments, versus effort, praising for, 39 action

- developing response to bullying, 226
- importance of taking, 15
- improving partner relationship with, 110
- showing love through, 33–36
- teaching accountability for, 43, 127–128 active listening. See listening activities

- changing moods with physical, 333
- encouraging friendship through, 209
- handling disappointment with physical, 212 acts of service, showing love/affection with, 35 adaptation stage, of special needs diagnosis, 272

ADD: Helping Your Child (Umansky and Steinberg Smalley), 281

ADD Success Stories: A Guide to Fulfillment for Families with Attention Deficit Disorder (Hartmann), 281

ADD/ADHD (attention deficit disorder/attention deficit hyperactive disorder)

- resources about, 281
- understanding, 278
- working with children with, 280–281

Addy, Lois (Write from the Start), 286 advice, offering teens, 154 affection

- appropriate for different developmental stages, 36
- importance of showing, 311–312
- linking accomplishments to, 38
- showing teen, 155
- ways of showing, 34–35 affirmation, showing love with, 34

alarms, enuresis, 221–222

Alexander, Louise (Hope and the Bullies), 228

All Cats Have Asperger's Syndrome (Hoopmann), 288

Always Dad: Being a Great Father During and After Divorce (Mandelstein), 250

anger

- among family members, 261
- analysing own, 183
- controlling during conflict, 101
- coping with child's over divorce, 245
- establishing family rules on, 187
- finding releases for, 306
- identifying triggers, 184–185
- importance of managing, 330
- keeping diary, 185–186
- most common triggers of parental, 184
- understanding, 182
- using 'I' messages during, 186 anger stage

- of grief, 243
- of special needs diagnosis, 272

- anxiety
 - coping with child's over divorce, 245
 - during divorce, 244
 - inhibiting learning, 201
 - appreciation
 - giving teen, 155
 - replacing complaining with, 42
 - approval, giving teen, 155
 - Asperger's syndrome
 - common characteristics, 287–288
 - understanding, 286
 - working with children with, 288–289
 - attention deficit disorder/attention deficit hyperactive disorder (ADD/ADHD)
 - resources about, 281
 - understanding, 278
 - working with children with, 280–281
 - attention, giving teen, 155
 - attention seeking
 - common behaviours, 164
 - common mistakes made with, 165
 - effects, 164–165
 - misbehaviour from, 120
 - solutions for dealing with, 165–166
 - as tantrum trigger, 144
 - underlying cause, 165
 - understanding, 164
 - Attwood, Tony (Complete Guide to Asperger's Syndrome), 288
 - autism, Asperger's syndrome, 286–289
 - auto-parenting
 - importance of avoiding, 21
 - understanding, 20
 - aware parenting, defined, 23
 - awareness
 - influencing children positively, 24–25
 - situations requiring, 23–24
- B •
- babies. See infants
 - babysitting circle, organising reciprocal, 299
 - balanced, fair, flexible discipline style, 123
 - Bandler, Dr. Richard (developer, neuro-linguistic programming), 83
 - bargaining stage, of grief, 243
 - bathing, infants of multiple births, 299–300
 - battles
 - analysing importance, 98–99
 - choosing important, 98
 - bedwetting
 - methods of stopping, 220–223
 - understanding, 218–220
 - behaviours
 - of bullying victims, 224
 - common attention-seeking, 164
 - common of children with power needs, 167
 - common to difficulty concentrating, 174
 - common to lack of self-confidence or bullying, 177
 - determining unacceptable for boundary setting, 134
 - effects of attention-seeking, 164–165
 - effects of from difficulty concentrating, 174–175
 - effects of from lack of self-confidence or bullying, 177–178
 - effects of from power-needing children, 168
 - effects of from revenge-seeking children, 171
 - encouraging positive, 124–125
 - food additives affecting, 121
 - handling conflict about unacceptable, 100
 - most irritating to parents, 184
 - need to understand negative, 163
 - reducing toddler tantrums, 144–145
 - rewarding good, 125–127
 - setting boundaries for, 131–135
 - setting up sanctions to regulate, 127–128
 - strategies for dealing with toddler, 142–143
 - typical toddler tantrum triggers, 144–145
 - understanding child's, 119–121
 - bereavement resources, 265
 - Biddulph, Stephen (Raising Boys), 45
 - birth, preparing for multiple, 295–297
 - bladder training, to stop bedwetting, 220
 - blaming
 - avoiding with sanctions, 128
 - as disrespectful behaviour, 41
 - handling conflict with, 99
 - replacing with understanding, 42

- The Blue Cross (pet bereavement resource), 265
- Blume, Judy (Blubber), 228
- body language to deal with bullying, 226 practising positive, 59 watching teens', 154
- books. See books by title or author
- boredom learning to deal with, 22
misbehaviour from, 120
- boundaries challenges of setting, 132 children seeking, 120 creating house rules, 134–135 determining expectations for, 133–134 determining unacceptable behaviours for, 134 importance of setting, 25, 314 lack of, 122 reasons for setting, 132–133 unconditional love with, 33
understanding, 131
- boys changes from puberty, 234 needs of, versus girls, 43–45
- brain, boys' versus girls', 44
- Braun, Eldon M. (The Gift of Dyslexia), 278
- breasts, handling questions about, 238
- British Association of Anger Management, 188
- Brothers and Sisters: Born to Bicker?* (Shires Sneddon), 263
- Browne, Anthony (Willy the Champ), 228
- bullying
common behaviours, 177
common mistakes dealing with, 178–179
effects, 177–178
keeping diary, 228–229
myths about, 225
responding to, 225–228 signs, 223–225
solutions for dealing with, 179–180
underlying cause, 178
understanding, 176–177
victims, 223
- Bullying Web site, bullying-related resource, 228
- Bush, President George H.W., handling embarrassment, 214
- Bush, President George W., handling embarrassment, 214
- C •
- calm helping children stay, 187–188 importance of remaining to discipline, 138–139
- Care for the Family, parental resource, 336
- carefulness, importance to discipline, 139–140
- caring, importance to discipline, 139
- CBT (cognitive behavioural therapy), treating phobias with, 231–232
- certainty, importance to discipline, 137–138
- changes, benefits of making, 14
- character attacks, handling conflict with, 100
- childcare, importance to working parents, 256
- Childhood Bereavement Network, 265
- Childline bereavement resource, 265 bullying-related resource, 228
- choices handling conflict with, 100 maintaining healthy relationships with, 106 offering toddlers, 87
- clarity, tips for in communication, 67
- cliques, dealing with, 210–211
- closed questions, versus open-ended questions, 62
- clothing preparing children for school with skills, 195
tips for working with children with dyspraxia, 284–285
- cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT), treating phobias with, 231–232
- cognitive needs, understanding, 29
- comfort, giving teen, 155
- comfort stage, of stepfamilies, 252

- communication
 - about puberty, 235–236
 - children with Asperger’s syndrome struggling with, 287
 - effective, with teens, 154
 - evaluating on skills, 68
 - fostering during early and middle childhood, 88
 - honest during divorce, 242
 - importance of listening to, 68–70
 - importance of sympathy and empathy to, 65–67
 - modifying tone of voice for improved, 63–65
 - quality time leading to, 95
 - with revenge-seeking children, 172–173
 - soft and gentle, 321
 - talking at versus talking with, 97
 - with teens, 153–154
 - ten important statements, 324–325
 - tips for clear and positive, 67
 - types of questions for, 62
 - value to stepfamilies, 253
 - community, your own as influence, 22–23
 - comparisons
 - in praise, 39
 - viewing individual children without, 302
 - complaining
 - as disrespectful behaviour, 41
 - replacing with appreciation, 42
 - Complete Guide to Asperger’s Syndrome* (Attwood), 288
 - compromise, handling conflict with, 100
 - concentration, lack of
 - common behaviours, 174
 - common mistakes dealing with, 175
 - effect of, 174–175
 - solutions for dealing with, 176
 - underlying cause, 175
 - confidence
 - building for exams, 206
 - developing school, 192–193
 - elements of inner, 92–94
 - importance to discipline, 138
 - importance to single parents, 115
 - nurturing for secondary school, 198
 - preparing children for school with, 196
 - versus self-esteem, 91
 - conflict of needs, overcoming for cooperation, 76
 - conflict stage, of stepfamilies, 252
 - conflicts
 - analysing importance, 98–99
 - choosing important, 98
 - controlling anger during, 101
 - negative ways of handling, 99–100
 - positive ways of handling, 100–101
 - resolving between siblings, 261–262
 - teaching handling of for friendship development, 208
 - confusion stage, of stepfamilies, 252
 - consistency
 - with boundaries, 131
 - developing and maintaining, 136–137
 - importance, 314–315
 - importance to discipline, 138
 - contraception, handling questions about, 237–238
 - control
 - giving to teens, 153
 - limiting interactions, 51–52
 - managing during divorce, 249
 - versus playing victim, 10–11
 - replacing with independence, 43
 - co-operation
 - creating with win-win mentality, 56–57
 - negative ways of getting, 75–76
 - ways of encouraging, 76–77
 - co-parenting, for divorced parents, 241–242
 - correction, limiting interactions, 51–52
 - Covey, Stephen (self-development group), importance of having vision, 49, 247
 - creativity, importance to discipline, 140
 - criticism
 - as disrespectful behaviour, 41
 - replacing with praise, 42
 - cultural change, children experiencing, 22
 - cursive, teaching children with dyslexia, 276–277
- D •
- Davis, Ronald D. (The Gift of Dyslexia), 278
 - death
 - bereavement resources for, 265
 - grieving process, 264–265

- importance of rituals after, 265–266
- of pets, 263–264
- decision making, improving, 14
- defensiveness, handling conflict with, 99
- defiance
 - common behaviours of children with, 167
 - common mistakes made with children with, 168–169
 - effects of upon behaviour, 168
 - solutions for dealing with children with, 169–170
 - underlying causes, 168
 - understanding, 167
- delayed parent reaction, dealing with
 - power-needy children with, 169
- denial stage
 - of grief, 243
 - of special needs diagnosis, 272
- depression, postnatal, 328–330
- depression stage, of grief, 243
- descriptive praise, efficacy of, 74–75
- destructive children
 - common behaviours, 171
 - common mistakes made with, 172
 - effects of behaviour, 171
 - solutions for dealing with, 172–173
 - underlying cause, 172
 - understanding, 170
- development, respecting child's, 78–79
- developmental milestones, for toddlers, 146
- developmental stages
 - appropriate affection for different, 36
 - dealing with basic issues of early and late teens, 89–90
 - dealing with basic issues of early and middle childhood, 88
 - friendships during, 207–208
 - importance of awareness, 86
 - infancy and toddler needs, 86–88
- diagnosis
 - ADD/ADHD, 278–281
 - Asperger's syndrome, 286–289
 - dyslexia, 274–278
 - dyspraxia, 282–286
 - gifted and talented, 289–293
 - initial responses to, 270–271
 - lack of clear, 273–274
 - stages of dealing with, 272
 - taking positive from, 270
 - taking steps after, 271–272
- diary
 - of ADD/ADHD behaviour, 281
 - keeping anger, 185–186
 - keeping bullying, 228–229
 - keeping Positive Parent Journal, 59, 307
- difficulties
 - dealing with by changing perspective, 211–212
 - handling disappointment, 212
 - handling embarrassment, 213–214
 - handling failure, 213
- disagreements, accepting, 97
- disappointment, handling, 212
- discipline
 - creating stable environment with, 31
 - encouraging positive behaviour with, 331
 - firm and fair, 316
 - importance of being careful to, 139–140
 - importance of certainty to, 137–138
 - importance of confidence to, 138
 - importance of consistency to, 136–137, 138, 314–315
 - importance of creativity to, 140
 - importance of remaining calm to, 138–139
 - importance of saying 'no,' 129–131
 - maintaining consistent during divorce, 247–248
 - setting boundaries for, 131–135
 - setting up sanctions to regulate behaviour, 127–128
 - strategies for infants, toddlers, and preschoolers, 147
 - strategies for middle childhood, 151
 - strategies for teens, 158
 - with teens, 156–159
 - tips for dealing with teens, 159–160
 - unconditional love with, 33
- discipline styles
 - balanced, fair, flexible, 123
 - controlling, 122
 - importance of respect to, 123–124
 - laid back, 122
 - overview, 121–122
- distraction
 - to deal with bullying, 227
 - managing behaviour with, 127
 - using with toddlers, 87

- divorce
- creating parenting plan for divorce, 246–247
 - dealing with changes, 245–246
 - encouraging own personal growth during, 248–249
 - financial worries, 247
 - focusing on future after, 249–250
 - handling child's fear of rejection after, 246
 - maintaining consistent discipline during, 247–248
 - maintaining routines through, 248
 - managing own emotions during, 242–244
 - overview, 239–240
 - talking with children about, 244–245
 - telling children about, 240–242
- Don't Suffer in Silence, bullying-related resource, 228
- dream diaries, helping with persistent nightmares, 218
- dreams
- fostering, 81–82
 - night terrors, 216–217
 - persistent nightmares, 218
 - preventing nightmares, 216
 - understanding, 215–216
- drink habits, changing to stop bedwetting, 221
- dyslexia
- common characteristics, 274–276
 - resources about, 278
 - understanding, 274
 - working with child with, 276–277
- Dyslexia: Practical and Easy-to-follow Advice* (Temple), 278
- dyspraxia
- common characteristics, 282–284
 - resources, 285
 - understanding, 282
 - working with children with, 284–285
- E ●
- early childhood
- characteristics of dyspraxia in, 282–284
 - dealing with basic issues, 88
 - indicators of dyslexia in, 275–276
- eating
- importance of meals together, 259–260
 - tips for working with children with dyspraxia, 285
- education. See also academics; school
- dealing with struggles with, 200–202
 - power of, 191
 - preparing for primary school, 192–197
 - preparing for secondary school, 197–199
- Educational Psychologists, seeking help from, 201
- effort, versus accomplishments, praising for, 39
- ejaculation, during puberty, 234
- Elliot, Michele (The Willow Street Kids Beat the Bullies), 228
- embarrassment, handling, 213–214
- emotional needs
- meeting teens', 155–156
 - meeting with unconditional love, 32–33
 - understanding, 29
- emotions
- changes in due to puberty, 233
 - children's, about divorce, 244–245
 - controlling own on first day of school, 196
 - dealing with during middle childhood, 150
 - importance of acknowledging, 70–71
 - inhibiting learning, 201
 - managing own during divorce, 242–244
 - over death, 264–265
 - practising acknowledging, 71–72
 - related to bedwetting, 219
 - related to night terrors, 217
 - related to nightmares, 216
 - respecting different, 73–74
 - during transition to secondary school, 198
 - value of labelling and talking about, 66
- empathy
- flexibility requiring, 314
 - importance to communication, 65–66
 - practising, 72
 - ways of improving children's, 66–67
- energy, versus accomplishments, praising for, 39
- enuresis alarms, to stop bedwetting, 221–222
- environment, handling conflict by restructuring, 100
- equality, for siblings, 258 esteem needs, understanding, 29 everyday goals, creating, 13 exams preparing for, 205–207

 teaching study skills for, 203 excitement children expecting, 22 encouraging about starting school, 193 expectations, determining for boundaries, 133–134
 exploration, children testing situations with, 120
 eye contact, for clear and positive communication, 67
 eyes, listening with, 69

• F •

Faber, Adele
 *How to Talk So Kids Will Listen and Listen
 So Kids Will Talk*, 72
 Siblings Without Rivalry: How to Help Your Children Live Together So You Can Live Too, 263 failure, handling, 213 fairness developing sibling bonds through, 258 in discipline, 316 for siblings, 258 false praise, avoiding, 39 family life, considering how children describe, 84–85 family, maintaining relationships with, 112–113 family meetings, resolving conflict with, 262 family philosophy creating ‘we’ mentality in, 55–56 creating win-win, 56–57 examining family relationships for, 51 finding family strength in, 50–51 including family in creating, 53–55 incorporating respect into, 52–53 limiting correction and control for, 51–52 family traditions, value to ‘we’ mentality, 55 fantasy, granting wishes in, 73 fantasy stage, of stepfamilies, 252
Fat Boy Swim (Forde), 228

Fathers Direct, parental resource, 339 fears alleviating school, 192–194
 during divorce, 244
 of rejection after divorce, 246 feeding, infants of multiple births, 299–300 feelings. See emotions financial issues, post-divorce, 247 firmness, in discipline, 316 firstwayforwardcds Web site, 223 flexibility as child grows, 333–334 importance of maintaining, 313–314
 with teens, 90
 value of parenting with, 79 focus, on positives, 13–14 food additives, affecting behaviour, 121 food habits, changing to stop bedwetting, 221
 Forde, Catherine (Fat Boy Swim), 228 friends maintaining relationships with, 112–113
 your own as influences, 22 friendships building for bullied victims, 227 dealing with cliques, 210–211 developing skills for, 208–209
 understanding, 207–208
 unsuitable, 209–210 frustration, as tantrum trigger, 143 fun, enjoying with child, 16 future dreaming of child’s ideal, 11–12 setting parenting goals for child’s, 12–13

• G •

Ganging Up (Gibbons), 228 genuineness, importance of, 38
 Gibbons, Alan Ganging Up, 228
 Whose Side Are You On?, 228
The Gift of Dyslexia (Davis and Braun), 278 gifted and talented children common characteristics, 290–291
 overview, 289–290
 working with, 291–293 gift-giving, showing love/affection with, 35 Gingerbread, parental resource, 338 girls

 changes from puberty, 234–235 needs of, versus boys, 43–45 giving in, messages of, 129–130 goals developing during divorce, 248–249 developing inner confidence with clear, 94
 importance, 49
 of parents of gifted and talented children, 292, 293 setting exam, 206 setting parenting, 12–13
Goodbye Mog (Kerr), 265
 Green, Dr. Christopher (Understanding ADHD), 281 grief process of over death, 264–265 stages of during divorce, 243 groups, role of for teens, 158 guarantees, providing during divorce, 241 guilt for being working parent, 256
 during divorce, 243

• H • habits, value of developing supportive, 56 handwriting resources for helping, 286 teaching children with dyslexia, 276–277

 Hartmann, Thom (ADD Success Stories: A Guide to Fulfillment for Families with Attention Deficit Disorder), 281
 Having Fun Together Wheel, using, 16
Having Twins—And More: A Parent's Guide to Multiple Pregnancy, Birth, and Early Childhood (Noble), 305 heart, listening with, 69 help finding support needed, 328 with infants of multiple births, 298–299 working parents getting, 256–257 helplines, ADD/ADHD, 281 hierarchy of needs (Maslow). See also needs interrelation of levels in, 30
 understanding, 28–30

highlighting skills, teaching, 202 Home-Start UK, parental resource, 338 homework dealing with, 204–205 guidelines for, 203–204 honesty
 during divorce, 242
 importance, 322
 Hoopmann, Kathy (All Cats Have Asperger's Syndrome), 288 Hope and the Bullies (Alexander), 228 hopeful, importance of staying, 58–59 house rules, creating, 134–135
How to Talk So Kids Will Listen and Listen So Kids Will Talk (Faber and Mazlish), 72 humour handling conflict with, 100 handling embarrassment with, 214 with toddlers, 88
 hunger, as tantrum trigger, 144 Hunt, Jean (Take Time), 286 hypnotherapy to stop bedwetting, 222–223
 treating phobias with, 231

• I •

I messages teaching children, 188
 using during anger, 186
I'd Rather Have an Iguana (Stetson Mario), 263 idealism, in teens, 157 identity, teens needing, 153 imagination, children with Asperger's syndrome struggling with, 287
In the Mind's Eye (West), 278 independence allowing mistakes, 80–81 balancing teens', 158
 dealing with during middle childhood, 150–151 desire for as toddler tantrum trigger, 143 developing slowly, 103–104 developing with responsibility, 102–103 fostering teens', 89–90
 giving to teens, 153

importance of, 101–102 importance of encouraging, 78, 315–316 inhibiting with overprotection, 81–82 replacing control with, 43 respecting child's development toward, 78–79
 too many questions inhibiting, 79–80 individuals, importance of recognising children as, 46 infancy, basic needs, 86 infants bringing home multiple birth, 297–298 characteristics of dyspraxia in, 282
 discipline strategies for, 147 welcoming new to stepfamilies, 253–254 influences common, 19–20
 your own parents as, 20 your own teachers, friends, community, society, 21–23 inner confidence, elements of, 92–94 insults, changing, 52 intention, reacting with, 23 interactions limiting correcting and controlling, 51–52 maintaining with teens, 153–154 interests
 fostering teens, 153
 knowing/sharing child's, 96 interrupting, importance of avoiding, 48 involvement assessing parental, 95 importance, 313

• J • jealousy, among siblings, 260

 Jenkins, C. (Weep Not for Me), 265 Johnson, Spencer (Who Moved My Cheese?), 14 journal, positive parenting, 59, 307

• K •

Kerr, Judith (Goodbye Mog), 265
 Kidscape, bullying-related resource, 228 Kübler-Ross, Elisabeth (stages of grief work), 243

• L • labelling, feelings, 66 laid back discipline style, overview, 122 laissez faire discipline, problems with, 122 language anger-related, 186 indicators of dyslexia, 274–276 using positive, 59 laughter, importance of, 323–324 Laut, William and Sheila (Raising Multiple Birth Children), 305 learning styles, understanding, 202 lectures, with revenge-seeking children, 172 lethargy, in middle childhood, 148–149 life cycle, considering hierarchy of needs with, 30

 listening with eyes, 69 handling conflict without, 99 with heart, 69
 importance, 316–317
 importance to communication, 68–69 repeating back after, 69–70 showing love by, 36–38 lists, preparing for school with, 195 Littman, Ellen (Understanding Girls with AD/HD), 281
 Local Education Authority, seeking help from, 201
 location, knowing child's, 324 long-term goals, creating, 12–13 looking back, imagining, 60 love importance of showing, 33–34, 311–312
 meeting emotional needs with, 32–33 showing by listening, 36–38 showing by praising, 38–39
 showing teen, 155
 showing with respect, 40–43
 ways of showing, 34–35
 loving discipline, understanding, 121

• M •

Make a Date with Myself Wheel, 108–109 Mandelstein, Paul (Always Dad: Being a Great Father During and After Divorce), 250

- Maslow, Abraham (hierarchy of needs) interrelation of levels in hierarchy of needs, 30 understanding hierarchy of needs, 28–30
- masturbation, handling questions about, 237
- mathematical concepts, activities to encourage, 194
- maturity, assessing child's, 102
- Mazlish, Elaine
How to Talk So Kids Will Listen and Listen So Kids Will Talk, 72
Siblings Without Rivalry: How to Help Your Children Live Together So You Can Live Too, 263
- me time importance of quality, 108–109
 for parents of multiple birth children, 305–307
- meals, importance of eating together, 259–260
- media, awareness of teens choices in, 153
- medication, to stop bedwetting, 222
- medium-term goals, creating, 13
- memories, valuing building of, 55
- menstruation, during puberty, 234–235
- messages children responding to parental, 120 key divorce, 240–241 teaching children 'I,' 188 using 'I' during anger, 186
- middle childhood awkward questions during, 149 characteristics of dyspraxia in, 284
 dealing with basic issues, 88 dealing with independence, 150–151 dealing with moodiness and emotions during, 150 dealing with negotiation during, 149 discipline strategies for, 151
 indicators of dyslexia in, 275–276 lethargy in, 148–149
 understanding, 148
- mind maps, teaching creation, 203
- misbehaviour. See behaviours
- mistakes commonly made dealing with difficulty concentrating, 175 commonly made with attention-seeking behaviour, 165 commonly made with bullying or lack of self-confidence, 178–179 commonly made with children with power needs, 168–169 commonly made with revenge-seeking children, 172 value of making, 80–81
- moodiness dealing with during middle childhood, 150 from puberty, 233 in teens, 153, 157
- movement, adding to study skills, 203
- multiple births bringing home infants, 297–298 encouraging individuality of children, 302–305 feeding and bathing infants, 299–300 getting help with infants, 298–299
 preparing for, 295–297
 sleep considerations for infants, 301
- myths about bullying, 225 about stepfamilies, 251–252
- N ●
- Nadeau, Kathleen (Understanding Girls with AD/HD), 281
- nagging
 as disrespectful behaviour, 41
 replacing with support, 42
- Nash-Wortham, Mary (Take Time), 286
- National Childminding Association, parental resource, 339
- National Council for One-Parent Families, parental resource, 338
- National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, on smacking, 180
- needs. See also specific needs focusing on child's during divorce, 246 for friendships, 207–208 girls' versus boys', 43–45 hierarchy of, 28–30 importance of parents looking after own, 108–109 importance of understanding, 28 meeting teens' emotional, 155–156 security and stability, 31–32 parents' orientation to teens' needs, 161 negative parents, versus positive parents, 17, 58 negativity, counteracting with positive messages, 91 negotiation dealing with during middle childhood, 149

 with teens, 159
 neuro-linguistic programming (NLP) technique, seeing child's perspective with, 83–84 night lifting, to stop bedwetting, 221 night terrors, understanding, 216–217 nightmares dealing with persistent, 218 preventing, 216
 understanding, 215–216
 'no,' importance of saying, 129–131
 Noble, Elizabeth (Having Twins—And More: A Parent's Guide to Multiple Pregnancy, Birth, and Early Childhood), 305 noise, preparing children for school, 196 nonverbal communication learning to read, 66–67
 with teens, 154
 note-taking skills, teaching, 202 nurseries. See also school end-of-the-day activities, 196 importance of previewing, 192–193 as preparation for primary school, 192

● 0 ●

1-2-3 MAGIC: Effective Discipline for Children 2–12 (Phelan), 281
 one-way dialogues, versus talking with your child, 36–38

open-ended questions developing communication with, 62 inviting conversation with, 38 opinions, respecting developing child's, 88 organisation importance of teaching, 320 needed for secondary school, 199
 tips for working with children with dyspraxia, 285 over-generalising, handling conflict with, 99 overprotection, inhibiting independence with, 81–82

● p ● panic attacks, from phobias, 220 parent coaching, benefits of, 10 parent groups, importance to single parents, 115 parental involvement, assessing, 95 Parentalk, parental resource, 335–336 parenting philosophy, considering, 12–13 Parentline Plus bullying-related resource, 228 parental resource, 337 parents considering how children describe, 84–85

 your own as influences, 20
 Parents at Work, parental resource, 337 partners introducing new to children, 115–116
 maintaining relationships with, 109–110 nurturing relationship with new, 253 support from for working parents, 256 patience with toddlers, 87
 value of practising, 136, 321 paying attention, showing love by, 37 peers, role of for teens, 158 penises, handling questions about, 238 perception, maintaining positive, 13–14 permissiveness, versus setting limits, 33 persisting factors, of dyslexia, 274 personal growth, encouraging during divorce, 248–249

- personal space, importance of respecting, 322
- perspective
- considering how children describe parents/family life, 84–85
 - dealing with difficulties by changing, 211–212
 - on failure, 213
 - inviting child's, 37
 - understanding bedwetting with, 219–220
 - using NLP technique to see child's, 83–84
 - viewing divorce from child's, 241
 - viewing situations from others', 57–58
- Phelan, Thomas W. (1-2-3 MAGIC: Effective Discipline for Children 2–12), 281
- phobias
- treating, 231–232
 - types of, 220
 - understanding, 229
- physical activity
- changing moods with, 333
 - handling disappointment with, 212
- physical touch, showing love/affection with, 34
- physiological needs, understanding, 29
- planning
- to deal with bullying, 226
 - for exams, 205
 - importance, 11
 - parenting issues after divorce, 246–247
 - personal goals during divorce, 248–249
- play, importance of, 319–320
- pleasure, bringing back into parenting, 15–16
- PMS (premenstrual syndrome), teaching
- about, 235
- positive attitude, importance of having, 58–59, 332–333
- Positive Parent Journal
- keeping, 307
 - using, 59
- Positive Parenting Publications and Programmes (Time Out for Anger Handbook), 188
- Positive Parents Confident Kids Coaching, 10
- positive parents, versus negative parents, 17, 58
- positive self-talk, to deal with bullying, 227
- positive thinking
- counteracting negativity with, 91
 - developing inner confidence with, 94
 - importance to single parents, 115
- postnatal depression,
- understanding/dealing with, 328–330
- power-needing children
- common behaviours, 167
 - common mistakes made with, 168–169
 - effects of behaviour from, 168
 - solutions for dealing with, 169–170
 - underlying causes, 168
 - understanding, 167
- praise
- effective, 74–75
 - phrasing, 38–39
 - replacing criticism with, 42
 - rewarding good behaviour with, 126
 - with toddlers, 88
- perfect present, visualising, 307–308
- premenstrual syndrome (PMS), teaching
- about, 235
- preschoolers. See also toddlers
- characteristics of dyspraxia in, 282–283
 - discipline strategies for, 147
 - indicators of dyslexia in, 274–275
- Preuschoff, Gisela (Raising Girls), 45
- pride, versus respect, 40
- primary school. See also school
- academic skills to prepare for, 194–195
 - end-of-the-day activities, 196
 - preschool as preparation for, 192
- priorities, working parents setting, 255–256
- privacy, importance of respecting, 322
- private time, importance to single parents, 115
- problem-solving skills
- handling conflict with, 100
 - rescues inhibiting, 80–81
- puberty
- changes in boys during, 234
 - changes in girls during, 234–235
 - emotional changes, 233 handling common questions about, 236–238 physical changes, 232–233 talking about, 235–236

 understanding, 232
 pubic hair, handling questions about, 238 punishing, as disrespectful behaviour, 42 punishment. See also discipline; smacking balancing with rewards, 125 defined, 127
 replacing with responsibility, 43 shifting to sanctions from, 127

• Q • quality time building self-esteem with, 94–96 finding for self, 108–109 giving things versus, 130

 importance, 313
 rewarding good behaviour with, 126 showing love/affection with, 35 talk, creating for clear and positive communication, 67 questions avoiding too many, 79–80 awkward during middle childhood, 149 critical divorce, 240–241 developing communication with open-ended, 62 handling common puberty, 236–238 inviting conversation with open-ended, 38 power of effective, 63
 Quinn, Patricia (Understanding Girls with AD/HD), 281

• R •

Raising Boys (Biddulph), 45
Raising Girls (Preuschoff), 45
Raising Multiple Birth Children (Laut), 305 Rapid Eye Movement (REM) stage, dreams during, 215 reading encouraging, 205 helping children with dyslexia, 277

reassurances, providing during divorce, 241 recitation skills, teaching, 203 recording skills, teaching, 203 reflective reactions importance of awareness, 24 rejection, fear of after divorce, 246 Relate, parental resource, 337 relationship-based bullying, 223 relationships assessing attitudes about, 106–108 developing with children, 110–112 examining family, 51 importance of me time to, 108–109 importance of self-care to, 106 maintaining all, 331–332 maintaining partner, 109–110 maintaining with friends and family, 112–113 with secondary school teachers, 197 staying in control, 105–106 relaxation techniques, teaching for exams, 206 REM (Rapid Eye Movement) stage, dreams during, 215 repeating, after listening, 69–70 rescues, inhibiting independence with, 80–81 resentment stage, of grief, 243 resources
 ADD/ADHD, 281
 autism and Asperger's syndrome, 288 bereavement, 265 bullying-related, 228 for dads of divorce, 250
 dyslexia, 278
 dyspraxia, 285
 for parents, 335–340
 for parents of multiple-birth children, 299, 305
 puberty, 238
 sibling rivalry, 263 spending all financial on children, 129 respect
 building self-esteem with, 96–97 for child's development, 78–79 of different feelings, 73–74

- respect (continued)
- importance, 317
 - importance to chosen discipline style, 123–124
 - incorporating in family philosophy, 52–53
 - versus prides, 40
 - showing love with, 40–43
- responsibility
- developing independence with, 102–103
 - versus playing victim, 10–11
 - replacing punishment with, 43
- revenge-seeking children
- common behaviours, 171
 - common mistakes made with, 172
 - effects of behaviour, 171
 - solutions for dealing with, 172–173
 - underlying cause, 172
 - understanding, 170
- revision notes, teaching preparation of for exams, 206
- rewards
- balancing punishment with, 125
 - encouraging self, for exam preparation, 206
 - for good behaviour, 125–127
 - for homework, 205
- rhyiming games, teaching children with dyslexia, 277
- rituals, importance of after death, 265–266
- role models
- acting as positive, 24–25
 - children responding to
 - negative/inconsistent, 120
 - during divorce, 242–243
 - importance of acting as, 312
- role playing, to deal with bullying, 226
- routines
- building organisation into daily, 320
 - children with Asperger's syndrome
 - loving, 288
 - maintaining through divorce, 248
 - preventing nightmares with, 216
 - previewing nursery, 192–193
 - for toddlers, 87
 - value of family developing, 56
- rules
- creating house, 134–135
 - creating stable environment with, 31–32
 - establishing family anger, 187
 - importance of setting, 314
 - resolving conflict with, 262
 - setting, 131
 - value of family developing, 56
- S •
- sadness stage, of special needs diagnosis, 272
- safer sex, handling questions about, 237–238
- safety
- importance, 323
 - knowing child's location, 324
 - for toddlers, 87
- safety needs
- creating secure, stable environment for, 31–32
 - understanding, 29
- sanctions
- versus punishments, 127
 - using, 128
- Sax, Dr. Leonard (stress research), 44–45
- scenes, fear of causing, 129
- schedules, during exam time, 206
- school
- dealing with problems at, 200–202
 - developing study skills, 202–203
 - friendship issues during, 207–211
 - homework guidelines, 203–204
 - homework tips, 204–205
 - importance of involvement in, 200
 - preparing for exams, 205–207
 - preparing for primary, 192–197
 - preparing for secondary, 197–199
 - secondary school. See also school
 - nurturing confidence for, 198
 - preparing for, 198–199
 - transition to, 197–198
- security
- children's needs for, 31–32
 - giving teen, 155
- self, toddlers developing sense, 145
- self-actualisation, understanding, 30
- self-belief, encouraging, 91–92
- self-care
- importance to parents, 106
 - importance to single parenting, 114–115

- self-confidence, lack of
 - common behaviours, 177
 - common mistakes dealing with, 178–179
 - effects, 177–178
 - solutions for dealing with, 179–180
 - underlying cause, 178
 - understanding, 176–177
- self-esteem
 - building bullied victim's, 226
 - building with quality time, 94–96
 - building with respect, 96–97
 - elements of inner confidence, 92–94
 - encouraging self-belief and self-image for, 91–92
 - praise for, 38–39
 - understanding, 90–91
- self-image, encouraging, 91–92
- self-judgement, for failure, 213
- self-knowledge, developing inner confidence with, 93
- self-love, developing inner confidence with, 92–93
- self-testing, teaching child, 203
- sense of purpose, developing inner confidence with clear, 94
- Seymour, Jane (Two at a Time: Having Twins; The Journey Through Pregnancy and Birth), 305
- shame, during divorce, 243
- shapes, teaching concepts, 195
- sharing, developing sibling bonds through, 258
- Shires Sneddon, Pamela (Brothers and Sisters: Born to Bicker?), 263
- shock stage, of special needs diagnosis, 272
- sibling rivalry
 - overview, 257–258
 - resources on, 263
- siblings
 - building bonds between, 258–259
 - in conflict, 98
 - defined, 257
 - guidelines for improving relationships among, 261
 - importance of eating together, 259–260
 - jealousy among, 260
 - resolving conflicts between, 261–262
 - teens reacting to younger, 158–159
- Siblings Without Rivalry: How to Help Your Children Live Together So You Can Live Too* (Faber and Mazlish), 263
- sincerity, importance of, 38
- single parenting
 - challenge of, 113–114
 - importance of self-care to, 114–115
 - introducing new partners to children, 115–116
- size, teaching concepts of, 195
- sleep
 - dealing with toddler issues with, 146–148
 - helping babies to, 298
 - with newborns, 301
 - preventing nightmares, 216
 - understanding dreams/nightmares during, 215
- smacking
 - alternatives to, 181–182
 - overview, 180–181
 - problems with, 181
- social phobia, 220
- social skills
 - attention seekers struggling with, 166
 - children with Asperger's syndrome struggling with, 287
 - developing bullied victim's, 226
 - teaching for friendship development, 208
 - toddlers developing, 145–146
- society, as parenting influence, 22–23
- sorrow, during divorce, 243
- special interests, children with Asperger's syndrome having, 287–288
- special needs
 - ADD/ADHD, 278–281
 - Asperger's syndrome, 286–289
 - dyslexia, 274–278
 - dyspraxia, 282–286
 - finding positive in diagnosis, 270
 - gifted and talented, 289–293
 - homework guidelines for children with, 204
 - initial responses to diagnosis, 270–271
 - lack of clear diagnosis about, 273–274
 - overview, 269
 - taking steps after diagnosis, 271–272
- specificity, in praise, 38
- stability
 - children's needs for, 31–32
 - value of developing, 56

- stages. See also developmental stages
 - of dealing with special needs diagnosis, 272
 - of grief, 243
 - of stepfamilies, 252
 - stars
 - rewarding good behaviour with, 127
 - to stop bedwetting, 222
 - statements, ten important, 324–325
 - Steinberg Smalley, Barbara (ADD: Helping Your Child), 281
 - stepfamilies
 - blending versus cooking, 252
 - myths about, 251–252
 - stages, 252
 - welcoming new babies to, 253–254
 - stepping back, sharing perspectives by, 57–58
 - stereotyping, gender issues with, 45
 - Stetson Mario, Heidi (I'd Rather Have an Iguana), 263
 - stickers, rewarding good behaviour with, 127
 - stonewalling, handling conflict with, 100
 - strategies
 - co-parenting for divorced parents, 241–242
 - for dealing with toddlers, 142
 - discipline for infants, toddlers, and preschoolers, 147
 - discipline for middle childhood, 151
 - discipline for teens, 158
 - strength, finding family, 50–51
 - stress
 - boys' versus girls' response to, 44–45
 - coping with, 330–331
 - helping children avoid, 187–188
 - importance of managing, 328–329
 - inhibiting learning, 201
 - night terrors from, 217
 - nightmares from, 216
 - organisation reducing, 320
 - understanding connection with anger, 183
 - working parents reducing morning, 257
 - study zone, creating, 204
 - success, celebrating, 334
 - support groups, importance to single parents, 115
 - support, replacing nagging and threatening with, 42
 - sympathy
 - importance to communication, 65–66
 - ways of improving children's, 66–67
- T ●
- Take Time* (Nash-Wortham and Hunt), 286
 - talents, versus effort, praising for, 39
 - talk
 - value of positive and calm, 67
 - value to 'we' mentality, 55
 - tantrums
 - parental, triggers, 184–185
 - typical triggers for toddlers, 143–144
 - ways of reducing, 144–145
 - teachers
 - importance of getting to know, 192–193
 - maintaining relationships with, 200
 - relationships with secondary school, 197
 - your own as influences, 21
 - teasing, versus bullying, 225
 - teens
 - communicating with, 153–154
 - dealing with basic issues, 89–90
 - developmental changes, 152
 - discipline tips for dealing with, 159–160
 - effective communication strategies for, 154
 - indicators of dyslexia in, 275–276
 - meeting emotional needs, 155–156
 - negotiating with, 159
 - parents attending to needs of, 161
 - physical changes, 151–152
 - responding appropriately to, 156–159
 - understanding, 151–152
 - ways of "switching off," 156
 - Temple, Robin (Dyslexia: Practical and Easy-to-follow Advice), 278
 - Teodorescu, Ion (Write from the Start), 286 testing, for school struggles, 201 tests

- preparing for exams, 205–207
- teaching study skills for, 203

third-person technique, dealing with

- children with power needs with, 169 threatening

- as disrespectful behaviour, 42
- replacing with support, 42

three D's, controlling time with, 315 time management

- maintaining healthy relationships with, 106
- using three D's for, 315

Time Out for Anger Handbook (Positive Parenting Publications and Programmes), 188 timing, praise, 39

tiredness, as tantrum trigger, 144

toddlers

- assessing root of behavioural problems, 142–143
- characteristics of dyspraxia in, 282
- dealing with basic issues, 87–88
- dealing with sleep issues, 146–148
- developmental changes in, 145
- developmental milestones for, 146
- discipline strategies for, 147
- indicators of dyslexia in, 274–275
- reducing tantrums in, 144–145
- strategies for dealing with, 142
- typical behaviour, 141–142
- typical tantrum triggers, 143–144 toilet skills, preparing children for school with, 195 tone of voice

- considering, 63
- matching children's, 63–64
- value of modifying, 64–65 traditions, developing new stepfamily, 253

transitions

- easing between divorced parents, 247
- easing into school, 195
- guidelines for stepfamily, 253
- to secondary school, 197–198 treats

- giving for every upset, 130
- rewarding good behaviour with, 126

triplets

- bringing home, 297–298
- encouraging individuality, 302–305
- feeding and bathing, 299–300
- getting help with, 298–299
- preparing for birth, 295–297
- sleep considerations, 301

truth. See honesty twins

- bringing home, 297–298
- encouraging individuality, 302–305
- feeding and bathing, 299–300
- getting help with, 298–299
- preparing for birth, 295–297
- sleep considerations, 301

Two at a Time: Having Twins; The Journey Through Pregnancy and Birth (Seymour), 305

• U •

Umansky, Warren (ADD: Helping Your Child), 281

unconditional love. See also love

- defined, 32
- meeting emotional needs with, 32–33

Understanding ADHD (Green), 281

Understanding Girls with AD/HD (Nadeau, Littman and Quinn), 281 understanding, replacing blaming with, 42

unhappiness

- inhibiting learning, 201
- misbehaviour from, 120–121

unity, developing sibling bonds through, 258–259 unsuitable friendships, 209–210

• V • values, identifying, 18–19

verbal expressions, choosing with care, 97

Victim Support, bullying-related resource, 228

victims
 of bullying, 223 identifying and helping bullied, 223–225 problems of acting like, 10–11 teaching to respond to bullying, 225–228 vision, importance of, 49 visualisation, of perfect present, 307–308

• W •

‘we’ mentality, creating, 55–56 Web sites on ADD/ADHD, 281 on autism and Asperger’s syndrome, 288 bullying-related resources, 228 for dads of divorce, 250 on dyslexia, 278 on dyspraxia, 285 for parental resources, 335–340
 for parents of multiple-birth children, 305 resources about puberty, 238
Weep Not for Me (Jenkins), 265 weight, teaching concepts of, 195

 West, Thomas (In the Mind’s Eye), 278
Who Moved My Cheese? (Johnson), 14
Whose Side Are You On? (Gibbons), 228
The Willow Street Kids Beat the Bullies
 (Elliot), 228
Willy the Champ (Browne), 228
 Winston’s Wish (bereavement resource), 265 win-win mentality creating co-operation with, 56–57
 importance, 15 wishes, granting in fantasy, 73 withdrawal, in teens, 157 words of affirmation, showing love with, 34 working parents assessing imbalance of life, 255–256 guidelines for balancing life, 256–257
 overview, 254
 worries, about secondary school, 197 Write from the Start (Teodorescu and Addy), 286

